CHAP. XXVIII.

6 The resurrection of Christ. 10 The brethren of Christ. 12 The hie Priestes bribe the souldiers. 17 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and sendeth them forth to preach, and to baptize, 20 Promising to them continuall assistance.

Now in the * end of the Sabbath, when the first day of the weeke began to dawne, Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary came to see the sepulchre.

2 And beholde, there was a great earthquake: for the * Angel of the Lord descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and sat vpon it.

3 And his countenance was like lightening, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for feare of him, the keepers were astonied, and became as dead men.

5 But the Angel answered, & saide to the women, feare pe not: for I know that pe seeke Iesus which was crucified:

6 He is not here, for he is risen, as he said: come, see the place where the Lord was laid,

7 And go quickly, and tel his disciples that he is risen from the dead: and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee: there ye shall see him: lo, I haue tolde you.

8 So they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare and great^d ioy, and did runne to bring his disciples worde.

9 And as they went to tel his disciples, behold, Iesus also met them, saying, God saue you. And they came, & tooke him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then saide Iesus vnto them, Be not afraid. Goe, and tell my brethren, that they go into Galile, and there shall they see me.

11 Now when they were gone, beholde, some of the watch came vnto the citie, and shewed vnto the hie Priests al the things that were done.

12 And they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counsell, and gaue large money vnto the souldiers, 13 Saying, Say, His disciples came by night, & stole him away while he slept.

14 And if the gouernour heare of this, we wil perswade him, and saue you harmeles.

15 So they tooke the money, & did as they were taught: and this * saying is noted among the Iewes vnto this day.

16 ¶ Then the eldren disciples went into Galile, into a mountaine, where Iesus had appointed them.

17 And when they sawe him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Iesus came, & spake vnto them, saying, * All power is giuen vnto me in heauen, and in earth.

19 ¶ * Therefore, & teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Sonne, and the holy Ghost,

20 Teaching them to obserue al things, whatsoeuer I^e haue commanded you: and lo, * I am with you alway, vntill the * ende of the worlde, Amen.

CHAP. I.

9 The office, doctrine and life of Iohn the Baptist.
9 Christ is baptized, 13 And tempted. 14 He preacheth. 17 Calleth the fishers. 23 Christ healeth the man with the unclean spirit. 27
New doctrine. 29 He healeth Peters mother in law. 32 The devils knowe him. 41 He clenseth the leper, and healeth divers others.

Ye beginning of the Gospel of Ie-sus Christ, the sonne
of God;

As it is written in the Prophetes, Behold, I sende
my messenger
before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes is, Prepare the way of the Loid: make his paths straight.
4 * Iohn did baptize in the wildernes, and preach the baptisme of an abatement of life, for remission of finnes.

5 And at the countrey of Iudea, and they of Jerusalem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the iuaner Jordan, confessing their finnes.

6 * Now Iohn was clothed with camels haire, and with a girdel of a skune as hour his loynes: and he did eate * Locutes and wilde honey,
* And preached, saying, A stronger then I, cometh after me, whose shoos I ac-teth I am not worthy to stoope down, and binde.

8 Truly it is, I haue * baptized you with water: but he wil baptize you with the holie Ghost.

9 * And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazaret a cite of Galile, and was baptized of Iohn in Jordan.

10 And as soon as he was come out of the water, Iohn saw the heauens clouen in twaine, and the holie Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

11 Then there was a voyce from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued sonne, in whom I am wel pleased.

12 * And immediatly the Spirite dis-ceth him into the wildernes.

13 And he was there in the wildernesse fourtie dayes, and was tempted of Satan: he was also with the wilde beastes, and the Angels ministred vnto him.

14 * Now after that Iohn was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galis le, preaching the Gospel of the kingdome of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hande: repent and beleue the Gospel.

16 * And as he walked by the sea of Galile, he sawe Simon, & Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.)

17 Then Iesus said vnto them, Followe me, and I wil make you to be fishers of men.

18 And straight way they forsooke their nettes, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, he sawe James the sonne of Ze-bedeus, and Iohn his brother, as they were in the ship, mending their nettes.

20 And anon he called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the ship with his hired seruants, & went their way after him.

21 * So * they entred into Capernaum, and straight way on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonied at his doctrine: * for they sawe that as one that had authoritie, & not as the scribes.

23 * And there was in their Synagogue a man which had an unclean spirit, and he c. ped,

24 Saying, Wh, what haue we to do with thee, O Iesus of Nazaret? Art thou come to destroy vs? I know thee what thou art, euen that holie one of God.

25 And Iesus re taked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And the unclean spirit rare him, and cryed w. th a loude voyce, and came out of him.

27 And they were all amased, so that they demanded one of another, saying, What thing is this? what a new doctrine is this? for he commandeth the foule spirits with authoritie, & they obey him.

28 And immediatly he came byed as bride throughout al the region bordering on Galile.

29 * And as soon as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and Iohn.

30 And Simons wifes mother lay sicke of a feuer, & anon they tolde him of her.
31 And he came and toke her by the hand, & lift her vp, & the feuer forsooke her by & by, & she ministred vnto them.

32 And when euen was come, and the sunne was downe, they brought to him al that were diseased, & them that were possessed with deuils.

33 And the whole cite was gathered together at the doore.

34 And he healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and he cast out many deuils,

 35 And in the morning very early, before day, Iesus arose and went out into a solitary place, and there prayed.
 36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.
 37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seeke for thee.
 38 Then he said unto them, let vs go into the next towne, that I may preach there also : for I came out for that purpose.
 39 And hee preached in their Synagogues, throughout all Galile, and cast the denils out.
 40 ¶ And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeled downe unto him, and said to him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.
 41 And Iesus had compassion, and put forth his hand, and touched him, and said to him, I will : be thou cleane.
 42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosie departed from him, and he was made cleane.
 43 And after he had given him a straight commandment, hee sent him away forthwith, 44 And said unto him, See thou say nothing to any man, but get thee hence, and shewe thy selfe to 4 the * Priest, and offer for thy cleansing those thinges, which Moses commanded, for a * testimoniall unto them.
 45 But when he was departed, * he began to tel many thinges, and to publish the matter : so that Iesus * coulde no more openly enter into ¶ citie, but was without in desert places : & they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

a He healeth them of the palse. b He forgiveth sinnes. 14 He calleth Leui the customer. 16 He eateth with sinners. 18 He excuseth his disciples, as touching fasting, and keeping the Sabbath day.
 1 After * a fewe dayes, he entered into Capernaum againe, & it was reported that he was in the ¶ house.
 2 And anon, many gathered together, in so much that the places about the doore could not receive any more : and hee preached the word unto them.
 3 And there came unto him, ¶ brought one sicke of the pallsie, boyne of foure men.
 4 And because they could not come nere unto him for the multitude, they uncovered the rooffe of the house where hee was : and when they had broken it open, they let downe the bed, wherein ¶ sicke of the pallsie lay.
 5 Nowe when Iesus saw their faith, he said to the sicke of the pallsie, Sonne, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.
 6 And there were certaine of ¶ Scribes, sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doeth this man speake such blasphemies : ¶ who can forgive sinnes, but

God onely ?
 8 And immediately when Iesus perceived in his spirit, that thus they thought with themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts ?
 9 ¶ Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the pallsie, ¶ Thy sinnes are forgiven thee : or to say, Arise, & take up thy bed, and walke ?
 10 And that ye may know, that ¶ Some of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive sinnes, (he said unto the sicke of the pallsie)
 11 ¶ I say unto thee, Arise and take up thy bed, and get thee hence into thine owne house.
 12 And he by and by he arose, and tooke up his bed, and went forth before them all, in so much that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, ¶ We never sawe such a thing.
 13 ¶ Then he went againe towards the sea, & all the people resorted unto him, and he taught them.
 14 ¶ And as Iesus passed by, he saw Iqui the sonne of Wyphreus sit at the receite of custome, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
 15 ¶ And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at table in his house, many Publicanes and sinners late at table also with Iesus, and his disciples : for there were many that followed him.
 16 And when the Scribes and Pharises sawe him eat with the Publicanes and sinners, they saide unto his disciples, Howe is it, that he eateth and drinketh with Publicanes and sinners ?
 17 Nowe when Iesus heard it, hee saide unto them, The whole have no neede of the phylsion, but the sicke. ¶ I came not to call the ¶ righteous, but the sinners to repentance.
 18 ¶ And the disciples of John, and the Pharises did fast, and came and saide unto him, Why do ¶ disciples of John and of the Pharises fast, and thy disciples fast not ?
 19 And Iesus saide unto them, Can the ¶ children of the marriage chamber fast, whyles the bridegrome is with them : as long as they have the bridegrome with them, they can not fast.
 20 But the dayes will come, when the bridegrome shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.
 21 Also no man seweth a piece of newe cloth in an old garment : for els ¶ newe piece taketh away the filling by from the olde, and the breach is worse.
 22 Likewise, no man putteth newe wine into olde vessels : for els the newe wine breaketh the vessels, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels are left : but newe wine must be put into newe vessels.
 23 ¶ And it came to passe as hee went through the countie on the Sabbath day, that his disciples, as they went on their way, beganne to plucke the eares

 2 And they watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.

 4 And he said to them, Is it lawfull to doe a good deede on the Sabbath day, or to do euill: to save the life, or to kill? But they ^h heide their peace.

 7 But Iesus auoided with his disciples to the sea: & a great multitude followed him from Galile, and from Iudea, and from Ierusalem, and from Iubusnea, & beyond Iordan: and they that dwelled about Tyus & Sidon, when they had heard what great things hee did, came vnto him in great number.
 8 And he commanded his disciples, that a ship should waite for him, because of the multitude, least they should throng him.
 9 For he had healed many, in so much that they pressed vpon him, to touch him as many as had ^h plagues.

20 And the multitude assembled againe, so that they could not so much as eate bread.

 24 For if a kingdome be denied against it selfe, that kingdome can not stand.
 25 Or if a house be denied against it selfe, that house can not continue.
 26 So if Satan make insurrection against him selfe, and be denuded, he can not endure, but is at an ende.

CHAP. XIII.

By the parables of the seed, & the mustard corne, Christ sheweth the state of the kingdome of God. 1. A speciall gift of God, to know the mysteries of his kingdome. 2. He stilleth the tempest of the sea which obeyed him.

1 And he began againe to teach by the sea side, & there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so þ he entred vnto a ship, & sat in the sea, & all the people was by the sea side on the land.

2 And he taught them many things in parables, and sayd vnto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken: Beholde, there went out a sower to sowe.

4 And it came to passe as he sowd, that some fell by the wayes side, and the foules of the heauen came and deuoured it by.

5 And some fel on stonie ground, where it had not much earth, and by and by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

6 But as soone as the sunne was vp, it caught heat, & because it had not roote, it withered away.

7 And some fell among the thornes, and the thornes grew by and choked it, so that it gaue no fruit.

8 Some againe fell in good ground, and did yeeld fruite that sprong by & grew, and it brought forth, some thirtie folde, some sixty folde, and some an hundredy folde.

9 Then he said vnto them, Ye that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, asked him of the parable.

11 And he said vnto them, To þ you it is giuen to knowe the myserie of þ kingdome of God: but vnto them that are without, all things bee done in parables.

12 * That they seeing, may see, & not discerne: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderstand, least at any time they shoulde turne, and their sinnes shoulde be forgiven them.

13 Againe he said vnto them, Perceiue þe not this parable? how then shoulde þe vnderstand all other parables?

14 The sower soweth the worde.

15 And these are they that receiue the seed by the wayes side, in whome the worde is sowne: but when they haue heard it, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the worde that was sowne in their hearres.

16 And likewise they that receiue þ seed in stonie ground, are they, which when they haue heard the worde, straght wayes receiue it with gladnes.

17 Yet haue they no roote in themselves, & endure but a time: for when trouble and persecution ariseth for the worde, immediately they be offended.

18 Also they that receiue the seed among the thornes, are such as heare the worde:

19 But the cares of this world, & the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things enter in, & choke the word, and it is unfruitfull.

20 But they that haue receiued seed in good ground, are they that heare the worde, and receiue it, and bring forth fruite, one come thirtie, another sixty, & some an hundredy.

21 ¶ Also he saide vnto them, * Is the candle lighted to be put vnder a bushel, or vnder the table, and not to be put on a candlesticke?

22 * For there is nothing hid, that shall not be opened: neither is there a secret, but that it shall come to light.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he saide vnto them, Take heed what þe heare. * With what measure þe mete, it shall be measured vnto þou: and vnto þou that heare, shall more be giuen.

25 * For vnto him that hath, shall it be giuen, & from him that hath not, shall be taken away, euen that he hath.

26 ¶ Also he said, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man shoulde cast seede in the ground,

27 And shoulde sleepe, & rise by night and day, and the seede shoulde spring and grow by, he not knowing how.

28 For of the earth bringeth forth fruite of her selfe, first the blade, then the eares, after that, full come in the eares.

40 Then he saide vnto them, Why are ye so fearefull? how is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What is this, that both the winde and the sea obey him?

they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Iesus, and saw him that had bene possessed with the deuill, and had the legion, sit both clothed, and in his right minde: and they were a fraid.

16 And they tht sawe it, tolde them, what was done to him that was possessed with the deuill, and concerning the swine.

17 Then they began to pray him, that hee would depart from their coastes.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had bene possessed with the deuill, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Iesus woulde not suffer him, but saide vnto him, Goe thy waye home to thy friends, and shew them what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and howe he hath had compassion on thee.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, what great things Iesus had done vnto him: and all men did maruaile.

21 And when Iesus was come ouer again by ship vnto another side, a great multitude gathered to him, and hee was nere vnto the sea.

22 And beholde, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Jairus: and when he saw him, he fell downe at his feete,

23 And besought him instantly, saying, My little daughter lieth at point of death: I pray thee that thou wouldest come and lay thine handes on her, that she may bee healed, and liue.

24 Then he went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and thronged him.

28 For he said, If I may but touch his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the course of her blood was dried by, and shee felt in her bodie, that she was healed of that plague.

30 And immediatly when Iesus dyd knowe in him self the vertue that went out of him, hee turned him round about in the presse, and said, Why hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples saide vnto him, Thou seest the multitude throng thee, andapest thou, What did touch me?

1 Iesus casteth the deuils out of the man, and suffereth them to enter into the swine. 2 He healeth a woman from the bloudie issue, 4t And raiseth the captaines daughter.

1 And they came ouer to the other side of the sea into the countrey of the Gadarenes.

3 Who had his abiding among the graues, and no man could binde him, nor with chaines,

4 Because that when he was often bound with fetters and chaines, he plucked the chaines a slender, and brake the fetters in pieces, neither could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes both night and day hee cryed in the mountaines, and in the graues, & strooke him self with stones.

6 And when he sawe Iesus afar of, hee ran, and worshipped him,

7 And cryed with a loud voyce, & sayde, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus, the Sonne of the most high God? I charge thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he saide vnto him, Come out of the man, thou vnclene spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? and he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And hee prayed him instantly, that hee woulde not sende them awaye out of the countrey.

11 Now there was there in the mountains a great heard of swyne, feeding.

12 And all the deuils besought him, saying, Send vs into the swine, that wee may enter into them.

13 And incontinently Iesus gaue them leave. Then the vnclene spirits went out, and entred into the swine, and the hearde ran headlong from the high banke into the sea, (and there were about two thousand swine) & they were drowned in the sea.

3 Is not this the carpenter Maries sonne, the brother of James and Ioses, and of Iuda and Simon? and are not his sisters here with vs? And they were offended in him.

4 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, A Prophet is not without honour, but in his owne country, and among his owne kered, and in his owne house.

5 And hee could there doe no great workes, save that he laied his handes vpon a few sicke folke, and healed them.

6 And hee maruelled at their vnbelief, and went about by the townes on euery side, teaching.

7 ¶ And he called the twelue & began to sende them two and two, & gaue them power ouer vncleane spirits,

18 For Iohn saide vnto Herode, ¶ It is not lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarell against him, and would haue killed him, but he could not:

30 ¶ And the Apostles gathered their selues together to Iesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said vnto them, Come ye apart into the wilderness, and rest a while: for there were many comers and goers, that they had not leaueure to eate.

33 But the people saue them when they departed, and many knewe him, and ranne ascore thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and assembled vnto him.

34 * Then Iesus went out, and saue a great multitude, and had compassion on them, because they were like sheepe which had no shepheard: and he began to teach them many things.

35 * And when the day was noise fare spent, his disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is fare passed.

36 Let them depart, that they may go into the villages, and townes about, and buye them bread: for they haue nothing to eate.

37 But he answered, and said vnto them, Giue ye them to eate. And they said vnto him, Shall we go and buye two hundred pennie worth of bread, and giue them to eate?

38 * Then he said vnto them, How many loanes haue ye? goe & looke. And when they knewe it, they sayd, Five, and twis fishes.

39 So hee commanded them, to make them all sit downe by companys, by on the greene grasse.

40 Then they sate downe by rows, by hundredths, and by fifties.

41 And he tooke the five loanes, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and gaue thanks, & brake the loanes, and gaue them to his disciples to set before them, and the two fishes hee deuided among them all.

42 So they did all eate, & were satisfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that had eaten, were about five thousand men.

45 ¶ And straightway he caused his disciples to goe vnto the ship, and to go before vnto the other side vnto Bethsaida, while hee went away the people.

46 Then as soone as he had sent them away, he departed into a mountaine to pray.

47 * And when euen was come, the ship was in the middes of the sea, and hee alone on the land.

48 And he saw them troubled in rowing, (for they were contrary vnto them) and about the fourth watch of the night, he came vnto them, walking by on the sea, and would haue passed by them.

49 And when they saw him walking by on the sea, they supposed it had bene a spirit, and cried out.

50 For they all saue him, and were sore afraid: but anon hee talked with them, and said vnto them, Be ye of good confort: it is I, be not afraid.

51 Then he went by vnto them into the ship, and the winde ceased, and they were sore amazed in their selues beyond measure, and maruelled.

52 * For they had not considered the master of the loanes, because their hearts were hardened.

53 ¶ And they came ouer, & went into the land of Genesaret, and arrued.

54 So when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knewe him,

John. 6. 12.

- 1 I * A * howe dapes, when there was a very great multitude, & had nothing to eate, Iesus called his disciples to him, and said vnto them,
- 2 I haue compassion on the multitude, because they haue now continued with me three dapes, and haue nothing to eate.
- 3 And if I sende them away fasting to their owne houses, they would faint by the way: for some of them came from farre.
- 4 Then his disciples answered him, * Howe can a man satiffie these with bread here in the wilderness?
- 5 And he asked them, How many loaves haue ye? And they said, Seven.
- 6 Then he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the ground: & hee tooke the seuen loaves, and gaue thanks, brake them, and gaue to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.
- 7 They had also a fewe smal fishes: and when he had giuen thanks, he commanded them also to be set before them.
- 8 So they did eate, and were sufficed, & they tooke up of the broken meate that was left, seuen baskets full.
- 9 (And they that had eaten, were about foure thousand) so he sent them away.
- 10 I * And anon he entred into a shippe with his disciples, and came into the partes of Dalmanutha.
- 11 * And the Pharises came forth, and began to dispute with him, seeking of him a signe from heauen, & tempting him.
- 12 Then hee sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, Why doeth this generation seeke a signe? Verely I say vnto you, * If a signe shall not be giuen vnto this generation.
- 13 * So he left them, and went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.
- 14 I * * And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them, but one loafe.
- 15 And he charged them, saying, Take heede, & beware of the leauen of the Pharises, and of the leauen of Herode.
- 16 And they thought among them selues, saying, It is, because we haue no bread.
- 17 And when Iesus knewe it, he said vnto them, Why reason you thus because ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderstand? yaue ye your hearts yet hardened?
- 18 Yaue ye eyes and see not? and haue ye eares and heare not? and do ye not remember?
- 19 * When I brake the fise loaves among foure thousand, howe many baskets full of broken meate tooke ye by? they said vnto him, Twelue.

- 20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousande, howe many baskets of the leauings of broken meate tooke ye by? and they said, Seuen.
- 21 Then he sayde vnto them, * Howe is it that ye vnderstand not?
- 22 And hee came to Bethsaida, & they brought a blinde man vnto him, and desired him to touch him.
- 23 Then he tooke the blinde by the had, and led him out of the towne, & spit in his eyes, & put his handes vpon him, and asked him, if he sawe ought.
- 24 And he looked vp, and said, I see me: for I see them walking like trees.
- 25 After that, he put his handes againe vpon his eyes, and made him looke as game. And hee was reioyced to his sight, and saue euery man afarre of clerely.
- 26 And he sent him home to his house, saying, Whether go into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.
- 27 I * * And Iesus went out, and his disciples into the townes of Cesarea Philippi. And by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom do men say that I am?
- 28 And they answered, Some say, John Baptist: and some, Elias: & some, one of the Prophets.
- 29 And he said vnto them, But whō say ye that I am? Then Peter answered & said vnto him, Thou art the Christ.
- 30 And he sharpely charged them that concerning him they shoulde tell no man.
- 31 Then he began to teache them that the Sonne of mā must suffer many things, and should be reioyced of the Elders, and of his Kinges, & of the Scribes, and be slaine, and withyn three dapes rise againe.
- 32 And he spake that thing plainly.
- 33 Then Peter tooke him aside, & began to rebuke him.
- 34 Then he turned backe, and looked on his disciples, and rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, I Satan: for thou vnderstandest not thy things that are of God, but the things that are of men.
- 35 I * * And he called the people vnto him with his disciples, and said vnto them, * Whosoever will followe me, let him forsake him self, and take by his crosse, and followe me.
- 36 For whosoever will * saue his life, shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels, hee shall saue it.
- 37 For what shall it profite a mā, though he should winne the whole world, if he lose his soule?
- 38 * What shall a man giue for recompence of his soule?
- 39 * For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words among this adulterous & fynfull generation, of him shall the Sonne of mā be ashamed also, when

1 And he said unto them, Verely I sape vnto pou, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the Kingdome of God come with power.

2 And sixe dayes after, Iesus tooke Peter, and James, and John, and brought thej vnto an hie mountaine out of the way alone, and he was traſs figured before them.

3 And his raiment did shine, and was very white, as snowe, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Iesus, Whaſter, it is good for vs to be here: let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 But he knew not what he said: for they were afraid.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, * This is my beloved Sonne: heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked round about, and sawe no more any man save Iesus only with them.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them, that they should tel no man what they had seene, save when the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to them selues, and demanded one of another, whar the rising from the dead againe shold meane?

11 Alſo they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that * Elias * must first come?

12 And he answered, and sayde vnto them, Elias verely shall first come and reſtoe all things: and * as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer
maney things, & be set at nought.

13 But I sape vnto pou, that Elias is come, (and they haue done vnto him whatſoener they would) as it is wyrtē
of him.

14 And when he came to his disciples,
he sawe a great multitude about them, and the Scribes diſputing with them.

15 And straight way all the people, whē they beheld him, were amazed, and ran to him, and saluted him.

16 Then he asked the Scribes, What diſpute pou among your selues?

17 And one of the companie answered, and said, Whaſter, I haue brought my sone vnto thee, which hath a dormie ſpirit:

18 And wherſoener he taketh him, he teareth him, and her cometh, and gna-theth his teeth, and pineth adway: and I ſake to the disciples þ they shoulde caſte him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, and saide,
O faithles generation, how long now shall I be w pou! How long now shall I suffer pou! Whyng him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and aſſoone as the spirit saw him, he tare him, and he fell downe on the ground, wallowing and foaming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it ſince he hath bene thus? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times hee caſteth him into the fire, and into the water to deſtroy him: but if thou canſt do any thing, helpe vs, & haue compaſſion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus laid vnto him, If thou canſt beleue it, all things are possible to him that beleueth.

24 And straight way the father of the childe crying with teares, said, Loſe, I beleue: helpe my vnbeleue.

25 When Iesus sawe that the people came running together, hee rebuked the vnclene ſpirit, ſaying vnto him, Thou dormie and deafe ſpirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cryed, and rent him ſore, and came out, and he was as one dead, in ſomuch that many ſaid, He is dead.

27 But Iesus tooke his hand, and liſt him vp, and he roſe.

28 And when he was come into the houſe, his disciples asked him ſecretly,
Why could not we caſt him out?

29 And he ſaid vnto them, This kinde can by no other meanes come forth, but by prayer, and fasting.

30 And they departed thence, & went through Galile, and he would not that any ſhould haue knowne it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and ſaid vnto them, The Sonne of man ſhalbe delivered into the handes of men, and they ſhall kill him, but after that he is killed, he ſhall riſe againe the thirde day.

32 But they vnderſtoode not that ſaying, and were afraid to aſke him.

33 After he came to Capernaum: and when he was in the houſe, he asked them, What was it that ye diſputed among pou by the way?

34 And they helde their peace: for by the way they reaſoned amongst them ſelues who ſhould be the chiefſt.

35 And he ſate downe, and called the twelue, and ſaid to them, If any man

CHAP. X.

1 Of diuocement. 17 The richman questioneth with Christ. 30 Their reward that are persecuted. 35 Of the sonnes of Zebedeus. 46 Bartimeus hath his eyes opened.

1 And he arose from thence, and went into y coastes of Iudaea by the sarre side of Iordā, & y people resorted vnto him againe, & as he was wont, he taught them againe.

2 Then the Pharisees came and asked him, if it were lawfull for a man to put away his wife, and tempted him,

3 And he answered, and sayde vnto them, What dyd * Moses commaunde you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of diuocement, and to put her away.

5 Then Jesus answered, and said vnto them, For the hardnes of your heart he wrote this precept vnto you.

6 But at the beginning of the creation * God made them male and female.

7 For of this cause shall man leaue his father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife.

8 And they twaine shall be one * flesh: so that they are no moze twaine, but one flesh.

9 Therefore, what God hath compled together, let not man separate.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him againe of that matter.

11 And he said vnto them, ¶ Whosoener shall put away his wife and marie another, b committeth adulterie against her.

12 And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, shee committeth adulterie.

13 ¶ Then they brought little children to him, that hee shoulde touche them: and his disciples rebuked those y brought them.

14 But when Jesus sawe it, hee was displeasd, and said to them, Suffer the little children to come vnto mee, and forbidde them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

15 Verely I saye vnto you, Whosoener shall not receiue the kingdome of God as a little childe, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he tooke them by in his armes, and put his handes vpon them, and d blessed them.

17 ¶ And when hee was gone out on y way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do, that I may possesse eternal life?

18 Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, euen God.

19 Thou knowest the commandemētts, ¶ Thou shalt not committe adulterie, Thou shalt not kill. ¶ Thou shalt not steale. ¶ Thou shalt not beare false witness. ¶ Thou shalt hurt no man. ¶ Honour thy father and mother.

20 Then he answered, and said to him, Master, all these things I haue obserued from my youthe.

21 And Jesus behelde him, and sloued him, and saide vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee, Go and sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, followe mee, and take vpon thee the crosse.

22 But he was sad at that saying, and went went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and said unto his disciples, Howe hardly do they that haue riches, enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his wordes: But Jesus answered a game, and said vnto them, Children, howe hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were much more astonied, saying with themelues, Who then can be saved?

27 But Jesus looked vpon them, and sayde, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ The Peter began to say vnto him, Lo, we haue forsaken all, and haue folowed thee.

29 Jesus answered, & said, Verely I say vnto pou, there is no man that hath forsaken houle, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels,

30 But hee shall receiue an hundredfold more at this present: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and landes with ^k perfecti- ons, and in the world to come, eternall life.

31 * But many that are first, shall be last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going by to Ierusalem, and Jesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they folowed, they were afraid, and Jesus tooke the twelue againe, and began to tell them what things shoulde come vnto him,

33 Saying, Beholde, we go by to Ierusalem, & the Sonne of man shall be deli- uered vnto the Priests, & to the Scribes, & they shall condemne him to death, & shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, & scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

35 ¶ Then James & John the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest doe for vs that that we desire.

36 And he said vnto them, What would ye I should do for you?

37 And they said to him, Graunt vnto vs, that we may sit one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hande in thy glorie.

38 But Jesus said vnto them, Ye know not what ye aske. Can ye be drinke of the cuppe that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme that I shall be baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Jesus said vnto them, Ye shall drinke in drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme wherewith I shall be baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand and at my left, is not mine to giue, but it shall be giuen to them for whome it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at James & John,

42 But Jesus called them vnto him, & said vnto them, * Ye knowe that they which desire to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue dominati- on ouer them, and they that be great among them, exercise authoritie ouer them.

43 But it shall not be so among you: whosoever will be great among you, shall be your seruant.

44 And whosoever will be chiefe of you, shall be the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, & to giue his life for the ranome of many.

46 ¶ Then they came to Jericho: & as he went out of Jericho with his disci- ples, and a great multitude, ¶ Barti- meus the sonne of Timeus, a blinde man, sat by the wayes side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazaret, he began to crie and to say, Jesus the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

48 And many rebuked him, because hee should holde his peace: and he cried much more, ¶ Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

49 Then Jesus stode stil, and comma- nded him to be called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threwe away his cloke, and rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and saide vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blinde saide vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Jesus said vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saved thee. And by and by, he receiued his sight, and folow- ed Jesus in the way.

4 And they went their way, and founde a colte tied by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stooode there, said vnto them, What do ye loosing the colte?

6 And they laide vnto them, as Iesus had commaunded them, So they let them goe.

7 ¶ And they brought the colte to Iesus, and calt their garments on him, & he sat vpon him.

8 And many spredde their garments in the way: other cut downe branches of the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna: Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lorde.

10 Blessed be the kingdome that cometh in the Name of the Lorde of our father: Dauid: Hosanna, O thou which art in the highest heauens.

11 ¶ So Iesus entred into Jerusalem, & into the Temple: and when he had looked about on all things, & now he was evening, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

12 ¶ And on the morow when they were come out from Bethania, he was hungrie.

13 And seeing a figge tree a farse of, that had leaues, he went to see if he might finde any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, he founde nothing but leaues: for the tyme of figs was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and said to it, ¶ Neuer man eat fruit of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they came to Jerusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold & bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde doves.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man should carie a vessel through the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, As it is not written, ¶ Mine house shall be called the House of prayer vnto all nations: ¶ but you haue made it a denne of theenes.

18 And the Scribes and hie Priestes heard it, & sought how to destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonished at his doctrine.

19 ¶ At when euen was come, Iesus wet out of the citie.

20 ¶ And in the morning as they passed by, they saue the figge tree dried vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembered, and said vnto him, Master, beholde, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Haue ye faith in God.

23 For verely I say vnto you, that whosoever shall say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and shall not waiver in his heart, but shall beleue that those things which he saith, shall come to passe, whatsoeuer hee sayeth, shall be done to him.

24 ¶ Therefore I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye desire when ye pray, beleue that ye shall haue it, and it shall be done vnto you.

25 ¶ But when ye shall stand, and praye, forgie, if ye haue any thing against any man, that your father also which is in heauē, may forgie you your trespasses.

26 For if you will not forgie, your father which is in heauen, will not pardon you your trespasses.

27 ¶ Then they came againe to Jerusalem: and as he walked in the Temple, there came to him the hie Priestes, and the Scribes, and the Elders,

28 And said vnto him, ¶ What authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie, that thou shouldst do these things?

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I will also aske of you a certaine thing, and answere ye me, & I will tel you by what authoritie I doe these things.

30 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men? answere me.

31 And they thought with them selues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then did ye not beleue him?

32 But if we say, Of men, we feare the people: for all men counted Iohn, that he had bene a very Prophet.

33 Then they answered, and said vnto Iesus, We cannot tell. And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, ¶ Neither will I tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

- 17 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, *Giue to Cesar the thynges that are Cessars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they maruelled at him.
- 18 *Then came the Sadduces vnto him, (which say, there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying,

- 21 Then the second tooke her, and he died, neither did he yet leaue issue, and the thurd likewise.
- 22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.
- 23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall she be of them? for seuen had her to wife?
- 24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto

- them, Ye be not therefore deceiued, because ye knowe not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?
- 25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marry, nor women are married, but are as the Angells which are in heauen.

- 27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.
- 28 *Then came one of the Scribes that had heard them disputing together, and perceiving that he had answered them wel, he asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
- 29 Iesus answered him, The first of all þ commandments is, *Yeare, Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.
- 30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy minde, & with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.
- 31 And the second is like this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandment greater then these.
- 32 Then the Scribe said vnto him, Well Master, thou hast said the truth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,
- 33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, & with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is moie then all burnt offerings and sacrifices.
- 34 Then, when Iesus sawe that hee answered discretely, hee saide vnto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.
- 35 *And Iesus answered and said teaching in the Temple, *Howe saye the Scribes þ Christ is þ sonne of Dauid?

The Priestes conspire against Christ. 2 Marie Magdalene anointeth Christ. 12 The Passouer is eaten. 18 He telleth afore of the treason of Iudas. 22 The Lorde's Supper instituted. 48 Christ is taken. 67 Peter denieth him.

1 And two dayes after followed the feast of the Passouer, and of bus leavened bread: and the high Priestes, and Scribes sought howe they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they saide, Not in the feast daye, least there be any tumult among the people.

3 * And when he was in Bethania in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having a boxe of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and she brake the boxe, and powdered it on his head.

4 Therefore some disdained among them selves, and said, To what ende is this waste of ointment?

5 For it might haue bene solde for moze then three hundred pence, and bene giuen unto the poore, & and they grinded against her.

6 But Jesus saide, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue the poore with you alwayes, and when ye will ye may doe them good, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

8 She hath done that she could: but the same afore hand to anoint my bodie to the burping.

9 Verely I say unto you, Where soeuer this Gospell shalbe preached through out the whole worlde, this also that she hath done, shal be spoken of in remembrance of her.

10 ¶ Then Iudas Iscariot, one of the twelue, & went away unto the high Priestes, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised that they would giue him money: therefore he sought howe he might conveniently betray him,

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passouer, his disciples saide unto him, Where wilt thou that we goe and prepare, that thou mayest eate the Passouer?

13 Then he sent forth two of his disciples, and said unto them, Goe ye into the city, and there shal a man meet you bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whither soeuer he goeth, ye say to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the lodging where I shall eate the Passouer with my disciples?

15 And he wil shew you an upper chamber which is large, trimmed and prepared: there make it ready for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the cite, and found as he had said unto them, and made ready the Passouer.

17 ¶ And at even he came with the twelue.

18 * And as they sat at table and did eate, Jesus saide, Verely I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me, which eateth with me.

19 Then they began to be sorrowfull and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? & another, Is it I?

20 And he answered and saide unto them, It is one of the twelue that I bypeth with me in the platter.

21 * Truly the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but wo be to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

22 * And as they did eate, Jesus tooke the bread, & when he had giuen thanks, he brake it and gaue it to them, & saide, Take, eate, this is my body.

23 And he tooke the cuppe, and when he had giuen thanks, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verely I say unto you, I will drinke no moze of the fruite of the vine, untill that day, that I drinke it newe in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung a psalme, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 ¶ Then Jesus saide unto them, All ye shall be offended by me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepheard, and the sheepe shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into Galile before you.

29 And Peter said unto him, Although all men should be offended, yet would I not be.

33 And he tooke with him Peter, and James, and John, and he began to be afraid, and in great heaumes, 34 And said vnto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the death: tary here and watch.

35 So hee went forwarde a litle, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, that houre might passe from him.

36 And he saide, Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cuppe from me: neuertheless, not that I wil, but that thou wilt, be done.

37 Then he came and founde them slee- ping, and said to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one houre?

38 ¶ Watch ye, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit in deede is ready, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe he went away, and pray- ed, and spake the same wordes.

40 And he returned, and found them a sleepe againe: for their eyes were heauy: neither knewe they what they shoulde answer him.

41 And he came the third time, and saide vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, & take your rest: it is enough: the houre is come: behold, the Sonne of man is deli- uered into the hands of sinners.

42 Aife by: let vs go, he that betrayeth me, is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately while he yet spake, came Judas s was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swordes & staves from the hie Priestes, and Scribes, and Elders.

44 And he that betrayed him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, he it is: take him, and leade him alway safely.

45 And as soone as he was come, he went straightway to him, and said, Greeting, Greeting, and kuffed him.

46 Then they laid their hands on him, and tooke him.

47 And one of them that stood by, drew our a sword, and smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and cut of his eare.

48 And Jesus answered and said vnto them, He be come out as vnto a thiefe with swordes and with staves to take me.

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye tooke me not: but this is done that the Scriptures shoulde be fulfilled.

50 Then they all forsooke him, & fled.

51 And there followed him a certaine pong man, clothed in linnen vpon his bare body, & the pong men caught him.

52 But he left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ So they led Jesus away to the hie Priest, and to him came all the hie Priestes, & the Elders, & the Scribes.

54 And Peter followed him a farr off, euen vnto the hall of the hie Priest, and sate with the seruants, and warmed him selfe at the fire.

55 And the hie Priestes, and all the Council sought for witness against Jesus, to put him to death, but found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 Then there arose certaines, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I y will destroy this Temple made with haides, and within thre dayes I will builde another, made without hands.

59 But their witness yet agreed not together.

60 Then the hie Priest stood by amongs them, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the hie Priest asked him, & saide vnto him, Wert thou Christ the Sonne of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am he, and ye shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes & saide, What haue we any more neede of witnesses?

64 He haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death.

65 And some beganne to spit at him, and to couer his face, & to beate him with fists, and to say vnto him, Prophesie, and the sergeants smote him with their rodde.

66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maides of the hie Priest.

67 And when she saw Peter warming him selfe, she looked on him, & said, Thou wast also with Jesus of Nazaret.

68 But he denied it, saying, I knowe him not, neither wot I what thou sayest. Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crewe.

69 ¶ Then a maid law him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 But he denied it againe: and anon after, they that stood by, said againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy speache is like.

71 And he beganne to curse, and sweare, saying, I knowe not this man of whom ye speake.

CHAP. XV.

1 Iesus led to Pilate, He is condemned, remited and put to death, & is buried by Iosiph.

I Ad * an in the dawning, the high Priests held a counsell with the Elders, & the Scribes, and the whole Couneill, & bound Iesus, and led him away, & deliuered him to Pilate.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jewes? And he answered, and said vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the hie Priests accused him of many things.

4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? be-holde howe many things they witness against thee.

5 But Iesus answered b no more at all,
so that Pilate maruelled.

6 Nowe at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoeuer they would desire.

7 The there was one named Barabbas, which was bound w his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

8 And the people cried aloud, and began to desire that he would do as he had euer done vnto them.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said,
Will ye that I let loose vnto you the king of the Jewes?

10 For he knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enue.

11 But the hie Priests had moued the people to desire that hee wouide rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What woul ye then that I do with him, whom ye call the king of the Jewes?

13 And they cryed againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate saide vnto them, But what euil hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate d willing to content the people, loosed them Barabbas, and de-liuered Iesus when hee had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

16 Then the souldiers led him awap into the hal, which is the c common hal, and called together the whole band,

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it as bout his head,

18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile,

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed thou hast bene instructed.

 1 In the time of Herode King of Iudea, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the ^d coule of Abia: and his wife was of the ^e daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.
 2 Both were ^f iust before God, and walked in all the commaundementes and s^o ordinances of the Lord, without reprove.
 3 And they had no childe, because that Elisabeth was barren: & both were well stricken in age.
 4 And it came to passe, as hee executed the ^g Priests office before God, as his course came in order,
 5 According to the custome of ^h Priests office, his lot was to ⁱ burne incense, when he went into the ^j Temple of the Lord.
 6 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, ^k while the incense was burning.
 7 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.
 8 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.
 9 But the Angel said vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name ^l John.
 10 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.
 11 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall neither drinke wine, nor strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.
 12 And many of the children of Israel shall hee turne to their Lord God.
 13 For he shall go ^m before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the ⁿ fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lord.
 14 Then Zacharias saide vnto the Angel, Whereby shall I knowe this? for I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.
 15 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shewe thee these good tidings.
 16 And behold, thou shalt be dumme, and not be able to speake, vntill the day that these things be done, because thou belieuest not my wordes, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

 17 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he taried so long in the Temple.
 18 And when he came out, he coule not speake vnto them: then they perceived that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remained dumme.
 19 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed ^o to his owne house.
 20 And after those dayes, his wife Elisabeth conceived, and had her selfe fixe moneths, laping, 21 Thus hath the Lorde dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from mee ^p my rebuke among men.
 22 And in the first moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 23 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Marie.
 24 And the Angel went in vnto her, and said, Hail thou that art ^q freely beloved: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
 25 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be.
 26 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not, Marie: for thou hast found fauour with God.
 27 For lo, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.
 28 Hee shall be great, and shall be called the Sonne of the most High, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.
 29 And hee shall reigne ouer the house of Jacob for euer, and of his kingdom shall be none ende.
 30 Then sayde Marie vnto the Angel, Howe shall this be, seeing I knowe not man?
 31 And the Angel answered, and sayde vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shall ^r ouershadow thee: therefore also that ^s holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.
 32 And behold, thy ^t cousin Elisabeth she hath also conceived a sonne in her olde age: and this is her first moneth, which was called barren.
 33 For with God shall nothing be impossible.
 34 Then Marie said, Beholde the seruaunt and without sinne, which must take away the finnes of the world. z Notwithstanding that Elisabeth was married to one of the tribe of Levi, yett shee was Marries cousin, which was of the stocke of David. For y Law which forbade marriage out of their owne tribe, was onely that the tribes should not be mixt and cofounded, which could not be in marrying with the Leuites: for they had no porcion assigned vnto them.

q Whiles their course endured to sacrifice, they might not lie wth their wiues, nor drink any liquor that might make one drunk.
 r For the barren women enioyed not the promise which god made to them that were married, to haue issue: but principally they were deprived of that promise which god made to Abraham, that he would increase his seed.
 s Or, gladnes be to thee.
 t Or, receiued into fauour.

39 And Marie arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste to a cite of Iuda, 40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabeth heard the salutation of Marie, the babe spang in her bellie, & Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost, 42 And she cried with a loude voyce, and said, Blessed art thou among women, because the fruite of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence cometh this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe spang in my bellie for ioy.

45 And blessed is shee that beleued: for those things shall be performed, which were toid her from the Lord.

46 Then Marie said, My soule magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirite reioyced in God my Saviour.

48 For hee hath looked on the poore degree of his seruaunt: for beholde, from henceforth shall all ages call me blessed.

49 Because, hee that is mightie, hath done for me great things, and holp is his Name.

50 And his mercie is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 * Hee hath shewed strength with his arme: * he hath scattered the proude in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put downe the mightie from their seates, and exalted them of lowe degree.

53 * He hath filled the hungrie with good things, and sent away the rich emptye.

54 * He hath upholden Israel his seruāt, being mindfull of his mercie, 56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about three moneths: after, shee returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabeths time was fulfilled, that she should be deliuered, and shee brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, & consins heard tel how the Lord had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight dape they came to circuncise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and sayde, Not so, but hee shall be called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kindred, that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So hee asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn, and they maneyced all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, & he spake and prayesd God.

65 Then feare came on all the that dwelt nere vnto them, and all these wordes were noted abroade throughout al the hill countrey of Iudea.

66 And all thep that heard them, layde them by in their heartes, saying, What manner childe shall this be? & the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 Then his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, because hee hath visited * and redeemed his people,

69 * And hath rayled by the * home of saluation vnto vs, in the house of his seruant Dauid,

14 The souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we doe? And hee sayd vnto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsly, and be content with your wages.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Iesus led into the wilderness to be tempted, 13 He overcometh the deuil. 14 He goeth into Galile, 15 Preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum. 22 The Jewes despise him. 28 He cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law. 41 The deuil acknowledge Christ. 43 He preacheth through the cities.

- 1 And Iesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness,
- 2 And was there fourtie dayes tempted of the deuil, and in those dayes he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungrie.

- 4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It

- 5 Then the deuil tooke him by an high moitane, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in 1 twinkling of an eye.
- 6 And the deuil said vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glorie of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: and to whomsoever I will, I giue it,
- 7 If thou therefore wilt worship mee, they shall be all thine.
- 8 But Iesus answered him, and sayde, Vence from me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone thou shalt serue.
- 9 Then he brought him to 1 Jerusalem, & set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and sayde vnto him, If thou see the Sonne of God, call thy selfe downe from hence,
- 10 For it is written, * That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee:
- 11 And with their handes they shall lift thee vp, least at any time thou shouldest dash thy foote against a stone.
- 12 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
- 13 And when the deuil had ended all the tentation, he departed from him for a season.
- 14 And Iesus returned by the power of the Spirit into Galile: & there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about.

- 16 And he came to Nazaret where hee had bene brought vp, & (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath daye, and stood vpon to read.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in d time of Elieus the Propheet: yet none of the was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.
28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, wherēon their cite was built, to cast him downe headlong.
30 But he passed through the middes of them, and went his way, 31 And came downe into Capernaum a cite of Galile, & there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.
32 And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his worde was with authority.
33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a y spirit of an vn-cleane deuil, which cryed with a loude voyce, 34 Saying, Wh, what haue we to do with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to deströy vs? I know who thou art, euen the Holy one of God.
35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuil throwyng him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.
36 Sofore came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this? for with authority and powter he comandeth the foule spirits, and they come out?
37 And the fame of him spred abroade throughout all the places of the countrey round about.
38 And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wifes mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.
39 Then he stoode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministred vnto them.
40 Now when the sunne was downe, al

they that had sicke folkes of diuerse diseases, brought them vnto him, and he laid his handes on euerie one of them, and healed them.
41 And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art d Christ the Sonne of God: but he rebuked the, and sufferd them not to saye that they knew him to be Christ.
42 And when it was day, he departed, & went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him that he should not depart from them.
43 But he said vnto the, Surely I must also preach the kingdom of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.
44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

3 And he entred into one of the shippes, which was Simons, & required him that he would thrust a file from the land: and he sat downe, and taught the people out of the ship.
4 And I sawe when he had left speaking, he said vnto Simon, launche out into the deepe, and let downe your nettes to make a draught.
5 Then Simon answered, and sayde vnto him, b Master, we haue trauelped all night, and haue taken nothing: ne, nevertheless at thy c worde I will let downe the net.
6 And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.
7 And they beckend to their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them, who came then, & filled both the shippes, that they did d sinke.
8 Nowe when Simon Peter sawe it, he fel downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, go from me: for I am a sinfull man.

12 ¶ Nowe it came to passe, as he was in a certaine citie, behold, there was a man full of leprosie, and when he sawe Iesus, he fel on his face, and besought him, saying, Loide, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretcht forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane, and immediatly the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him þ he should tel it no man: but Go, saich he, & shewe thy selfe to the s^r Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as Moses hath commanded, for a witness unto them.

15 But so much more went there a same aboad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept himselfe apart in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as he was teaching, that the Pharises and doctours of the Lawe late by, which were come out of euerie towne of Galie, and Iudea, and Jerusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 ¶ Then besode, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palfie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the yeealle, they went by on the house, and let him downe through the riling, bed and all, in the middes before Iesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he sayde vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? who can forgive sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceived their thoughts, he answered, & said vnto the, What thinke ye in your hearts? 23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee, or to saye, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may know that þ Sonne of mā hath authoritie to forgive sinnes in earth, (he said vnto the sicke of the palfie) I say to thee, Rise: take by thy bed, and go to thine house.

25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, andooke by his bed whereon he laye, and departed to his owne house, praising God.

26 And they were all amazed, and praysed God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse we haue seene strange things to daie.

27 ¶ And after that, he went forth and sawe a Publicane named Leni, sitting at the receit of custome, and said vnto him, Followe me.

28 And hee left all, rose by, and followed him,

29 Then Iesus made him a great feaft in his owne house, where there was a great companie of Publicanes, and of other, that late at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes & Pharises among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke ye with Publicanes & sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Physicion, but they that are sicke.

32 ¶ I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ Then they sayde vnto him, Why doo the disciples of Iohn fast often, and pray, and the disciples of the Pharises also, but thine eat, and drinke?

34 And he said vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegrome is with them?

35 But the dayes will come, even when the bridegrome shall bee taken awaye from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 Againe hee spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a newe garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe renteth it, and the piece taken out of the new, agreeth not with the olde.

37 Also no man putteth new wine into olde vessels: for then þ newe wine will breake the vessels, and it will runne out, and the vessels will perish.

38 But new wine must be powred into new vessels, for both are preferred.

39 Also no mā that drinketh olde wine, straight way desireth newe: for he saith, The olde is better.

1 And it came to passe on the second Sabbath, after the first, that he went through the corne fieldes, & his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, and rubbe them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharises saide vnto them, Why do ye do that which is not lawfull to do on þ Sabbath dayes?

3 Then Iesus answered them, & sayde, ¶ Haue ye not read this, that Dauid did when he himselfe was an hungred, and they which were with him.

4 Howe he went into the house of God, and tooke, and ate the shewebread, and gaue also to the which were with him, which was not lawfull to eate, but for the Priestes onely?

5 And hee said vnto them, The Sonne of man is lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ It came to passe also on another Sabbath,

Sabbath, that he entred into the Synagogue and taught, and there was a man, whose right hande was dried by.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether he would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hande, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose, and stood by.

9 Then sayde Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a questiō. Whether is it lawefull on the Sabbath dayes to do good, or to doe euill? to saue a life, or to de-stroye it?

10 And he behelde them all in compasse, and said vnto the man, Stretche forth thine hande. And he did so, and his hand was restoyed againe, as whole as the other.

11 The they were filled full of madness, & condemned one with another, what they might do to Iesus.

12 And it came to passe in those days, that he went into a mountaine to praye, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called his disciples, & of them hee chose twelue, which also hee called Apostles.

14 (Simon whom he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philippe, and Bartlemew:
15 Mattheue, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphesus, and Simon called Zelous:
16 Judas James brother, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then hee came downe with them, & stood in a plaine place, with the companye of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Cyprus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were bereyed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And hee lifted by his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye people: for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be satisfied: blessed are ye that weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men hate you, & when they separat you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euill, for the Sonne of manis sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for beholde, your rewarde is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 But wo bee to you that are briche: for ye haue receiued your consolation,

25 For euerie ye to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Wo be to you that now laugh: for ye shall weile and weepe. Wo be to you when all men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to false Prophets.

27 But I say vnto you which heare, Love your enemies: do well to them which hate you.

28 Blessē them that curse you, and praye for them which hurt you.

29 And vnto him that smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloke, forgiue bidde not to take thy coate also.

30 Euerie man that taketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, & alle them not againe.

31 And as for wo would that men should do to you, so do ye to them likewise.

32 For if ye loue them which loue you, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners loue those that loue them.

33 And if ye doe good for them which doe good for you, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners do the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whome ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 Wherefoze loue ye your enemies, & do good, and lend, looking for nothing againe, and your rewarde shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the most High: for he is kinde vnto the vnkinde, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your father also is mercifull.

37 Iudge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgiue, and ye shall be forgiven.

38 Euer, and it shall be giuen vnto you: a good measure, pressed downe, shakē together and running ouer shall men giue into your bosome: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And he spake a parable vnto them, Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not aboue his master: but whoso euer wilbe a perfitte disciple, shall be as his master.

41 And why seekest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Hypocrite, cast out the beame out of thine owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfectly, to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

1 He healeth the captaines seruant. 12 He raiseth vp the widowes some from death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whome Iohn Baptist sent vnto him. 24 He commendeth Iohn. 31 And reproveth the lawes for their vnfaithfulness. 36 He eateth with the Pharise. 37 The woman washeth his feet with her teares, and he forgiveth her finnes.

- 1 When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.
- 2 And a certaine Centurions seruant was sicke and ready to die, which was deare vnto him.
- 3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Jewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.
- 4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that he was worthy that he should do this for him.
- 5 For he saith, said they, our nation, & he hath built vs a Synagogue.
- 6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farr from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lorde, trouble not the selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter vnder my rooffe.
- 7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.
- 8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authoritie, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Go, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and he cometh, and to my seruant, Do this, and he doth it.
- 9 When Iesus heard these thinges, he marvelled at him, and turned him, and said to the people that folowed him, I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great faith, no not in Israel.

- 10 And when they that were sent, returned backe to the house, they founde the seruant that was sicke, whole.
- 11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a cite called Samaria, which was a towne of Galilee in the tribe of Issachar: not far from Tiberias.
- 12 Now when he came nere to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, who was the onely begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the cite was with her.
- 13 And when the Lorde sawe her, he had compassion on her, and saide vnto her, Weepe not.
- 14 And he went and toucht the coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and he said, & Young man, I say vnto thee, Arise.
- 15 And he that was dead, sat vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.
- 16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.
- 17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudaea, and throughout all the region round about.
- 18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.
- 19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?
- 20 And when the men were come vnto him, they saide, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?
- 21 And at that time, he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many blinde men he gaue sight.
- 22 And Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, Goe your wayes & shew Iohn, what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blinde see, the halfe goe, the Lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the poore receiue the Gospell.
- 23 And blessed is he, that shall not be offended in me.
- 24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? ¶ A reede shaken with the winde?
- 25 But what went ye out to see? ¶ A man clothed in softe rayment? beholde, they which are gorgeous apparellled, & fine delicately, are in Kings courtes.
- 26 But what went ye forth to see? ¶ Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuertheless, he that is the least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes, were iustified of God, being baptized with the baptisme of Iohn.

30 But the Pharises and the exponents of the Lawe despised the counsell of God, & against them selues, and were not baptized of him.

31 * And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? & what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, & crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eateth and drinketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drunker of wine, a friend of Publicanes & sinners.

35 But wise doine is iustified of all her children.

36 * And one of the Pharises desired him that he would eate with him: and he went into the Pharises house, and sat downe at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the cite, which was a sinner, when she knewe that Iesus sat at table in the Pharises house, she brought a bove of ointment.

38 * And she stoode at his feete behind him weeping, & began to waly his feet with teares, & did wipe them with the heares of her head, & kissed his feete, & anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharise which hade him, sawe it, he spake within him selfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he would surely haue knowne who, & what maner of woman this is which toucheth him: for he is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debtors: the one ought fife hundredth pence, and the other sicke.

42 When they had nothing to paye, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and saide, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 Then he turned to the woman, & said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, & thou gavest me no water to my feete: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped the with the heares of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didest not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, many finnes are forgiven her: for she loved much. To whom a little is forgiven, he doeth litle a little.

48 And he said vnto her, Thy finnes are forgiven thee.

49 And they that sat at table with him, began to say within them selues, Who is this that euen forgiveth finnes?

50 And he saio to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee: go in in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles go from towne to towne, and preach. 2 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 3 He sheweth the parable of the seede. 4 He telleth who is his mother and his brother. 5 He filleth the ragging of the lake. 6 He deliuereth the possessed. 7 The deuill enter into the heard of swyne. 8 He healeth the sicke woman, and Lairs daughter.

1 And it came to passe afterwarde, that he him selfe went through euery cite and towne, preaching, & publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelue were with him.

2 And certaine women, which were healed of euil spirits, and infirmities, as * Marie which was called Magdalene out of whome went seven deuils,

3 And Ioaanna the wife of Chusa Hee robes steward, and Susanna, and many other which ministered vnto him of their substance.

4 * Nowe when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a parable, A sower went out to sowe his seede, & as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feete, and the foules of heauen deuoured it by.

5 And some fell on the stoncs, & when it was sprung by, it withered away, because it lacked moistnes.

6 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprang by with it, and choked it.

7 And some fell on good ground, and sprung by, and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And as he saide these things, he cryed, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

8 Then his disciples asked him, demanding, what parable that was?

9 And he said, Vnto pou it is giuen to knowe the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

10 * The parable is this, The seede is the woorde of God.

11 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterwarde cometh the deuill, and taketh away the woorde out of their hearts, least they should beleeue.

u This great loue is a signe y she felt her selfe much boiud vnto Christ, who had forgien her so manie finnes.

- 13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue þ word with hope: but they haue no rootes, which for a while beleue, but in the tyme of tentation go away.
- 14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, and voluptuous living, and bring forth no fruite.
- 15 But that which fell in good ground, are they which with an honest & good heart heare the worde, and keepe it, and bring forth fruite with patience.
- 16 ¶ So man when he ligeth a candle, conereth it vnder a bushell, neither putteth it vnder the table, but setteth it on a candlesticke, that they that enter in, may see the light.
- 17 ¶ For nothing is secret, that shall not be euident: neither any thing hid, that shall not be knowen, and come to light.
- 18 Take heede therefore howe pee heare: for whoeuer hath, to him shall be giuen: and whoeuer hath not, from him shall be taken euen that which he leeneth that he hath.
- 19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come neere to him for the preale.
- 20 And it was tolde him by certaine which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, & woulde see thee.
- 21 But he answered, & said vnto them, My mother and my brethren are they which heare the woꝝ of God, and do it.
- 22 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a ship with his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs go ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they launcheð forth.
- 23 And as they sailed, hee fell a sleepe, & there came downe a stoyne of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in iopardie.
- 24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.
- 25 Then he saide vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondered among them selues, saying, Who is this that commaundeth both the winde and water, and they obey him?
- 26 ¶ So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galilee.
- 27 And as he went out to land, there mette him a certaine man out of the cite, which had a deuil long time, and hee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the granes.
- 28 And when he saue Iesus, he cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voyce sayd, What haue I to do with thee, Iesus the Sonne of

- God, þ most high? I beseech thee: torment me not.
- 29 For he commaundeth the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for oft times hee had caught him: therefore he was bound with chaines, & kept in fetters: but hee brake the bandes, and was carped of the deuil into wildernesses.)
- 30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.
- 31 And they besought him, that hee woulde not commaunde them to goe out into the deepe.
- 32 And there was there by, an hearde of many swine, feeding on a hill: and the deuils besought him, that hee woulde suffer them to enter into them. So hee suffered them.
- 33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herde was caried with violence from a sleepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.
- 34 When the heardmen saue what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the cite and in the countrey.
- 35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found him out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were a fraide.
- 36 They also which saue it, tolde them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuil, was healed.
- 37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that he woulde depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and hee went into the ship, and returned.
- 38 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,
- 39 Returne into thine owne house, and shewe what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throughout al the cite, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.
- 40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come again, that the people receiued him: for they al wayped for him.
- 41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was the ruler of the synagoge, who fel downe at Iesus feete, and besought him that he woulde come into his house.
- 42 For hee had but a daughter onely, as he twelue yeres of age, and she laye dyng (and as he went, the people thronged him.

47 When the woman saw that she was downe before him, and told him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he said vnto her, Daughter, bee thee whole: go in peace.)

49 While hee yet spake, there came one from the ruler of the Synagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: becase not the maister.
50 When Iesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Feare not: beleeue onely, and shee shalbe made whole.
51 And when he went into the house, he suffred no man to go in with him, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and mother of the maide.
52 And all wept, and sorrowed for her:
but he said, Weepe not: for she is not dead, but sleepeth.
53 And they laught him to skorne, knowing that she was dead.
54 So hee thurst them all out, and tooke her by the hand, and cryed, saying, Maide, arise.
55 And her spirit came againe, and she rose straight way: and he commaunded

56 Then her parents were astonied: but he commaunded them that they should

CHAP. IX.

1 He sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach.
7 Herods beareth tell of him. 12 He sendeth five thousand men with five loaves, and two fishes.

I Then called he the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power & authoritie ouer all deuiils, and to heale diseases.
2 And he sent them to preach the kings-dome of God, and to cure the sicke.
3 And he said to them, Take nothing neither bread, nor silver, neither

6 And they went out, and went though euery towne preaching the Gospel, and 7 ¶ Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he dou-ted, because that it was saide of some,

p John was risen againe fro^m the dead.
8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.
9 Then Herod said, John haue I beheaded: who then is this of whome I heare such things: and he desired to see him.
10 ¶ And when the Apostles returned, they told him what great things they had done. ¶ Then he tooke them, and went aside into a solitary place, nere to the cite called Bethsaida.
11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and he receiued them, & spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had neede to bee healed.
12 ¶ And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate:
for we are here in a desert place.
13 But he said vnto them, ¶ Giue pee them to eate. And they said, Wee haue no no^b but five loaves and two fishes, except wee should go, and buy meate
for all this people.
14 For they were about five thousand men. The he said to his disciples, Cause the^m to sit downe by fifties in a rowe.
15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.
16 Then hee tooke the five loaves, & the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake, & gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.
17 So they did all eate, & were satisfied:
and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meat.
18 ¶ And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, & hee asked them, saying, Whome say the people that I am?
19 They answered, and said, John Baptist: and other say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.
20 And he said vnto them, But whome saye ye that I am? Peter answered, & saide, The Christ of God.
21 And he warned, & commaunded them,
that they should tell that to no man, 22 saying, The sonne of man must suffer
many things, and be reuyred of by Elders,
& of the hie Priests & Scribes, &

 25 For of what avarageit it a man, if he winne the whole worlde, and destroy him selfe, or laie him selfe?
 26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of the father, and of the holy Angells.
 27 And I tell you of a lreite, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kingdome of God.

28 And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter, and John, and James, & went by into a mountaine to pray.
 29 And as he prayed, the facion of his countenance was chaunged, and his garment was white and glistered.
 30 And beholde, two men talked with him, which were Moyses and Elias,
 31 Which appeared in glorie, and tolde of his departing, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.
 32 But Peter and they that were with him, were heauie with sleepe, and when they awoke, they saue his glorie, and the two men standing with him.
 33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Jesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moyses, & one for Elias, and wist not what he said.
 34 While he thus spake, there came a cloude, & ouershadowed them, and they feared when they were entring into the cloude.

35 And there came a voyce out of the cloude, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.
 36 And when the voyce was past, Jesus was founde alone: and they kept it close, & told no man wth those dayes any of those things which they had seene.
 37 And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.
 38 And behold, a man of the cōpany cried out, saying, Master, I beseeche thee, behold my sonne: for he is al^l p^{er} I haue.
 39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, & sobbing he cryeth, & he teareth him, that he fasteneth, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath brui^{sed} him.
 40 Nowe I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Jesus answered, and said, O generation faithles, and crooked, how long now shall I be with you, & suffer you! bring thy sonne hither.
 42 And whiles he was per^{forming}, he deuil rent him, & tare him: & Jesus rebuked the diuilean spirit, & heate the childe, and deliuered him to his father.
 43 And they were all amazed at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondered at all things, which Jesus did, he said vnto his disciples, 44 Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, & the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

 45 But they vnderstood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.
 47 When Jesus saue the thoughts of their hearts, he tooke a litle childe, and set him by him,
 48 And said vnto the, Whosoever receiuet^h this litle childe in my name, receiuet^h me: & whosoever shall receiue me, receiuet^h him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.
 49 And John answered and saide, Master, we saw one calling out deuil^s in thy name, and we forbade him, because he followeth thee not with vs.
 50 Then Jesus said vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 And it came to passe, when the dayes were accomplished, that he should be receiued by, he settled himselfe fully to goe to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before him: and they went & entred into a towne of the Samaritans, to prepare him lodging.
 53 But their behauiour was, as though he would goe to Jerusalem.
 54 And when his disciples, James and John saw it, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we commaunde, that fire come downe from heauen, and consume the, euen as Elias did?

55 But Jesus turned about, and rebuked them, and saide, Ye knowe not of what spirit ye are.
 56 For the sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.
 57 And it came to passe that as they went in the way, a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoever thou goest.
 58 And Jesus saide vnto him, The foresaie haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to lay his head.
 59 But he said vnto another, Followe me, and the same said, Lord, suffer me first to goe and burie my father.
 60 And Jesus saide vnto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first goe bid^{den} thine fare well, which are at mine house.
 62 And Jesus said vnto him, A man putteth his hand to the plough, & looketh backe, is apt to the kingdome of God, die, or sayed to go forward for any paine, or trouble.

18 And he saide vnto them, I saw ^m Satan, like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to treade on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Nevertheless, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Iesus in the spirit, and saide, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the ⁿ wise and learned, and hast reueled them to babes: euen so, Father, because it pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are ^o giuen me of my Father: and ^p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the ^q Sonne, and he to whome the Sonne will reuelue him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, & saide secretly, * Blessed are the eyes, which see that ye see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets, and Kings haue desired to see those things, which ye see, but haue not seene them: and to heare those things, which ye heare, and haue not heard
 them.

25 ¶ * Then beholde, a certaine expoun- der of the Lawe stode by, and temptered him, saying, Master, what shall I doe, to inherite eternall life?

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Lawe? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, and saide, * Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, & with all thy thought,
 * and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

28 Then he saide vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to ^r iustifie him selfe, saide vnto Iesus, Who ^s is then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and sayde, A certaine man went downe from Jerusalem to Jericho, & fell among thornes, & they robbed him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by ^t chance there came downe a

CHAP. XI.

1 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driueth out a deuill. 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisee. 28 He preferreth the spiritual couinaue. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Pharisee, and reprehendeth the hypocrisie of the Pharisee, Scribes and hypocrites.

I And so it was, that as he was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, teach vs to praye, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

2 * And he said vnto the, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, halowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our daily bread giue vs: for the day: And forgive vs our finnes: for euil we forge vs man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: our but deliuer vs from euill.

4 And whosoever he said vnto the, which of you hath a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friends, sende me three loaves:

5 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

7 And he within should answer, and saye, Trouble me not: the dooze is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I can not rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, though he would not arise and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtles because of his importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

9 * And I saye vnto you, Alke, and it shal be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall finde: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 * If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fishe, will he for a fishe giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euill, can giue good giftes vnto your children, howe much more shal your heauenly Father giue the help Ghost to them, that desire him?

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuill which was dunne: and wher the deuill was gone out, the dunne spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayd, He casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knewe their thoughtes, and saide vnto them, * Euery kingdome deuided against it selfe, shal be desolate, & an house deuided against an house, shall so.

18 So if Satan also be deuided against him selfe, howe shall his kingdome stande, because ye say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore shall they be your iudges.

20 But if I by the finger of God cast out deuils, doubtles the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

35 Take herbe therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkened.

36 If therefore thy whole bodie shall be light, hauing no part darke, then shall al be light, euen as when a candle doeth light thee with the brightnes.

37 ¶ And as hee spake, a certaine Pharise brought him to dine with him: and he went in, and satte downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise sawe it, he marvelled that he had not first washed his face with water.

39 * And the Loyde sayde to him, In deed ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cuppe, and of the platter: but the inward parte is full of rauening and wickednes.

40 ¶ Ye fooles, did not hee that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore, I giue alines of those things which are within, and behold, al things shall be cleane to you.

42 But wo be to you, Pharises: for ye epye the mint and the reioy, and all

44 Wo be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which ^r appere not, and the men that walke ouer them, pereme not.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the expounders of the Lawe, and saide vnto him, Master, Thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And hee saide, Wo be to you also ye interpreters of the Law: for ye lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, & ye your selues touche not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo be to you: for ye ^s lypide the sepulchres of the Prophetes, and your fathers killed them.

10 And whosoever shall speake a worde agaynst the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiven him: but vnto him, that shall blasphemie the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

15 Wherefore he sayde vnto them, Take heede, and beware of couetousnes: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The grounde of a certaine riche man brought forth frutes plentifully.

17 Therefore he thought with him selfe, saying, What shall I do, because I haue no roume, where I may laye vp my frutes?

18 And hee said, This wil I do, I wil puldowne my barnes, and build greater, and therein wil I gather all my frutes, and my goodes.

19 And I will saye to my soule, Soule, thou hast much goods laid by for many yeres: lye at ease, eat, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But God said vnto him, Thou fool, this night wil thy fetch awaye thy soule from thee: the whose thyl those things be which thou hast provided?

21 Is hee that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is moze then meate: and the bodie more then the rayment.

24 Consider the rauens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barnie, and yet God feedeth them: how much moze are ye better then foules?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drinke, neither stand in doubt.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The crueltie of Pilate. 2 VVought not to condemne al to be wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 Also that the number of them which shall be saved, is small. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

1 There were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose bloud Pil-late had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, Suppose pe, that these Galileans were greater sinners than all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende
your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in Siloam fell, & slew them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende
your liues, pe all shall likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable. A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineparde, and he came and sought fruite thereon, and founde none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineparde, Behold, this three yeeres haue
I come and sought fruite of this figge tree, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and saide vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yeere also, till I dige rounde about it, and dung it.

9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmitee eighteene yeres, & was bowed together, & could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

13 And he laid his handes on her, and im-mediatly she was made straight again, and glorified God.

36 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, eightene yeeres, to be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

37 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at al his excellent things, that were done by him.

38 ¶ Then said he, What is the kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

39 It is like a graine of mustard sēde, which a man tooke & sowed in his garden, and it grew, & was as great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

47 But he shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence ye are: ¶ depart from me, all ye workers of iniquitie.

48 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the Prophets thrust out at doores.

50 ¶ And beholde, there are last, which shall be first, & there are first, which shall be last.

51 The same daye there came certaine Pharises, and said vnto him, Depart, and goe hence: for Herode wil kill thee.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the experts of the law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they helde their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe.

5 ¶ And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse, or an ox fallen into a pitte, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 ¶ And they could not answer him as gaine to those things.

7 ¶ Hee spake also a parable to the guests, when he marked how they chose out the chiefe roomes, and sayde vnto them,

8 ¶ When thou shalt be bidden of any man to a wedding, sette not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, lest a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade both him and thee, come, and saye to thee, Come this man roome, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 ¶ But when thou art bidden, goe and sitte downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, hee may say vnto thee, Friend, sitte by here: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sitte at table with thee.

16 Then said he to him, ¶ A certaine man made a great suppe, and bade many,

19 And another sayd, I haue bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to plowe them: I pray thee, haue me excused.

20 And another said, I haue married a wife, and therefore I can not come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayde to his seruant, ¶ Goe out quickly into the places and dreets of the citie, and buy in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

C H A P. XV.

1 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiveth sinners. 2 The loving mercie of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundred sheepe. 7 10y in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigall sonne.

1 Then resorted vnto him all the Dubitanes, and sinners, to heare him. Therefore the Pharises & Scribes murmured, saying, He receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

2 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

3 ¶ What man of you hauing an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he finde it?

4 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioye.

5 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying, Ioyce with me: for I haue found my sheepe, which was lost.

6 I say vnto you, that likewise ioye shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine iust men, which neede none amendment of life.

7 ¶ Either what woman hauing ten^b pieces of siluer, if she lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and seuepe the house, and seeke diligently till shee finde it?

8 And when shee hath founde it, shee calleth her friends, and neighbours, saying, Ioyce with me: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

9 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioye in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

10 ¶ He said moreover, A certaine man had two sonnes.

11 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, giue me the^c portion of the goods that falleth to me. So hee deuided vnto them his substance.

12 So not long after, when the younger sonne

k Thy part, which art a Iew, is nothing diminished by that that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleue in him, with his bodie and blood to life euerlasting.

some had gathered al together, he tooke his iourney into a faire countrey, and there he waisted his goodes with 4 thousands luing, 14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, & he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes, that he the swine ate: but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, and sayde, How many hired seruants at my fathers house haue bread plough, and I die for hunger!

18 I will rise & go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned aganist heauen, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

20 So hee arose and came to his father, and when he was per a great way of, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, Father, I haue sinned aganist heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father sayd to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hande, and shoes on his fete,

23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, & let vs eat, and be merie.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliuie againe: and he was lost, but he is found. And they began to be merie.

25 Nowe the elder brother was in the field, & when he came and drew nere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing,

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because hee hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But he answered and saide to his father, Lo, these many yeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid that I might make merie with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goodes with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fatted calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, Sonne, thou art euer wi h me, and al that I haue, is thine. It was meete: we should make merie, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliuie againe: and he was lost, but he is found,

Chap. xvii. The fteward. Riches of iniquitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproveth the custonies & hypocrisie of the Pharisee. 16 Of the ende and force of the Lawe. 18 Of the holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich and Lazarus.

1 And hee sayde also vnto his disciples, There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that he waisted his goodes.

2 And he called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Cuius an accountes of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward saide within himselfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take away from mee the stewardship: I can not digge, and to begge I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will do, that when I am put out of the stewardship they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called hee euery one of his masters debtors, & said vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then said he to another, How much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundred measures of wheat. Then he said to him, Take thy writing, and write foure score.

8 And the lord commended the vniust steward, because hee had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye shall want, they may receiue you into euertlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, he is also faithfull in much: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then ye haue not bene faithfull in the small riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if ye haue not bene faithfull in another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is yours?

13 No seruant can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or else hee shall leaue to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharisees also which were couetous, and they & mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, We are they which iustifie our selues before men:

a Christ teacheth hereby, that like wife as he which is in authority & hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperitie, may be relieved in his aduersitie: our liberalitie towards our neighbour shall stand vs in such stead at the day of iudgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him.

o Christ describeth spirituall thinges by such manner of speache, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our foules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirsty or speake: but the Lord as it were in a table, painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it. p In calling him sonne, he taunteth his vaine boasting, who in his life vaunted himselfe to be the sonne of Abraham: warning vs also hereby how little glorious titles auaille. Or, good thing. Or, small things. Or, y following pir. q Which declareth that it is to late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they cannot profite by the liuely worde of God. r As sayth commeth by Gods worde, so is it mainteyned by the same. So that neither we ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the worde of God is sufficient to life & clarifying.

16 * The Law and the Prophets endured until Iohn: and since that time the kingdom of God is preached, & every man y pleaseeth into it.

18 ¶ Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certaine riche man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was laied at his gate full of sores,

21 And desired to be refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea, and the dogges came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, & was caried by the Angels into y bosome of Abraham. The riche man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in tormentes, he lift vp his eyes, and sawe Abraham afarre of, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cried, & saide, Father Abraham, haue mercie on me, & send Lazarus that hee may dippe the tip of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuest thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betwene you and vs there is a great gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you can not, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therfore father, that thou wouldest sende him to my fathers house,

28 (For I haue fine brethren) that hee may testifie vnto them, least they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saide vnto him, They haue Moses and the 9 Prophets: let them y heare them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham:

but if one came vnto them fro the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he said vnto a him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither wil they be persuaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

9 And would not rather say to him, * Dresse thy selfe with I map suppe, and giue thy selfe, and serue me, till I haue eaten and drunken, and afterward eate thou, and drinke thou?

10 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because he did that which was commaunded vnto him? I trow not.

11 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those thinges, which are comaunded you, say, We are vnprofitable seruants: we haue done that which was our duetie to doe.

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neyther reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widowe in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, ¶ Do me iustice against mine aduersarie.

4 And he woulde not for a time: but afterwards he said with him self, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in their selues that they were iust, and despised other,

10 Two men went by into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise stood and prayed thus with him selfe, ¶ O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vnjust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

12 I fast twice in the weeke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing asafarre off, woulde not lift vp so much as his eyes to heauen, but smote his breast, saying, ¶ O God, be mercifull to mee a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house iustified, rather then the other: ¶ for euery man that exalteth him selfe, shall be brought lowe, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie;

Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father & thy mother.

21 And he saide, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Howe when Iesus heard that, he saide vnto him, For lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, & come, follow me.

23 But when he heard those things, he was very heauie: for he was marvellous rich, 25 Surely it is easier for a camel to goe through a needles eye, then for a riche man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 Then saide they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully entreated, and shall be spitteb on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstoode none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

38 Then he cried, saying, Iesus sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace, but he cryed much more.

40 And Iesus stoode still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come nere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he saide, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus saide vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediately he receiued his sight, & followed him, praising God: & all the people, when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

ple in the Temple, and preached the Gospel, the high Priests & the Scribes came vpon him with the Elders,

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is he that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, & saide vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell mee therefore:

4 The baptisme of Iohn was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say from heauen, he will say, Why then beleued ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they were persuaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, b Neither tel I you, by what authoritie I do these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a seruant to the husbandine, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandine did beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: and they did beat him, & foule intreated him, and sent him away empty.

12 Moreover, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will sende my beloved Sonne: it may be that they will do reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandines saw him, they reasoned with them selues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore do vnto them?

16 He will come and destroye these husbandines, & will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they saide, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he behelde them, and sayde, What meaneth this in them that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

18 Whosoener shall fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whomsoener it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶ And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should saue themselves first, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour. 21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we knowe that thou sayest, and teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truly.

22 Is it lawful for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftines, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shewe me a penie. Whose image & superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar.

25 Then he saide vnto them, * ¶ Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesas, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reuoyce his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certaine of the Sadduces (which denie that there is any resurrection,) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, ¶ Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, & raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Nowe there were seven brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and he died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childelesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen dyed, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman dyed also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, The children of this worlde marie wiues, and are married.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrie wiues, neither are married.

36 ¶ For they can dye no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the Sonnes of God, since they are the children of the resurrection.

39 Then certaine of the Pharises answered, & said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, burst they not atke him any thing at all.

41 ¶ Then said he vnto them, Wolue say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

1 N Dwe * the ^a feast of unleuened bread drewe nere, which is called the Passouer.

2 And the hie Priestes and Scribes sought howe they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Judas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the hie Priestes and ^b captaines, howe he might betray him to them.

5 So they were ^c glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented, and sought oportunitie to betray him vnto them, when the people were awap.

7 ¶ * Then came the day of unleuened bread when the Passouer ^d must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Passouer, that we may eate it.

9 And they sayde to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then he sayde vnto them, Beholde, when ye be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a p^{it}cher of water: followe him into the house that he entred in,

11 And say vnto the good man of the house, The Master saith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eate my Passouer with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shewe you a great hie chamber trimmed: there make it: eadp.

13 So they went, and founde as he had saide vnto them, and made ready the Passouer.

14 * And when the ^e houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, y^e henceforth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And ye tooke the cuppe, and gaue thanks, and saide, Take this, and drinke it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I wil not drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

19 * And he tooke bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, & gaue to them, saying, & This is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after supper he tooke the cuppe, saying, This cuppe is the newe ^h Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 * Pet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is ⁱ appointed: but w^e be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among them selues which of them it should be, that should do that.

24 ¶ * And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But he said vnto them, The Kinges of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called ^k Grauous lordes.

26 But ye shal not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the ^l least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I ^m appointe vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed to me,

30 * That ye may ⁿ eate, and drinke at my table in my kingdome, & sit on seats, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, beholde, Satan hath desired you, ^o to winnow you, as wheat.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith ^p faile not: therefore when y^e art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 * And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe wth thee into prison, & to death.

34 But he sayde, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied, that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he saide vnto them, * When I sent you without bagge, and scrippe, & shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then he said to them, But nolue he that hath a bag. let him take it, & like wife a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coate, and ^q buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet y^e same which is written, must be performed in me, * Then with the wicked was he they are written of me, haue an ende.

11 And Herode with his men of warre deſpiſed him, and mocked him, and aſſailed him in white, and lent hym as gaine to Pilate.

12 And the ſame day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie prieſts, and the rulers, and the people,

14 * And ſaid vnto them, He haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerſed the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and haue found no fault in this man, of thoſe things whereof ye accuſe him:

22 And he ſaid vnto them the third time, But what euil hath he done? I find no cauſe of death in him: I will therefore chaſtiſe him, and let him looſe.

23 But they were inſtant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, and of the hie Prieſts prevailed.

24 So Pilate gaue ſentence, that it ſhould be as they required.

25 And he let looſe vnto them him that for inſurrectiō and murder was caſt into priſon, whom they deſired, and deſiuered Ieſus to do with him what they woult.

26 ¶ And as they led hym away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the ſield, and on him they layde the croſſe, to beare it after Ieſus.

34 Then ſaide Ieſus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and caſt lottes.

35 And the people ſtoode, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, ſaying, He ſaued others: let him ſaue hym ſelfe, if he be the Chyiſte, the Cholen of God.

1 The women come to the grave. 13 Christ appeareth vnto the two disciples that goe toward Emmaus. 36 He sheweth in the middes of his disciples, and openeth their understanding in the Scriptures. 47 He giueth them a charge. 51 He ascendeth up to heauen. 53 His disciples worship him, 53 And of their daily exercise.

1 NOWE the first day of the weeke early in the morning, they came vnto the sepulchre, and brought the odours, which they had prepared, and certaine women with them.
2 And they found the stone rolled awaye from the sepulchre,
3 And went in, but found not the body of the Lord Iesus.
4 And it came to passe, that as they were amazed therat, behold, there suddenly stood by them in hanging shures.
5 And as they were afraide, and bowed downe their faces to the earth, they said to them, Whp seeke ye him that is dead, among the dead?
6 He is not here, but is risen: remember howe he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galilee,
7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the thurd day rise againe.
8 And they remembered his words,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eleven, and to all the remnant.
10 Nowe it was Marie Magdalene and Joanna, & Marie the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.
11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thng, neither beleueed they them.
12 Then arose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and saw the linnen clothes laid by them selues, and departed wondering in him selfe at that which was come to passe.
13 And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about thye scoye furlongs, called Emmaus,

 Jesus him self stood in the middes of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to 37 But they were abashed & afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

 38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye

 39 Behold mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see fer, and to rise againe from the dead the of sinnes should bee preached in his Or, before the beginning, a Christ is God

 Before all time.
 b The Sonne is of the same substance with the Father.
 c No creature was made without Christ.
 d Whereby all things are quick-ned and preferued.
 e The life of man is more excellent then of any other creature, because it is ioyned with light and vnder-standing.
 f Mans minde is full of darkenes because of the corruption ther-of.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, & that Word was God.
 The same was in the beginning with God.
 All thinges were made by it, and e-without it was made nothing that was made.
 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.
 And the light shineth
 in the darkenes, and the darkenes
 comprehended it not.
 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
 The same came for a witness, to beare
 witness of the light, that all men through him might beleue.
 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witness of the light.
 That was the true light, which lighteth euery man that cometh into the world.
 He was in the world, & the world was made by him: and the world knewe him not.

He came vnto his owne, & his owne receiued him not.
 But as many as receiued him, to the hee gave power to bee the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleue
 in his Name, Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but
 of God.
 And the Word
 was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we saw the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father) full of grace and truth.
 ¶ Iohn bare witness of him, & cried, saying,
 This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me: for he was before me.
 And of his fulnes
 haue all we recei-ued, and grace for grace.
 For the Law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.
 No man hath seene God, at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared
 him.
 ¶ Then this is the record of John, when the Iewes sent Priests & Leuites from Jerusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?
 And he confessed, and denied not, and sayd plainly, I am not the Christ.

22 Then layde they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? What sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him that crieth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as saide the Prophet Elias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and sayde vnto him, Why baptisest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe I as yett touch not.

28 These things were done in Bethsara beyond Jordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and sayth, Behold the lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the worlde.

30 This is he of whom I sayd, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe y him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I sawe the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, he saide vnto me, Wpō whom thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tarry still on him, that is he which baptiseth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.

35 ¶ The next daye, Iohn stoode againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and said, Behold the lambe of God.

37 And y two disciples heard him speak, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, & saw the folow, and said vnto them, What seeke ye? and they saide vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretation, Master): where dwellest thou?

39 He sayde vnto them, Come, and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, & abode with him that day: for it was about the fourth houre.

40 Andrew, Simō Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard of Iohn, and that followed him.

41 The same founde his brother Simon first, and said vnto him, We haue found the Messias, which is by interpretation, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Iesus. And Iesus beheld him, and said, Thou art Simon the sone of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus would go vnto Galile, and founde Philyppe, and said vnto him, Followe me.

44 Nowe Philyppe was of Bethsaida, the cite of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philyppe founde Mathanael, and said vnto him, We haue founde him, of whom Moses did write in the Lawe, and the Prophets, Iesus of Nazaret y sone of Ioseph.

46 Then Mathanael said vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazaret? Philyppe saide to him, Come, and see.

47 Iesus sawe Mathanael coming to him, and said of him, Beholde, in verbe an Isaacite, in whom is no guile.

48 Mathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou mee? Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Before that Philyppe called thee, when thou wast vnder the figge tree, I sawe thee.

49 Mathanael answered, and said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art y Sonne of God: thou art the king of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the fig tree, bleenedst thou: thou shalt see greater things then these.

Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driueth the buyers, and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and discipulizeth man.

1 And the third day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, & the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee? mine houre is not yett come.

5 His mother saide vnto the seruantes, Whatsoeuer he sayth vnto you, do it.

6 And there were set there, six waterpots of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, conteyning two or three firkins a peece.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then he saide vnto them, Drawe out now and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue wel drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, & shewed forth his glorie: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that he went down into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many daies there.

13 For the Jewes Passouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 And hee founde in the Temple those that sold oren, and sheepe, & doves, and changers of monney, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of sinall cordes, and drave them all out of the Temple with the sheepe and oren, and powied out the changers monny, and ouerthrew the tables,

16 And said vnto them that solde doves, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, My house shall be called a house of prayer.

18 Then answered the Jewes, & said vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, Destroy this Temple, & in three daies I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Jewes, Fourtie and sixe yeres was this Temple a building, & wilt thou reare it vp in three daies?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body. 22 Alasone therfore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he thus said vnto them: and they beleued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Now when he was at Ierusalem at the Passouer in the feast, many beleued in his name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

25 And had no need that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructed Nicodemus in the regeneration. 15 Of the loue of God towards the worlde. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn, 28 And the signes that he beareth of Christ.

1 There was now a man of the Iudha: Trifles named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewes.

2 He came to Iesus by night, & said vnto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man could do these miracles that thou doest except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, Howe can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is borne of flesh, is fleshy: & that is borne of the Spirit, is spirite. 7 Haruerie not that I saide to thee, He must be borne againe.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whither it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, & knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I saye vnto thee, wee speake that we know, and testifie that we haue seene: but ye receiue not our witnes.

12 If when I tel you earthly things, ye beleue not, how should ye beleue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift vp.

15 That whosoever beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternal life.

16 For God so loued the worlde, that hee hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerslasting life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he should condemne the worlde; but that the worlde through him might be saued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shall not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, and men loued darkenes rather then light, because their deedes were euill.

20 For every man that euil doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, least his deedes should be reprobued.

21 But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, & his deedes might be made

7 The communication of Christ with the woman of

2 (Though Jesus him selfe baptized not:

3 He left Iudea, and departed againe into Galile.

4 And he must needs goe through Samaria.

5 The came he to a citie of Samaria called Sychar, nere vnto his possession that Jacob gaue to his sonne Joseph,

6 And there was Jacobs well. Jesus the wearing in the iourney, late^e thus on the well: it was about the^e sixth houre.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the cite, to buye meate.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, Howe is it, that thou being a Jewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria: for the Jewes meddle not with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said vnto her, If thou knewest the^e gift of God, & who it is that saith to thee, Giue me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, & hee would haue giuen thee^e water of life.

11 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, which gaue vs the well, and hee him selfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattel?

13 Jesus answered, and saide vnto her, Whosoener drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe:

14 But whosoener drinketh of the^e water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more a thirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, for I may not thirst, neither come hither to drinke.

16 Jesus saide vnto her, Goe, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and saide, I haue no husband. Jesus saide to her,
Thou hast wel said, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saidst thou true.

19 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in^e Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus said vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye^e knowe not: we worship that which we knowe:
for saluation is of the Jewes.

23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, and truth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 God is a^e Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit

 27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marvelled that hee talked with a woman: yet no man saide vnto him, What akest thou? or why talkest thou with her?
 28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the cite, & sayd
 to the men,
 29 Come, see a man which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not he the Christ?
 30 Then they went out of the cite, and came vnto him.
 31 ¶ In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, What eate, 32 But he said vnto them, I haue meate to eat, that ye know not of.
 33 Then said the disciples betwene them
 selues, What any man brought him

 34 Jesus said vnto them, My meate is that I may doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.
 35 Say not ye, There are yet foure mo-neths, and then cometh harvest? Wes-holde, I sape vnto you, Lift vp your are white already vnto harvest.

 36 And he that reapeth, receiveth wages,

 37 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth.
 38 I sent you to reape that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: another men las-houred, and ye are entred into their las-hours.
 39 Nowe many of the Samaritans of that cite beleued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath tolde me all things that euer I did.
 40 Then when the Samaritans were come vnto him, they besought him, that he would tarry with them: and hee abode there two dayes.
 41 And many more beleued, because of his owne word.
 42 And they sayd vnto the woman, Now we beleue, not because of thy saying:
 for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede the Christ
 the Sauiour of the world.
 43 ¶ So two dayes after hee departed thence, and went into Galile.
 44 For Jesus him selfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.
 45 Then when he was come into Galile, the Galileans received him, which had seene all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.
 46 And Jesus came againe into Capernaum, a towne of Galile, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Iudaea into Galile, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would goe downe, and heale his sonne: for he was euen ready to die.
 48 Then said Jesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye wil not beleue.
 49 The ruler sayde vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.
 50 Jesus sayd vnto him, See thy way, thy sonne lieth: and the man beleued
 the word that Jesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.
 51 And as he was now going downe, his seruants met him, saying, Thy sonne lieth.
 52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to amend. And they said vnto him, Yesterday the seventh houre
 the feuer left him.
 53 Then the father knew, that it was the same houre in the which Jesus had said vnto him, Thy sonne lieth. And he beleued, and all his household.
 54 This seconde miracle did Jesus as game, after he was come out of Iudaea
 into Galile.

 2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five por-

 3 In the which lay a great multitude of 4 For an Angel went downe at a cer-

 5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie

 7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I day: * it is not lawfull for thee to carie thy bed.

11 He answered them, Ye that made me whole, he lade vnto me, Take by thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which laid vnto thee, Take by thy bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knelwe not who it was: for Ieſus had comeped himſelfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Ieſus found him in the Temple, & laid vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: ſinne no more, leaſt a worſe thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Ieſus, which had made him whole.

16 And therfore the Iewes did perſecute Ieſus, and ſought to ſlay him, becauſe he had done theſe things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Ieſus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therfore the Iewes ſought the more to kill him: not onely becauſe hee had broken the Sabbath: but ſaid alſo that God was his Father, and made him ſelfe equal with God.

19 Then answered Ieſus, and ſaid vnto them, Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himſelfe, ſaue that he ſeech þe Father do: for whatſoeuer things he doth, the ſaue things doeth the Sonne alſo.

20 For the Father loveth the Sonne, & ſheweth him all things, whatſoeuer he himſelfe doeth, and he wil ſhew him greater workes then theſe, þe ſhould maruaile.

21 For likewiſe as the Father raiſeth by the dead, and quickeneth them, ſo the Sonne quickeneth whom he wil.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne,

23 Becauſe that all men ſhoulde honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the ſaue honoureth not the Father, which hath ſent him.

24 Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, he that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that ſent me, hath euerlaſting life, and ſhall not come into condemnation, but hath paſſed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, þe ſhould ſhal come, and now is, when the dead ſhall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, ſhall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in himſelfe, ſo likewiſe hath hee giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himſelfe, 27 And hath giuen him power alſo to execute iudgement, in that hee is the Sonne of man.

28 For euere now at this: for the houre ſhall come in the which all that are in the graues, ſhall heare his voyce,

29 And they ſhal come forth, that haue done good, vnto þe reſurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the reſurrection of condemnation.

30 I can do nothing of mine own ſelfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iuſt, becauſe I ſeeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath ſent me.

31 If I ſhould beare witnes of my ſelfe, my witnes were not true.

32 There is another that beareth witnes of mee, and I knowe that the witnes, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 He ſent vnto John, and he bare witnes vnto the truthe.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheleſe theſe things I ſay, that ye might be ſauid.

35 He was a burning, & a ſhining candle: and he would for a ſeaſon haue reſpended in his light.

36 But I haue greater witnes then the witnes of John: for the workes which the Father hath giuen me to finiſh, the ſaue workes that I doe, beare witnes of me, that the Father ſent me.

37 And the Father himſelfe, which hath ſent mee, beareth witnes of mee, þe haue not heard his voyce at any time, neither haue ye ſene his ſhape.

38 And his word haue ye not abiding in you: for whom he hath ſent, him ye beſeeue not.

39 Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternal life, and they are they which teſtifie of me.

40 But ye will not come to me, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praife of men.

42 But I knowe you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers name, & ye receiue me not: if þe another ſhall come in his owne name, him will ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleeue, which ye receiue not the honour that cometh of God alone?

45 Do not thinke that I will accuſe you to my Father: there is one that accuſeth you, euen Moſes, in whom ye truſt.

46 For haue ye beleeued Moſes, ye would haue beleeued me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleeue not his writings, how ſhall ye beleeue my wordes.

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then saide vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother,

9 There is a little boy here, which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit downe. (Howe there was much grasse in that place) Then the men sate downe in number, about five thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, & gaue thanks, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were sette downe: & likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, he saide vnto his disciples, Gather by the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing be lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, & filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the five barley loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a trouth the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therfore perceived that they would come, & take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When enen was now come, his disciples went downe into the sea,

17 * And entred into a shippe, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: & now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great boilde that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about five and thentie, or thirtie furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were affrayed.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not affrayed.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, a people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the voyde had giuen thanks.

24 How when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, & came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had founde him on the other side of the sea, they sayde vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we doe, that wee might worke the workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, & sayde vnto them, This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whom he hath sent.

30 They said therfore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see it, and beleue thee: what doest thou worke?

31 * Our fathers did eate Manna in the desert, as it is written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eat.

32 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they said vnto him, Lord, encrease more giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus said vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to mee, shall not hunger, and he that beleueth in me, shall neuer thirst.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that ye also haue seene me, and beleue not.

37 Why that the father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that cometh to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me: that of all which he hath giuen me, I should be losse nothing, but should raise it by and by at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent mee, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him, should haue euerlasting life: and I will raise him by at the last day.

42 And they said, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we know? how then saith he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and said vnto them, Whurme not among your felues.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Euerp man therefore that hath heard, & hath learned of the Father, cometh vnto me, 46 * Not that any man hath seene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that beleueth in me, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eat Manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which cometh downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it, should not die.

51 I am the * liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: of any man eat of this bread, he shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Jewes stroue among them selues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eat?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, & drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you.

54 Whosoener * eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, & I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat in deede, and my blood is drunke in deede.

56 Ye that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, * dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (whē they heard this) saide, This is an hard saying: who can heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in him selfe, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man * ascende by * where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh * profiteth nothing: the words that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleeue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleeued not, & who should betray him.

65 And he sayde, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that tyme, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shal we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life:

69 And we beleeue and know that thou art * the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Yare not I * chosen you twelue, and one of you is a deuil?

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

1 After these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and would not walke in Iudea: for the Jewes sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jewes * feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore saide vnto him, Depart hence, and go vnto Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 If soe there is no man that doeth any thing secretly, and see him selfe seeketh to bee famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy selfe to the world.

5 For as yet his brethren beleeued not in him.

6 Then Iesus saide vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that it workes thereof after euill.

8 So ye by vnto this feast: I will not go by yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he saide vnto them, & abode still in Galile.

10 But as soone as his brethren were gone by, then went he also by vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Nay: but he deceaith the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Jewes.

14 Now when half the feast was done, Iesus went up into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Jewes maniepled, saying, Howe knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man wil do his wil, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it bee of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He that speaketh of him selfe, seeketh his owne glorie: but hee that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no s unrighteousnes is in him.

19 Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you heepeth it? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and saide, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and ye all manie uelle.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Lawe of Moses should not be broken, be ye angrie with me, because I haue made a man enery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whom they go about to kill?

26 And beholde, he speaketh openly, & they say nothing to him: doe the rulers knowe in deed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence hee is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shall knowe whence he is.

28 Then cried Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am: yet say I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye knowe not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laid hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Howe many of the people beleued in him, and said, When the Christ cometh, wil he do no miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these thinges of him, and the Pharisees, and his Priests sent officers to take him,

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Peten am I a little while with you, and then go I vnto him that sent me.

34 What shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then said the Jewes amongs themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not finde him? Will he goe vnto them that are disperced among the Grecians, and teache the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he saide, We shall seeke me, and shall not finde me? and where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and great daye of the feast, Iesus stode and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 He that belieueth in me, as saith the Scripture, out of his bellie shall flowe riuers of water of life.

39 This spake he of the Spirit which they beleued in him, shoulde receiue: for the holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truely this is the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: & some sayd, But shall Chute come out of Galilee?

42 Saith not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests & Pharisees, and they saide vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Fewer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Wee pe also deceiued?

48 Doeth any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees beleue in him?

49 But this people, which knowe not the Lawe, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saide vnto them, He that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them?

51 Doeth our Lawe iudge a man before it heare him, and knowe what he hath done?

52 They answered & saide vnto him, Nitt thou also of Galilee & Search and looke: for out of Galilee ariseth no Prophet.

42 Therefore Iesus saide vnto them, If God were your Father, then woulde ye loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye cannot heare my woordes.

44 * Ye are of your father the deuill, and the lusts of your father ye will doe: he hath bene a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, & the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the trueth, ye beleene me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why doe ye not beleene me?

47 * Ye that is of God, heareth Gods woordes: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and yudgerh.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my woord, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then said the Iewes to him, Howe knowe we that thou hast a deuill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, & thou sayest, If a man keepe my woordes, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whome makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my Father that honoureth me, whome ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye haue not knowne him: but I know him, and if I should say I know him not, I should be a liar like vnto you: but I knowe he & keep his woord.

56 Your father Abraham reioiced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yett sitte peere olde, & hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, before Abraham was, I am.

CHAP. IX.

Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde man Christ giueth sight.

As Iesus passed by, he saue a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, * Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the woorkes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the woorkes of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, * I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he cast on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay.

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloan (which is by interpretation, ^d Sent) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Nowe the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, saide, Is not this he that sate & begged?

9 Some said, This is he: and others said, He is like him: but he him selfe said, I am he.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, Howe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and saide, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and saide vnto me, Goe to the poole of Siloan and wash. So I went & washed, & received sight.

12 Then they saide vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 * They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was þ Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, & opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had received sight. And he said vnto them, He layed clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, Howe can a man þ is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde as gain. What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he saide, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleene him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) until they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde? How doth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

eyes, * can we not tell: he is olde prough: aske him: he shall answer for him selfe.

22 These wordes spake his parentes, because they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had ordamed already, that if any man bid confesse that he was the Christ, he should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore saide his parentes, He is olde prough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the mā that had bin blinde, & said vnto him, Cme gloyp vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I can not tel: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 ^b Then said they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you already, & ye haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and said, Wee know his disciple: We be Moses disciples: Wee know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

29 The man answered, and said vnto them, Doubtes, this is a marueilous thing, that ye knowe not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

30 Now we knowe that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his wil, him heareth he.

31 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was bozne blinde.

32 If this man were not of God, hee could haue done nothing.

33 They answered, and said vnto him, Thou art altogether bozne in finnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they call him out.

34 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said vnto him, Dost thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

35 He answered, and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might beleue in him?

36 And Iesus said vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

37 Then he said, Lord, I beleuee, and worshipped him.

38 And Iesus said, I am come vnto iudgement into this world, that they which see not, might see: and they that they which see, might be made blinde.

39 And some of the Pharisees which were with him, heard these things, and said vnto him, Wee be blinde alke?

40 Iesus said vnto them, If ye were blinde, ye should not haue sinne: but now ye saie, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

11 Christ is the true shepheard, and the doer, 20 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 How asked if he be Christ. 32 He workes declare that he is God. 34 The Princes called gods.

I Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that entereh not in by the dooze into the sheepfold, but climeth by an other waye, he is a thiefe and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the dooze, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeeth them out.

4 And whye he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe folow him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they will not followe a stratger, but they flee from him: for they know not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto the: but they vnderstood not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the dooze of the sheepe.

8 All, that enter came before mee, are thieves and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the dooze: if yme of any man enter in, he shal be saued, and shall go in and go out, and finde pasture.

10 The sheepe commeth not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroye: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and he which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, and he leaureth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and I know mine, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lape downe my life for my sheepe.

16 So the sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: the also are: I am, and they shal heare my voyce: & there shal be one sheepefolde, and one shepheard.

17 Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to take it againe: and haue power to take it againe: this commandement haue I inuicereceiued of my Father.

19 Then there was a dissension againe among the Jewes for these sayings.

23 And Iesus walked in the Temple, in Solomons porche.

24 Then came the Jewes rounde about him, & said vnto him, How long doest thou make vs doute? If thou be the Christ, tell vs plainly.

25 Iesus answered them, I tolde you, & ye beleene not: the workes that I do in my fathers name, they beare witness of me.

36 Saye ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I saide, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I do not the workes of my Father, beleue me not.

38 But if I doe, then though ye beleene not me, ye beleene the workes, that ye may knowe and beleue, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Agayne they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their hands,

40 And went againe beyond Iordan, into the place where Iohn first baptized, and there abode.

41 And many resorted vnto him, & sayd, Iohn did no miracle: but all things that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleueued in him there.

CHAP. XI.

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus fro death. 47 The high Priests and Pharises gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

1 And a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the town of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her heare, whose brot her Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not vnto deatly, but for the glorie of God, the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Nowe Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, saide he to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples saide vnto him, Master, the Jewes lately sought to stone thee, and doest thou go thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the daye? if a man walke in the daye, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, & after he saide vnto the, Our friend Lazarus sleepe: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, hee shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the natural sleepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then saide Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also goe, that we maye die with him.

17 Then came Iesus, and founde that he had lien in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Nowe Bethania was nere vnto Ierusalem, about sixtene furlonges of.)

19 And many of the Jewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she hearde that Iesus was coming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I knowe also, that what soeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha saide vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

a For although he died, yet being restored so soone to life, it was almost no death in comparison.

Christ restoreth vs from death to give vs everlasting life.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth, and beleueth in me, shall neuer die, Seleeueth thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sone of God, which should come into the worlde.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And whē she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Jesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Jewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie, that she rose up hastily, and went out, folowed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou hadest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Jewes also weepe which came with her, he groined in the spirit, and was troubled in him selfe,

34 And said, Where haue ye laid him?
They said vnto him, Lord, come, & see.

35 And Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jewes, Behold, howe
he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not he,
which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue dyed?

38 Jesus therefore againe groined in him self, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layed vpon it.

39 Jesus sayde, Take ye away the stone.
Martha the sister of him that was dead, saide vnto him, Lord, he sinketh alreadie: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Jesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou didest beleue, thou shouldest see the glorie of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid,
And Jesus lift up his eyes, and saide, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I saide it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these thinges, he cried with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hande and foote with bandes,
and his face was bound with a napkin,

45 ¶ Then many of the Jewes, which came to Marie, and had seene thinges which Jesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went the other way to the Pharises, and tolde them what thinges Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priestes, and the Pharises a counsil, and said, What shall we do? For this man doeth inas-my miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest that same yeere, said vnto them, We perceiue no thing at all.

50 For yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of him selfe: but being hie Priest that same yeere, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation only, but that he should gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 ¶ Then s. on that day forth they consulted to ether: to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jewes, but went thence vnto a countreye in the wil-dernes, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jewes Passouer was at hand, and many went out of the coun-trei up to Jerusalem before the Passouer, to purchase them selues.

56 ¶ Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among them selues, as they stood in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he commeth not to the feast?

with her care, and the house was huzled with the saour of the ointment.

- 4 Then said one of his disciples, euen Judas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,
- 5 Why was not this ointment solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?
- 6 Now he said this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a thiefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.
- 7 Then said Jesus, let her alone: against the day of my burying he kept it.
- 8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.
- 9 Then much people of the Jewes knewe that he was there: & they came, not for Jesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whome he had raised from the dead.
- 10 The hie Priestes therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also,
- 11 Because that for his sake many of the Jewes went away, and beleued in Jesus.
- 12 ¶ In the morowe a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus should come to Jerusalem,
- 13 Tooke branches of palme trees, and went forth to meeete him, & cryed, Hosanna, Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the Name of the Lord.
- 14 And Jesus found a pouing asse, and sate thereon, as it is written,
- 15 ¶ Feare not, daughter of Sion: be holde, thy King cometh sitting on an asse colt.
- 16 But his disciples vnderstoode not these things at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they, that these things were written of him, & that they had done these things vnto him.
- 17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witness that he called Lazarus out of the graue, and raised him from the dead.
- 18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that he had done this miracle.
- 19 And the Pharises said among them selves, We perceiue ye howe ye vzeaine nothing? Beholde, the woilde goeth after him.
- 20 ¶ Now there were certaine Greekes among them that came by to worship at the feast.
- 21 And they came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida in Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.
- 22 Whilsey came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philippe tolde Jesus.
- 23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be glorified.
- 24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, except

- the wheate come fall into the grounde, and dye, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruite.
- 25 ¶ Ye that loueth his life, shall lose it, and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keepe it vnto life eternall.
- 26 ¶ If any man serue me, let him follow me: for where I am, there shall also my seruaunt be: and if any man serue me, him will my Father honour.
- 27 Now is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.
- 28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.
- 29 Then said the people that stode by, and heard, that it was a thunder: as thers said, An Angell spake to him.
- 30 Jesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.
- 31 Nowe is the iudgement of this woilde: now shall the prince of this woilde be cast out.
- 32 ¶ And I, if I were lift by from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.
- 33 Nowe this said he, signifying what death he should die.
- 34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the Lawe, that the Christ bideth for euer: and howe sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift by? who is that Sonne of man?
- 35 Then Jesus saide vnto them, Yet a litle while is the light with you: but walke while ye haue light, lest the darknesse come vpon you: for he that walkeeth in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth.
- 36 While ye haue light, beleue in the light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and hid him selfe from them.
- 37 ¶ And though he had done so many miracles before them, yet beleued they not on him:
- 38 That the saying of Elaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he saide, ¶ Lord, who beleued our repute? and to whome is the arme of the Lord reuelled?
- 39 Therefore could they not beleue, because that Elaias saith againe,
- 40 ¶ Ye haue blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they shoulde not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should heale them.
- 41 These things saide Elaias when he saue his glorie, and spake of him.
- 42 Nevertheless euen among the chiefe rulers many beleued in him: but because of the Pharises, they did not confesse him, lest they shoulde be cast out of the Synagogue.
- 43 ¶ For they loued the praise of men,

Christ washeth the disciples feete, 12 Exhorting them to humilitie and charitie, 21 Tellethe them of Iudas the traitour, 24 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 He forewarneth of Peters deniall.

1 Now * before the feast of the Pascheouer, when Jesus knewe that his houre was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the ffather, so almight as he loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the ende he loued them.

2 And when supper was done, (and that the deuil had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him)

3 Jesus knowing that the ffather had giuen all thinges into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and tooke a towel, and girded him selfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a basin, and beganne to washe the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towel, wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who sayd to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feete?

7 Jesus answered and saide vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Jesus answered him, if I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the handes and the head.

10 Jesus said to him, Ye that is washed, needeth not, saue to wash his feete, but is cleane euer why: and pe are cleane, Chap. 13. 8. but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Pe are not all cleane.

12 I Do after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, hee saide vnto them, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?

13 Pe call me Master, and Lord, and ye say wel: for so am I.

14 If I then pour lord, & Master, haue washed your feet, pe also ought to wash e one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should do, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

17 If pe knowe these thinges, blessed are ye, if ye doe them.

18 I I speake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, * He that eateth bread with me, hath lift vp his heele against me.

19 From henceforth tel I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue that I am e he.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, he that receiveth him, receiveth me, and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had said these thinges, he was troubled in the Spirit, & testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 * Then the disciples looked one on another, douting of whom he spake.

23 Nowe there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Jesus bosome, whom Jesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that he should aske who it was of whom he spake.

25 Ye then, as he leaned on Jesus brest, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, Ye it is, to whom I thal giue a sopp, when I haue dryped it: and he wet a sopp, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the sopp, Satan entred into him. Then sayd Jesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Iudas had the bagge, that Jesus had sayd vnto him, Bye those things that we haue neede of against the feast: or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as he had receiued the sopp, he went immediatly out, and it was night.

2 * Euery branch that beareth not fruit in me, he is taken away: & euery one that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 * Now are ye cleane through the worde, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 * Abide in me, and I in you: as a branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I Am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruite: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast the into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me, & my wordes abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herin is my father glorified, that ye beare much fruite, and be made my disciples.

9 As the father hath loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in me & my loue.

10 If ye shall keepe my commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my fathers commandements, & abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be full.

12 * This is my commandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man beloueth his life for his friends.

14 We are my friends, if ye do what soeuer I command you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not seruantes: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friends: for all things that I haue heard of my father, haue I made knowne to you.

16 We haue not chosen mee, but I haue chosen you, and ordeyned you, that ye go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the father in my name, hee may geue it you.

17 These things command I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde would loue his owne: but because ye are not of the world, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I said vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master. * If they haue persecuted me, they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they will also keepe your.

21 But all these things will they do vnto you for my names sake, because they haue not knowne him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they both seene, and haue hated both me, and my father.

25 But it is that the word might be fulfilled, that is writte in their Law, * They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter shall come, whom I will send vnto you from the father, euen the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth of the father, he shall testifie of me.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, will thinke that hee doeth God seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowen the father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember, that I tolde you this. And these things haue I said vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh mee, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue said these things vnto you, your heartes are full of darkness.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will sende him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the worlde of sinne, & of righteousnes, and of iudgement.

11 Of judgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare the: now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of truth, he will lead you into all truth: for he shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare, shall he speake, and ye will heare you the things that I come.

14 He shall glorie me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: & againe a little while, and ye shall see me: so I go to my Father.

17 Then sayde some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he sayth vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me, and, so I go to my Father?

18 They said therfore, What is this that he sayeth, A little while: we knowe not what he sayth.

19 Nowe Iesus knewe that they would aske him, and sayde vnto them, Doe ye enquire among your selues, of that I sayd, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe & lament, & the worlde shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman when she travaileth, hath sorowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembereth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me no thing. Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parabes: but the time will come, when I shall in more speake to you in parabes: but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day shall ye aske in my Name, & I shall not vnto you, that I will pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father himselfe loneth you, because ye haue loued me, and haue beleued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the worlde: againe I leaue the worlde, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and thou speakest now parable.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. Why this ye beleue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do you beleue now?

32 Beholde, the houre cometh, and is already come, that ye shall be scattered euery man into his owne, and shall leaue me alone: but I am not alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that in mee ye might haue peace: in the worlde ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue overcome the worlde.

1 These things spake Iesus, and lift vnto his eyes to heauen, and sayde, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

2 As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they know thee to be the onely verie God, & whom thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the work which thou gauest me to do.

5 And nowe glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glorie which I had with thee before the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest mee out of the world: them they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy worde.

7 Nowe they knowe that all things which thou hast giuen mee, are of thee.

8 For I haue giue vnto them thy words, which thou gauest mee, and they haue receiued them, & haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the worlde, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

12 While I was with them in this world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me, but I kept, and none of them is lost, but the childe of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my hope fulfilled in thyself.

14 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall believe in me, through thy word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: even that they may be also one in us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

24 Father, I will that they which thou hast given me, be with me even where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not known thee, but I have known thee, and these have known, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it, that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

CHAP. XVII.

3 Christ is betrayed, 6 The words of his mouth smite the officers to the ground, 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare, 13 Jesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas, 15 VVhere Peter denieth him, 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdom is.

1 When Jesus had spoken these things, he went forth with his disciples out of a house which he had bought, where he was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas which betrayed him, knew also the place: for Jesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas then after he had received a band of men and officers of the hie Priests, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Jesus, knowing all things that should come unto him, went forth and said unto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth, Jesus said unto them, I am hee. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Asone then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked the again, Whom seeke ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazaret.

8 Jesus answered, I sayd unto you, that I am hee: therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the woide might be fulfilled which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priests servant, and cut of his right eare. Nowe the servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cuppe which my Father hath given me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Jewes tooke Jesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas first (for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest: that same yeere)

14 And Caiaphas was he, that gave counsel to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowne of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Jesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowne unto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saide the maide that kept the doore, unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He sayd, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coles: for it was cold, and they warmed them selves. And Peter also was warme among them, and warmed him self.

19 The hie Priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I enter taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whiche the Jewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me: aske them which heard me what I said vnto them: be holde, they knowe what I said.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answereest thou the hie Priest lo?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witness of the euill: but if I haue wel spoken, why smitest thou me.

24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 ¶ And Simon Peter stood and warmed him selfe, and they said vnto him, Wert not thou also of his disciples? Hee denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin whose care Peter smote of, saide, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crewe.

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they then selues went not into the common hall, least they should be defiled, but that they might eate the Passouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and saide, What accusation bringest thou against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then saide Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, & iudge him after your owne lawe. Then the Jewes said vnto him, It is not lawful for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 ¶ So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, & said vnto him, Wert thou the King of the Jewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Saiest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Wnt I a Jewe? Thine owne nation, and the hie Priestes haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Jewes: But nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Wert thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou saiest that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witness vnto the truth: euer yone that is of the truth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate saide vnto him, What is truth? And when he had sayd that, he went out againe vnto the Jewes, and said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 ¶ But you haue an custome, that I should deliuer you one loote at the Passouer: will pe then that I loose vnto you the King of the Jewes?

40 ¶ Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: nowe this Barabbas was a murderer.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ When Pilate could not asswage the rage of the Jewes against Christ, he deliuereth him vp with his superscription to bee hangd betweene two theues. 23 They cast lottes for his garments, 26 He commendeth hu mother vnto Iohn, 28 Callets for drinke, 33 Dyet, and his sicke is perced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

1 Then Pilate rooke Iesus & scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And saide, Haile, King of the Jewes. And they smote him with their rodde.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and sayd vnto them, Beholde, I haue him scorth to you, that pe may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus scorth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment, And Pilate sayd vnto them, Behold the man.

6 Then when the hie Priestes and officers saue him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Jewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to die, because he made him selfe the Sonne of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraide,

9 And went againe into the common hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thence forth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Jewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh him selfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that word, he brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the Pavement, & in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passouer, and about the first houre: and he sayd vnto the Jewes, Beholde your King.

i This was a mocking & disdainful questio.

15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto the, Shall I crucifie your King? The hie priests answered, We haue no king but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, & led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens Scullis, which is called in Hebrue, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 And Pilate wrote also a title, & put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title the read many of þe Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was neere to the cite: and it was written in ^h Hebrue, ^Grece and Latin.

21 Then said the hie Priests of þe Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Iewes, but that he sayd, I am the king of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure partes, to euery souldier a part, and his coate: and the coat was without seame, woven from the toppye throughout.

24 Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shal be. This was that þe Scripture might be fulfilled, which sayeth, * They parted my garments among them, & on my coat did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in deede.

25 Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, & his mothers sister, & Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, & the disciple standing by, whome he loued, he said vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

27 Then saide he to the discipule, Beholde thy mother: & from that houre, the discipule tooke her home vnto him.

28 After, when Iesus knew þe all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vinegre, & they filled a sponge with vinegre, & put it about ^{an} hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receyued of the vinegre, he saide, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue up the ghost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies shoulde not remaine vpon the crosse on þe Sabbath daye: for that Sabbath was an ^{an} hie daye) besought Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe, 32 Then came the souldiers & brake the legges of the first, & of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare ^o perced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And by that saue it, bare recozde, and his recozde is true: & he knoweth that he sayth true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the * Scripture shoulde be fulfilled, That a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another Scripture sayth, * They shall see him; whome they haue thrust through.

38 And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a discipule of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate þe he might take downe þe body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came the & tooke Iesus body.

39 And there came ^{an} also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) & brought of myrrhe & aloes mingled together about an hundred pounde.

40 Then tooke they the body of Iesus, & wrapped it in linnen clothes with the ^o souldiers, as the manner of the Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, & in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

42 There then laid they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was nere.

8 Then went in also the other discipule, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and beleued:
9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, That hee must rise againe from the dead.
10 And the discipules went away againe vnto their owne home.
11 ¶ But Marie stode without at the sepulchre weeping: & as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre.
12 And saw two Angells in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the bodie of Iesus had lain.
13 And then said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saide vnto them, They haue taken away my lorde, & I know not where they haue layd him.
14 When she had thus saide, she turned her selfe back, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.
15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She saying that hee had bene the gardener, saide vnto him, Sir, if thou hast doone him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.
16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.
17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father, but go to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascende vnto my father, and to your Father, and to my God, & your God.
18 Marie Magdalene came and told the disciples that shee had seene the Lorde, and that hee had spoken these thinges vnto her.
19 ¶ The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the discipules were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stode in the middes, and said to them, Peace be vnto you.
20 And when he had so saide, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side, The were the discipules glad when they had seene the lorde.
21 Then said Iesus to the againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.
22 And when he had saide that, he breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.
23 Whoso euer sinner pe remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whoso euer sinner pe reteepe, they are reteept.
24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didimus, was not with them when Iesus came.
25 The other discipules therefore sayd vnto him, We haue seene the lorde: but he sayd vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the print of the nyles, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after againe his discipules were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus, when the doores were shut, & stood in the middes, and said, Peace be vnto you.
27 After, said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine handes, and put forth thine hand, & put it into my side, and be not faithles, but faithfull.
28 Then Thomas answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou art my Lord, & my God.
29 Iesus saide vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou belieuest: blessed are they that haue not seene, and haue beleued.
30 ¶ And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his discipules, which are not written in this booke.
31 But these thinges are written, that ye might beleue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing ye might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.
Christ appeareth to his discipules againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miraacles.

1 After these thinges, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his discipules at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he him selfe.
2 There were together Simon Peter, & Thomas, which is called Didimus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, & two other of his discipules.
3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I go a fishing. They saide vnto him, We also will go with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stode on the shore: neuer theles the discipules knewe not that it was Iesus.
5 Iesus then said vnto the, Syrs, haue ye any meat? They answered him, No.
6 Then he saide vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, & ye shall finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore saide the discipule whom Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the lorde. When Simon Peter heard that it was the lorde, he girded his coat to him (for he was naked) and cast him selfe into the sea.
8 But the other discipules came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) and they drew the net with fishes.
9 As soon as they were come to land, they saw boate coales, and fishes layd thereon, and bread.
10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, a Albeit they knewe him not, yet they followed his counsel, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

fishes, which ye haue now caught.
 11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to lande, full of great fishes, an hundred, fiftie and thre: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
 12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, & dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.
 13 Iesus then came, and tooke by bread, & gaue them, and fish likewise.
 14 This is nowe the thirde time that Iesus shewed him selfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

c The minister cannot well teach his congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.
d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confelling, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

thou wast pong, thou girdest thy selfe, and walkedit whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall girde thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest nor.
 19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he thould glorifie God. And when he had saide this; he saide to him, Followe me.
 20 Then Peter turned about, & saue the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also * leaned on his breast at supper, and had saide, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
 21 When Peter therefore saue him, he saide to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man do?
 22 Iesus saide vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.
 23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple shoulde not die. Per Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?
 24 This is that disciple, which testified of these things, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.
 25 * Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not containe them.

THE ACTES OF THE HOLY APOSTLES, WRITTEN BY LUKE THE EUANGELIST.

THE ARGUMENT.

Chrisť, after his ascension, performed his promises to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely minister of his Church, but would be the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the founde of his Gospell. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress, & ouerthrowe the Gospell: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, slanders and all kinde of euill. Again we shall here beholde the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth, and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to folow their captaine Christ, leaving as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospell, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheless God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorowe, ioye: in bondes, freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall pointes of our faith: so that this onely historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

7 The wordes of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

I have made the former treatise, of Throphilus, of all that Jesus began to do, and teach,

Until the day, that he was taken up, after that he through the holie

Ghost, had given commandements unto his Apostles, whom he had chose:

To whom also he presented him selfe alive, after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourtie daies, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the Kingdom of God.

And when he had gathered them together, he commanded them, that they shoulde not departe from Jerusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, which he said he, ye have heard of me.

For John indeede baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holie Ghost within these fewe daies.

When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

And he saide unto them, It is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power,

But ye shall receive power of the holie Ghost, whiche shall come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, & in all Iudaea, & in Samaria, & unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde, he was taken up: for a cloude tooke him up out of their sight.

And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel,

Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stande ye gazing into heauen? This Jesus which is taken up from you into heauen, shall so come, as ye have seene him go into heauen.

Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is nere to Jerusalem,

To stand in the face of the whole world, which signifieth that they must enter into heauen by afflictions, and therefore must fight before they get the victorie. k Hereby they might learne that the Messias was not only for the Iewes, but also for the Gentiles. rusalem, containing a Sabbath dayes journey.

And when they were come in, they went by into an byer habere, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Whilpype, & Thomas, Bartlemewe, and Mattheue, James the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zclores, & Judas James brother.

These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

And in those daies Peter stood by in the middes of the disciples, and said, (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred & twenty)

Ye men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have bene fulfilled, which the holie Ghost by the mouth of David spake before of Judas, which was a guide to them that tooke Jesus.

For he was nombred with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration.

Ye therefore hath purchased a felde with the rewarde of iniquitie: and when he had thowen downe himselfe headlong he brast asunder in the middes, & all his bowels gulshed out.

And it is knowne unto all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, in so much, that that felde is called in their owne language, Acceldama, that is, The felde of blood.

For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, Let his habitation be void, and let no man dwell therein: also, Let another take his charge.

Wherefore, of these men which haue compared with vs, all the tyme that the Ioye Jesus was conversant among vs,

Beginning from the Baptisme of John, unto the day that he was taken up from vs, must one of them be made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

And they presented two, Joseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Justus, and Matthias.

And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the heartes of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen,

That he may take the roume of this ministration and Apostleshippe, from which Judas hath gone astray, to goe to his owne place.

Then they gaue forth their lottes: & the lot fell on Matthias, and he was by a common consent counted with the Eleven Apostles.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heerde vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Silner and gold haue I none, but such as I ^w haue, that giue I thee: In the ^w Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise vp, and walke.

CHAP. IIII.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison, preached the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good success of the Gospel. 32 The increase, vntill, and charitie of the Church.

a It is to be thought if this was the captaine of the Romanes garrison. b The Sadduces were great enemies to this doctrine. c The whole Church was increased to this number.

1 And as thei spake vnto the people, the Priests and the Captaine of the Temple, and the Sadduces came vpon them, 2 Taking it grievously that they taught the people, & preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, & put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide. 4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the worde, beleued, and the number of the men was aboute fiftie thousand. 5 And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers, & Elders, & Scribes were gathered together at Jerusalem. 6 And Annas the chief Priest, & Caiaphas, & Iohn, & Alexander, & as many as were of the kindred of the Priests. 7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, What power, or in what name haue ye done this? 8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, said vnto thei, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel, 9 Inasmuch as we this day are examined of the good dedes done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole, 10 We it knowen vnto you all, and to all of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whom ye have crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole. 11 * This is the stone which saide of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. 12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giue none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be saved. 13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter & Iohn, and understood that they were vnlarned men & without knowledge, they maruelled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus: 14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say againt it. 15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Counsel, and conferred among them selves, 16 Saying, What shal we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by thei, & it is openly known to all them dwell in Ierusalem: & we can not deny it. 17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this name. 18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the name of Iesus. 19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, & said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather than God, iudge ye. 20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard. 21 So they threatened them, and let them go, & found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done. 22 For the man was aboute fouretye yeold, on whose this miracle of healing was shewed. 23 Then assoone as they were let goe, they came to thei fellows, & shewed all that the chief Priests and Elders had said vnto them. 24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voices to God with one accord, & sayde, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them. 25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayde, * Why did the Gentiles rage, & the people imagine vaine things? 26 The Kinges of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together againt the Lord, and againt his Christ. 27 For I daunteless, against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hast appointed, both Herode and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles & the people of Israel gathered their selves together, 28 To do whatsoeuer thine hand, & thy council had determined before to be done.

g Meaning Priests, Elders, & gouernours. h For to uphold the weight and force of the building. i That is, none other cause or meane. k The wicked stil rage againt Christ, though their owne conscience do condemne them. l They gaue commandment to preach Christ no more. m They preferre their authoritie to the ordinance of God. n To the intent that we shoulde beare witness, & preach them. o God hath put a ring through y^e wickeds noses so that he stiaeth them from their mischieuous purposes. p To encourage one another, and to glorifie God. q They gourd their praiers vpon Gods promise who had assured if he woulde enlarge the kingdome of Christ. CHAP. VII.

2 Steven maketh answer by the Scriptures to his accusers. 51 He rebuketh the hardnecked Iewes, 57 And is stoned to death, 58 Saul keepeth the tormentours clothes.

1 Then said the chiefe Priests, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Ye men, brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of our glory appeared unto our father Abraham, while he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kinred, and come into the lande, which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the lande of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charrā. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this lād, wherein he now dwelt.

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, nor the headth of a scoote: yet hee promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 But God spake thus, that his seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, & that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill foure hundred yeres.

7 But the nation to whome they shal be in bondage, will I iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 He gaue him also the couenāt of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight daye: and Isaac begate Jacob, and Jacob the twelue Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarkes moued with enuie sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, & gaue him fauour & wisdom in the sight of Pharaos King of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 Then came there a famine ouer all the lande of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob hearde that there was come in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.

13 And at the seconde tyme, Joseph was knowne of his brethren, and Josephs kinred was made knowne vnto Pharaos.

14 Then sent Joseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kinred, esuen & thys scoe and fiftene soules,

15 So Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he & vped, and our fathers,

16 And were remoued into Sychem, & were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had bought for money of the sonnes of Emoz, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promises drew nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people grewe and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till another king arose, which knewe not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kinred, and euill intreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their pong children, that they should not remaine aliae.

20 The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished by in his fathers house thes moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaos daughter tooke him by, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in dedes.

23 Howe when he was full fourey peere olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren, the children of Israel.

24 And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarrell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren would haue vnderstand, that God by his had should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it nor.

26 And the next day, he shewed him self vnto them as they stroue, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him alwaie, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didest the Egyptian yester daye?

29 Then sed Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fourety yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses sawe it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not beholde it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, In what thy shooes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groaning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come,

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost,

56 And said, Beholde, I see the heauens

57 Then they gaue a shout with a loude

- 7 For vnicleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, & that halted, were healed.
- 8 And there was great ioy in that citie.
- 9 And there was beside in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which bled withcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he him selfe was some great man.

10 To whom they gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And they gaue heed vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched the with soceries.

12 But as soon as they beleued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, & the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 When Simon him selfe beleued also and was baptized, and continued with Philippe, and wondered, when he sawe the signes & great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Nowe when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holy Ghost.

16 For as per, he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the Apostles handes the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money.

19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the handes, he may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this busines: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it be possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness, & in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Praye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which pe haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 So they, when they had testified and preached the worde of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritans.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake

vnto Philippe, saying, Write, And goe toward the South vnto the waue that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.

27 And he arose and went on: and beholde, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Quene of the Ethiopians chiefe Governour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship.

28 And as he returned sitting in his charret, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 ¶ Then the Spirit sayd vnto Philippe, Goe neere and iopne thy selfe to ponder charret.

30 And Philippe ran thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, & said, But understandest thou what thou readeest?

31 And he saide, Howe can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philippe, that he would come wth & sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, * He was ledde as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe downe before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 ¶ In his humilitie his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the search.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philippe, and said, I pray thee of whome speakest the Prophet this? of him selfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch sayd, See, here is water: what doth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philippe sayde vnto him, If thou beleuest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and sayd, I beleuee that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commanded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philippe and the Eunuch, and hee baptized him.

39 And as soon as they were come by out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philippe, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his waye rejoicing.

A ¹ Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the hie priest,

² And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any that were of that way (either men or women) he might bring them bound vnto Jerusalem.

³ Now as he journeyed, it came to passe that as he was come nere to Damascus, suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.

⁴ And he fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

⁵ And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is harde for thee to kicke against a prickes.

⁶ He then both trembling and astonied, said, Lord, What wilt thou that I do? And the Lord said vnto him, Arise and go into the cite, and it shall tolde thee what thou shalt do.

⁷ The men also which journeyed with him, stood amazed, hearing his voyce, but seeing no man.

⁸ And Saul arose from the ground, and opened his eyes, but saw no man. The led they him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus,

⁹ Where hee was three dayes without sight, and neither ate nor dranke.

¹⁰ And there was a certaine disciple at Damascus named Ananias, & to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

¹¹ Then the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise, and goe into the streete which is called Straight, & seeke in the house of Judas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth,

¹² And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his handes on him, that he might receiue his sight.)

¹³ Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill he hath done to thy Saints at Jerusalem.

¹⁴ Howouer here he hath authoritie of the hie Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.

¹⁵ Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for hee is a chosen vessel vnto mee, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and Kings, and the children of Israel.

¹⁶ For I will shewe him, howe many things hee must suffer for my Names sake.

¹⁷ Then Ananias went his way, & entered into the house, and put his handes on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (saie Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the waye as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, & be filled with the holy Ghost.

¹⁸ And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized,

¹⁹ And receiued meat, and was strenghtened. So was Saul certaine daies with disciples which were at Damascus.

²⁰ And straight way he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God,

²¹ So that all that heard him, were amazed, & said, Is not this he, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he should bring them bounde vnto the hie Priests?

²² But Saul increased yet more in strength, & confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, ^k confirming, that this was the Christ.

²³ And after that many daies were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together, to kill him.

²⁴ But their laying a wait was knowne of Saul: now he they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

²⁵ The disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

²⁶ And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleued not that he was a discipule.

²⁷ But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had sene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus,

²⁸ And he was commersant with them at Jerusalem,

²⁹ And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

³⁰ But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

³¹ Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, & were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

³² And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Ippda.

³³ And there he founde a certaine man named Nekeas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the paille.

³⁴ Then saide Peter vnto him, Nekeas, Iesus Christ make thee whole: arise and make vp thy bed. And he arose immediately.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had walshed her, they layd her in an upper chamber.

38 Nowe for as much as Ipdaba was nere to Joppa, and the discipules had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the yddowes stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, & kneeled downe, and prayed, & turned him to the bodie, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she saie vp.

CHAP. X.

3 Cornelius admonished by the Angel, 7 He sendeth to Ioppa. 11 The vision that Peter saw. 17 How he was sent to Cornelius. 44 The Gentiles also receiues the Spirit, and are baptized.

1 Furthermore there was a certaine man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captain of the band called the Itas hian band,

2 A deuout man, and one that feared God with all his household, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God continually.

3 He saw in a vision evidently (about the ninth houre of the dape) an Angell of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 But when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said vnto him, Thy prayers & thine almes are come by into remembrance before God.

5 Nowe therefore sende men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He logeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angell which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morow as they went on their iourney, and drew nere vnto the cite, Peter went by vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 Then waied he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And hee saue heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherin were all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hath purified, I pollute thou not.

16 This was to done thise: and the vessel was drawen by againe vnto heauen.

17 I Nowe while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which he had seen, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate.

18 And called, & asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Behold, thise men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, & go with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 I Then Peter went downe to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and said, Beholde, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captain, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angell, to sende for thee into his house, and to heare thy wordes.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them, and the next day, Peter wet forth with them, and certaine brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 I And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Nowe Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinnes men, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, & fel downe at his feete, and worshipped him.

26 But Peterooke him by, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that h Shewed much reuerence and farre passing decent order, as though Peter had bene God.

it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jewe, to companie or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And saide, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he comineth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for the immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Howe therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive, that God is no acceptor of persons.

35 But in euery nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousnes, is accepted with him.

36 We know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching I praye by Iesus Christ, which is Lorde of all.

37 Euen the worde which came through all Iudea * beginning in Galile, after the baptisme which John preached,

38 To wit, how God anointed Iesus of Nazaret with the holy Ghost, and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuil: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which her did both in the lande of the Iewes, and in Ierusalem: whom they slewe, hanging him on a tree.

40 Vn God raised by the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto witnesses chosen before of God, euen to vs which did eate and drinke with him, after he arose from the dead.

42 And he commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is he that is ordeined of God a iudge of quicke and dead.

43 To him also giue all the Prophets witness, that though his Name al that beloued in him, shall receiue remission of finnes.

44 While Peter yet spake these wordes, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision which beloued, were astounded, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost. 46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized?, which haue receiued the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lorde. Then prayed they him to tacie certain dayes.

1 Nowe the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard, that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Joppa, praying, and in a trance I saue this vision, A certaine vessel comming downe as it had bene a great sheet, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saue foure footed beastes of the earth, & wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lorde: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done thre times, and all were taken by againe into heauen.

11 Then beholde, immediately there were thre men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit sayd vnto me, that I should go with them, without doubting: inuolouer these sixe brethren came with me, and wee entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, howe he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 He shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shalbe saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord,

n Hought not to debarre them of baptisme w^h God testifieth to be his: for seeing they haue the principal, that is lesse, ought not to be denied them.

Lord, how he said, * John baptised with the water, but he shalbe baptised with the holy Ghost.

- 17 For as much then as God gave them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we beleued in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was J. that I could let God?
- 18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted repentance vnto life.
- 19 And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout til they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Jewes onely.
- 20 Howe some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Loyde Iesus.
- 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleued and turned vnto the Lord.
- 22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that hee should goe vnto Antiochia.
- 23 Who when he was come & had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would cleaue vnto the Lord.
- 24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioynded them selues vnto the Loyde.
- 25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul.
- 26 And when hee had founde him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole peece they were conueriant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.
- 27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Jerusalem vnto Antiochia.
- 28 And there stood vpon one of them named Agabus, & signified by the Spirit, that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.
- 29 Then the disciples, every man according to his abilitie, purposed to sende succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.
- 30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Herode persecuteth the Christians. 2 He killeth James, 4 And putteth Peter in prison. 7VV hom the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 27 The horrible death of Herode. 23 The Gospel flourisheth, 25 Barnabas and Saul returning to Antiochia, take Iohn Marke with them.

- 1 Nowe about that time, Herode the King stretched forth his hands to wre certain of the Church.
- 2 And hee killed James the brother of Iohn with the sword.
- 3 And when he sawe that it pleased the Jewes, he proceeded further, to take Peter also (then were the dayes of unleavened bread.)
- 4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, & deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.
- 5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.
- 6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.
- 7 And behold, the Angel of the Loyde came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, laying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.
- 8 And the Angel sayd vnto him, Giue thy selfe, and binde on thy sandals, and so hee did. Then he sayd vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and folow me.
- 9 So Peter came out and folloved him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought hee had seene a vision.
- 10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the ppon gate, that leadeth vnto the cite, which opened to them by it owne accorde, and they went out, and passed through one street, and by and by the Angel departed from him.
- 11 And when Peter was come to him selfe, he said, Now I know for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hande of Herode, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jewes.
- 12 And as hee considered the thing, he came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.
- 13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.
- 14 But when shee knewe Peters boyce, she opened not the entrie doore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stood before the entrie.
- 15 But she sayde vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his Angel.
- 16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.
- 17 And hee beckened vnto them with the such sights.

5 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

6 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also John to their minister.

7 So when they had gone throughout the ple vnto Paphus, they found a certame sojcever, a false prophet, being a 9 But Elymas, the sojcever (so is his name by interpretation) withstood the, and fought to turne away the Deputy from the faith.

10 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, the Saviour: Jesus?

 24 When John had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.
 25 And when John had fulfilled his course, he said, Whom ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there cometh one after me, whose thoe of his secte I am not worthy to looke.
 26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abrahams, & whoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the word of his saluation sent.
 27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knewe him not, nor yet the words of the Prophets, which are read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.
 28 And though they founde no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.
 29 And where they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.
 30 But God raised him vp frō the dead.
 31 And he was seene many dayes of the, which came by with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, which are his witness vnto the people.
 32 And we declare vnto you, touching the promises made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs, their children, in that he rapted by Jesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalm, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.
 34 Nowe as concerning that he rapted him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath saide thus, I will giue you the holy thinges of Dauid, which are faithfull.
 35 Wherefore he saepeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.
 36 Howbeit, Dauid after hee had serued his tyme vp to the conseil of God, he slept, and was laid with his fathers, & saue corruption.
 37 But he whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.
 38 Be it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that though this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of finnes, 39 And from all things, from which ye could not bee justified by the Lawe of Moses, by him enterp one that beleueth, is iustified.
 40 Beware therefore, lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and banke awaie: for I worke as a work in your dayes, a worke which ye shall not beleue, if a man woulde declare it you.
 42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Jewes, the 43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Jewes, and proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

 44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole cite together, to heare the worde of God.
 45 But when the Jewes saw the people, they were full of enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and rapling on them.
 46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, & said, It was necessarie that the word of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it from you, and iudge your selues unworthy of seuerlasting life, so, we turne to the Gentiles.
 47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be the saluation vnto the ende of the world.
 48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord: and as many as were ordeined vnto eternal life, beleued.
 49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.
 50 But the Jewes stirred certaine desolute and honourable women, and the chief men of the cite, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, & expelled them out of their coastes.
 51 But they spooke of the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.
 52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

 1 And it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes, & so spake, that a great multitude both of Jewes and of the Grecians beleued.
 2 But the unbelieuing Jewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.
 3 So therefore they abode there a long time, & spake boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony vnto the worde of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their handes.

7 And there were preaching d Gosh ell: ||

9 He heard Paul speake: who behold- ing him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voyce, || Stand vp right on thy feete. And he leaped up, & walked.

11 Then when the people sawe what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in p likes- nesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Jupiters Priest, which was be- fore their cite, brought bulles with b garlands vnto the c gates, & would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas, and Paul heard it, they d rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, O men, why doe ye these things? We are euen men e subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preach vnto you, that ye shoulde turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth, & the sea, and all things that in them are.

18 And speaking these things, scarce re- strained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them! ||

19 Then there came certaine Jewes frō Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had persuaded the people, || * ston- ned Paul, and drue him out of the ci- ty, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the cite, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe,

21 And after they had preached to that cite, and had taught many, they retur- ned to Epftra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia,

22 Confirming the disciples hartes, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we must through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God,

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, and prayed, and fasted, they commen- ded them to the Lord in whome they beleueed.

24 Thus they went throughout Pif- dia, and came to Pamphyllia.

25 And when they had preached the worde in Perga, they came downe to Attalia,

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, * frō whice they had bene committēd vnto the grace of God, to the worke wher- of they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that G D had done k by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the G E- sties.

Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles sende their determination to the Churches, 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia, 39 And separate companie because of Iohn Marke.

1 Then came downe e certaine from a Judea, and taught the brethren saying, * Except ye be circumci- sed after the maner of Moyses, ye can not be saued.

2 And when there was great dissen- sion, and disputacion by Paul and Bar- nabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine o- ther of them shoulde goe by to Jeru- salem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Sa- maria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioye vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jeru- salem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But said they, certaine of the secte of the b Pharises, which did beleue, rose vp, b Which were saying, that it was needfull to circum- cise them, and to commaunde them to keepe the Law of Moyses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

 I will set it vp,
 17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, & all the Gentiles vpon whome my Name is called, saith the Lord which doeth all these things.
 18 From the beginning of the worlde
 God knoweth all his workes.
 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine them selues fro^r filthines of idoles, & fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.
 21 For Moses of olde time hath in euery city cite them that preache him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.
 22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Judas whose surname was Barababas, & Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia

 24 Forasmuch as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, & combed your minds, saying, Ye must be circū-cised and keepe the Law: to whom we gaue no such commandement, 25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that haue given by their lues same things by mouth, 28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burden vpon

 you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that ye abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, & that that is strangled, and from fornication: fro^r which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well, & are ye well.
 30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they delivered the epistle.
 31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.
 32 And Judas and Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.
 33 And after they had tarped there a space, they were let go in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.
 34 Notwithstanding * Silas thought good to abide there still.
 35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord.
 36 ¶ But after certaine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, let vs returne, & visi-tate our brethren in euery cite, where we haue preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.
 37 And Barnabas is called w^oll to take with them John, named Marke.
 38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him vnto their companie, which departed from the from Paniphia, and went not with them to the worke.
 39 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.
 40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto
 the grace of God.
 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

2 Paul cometh to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receive him, & others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

1 Now as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Jewes.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening, & alledging that Christ must have suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Jesus Christ, whome, said he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleueed, and ioyned in companie with Paul & Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Jewes which beleueed not, moued with enuie, tooke vnto the certaine bagabondes and wicked fellows, & when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Jason, & sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they founde them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the worlde, and here they are,

7 Whom Jason hath receiued, and these all doe against thy decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another King, one Jesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, & the heades of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Jason & of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which was the place whither they entered into the Synagogue of the Jewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which searched the word with all readines, & searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleueed, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Jewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, & moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conuolte Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a comendement vnto Silas and Timotheus, they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he sawe the citie d' subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Jewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daile with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some said, What will this babler say? Others saide, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Jesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars streete, saying, Hap we not know, what this newe doctrine, wherof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou hingest certaine straunge things vnto our eares: we would know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, gave them felicitie to nothing else, but either to tell, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars streete, and saide, Men men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are to superstitions.

23 For as I passed by, and behelde your deuotions, I found an altar whererein was written, VNTO THE VNKNOVEN GOD. Whom ye then ignorantly worship, him shew I vnto you.

24 God that made the world, & all things that are therein, seeing that he is Lord of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.

25 Neither is worshipped with mens hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giueth to all life and breath & all things.

26 And hath made of one blood all mankind, to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath assigned times which were ordeined before, and the boundes of their habitation,

27 That they should seeke the Lord, if so be they might haue groped after him, and found him, though doubtles he be not farre from euery one of vs.

28 For in him we liue, and moue, & haue our being, as also certaine of your own Poets haue said, For we are also his generation.

29 Forasmuch then, as we are the generation of God, we ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto gold, or silver, or stone graued by arte and the invention of man.

30 And the time of this ignorance God hath appointed: & regarded not: but now he admonisheth all men euery where to repent, as touching sundrie changes of the world, as when some people depart out of a countrey, and others come to dwell therein. Men grope in darknes till Christ the true light shine in their heartes. o As Aratus & others. 1sa. 40. 19. p He condemneth the matter & the forme wherewith God is counterfeited. q But pardoned it, & did not punish it as it deserved. r This is ment of the vniuersall world, and not of euery particular man: for who sooner sinneth without the law, shall die without the Law.

a Like quarrelling they vsed against Christ: & these be weapons wherewith the world continually fighteth against the members of Christ, treason and sedition.

b Or, a sufficient answer. b Not more excellent of birth, but more prompt, and courageous in receiving the worde of God: for he compareth them of Berea with them of Thessalonica, who persecuted the Apostles in Berea.

c Iohn. 5. 39. c This was not onely to trie if these things which they had heard, were true, but also to confirme the felices in the same, and to increase their faith.

d Or, had the charge to conduct him safely.

e Such was his fervent zeale towards Gods glorie, that he laboured to amplifye the same both in season, & out of season, as he taught alterwarde to Timothy.

g Who taught that vertue was onely mans felicitie, which notwithstanding they neuer attained vnto.

m This is meant

as when some people depart out of a countrey, and others come to dwell therein.

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will iudge the world in righteousness, by that man whome he hath appointed, whereof he hath given an assurance to all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 Nowe when they heard of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked, & other said, We will heare thee againe of this thing.

33 And so Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave vnto Paul, and beleued: among whome was also Denis ^{the} Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and other with the.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 After these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus.

2 And found a certaine Jewe, named ^a Aquila, borne in ^b Iudaea, lately come from ^c Italie, and his wife Priscilla, because that ^d Claudius had commanded all Jewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Jewes, and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul ^e burned in spirit, testifying to the Jewes that Jesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he ^f shooke his raiment, and saide vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entered into to a certaine mans house, named Titus, a worshipper of God, whose house opened hard to the Synagogue.

8 And ^g Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued and were baptized.

9 Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, & no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yere and six moneths, & taught the worde of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Jewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat.

13 Saying, This fellowe persuadeth me to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Jewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an ill dedde, O ye Jewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your Lawe, looke ye to it your selves: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And he draue them from the iudgement seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians ^h Sosthenes the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he tooke leaue of the brethren and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had ⁱ shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a ^j vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entered into the Synagogue & disputed with the Jewes.

20 Who desired him to tarry a longer time with them: but he would not consent.

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this feast that cometh, in Jerusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, ^k if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 ¶ And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Jerusalem: & when he had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

23 Nowe when he had tarped there a while, he departed, and went through the countrey of Galatia and Bithyia by order, strengthening al the disciples.

24 And a certaine Jewe named ^l Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, and ^m mightie in the Scriptures.

25 The same was ⁿ instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spake feruently in the spirit, & taught diligently the things of the Lawe, and knewe but the ^o baptesme of John onely.

26 And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they tooke him vnto them, and ^p expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was minded to go into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receiue him: and after he was come thither, he helpeth the much which had beleued through grace.

28 For mightily he confuted publicly the Jewes by great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Jesus was the Christ.

And it came to passe, while Apolos was at Corinthus, Paul when he passed through the bysper coales, came to Ephesus, & found certaine disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Haue ye receiued the * p Ghost since pe beleueed? And they laide vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he said vnto them, b Vnto what were pe then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptism.

4 Then said Paul, * John verely baptisied vnto the baptism of repentance, saying vnto p people, that they should beleue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were baptisied in the Name of the voyde Iesus.

6 And Paul laied his handes vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues, and propheted.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreover, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of thyeer moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdom of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, & disobeyed, speaking euill of the voyde of God before the multitude, he departed from them, & separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoule of one d Prannus.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Jewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the handes of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, * herches, * or handkerches, and the diseales departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of the bagabonde Jewes, * erocistes, tooke in hande to blame ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the voyde Iesus, saying, We admire you by Iesus, whome Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine somes of Decua a Jewe, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euill spirit answered, & sayd, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are pe?

them, and puenailed against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowne to all the Jewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and teare came on them all, & the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleueed, came and confessed, and shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it b fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grew mightily, and puenailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed b by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia & Achaa, & to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministered vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, b brought great gaines vnto the craftes men:

25 Whome he called together, with the workemen of like things, & saide, Sirs, pe know that by this craft a we haue our goods.

26 Moreover pe see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they be not gods which are made with handes:

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, a that the state should be reppoued, but also that the o temple of the great goddesse Diana should be nothing esteemed, and that it would come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia and the p world worshipeth, should be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught * Gaius, and * Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his iourney.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffred him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not present him selfe in the common place.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Jewe, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

35 Then the tolone clark, when he had slaped the people, said, We wite of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not howe that the cite of the Ephelians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image, which came down from Jupiter?

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas he riseth up Erastus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeeth the keeping of Gods stocke unto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Jerusalem.

1 Now after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples unto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those partes, and had exhorted them with many wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And having taried there three monethes, because the Jewes laide waite for him, as he was about to saile into Spia, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea, & of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, & of them of Asia Tychicus, & Trophimus. 5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forth from Philippi, after the dapes of unleavened bread, & came unto the Croas in five dayes, where we abode seven dapes.

7 And the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching unto midnight.

8 And there were many lights in an byper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there fate in a window a certaine pong man, named Euphychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: & as Paul was long preaching, he overcame with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken by dead.

10 But Paul went downe, & laid himself upon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come by againe, & had broken bread, & eaten, he continued a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boye alive, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 Then we went forth to ship, and sailed unto the cite of Mios, that we might receive Paul there: for he had her appointed, and would him selfe go afoote.

14 Now when he was come unto vs to Mios, and we had received him, wee came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and taried at Trophimus: the next dape we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to sayle by Ephesus, because he would not spende the tyme in Asia: for he hasted to be, if he could possibill, at Jerusalem, at the day of Pentecoste.

17 Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he sayde unto them, We knowe from the first dape that I came into Asia, after what maner I have done with you at all seasons.

in, and howe he escaped.*

I AS he was launched forth, & were departed frō them, we came with a straight course into Cos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we founde a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboarde, and set forth.

3 And when we had discomered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed to ward Spia, and arrived at Cyprus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde disciples, we taried there tenen dayes. And they told Paul ^a though the ^b Spirit, that hee shoul not go by to Jerusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, they departed, and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiuers and children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shore, praye-ed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we tooke ship, and they returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course
frō Cyprus, we arrived at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, & abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul and they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea: and we entred into ^p house of ^{*} Philippe the Euangelist, which was one of the ^c seven Deacons, & abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters birging, which did prophete.

10 And as we taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Propheete from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdell, and bounde his owne hands and feete, and said, ^d Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall ^e Iesus at Jerusalem ^e bind the man that ow-neth this girdell, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And whē we had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not go by to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What do ye weeping & breaking mine heart:
For I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lorde Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lorde be done.

15 And after those dayes we trusted by our fardeles, & went by to Jerusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of ^p disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto ^f James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he tolde by order all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

20 So when they hearde it, they glou-sified

10 Then I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe into Danafcus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glorie of that light, I was lead by the hande of them that were with me, and came into Danafcus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good respect of all the Jewes which dwelt there,

13 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: & that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his wil, and shouldest see that Iust one, & shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnes vnto all men of things, which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Nowe therefore why tarieest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and washe away thy finnes, in calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Jerusalem, & prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance,

18 And saue him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they wil not receiue thy witness concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they knowe that I am prisioned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyrs Steven was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slewe him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart: for I wil send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift by their voyces, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that hee should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast of their clothes, and threwe dust into the ayre,

24 The chiefe captaine commanded him to be lead into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged, and examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul sayde vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Roman, and not condemned?

26 Nowe when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, and sayde to him, Tel me, art thou a Roman? And he said, Yea.

28 And the chiefe captaine answered,

With a great summe obtained I this burgeship. Then Paul said, but I was s to bozne.

29 Then straight way they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because he woulde haue knowen the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Jewes, he losed him from his bonds, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Countie to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

The assaults of Paul being smit, & the overthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lords encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes layde waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

1 AND Paul behelde earnestly the Countel, and saide, When and by whom, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntil this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias comans ded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge mee according to the Lawe, and commandest thou me to be smiten contrarie to the Lawe?

4 And they that stood by, said, Kemlest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I knowe not, brethren, that he was hie Priest: for it is twittin, * Thou shalt not speake euil of the Ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceined that the one part were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharises, he cryed in the Countel, When and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissension betwene the Pharises and the Sadduces, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadduces saie that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse both.

9 Then there was a great crye: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose by, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit of an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castel.

11 I Nowe the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou beare witness also as Rome.

This priuiledge was oft times giuen in recompence of seruice to the that were farr of Rome, and to their children, though they were not borne in the cite.

12 And when the day was come, certain of the Jewes made an assemlie, and bound themselves with an othe, saying, that they would neither eat nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a soleimne othe, that we will eate nothing, untill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Counsell signifie to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morowe, as though yee woulde knowe some thing more perfectly of him, & we, or euer hee come nere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters (somme heard of their laying awaie), he went & entred into the castle, and told Paul,

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, & said, Bring this pong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So he toke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayde, Paul the prisoner called mee vnto him, and prayed me to bring this pong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to saie vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he said, The Jewes haue conspired to desie thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morowe into the Counsell, as though they woulde inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them, more then fourtie men, which haue bounde themselves with an othe, that they wil neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, & wait for thy prouise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the pong mā depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and hoisnen thie scoze and ten, and two hundred with bartes, at the thirde houre of the night.

24 And let the make ready an horse that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Governour.

25 And hee wrote an epiistle in this maner;

26 Claudius Iulias vnto the most noble Governour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this mā was taken of the Jewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, perceiving that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knowne the cause, wherfore they accused him, I brought him forth into their counsell.

29 There I perceived that he was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthe of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed me, howe that the Jewes laide waite for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, & commanded his accusers to speake before thee the thinges that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the hoisne to go with him, and returned vnto the Castle.

33 Nowe when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered h epiistle to the Gouernour, & presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Governour had read it, he asked of what prouince hee was: and when he vnderstode that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, saide he, when thine accusers also are come, and commaunded him to be kept in Herodes iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXXIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix graspeth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 And after leaueh him in prison.

NOW after five dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Orator, which appeared before the Governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that we haue obteined great quietnes through thee, and that many worse thinges are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, w al thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtelie a few wordes.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellowe, & a moouer of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the worlde, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Phararites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we toke him, and woulde haue iudged him according to our Lawe:

7 But the chiefe captaine Iulias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our handes,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayst (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things wherof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had deckened vnto him that he shoulde speake, answered, I do the more gladly

By this name Romanes called eueric country which they had subducd.

a For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murderers, & put the Egyptian to flight, which raised vp tumults in Iudea: for these the orator praeseth him: otherwise he was both cruel & couetous.

The worde signifieth cursing, as when a man either sweareth, with or without him selfe to die, or be giuen to the deuil, except he bring his purpose to passe.

Greke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

This letter was writt partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppress him.

The captaine dissembled to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane before he had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined.

The Jewes accuse Paul before Felix. 8 He answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth unto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And he is brought forth.

answered for my selfe, for as much as I knowe that thou hast bene of many peres a Iudge vnto this nation, 11 Seeing that thou inuest knowest, that there are but twelue daies since I came hither to worship in Ierusalem.
12 And they neither found me in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vniuersall among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the cite.
13 Neither can they proue the thinges, whereof they now accuse me.
14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call hereticke) so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all thinges which are written in the Law and the Prophetes.
15 And haue hope towards God, that he resurrection of the dead which they themselves looke for also, shall be both of iust and vniust.
16 And herein I endeour my selfe to haue alway a cleare conscience toward God, and toward men.
17 Now after many peres, I came and brought almes to my nation and offerings.
18 At what time, certaine Jewes of Asia found me purified in the Temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.
19 Who ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought against me.
20 Let these themselves say, if they haue found any vniust thing in me, while I stood in the Countell.
21 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cried standing among them, Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.
22 Now when Felix heard these thinges, he deferred them, & saide, When I shall more perfectly know the thinges which concerne this way, by the cunning of Iudas the chiefe Captaine, I wil decide your matter.
23 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, & that he should haue ease, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.
24 And after certaine daies, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.
25 And as he disputed of righteousness, and temperance, & of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, & answered, Go thy way for this time, & when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.
26 He hoped also that it might haue bene a quiet time to Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.
27 When two peres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix roome: & Festus willing to get fauour of the Jewes, left Paul bound,

Went festus was then come into the prouince, after three daies he went by from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.
2 Then the hee Duert, and the chiefe of the Jewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,
3 And desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Ierusalem: & they laid wait to kill him by the way.
4 But festus answered, he Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.
5 Let them therefore saide he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there bee any wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.
6 I shoue when he had tarped among them no more then ten daies, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next day late in the iudgement seate, and commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Jewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him and laide many & grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue,
8 For almuch as he answered, that he had neither offended any thing against the Law of the Jewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.
9 Yet festus willing to get fauour of the Jewes, answered Paul, and saide, While thou goy to Ierusalem, & there he iudged of these things before me?
10 Then said Paul, I stand at Celsars iudgement seate, where I ought to bee iudged: to the Jewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these thinges whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.
12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Countell, he answered, Hast thou appeared vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou go.
13 And after certain daies, king Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute festus.
14 And when they had remained there many daies, festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in prison by Felix.
15 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the hee Duert and Elders of the Jewes inquired me, & desired to haue iudgement against him.
16 To whome I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend

- 23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, & that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.
- 24 And as hee thus answered for him selfe, Festus sayde with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.
- 25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and sobernes.

- 28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Alas most thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arriued

- 1 Now when it was concluded, that we should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, & certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.
- 2 And we entred into a ship of Adria mptium purposing to saile by the coasts of Asia, and launCHED forth, and had Aristarchus of Thracia, a Thessaloman, with vs.
- 3 And the next daye we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to go vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.
- 4 And from thence we lanchED, and sailed hard by Cyprus, because þe windes were contrarye.
- 5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a cite in Lycia.

- 9 So when much time was spent, and sailing was nowe icopardous, because also the fast was nowe passed, Paul exhorted them,
- 10 And sayd vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt & much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.
- 11 Neuerthelesse the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.
- 12 And because þe hauens was not comodious to winter in, many tooke counsel to depart thence, if by any meanes they might atrame to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth towards the South-west and by West, and North-west and by West.
- 13 And when the southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sailed by Candie.

- 14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Eurocydon.
- 15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her go, and were carped away.
- 16 And we raine vnder a little Ile named Claudia, and had much a do to get the boat.
- 17 Which they tooke by & used all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Spites, & they let downe the vessel, and so were carped.
- 18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.
- 19 And the third daye we cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.

- 20 And when neither sinne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.
- 21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and sayd, Syrs, þe should haue hearkened to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.
- 22 But nowe I exhorte you to be of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the ship onely.
- 23 For there stode by me this night the Angel of Gods, whose I am, & whom I serue, 33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them al to take meate, saying, This is the fourtenth day that ye haue tarped, and continued^m fasting, receyuing nothing.

34 Wherfore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shal not an haire fall from the heade of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them al, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, & they also tooke meate.

37 Now we were in þ ship in al two hundreth, thre score and sixtene soules,

38 And whē they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, & cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knely not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a bank, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken by the ankers, they committed the ship vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bondes, & hoised by the maine saile to the winde, & drew to the shore.

41 And when they fel into a place, where two seas meete, they thrust in the ship: and the fore parte stucke fast, and coude not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners, least any of them, when hee had swoonne out, should flee away.

Paul with his companie are gently treated of the barbarous people. 1 The viper hurteth him not. 2 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessarie, he saured toward Rome, 15 VVhere being receyued of the brethren, he declareth his busines, 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

And when they were come safe, they knew that the Ile was called ^a Malta.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindeesse: for they kindled a fire, and receyued vs euerie one, because of the present houres, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of stickes, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and leyt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the womne hang on his hand, they sayde among themselues, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet^e vengeance hath not suffred to liue.

5 But hee shooke off the womne into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Yowbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no inconvenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and said, That he was a ^d God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receyued vs, and lodged vs thre dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that þ father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, & of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he laid his handes on him, and healed him.

13 And from thence we set a compassse, & came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, & we came the second day to Pitulio.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarie with them seuen dayes, and so we went toward Rome.

THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE

Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared towards man in Chriſt Ieſus, whoſe righteouſnes is made ours through faith. For when man by his owne corruption could not fulfill the Law, yea, committed moſt abominably, both againſt the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindful of his promes made to his ſeruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans ſaluation ſhould only ſtand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Ieſus Chriſt: ſo that not only the circumciſed Jewes, but also the vncircumciſed Gentiles ſhould be ſaued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumciſed, was counted iuſt onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumciſion, as a ſeale or badge of the ſame righteouſnes by faith. And to the intent, that none ſhould thinke that the covenant which God made to him, & his poſteritie, was not performed: either becauſe the Jewes receyued not Chriſt, (which was the bleſſed ſeed) or elſe beleued not that he was the true redemer, becauſe he did not onely, or at leaſt more notably preferre the Iewes, the examples of Iſmael and Eſau declare, that al are not Abrahams poſteritie, which come of Abraham according to the fleſh: but also the verie ſtrangers and Gentiles graſted in by faith, are made heires of the promes. The cauſe whereof is the onely will of God: for as much as of his free mercie he electeth ſome to be ſaued, and of his juſt iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the teſtimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes ſhould not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proneth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall poſteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not ſo to mans eie: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length will ſtretch toward the Jewes againe, and ſo gather the whole Iſrael (which is his Church) of them both. This ground worke of faith and doctrine laid, inſtuctions of Chriſtian maner ſollow: teaching euery man to walke in roundnes of cōſcience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenes, reuerencing and obeying the magiſtrate, exerciſing charitic, putting of the olde man, and putting on Chriſt, bearing with the weake, and loſing one another according to Chriſts example. Finally S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren exhortheth them to vnitie, and to ſeeke falſe preachers and ſtatterers, and ſo concludeth with a prayer.

CHAP. II.

1 He feareth the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 2 And comforteth the faithfull. 3 To beate downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holines, and of alliance with God, he proueth all men to be sinners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Iewes by the Law written.

1 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that iudgest: ¶ For in that that thou iudgest another, thou condemnest thy selfe: for thou that iudgest, doest the same thinges.

2 But we knowe that the iudgement of God is according to truth, against them which commit such thinges.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest the which do such thinges, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 O despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnes, and ¶ patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnes of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou, after thine hardnesse, and heart that can not repent, ¶ heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of ¶ wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 ¶ Who will reward euery man according to his ¶ workes:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glory, & honour, & immortallitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobedient the truth, and obey unrighteousnesse, shall be indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall be vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euil: of the Jewe first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But to euery man that doeth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace, to the Jewe first, and also to the Grecian, 11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perishe also without the Lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the Lawe, shall be iudged by the Lawe

17 ¶ Beholde, thou art called a Jewe, and restest in the Lawe, and ¶ gloiest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the thinges that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And persuadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkenesse,

20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnclearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, & of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, ¶ a man should not steale, dost thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, ¶ A man should not commit adulterie, dost thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committed thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that gloiest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe dishonourest thou God?

24 For the shame of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, ¶ as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Lawe: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Lawe) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Jewe, which is one outwardly: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jewe which is one within, and the ¶ circumcision is of the heart, in the ¶ spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Having granted some promaginate to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 He proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 22 And to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31 And so the Lawe to be established.

 Gal. 2. 16. h He meaneth y Law, either writte or vnwritte, which commandeth or forbiddeth any thing, whose works can not iu-stifie because we cannot performe them. Chap. 1. 17.

What is then the preferment of the Jewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?
 2 Much euery manner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the oracles of God.
 3 For what, though some did not be-lieue: that their vnbelief make y faith of God without effect?
 4 God forbid: pea, let God be true, and euery man a liar, as he it is writen, That thou mightest be iustified in thy wordes, and overcome, when thou art indged.
 5 Now if bo our vnrighteousnes conuend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which yu-stifieth? (I speake as a man.)
 6 God forbid: els howe shall God indge the worlde?
 7 For if the veritie of God hath more as-bouided through my lie vnto his glory,
 why am I yet condemned as a sinner?
 8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why do we not es-uill, that good may come thereof: whose damnation is iust.
 9 What then? are we more excellent?
 No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Jewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne.
 10 As it is writen, There is none righteous, no not one.
 11 There is none that vnderstandeth:
 there is none that seeketh God.
 12 They haue all gone out of the waye:
 they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good,
 no not one.
 13 Their throte is an open sepulchre:
 they haue shied their tongues to deceit:
 the ypollon of a lyes is vnder their lips.
 14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
 15 Their feete are swift to sheade bloud.
 16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes,
 17 And the way of peace they haue not known.
 18 The feare of God is not before their eyes.
 19 Nowe we know that whatsoeuer the Lawe saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may be stopped, and all the worlde be culpable before God.
 20 Therefore by the workes of the Lawe shall no fleshe be iustified in his sight: for by the Law commeth y knowledge of sinne.
 21 But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without y Law, hauing witness of the Law & of the Prophets.
 22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto al, and vpon
 all that beleue.
 23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are i deuyed of the glorie

 of God,
 24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through y redemption that is in Christ
 Iesus,
 25 Who God hath set forth to be a redemption through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the followingnes of the finnes, that are passed through the patience of God, 26 To shewe at this tyme his righteousnes, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.
 27 Where is then the reioyce? It is excluded. By what Lawe? of workes?
 Nay: but by the Lawe of faith.
 28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Lawe.
 29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only,
 and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euery one of the Gentiles also.
 30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith,
 31 Do we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: pea we establish the Law.
 fulfilled for vs. m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one

 CHAP. IIII.
 1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift, etc by them them selves, of whom the lawes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 18 And also by the office of the Law and faith.
What shall we saye then, that as Abraham our father hath founde concerning the fleshe?
 2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.
 3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleied God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.
 4 Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette:
 5 But to him that worketh not, but beleueth in him that iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righte-ousnes.
 6 Euen as Dauid declareth y blessednes of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying, 7 Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose finnes are covered.
 8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lorde imputeth not sinne.
 9 Came this blessednes then vpon y circumcised onely, or vpon the vncircumcised on also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.
 10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised?

 11 * After he receiued the ſigne of circumciſion, as the ſeale of the righteouſnes of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumciſed, that he ſhould be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumciſed, y^e righteouſnes might be imputed to them alſo.
 12 And the father of circumciſed, not vnto them onely which are of the circumciſion, but vnto them alſo that walke in the ſteppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumciſed.
 13 For the promiſes that he ſhould be the heire of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his ſeede, through the Lawe, but through the righteouſnes of faith.
 14 For if they which are of the Lawe, be heires, faith is made void, & the promiſe is made of none effect.
 15 For the Lawe cauſeth y^e wrath: for where no Lawe is, there is no tranſgreſſion.
 16 Therefore it is by faith, y^e it might come by grace, and the promiſes might be ſure to al the ſede, not to that onely which is of the Law: but alſo to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.
 17 (As it is written, * I haue made the a father of many nations) euen * before God who he beleueed, who quickeneth the p^r dead, & calleth thoſe things which he not, as though they were.

 21 Being fully aſſured that he which had promiſed, was alſo able to do it.
 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteouſnes.
 23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteouſnes, 24 But alſo for vs, to whom it ſhalbe imputed for righteouſnes, which beleue in him that raiſed by Jeſus our Loide from the dead.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruite of faith, 7 And by comparison ſetteth forth the loſſe of God and obediēce of Chriſt, which is the foundation and ground of the ſame.

Then being iuſtified by faith, we haue peace toward God through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.
 2 * By whom alſo wee haue acceſſe through faith vnto this grace, wherein we ſtande, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.
 3 Neither do we ſo onely, but alſo we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,
 4 And patience experience, and experience hope,
 5 And hope maketh not b ſhamed, becauſe the loue of God is ſhedde abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghoſt, which is giuen vnto vs.
 6 For Chriſt, when we were yet of no ſtrength, at his time, died for the vngodly.
 7 Doubtes one will ſearſe die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dar dye.
 8 But God ſetteth out his loue toward vs, ſeing that while we were yet ſinners, Chriſt dyed for vs.
 9 Much more then, being now iuſtified by his blood, we ſhall be ſaued from wrath through him.
 10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, we ſhalbe ſaued by his life.
 11 And not onely ſo, but we alſo reioyce in God through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom we haue now receiued the atonement.
 12 Wherefore, as by one man ſinne entered into the world, and death by ſinne, and fo death went ouer all men: ſo alſo much as all men haue ſinned.
 13 For vnto the time of the Lawe was ſinne in the world, but ſinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.
 14 But death reigned from Adam to Moſes, euen over them alſo that ſinned not after the like maner of the tranſgreſſion of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.
 15 But yet the gift is not ſo, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Jeſus Chriſt, hath abounded vnto many.
 16 Neither is the gift ſo, as that which entered in by one that ſinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iuſtification.
 17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more ſhall they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteouſnes, reigne in life through one, that is, Jeſus Chriſt.
 18 Likewiſe then as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, ſo by the iuſtifying of one, the be-nesse abounded toward all men to the iustificatiō of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Whereouer the Lawe entred there, upon that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sin had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousnes vnto eternal life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the Spirit, & He sheweth by the vertue & end of Baptisme, That regeneration wrought with iustificatiō, & therefore exhorteth to godly life, & Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we, that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Knowe ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 We are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised by from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so we also should walke in newnes of life.

5 For if we be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shall we be to the similitude of his resurrection.

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore if we be dead with Christ, we beleue þat we shall liue also with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised fro the dead, dyeth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are dead to sinne, but are alieue to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lustres thereof.

d If we by his vertue dye to sinne, e The fleshe wherein sinne sticketh fast. f Because that being dead we can not sinne. g That he might destroy sinne in our flesh. h And stretch at the right hand of the Father. i We may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs: which is by the participation of Christes death, by whom also he is quickened, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness. k In that ye are led with the Spirit of God. l The minde first ministereth euill motions, whereby mans will is entised: thence burst forth the lustres, by them the bodie is prouoked, and the body by his actions doeth sollicit the minde: therefore he commaundeth at the least that we rule our bodies.

Weapons of unrighteousnes vnto sin: but gūe your selues vnto God, as they that are alieue from the dead, and gūe your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 Knowe ye not, that to whomsoever ye gūe your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the founne of þe doctrine, wherunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the maner of man, because of the infirmite of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to uncleannes and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so nowe gūe your members seruants vnto righteousness in holines.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed fro righteousness.

21 What fruite had ye then in those things, wherof ye are now ashamed? For the ende of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holinesse, and the end, eternall life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

an adulterer, though he take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that he should be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the Law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruite vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, where in we were hidden, that we should serue in vncleines of Spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowne lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne rooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once was aloue, without the Law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordeined vnto life, was founde to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, & there by slewe me.

12 Wherefore the Lawe is holp, and the commandement is holp, and iust, & good.

13 Was that then which is good, made deatly vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinful by the commandement.

14 For we knowe that the Lawe is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I doe: for what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I doe then that which I woulde not, I consent to the Lawe, that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is no more I, that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that do I.

20 Nowe if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 If I should be then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Lawe of God, concerning the inner man: 23 But I see another lawe in my members, rebelling against the lawe of my minde, and leading me captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer me from this body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my selfe in my minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my flesh the lawe of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruites of the holy Ghost in them. 2 The weaknesse of the Lawe, and who accomplished it. 3 And wherefore. 4 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 5 The fruites of the Spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutual loue betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

1 Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not in the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the Lawe of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the lawe of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the law, in as much as it was weak, because of the flesh) God sending his own Sonne, in the similitude of sinful flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the righteousnesse of the lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, labour the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death; but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is inimicte against God: for it is not subject to the Lawe of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.

9 Nowe ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousnes sake.

- 12 Therefore brethren, we are better not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:
13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall live.
14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.
15 For ye haue not received the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue received the Spirit of adoption, wherewith we crye * Abba, Father.
16 The same Spirit ¹ beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.
17 If we be children, we are also ² heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.
18 For I count that ³ afflictions of this present time, are not ⁴ woorthie of the glorie, which shall be shewed vnto vs.
19 For the seruent desire of the creature to bapteth when the sonnes of God shal be reueiled, 20 Because the ⁵ creature is subiect to ⁶ banitic, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope,
21 Because the creature also shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.
22 For we knowe that every ⁷ creature groweth with vs also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.
23 And not only the creature, but we also which haue the ⁸ first fruits of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the ⁹ redemption of our ¹⁰ bodie.
24 For we are saued by hope: but hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?
25 But if we hope for that we see not, we do with patience abide for it.
26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmitie: for we knowe not what to pray as we ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh request for vs wth sighes, which can not be expressed.
27 But he that searcheth ¹¹ hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he ¹² maketh request for the Saintes, according to the will of God.
28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto thē that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.
29 For those which hee ¹³ knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.
30 Whosoever whom he predestinate, thē also he calleth, & whom hee calleth, thē also he iustificth, and whom hee iustificth, thē he also glorifieth.

- 31 What shall we say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?
32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs all to death, how shall hee not with him giue vs all things also?
33 Who shall take any thing to the charge of Gods election? it is God that ¹⁴ iustificth, 34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, and who is also at the right hande of God, and maketh request also for vs.
35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation or anguish, or perlecution, or famine, or nakednes, or perill, or sword?
36 As it is written, ¹⁵ For thy sake are we killed all day long: we are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.
37 Accitueless, in all these things we are more then conquerours through him that loued vs.
38 For I am perswaded that neether death, nor life, nor Angels, nor ¹⁶ principalties, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

16 So then it is not in him that willet, nor in him that runneth, but in God that fheweth mercie.

17 For the * Scripture faicth vnto Pharao, * For this fame purpofe haue I stirred thee by, that I might fhewe my power in thee, & that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

30 What fhall we faie then? That the Gentiles which followe not righteousnes, haue attained vnto righteousnes, euen the righteousnes which is of faith.

31 But Iſrael which followed the Lawe of righteousnes, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousnes.

32 Wherefoze? Becauſe they ſought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue ſtumbled at the ſtumbling ſtone,

4 God hath his Church although is be not seen so many eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Jewes for a time, and reueiled himselfe to the Gentiles. 18 Whom he warneth to humble them selves. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.
1 I Demaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abrahams, of the tribe of Benjamin.
2 God hath not cast away his people which he knewe before. knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,
3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, & digged downe thine altars: & I am left alone, and they seeke my life?
4 But what saeth the answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seven thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.
5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.
6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or els were grace no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, & the rest haue bene hardened.
8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.
9 And David saeth, * Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompense vnto them.
10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bowe downe their backe alwayes.
11 I demaunde then, haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to & prouoke them to follow them.
12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, & the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?
13 For in that I speake of you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, 14 To trie if by any means I might prouoke them of my flesh to followe them, and might saue some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving be but life from the dead?
16 For if the first fruites be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.
17 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde olive tree, wast graft in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and saines of the olive tree,
18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: & if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in. Wel: though vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: be not high minded, but feare.
20 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heede, lest he also spare not thee,
21 Beholde therefore the bountifullnes, and feruencie of God: towards them which haue fallen, feruencie: but toward thee, bountifullnes, if thou continue in his bountifullnes: or els thou shalt also be cut off.
22 And they also, if they abyde not still in vnbeliefe, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.
23 For if thou wast cut out of the olive tree, which was wild by nature, and wast grafted contrarie to nature in a right olive tree, howe much more shall they that are by nature, be grafted in their owne olive tree?

good woorks, but for euill. While y^e then be without feare of the power: do wel: so thalt thou haue praise of the same.
4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealtly: but if thou do euill, feare for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.
5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for cōscience sake.
6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying them selues for the same thing.
7 Due to al men therfore their dutie: tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: civill stone, to whom custome, feare, to who feare: honour, to whom ye owe honor.
8 Due nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Lawe.
9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witness, Thou shalt not couet: & if there be any other cōmāndement, it is briefely comprehended in this saying, even in this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.
10 A loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therfore is loue p^rfulfilling of p^r Lawe.
11 And that, considering the season, that it is now tyme that we should arise frō sleepe: for now is our saluation nerer, then when we beleueed it.

13 So that we walke honestly, as in the day: not in * gluttonie, & drunkennes, neither in chambering & wantounes, nor in strife and euiling.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The weakē ought not to be despised. 10 No mā should offend anothers conscience, 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.
1 Him that is weakē in the faith, receiue vnto pou, but not for controuersies of disputations.
2 One beleueth that he may eate of all things: and another, which is weakē, eateth herbes.
3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.
4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne master: yea, he shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.
5 This man esteemeth one day aboute as another day: & another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man be a fully persuaded man in his conscience: & if we be weakē, we may learne to profit dayly.

peruaded in his minde.
6 He that obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord: & he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Loide. He that eateth, eateth to the Loide: for he giueth God thanks: & he that eateth not, eateth not to the Loide, and giueth God thanks.
7 For none of vs giueth to him selfe, neither doeth any die to him selfe.
8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Loide: or whether we die, we die vnto the Loide: whether we liue therefore, or die, we are the Loides.
9 For Christ therfore died & rose againe, & reuiued, that he might be Loide both of the dead and the quicke.
10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother: or why dost thou despise thy brother? * for we shall all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ.
11 For it is written, * I will, saith the Loide, & euery knee shall bow to me, & all tongues shall confesse vnto God.
12 So then euery one of vs shall giue account of him selfe to God.
13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.
14 * I knowe, and am persuaded through the Loide Iesus, p^r there is nothing vncleane of it self: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.
15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: * defroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed.
16 Cause not your commodities to bee euill spoken of.
17 For the kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but right conscience, & peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.
18 For who foruer in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, & is appoyned of men.
19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, & wherewith one may edifie another.
20 Defroy not the woike of God for meates sake: * all things in deede are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.
21 * It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, wherewith thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weakē.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the only mercy of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requirith the same of them.

1 Which are strong, ought to beare p infirmities of p weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to edi-fication.

3 For Christ also would not please himself, but as it is written, * He rebukes of them which rebuketh thee, sel b on me.

4 For whatsoeuer thinges are writtē aforetime, are writte for our learning, that we through patience, & comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation gūe you that ye be * like minded one towardes another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore reueue pe one another, as Christ also received vs to the d gloyp of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a c minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe be faith, * Reioyce, ye Ge-tiles with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laude ye him, all people together.

12 And againe Esaia saith, * There shall be a roote of Jesse, & he that shall rise to reigne ouer b the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with alloy, & peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnes, & filled with al knowledge, & are able to admonish one another.

15 Heretofore brethren, I haue come what boldy after a fort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, though the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Ie-sus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering p Gospel of God, p the offering by of the Gentiles might be acceptable being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may re-ioyce in Christ Iesus in thole thinges which pertaine to God,

18 For I dare not kpeake of any thing, which Christ hath not wrought by me,
to make the Gentiles obedient in word
and deede,

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirit of God:
so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Ilyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Pea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, nor where Christ was inued, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see him, &
they p heard not, shall understand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue
* bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I wil come to you: for I trust to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thitherwarde by you, after that I haue bene somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now go I to Ierusalem, to mini-ster vnto the Saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia & Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saintes which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their betters are they: * for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall thinges, their duectie is also to minister vnto them in carnal thinges.

28 When I haue therefore performed
this, & haue s sealed them this s fute,
I wil passe by you into Spaine.

29 * And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with * abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren I beseeche you for our Lord Iesus Christs sake, & for the loue of p spirit, that ye * would strue with me by prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be deliuered from them which are disobedient in Iudea, & p my seruice which I haue to do at Ierusalem, may be accepted of the Saintes,

32 That I may come vnto you with ioy by the wil of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Thus the * God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospell.

8 Which Gospell was contemptible and hid to the carnal, 10 And againe honourable and manifest to the spiritual.

1 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of wordes, or of wisdom, shewing vnto you the testimonie of God.

2 For I esteimed not to know any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, & him crucified.

3 And I was among you in weakenes, & in feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stode my word, and my preaching in the enticing speache of mans wisdom, but in plaine euidence of the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisdom among them that are perfect: not the wisdom of this world, neyther of the princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wisdom of God in a mystery, euen þe hid wisdom, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glorie.

¶ Chap. 1. 17. 2. pet. 1. 16. * Or, heavenly, or diuine. c They whose understandings are illuminate by faith, acknowledge this wisdom, which the world calleth follie. d The world is here taken for them, whom either for wisdom, riches or power, men do esteeme.

8 Which is none of the princes of this world: hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seene, neither care hath heard, neither s came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuelled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue þe spirit of a man, which is in him: euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Nowe we haue receiued not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might knowe the things that are giuen to vs of God.

13 Which things also we speake, not in the wordes which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.

14 But the natural man perceiuen not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnes vnto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he him selfe is iudged of no man.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 He appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glory which hindered them to prayse that, which they displayed in him. 16 Hee sheweth what he requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

Let a man lo to thinke of vs, as of eie 1 ministers of Christ, & disposers of the secrets of God. 2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be found faithful. 3 * As touching me, I passe verie litle to be iudged of you, or of ^f mans iudgements: I iudge not ^b mine owne selfe. 4 For I ^c know nothing by ^d my selfe, yet am I not thereby iudged: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord. 5 Therefore I iudge nothing before his time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darknes, & make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God. 6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne ^e by vs, that no man presume aboute that which is written, that one shall not agaspit another for any mans cause. 7 For who ^a separateth thee? what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioicest thou, as though thou haddest not receiued it? 8 Now we are full: now we are made rich: we reigne as Kings without vs, & would to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you. 9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs to be the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a galling stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men. 10 We are ^bfooles for Christs sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, and ye are strong: ye are honourable, and we are despised. 11 Vnto this houre we both hunger, & thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 * And labour, working with our owne handes: we are reviled, & yet we blessed: we are persecuted, and suffer it. 13 * We are euil spoken of, & we ^cpray: we are made as the filth of the world, the ofskowring of all things, vnto this time. 14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you. 15 For though ye haue ten thousande ^dinstructors in Christ, yet haue ye not manie fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through ^e the Gospel. 16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued some, & faithful in the Lord, which shall put you in ^f remembrance of my waies in Christ as I teache euery where in euery Church. 18 Some are puffed by as though I would not come to you, a Asie is a thing intolerable to contemne the true ministers of God, so it is greatly reprehensible to attribute more vnto them then is meete.

CHAP. V.

1 He reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 2 Vnto them to excommunicate him, 3 To embrace piety, 4 And see wickednes.

1 It is heard certainly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the Gentiles,* that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffd by and haue not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this deed, might bee put fro among you.

3 For I herely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already as though I were present, that hee that hath thus done this thing,
4 When ye are gathered together, and in p spirit, d in the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,
5 Be deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of his flesh, h the spirit may be saued in the day of the Lord Iesus.

6 Your reioicing is not good: know ye not that a litle leauen leaueth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore h old leauen, that ye may be a newe lump, h as ye are unleauened: for Christ our Pasche is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not w old leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousness and wickednes: but with the unleauened bread of spiceritie and truth.
9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle,* that ye should not companie together with fornicators,

10 And not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must go out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye companie not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.
12 For what haue I to do, to iudge them also, which are I without? do ye not iudge them that are in within?

13 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye companie not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.
14 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle,* that ye should not companie together with fornicators, and not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must go out of the world.
15 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye companie not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

13 But Godudgetheth that are with out. But away therfore from among your selues that wicked man.
C H A P. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for going to lawe together before the Heathen. 2 Christians ought rather to suffer. 3 He reproveth the abusiu of Christian libertie, 4 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely both in body, and in soule.

1 D We are not you, hauing busines against another, bee iudged vnder the vnuit, and not vnder the Saintes?

2 Do ye not knowe, that the Saintes shall iudge the world? If the world then shall be iudged by you, are ye without to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not that we shall iudge the Angels: how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, set by them which are least esteemed in h Church,
5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so p there is not a wise ma among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Howe therfore there is utterip a fault among you, because ye go to lawe one with another: why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather sullen ye not harme?

8 Nay, ye pour selues do wrong, and do harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe ye not that the vnrighuous shall not inherit the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers,

10 Nor thieues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherit the kingdome of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the name of the Lorde Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawfull vnto me: but all things are not profitable. I may doe all things, but I will not be brought vnder the power of any thing.

13 Meates are ordeined for the bellie, and the bellie for the meate: but God shall destroy both it, & them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the bodie.

14 And God hath also raised by h Lord, & shall raise vs by his power.

15 Knowe ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

19 knowe ye not, that * your bodie is the temple of the holy Ghost, which is in you, whome ye haue of God: & ye are not your owne.

20 * for ye are bought for a price: theresfore glorifie God in your bodie, and in your spirit: for they are of Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certaine questions, which the Corinthians desired to knowe, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duetie of marriage, 11 Of discordes and dissension in marriage, 13 Of marriage betwene the faithfull and unfaithfull, 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginitie, 39 And second marriage.

NOW concerning things wheresof ye wrote vnto me, I were a good for a man not to touch a woman,

2 neuertheless, to auoide fornicatio, let euerie man haue his wife, & let euerie woman haue her owne husbande.

3 * let the husbande giue vnto the wife as due benenolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likes wife also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except ye be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together that Satan tempt you not for your vncircumcencie.

6 But I speake thus by permission, not by commaundement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I myselfe am: but euerie man hath his proper gifte of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnnaried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I do.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marry: for it is better to marie then to burne.

10 And vnto the married I commaund, not I, but the Lord, let not the wife * departe from her husbande.

11 But & if he depart, let her remaine vnnaried, or be reconciled vnto her husbande, and let not the husbande put as away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not the Lord, If any brather haue a wife, that belieueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband which band that belieueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbelleuing husbande is sanctified by the wife, & the vnbelleuing wife is sanctified by the husband, els were your children vncleane: but now are they holy.

15 But if the vnbelleuing departe, let him departe: a brother of a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husbande? what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euerie man, as the Lord hath called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordeine I, in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, & vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commaundements of God.

20 * Let euery man abide in the same vocation whererein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if pet thou must be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lords freeman: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Ye are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Whether, let euery man, whererein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgines, I haue no commaundement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present: is necessitie: I meane if it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bounde vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: & if a virgin mary, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue y trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, * hereafter that both they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: & they that be reioyce, as made partaker of their griefe, as in presence of God. * Or the state of virginitie. † He bindeeth no man to that which God hath left free: but sheweth what is most agreeable to Gods will, according to the circumstance of time, place & persons. * Or beleued. † To be single. u In these afflictions and persecutions. x As worldly cares of their children and familie. y He doeth not preferre singleness as a thing more holie then marriage, but by reason of incommodities, which the one hath more then the other. z In wishing that you could liue without wiues. * Or, it remaineth short.

i Meaning, that the faith of the beleuer hath more power to sanctifie marriage then the wickednes of the other that are borne of either of the parents faithful, are also counted members of Christs Church, because of the promises, Act. 2. 39. I When such things come to passe, that the faithful and vnfaitful be married together, & the one forsake the other without cause. m The lawful vocation in our ward things must not lightly be neglected. n Which is whē the surgeon by art draweth out y skin to couer the part circumcised, Celsus lib. 7. cap. 25. - 14 So also hath the Lorde ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.
- 15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wore I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make me partaker of the same.
- 16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessity is laid vpon me, and wo is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.
- 17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a rewarde: but if I do it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.
- 18 What is my rewarde then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

CHAP. X.

He seareth them with the examples of the Jewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, Exhorting them to flee al idolatrie, and offence of their neighbors.

- Moreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and al passed through the cloude, and al baptized vnto Moses, in the cloude, and in the sea,
- And did al eate the same spiritual meat,
- And did al drinke the same spiritual drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ.)
- But with manie of them God was not pleased: for they were overthowe in the wilderness.
- How these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that we should not lust after euil things as they also lusted,
- Neither be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, The people sat downe to eate and drinke, and rose by to play.
- Neither let vs committe fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fel in one day thre and twety thousand.
- Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted him, & were destroyed of serpents.
- Neither murmur ye, as some of the also murmured, & were destroyed of the destroyer.
- How al these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish vs, vpon whom the endes of the world are come.
- Wherefore, let him that thinketh hee standeth, take heed lest hee fall.
- There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man: and God is faithful, which will not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you be able, but will enen giue the issue with the temptation, that ye may be able to beare it.
- Wherefore my beloved, flee from idolatrie.
- I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.
- The cup of blessing which we bleis, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the communion of the bodie of Christ?
- For we y are manie, are one breade and one bodie, because we al are partakers of one breade.
- Behold Israel which is after the flesh: vnto execute his iudgement to the vtter destruction of the wicked, i Howe God will plague vs, if we be subiect to the like vices. k Or, latter dayes of Christs comming. l He that led you into this tentation, which cometh vnto you either in prosperitie or aduersitie, or for your finnes past, will turne it to your comodic, & deliuer you. are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? Is the idol is any thing? or that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but is these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, & not unto God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with the devils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the devils. Ye can not be partakers of the Lords table and of the table of devils.

22 Do we prouoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

26 For the earth is the Lords, and all is therein is.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eat it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lordes, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why should my libertie be condemned of another mans conscience?

30 For if I though Gods benefite bee partaker, why am I euil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye do, do all to the glorie of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to Jewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine owne profit, but the profit of many, that they might be saved.

CHAP. XI.

He reuoketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4. As touching prayer, prophesying, 18 And minishing the Lords supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

1 Be ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember all my things, and kepe the ordinances, as I deliuered the to you.

3 But I wil that ye knowe, that Christ is the head of euery man: & the man is the womans head: & God is Christs head.

4 Euery man praying or prophesying having any thing on his head, dishonoureth his head.

5 But euerye woman that prayeth or prophesiet bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one verie thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be thorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be thorne of shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as he is the image & glorie of God: but the woman is the glorie of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue power on her head, because of the Angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is man without the woman, neither is the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Judge in your selues, Is it comely for a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long haire, it is a shame vnto him?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praise vnto her: for her haire is giuen her for a covering.

16 But if any man list to be contentions, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 I Now in this I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleue it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be heresies euen among you, that they which are approved among you, might be knownen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords supper.

21 For euery man when they shoulde eat, taketh his owne supper afoze, and one is hungrie, and another is drunke.

22 Haue ye not houses to eat & to drinke in: despayle ye the Church of God, & shame them that haue not: what shall I say to you? that I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 And when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and sayde, Take, eat: this

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death til he come.

27 Wherefore, whoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lords unworthily, shall be guilty of the bodie and blood of the Lord.

28 Let a man therefore examine him selfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth & drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not the Lords bodie.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if wee would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, take one for another.

34 And if any man be hungrie, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be used to the edifying of Christs Church, 12. As the members of mans bodie serue to the use one of another.

1 Now concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the bondage of idoles, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Iesus erretable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to profit with all.

8 For to euery man is giue by the Spirit the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit.

9 And to another is giuen faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

e To wit, the Church, which is the whole body. f That is, the vnderstanding of the Scriptures. g To do onely miracles by.

10 And to another the operations of great workes: and to another, prophesie: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 And all these things worketh euery one of the self same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is the Church.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one bodie, whether we be Jewes or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye can not say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most unhonourable, yet wee more honeste on: & our vnicomely parts haue more comelines on.

24 For our comely partes neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked,

25 lest there should be any diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of the Church, and members of it, by your part.

28 And God hath ordained some in the Church: as first, Apostles, seconde, the Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? do all speake with tongues?

Because loue is the fountaine & rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

1 Through I speake with þ tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding byasle, or a tinkeling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knowe all secretes & all knowlege, yea, if I had ^a all fapth, so that I could remoue ^b mountaines & had no loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my bodye, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue eniureth not: loue doeth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed up:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her own thinges: it is not yppouced to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioiceth not in iniquitie, but reioiceth in the trueth:

7 It suffereth al thinges: it beleueth ^a al thinges: it hopeth al thinges: it endureth ^d al thinges.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophesying be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowlege vanissh away.

9 For we know ^a in part, and we ^b prophesse in parte.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in parte, shal be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstoode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became ^a a man, I put away childish thinges.

12 For now we see ^a through a glasse darkely: but then shall we see face to face. Nowe I know in part: but then shal I know enen as I am ^b knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope & loue, enen these thre: but þ ^c chiefest of these is loue.

a If the Angels had tongues, & I had y^e vie thereof, and did not below to profit my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babbling.

b Faith is here taken for y^e gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for chat faith (called historical)

CHAP. XIII.

a He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, & other spiritual giftes, 5 But chiefly prophesying. 34 He commaundeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

1 Follow after loue, & conet spirituall

2 Giftes, rather þ ye may ^a prophesie. For hee that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but into God: for no man ^b heareth him: howbeit in the ^c spirit hee speaketh secret thinges.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, es diueth ^d him selfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I speake to you, either by ^e reuelation, or by knowlege, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Whereuer thinges without life which giue a sound, whether it be a ^f pipe of an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shal it be known what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vnter-tene sound, who shal prepare ^g him selfe to battel?

9 So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye utter words that haue signification, how shal it be vnderstand what is spoken: for ye shal speake in the ^h aire.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as it commeth to passe) in the world, and none of them is donne.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh, ⁱ a barbarian, and he that speaketh, shalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, for as much as ye couet spirituall giftes, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, þ hee may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit ^j prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is without ^k fruit.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blest with the spirit, how shal hee that occupieth the roome of the vnderstand, say Amen, at thy giving of thankes, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye al.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake ^l five words with mine vnderstanding, than ten thousand words in a strange tongue.

u To the intent that others may iudge of him y hath spoken, if he haue passed y copasse of Gods word: wherefore S. Iohn comāndeth to trye the spirits whether they be of God. 1. Tim. 2. 11. x Because this disorder was in the church, y women vsurped that which was peculiar to me, y Apoflle here sheweth what is meete to be done, & what is not: & albeit he mentioned this abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reproued, because there he brought it in for another purpose. Gen. 3. 16. y Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye neither submit your selues to the Churches, of whom you haue receiued the Gospell: nor haue respect to the others, to whom the Gospell doeth likewise appertaine?

21 In the Lawe it is written, * By men of other tongues, & by other languages wil I speake vnto this people: per so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a p signe, not to them that beleene, but to them that beleene not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleene not, but for them which beleene.
23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they p are vnlearned, or they which beleene not, wil they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?
24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, q he is rebuked of all men, & is iudged of al.
25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he wil fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in deede.
26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euerp one of you hath a psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.
27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by thre, & that by course, and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him selfe, and to God.
29 Let y Prophets speake two, or thre, and let the other iudge.
30 And if any thing be reueiled to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
31 For ye may al prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.
32 And the spirits of the Prophets are a subiect to the Prophets.
33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saintes.
34 * Let your women keepe x silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also * the Law saith.
35 And if they wil learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a thame for women to speake in the Church.
36 ¶ Came the worde of God out from you, either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke him selfe to be a Prophet, or * Spiritual, let him acknowledge, that p things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.
38 * And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.
40 Let all things be done honellip and by order.
Iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credit the that are learned.
C H A P. XV.
He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shall rise, 52 And the manner how.
I Mōuonour, * brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospell, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and wherein ye continue,
2 And whereby ye are saved, if ye keepe in memoie, after what maner I preached it vnto you, * except ye haue beleueed in vaine.
3 For of first of all, I deliuered vnto you p which I b receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes according to the * Scriptures,
4 And that he was buried, and that he arose the thirde day, according to the * Scriptures.
5 * And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the c twelue.
6 After that, he was seene of mo then six hundred brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, & some also are a sleepe.
7 After that, he was seene of James: then of al the Apostles.
8 * And last of al he was seene also of me as of one, boine out of due time.
9 For I am * the least of the Apostles, which am not meet to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.
10 * But by the d grace of God, I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they al: yet not I, but p grace of God which is with me.
11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, & so haue pe beleueed.
12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching e vaine, and your f faith is also vaine.
15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised by Christ: whom he hath not raised by, if so be the dead be not raised.
16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised,
17 And more,

z To haue vnderstanding of spiritual things, a If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge y I speake of the spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credit the that are learned.
Gal. 1. 11.
a If you beleue to be saved by y Gospel, ye must beleue also the resurrection of y dead, which is one of the principal points thereof, or els your beliefe is but vaine.
b He sheweth y nothing ought to be caught, which we haue not learned by Gods worde.

c Although Iudas wanted, yet they were fo called still.

e Christs death is not effectual, except he rise from death.
f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

- m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is said to be subject to God: but in respect of the world is King of heaven & earth. This kingdom standeth in governing by faithful, & overcoming the adversaries, eue death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected, w al his members, thal as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God w whome and the holy ghost in Godhead he is equal. *Psal. 110. 1. act. 1. 34. 35. heb. 1. 17. and 10. 13. - n We shalbe perfectly fulfilled w his glorie & felicitie, o That is, as dead, and because they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptized before they dyed.
- p Except these things be true of Christs kingdome and his subiection, what shal become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them which is y end of baptsime, and so they to rise againe? q I take to witness all my sorowes wherein I may iustly reioyce in y Lord, that I have susteyned the among you. r That is, having regard to this present life, & not to Gods glorie, & to life cuerlasting. 1. I. 22. 13. wyl. 2. 6. Menander in Thaid.
- 17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vayne: ye are per in pour finnes.
- 18 And to they which are a sleepe in Christ, are perished.
- 19 If in this life: onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.
- 20 But naue is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first fruites of them that slepe.
- 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
- 22 For as in Adam all dye, euen so in Christ shall all be made aliuie,
- 23 But euery man in his owne order: the first fruites is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his coming shall rise againe.
- 24 Then shall be the end, when hee hath deliuered by the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when hee hath put downe al rule, & all authoritie & power.
- 25 For he must reigne* til hee hath put al his enemies vnder his feete.
- 26 The last enemy that shalbe destroyed, is death,
- 27 * For hee hath put downe all thinges vnder his feete. (And wher he saith that all thinges are subdued to him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put downe all thinges vnder him.)
- 28 And when all thinges shalbe subdued vnto him, then shal the Sonne also him selfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all thinges vnder him, that God may be all in all.
- 29 Eis what hal they do which are baptized? for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?
- 30 Why are we also in jeopardy euery houre?
- 31 y For our reioicing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I dye baptiz.
- 32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what aduantage it me, if the dead be not raised by? * let vs eate and drinke: for to morow we shal dye.
- 33 Be not deceived: * euil speakings corrupt good maners.
- 34 Awake to liue righteously, and sime not: for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to pour shame.
- 35 But some man wil say, How are the dead raised by? and with what bodye come they forth?
- 36 D foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.
- 37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodye that shalbe, but bare come, as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.
- 38 But God quicketh it a body at his pleasure, euen to cetera seede his owne bodye.
- 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, & another of birdes.
- 40 There are also heauenly bodyes, and earthy bodyes: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.
- 41 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glorie.
- 42 So also is the resurrection of y dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.
- 43 It is sowen in dishonour, and is raised in glorie: it is sowen in weakenes, and is raised in power.
- 44 It is sowen a naturall bodye, and is raised a spirituall bodye: there is a naturall bodie, and there is a spirituall bodye.
- 45 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.
- 46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spiritual: but that which is natural, and afterwarde that which is spiritual.
- 47 The first manis of the earth, earthy: the second man is the hode* from heauen.
- 48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.
- 49 And as we haue done the image of the earthy, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly.
- 50 The his sap I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.
- 51 Beholde, I shewe you a secret thing, We shal not all slepe, but we shal all be changed,
- 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye at the last trumpette: for the trumpet shal blowe, and the dead shal be raised by incorruptible, and we shal be changed.
- 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall must put on immortallitie.
- 54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortallitie, then shal be brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swallowed by into victorie.
- 55 * * Death, where is thy sting? * Death is in steade of death to them. Mat. 23. 29. 1. Thess. 4. 16. 1. I. 25. 1. reuel. 7. 17. || Death, where is thy victorie? 1. I. 25. 1. reuel. 7. 17. || Death, where is thy sting? 1. I. 25. 1. reuel. 7. 17.

f There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualitie.

g Euen as the Sunne and the Moone being of one substance differ in dignities so in the resurrection our bodies shall have more excellent qualities then they haue now.

h For what is more vile to looke vnto then y dead carkeis?

i Not changing the substance, but made partaker of the diuine nature. Gen. 1. 7.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Ierusalem. 13 VVe must persiure in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbours. 15 After his commendations he wisheth to them all prosperitie.

I Concerning the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordemed in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also.
 2 * Euery first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by him selfe, and laye by as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.
 3 And when I am come, whosoever ye shal allowe by letters, them wil I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalem.
 4 And if it be more that I goe also, they shal go with me.
 5 Howe I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I wil passe through Macedonia)
 6 And it may be that I wil abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring me on my way whither soeuer I go.
 7 For I wil not see you now in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.
 8 And I will tarie at Ephesus untill Pentecost.
 9 For a great doore and effectual is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.

 Because God blessed his labour.

10 I Howe if I should come, see that he be without feare with you: for he worketh the worke of the Lozd, euen as I doe.
 11 Let no man therefore despise him: but consey him forth in peace, that he may come vnto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.
 12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when ye shall haue convenient time.
 13 Let Watch ye: stande fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.
 14 Let all your things be done in loue.
 15 Howe, brethren, I beseech you (ye knowe the house of Stephanus, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselves to minister vnto the Saintes)
 16 That ye be obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs & labour.
 17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanus, and Fortunatus, & Achaicus: for they haue supplied y want of you.
 18 For they haue comforted my spirit and pours: acknowledge therefore such men.
 19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Magnilla and Pucilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lozd.
 20 All the brethren greete you. Create ye one another with an holy kisse.
 21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.
 22 If any man loue not the Lord Iesus Christ, let him be had in excommunication, yea excommunicate to death.
 23 The grace of our Lozde Iesus Christ be with you.
 24 My loue be with you all in Christ Iesus, Amen.
 The first Epistle to the Corinthians, written from y Philippi, and sent by Stephanus, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

d Willing that they should defend him against the aduersaries of Christ, because it is the Churches due tie to be careful for the preferation of their ministers.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

A S nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue towards them farre passing al natural affections: which did not only not profite al, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbernesse, and contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them wel in the Lorde, declaring that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, least contrarie to his fatherly affection, he should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and severity. And as touching his sharpe writing writing in the former epistle, it came through their fault, as is now evident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent : and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But so far as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, hee confuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan mult haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospell in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, & that sorow which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioined mercy & compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospell, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goodes, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming hee menaceth such as rebell agaynst his authoritie, that he will declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

4 He declareth the great profits that cometh to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnes, that he deferred his comming contrarie to his promise, he proueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, & also by the immutable truth of the Gospell. 21 VVhich truth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

I And an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saintes, which are in all^a Achaia :

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 ^b Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and ^d saluati^o, which ^e is wrought in the induring of ^h same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is steadfast concerning you, in as much as we knowe that as we are partakers of the sufferings, so shall we be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, howe we were pressed ^f out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, our life, for 9 ^g Wea, we receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because we should not trust in our selues, but in God, which rapeth the dead.

10 Who declared vs from so ^h great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom we trust, that yet hereafter hee will deliuer vs,

11 ⁱ So that yee labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioicing is this, the testis^o monie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly purenes, & not in fleshly wisdom, ^k but by the grace of God we haue had our conuersation in ^l word, and most of all to you wardes.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that ye reade, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust yee shall acknowledge vnto the ende.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioicing, euen as ye are ^m ours, in the ⁿ day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidencie was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth towarde Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I see lightnes^o? or vnb^ond^o I those things which I munde, ^p according to the flesh, that with me should be, ^q ^r ^s ^t ^u ^v ^w ^x ^y ^z ^{aa} ^{ab} ^{ac} CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards the. 7 Requiring likewise that they would be favourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 12 He also reioyseth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Consoling thereby such quarelpickers, as under pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the overthrow of his doctrine.

a Which was giuen to Satan but now doeth repent.

1 But I determined thus in my selfe, that I woulde not come againe to you in heauines.

b Which made you and him sorie in my former epistle.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is he the that should make me glad, but I same which is made ^a sorie by me?

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vterly cast of al sorow, that he denyeth that in manner he was any whit sorie.

3 And I wrote ^a this same thing vnto you, least when I came, I should take heauines of them, of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

d And so should increase his sorowe which I would diminish.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrot vnto you w many teares: not that ye should be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

e The adulterer, which interceded his mother in lawe.

5 And if any hath caused sorow, I same hath not made me sorie, but partly (lest I should charge him) you all.

f That at my intercession you woulde declare by the publike consent of the Church that you embrace him againe as a brother: seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

g That is, truly, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

7 So that nowe contrarywise ye ought rather to forgive him, & comfort him, lest the same should be swallowed vp with ouer much heauines.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you woulde confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

k In working mightly by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie & triumph. l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Chrites death as a common death, and be thereat offended, or els thinke it follie: and bringeth againe life to them, who in his death beheld their life.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verely if I forgaiue any thing, to whom I forgaiue it, for your sakes forgaiue I it in the sight of Christ,

11 lest Satan should circumsent vs: for we are not ignorant of his entyces.

12 I further more, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, & a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God which alwaies maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For we are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perishe.

u After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the lawe.

v For the lawe declareth all men to be vnder condemnation.

w Meaning, of the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousness.

x In preaching the Gospel, it was couered with shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the ende thereof: againe the Gospell fetterth forth the glorie of God cleerely, not couering our eyes, but driving the darkenes away from them.

1 Do we begin to praise our selues as if we need we as some other, epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 We are on epistle, writtē in our hearts, which is vnderstand & read of all men.

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by vs, & writtē not with inke, but with the spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiency is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministratioe of death written with letters, & engrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses for the glorie of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

8 Howe shall not the ministratioe of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministratioe of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministratioe of righteousness exceede in glorie.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glorie.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, we vse great boldnes of speech.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a baile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the end of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their minds are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same coveringe vntaken away in the reading of the Old Testament, which vaile in 15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, it vaile is laid ouer their hearts. 16 Heerethes when their heart shalbe turned to the voyde, the vaile shalbe taken away. 17 Showe the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie. 18 But we all beholde as in a mirroure the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundnes in his office. 1 And that which his enemies tooke for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse & afflictions, which he endured, he turneth to his great advantage, 11. 17 Shewing what profite commeth thereby.

a For any troubles or afflictions, b Meaning such shiftes and pretences as become not them that haue such a great office in hand. Chap. 1. 17. c To wit, Satan, Iohn. 12. 31. and 14. 30. Ephe. 6. 12. d In whom God doeth shew him self to be seene: and here Christ is called fo in respect of his office. e As they, which preach for gaine or els which rather seeke to be seene and knowne, then to edifie. Gen. 3. f Which are your seruants. g That we hauing receiued light, shoulde communicate the same with others, & therefore Christ calleth them the light of the world, Mat. 5. 14. h Albeit the ministers of the Gospell be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they carie is nothing worse or inferiour. i All the faithfull, & chiefly the ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also if the members shoulde be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercome death, they are made conquerours. k By our death you haue life: so that the fruite of our afflictions commeth to you.

1 Therefore, seeing that we haue this ministerie, as we haue receiued mercie, we faint not: 2 But haue call from vs the b cloakes of shame, and walke not in craftinesse, neither haunde we the woorde of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God. 3 If our Gospell be then hid, it is hid to them, that are lost. 4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the image of God, shoulde not shine vnto them. 5 For we preach not our selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues pour seruants for Jesus sake. 6 For God that commended the light to shine out of darkenesse, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs. 8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie. 9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not. 10 Euery where we beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodies. 11 For we which live, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh. 12 So then death worketh in vs, & life in you.

13 And because we haue in Spirit 1 The same faith of faith, according as it is written, * I by the inspiration, and therefore haue I spoken, on of the holy we also beleue, and therefore speake, Ghost. Psal. 116. 10. 14 Knowing that he which hath raised vs from the Lord Jesus, shall raise vs by vs in deliuring also by Jesus, & shall re for vs with you. m In deliuring vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life. 15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plentious grace by the thanksgiving of many, may rebounde to the people of God. n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not only my self giue God thanks: for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you al, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, 16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily. o Growth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euerslasting life. 17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, cauery vnto vs a farre most excellent and eternal waight of glorie: 18 While we looke not on the things which are seene, but on things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporal: but the things which are not seene, are eternal.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the utilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 Howe we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whom, 9 And for what end. 14. 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and al the faithfull.

1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens. 2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen. 3 Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be founde naked. 4 For in deede we that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortallitie might be swallowed by of life. 5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Therefore we are alway bold, though we know that whiles we are at home in the bodye, we are absent from the Lord. 7 (For we walke by faith, and not by sight) 8 Nevertheless, we are bolde, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we conent, that both dwelling at home, & remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him. 10 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euil. 11 Knowing therefore the terrour of the iudgement.

h He proueth the dignitie of his ministerie by the fruite and effect thereof, which is, to bring men to Christ.

n Therefore whosoever giueth place to ambition or vayne glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faythfull doe in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe nowe, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God, partaker of his glorie, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke, that I wil flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his giftes? Yes, when I prayse my ministerie, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthe faces, I prayse the mighty power of God, set forth by vs wormes and wretches. r Let him be regenerate, & renounce himself, els al the rest is nothing. 1 Iai. 43. 10. 1 Iai. 43. 10. 1 Iai. 43. 10.

the Lord, we ^h persuade men, and we ⁱ are made manifest vnto God, and ^j I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we prayse not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answer against them, which reioyce in the ^k face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be ^l out of our wit, we are it ^m to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constrained vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were ⁿ all dead.

15 And he dyed for all, that they ^o which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto them selues, but vnto him which dyed for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth knowe we no man after the flesh, yea though we had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth ^p knowe we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be ^q a new creature. ^r Where things are passed away: beholde, all thinges are become newe.

18 And all thinges are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto him selfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was ^s in Christ, and reconciled the world to him selfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the worde of reconciliation.

20 Showe then are wee ambassadors for Christ: as though God had beseeche you through vs, we pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

the ^v accepted time, beholde nowe the ^w day of saluation.

23 We giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministerie should not be ^x reprehended.

24 But in all thinges we approue our selues as ^y the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

25 In stripes, in prisons, in tumultes, in labours,

26 By ^z watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindeas, by the ^{aa} holy Ghost, by ^{ab} loue vnfained,

28 By honour, and dishonour, by euil report and good report, as deceaiuers, and yet true:

29 As vnknown, and yet known: as dying, and yet beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

30 As sorrowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all thinges.

31 O Corinthians, our ^{ac} mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection, as he doeth them, 12 Also to keepe them selues from all pollution of idolatria both in body, and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

1 So we therefore as workers together beseeche you, that ye receive not the grace of God in vayne.

2 For he saith, ^a I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation: howe I ^b succoured thee: beholde nowe

a Consider this wel, ye y^e ferue idoles with your bodies, and yet thinke your consciences pure towards God; God wil one day smite you for your halting. b Ol body and soule. c That we may teach you. d By greedic couetousnes. e He had neyther rest in body nor spirit; and it seemeth that he alludeth to that which is written, Deut. 32.25. for the crosse to mans eye is common both to the godly & to the wicked, although to contrarie ends. f This ioye ouercame all my sorowes. g Whole heart Gods Spirit doeth touch, he is sorie for his finnes committed against so mercifull a Father; and these are the fruites of his repentance, as witness Dauid & Peters teares: others which are sorie for their finnes onely for feare of punishment and Gods vengeance, fall into desperatio, as Cain, Saul, Achitophel and Iudas. h In asking God forgiveness. i For in iudging and chastising your selues, you preuented Gods anger. ^{Or, heart.} k The Greeke worde signifieth his bowels, wherby is meant most great loue and tender affectiones.

1 Seeing then wee haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs cleane our selues from all filthines of the flesh and spirit, and grow vnto full holynes in the feare of God.
 2 Recene vs: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue continued no man: we haue d defrauded no man.
 3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to be and liue together.
 4 I feele great boldnes of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with cofort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.
 5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and terrous within.
 6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:
 7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the cofolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, pour mourning, your feruent mind to meward, so that I reioyced much more.
 8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.
 9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye sorrowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
 10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.
 11 For behold, this thing y^e pe haue bene s^r godly sorie, what greater aie hath wrought in you: pea, what clearing of your selues: pea, what indignation: pea, what feare: pea, how great desire: pea, what a zeale: pea, what punishment: in all things ye haue showed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.
 12 Wherfore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care to warde you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
 13 Therefore wee were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
 14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, eue so our boasting vnto Titus was true.
 15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembeth the obedience of you all, and howe with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

 1 Would you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,
 2 Because in great trial of affliction: their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie abounded vnto their riches liberaltie.
 3 For to their power (I haue recorded) pea, and beyond their power, they were willing,
 4 And prayed vs with great instance that vs would receiue the grace, and fellowship of the ministering which is toward the Saints.
 5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, faster vnto vs by the will of God,
 6 That we should exhort Titus, that as ye had begonne, so he would also accomplish the same grace among you also.
 7 Therefore, as ye abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that ye abound in this grace also.
 8 This lap I not by commaundement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore prouie I the naturalnesse of your loue.
 9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being riche, for your sakes became poore, y^e pe through his pouertie might be made rich.
 10 And I shew my mind herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to will, a peere a gor.
 11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readines to will, eue so ye may performe it of that which ye haue.
 12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to a man hath, & not according to that he hath not.
 13 Neither is it that other men should be eaded and you grieved.
 14 But upon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may bee for your lack, that there may be equalitie:
 15 As it is written, Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and hee that gathered litle, had not the lesse.
 16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.
 17 Because he accepted theserobotation, pea, he was so careful, that of his owne accorde he went vnto you.
 18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose name is in the Gospel through

1 Both in thinking and reporting wel of you.
 a This benefite of God appeared in two things: first, that y^e Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others; and next y^e being in great pouertie, were very liberall towards others.
 b So that a most abundant river of riches flowed out of their pouertie.
 c So he calleth their liberaltie, eyther because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, & so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof. Chap. 9. 12.
 d Euerie man may doe good y^e hath abilitie therunto: but to will, and haue a minde to doe good, cometh of perfect charitie.
 e That as you helpe others in their needs, so others shall relieue your want.
 f That both you and others, as occasion shall serue, may relieue the godly according to their necessities. Exod. 16. 23.

 22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue oft times proued to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.
 23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, hee is my fellowe and helper to youwarde: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the * glorie of Christ.
 24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the prooue of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhortheth to giue almes cheerefully, 7 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.
 1 For as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.
 2 For I knowe your readines of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a peere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked manie.
 3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should be in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be readie:
 4 Least if they of Macedonia come with mee, and finde you vnprepared, we (I need not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.
 5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, & come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.
 6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.
 7 As euerie man will sowe in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessitie: * for God loveth a cheerefull giuer.
 8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye allwayes hauing * all sufficiencye in all things, may abound in euery good worke, 9 * As it is written, C He hath sparred abroad and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.
 10 Also he that sedyntly sowe to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your seeede, and increase the fruits of your beneuolence, 11 That on all partes ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

 12 For the immitation of this seruice not onely supplyeth the necessities of the Saintes, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of many vnto God,
 13 (Which by the experiment of this immitation prayse God for your voluntarie submissi^on to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to the, and to all men)
 14 And by your prayer for you, * desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.
 15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnsp^eakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false Apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And howe he vseth it.

1 Now I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenes, and gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you, am * bale, but am bolde toward you being absent:
 2 And this I require you, that I neede not to be bold when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde agaynst some, which esteeme vs as though we walked according to the flesh.
 3 Howbeit, though wee walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh,
 4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)
 5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, & bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,
 6 And hauing readie the vengeance as gainst all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled,
 7 Iooke ye on things after their appearance? If any man trust in him selfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes.
 8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame,
 9 This I say that I mape not seeme as it were to feare you with letters,
 10 For the letters, saith he, are sore and st^rong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his (speech) is of no value, 11 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed, when we are present.
 12 For we dare not make our selues of number,

Besides that by their liberallie God shalbe praised, they also shalbe commended to God by their prayers which they haue holpen, yea, and al me that reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure themselves by their worthie actes: and if they wil compare with others, let them shew what countreys, what cities, & people they haue wone to the Lord: for who wil praise that souldier, which onely at the table can he ly talke of the warres, & when he cometh to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert: Eph. 4. 7.

God knoweth. 12 But what I do, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire an occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce. 13 For such false Apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ. 14 And no maruile: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light, 15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme them selues, as though they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works. 16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a litle. 17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting. 18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also. 19 For ye suffer foolcs gladly, because that ye are wise. 20 For ye suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuour you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man hitte you on the face. 21 I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that we had bene weakē: but wherin any man is bold (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also. 22 They are Chewes, * so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I: 23 They are the Ministers of Christ (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes as borne measure: in prison more plentifully: in death oft. 24 Of the Iewes * five times receiued I fouertie stripes * saue one.

THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the truth of the Gospell, gaue place to false apostles, who entering in, in his absence corrupted y pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospell is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bin sent of the chief Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of him selfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, hee proceedeth to his purpose, proving that we are freely iustified before God without any works or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but nowe they are not only vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences shared in the gennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered the selues to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessary to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 11 He sheweth his own ^a iurisdiction, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth him selfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

Tit. 1. 3. a For God is the author of all ministerie. b This prerogatiue was peculiar to the Apostles,

12 An Apostle (not ^c of men, neither by man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father which hathe raised him fro the dead)

2 And also the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia: 3 Grace be with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ, 4 Which gaue him selfe for our sines, that hee might deliuer vs ^d from this ^e present euill world according to the will of God our Father, 5 To whom be glorie for euer and euer, Amen. 6 I marueile that ye are so soone removed away vnto another ^f Gospell, from him that had called you in the ^g grace of Christ, e For what is more contrarie to our free iustificatiō by faith, then the iustificatiō by the Lawe, or our workes: therefore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light with darkness, death with life, and doeth vtterly ouerthrowe the Gospel.

f If it were possible, that an Angell should so doe, whereby Paul declareth the certaintie of his preaching.

^{Or, 10 me,} ^{Ephes. 1. 1.} m That is, with any man, as though I had neede of his counsell to approue my doctrine. n That is, the Gospell which is the doctrine of faith.

7 Which is not another Gospell, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intende to peruert the Gospell of Christ.

8 But though that we, or an Angell from heauen preache vnto you otherwise, then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preache vnto you otherwise then that we haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For now we preache I mans doctrine, or Gods: or go I about to please men: for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Nowe I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospell which was preached of me, was not after man.

12 For neither reieined I it of man, neyther was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For we haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religiō, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it.

14 And profited in the Iewish religiō on aboue many of my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reuel his Sonne in mee, that I should preache him * among the Gentiles, immediatly I communicated not with flesh and blood:

17 Neether came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after thre yerres I came againe to Ierusalem to visit Peter, and abode with him fixeene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles saue I, saue James the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, behold, I witness before God, that I feare not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria and Cilicia: for I was unknowen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, the which persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the faith, which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

cipal scope, which is to proue that iustificatiō is only cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

1 Then fouerthe yerres after, I went by againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, & toke with me Titus also.

2 And I went by by reuelation, & communicated with them of the Gospell which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chief, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in privily to spye out our libertie, which wee haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whom we gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospell might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: * God accepteth no mans person) neuertheles, they that are the chief, did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospell ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospell ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by me towards the Gentiles)

9 And when James, and Cephas, and John knewe of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to me and to Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should preache vnto the Gentiles, & they vnto the Circumcision,

10 * Warning only that they should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to do.

11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withooded him s to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew & separated him selfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the right waie to the truth of the Gospell, I said vnto Peter before all me, If thou being a Iewe, hurst as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why straitest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, & not sinners of the Gentiles,

CHAP. III.

a He rebuketh them sharply, a And proueth by
 diu. reasons that iustification is by faith, b As appeareth by the example of Abraham, 10, 19, 24
 And by the office, and the end, both of the Lawe, 11, 25 And of faith.

- 1 Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you pe shoulde not obey the truth, to whom Iesus Christ before ° was described in your sight, and among you crucified?
 2 This onely would I learne of you, Received ye the ° Spirit by the workes of the Lawe, or by the hearing of ° faith preached?
 3 We pe so foolish, that after pe haue begonne in the Spirit, pe woulde nowe be made perfect by the ° flesh?
 4 Haue ye suffred fo many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.
 5 We therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Lawe, or by h hearing of faith preached?
 6 Yea rather as Abraham beleued God, and it was ° imputed to him for righteousnesse.
 7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
 8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie h Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospell vnto Abraham, saying, ° In thee shall all the

- Gentiles be blessed.
 9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.
 10 For as many as are of the ° workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, ° Cursed is eueri man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to do them.
 11 And that no man is iustified by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident:
 * for the iust shall liue by faith, 12 And the Lawe is not of faith: but ° the man that shall doe those thinges, shall liue in them.
 13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is eueri one that hangeth on tree) 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Ie-sus, that we might receive the * promises of the Spirit through faith.
 15 Brethren, ° I speake as men doe,
 * though it be: but a mans couenant when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or ° addeth any thing thereto.
 16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He saith not,
 And to the seedes, as speaking of many:
 but, And to thy seede, as of one, which ° is Christ.
 17 And thus I say, that the Lawe which was four hundredth and thirtie yeeres after, cannot disanule the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it shoulde make the promise of none effect.
 18 For if the inheritance be of the Law,
 it is no more by the promise, but God
 gaue it vnto Abraham by promises.
 19 Wherefore then serueth the Lawe?
 It was added because of the ° transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which h promise was made: & it was ordained by ° Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.
 20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is ° one.
 21 Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giue which could haue gi-uen life, surely righteousnesse shoulde haue bene by the Lawe.
 22 But the Scripture hath * concluded q all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ shoulde be gi-uen to them that beleue.
 23 But before ° faith came, and we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto

CHAP. IIII.

3 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined, 3 Which being shadowes must end when Christ the truth cometh. 9 He moneth them by certaine exhortation, 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example or allegorie.

1 Then I sape, that the heire as long as hee is a child, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be lord of all, 2 But is vnder b tuters and gouernours, until the time appointed of the father. 3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world. 4 But when the fullnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, & made vnder the Lawe, 5 That he might redeeme them which were vnder the Lawe, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes. 6 And because pe are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba, Father. 7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ. 8 But euen then, when pe knewe not God, pe did seruce vnto them, which by nature are not gods. 9 But now seeing pe know God, pe are rather are knowen of God, how turne ye againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning pe will be in bondage againe? 10 Pe obserue Idapes, and moneths, & times, and peres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue become idolaters: therefore it is shame for you to refuse liberty, & become seruants, yea, and seeing the Iewes desire to be out of their tutelship. 1 Not in deede, but in opinion. k The Galatians, of Painims began to be Christians, but by false Apostles were turned backward to begin anewe the Iewish ceremonies, and to steade of going forwarde toward Christ, they ran backward fro him. l Ye obserue dayes, as Sabbaths, newe moons, &c: ye obserue moneths, as y first & seventh moneth: ye obserue times, as Easter, Wicfotide, y feast of Tabernacles: ye obserue yeres, as y Jubilee, or yere of forgiveness, which beggerly ceremonies are most pernicious to them which haue receiued the sweete libertie of the Gospel, and thrust them backe into superstitious slauerie.

12 Be ye as I: for I am euen as you: betheren, I beseech you: ye haue not hurt me at all. 13 And ye knowe, howe through infirmite of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first. 14 And the trial of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye received me as an Angell of God, yea, as Christ Iesus. 15 What was then your felicitie: for I beare you recorde, that if it had bene possible, ye woulde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the trueth? 17 They are ielous ouer you: amisse: yea, they woulde exclude you, that pee should altogether loue them. 18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, & not onely when I am present with you. 19 My litle children, of whome I trauaile in birth againe, until Christ be formed in you. 20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doute of you. 21 Tell me, pe that will be vnder the Lawe, doe pe not heare the Law? 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, * one by a seruant, & * one by a free woman.

23 But ye which was of the seruant, was begne after the flesh: & he which was of the free woman, was borne by promises. 24 By the which things an other thing is ment: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sina, which gebereth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) & she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is about, is free: which is the mother of vs all. 27 For it is written, * Reioice thou Sara: ren y hearest no children: beake forth, and drie, thou that trauestest not: for the desolate hath many more children, then the which hath an husband. 28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise. 29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now. 30 But what sayeth the Scripture? * But out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman. 31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman.

THE EPISTLE OF PAVL to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, he assureth them of saluation, because they were therunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospell, the knowledge of the which mysterie he praeth God to confirme toward them. And to the intent they should not glory in them selfes, he sheweth them their extreme miserie, wherein they were plunged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, & yet by the free mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfite vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindfull of so great benefits, neyther to be moued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, & tread vnder foote the Gospell, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes preseruetly onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, so far as much as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentifull frutes, as innocencie, holines, with all such offices appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he declareth not onely in general, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluation standeth in the free electiō of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good wil toward them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith. 17 The maiestie of Christ.

1 ¶ And an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the ² Saints, which are at Ephesus, & to the faithful in Christ Iesus:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.
3 Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all ⁴ spirituall blessing in heauenly things in Christ,
4 As he hath chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the worlde, that wee should be holy, and without blame before him in loue:

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to be adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,
6 To the praise of the glorie of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted in his beloued,
7 By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiveness of sinnes, according to his rich grace:
8 Whereby hee hath bene abundant toward vs in all wisdome and vnderstanding,
9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in him,
10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the tymes he might gather together in one all things, both which are in heauen and which are in earth, euen in Christ:
11 In whome also we are chosen when wee were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

d Where as we were not the natural children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.
e The principal end of our election is to praise and glorifie the grace of God.

f That is, in Christ.
g By this he meaneth the whole body of the Church, which he deuideth into them, which are in heauen, and them which are in earth: also the faithful which remaine in earth stand of Jewes and the Gentiles.
h To wit, the Iewes.

i Though we be redeemed fro the bondage of sinne by y death of Christ, Rom. 6.22. yet wee hope for this second redemption on which shall be whē we shall possesse our inheritance in the heavens, whereof we have the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap. 4.30.

after that he beloued, ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest or our inheritance, vntill the redemption of the possession purchased vnto the praise of his glorie.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the lord Jesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I came not to gaue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our lord Jesus Christ the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,

18 That the eyes of your understanding may be lightened, that ye may knowe what the hope is of his calling, & what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward vs, which belene, * according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when hee raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heauenly places,

21 Farre above all principallitie, and power, and might, and domination, and euery name that is named, not in this world onely, but also in that that is to come,

22 * And hath made all things subiect vnder his feete, & hath appointed him ouer all things to bee the head of the Church,

23 Which is his body, euen the fullnes of him that filleth all in all things.

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onely cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what manner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

1 And And * you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses & finnes,

2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this world, & after the * a prince that ruleth in the aire, euen the spirit, that nowe worketh in the children of disobedience,

3 Among whom we also had our conuersion in time past, in the lutes of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, and of the minde, and were b by nature the children of wrath, as well as others.

4 But God which is riche in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,

5 Euen when we were dead by finnes, hath quickened vs * together in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued,

6 And hath raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Jesus,

7 That he might shewe in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse toward vs in Christ Jesus,

8 For by grace are ye saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God,

9 Not of works, least any man should boast him selfe.

10 For we are * his workmanship created in Christ Jesus vnto good works, which God hath ordemed, that we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, & called * uncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliens from the common wealth of Israel, and were * strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were * without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye which once were farre of, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, & hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his * flesh the hatred, that is, the Lawe of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in him selfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one ¹ body by his * crosse, and slaye hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were asafare of, and to them that were nere,

18 * For through him we both haue an entrance vnto ^h father by one Spirit.

19 Nowe therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Jesus Christ him selfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the lord,

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his troubles, 14 And praieih God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

1 And For this cause, I Paul am the ²prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles

 How children should behaue themselves towards their fathers and mothers, & Likewise parents towards their children, & Seruantes towards their masters. 13 An exhortation to the spiritual battell, and what weapons the Christians should fight withall.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. * Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commaundment with a promise) 3 That it may be well with thee, & that thou mayst live long on earth. 4 And ye, fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bying them vp in instruction and information of the Lord. 5 Seruants, be obedient vnto the that are your masters, according to the Lord, with feare & trembling in singleness of your hearts as vnto Christ, 6 Not with seruice to the eye, as men please, but as the seruants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, 7 With good will seruing the Lord, and not men. 8 And knowe ye that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, that same shall he receiue of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. 9 And ye masters, doe the same things vnto them, putting away threatening:

and know that enen your master also is in heauen, neither is there respect of person with him. 10 For finally my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the assaults of the deuil. 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, & against the worldly gouernours, the princes of the darkenes of this world, against spiritual wickednesses, which are in the hie places. 13 For this cause take vnto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to resist in the euill day, and hauing finished all things, stand fast. 14 Stand therefore, & your loynes girded about with veritie, and hauing on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospell of peace. 16 Above all, take the shield of faith, whereby ye may quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, 17 And take the helmet of saluation, & the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. 18 And pray alwayes wth all manner prayer & supplication in the Spirit: and watch thereunto with all perseverance & supplication for all Saints, 19 And for me, that utterance may be giuen vnto mee, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secretes of the Gospel, 20 Wherof I am the ambassadour in bonds, that therein I may speake boldly, as I ought to speake. 21 But that ye may also know mine affairs, & what I do, Tychicus my dere brother a faithful minister in the Lord, shall shew you of all things, 22 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that ye might knowe mine affaires, and that he might comfort your hearts. 23 Peace be with the brethren, and lone with faith from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ. 24 Grace be with all them which loue our Lord Iesus Christ, to their kinnesfolkin, Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospell vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauiayled from place to place, til at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, wherof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stoude manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment

 11 If by any means I might attaine vnto
 the resurrection of the dead:
 12 I shot as though I had already atteined to it, either were already perfect:
 but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whole sake also I am compe-

 13 Whether I count not my self, b^t I haue

1 He exhorteth them to bee of honest conuersation, 2 And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutarions.
 1 Therefore, my brethren, be beloved and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Loyd, ye beloved.
 2 I pray Eudias, and beseeche Syn-tpeche, that they be of one accorde in the Loyde.
 3 Pea, and I beseech thee, faithful pokefelow, helpe thy^e women, which laboure red with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowe labourers, whose names are in the booke of life.
 4 Receiue in the Loyde alway, againe I say, receiue.
 5 Let your pacient mind be knowne vnto to all men, The Loyd is at hand.

6 *Be nothing careful, but in all things let your requests be shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication with giuing of thanks.
 7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall keepe your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.
 8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are iust, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoe-uer things are pertyne to loue, whatsoe-uer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praysse, thinke on these things,
 9 Which ye haue both learned and recei-ued, and heard, and scene in me: those things do, and the God of peace shall be with you.
 10 Now I reioice also in the Loyd greatly, that now at the last ye are^e returned againe to care for me, wherin notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked oportunitie.
 11 I speake not because of want: for I haue learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.
 12 And I can be abashed, & I can abound:
 euery where in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to be hungry, & to abound, and to haue want.
 13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengthe-neth me, 14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.
 15 And ye Philippians knowe also that in the beginning of the Gospell, when I departed fro Macedonia, no Church communicated with me concerning the matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.
 16 For euen when I was in Thessalonica, ye sent once, and afterwarde againe for 17 Not that I desire a gift: but I desire

 18 Nowe I haue receiued all, and haue had receiued of Epaphroditus that which came from you, an odour that smellith sweete, a sacrifice acceptable & pleasant to God,

 19 And my God shall fulfil all your necessities through his riches with glorie in Iesus Christ.
 20 Vnto God euen our father be praise for euermore, Amen.
 21 Salute to the Saints in Christ Iesus,

 you.
 22 All the Saints salute you, and most of

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betwene the liuely, effectiual and true Christ, & the feyned, counterfeite and imagined Christ whom the false Apolltes taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of fayth, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite towards the m, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoever good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospell. But for as much as the false brethren would haue mixed the Lawe with the Gospell, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holines, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnes of life, with other like offices apperteyning both generally and particularly to all the faythfull.

CHAP. I

3 He giveth thanks vnto God for their fayth, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their fayth. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discovereth the counterfait Christ of the false apolltes. 25 He approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

I Mul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, & Timotheus our brother,

2 To them, which are at Colosse, Saints & faythfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, allwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your fayth in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saintes,

5 For the hopes sake, which is layde by for you in heauen, whereof pee haue heard before by his word of trueth, which is the Gospell,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruitefull, as it is al o among you, from the dape that pee heard and truely knewe the grace of God.

7 As pee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue by the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since he dap we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of his wil, in al wisdom, and spiritual vnderstanding,

10 That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in al things, being fruitful in all good workes, & increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with al might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with iopfulness,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the father, which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saintes in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenes, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In who we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes,

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first borne of euerie creature.

16 For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible & invisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principallities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him,

17 And he is before al things, and in him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, & the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile al things vnto him selfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers and enemies, because your minds were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled,

22 In his body of his flesh through death, to make you holp, and blameable, & without fault in his sight,

23 If ye continue, grounded and stablished in the fayth, and be not moued awaye from the hope of the Gospell, whereof ye haue heard, and which hath bene preached to euerie creature which is vnder heauen, whereof I Paul am a minister,

24 Nowe reioyce I in my sufferings for you, & fulfill the rest of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the Church,

25 Whereof I am a minister, according to

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospell, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto: for the testimonie of the Gospell, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falsly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch least the so-daine comming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are so steadfast in faith and good works, 6 And receiue the Gospell with such earnestnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intēt they should not fall vnder the crosse, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying, 15 He excuseth his absence, that he could not come and open his heart to them.

Paul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in a God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 * We giue God thankes alwayes for you at making a mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembering you b effectual faith, and diligent loue and the patience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christe in the sight of God euen our Father, 4 knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our a Gospell was not vnto you in word onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye knowe after what manner wee were among you for your sakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the woide in much affliction, with a iop of the holy Ghost,

7 So that ye were as b ensamples to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the woide of the Lord, not in Macedonia & in Achaia onely: but now fastly also which is towards God, spread abroad in all quarters, that wee neede not to speake any thing.

9 For i they them selues shewe of you what manner of entering in we had vnto you, and howe ye returned to God from idols, to serue the eunning & true God,

10 And to looke for his sonne from heauen, whom he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from the wryth to come,

1 For ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in a vaine,

2 But euen after that we had suffered befor, and were shamefully entreated at a Philippi (as ye knowe) we were bolde b in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God with much itrenung.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleannes, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospell should be committed vnto vs, so wee speake, not as they that c please men, but God, which trieth our heartes.

5 Neither yet did we ener use flattering wordes, as ye knowe, nor coloured countenances, God is reioide.

6 Neither sought we v a ple of men, rather of you, nor of others,

7 When we might haue bene b chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle amidg you, eue as a nourse cherissheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned towards you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospell of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospell of God.

10 We are witnesses, and God also, howe hoild, and iustly, and vnblicably we behaue our selues among c you that beleue.

11 As ye knowe howe that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye * would walke worthis of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glorie, a Not in outward shewe and in pompe, but in trauel and in the feare of God. Act. 16. 12, 23.

e For it is not possible to avoid the reproches of the wicked, which euery hate good doings. Ephe. 4. 1. philip. 1. 27. col. 3. 30.

a For there is no Church which is not ioyned together in God.

2. Thess. 1. 3. Philip. 1. 3, 4.
b Which declarth it selfe by most liuely fruites.

d The effectual preaching of the Gospell is an euident token of our election.

e To beleue, & to be fully persuaded to haue the giftes of the holie Ghost, and joyfully to suffer for Christs sake, are most certaine signes of our election.

Or, patterns.
f To wit, at the faithful.

g For idols are dead things and onely fained fantasies.

h Which he shal execute vpon the wicked.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when ye received of vs the woode of the preaching of God, ye received it not as the woide of men, but as it is in dedee the woide of God, which also worketh in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Christ Jesus, because ye haue also suffered the same things of your owne countrey men, euen as they haue of the Jewes,

15 Who both killed the Lorde Jesus and their owne Prophets, and haue persecuted vs, and God they please not, and are contrarie to all men,

16 And forbid vs to preache vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fulfill their finnes alwayes: for the wrath of God is come on them, to the vtmost.

17 Forasmuch, brethren, as wee were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we enforced the more to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crown of reioicing? are not euen you it in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 Yes, ye are our gloie and ioye.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth howe greatly he was affectioned toward them both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

1 Wherefore since we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone,

2 And haue sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellowe in the Gospell of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for ye your selues know, that we are appointed therunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we tolde you before that we should suffer tribulations, eue as it came to passe, and ye knowe it.

5 Euen for this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, least the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as wee also do you,

7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction and necessity through your faith.

8 For nowe are we aliue, if ye stande fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we recompence to God againe for you for all the ioye wherewith we reioyce for your sakes before our God,

10 Might and day, *praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God him selfe, euen our Father, and our Lorde Jesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you,

12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abounde in loue one towarde another, and toward all men, euen as wee do toward you:

13 *To make your hearts stable and blameable in holines before God euen our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 He exhortheth them to holines, 6 Innocencie, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the ende of the resurrection.

1 And furthermore we beseeche you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that ye increase more and more, as ye haue receyued of vs, holue ye ought to walke and to please God,

2 For ye know what commandements we gaue you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God euen your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That euerie one of you should knowe, holue to possesse his vessel in holines and honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which knowe not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lorde is auenger of all such things, as we also haue told you beforetime, and testified.

7 For God hath not called vs vnto uncleannes, but vnto holines.

8 Hence therefore that despiseth these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, see weede not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Pea, and that thing verely ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are through out all Macedonia: but we beseeche you, brethren, that ye increase more and more,

11 And that ye studie to be quiet, and to medle with your owne busines, and to worke with your owne handes, as we commanded you,

12 That ye map behaue your selues honestly towarde them that are with you, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

The first Epistle vnto the Theſſalonians wriitten from Athens.

T H E S E C O N D E P I S T L E
 of Paul to the Theſſalonians.

T H E A R G V M E N T.

Least the Theſſalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them, he wrieth vnto them and exhorteth them to patience

tience and o' fruits of faith, neither to be m'ed with that vaine opinion of such as thought that the coming of Christ was at hand, for as such as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the worlde, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending him selfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willet them to correct such sharply, as liue idly of other mens labours, whome, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same. 12 And sheweth what fruite shall come thereof.

1 In Paul & Siluanns, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalouians, which is in God our father and in the Lorde Iesus Christ:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

3 * We ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, & the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth,

4 So that we our selues reioice of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer,

5 Which is a token of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lorde Iesus shall shewe him selfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that do not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospell of our Lorde Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lorde, and from the glorie of his power,

10 In whom he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be made marueilous in all them that beleue (because our testimonie toward you was beleued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill * at the good pleasure of his goodnes, and the wo'ke of faith with power,

12 That the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lorde Iesus Christ,

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, p And the kingdom of Antichrist, s And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

1 Nowe we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lorde Iesus Christ, & by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled neither by a spirit, nor by a word, nor by a letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 * Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne be disclosed, euen the sonne of perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth him selfe against that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing him selfe that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was per with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth, that he might be reueiled in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already worke: only he which now withholdeth, shall let till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man be reueiled, * whom the Lorde shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolye with the brightnes of his coming,

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquiered the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Lawe they knewe not what was the chiefe ende of the Lawe. And as for him selfe, he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willett prayers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offering his Gospell and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sorte of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And for as much as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the myserie of the Sonne of God manifested in fleshe is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shall teache things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receyued or refused to minister to the sick: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be haſtic in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetic of seruantes, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnes, of riche men, and about all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

3 He exhorteth Timothews to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods worde, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the ende thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

I

And an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandement of God our Saviour, and of our Lord Jesus Christ our hope, vnto Timothews my naturall soune in the faith: Grace, mercy, & peace from God our Father, and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 As I besought thee to abide still in Epheſus, when I departed into Macedonia, so do, that thou maist command some, that they teache none other doctrine,

3 Neither that they giue hede to fables and genealogies, which are endles, which breede questions rather the godly edifying which is by faith.

4 For the end of the commandement is loue out of a pure heart, & of a good conscience, and of faith vnfaigned.

5 From þ which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

6 They would be doctors of the Lawe, & yet vnderstand not what they speake, neyther whereof they affirme.

7 And we know, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

8 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a righteous man, but vnto þ lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manſlayers,

9 To whoenouers, to buggerers, to enuieſealers, to liars, to the periuured, & if there be any other thing, that is contrary to wholome doctrine,

10 Which is according to þ glorious Gospel of the blessed God, which is committed vnto me.

11 Therefore I thanke him, which hath made me strö, that is, Christ Jesus our Lord: for he counted me faithfull, and put me in his seruice:

12 When before I was a blasphemour, & a persecuter, and an oppositer: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

13 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with þ faith and loue, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 This is a true saying, & by all meanes excellent force of Gods spirit in them whom he hath chosen to beare his word, although before they were Gods vtter enemies, to encourage him in this battell that he should fight against all infidels and hypocrites. g Not knowing that I fought against God. h Which chafed away infidelitie. i Which ouercame worthie to be receiued, that Christ Jesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe. Mar. 9. 17.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Jesus Christ should first shewe on me al long suffering vnto the example of them, which shall in tyme to come beleeue in him vnto eternal life.

17 Now by the King enclaffing, immortal, inuisible, vnto God onely wife, be honour and glorie for euer, and euer Amen.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, some Timothews, according to the prophesies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldst fight a good fight,

19 Having faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith, haue made shipwacke.

20 Of whom I am Hymeneus, and Alexander, whom I haue deliuered vnto Satan, that they might learne not to blaspheme.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAVL

to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

The Apostle being now readie to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faythfull) in the fapth of the Gospell, and in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as do husbandmen, which at length receyue the fruites of their labours, and to cast of all feare and care, as souldiers do which seeke only to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospell, which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Phileus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euil must dwell among the good till Gods trial come: yet he referueth them whom he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shal follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise him selfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhortheth Timotheus to steadfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him, 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage, 16 A comendation of Onesiphorus.

in the mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou strive by the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not given to us the Spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath called us, and called us with an holy baptism, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us through Christ Jesus before the world was,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality into light through the Gospel.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have beleueed, and I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day.

13 Keep the true pattern of the wholesome wordes, which thou hast heard of mee in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That which thou doest, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holie Ghost, which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from mee: of which sort are Phylgellus, and Hymenogenes.

16 The Lord give mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he of frequētly refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my shame.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord graunt vnto him, that hee may finde mercie with the Lord at that day: and in how many things he hath ministered vnto mee at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

3 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the whole some doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsel touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

1 Thou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, by many witnesses, the same declare to faithful men, which shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth him

selfe with the affaires of this life, he As with his cause he woulde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man strive for a mastery, he is not crowned, except he strive as he ought to do.

6 The husbandman must labour before he receive the fruites.

7 Consider what I say: & the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bondes: but the woerde of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the sake of the electes sake, that they may also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glorie.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If we beleene not, yet abideth he faithful: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strive not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the perueruing of the hearers.

15 Studie to shew thy selfe approued vnto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, hauing the woerde of truth aright.

16 Stay prophane, & vaine babblings: for they shall increase vnto more vngodlines.

17 And their woerde shall creepe as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the truth haue erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and do destroy the faith of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this scale, The Lord knoweth who are his, and Let euery one that calleth on the name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 Notwithstanding in a great house are not onely vessels of golde and of siluer, but also of wood and of earch, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from these, hee shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified, and meete for the woerde, and prepared vnto every good worke.

22 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, and peace, with them that call on the Lord with pure heart.

THE EPISTLE OF PAVL to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition woulde haue chruist in them selues to be pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Lawe brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongst other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holines in meates, and such outwaide ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertene to euery mans uocation. Against the which if any man rebel or els doeth not obey, he willett him to be auoyded.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenes of his matter, he flyeth as it were vp to heaven, and speaketh with a diuine grace & maiestic, Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments prouing the duetie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 He reioyceth to beare of the fayth and loue of Philemon, 9 Whom he desireth to forgive his seruāt Onesimus, & lovingly to receiue him againe.

I Nil a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend, and fellow helper, And to our deere sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellowe souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heare of thy loue and fayth, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the fellowship of thy fayth may be made fruitful, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you by throughe Christ Iesus, may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I be very bold in Christ to command thee that which is comenient, 9 Yet for lones sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, & euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my seruāt Onesimus, to whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whō I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels, 13 Whom I would haue retained by me, 14 But without thy minde would I do nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receiue him for euer, 16 Not nowe as a seruant, but aboue a seruāt, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: howe much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompence it, albeit I do not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Pea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Whosoever also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke, my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWES.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witness, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his coming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophecies, & therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, & is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, wherof all the Levitical Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his coming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 12.

unto the 12. Chap. vers. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18 to the twenty and five verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that vers. 25, to the beginning of the last chap. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly, and courageously perseuere euen to the ende in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may both be thankfull to God, and dietfull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 About the Angels, 7 And of their office.

1 One of sundrie times and in diuers manners God spake in the olde time to our fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these last daies he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, who he hath made heire of all things, & by whome also he made the worldes,

3 Who being the brightnes of the glory, and the vngloured forme of his person, and bearing by all things by his mightie worde, hath by him selfe purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the Angels in as much as he hath obtained a more excellent name then they,

5 For vnto which of the Angels sayde he at any time, Thou art my Sonne, & this day begate I thee: and againe, I will be his Father, and he shall be my Sonne?

6 And againe when he bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, he saith, And let all the Angels of God worshippe him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, He maketh the Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the sonne he saith, O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousness.

9 Thou hast loued righteousness and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnes above thy fellows.

10 And Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine handes.

11 They shall perish, but thou dost remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde the by, and they haue changed: but thou art the same and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels sayde hee at any time, Sit at my right hand, till I make thyn enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shall haue heres of saluation?

Psal. 110. 1. Mat. 22. 44. 1. Cor. 15. 25. chap. 10. 11.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the newe Lawe which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to be offended at the infirmitee and lowe degree of Christ, 20 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes he should take such a humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

1 Wherefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which we haue heard, least at any time we thould let them slippe.

2 For if the worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of rewarde,

3 Howe shall we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Loide, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him.

4 God bearing witness thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles, and giftes of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will.

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be mindefull of him? or of the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a litle inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with thy glorie and honour, and hast set him above the workes of thine handes.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that should not be sub-ture but also qualities, only sinne except. u Forasmuch as he is exercised in our miseries, we may be assured, that at all times in our tentations he will succour vs, iect vnto him. b But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus k crowned with gloiy and honour, which was made a little inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whome are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto gloiy, that he shoulde consecrate the ¹ Duince of their saluation through m afflictions.

11 For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified, are all o of one: where fore he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, * I will declare thy name vnto my o brethren: in the middes of h Church will I sing praises to thee.

13 And againe, * I will put my o trust in him. And againe, * a Beholde, here am I, and the children, which G D hath giuen me.

14 For asmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, he also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that he might destroy * through death, him that had h powder of death,
that is the deuill,

15 And that he might deliuer all them, which for feare of death were all their life time subject to bondage.

16 For he in no way tooke the Angels,
but he tooke the seede of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faith full high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconcilia tion for the finnes of the people.

18 For in that he suffered, and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more gloiy then Moses, in asmuch as he which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded of some man, and he that hath build all things, is e God.

5 Now Moses verely was faithfull in all his house, as a seru int, for a witnes of the things which shoulde be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, who ¹ house we are, if we holde fast the confidence and the re ioycing of the hope vnto the ende.

7 Wherefore, as the holy G host saith,
* To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearies, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my wayes four ty peeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and said, They ere euen in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, b If they shall enter into my o rest.

12 Take heede, Brethren, least at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and unfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhorte one another daily, while it is called k To day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the l ende the beginning, wherewith we are by holden,

15 So long as it is sayde, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heare, prouo ked m him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whome was he displeas ed fourty peeres? Was he not displeas ed with the that sinned, * whose k kernes fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whome sware he that they shoulde not enter into his rest, but vnto them, that obeyed not?

19 In so we see that they coulde not enter shoulde seeme to be deppriued.

c To be the ambassadour and hig Priest. 2. Cor. 12. 7.

2 He compareth the preaching of the Gospel, as it were, to wine, whereof if we wil taste, that is, heare & vnderstand with profit, we must ceper or mixe it with faith.

Psalm. 95. 11.
 3 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profiteth not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

4 For vnto which haue beleened, do enter into rest, as he said to the other, * As I haue swome in my wrath, If they shal enter into my rest: although * p woordes were finished from the foundation of the worlde.

5 For he spake in a certaine place of the seventh daye on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth daye from all his woorkes.

6 And in this place againe, If they shal enter into my rest.

7 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereunto, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

8 Againe he appointed in Dauid a certaine daye by To daue, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayde, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your heartes.

9 For if * Iesus had giuen them rest, they would be not after this daye haue spoken of another.

10 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

11 For hee that is entered into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne woorkes, as God did from his.

12 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, least any man fall after p same example of disobedience.

13 For p word of God is lively, & mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, & encreth through, euen vnto the binding asunder of p h soule & the spirit, and of the ioyntes, and the marrow, & is a discerner of p thoughts and the intents of the heart.

14 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, * with whom we haue to do.

15 Seeing then that we haue a great he Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

16 For we haue not an he Priest, which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

17 Let vs therefore go boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercie, and finde grace to helpe in time of neede.

CHAP. V.

3 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leviticall Priests, shewing wherein they either agree, or dissent. 11 Afterward he reproveth the negligence of the Levites.

1 For every hie Priest is taken from a He heareth men, and is ordered for that man, in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both b giftes and c sacrifices for sinnes.

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them d that are ignorant, and that are out of the waye, because that he also is compassed with infirmite,

3 And for the same sake he is bounde to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne parte, as for the peoples.

4 * And no mā taketh this honour vnto him selfe, but he that is call. d of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to him selfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he p saide vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this daye begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the f dayes of his fleshe dyd offer vs prayers and supplications, with a strong crying and tears vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, & was also heard h in that which he feared,

8 And though he were the Sonne, yet learned hee obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the authour of eternal saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 * Of whom we haue many things to say, which are hard to be uttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede againe that we teache you p first principles of the word of God: and are lesse come such as haue neede of h milke, and not of strong meate.

13 For every one that useth milke, is inexperienced in the l word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised, to discern both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee proceedeth in reproofing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be steadfast and patient, 18 Forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

1 Therefore, leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not lapsing againe the foundation b of repentance from dead woorkes, & of faith toward God, a That is, the first rudiments of our Christian religion.

b He mentioneth five pointes of y catechisme, which was then in vfe: the confession of amendement of life: the summe of the faith: a briefe explication of Baptisme, and laying on of handes the article of the resurrection, and the last iudgement.

c Then y^e use of Baptisme was declared, when on the solemne daies appointed to baptize, the Church came together, d It is Gods singular gift to increase in knowledge, and to go forward in the vnderstanding of Gods word.

Mat. 12. 37, 38. 2. pet. 1. 20. chap. 10. 25.

e They which are apotates, & sinne against the holic Ghost, hate Christ, crucifie and mocke him, but to their owne destruction, and therefore fall into desperation, and can not repent,

f Whereby it may appear, that you are fully persuaded of life everlasting.

g As the holy fathers, Prophets and martyrs, that were before vs.

Gen. 12. 2. & 17. 4. and. 22. 17.

h Because of mans wickednes, which will not beleue God except he sweare i Gods worde & oth, are two things in him vnchangeable.

k He returneth to the comparison betwene Christs Priesthode & the Levitical which he had begun in y^e 5. chap.

l Which is heauen whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, & lapsing out of handes, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement.

3 And this will we do^d if God permit.

4 * For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, and of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucifie againe to themselves the Sonne of God and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh ofte vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is blessed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reynoned, and is neere vnto curting, whose ende is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue persuaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompanie saluatiō, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which yee shewed towards his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saintes, and yet minister.

11 And we desire that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the fulfil- lurance of hope vnto the ende,

12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promes to Abraham, because ye had no greater to sweare by, he sware by him selfe,

14 Saying, * Surely I wil abundantly bless thee and multiply thee mar- uelously.

15 And so after that he had taried patiently, he enoyed the promes.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then themselves, and an othe for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God willing more^b abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promes the stables of his counsell, bounde him- selfe by an othe,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God should lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it^k en- tretteth into that which is within the^l battle, 20 Whither the forerunner is for vs en- tred in, euen Iesus that is made an he- Priest for euer after the order of Mel- chi-sedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee compareth the Priesthode of Christ vnto

Melchisedec, as Also Christs Priesthode with the Leuites.

1 For this Melchisedec* was King of Salem, the Priest of the most hie God, whomer Abraham, as he re- turned from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gaue y^e tithe of all things: who first is by interpre- tation King of righteounesse: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without a father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither be- ginning of his daies, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Nowe consider how great this man was, vnto whom euen the Patriarke Abraham gaue the tythe of the spoiles,

5 For verely they which are the chyliden of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthode, haue a * c commande- ment to take, according to the Lawe, tythes of the people (that is, of their bre- thren) though they^d came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But yee whose kured is not counted among them, c receiued tythes of Abra- ham, and blessed him that had the pro- mises.

7 And without al contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here me^e that dpe, receiue tythes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he^f sueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tythes, payed tythes vnto Abraham:

10 For he was pet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bin by the Priesthode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established (to the people) what needed it furthermore, that ano- ther Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?)

12 For if the Priesthode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the Lawe.

13 For he of whom these things are spo- ken, perteineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprang out of Iuda, cōcerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthode.

15 And it is pet a more euident thing, be- cause that after the similitude of Mel- chi-sedec, there is risen by an other Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe^b of the carnall commandment, but after the power of the endles life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Mel- chi-sedec.

18 For the commandment that went afore,

f The Leuites receiued tythes of their breth^e but Melchi-se- dec of Abraham the patriarke: therefore his priesthode is more excellent then y^e Levitical.

g Because there is no mention of his death.

h The Lawe and the priesthode are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses office per- teine to Christ, which is Priest and Law maker.

l The fruite of his Priesthode is to saue, and y^e fully & perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the Lawe which is vnperfect by reason of our infirmities.

Leuit. 16. 6. m And can not without blasphemie be said to be offered againe, or els by anie creature: for none could offer him, but him selfe.

n Not that it was first made after the Lawe was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternal othe was then reuicled to the worlde.

afoze, is disannuled, because of the weakenes thereof, & vnpossibilitie. 19 For the Lawe made nothing perfect, but y^e bringing in of a better hope made perfect, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.

20 And so in much as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priestes without an othe:

21 But this, he is made with an othe by him that saide vnto him, * The Lord hath sworne, & will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 As so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better ¹¹ Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priestes, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath an ¹² euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, he is able also ¹³ perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make us intercession for them.

26 For such an he Priest it became vs to haue, which is holp, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made hier then the heauens:

27 Which needed not daily as those he Priestes to offer by sacrifice, ¹⁴ first for his owne finnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he ¹⁵ once, when he offered by him selfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priestes, which haue infirmite: but the worde of the othe that was ¹⁶ since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

CHAP. VIII

6 He proueth the abolishing of well of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the olds Couenant by the spiritmall and euerlasting Priesthoods of Christ, & And by the newe Couenant.

I N Owe of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue said an he Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the thron of the maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the ¹⁷ Sanctuarie, and of the true ¹⁸ Tabernacle which the Lord vight, and not ¹⁹ man.

3 For ²⁰ euery he Priest is ordeined to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shoulde haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priestes that according to the Lawe offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne and shadowe of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. * See, said he, that thou make all things as ording to the ²¹ paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our he Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, inasmuch as he is the ²² Mediator of a better ²³ Testament, which is established by better promises.

7 For it that first Testament had bene faultlesse, no place shoulde haue bene sought, for the second.

8 For in rebuking them he saith, * See, hee, the daues will ²⁴ come, sayeth the Lord, wh²⁵ I shall make with the house of Irael, and with the house of Iud²⁶ a newe Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I rooke them by the hand, to lead them out of the land of Egypt: for they ²⁷ brotuned not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Irael, ²⁸ After those daues, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their mind, & in their heart I will write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

11 And they shall not ²⁹ reach euery man his neighbour & euery man his brother, saying, knowe the worde: for all shall knowe me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their unrighteousnes, and I will remember their finnes and their iniquities no more.

1 Howe that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished 11 By the eternitie and perfection of Christes sacrifice.

1 T HEN the first ¹² Testament had also ¹³ ordinances of religion, and a ¹⁴ worldy Sanctuarie.

2 For the first ¹⁵ Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, & the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the ¹⁶ Holp place.

3 And after the ¹⁷ seconde haile was the Tabernacle, which is called the ¹⁸ Holp: est of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the worke of the Testament overlaid round about with golde, wherein the golden pot which had manna, was, and ¹⁹ Aarons rodde that had budded, and the ²⁰ tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the worke were the glorious Cherubins, shadowing the mercp seat: of which things we will not nowe speake particularly.

6 Howe when these things were thus ordeined the Priestes went alwayes into the ²¹ first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for him selfe, and for the ignoiances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing.

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that could not make holy, concerning the conscience, d him that did the seruice.

10 Which onely stood in meates and drinkes, and diuers washings, & carnall rites, until the tyme of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect s Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calves: but by his owne blood entered he in once into the h Holy place, i and obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the blood of bulles and of goates & the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are unclean, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ which through the eternal Spirit offered him selfe without spote to God, purge your conscience from dead works, * to serue y liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testamnt, that throuwe death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in y former Testamnt, they which were called, might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a Testamnt is, there must be the death of him that made the Testamnt.

17 * For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is set of no force as long as he y made it, is aliue.

18 Wherefore neither was the first ordained without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, according to the lawe, he tooke the blood of calves and of goates, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

20 * Saying, This is the blood of the Testamnt, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Whereouer, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the murthering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heauenly things should be purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselves are purified with better s sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entered into very heauen, to appeare now in y sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he should offer him selfe often, as the hie Priest entered into the Holy place euery yeere with other blood,

26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the worlde) but now in the end of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that cometh the iudgement,

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the finnes of many, & vnto the that looke for him, shall he appeare the second time without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.
The old Law had no power to cleanse away sinne, so But Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the goodnesse of God thankfully with patience and stedfast faith.

1 For the * Law hauing the shadowe of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer pere by pere continually, sanctifie the conncers therunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of finnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of finnes euery yeere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of bulles and goates should take away finnes.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the worlde, he saith, * Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a bodie hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

 24 And let vs consider one another, to pro- uo- ke vnto loue, and to good workes,
 25 Not forsaking the fellowship that we haue among our selues, as the manner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the o day draweth nere,

 30 For we knowe him that hath saide, * Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I will recompence, saith the Lord, And again, The Lord shall iudge his people.

 35 Cast not away therefore your confi- dence which hath great recompence of rewarde, 36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, ye might receiue the promises.

1 An exhortation to be patient and stedfast in trouble & aduersitie, vpon hope of euerlasting reward.
2 A commendation of the newe Testaments aboue the olde.

1 Wherfore,* let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away euery thing that ^a plecth downe, and the sinne that ^b hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs,

2 Looking vnto Iesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the ioye that was set before him, endured the crosse, & despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, least ye should bee wearied and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against ^c sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children,* Wh^e sonne, despite not the chastening of the Lorde, neither saunt when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lorde loeneth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth him selfe vnto you as vnto somes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not ^d somes.

9 Wherouer we haue had the fathers of our ^e bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: thould we not much rather be in subiection vnto the father of ^f spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they were for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holines.

11 Now no chaulding for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grievous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousnes, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wheresome lieth by your hands which hang downe, and your weak knees,

13 And make straight steppes vnto your feete, lest ^g that which is halting, be cured out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Followe peace with all men, and holines, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no ^h rote of bitterness spring up, and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there be no fornicator, or profane person as ⁱ Esaus, which for a portion of meate solde his birthright.

17 For ye knowe howe that afterward

18 For ye are not come vnto the ^j mount that ^k might be touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknes and darknes, and tempest,

19 Neither vnto the sound of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, excused them selves, that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 For they were not able to abide that which was commanded,* Ye, though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust throug with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that ^l Moses said, I feare and quake.

22 Ye are come vnto ^m mount ⁿ Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the ^o celestiall Ierusalem, ^p & to the company of innumerable ^q Angels.

23 And to the congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfect men,

24 And to Iesus the Mediator of the newe Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better things then that of ^r Abel.

25 See that ye despite not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him, that spake on ^s earth: much more shall we not escape, if we turne away from him, that speaketh from heauen.

26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and nowe hath declared, saying,* Ye t once more will ^t I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this word, Ye t once more, signifieth the removing of those thinges, which are shaken, as of thinges which are made with hands, that the thinges which are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wheresore seeing we receive a kings dome, which can not be shaken, let vs haue grace, wherby we may lo serue God, that we may please him with reverence and feare.

29 For ^u cuen our God is a ^v consuming fire.

THE *GENERAL EPISTLE

OF IAMES.

THE ARGUMENT.

* That is, writte to no one man, citie or countrey, but to all Iewes generally, being now dispersed.

IAMES the Apostle and sonne of Alphaeus diues this epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ but dispersed throughout diuers countreis, and therefore he exhorted them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an idle sayth, but to declare a true sayth by liuely fruites, to auoide ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to venter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

1 Be exhorted to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be seruent in prayer with steadfast beliefs, 17 To looke for all good things from above, 21 To forsake all vice, & thankesfully to receive the word of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to do there-after in deede, 27 VVhat true religion is.

1 IAMES a seruant of God, and of the Lorde Iesus Christe, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall into diuers temptations,

3 * Knowing that the trying of your sayth bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her perfect worke, that ye may be perfect & entier, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shall be giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not : for hee that watereth, is like a waue of the sea, roit of the winde, and caued awap.

7 Further let that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A wandering minded man is vntable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted :

12 Blessed is the man, that endureth temptation: for when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when hee is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when hee is drawne awap by his own concupiscence, and is enticed.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, let euery man be swift to heare, slowe to speake, and slowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not acco^uplish the righteousnes of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filchines, and superfluitie of malicioulines, and reuenge with mekenesse the woide that is graffed in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 And be ye doers of the woide, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues:

23 For if any heare the woide, and do it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his natural face in a glasse.

24 For when he hath considered himself, he goeth his waie, and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, & continueth therein, hee not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refrayneth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion is vndesilled before God, enuen the father, is this, to visite the fatherles, & widowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe him selfe vnspotted of the woide.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, & But to regard the poore as well as the rich, & To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it is but a dead sayth, where good workes follow not.

1 M brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lorde Iesus Christ in respect of persons,

2 For if there come into your companie a man with a gold ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothyng, & lap vnto him, but thou here in a good place, and sape vnto the poore, stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footestool.

4 Wre ye not partial in your selues, & are become iudges of euill b^e thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloved brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this woide, that they should be rich in faith, & heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppresse you by tyrannie, and do not they draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Do not they blasphem the worthy name after which ye be named?

8 What if ye fulfill the royal Law according to Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye do well.

9 But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

10 For whosoever shall keepe the whole Law, and yet faileth in one point, hee is gilty of all.

11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now though thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressour of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so do, as they that shall be iudged by the Law of libertie.

 I Brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

 3 Beholde, we put bittes into the horses mouthes that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their bodie.
 4 Beholde also the ships, which though they be so great, and are diuinen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a verie small rubber, wether soeuer the gouernour listeth.
 5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boasteth of great things: be holde, howe great a thing a litle fire kindleth.
 6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a woilde of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

 7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birds, and of creeping things, & things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

HE exhortheth the faithfull to denie them selues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, wherunto we are called by the grace of God revealed to vs in his Sonne, & to haue already received it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by kolines of life. And to the intent this sayth should not faine, seeing Christ continued and reiected almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faythful: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects howe to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and howe married folke ought to behaue them selues. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserveth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth howe the ministers ought to behaue them selues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and to endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elct and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And howe sayth must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newe, but a thing prophesied of olde, 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are nowe borne anew by the worde of God.

1 Reter an Apostle of Iesus Christe, to the strangers that dwell here & there through out Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

2 Elct according to the foreknowledge of God the Father unto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though nowe for a season (if neede require) ye are in heaviness, through manifold tentations,

7 That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then gold that perissheth (though it bee tried with fire) might be found vnto your praise, and honour and glory, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom nowe, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleue, and reioyce with hope vnspokeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue inquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glorie that should folowe.

12 Vnto whom it was reuelled, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are nowe shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospell by the holy Ghost sent down from heauen, the which thinges the Angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore, gird by the loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all maner of conuersation, 16 Because it is wriiten, Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which without respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible thinges, as silver and gold, from your vaine conuersation, received by the traditions of the fathers,

19 But with his precious blood of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot.

20 Which was ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the last times for your sakes,

21 Which by his meanes doe beleue in God that raised him from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing your soules are purified in obeying the truth through the spirit, to loue brotherly without faunting, loue one another with a pure heart fervently,

23 Being home anelwe, not of mortall seede, but of immortal, by the worde of God, who kureth and endureth forever.

24 For all flesh is as grasse, and all the glory of man is as the flower of grasse. The grasse withereth, and the flower fallett away.

25 But the worde of the Lorde endureth forever: and this is the word which is preached among you,

Their ministerie was more profitable to vs then to them:

for we see the things accomplished which they prophesied.

THE SECOND EPISTLE
generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in increasing his giftes in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being nowe almost at deathes doore, exhortheth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospell, wherof he is a cleare witnes, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And lest they should promes to themselves quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth the both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his coming, and to preserue themselves vnspotted against the same.

CHAPTER I.

Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen thee all things pertaining vnto life, he exhortheth them to see the corruption of worldly lustes, to make their calling sure with good workes, and fruites of faith. He maketh mention of his owne death, Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true sonne of God, as he himselfe had seene upon the mount.

Simon Peter a seruant & an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the righte

- nesses of our God and Saviour Iesus Christ:
- 2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,
- 3 According as his godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlines, through the knowledge of him that hath called vs vnto glory and vertue.
- 4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye should be partakers of the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Saviour. That is, saluation. The summe of our saluation & religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne. Or, through his glory. godly

In that he declared himselfe iust and faithfull in accomplishing his promes by Christ.

¶ We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we see the corruption of the world: or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne and are not in y flesh.

¶ Godly maners.

g The Greeke words significth him, that naturally cannot see, except he holdeth nere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heauenly things which are farre of, purblindes, or sandblinde, h Albeit it be sure in it self forasmuch as God cannot change: yet we must confirme it in our selues, by the fruites of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustifieth vs.

i For God wil euer vpholde you.

¶ godly nature, in that ye see the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

Therefore giue eue a diligence thereto: iopne moreouer your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

¶ And with knowledge, temperance: & with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlines:

¶ And with godlines, brotherly kindness: and with brotherly kindness, loue.

¶ For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor without fruit in the knowledge of our Lorde Iesus Christ.

¶ For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and cannot see farre of, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde finnes.

¶ Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fail.

¶ For by this meanes an entering shall be ministered vnto you abundantly vnto the euerlasting kingdome of our Lorde and Saviour Iesus Christ.

¶ Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be established in the present truth.

¶ For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.

¶ Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, such as our Lorde Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

¶ I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

¶ For we followed not deceivable fables when we opened vnto you the power, and coming of our Lorde Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie:

¶ For he received of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glory. ¶ This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am well pleased.

¶ And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holp mount.

¶ We haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye do well that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntil the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your heartes.

¶ So that ye first know this, that no prophetic in the Scripture is of any private motion.

¶ For the prophetic came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

¶ He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

¶ But there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which vniuersally shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lorde, that hath bought them, and bying vpon them selues swift damnation.

¶ And many shall followe their damnable wayes, by whome the way of truth shall be euill spoken of.

¶ And through couetousnes shall they which haue fained wordes make merchandise of you, whose iudgement long as gone is not farre of, and their damnation sleepeth not.

¶ For if God spared not the Angels, that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, & deliuered them into chaines of darknes, to be kept vnto dānation:

¶ Neither hath spared the olde world, but laued it. ¶ Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnes, and brought in the flood vnto the world of the vngodly.

¶ And turned the cities of Sodom & Gomorrah into ashes, condemned the same, and ouerthrew them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly.

¶ And deliuered iust Lot, vered to the vncleane conuersation of the wicked.

¶ For he being righteous, & dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vered his righteous soule from day to day with their vniuersall deedes.

¶ The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserue the vniuirt vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

¶ And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannes, and despite the government, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

¶ Where as Angels which are greater both in power and might, give not railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

¶ But these, as brute beastes, led with sensualitye and made to be taken, and bestrodden, speake euill of those things which they knowe not, and shall perishe through their owne corruption.

¶ And shall receiue the wages of vnrighthousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciouly for a season. Spottes they are and blotches, desiring their selues in their deceiuing, in feasting with you.

¶ Having eyes full of adulterie, and that can not cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue heartes exercised in couetousnes, cursed children.

¶ Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of Balaam, the sonne of Bofor, which loosed the wages of vnrighthousnes.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impietis of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sorte the ende of the world shall be. 8 That they prepare themselves thereunto. 16 VVho they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and thereof of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with eternall thanks to Christ Iesus.

1 This seconde Epistle I now write vnto you, beloued, wherewith * I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrance the words, which were told before of the holy Prophets, & also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last daies, mockers, which will walke after their lustes,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore he word that then was, perished, and flowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserved vnto fire against the daye of iudgement, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeres, and a thousande yeres, as one day.

9 The Lorde is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknes) but is patient toward vs, and * would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lorde will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noise, and the elements shall melt with heat, and the earth with the workes, that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolved, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conseruation & looking,

12 And hauing vnto the coming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements that melt with heate?

13 But we looke for * newe heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that ye shall see for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in * peace, with out spot and blameles.

15 * And suppose that ye long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the witness done giuen vnto him wrote to you,

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are hard to be vnderstand, which they that are vblearned and vnstable, * peruert, as they do also other Scriptures vnto their own destruction.

17 Be therefore beloued, seeing ye knowe these things before, beware, least ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnes.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lorde and Saviour Iesus Christ: to him be glorie both now and for euermore, Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doth consist only in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleue in Christ, vnlesse he doth endeavour him self to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirites, Last of all he doth earnestly exhort the vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

3 True witness of the everlasting words of God, 7
The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 7
No man is without sinne.

1 Ihat which was from the beginning, which wee have heard,
which wee have
seene with our eyes, which wee have looked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the Word of life, 2 (For the life appeared, and wee seene it, and beare witness, and shew vnto you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and appeared vnto vs) 3 That, I saye, which wee haue seene and heard, declare we vnto you, that pe may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioye may be full.
5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that Gods word is light, and in him is no darkenes.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkness, we lie, and do not truelye.

7 But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship with one another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleaseth vs from all sinne.

8 If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deceiue our selues, and truelye is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust, to forgive vs our sinnes, and to cleaseth vs from all vnrightheousnes.

10 If we saye we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in vs.

i If we be not ashamed, earnestly and openly to acknowledge our selues before God to be sinners. *Or, doctrine.

C H A P. II.

1 Christ is our Advocate. 20 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

1 M babes, these things write I vnto you, that pe sinne not: and if any man sinne, wee haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes; and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby wee are sure that wee knowe him, if we keepe his commandements.

4 He that saith, I knowe him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the truelye is not in him.

c That is, by faith and to obey him; for knowledge can not be without obedience.

5 But he that keepeth his worde, in him is the loue of God perfect in dede:
hereby we knowe that we are in him.
6 He that saith hee remaineth in him, ought euen to walke, as hee hath walked.

7 Wherthen, I write no newe commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement, which pe haue had from the beginning: the olde commandement is the word, which pe haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light nowe shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, & hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntil this tyme.

10 He that loneth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walketh in darkenes, & knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hath blinded his eyes.

12 A litle children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because pe haue knowne him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because pe haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because pe haue knowne the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because pe haue knowne him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yong men, because pe are strong, & the worde of God abideth in you, & pe haue overcome the wicked.

15 Loue not the world, neither things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, & the pride of life) is not of the Father,
but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last tyme, and as pe haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euill nowe are there many Antichrists:
whereby wee knowe that it is the last tyme.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But pe haue an oportunitye from him, that is Holy, and pe haue knowne all things.

21 I haue not writte vnto you, because pe knowe not the truelye; but because pe knowe it, and that no lie is of the truelye.

He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or he that confoundeth or separateth them, els he that putteth not difference betwene the person of the Sonne, and also he that beleueth not to haue remission of finnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias. Then the infidels worship not the true God. But he is confessed to be the Father. Christ communicateth him self vnto you, & teacheth you by the holy Ghost he meaneth the

- 22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.
- 23 Whosoener denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.
- 24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, & in the Father.
- 25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, euen eternall life.
- 26 These things haue I writen vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.
- 27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: & ye made not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.
- 28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bold, and not be alhamed before him at his coming.
- 29 If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is boine of him.

& his ministers. Or, in Christ. u By this name whole Church of Christ in general.

C H A P. III.

The singular loue of God towards vs, & howe we againe ought to loue one another.

- I Behold, what loue the Father hath beihewed on vs, that we should be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth you not him.
- 2 Dearly beloved, nowe are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.
- 3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him selfe, euen as he is pure.
- 4 Whosoener committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the Lawe.
- 5 And ye knowe that he appeared that he might take away our finnes, and in him is no sinne.
- 6 Whosoener abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoener sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.
- 7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.
- 8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuil.
- 9 Whosoener is boine of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can he sinne, because he is boine of God.

- 10 In this are the children of God: whoseuer doeth not righteousness, is not of God, neither be he loueth nor his brother.
- 11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that we should loue one another,
- 12 Not as Cam which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, & his brothers good.
- 13 Sparreth not, my brethren, though the world hate you.
- 14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: & he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.
- 15 Whosoener hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye knowe that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.
- 16 * Verily haue we perceived loue, that he layed downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.
- 17 * And whosoener hath this wordes god, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth by his compassion from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?
- 18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in deed, and in truth.
- 19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the truth, and shall befoze him assure our heartes.
- 20 For if our heart condemne vs, Gods is greater the our heart, and knoweth all things.
- 21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, the haue we boldnes toward God.
- 22 * And wharsoener we aske, we receiue of him, because we keepe his commandments, and doe those thinges which are pleasing in his sight.
- 23 * This is then his commandement, That we beleue in the name of his Sonne Jesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.
- 24 * For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we knowe that he abideth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

Difference of spirits. 2 Hope the Spirit of God may be knowne from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

- I Dearly beloved, beleeue not euerly spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophets are gone out into the worlde.
- 2 Whereby shall ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the fleshe, is of God.
- 3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the fleshe, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, howe

h He descended from heauen: the first table of the commandments to the second.

THE SECOND EPISTLE of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certain Ladie, 4 Reioycing that her childre walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 VVarneth them to beware of such deceiuers as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Saviour.

1 The Elder to the elect Ladie, & her childre, whom I loue in * p trueth: and not I onely, but also al þ haue knowne þ trueth, For the trueths sake which dwell with vs, and thalbe with vs for euer:
2 Grace be with you, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from þ lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with þ trueth and loue.
3 I reioiced greatly, that I found of thy childre walking in trueth, as we haue receiued a comādemēt of þ Father.
4 And now beseeche I thee, Ladie, (not as writing a newe comādemēt vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

Or, worthie, and noble,
a According to godlinesse and not with any worldly affection.
b We cannot receiue y grace of God, except we haue the true knowledge of him, of y which knowledge lous proceedeth.
c According to Gods worde. Iohn. 15. 12.

6 And this is the loue, that wee should walke after his comādemēts. This comādemēt is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, so should walke in it.
7 For manie deceiuers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a decepter and an Antichrist.
8 Looke to your selues, that we dō lose not the things which we haue done, but that we may receiue a full reward.
9 Whoſoener transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that comēth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.
10 If there come any vnto you, & bring not this doctrine, * receiue him not to houſe, neither bid him, God speede.
11 For he that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euil deeds. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not write with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioye may be full.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF IOHN.

3 He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 4 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christen in their persecucion, 9 Sheweth the unkinde dealing of Diotrophes, 12 And the good report of Demetrius.

1 The Elder vnto þ beloved Gaius, whom I loue in þ trueth.
2 Beloued, I wiſhe chiefly that thou prosperedst and ſaredst wel, as thy ſoule prospereth.
3 For I reioiced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, howe thou walkest in the trueth.
4 I haue no greater ioy thē this, that is, to heare that my ſennes walke in veritie.
5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatſoener thou doest to the brethren, and to ſtrangers,
6 Which bare witnes of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou dingest on their iourney as it becometh according to God, thou shalt do well.
7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles, a That is, in godly conuerſation, as they which haue both the knowledge and feare of God.

b By keeping hospitalitie.
c If thou furniſhest them with necessaries toward their iourney, knowing that the Lord ſaith, He that receiueth you, receiueth me.

8 Whetherfore ought to receiue ſuch, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrophes which longeth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes which he doeth, pratteling as gainst vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither he himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, & thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, followe not that which is euill, but that which is good: he that doth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not ſcene God.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare recorde, & ye know that our recorde is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I wil not ynke & pen write vnto thee.
14 For I trust I ſhal ſhortly ſee thee, and we ſhal ſpeake mouth to mouth. Peace be with thee. The friends ſalute thee, Greete thy friends by name.

THE

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to drawe away the heartes of the simple people from the truth of God, and willett them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally hee comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

I Vnde a seruant of Iesus Christ, and brother of James, to them which are called and sanctified of God the Father, and referred to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you to exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saintes.

4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of olde: oidepned to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and denie God the only Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I wit therefore put you in remembrance, sofar as much as ye once knew this, how the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, destroyed them afterward which beloued not.

6 The Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, hee hath referred in euertlasting chaines vnder darknes vnto his iudgement of the great day.

7 As Sodome and Gomorthe, and the cities about them, which in like manner as they did, committed, and followed strange flesh, are set forth for an ensample, and suffer the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these dreamers also desire the flesh, & despise government, and speake euill of the that are in authoritie.

9 Peter the Archangel, when he strove against the deuil, and disputed about the boope of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euill of those things, which they knowe not: and what soeuer things they knowe naturally, as beasts, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt their selues.

11 Woe be vnto the: for they haue followed the way of Cain, and are cast away of 10. 13. 2. chro. 9. 29. 1 In Zacharie, 2. Christ vnder his name of the Angel rebuked Satan as knowing that he went about to hinder the Church: but here we are admonished not to seeke to reuenge our selues by euill speaking, but to referre the thing to God. m By their carnall iudgement. Gene. 4. 8.

by his deceit of Balaams wages, & perishe in the gaine saying of a oie.

12 These are lotteres in your feastes of charitie wher they feast with you, without all feare, feeding them selues: cloudes they are without water, caried about of winds, corrupt trees, & without fruit, twice dead, and plucked up by the roots.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, forming out their owne shame: they are wandering starres, to whom is reserved the blacknes of darknes for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seventh from Adam, prophesied of such, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with thousands of his Saintes,

15 To reuke iudgement against all men, & to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked deedes, which they haue vngodly committed, & of all their cruel speaking, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts: whose mouthes speake proud things, hauing mens persones in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But, ye beloued, remember the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ, 18 How the they told you that there should be mockers in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lustes.

19 These are makers of sectes, fleshly, hauing not the Spirit.

20 But, ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost,

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Loide Iesus Christ, vnto eternal life.

22 And haue compassio of some, in putting difference:

23 And other sane with feare, pulling them out of the fire, and hate euen the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Nowe vnto him that is able to keepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you faultles before the presence of his glorious with hope,

25 That is, to God only wise, our Saviour, be glory, and maiestic, and dominion, & power, both now and for euer, Amen.

f Some may be wonne with gentleness, other by sharpnes. t By sharpe reproofes to draw them out of danger. u He willett not be soley to cut of the euill, but also to take away all occasions which are as preparatiues, and accessaries to the same.

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest, that the holy Ghoste would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those propheties, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarn vs of dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, & encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forth the Diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reprobeth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: hoive that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan wil reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, & albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no farther then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length hee shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God wil permit this Antichrist and trumpete vnder colour of faire speach and pleasant doctrine to deceiue the worlde: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoyde this harlots flatteries, and brags, whose ruine without mercie they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall praises: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrarywise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall inioy perperuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

He exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true

1 And write vnto the Angell of the Church which is at Sardis, These Spirits of God, & the seven starres, I know thy works: for thou hast a name that thou art liue, but thou art dead.

 2 Be awake and strengthen the things which remaine, that are readie to die:
 for I haue not found thy workes perfite

 3 Remember therefore, how thou hast re ceiuued and heard, and hold fast, and re

 I will come on thee as a thiefe, & thou

- 1 After this I looked, and beholde, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come by hitther, and I will shewe thee things which must be done hereafter.
- 2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirite, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.
- 3 And he that sat, was to looke vpon, like vnto a Jasper stone, & a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like to an Emeraude.
- 4 And rounde about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, & had on their heads crownes of golde.
- 5 And out of þe throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, & there were seuen lampes of fire, burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.
- 6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto a crysell: and in the middes of the throne, & rounde about the throne were foure beastes full of eyes before and behinde.
- 7 And the first beast was like a Lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, & the thirde beast had a face as a man, & the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.
- 8 And the foure beastes had eche one of them sixe wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they could not day nor night say, Holy, Holy, holy, say Loede God almightie, Which was, and Which is, & Which is to come.
- 9 And when those beastes gaue glorie, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 2. 1. And therefore the foure beastes, the 24. elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and do him worship, 3 For their redemption and other benefites.

- 1 And I sawe in the right hande of him that sat vpon the throne, a Booke writen within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.
- 2 And I saw a strong Angel, which preached with a loude voyce, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof?
- 3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neyther vnder the earth, was able to open the Booke, neyther to looke thereon.
- 4 Then I wept much, because no man was founde worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neyther to looke thereon.
- 5 And one of the elders sayde vnto mee, Weepe not: beholde, the Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteined to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.
- 6 Then I beheld, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a Lambe, as though he had bene killed, which had 4 seuen hornes, and seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent vnto all the world.
- 7 And he came and toke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne.
- 8 And when he had taken the Booke, the foure beastes & the foure & twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden viuals full of odours, which are the papers of the Saints,
- 9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euerie kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,
- 10 And hast made vs vnto our God Kings and Priests, & we shall reigne on the earth.

1 And when he had opened the seventh scale, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I saw the seuen Angels, which stood before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came and stood before the altar hauing a golden censer, & much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went by before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundryngs, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared their selues to blowe the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and al greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the thirde part of the sea became blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of shippes were destroyed.

10 And when the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a toyche, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters,

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the thirde part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

c He sheweth the onely remedie in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the means of Iesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and the Priest, which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the altar & diuine maiestie of God.

13 And I behelde, and heard one Angell flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the foundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first and sixt Angell blow their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen, 2 The locustes come out of the smoke, 12 The first wo is past, 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed, 18 And the third part of men is killed.

1 And the fift Angell blew the trumpet, and I sawe a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.
2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great foynace, & the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.
3 And there came out of the smoke Locustes vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.
4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grasses of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.
5 And to the was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be kered five monethes, & that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.
6 Therefore in those dayes shall men

seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
7 And the forme of the locustes was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.
8 And they had heare as the heare of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.
9 And they had habbergions, like to habbergions of piron: and the sounde of their wings was like the sounde of charrets when many horses runne vnto battell.
10 And they had tayles like vnto scorpions, and there were stings in their tayles, and their power was to hurt men five monethes.
11 And they haue a king over them, which is the Angell of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is, Abaddon, and in Greeke he is named Apollyon.
12 One wo is past, and beholde, yet two woes come after this.
13 Then the sixt Angell blew the trumpet, & I heard a voice from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,
14 Saying to the sixt Angell, which had the trumpet, looſe the foure Angels, which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.
15 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yere, to slay the thirde part of men.
16 And the number of hostines of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sat on them, hauing fire habbergions, and of Jacinth and of brimstone, and the heades of the horses were as the heades of lions: and out of their mouthes went forth fire & smoke and brimstone.
18 Of these three was the thirde part of men killed, that is, of the fire and of the smoke, & of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

3 The description of the great whore, 8 Her finnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

1 ¶ Then there came one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I will shew thee the damnation of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters,

2 With whome haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, & the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

So he caried me away into the wilderness in the spirit, and I saw a woman sitte vpon a skarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seuen heades, & ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and skarlet, and guided a itly gold, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cuppe of golde in her hand, full of abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, Babel, the great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of the Santes, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I saw her, I wonderd wth great maruelle.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore maruellest thou? I will shew thee the myserie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heades, and ten hornes.

8 The beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomies pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the worlde) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisdom. The seuen heades are seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seuen Kinges.

10 If me are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: & when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten Kinges, which yet haue not receiued a kingdom, but shall receiue power, as Kinges at one houre with the beast.

13 ¶ These haue one minde, & shall giue their power, and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, & the Lambe shall ouercome them: for he is Lord of Lords, & King of Kinges: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

3. 9 The louers of the worlde are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God, to flee out of her dominion, 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

1 And after these things, I saw another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that þe earth was lightened with his gloze.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loud voyce, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great cite, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull byrde.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, & the kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the marchants of the earth are wared rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen saye, d Goe out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are e come vnto heauen, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 Rewarde her, euen as she hath rewarded you, & giue her double according to her workes: and in the cuppe that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as she glorified her selfe, and lived in pleasure, so much giue ye to her torment and sorrow: for the faith in her heart, * I sit being a Queene, and am no widowe, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the word of God which will condemne her.

9 And the kings of the earth shall be wate her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and sined in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 And shall stand a farre of for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great cite Babylon, the mightie cite: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the marchants of the earth shall weepe and waille ouer her: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of golde and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linc, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, and of all maner of Thyne wood, and of all beffes of puozie, and of all beffes of most prierous wood, and of brasse, and of yron, and of marble.

13 And of cinnamon, and odours, and oymments and frankincense, & wvne, and ople, and fine flour, and whate, and beatts, and sheape, and horses, and charrets, and seruants, and soules of men.

14 And þe apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat & excellent, are departed from thee, & thou shalt fynde them no more.

15 The marchants of these things which were wared rich, shall stande a farre of from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing.

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great cite, that was clothed in fine linc and purple, and skarlet, and guided with golde, and prierous stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery thynge master, and all the people that occupie thynge, and thynnen, & whosoeuer traualle on the sea, shall stand a farre of.

18 And crye, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What city was like vnto this great cite?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry weeping, and wailing, & say, Alas, alas, the great cite, wherem were made rich all that had thynge on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apollies and Propheets: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel tooke by a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great cite Babylon be cast, & shall be found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and of trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee, and no crafts man, of what soeuer craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

e The Greeke word is, that her sinnes so folowe one another, and so rise one after another, that they growe to such an heape, that at length they touch the very heauen. f Blessed is he that can repay to the whore the like, as is written, Psal. 137. 8, 9.

g The glorious boasting of the strumper. h But full of people and mightie.

r The Romish prelates & marchants of soules are as kings and princes: so that their couetousnes and pride must be punished: secondly their craftes and bridegrome and of the hyde shall be heard no more in this: for thy marchants were the great mee of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earthy.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for amunging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birdes are called to the slaughter.

a That is, praise I ye God, because the Antichrist & all wickednes is taken out of y worlde.
b So that al the Saints are confirmed & ought nothing to dout of the saluation of the faithfull.
c The wicked shall be burned in continual fire, that neuer shall be extinguished.
d By the foure beasts are ment all creatures.
e Signifying that his iudgements are true and iust, and y we ought to praise him euermore for the destruction of the Pope.
f God made Christ y bridegrome of his Church at y beginning, & at the last day it shall be fully accomplished when we shall be ioyned with our head.
g That is, the Angel.

h Whom God of free mercie calleth to be partakers of his heavenly graces, and deliuereth from the filthie pollutions of Antichrist. Cha. 22. 13. 9.

And after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, y Hallelu-iah, saluation, & glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.
2 For y true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt y earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hande.
3 And againe they sayde, y Hallelu-iah: & her smoke rose vp for euermore.
4 And the foure & twentie Elders, and the foure beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sat on the thron, saying, Amen, y Hallelu-iah.
5 Then a voyce came out of the thron, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both final and great.
6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, & as the voyce of strong thundings, saying, y Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almightie hath reigned.
7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glorie to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, & his wife hath made her selfe readie.
8 And to her was granted, y she should be araid with pure fine linc & slyning, for the fine linc is the righteousnes of Saints.
9 Then he said vnto me, Write, y Blessed are they which are called vnto the Lambes supper. And he saide vnto me, These wordes of God are true.
10 And I fell before his feete: to worship him: but he saide vnto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowe seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue y testimonie of Iesus. Worship God: for the testimonie of Iesus, is the Spirit of prophesie.

11 And I saw heauen open, and behold a white horse, and he that sat vpon him, was called, y Faithfull and true, and he y ridgeth and fighteth righteously.
12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, & on his head were many crownes: and he had a name written, that no man knewe but himselfe.
13 And he was clothed with a garment dypt in y blood, and his name is called, THE WORD OF GOD.
14 And the warriors which were in heauen, folowed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linc white and pure.
15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sworde, that with it he should smite the heathen: for he shall rule them with a rod of iron: for he it is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercesnes and wrath of almightie God.
16 And he hath vpon his garment, & vpon his thigh a name written, y THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDES.
17 And I saw an Angel stand in y sunne, who cried with a loud voyce, saying to all the foules that did flye by the mids of heauen, Come, & gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,
18 That ye may eate the flesh of kings, and the flesh of the Captaynes, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of hoies, and of them that sit on them, & the flesh of all free men and bondmen, and of small and great.
19 And I sawe the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their warriors gathered together to make bartell against him, that sat on the horse and against his souldiers.
20 But the beast was taken, and with him that fals Prophete that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceiued them that receiued the beastes marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were aline cast into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.
21 And the remnant were slaine with the sworde of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled full with their flesh.

Iherby is signified that Iesus Christ our iudge shall be victoriorous and shall triumphe over his enemies.
m He meaneth Christ.
n So that y wicked shall tremble before his face.
o To shew that he was ruler of all the world.
p That is, none can haue so full reuelation how Christ is verie God, eternal, infinite & almightie, as he himselfe.

q Whereby is signified his victorie, and the destruction of his enemies.
r Signifying y Iesus Christ, which is the worde is made flesh, & is our Lord, our God and the iudge of the quicke & dead.

z The overthrowe of the beast and his, which shall be chiefly accomplished at the seconde coming of Christ,

11 Having the glorie of God : and her shining was like unto a stone most precious, as a Jasper stone cleare as crystal,

12 And had a great wall and hir, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angells, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the East parte there were three gates, & on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the Westside three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede to measure the citie withal, & the gates thereof, & the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foure square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs : and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundredth, fourtie and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angell.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Jasper : and the citie was pure golde like unto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Jasper : the second of Sapphire : the thirde of a Chalcedonie : the fourth of an Emeraude :

20 The fift of a Sardonyx: the sixt of a Sardinus: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eyght of a Beryll: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chryoprasus: the eleuenth of a Jacynth: the twelue an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, & euery gate is of one pearle, and the streete of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I sawe no Temple therein: for the Lord God almightie & the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 * And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glorie of God did light it: & the Lambe is the light of it.

24 * And the people which are saved, shall walke in the light of it: and the Kings of the earth shall bring their glorie and honour vnto it.

25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glorie, and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes * Booke of life.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The feniuesnes and light of the citie of God. 6 The Lord giveth ever his seruants warning of things to come. 9 The Angell will not be worshipped. 18 The word of God may nothing be added nor diminished thereof.

1 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the middes of the streete of it, & of either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bare twelue manner of frutes, and gaue fruit euery moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the nations with.

3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheades.

5 * And there shall be no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And he saide vnto me, These wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am John, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard & seene, I fell downe to worshippe before the feete of the Angell, which shewed me these thinges.

9 But he saide vnto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowe seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, & of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worshyppe God.

10 And he said vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust still: & he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, to geue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am * a and a, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his commandements, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without shall be dogges and enchanterers, & whoresmongers, & murderers, & idolaters, & whosoever loueth

a He alludeth to the visible paradise to set forth more sensibly the spiritual: and this agreeth with that which is written, Ezek. 47: 1.

b Meaning, that Christ who is the life of his church is common to all his, & not peculiar to any one sort of people.

c For there are all things pleasant and full of contentation continually.

A briefe Table of the interpretation of the proper names which are chiefly found in the olde Testament, wherein the first number signifieth the Chapter, the second the Verse.

WHereas the wickednesse of time, and the blindnesse of the former age hath bene such, that all things altogether haue bene abused and corrupted, so that the verie right names of diuers of the holy men named in the Scriptures haue bene forgotten, and nowe seeme strange vnto vs, and the names of infants that should euer haue some godly aduertisements in them, and should be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his householde, haue bene hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie and heathenish impietie, we haue now set forth this Table of the names that be most vsed in the olde Testament with their interpretations, as the Hebrew importeth, partly to call backe the godly from that abuse, when they shall know the true names of the godly Fathers, and what they signifie, that their children nowe named after them, may haue testimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithfull familie that in all their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bound by these their names to serue God from their infancie, and haue occasion to prayse him for his workes wrought in them, and their fathers: but chiefly to restore the names to their integritie, whereby many places of the Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holy Ghost shall better be vnderstand. We haue medled rarely with the Greeke names, because their interpretation is vncertaine, and many of them are corrupted from their originall, as we may also see these Hebrew names set in the margent of this Table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Nowe for the other Hebrew names that are not here interpreted, let nor the diligent Reader be carefull: for he shall finde them in places most conuenient amongst the annotations: at least so many as may seeme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

 Amaziah 29. yeeres. 2. King. 14. 2.
Betweene the reigne of this Amaziah and Azariah his sonne, are 11. yeeres to be be added, as may be gathered thus: Amaziah had reigned 29. yeeres, the 15. yeere of Ieroboam, which 29. yeeres ended the sayde 15. yeere of the sayde Ieroboam. 2. king. 14. 17. Nowe it is manifest that Azariah the sonne of Amaziah began to reigne but the 27. yeere of the sayd Ieroboam, 2. king. 15. 1. and then it followeth, that betwene the end of the reigne of Amaziah and the beginning of Azariah there falleth out þe sayd 11. yeeres before specified.

After the which 11. yeeres Azariah, otherwise called Vzziah reigned 52. yeeres. 2. king. 15. 1. 2. and 2. Chro. 26. 1, 3.

Iorham 16. yeeres. 2. king. 15. 32, 33.

Ahaz 16. yeeres. 2. king. 16. 2.

Hezekiah 29. yeeres. 2. king. 18. 2.

Manasseh 55. yeeres. 2. king. 21. 1.

Amon 2. yeeres. 2. king. 21. 19.

Iosiah 31. yeeres. 2. king. 22. 1.

Ichoahaz 3. moneths. 2. king. 23. 31.

Eliakim called also Ichoiakim. 11. yeeres. 2. king. 23. 34, 36.

Ichoiachin 3. moneths. 2. king. 24. 8.

Mattaniah called also Zedekiah 11. yeeres.

2. king. 24. 17, 18. Jere. 52. 1.

And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babilon. The summe of these yeeres are 411. yeeres and an halfe.

Ierusalem was reedified and builded againe after the captiuitie 143. yeeres.

For the captiuitie endured 70. yeeres. Jere. 29. 10. Dan. 9. 2. Ezra. 1. 1.

The children of Israel were deliuered out of captiuitie and restored to their freedom, in the first yeere of Cyrus, & in the second yeere the foundation of þe Temple was layed. Ezra. 1. 1. and. 3. 8. and it was finished in the 6. yeere of Darius Longimanus, Ezra. 6. 15. for it was 46. yeere a building, as appeareth John 2. 20. After that Darius had reigned 20. yeere, Nehemiah was restored to libertie, & went to build the citie, which was finished in the 31. yeere of the said Darius. Nehe. 2. 1, 5, 6. & 13. 6. which was 26. yeeres from the building of the Temple.

The whole summe of which yeeres amount to the 143. yeeres before specified. From the reedifying of the Citie, vnto the death of Christ our Saviour, are 478. yeeres after this supputation of numbering.

It was reuelled to Daniel the prophet, þe the citie of Jerusalem should be built by againe, & that there should be vnto the comaundement giuen to build the same againe, vnto the death of Iesus Christ, 70. weekes of yeeres, which is 490. yeeres, as appeareth Dan. 9. 24. 25, 26, 27. And this comaundement was giuen by Darius Longimanus the 20. yeere of his reigne. Nehe. 2. 1, 6. Wherefore if we deduct the 12. yeeres out of the same 490. yeeres, because they are reckoned before, wherein Nehemiah builded the Citie, we shall finde remaining 478. And so manie yeeres it is from the 32. yeere of Darius, vnto the 18. yeere of Tiberius, in the which yeere our Saviour Christ was put to death for our redemption. Summe 478. yeeres.

Finally, from Christ his incarnation vnto þe 25. day of March last, are 1578. yeeres, from which must be deducted 34. yeeres, which are included in the same, and are also a parcel of the 490. yeeres before specified: for Christ was 33. yeeres olde and one quarter when he died, & he was 3. quarters of a yeere in his mothers wombe after her Annunciation (at what time it is thought the yeeres of our Lord ought to begin) and so remaine 1541. yeeres.

Wherupon we reckon, that from the creation of the world vnto this present yeere of our Loyde God. 1578. it amounteth vnto 5592. yeeres, six moneths, and 16. dayes. That is to say, from the worlds creation vnto Christe his being conceived in the wombe of the virgin Marie, 4017. yeeres and a halfe & 16. dayes, and fro thence vnto this present yeere, 1578. which added together, make iust the said number of 5592. yeeres, 6. moneths, and 16. dayes before mentioned.

TO THE READER.

Thou shalt understand (gentle Reader) that I haue (for the helpe of those that are desirous to learne to sing) caused a new print of Note to be made with letters to be ioyned to euery Note: Whereby thou mayest know, how to call euery Note by his right name, so that with a very little diligence (as thou art taught in the Introduction printed heretofore in the Psalmes) thou mayest the more easily by the viewing of these letters, come to the knowledge of perfect Solefayng: wherby thou mayest sing the Psalmes the more spedely and easely. The letters be these, V for Vt. R. for Re, M. for My, F. for Fa. S. for Sol, L. for La. Thus where you see any letter ioyned by the note, you may easily call him by his right name, as by these two examples you may the better perceiue.

Vt Re My Fa Sol La La Sol Fa My Re Vt.

Vt Re My Fa Sol La Fa Sol La La Sol Fa La Sol Fa My Re Vt.

Thus I commit thee vnto him that lyueth for euer, who graunt that we may sing with our hartes and mindes vnto the glory of his holy name.

Amen.

One holy Ghost, eternall

God proceeding from above:
Both from the Father and the Sonne the God of peace and love. Visite our mynds, and into vs thy heauenly grace inspire: That in all truth and godlynes

we may haue true Desire.

Thou art the very comfortor,
in all woe and distresse:
The heauenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse.
The fountayne and the lincly spring of toy celestiall:
The fire so bright the loue so clere,
and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy giftes art manifold, wherby Christes Church doth stand:
In saythfull hartes writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou geuest spech of grace:
That through thy helpe the prayse of God,
may stand in euery place.

O holy ghost into our wittes,
send downe thy heauenly light:
Kinde our hartes with seruent loue,
to serue God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weaknes,
so feeble and so fraille:
That neyther flesh, the world, nor deuill,
agaynst vs doe preuaile,

Put backe our enemies farre from vs,
and graunt vs to obtayne Peace in our hartes, with God and man, without grudge or disdain.
And graunt (O Lord) that thou being,
our leader and our guide:
We may eschew the snares of sinne,
and from the neuer side.

To vs such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord graunt we thy pray:

That thou mayst be our comfortor,
at the last breadfull day:
O fall strife and dissention,
O Lord dissolve the bandes:
And make the knots of peace and loue,
throughout all Chrysten landes.

Graunt vs O Lord through the to know,
the father most of might:
That of his deere beloved Sonne,
we may attayne the sight.
And that with perfect fayth also,
we may acknowledge the:
The spirite of them both alway,
one God and persons thre.

Laud and prayse be to the father,
and to the sonne equall:
And to the holy spirite also,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that the onely Sonne, boughte his Spirit to send:
To all that do professe his name,
vnto the wordes ende. Amen.

¶ The humble sute of a sinner. M.

Lord of whom I do depend, behold my carefull hart, and when thy will and pleasure is, releas me of my smart. Thou seest my sorrowes what they are, my grief is knowne to thee, and there is none that can remoue, or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose ayd I craue,
whose mercy still is prest:
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succor and for rest,
And sith thou seest my restlesse eyes,
my teares and grievous grone:
Attend vnto my sute (O Lord)
mathe well my playnt and mone.

Venite exultemus.

For sinne hath so inclosed me,
and compass me about:
That I am now remediles,
if mercy helpe not out.
For mortall man can not release,
or mitigate this payne:
But euen thy Christ, my Lord and God, which for my sinne was slayne.

Whose bloody woundes are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye:
yet doe thy Saintes behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good:
I shall enioy the sight of him,
and see his woundes and blood.

And as thine Angells and thy Sayntes, doe now behould the same:
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to prayse thy name.
But whilst I lye here in this vale,
where sinners doe frequent:
Aske me euer with thy grace,
my sinnes still to lament.

Least that I tread in sinners trace,
and geue them my consent:
To dwell with them in wickednes, wherto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
least that I fall down flat:
And being downe, then of my selfe cannot recouer that.

Wherefore this is yet once agayn
my sute and my request:
To graunt me pardon for my sinnes,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my hart, my tongue, and voice,
be instrumentes of prayse:
And in thy Church, and House of Sayntes sing Psalmes to the alwayes.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcvi.

Sing this as Benedictus.

O come and let vs now reioyce,
And sing vnto the Lord:
And to our onely Sauour,
Also with one accord.
O let vs come before his face,
With inward reuerence:
Confessing all our former sinnes,
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefites, Alway distributing:
Wherefore to him right ioyfully,
In Psalmes now let vs sing.
And that because that god alone
Is Lord magnificent:
And eke aboue all other Gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake,
At any tyme or tide:
And in his handes are all the coastes,

Of all the world so wide.

And with his louing countenance,
He looketh euery where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountaynes farre and neate.

The Sea, and all that is therein
Are his for he them made:
And eke his handes haue fashioned,
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And downe before him fall:
And let vs wepe before the Lord,
The which hath made vs all.

He is our God, our Lord, and King,
And we his people are,
His flock, and shepe of his pasture,
One whome he taketh care.

This day if ye doe heare his voyce,
Yet harden not your hart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of thier negligence,
Committed in the tyme
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A greate and greivous crime,
Wheras your fathers tempted me,
And tried me euery way:
They proued me and saw my workes,
What I could do or say.

These forty yeares I haue bene grieved,
With all this generation:
And euermore I sayd they erred,
In thier imagination.
Wherewith their hartes were soze cōbzred
Long tyme and many dayes:
Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not knownen my wayes.

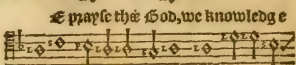

To whom I in myne anger swoze,
That they should not be blest:
Nor see my ioy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patri.

All laud and prayse be to thee Lord,
O that of might art most:
To God the Father, and the Sonne,
And to the holy Ghost,
As it in the beginning was,
For euer heretofore:
And is now at this present tyme,
And shall be euermore.

The song of Zacharias called Benedictus.

The onely Lord of Israell be praysed euermore. For thou hast his visitation, and mercy kept in store, his people now

he hath redeemed, that long hath bene

in thall: And spread abroad his sauing deatch, vpon his seruants all.

In Dauids house his seruaunt true,
 According to his mynd:
 And also his annoynd king,
 As we in scripture finde.
 As by his holy Iosophets al,
 Oft tymes he did declare:
 The which were since the world began,
 His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered,
 From those that make debate:
 Our enemies and from the handes,
 Of all that do vs hate.

The mercy which be promised,
 Our fathers to fulfill:
 And think vpon his couenannt made,
 According to his will.

And also to performe the othe,
 Which he before had sworne:
 To Abraham our father deate,
 For vs that were forlorne.

That he would geue himselfe for vs,
 And vs from bondage bring:
 Out of the handes of all our foes,
 To serue our heauenly king.

And that without all manner feare,
 And eke in righteounes:
 And also for to lead our litues,
 In stedfast holynes.

And thou (O child) which now art born,
 And of the Lord elect:
 Shalt be the Prophet of the highest,
 His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face,
 For to prepare his wayes:
 And also for to teach his will,
 And pleasure all thy dayes.

To geue them knowledge, how that Saluation is neare: (their,
 And that remission of theyr sinnes,
 Is through his mercy mere.

Wherby the day spring from an high,
 Is come vs for to visite:
 And those for to illuminate,
 Which do in darknes sit.

To lighten those that shadowed be,
 With death and eke opprest:
 And also for to guide their feete,
 The way to peace and rest.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all:
From this tyme forth for evermore,
Shall me right blessed call.
Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And prayed day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace,
All men be doth inflame:
Throughout all generations.
To such as feare his name.

He shewed strength with his great arme
And made the proud to start:
With all imaginations,
That they bare in their hart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones,
From their supernall seate:
And did exalt the meke in hart,
As he hath thought it meete.
The hungrye he replenished,
With all thinges that were good.
And though his power he made the rich,
Of tymes to want their soude.

And calling to remembrance,
His mercy every deale:
Hath holpen by assistantly,
His seruante Israell.

What man so euer he be, that sal-uation will attaine: The Catholick beliefe he must, before all thinges retayne Which sayth vnles he holy keepe and vnderstand: Without all doute eternally he shalbe sure to dye.

The Catholicke beliefe is this,
that God we worship one In Trinite, and Trinite in vnitie alone.
So as we neither doe confound,
the persons of the thre:
Nor yet the substance whole of one,
in sunder parted be.

One person of the father is,
an other of the sonne:
An other person proper of A.iii.

The Symbole or Creede of Athanasius

the holy Ghost alone.

Of father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is:
Lyke glory, coeternall eke
the maiesly lykewise.

Such as the father is, such is the Sonne in ech degre:
And such also we doe beleue,
the holy Ghost to be.
Increate is the father, and vncreate is the Sonne:
The holy Ghost vncreate, so vncreate is ech one.

Incomprehensible father is,
incomprehensible Sonne:
And comprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none.
The father is eternall and the Sonne eternall so:
And in lyke sort eternall is
the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleue that ech of these eternall be:
Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternalls thre.
As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet vncreate thre:
But one incomprehensible, one vncreate hold to be.

Almighty to the father is,
the Sonne almighty so,
And in in lyke sort almighty is,
the holy Ghost also.
And albeit that euery one,
of these almighty be:
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almightyes thre.

The father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not thre Gods in all,
but one God and no mo.
So lykewise Lord the father is,
and Lorde also the Sonne:
And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not thre Lordes but one.

For as we are compeld to graunt,
by Christian verityte: Ech of the persons by himselfe,
both God and Lord to be.
So Catholick Religion,
forbiddeth vs alway:
That eyther Gods be thre, or that there Lordes be thre to say.

Of none the father is ne made,
ne create, nor begot:
The Sonne is of the father not create ne made but got.
The holy ghost is of them both,
the father and the Sonne:
Ne made ne create nor begot,
but doth procede alone.

So we one father holde not thre
one Sonne also not thre:
One holy Ghost alone, and not thre holy Ghostes to be.
None in this Trinitie before,
nor after other is:
Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser be lykewise.

But euery one among themselves,
of all the persons thre:
Together coeternall all,
and all coequal be.
So vnityte, in Trinitie,
as sayd it is before:
And Trinitie in Vnityte,
in all thinges we adoe.

Therefore what man soeuer that,
saluation will attayne:
This fayth touching the Trinitie, of force he must retayne.
And nedfull to eternall lyfe,
it is that enery wight:
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord beleue aright.

For this the right fayth is, that we beleue and eke do know:
That Christ our Lord the sonne of God, is God and man also.
God of his fathers substance, got before the world began
And of his mothers substance borne in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Iesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soule,
and humayne flesh subst.
Touching his Godhead equall with his father God is he:
Touching his manhode, lower then his father in degre.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ all one,
and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead,
into the flesh of man:
But by taking manhode to God,
this being one began.

All one not by confounding of the substance into one:
But onely by the vnityte,
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule,
and fleshe but one man is:
So in one person God and man, is but one Christ lykewise.

Who suffered for to saue vs all,
to hell he did descend.
The third day rose agayne from death,
to heauen he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God,
the almighty father there.

 with bodies new reboide:
 And of their owne workes they shall geue account vnto the Lozd.
 And they into eternal lyfe,
 shall goe that haue done well:
 Who haue done ill shall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike beliefe, who doth not faythfully Belieue the same, without all doubt he faued can not be.

 all gloiy be therfoze:
 As in beginning was is now,

Now let those drops most swete,
So moist my hart so drye:

But boughsate me to kepe,
From those infernall foes:

Psalmes of Dauid in Meeter.

Beatus vir. Psalme i. T.S.

This psalme is set first as a preface to exhort all godly men to studie and meditate the heavenly wisdomes: for they be blessed that so doe: but the wicked contemners thereof at length shall come to miserie.

The man is blest that hath not been, to wicked rede his care: Noz led

His life as sinners doe, noz late in croz ners chayne .2. But in the law of God

the Lord, doth set his whole delight:

And in that law doth exercise him selfe

both day and night.

3 He shall be lyke the tree that groweth,
fast by the ryuers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasaunt fruite
in her due tyme and tyde.

4 Whose leafe shall neuer fade noz fall, but flourish still and stand:
Euen so all thynges shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

5 So shall not the ungodly men, shall be nothing so:

But as the dust which from the earth,
the winde dymies to and fro.

6 Therefore shall not the wicked men,
in iudgement stand byght:

Noz yet the sinners with the iust, shall come in place of sight.

7 For why? the way of Godly men,
vnto the Lord is knowne:

And eke the way of wicked men, shall quite be ouerthrowne.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. ij. T.S.

Dauid reioyseth that, albeit enemies, and woefully power rage, God will aduance his kingdom euen to the farthest end of the world, therefore he exhorteth his iusts humbly to submitte themselves vnder the same. Herein is signified Christ and his kingdome.

sing this as the r. psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise,
what rage was in their brayne?
Why did the Jewish people misse,
seeing all is but vaine.

2 The kings and rulers of the earth, conspire and are all bent:

Agaynst the Lord and Christ his sonne, which he amongst vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them say they,
let all their bondes be broke:

And of their doctrine and their law,
let vs select the yoke.

4 But he that in the heauen dwelleth, their doings will deride:

And make them all as mocking rocks, throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them upon a day:

And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,

6 I have annoynted him my king,
upon my holy hill:

7 Therefore Lord preach thy lawes, and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselte did say to me I wot:

Thou art my deare and onely Sonne, to day I the begot.

8 All people I will geue to the,
as hepes at thy request:

The endes and coastes of all the earth,
by the shall be possed.

9 Thou shalt them byrse euen with a mace
as men vnder footc rod:

And as the potters sherdes shall bryake,
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O kinges and rulers all,
be wise therfore and leand:

By whome the matters of the world,
be iudged and discerned.

11 Se that ye serue the Lord aboue,
in trembling and in feare:

Se that with reuerence ye reioyce to him in like maner.

12 Se that ye kisse and eke embrace,
his blessed sonne I say:

Least in his wrath ye fowently perish in the mid way.

13 If ouce his wrath neuer so small,
shall kinde in his brest:

Oh then all they that trust in Christ, shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid. Psal. iij. T.S.

David biten out of his kingdom by his sonne Absalon, was greatly troubled in minde, for his sin. Therefore he calleth vpon God and is bold in hys promises, agaynst the terrors both of enemies and present death. Then heretofore for the victory geuen to him and the Church, ouer their enemies.

O Lord how are my foes increas, which hate me moze and moze? They kill my hart when as they say, God can him not therfore. 2. But thou O Lord art my de-ferre, when I am hard bestead: My wor-shipp and myne honour both, and thou holdst by my head.

4 Then with my boyce vpon the Lord,
I did both call and cry:

And he out of his holy hill,
did heare me by and by.

5 I layd me downe and quietly,
I slept and rose agayne:

For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustayne.

6 If ten thousand had hemd me in,
I could not be astrayde:

For thou art still my Lord my God,
my sauour and myne ayde.

7 Rise vp therfore saue me my God,
for now to the I call:

For thou had broke the chækes and teth,
of these wicked men all.

8 Saluation onely doth belong, to the O Lord aboue:

Thou doest bestow vpon thy folke:
thy blessing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iij. T.S

David persecuted by Saule, calleth vpon God with assured trust, reioyeth his enemies for resting his dominion, and preferreth the fauour of God before all treasure.

Sing this as the first Psalme,

O God that art my righteousnes,
Lord heare me when I call:

Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thral.

2 Haue mercy Lord therfore on me,
and graunt me my request:

For vnto the incessantly,
to cry I will nor rest.

3 O moztall men how long will ye,
my glozy thus despise?

Why wander ye in banity,
and follow after lyes.

4 Know ye that good and godly men,
the Lord doth take and chuse:

And when to him I make my praynt,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sinne not but stand in awe therfore, examine well your hart:

And in your chamber quietly, see you your selues conuert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice, of righteousnes I say:

And looke that in the living Lord,
you put your trust alway.

7 The

7 The greater sort craue worldly goodes,
and riches doe embrace:

But Lord graunt vs thy countenance,
thy fauour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my hart, more ioyfull and more glad:

Then they that of their corne and wine,
full great increase haue had.

9 In peace therefore ly downe will I taking my rest and sleepe:

For thou onely wilt me (O Lord,) alone in safety keepe.

Verba mea auribus. Psal v. T.S

David persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel Saules flatterers, calleth vpon God to punish their malice,
Then assured of successe he conceitely comforte.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

Incline thine eares vnto my wordes,
O Lord my plaint consider

2 And heare my voyce my King my God, to the I make my prayer.

3 Heare me betymes, Lord tary not,
for I will haue respect:

My prayer early in the moone,
to the for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience,
in the my God alone:

That art not pleased with wickednes,
and ill with the dwelth none.

5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand,
these furious soles O Lord:

Wayne workers of iniquitye,
thou hast alwayes abhoyd.

6 The lyars and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them than:

And God shall hate the bloudthirsty,
and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thy house,
trusting vpon thy grace:

And reuerently will worship the,
toward thy holy place.

8 Lord leade me in thy righteousnes,
for to confound my foes:

And eke the way that I shall walke,
before my face disclose:

9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
their hart is foule and bayne:

Their thyroat an open sepulcher,
their tongues doe glasse and fayne.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought:

Subuert them in their heapes of sinne,
that haue rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in the,
let them be glad alwayes:

And render thanks for thy defence,
and geue thy name the prayse.

12 For thou with fauour wilt increase,
the iust and righteous still:

And with thy grace, as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vi. T.S.

David for his sins felt Gods hand, and conceived the horrour of cruelasting death. Therefore he believeth forgiuenes, and not to dye in Gods indignation.
Then suddenly feeling Gods mercy he rebuketh his enemies who reioysed at his affliction.

Sing this as the first Psalme.

Lord in thy wrath respone me not,
though I defense thine iute:

Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I the desire.

2 For I am weake therefore (O Lord,)
of mercy me forbeare:

And heare me lord for why thou knowest,
my bones doe quake for feare.

3 My soule is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:

But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my miserye?

4 Lord turne the to thy wanted grace,
my silly soule by take:

Oh saue me, not for my desertes,
but for thy mercyes sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead,
remembereth the one whitt:

Oh who shall worship the O Lord,
in the infernall pit?

6 So greuous is my playnt and mone,
that I waxe wondrous faine:

All the night long I wail my bed,
with teares of my complainnt.

7 My sight is dim, and waxeth olde,
with anguish of my hart:

For feare of those that be my foes,
and would my soule subuert.

8 But now away from me, all ye that worke iniquitye:

For why? the Lord hath heard the voyce,
of my complainnt and cry.

9 He heard not onely the request,
and prayer of my hart:

But it receaued at my handes,
and take it in god part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will sone defame:

And soderly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vii. T.S.

David falsely accused by Chus, Saules hitisman calleth God to be his defender. First, for that his conscience did not accuse him of any euill towards Saule. Next that it touched Gods glory to stande senseless against the wicked. And to vs Gods mercies and promises he waxeth bold, recheatinge that it shall fall on their neckes, that which his enemies purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O Lord my God I put my trust, and confidence in the:

Saue me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliuer me.

2 Least lyke a Lyon he me teare, and rent in peeces small.

B. iii.

White

- 4 Whilist there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thral.
- 3 O Lord my God if I haue done,
the thing that is not right:
Or els if I be found in fault,
Or guilty in thy sight.
- 4 Or to my friend rewarded euill,
or lest him in distresse:
Which me persude most cruelly,
and hated me causelesse.
- 5 Then let my foes pursue my soule, and che my life downe thus vnto the earth and also lay mine honor in the dust.
- 6 Start vp O Lord now in thy wrath.
and put my foes to payne:
Performe thy kingdome promised to me which wrong I sayne.
- 7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing:
If thou declare for loue of them,
thy selfe as Lord and King.
- 8 And thou that art of all men iudge,
O Lord now iudge thou me:
According to thy righteousness,
and mine integritie.
- 9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the iust mans guide:
- 10 By whome the secrets of all hartes, are searched and descryed
- 11 I take my helpe to come of God,
in all my griefe and smart:
That doth preserve all those that be,
of pure and perfect hart.
- 12 The iust man and the wicked both,
God iudgeth by his power:
So that he feeles his mighty hand,
euen euery day and houre.
- 13 Except he change his minde I dye,
for euen as he should smite:
He whets his sword his bow he bends, ayming where he may hit.
- 14 And doth prepare his mortall dartes,
his arrowes hene and tharpe:
For them that doe me persecute, whilist he doth mischiefe warpe.
- 15 But loe though he in trauell be,
of his deuellish forecast:
And of his mischiefe once conceaued, yet bringes forth nought at last.
- 16 He digs a ditch and delues it deepe,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit,
that he digd vp for other.
- 17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whome it bred:
And all the mischiefe that he wrought, shall fall vpon his head.
- 18 I will geue thanks to God therefore,
that iudgeth righteously:

And with my song will praise the name,
of him that is most hy.

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viii. T.S.

The Prophet, considering the excellent liberalities and fatherly providence of God towards man whom he made as it were a God ouer all his works geerly thanks, and is astonied with the admiration of the same.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

- O God our Lord how wonderfull, are thy workes euery where:
Whose fame surmountes in dignitie,
about the heauens cleare.
- 2 Euen by the mouthes of sucking babes,
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in these babes thy might is seene,
thy graces they disclose.
- 3 And when I see the heauens hie,
the workes of thine owne hand:
The Sun, the Moone, and all the Starres in order as they stand.
- 4 What thing is man Lord think I then,
that thou doest him remember:
Or what is mans posterity,
that thou doest it consider,
- 5 For thou hast made him little lesse,
then angels in degre:
And thou hast crowned him also,
with glory and dignitee.
- 6 Thou hast preferd him to be Lord,
of all thy workes of wonder:
And at his feete hast set all thinges,
that he should keepe them vnder.
- 7 As sheepe and neate and all beastes els,
that in the fieldes doe feede:
Foules of the ayre, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breede.
- 8 Therefore must I say once againe,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull, are thy workes through the world.
- Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

Dauid getting thanks for his manifold victories reueald, desirerth the same vnto helpe agayn agaynst his new enemies and their malicious arrogancie to be destroyed.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

- With hart, and mouth, vnto the Lord,
will I sing laud and praye:
And speake of all thy wondrous workes,
and them declare alwayes.
- 2 I will be glad and much reioyce,
in the O Lord most hie:
And make my songes extoll thy name,
about the starry skye.
- 3 For that my foes are driuen back,
and turned vnto flight:
They fall downe flat and are destroyed, by thy great force and might.
- Thou hast reuenged all my wrong,
my griefe and all my grudge:
4 Thou doest with iustice heare my cause,
most lyke a righteous iudge.

5 Thou

5 Thou doost rebuke the heathen folke, and wicked to confound:
That afterward the memoꝝ
of them can not be founde.
6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their townes destroyed:
Thou hast their fame with them defaced,
through all the world so wide.
7 Know thou that he which is aboue,
for euermoꝝ shall raygne:
And in the seat of equity,
true iudgement will maintayne.
8 With iustice he will keep and guyd
the world and euery wight:
And so will yeld with equity,
to euery man his right.
9 He is protector of the poore,
what tyme they be opprest:
He is in all aduersity,
their refuge and their rest.
10 All they that know thy holy name, therefoꝝ shall trust in the:
For thou forsakest not their sute,
in their necessity.

The second part,

11 Sing psalmes therfoꝝ vnto the Lord,
that dwels in Syon hill:
Publicly among all nations,
his noble actes and will.
12 For he is minfull of the bloud, of those that be opprest:
Forgetting not the afflicted hart,
that seekes to him foꝝ rest.
13 Haue mercy Lord on me poore wretch, whose enemies still remaine:
Which from the gates of death are wont,
to rayse me vp agayne.
14 In Syon that I might let forth, thy prayse with hart and voyce:
And that in thy saluation Lord,
my soule might still reioyce.
15 The heathen stick fast in the pit, that they themselues prepared:
And in the net that they did set,
theyr owne feet fast are snared.
16 God shewes his iudgements which foꝝ euery man to marke: were good When as you see the wicked man, lye trapt in his owne wakke.
17 The wicked and the sinfull men,
goe downe to hell foꝝ euer:
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget,
the poore mans grieue and payne:
The patient people neuer looke,
foꝝ helpe of God in vayne.
19 O Lord arise lest men preuaile, that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folke receaue,
their iudgement in thy sight.

20 Lord strike such ferroꝝ, feare and dread into the hartes of them:
That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.

The complaineth of all the wronges which worldly men vse, because of their pōstēritie who these foes without all feare of God thinke they may do all thinges vncōtrolled. He calleth foꝝ remedy agaynst such a is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

What is the cause that thou, O Lord,
art now so far from thine?
And hast thou close thy countenance,
from vs this troublous tyme.

2 The poore do perishe by the proud,
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft,
that they themselves conspire.

3 For in the lustes of his owne hart,
the vngodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked prayse himselfe, and doth the Lord despight.

4 He is so proud that right and wrong, he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God sayth he,
foꝝ thus he thinkes in hart.

5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blast doth puffe agaynst
such as would him correct.

6 Truly truch (sayth he) I haue no dread lest mine estate should chaunge:
And why? foꝝ all aduersity,
to him is very straunge.

7 His mouth is full of cursednes, of fraud, deceit and guyle:
Vnder his tongue doth mischiefc sit,
and trauell all the while.

8 He lyeth hid in wayes and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Agaynst the poore that passe him by,
his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a Lyon proudly,
lyeth lurking in his den:
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoyle poore simple men.

10 And foꝝ the nonce will craftely,
he croucheth downe I say:

11 So are great heapes of poore men made by his strong power his pray.

The second part,

2 Truly God forgetteth this (sayth he) therefoꝝ may I be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

3 Arise O Lord, O God in whom the poore mans hope doth rest:
Lift by thy hand forget not Lord,
the poore that be opprest.

- 14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhorre it?
To heare the wicked in their hartes,
say, truly thou carest not for it.
- 15 But thou seeest all this wickednes, and well dost thou vnderstand,
- 16 That friendles and pooze fatherles,
are left into thy hand.
- 17 Of wicked and malicious men,
then break the power for euer:
That they with their iniquity,
may perish all together.
- 18 The Lord shall reigne for euermore,
as king and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folke,
out of his land echone.
- 19 Thou hearest O Lord the pooze mans theyr prayer and request: (plaint Their hartes thou wilt confirme vntill thine eares to heare v: p: y: e
- 20 To iudge the pooze and fatherles, and helpe them to their right:
That they may be no more opprest, with men of worldly might.

In Domino confido, P sal. xi. T. S.

This psalme sheweth first what assautes of temptacion and anguily of mynde he sustayned in persecution. Next he reioyseth that god sent him succour in necessitie, declaring his iustice, as well in governing the good and wicked men, as the whol world.

Sing this as the third psalme.

- Trust in God how dare ye then,
say thus my soule vntill?
Fly hence as fast as any foule,
and hide you in your hill:
- 2 Behold the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrowes prest,
To shoot in secret and to hurt,
the sound and harmeles brest.
- 3 Of worldly hope all staves were broken, and clearely brought to nought:
Alas the iust and righteous man,
what euill hath he wrought.
- 4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most hye:
And in the heauens hath his seat,
of royall maiesty.

The pooze and simple mans estate,
considereth in his mynd:
And searcheth out full narrowly,
the manners of mankind.

5 And with a cherefull countenance,
the righteous man will vse:
But in his hart he doth abhorre
all such as mischiefe mule.

6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as any rayne:
Site and bymesone & whelwinds thicke,
appoynted for their payne.

- 7 Ye see then how a righteous God,
doth righteousnes embrace:
And to the iust and byright man, sheweth forth his pleasauit face.

Saluum me fac, P sal. xii. T. S.

The Prophet seeing the miserable decay of al good order, desireth God speedly to send reformation. Then comforted with the assurance of Gods help and promises, concludeth, that when all orders are most corrupted, then God will deliuer his.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

Help Lord for good and godly men,
doe perish and decay:
And sayth and truth from worldly men,
is parted cleane away.

- 2 Who so doth with his neighbor talke,
his talke is all but vayne:
For euery man berinketh how to flatter, lye, and sayne,
- 3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and to ragues that be so stout:
To speake proud words and make great the Lord soone cut them out: brags
- 5 For they say still we will preuaile,
our tongues shall vs extoll:
Our tongues are ours we ought to speake
what Lord shall vs controll.
- 5 But for the great complaynt and cry,
of pooze and men opprest Arise will I now sayth the Lord, and them restore to rest.
- 6 Gods word is like to stuer pure,
that from the earth is tryde:
And hath no les then seuen tymes,
in fire bene purified.
- 7 Now since thy promise is to helpe,
Lord kepe thy promise then:
And saue vs now and euermore,
from this ill kind of men.
- 8 For now the wicked world is full,
of mischiefes manifold:
When banquy with mortall men,
so highly is extoll.

Vsqequo Domine. psal xiii T. S.

Dauid as it were overcome with afflictions, seeth to GOD his onely refuge, and encouraged through Gods promises, he conceaureth confidence agaynst the extreme horrors of death.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

- How long wilt thou forget me Lord?
shall I neuer be remembered?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou were offended?
- 2 In hart and mind how long shall I,
with care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foes,
thus triumph ouer me?
- 3 Behold me now my Lord my God,
and heate me soze opprest:

Lighten

Lighten mine eyes least that I sleep,
as one by death posselt.

4 Least that mine enemy say to me,
behold I do preyale:

Least they also that hate my soule,
reioyce to see me quayle,

5 But for thy mercyes and goodnes,
my hope shall neuer starre

In thy reliefe and sauing health, right glad shall be my hart.

6 I will geue thanks vnto the Lord,
and payntes to hym sing:

Because he hath heard my request, and graunted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xiii. T.S.

The describeth the wickednes of men so grown to such licentiousnes that God was brought to be er contempt: for which, albeit hee was greatly grieved, yet perswaded that God would reioyce in he is comforted.

There is no God, as foolish men affirme in their mad moode : They diftes are all corrupt and bayne, not one of them doth good . . . The Lord beheld from heauen high, the whole race of mankinde: and saw not one that sought in deed, the liuing God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truely there was none:

That in the world doth any good,
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their iudgement so far lost, that all worke mischief fill?
Eating my people euen as bread,
nor one to seeke Gods will?

5 When they once rage, then soderly great feare on them shall fall:

For God doth loue the righteous men,
and will maintayne them all.

6 Ye mock the doyngs of the poore,
to their reproch and shame:

Because they put their trust in God,
and call vpon his name.

7 But who shall geue thy people health, and when wilt thou fulfill

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Syon hill.

8 Euen when thou shalt refoze agayne,
such as were captiues lab:

Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T.S.

There is described why God chose the Jewes his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them which was that they by liuing vnsightly, might winnes that they were his speciall & holy people.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

OLord with in thy Tabernacle, who shall inhabite it?

O? whom wilt thou reioyce to dwell,
in thy most holy hill?

2 The man whose life is vncorrupt, woole workes are iust and strait:
Whose hart doth thinke the very truth,
whose tongue speakes no deceit.

3 Not to his neighbor doth none ill,
in body, wordes or name:

Not willingly doth inue false tales,
which might empayre the same.

4 That in his hart regarabeth not,
malicious wicked men:
But those that loue and feare the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5 His oth and all his promises, that he kepeth faithfully:

Although he make his couenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to vsury,
his money and his coyne:

Ne for to hurt the innocent,
doth vayne or els purloyn,

7 Who so doth all things as you see,
that heare is to be done:

Shall neuer perishe in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvi. T.S.

David prayeth to God for succour, not for his works: but for his lawthes sake, protesting that he hath no alidolatre, raising God onely for his comfort and felicitie, who suffereth by to lacke nothing.

Sing this as the 14. psalme.

Lord keep me for I trust in thee,
and do confesse in deed:

Thou art my God. and of my good
O Lord thou hast no need.

2 I geue my goodnes to thy Sayntes, that in the world do dwell:

And namely to the faythfull flock,
in vertue that excell.

3 They shal heay forrowes on their heads which ran as they were mad:

To offer to the Lord Gods,

- alas it is to bad.
 4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
 and offeringes of that sort:
 I will not touch nor yet thereof,
 my lips shall make report.
 5 For why? the Lord the portion is,
 of mine inheritance:
 And thou art he that doest maintayne,
 my rent, my lot, my chance.
 6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
 in beauty did excell:
 Myne heritage assigned to me,
 did please me wondrous well.
 7 I thanke the Lord that caused me,
 to vnderstand the right:
 For by his meanes my secret thoughtes,
 doe teach me euery night.
 8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
 and trust him ouer all:
 For he doth stand on my right hand,
 therefore I shall not fall.
 9 Wherefore my hart and tongue also,
 doe both reioyce together:
 My flesh and body rest in hope,
 when I this thing consider.
 10 Thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue
 for Lord thou louest me:
 Nor yet wilt geue thy holy one,
 corruption for to see.
 11 But wilt teach me the way to lyfe,
 for all treasures and store,
 Of perfect ioy are in thy face,
 and power for euermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvii. T.S.

There be complayneth to god of the cruel pride and arrogantie of Saule, who ragged without any cause therefore he beseteth God to reuenge his innocens es and deliuer him.

Sing this as the 14 psalme.

- O Lord geue eare to my iust cause, attend when I complayne:
 And heare the prayer that I put forth, with lips that doe not fayne.
 2 And let the iudgement of my cause,
 procede alwayes from thee:
 And let thine eyes behold and cleare
 this my simplicitie.
 3 Thou hast well tryed me in the night,
 and yet couldest nothing finde:
 That I haue spoken with my tongue,
 that was not in my minde.
 4 As for the workes of wicked men,
 and pathes peruerse and ill:
 For loue of thy most holy word,
 I haue retrayned still.
 5 Then in thy pathes that be most pure,
 stay me Lord and preserue:
 That from the way wherein I walke,
 my steps may neuer swerne,

- 6 For I doe call to thee (O Lord)
 surely thou wilt me ayde:
 Then heare my prayer and way right well,
 the wordes that I haue sayd.
 7 O thou the Saviour of all them,
 that put their trust in thee:
 Declare thy strength on them that spurne,
 agaynst thy maiesty.
 8 O keepe me Lord as thou wouldest keepe
 the apple of thine eye:
 And vnder couert of thy winges, defend me secretly.

The second part,

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me
 and dayly me annoy:
 And from my foes that goe about,
 my soule for to destroy.
 10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth
 so full and eke so fat:
 That in their pride they doe not spare to speake they care not what.
 11 They ly in wayt where I should pas, with craft me to confound:
 And musing mischief in their mindes,
 to cast me to the ground.
 12 Much lyke a Lyon greedely, that would his pray embrace,
 Or lurking lyke a Lyons whelp, within some secret place.
 13 O Lord with hast preuent my foe
 and cast him at my fete:
 Saue thou my soul from the will man,
 and with the sword him smite.
 14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power,
 out of these Traunts hands:
 Which now so long time raigned haue,
 and kept vs in their bands.
 15 I mean, from worldly men, to whom all worldly gods are rise:
 That haue no hope or part of ioy,
 but in this present life.
 16 Thou of thy store their bellies filled with pleasures to their mind:
 Their children haue inough, and leaue to theirs the rest behind.
 17 But I shall with pure conscience, behold thy gracious face:
 So when I wake I shall be full,
 with thine image and grace.

Diligamte Domine. Psal. xviii. T.S.

David giueth thanks entering into his kingdome extolling the maruailous graces of God in his p seruation. herein is the Image of Christs king dome which shall conquer though Christ by the unspeakeable loue of God though al the world resist.

God my strength and fortitude.

of force I must loue thee: Thou art my castle and defence, in my necessitie.

2. My God, my roche, in whom I trust, the worker of my wealth: My refuge, buckler, & my shield, the hope of all my health.

3 When I sing laud vnto the Lord
most worthy to be serued:

Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preferred.

4 The panges of death did compas me and bound me euery where:
The flowing waues of wickednes,
did put me in great feare.

5 The fly and little snares of hell,
were round about me set:
And for my deatly there was prepard,
a deadly trappng net.

6 I thus beset with payne and grieft,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did heare my playnt,
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wyath,
he made the earth to quake:
Yea the foundation of the mount,
of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coales of hote consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from aboue,
and bowed the heauens hye:
And vnderneath his feete he cast,
the darlines of the flye.

10 On Cherubes and on Cherubins, full royally he rode.
And on the wings of all the windes,
came flying all abroade.

The second part.

11 And lyke a den most darke he made,
his den his secret place:
With waters black and aspy cloudes, enironed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face,
in brightnes shall appeare:
Then cloudes consume, and in their stead,
come hayles and coales of fire.

13 These fiery battes and thunderboltes, disperse them heare and there:
And with his often lightnings,
he puts them in great feare.

14 Lord at thy wyath and threateninges, and at thy chiding cheate:
The springes and the foundations, of all the world appeare.

15 And from aboue the Lord sent downe,
to fetch me from below:
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me ouerflow.

16 And me deliuered from my foes,
that would haue made me thall:
Yea from such foes as were to strong,
for me to deate withall.

17 They did vniuent me to oppres,
in tyme of my great grieft:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relieft.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
wheras I might be feft:
And kept me safe because he had,
a fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard:
And to the cleanes of my handes,
he gaue me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his pathes haue trod:
And haue not wauered wickedly, agaynst the Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But euermore I haue respect, to his law and decre:
His statutes and commaundementes,
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and cleane and incorrupt, appeared befoze his face:
And did refrayne from wickednes,
and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I haue done aright:
And to the clenness of my handes,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with him that holy is, wilt thou be holy to:
And with the god and bertuous men,
right weariouly wilt doe.

25 And to the louing and elect, thy loue thou wilt esteeme:
And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
as wicked men deserne.

26 For thou dost see the simple folke,
in trouble when they lye:
And dost bring downe the countenance,
of them that looke full hye.

- 27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall some full bright:
The Lord my God will make also,
my darknes to be light.
- 28 For by thine helpe an hoast of men, discomfort Lord I shall:
By the scale and overleape,
the strength of any wall.
- 29 Unspotted are the wayes of God,
his word is purely true:
He is a sure defence to such,
as in his faith abide.
- 30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:
O els who is omnipotent, saung our God alone?

The fourth part.

- 31 The God that giveth me with strength is he that I doe meane:
That all the wayes wherein I waske,
did euermore keepe cleane.
- 32 That made my fete lyke to the hartes,
in swiftnes of my pace:
And for my fancy brought me forth,
into an open place.
- 33 He did in order put my handes,
to battayle and to fight:
To breake in sunder battes of bras,
he gaue mine armes the might.
- 34 Thou reachest me thy saung health,
thy right hand is my tower:
Thy loue and familiaritye, doth still increase my power.

- 35 And vnder me thou makest playne,
the way where I should walke:
So that my fete shall neuer slip,
nor stumble at a balke.
- 36 And surely I pursue and take,
my foes that me annoyd:
And from the field doe not returne,
till they be all destroyd.

- 37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rise no more:
For at my fete they fall downe flat,
I styeke them all so sore.
- 38 For thou dost gide me with thy strength to warre in such a wise:
That they be all scattered abroad,
that vp agaynst me rise.
- 39 Lord thou hast put into my handes,
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my foes thou dost beuide,
in sunder with thy stroke.
- 40 They cald for helpe but none gaue care
nor holpe them with reliefe:
Yea to the Lord they cald for helpe, yet heard he not their grieue.

The third part.

- 41 And still lyke dust befoze the winds,
I giue them vnder fete:
And swaep them out lyke chaff clay,

- that sticketh in the strete.
- 42 Thou keepest me from seditious folke, that still in strife be led:
And thou dost of the heathen folke,
appoint me to be head.
- 43 A people strange to me vnknowen, and yet they shall me see:
And at the first obey my wordes,
whereas mine owne would serue.
- 44 I shall be ikehome to myne own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of theyr wayes,
and hide them out of sight.
- 45 But blessed be the liuing Lord,
most worthy of all prayse:
That is my rock and saung health, prayed be he alwayes.
- 46 For God it is that gaue me power, reuenged for to be:
And with his holy word subdued,
the people vnto me.
- 47 And from my foe me deliuered, and set me hiey then those That cruell, and vngodly were,
and by agaynst me rose.
- 48 And for this cause, O Lord, my God,
to the geue thankses I shall:
And sing out prayles to thy name,
among the Gentiles all.
- 49 That gauest great prosperity
vnto the king, I say To Dauid thine anoynted king, and to his seede for aye.

Cœli enarrant . Psal. xix. T.S.

The moutheth the saythfull to glorifie God by the workmanship, proportion, and ornaments of the heauens, and by the law, wherein God is reueled familiarly to his chosen people:

Sing this as the 14. psalme.

- The heauens and the firmament,
doe wondrously declare:
The glory of God omnipotent, his workes and what they are.
- 2 The wondrous workes of God appeare by euery dayes success: (run,
The nightes which lykewise their race
the selfe same thinges expies.
- 3 There is no language, tongue, nor speech where their found is not heard:
- 4 In all the earth and coastes thereof their knowledge is confest,
In them the Lord made for the Sunne,
a place of great renowne:
- 5 Who lyke a brydegrame ready trimde, doth from his chamber come.
- And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a price.
With ioy doth hast to take in hand, some noble enterpryse.
- 6 And all the sky from end to end, he compasseth about:

Nothing

Nothing can hide it from his heate;
but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his coneuant sure?
Conuerting foules, and making wise
the simple and obscure.

8 Just are the Lobes commandements, and glad both hart and mynde:
His preceptes pure and geueth light, to eyes that be full blinde.

9 The feare of God is excellent,
and doth indure for euer:
The iudgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous all together.

10 And moxe to be embast alway,
then fined gold I say:

The hony and the hony combe,
are not so swete as they.

11 By them thy seruauit is forwarnd, to haue God in regard:
And in performace of the same,
there shaibe great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth the errors of his life? (know Then cleanse my soule from secret finnes, which are in me most rife.

13 And hepe me that presumptuous prouaile not ouer me: (sinnes
And so shall I be innocent, and great offences fle.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my hart,
my wordes and thoughtes ecy one:
For my redemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Plal. xx. T.S.

The people pray to God, to heere their king, and reccauie his sacrifice, which he offered befoze he went to battell agaynst the Amonites, declaring that heathen put their trust in hoyses: but they trust only in his name. Wherefoze the other shall fall, but the king and his people shall stand.

Sing this as the 14. psalme.

In trouble and aduersitee,
the Lord God heare the still:
The mathepy of Jacobs God, defend the from all ill.

2 And send the from his holy place,
his helpe at euery noede.
And so in Sion stablish the,
and make the strong in dede.

3 Rememyng well the sacrifice, that now to him is done:
And so reccauie right thankfully,
thy burnt offi ngs ecy one.

4 According to thy hartes desire,
the Lord graunt vnto the:
And all thy counsell and deuise,
full well performe may be.

5 We shall reioyse when thou vs laucest,
and our baners display:
Vnto the Lord which thy requestes, fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his annoyndd lauce, will

I know well by his grace:
And send him helth by his right hand,
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence and some in hoyses trust:
But we remember God our Lord,
that kepeth promise iust

8 They fall downe flat but we do rise, and stand by steadfastly:
Now saue and help vs Lord and king,
on the when we do cry.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxi. T.S.

David in the perils of the people prayeth God for the victory geuen them agaynst the Syrians & Am monites. 1. Sam. xxi. Wherein he was crowned with the crowne of the king of Ammon. 11. Sam. xii. and indued with the manifold blessings of God.

Lord, how ioyfull is the kyng,

in thy strength, and thy power: How behemently doth he reioyce, in thee

hys Sauer? For thou hast geuen vnto him his goodly hartes desire: to him nothing hast thou denide, of that he did require.

3 Thou didst preuent him with thy giftes and blessings manifolde:
And thou hast set vpon his head,
a crowne of perfect golde.

4 And when he asked life of the:
therof thou madst him sure:
To haue long life, yea such a life,
as euer should indure.

5 Great is his glozy by thy help,
thy benefite and ayd:
Great worship and great honoz both,
thou hast vpon him layd.

6 Thou wilt geue him felicity,
that neuer shall decay,
And with thy cherfull countenance,
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the kyng doth strongly trust in God for to prouaile:
Therefore his goodnes and his grace,
will

will not that he shall quale.
 8 But let thine enemies seele thy force, and those that the withstand:
 find out thy foes and let them seele,
 the power of thy right hand.
 9 And like an ouen burne them Lord,
 in fiery flame and fume:
 Thine anger shall destroy them all,
 and fire shall them consume.
 10 And thou wilt rote out of the earth,
 they: fruite that should encrease:
 And from the number of thy stocke,
 they: seede shall ende and craze:

11 For why? much mischief did they agaynst thy holy name: (muse)
 Yet did they faile and had no power, for to performe the same.
 12 But as a make thou shalt them set,
 in a most open place:
 And charge thy bowstrings redely,
 agaynst thine enemies face.
 13 Wc thou exalted Lord therfore,
 in thy strength every haure:
 So shall we sing right solemnly, praying thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. xxii. T.S.

¶ Dauid complaineth of his desperate extremities and declarerth wherof he recouereth hymself, from captiuitie. Under his person is figured Christ.

Sing this as the 21. psalme.

O God my God wherfore dost thou,
 for sake me hearely:
 And helpst not when I do make,
 my great complaint and cry?
 2 To the my God euen all day long,
 I do both cry and call:
 I cease not all the night and yet,
 thou hearest not at all.
 3 Euen thou that in the sanctuary,
 and holy place dost dwell:
 Thou art the comfort and the toy,
 and glory of Irael.
 4 And he in whome our fathers old,
 had all they: hope for euer:
 And when they put they: trust in the,
 so didst thou them deliuer.
 5 They were delinced ~~and~~ when,
 they called one thy name:
 And for the sayth they had in the,
 they were not put to shame.
 6 But I am now become a worme, moze like then any man:
 An outcast whome the people scozne,
 with all the spight they can.
 7 And me despise as they behold,
 me walking on the way:
 They grin, they now they nod they:
 and in this wise they say.

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
 his fauour and his loue:
 Let him redeme me and helpe him now,
 his wor: if he will pious.
 9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe,
 I cam by thy request:
 Thou didst preferue me still in hope,
 while I did sucke her brest:
 10 I was committed from my birth,
 with the to haue abode:
 Since I was in my mothers wombe, thou hast ben euer my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
 in this my present grief:
 Since I haue none to be my helpe,
 my scooz and reliefe.
 12 So many Bulles do compas me,
 that be full strong of head:
 Ye Bulles so fat as though they had,
 in Bagan field ben fed.
 13 They gape vpon me greedely, as though they would me day:
 Much like a Lyon roaring out,
 and ramping for his pray.
 14 But I drop downe like water shed,
 my toyntes in sunder breake:
 My hart doth in my body melt,
 like waxe agaynst the heate.
 15 And like a potherd dieth my strength
 my tongue it cleaueth fast:
 Vnto my iawes, and I am brought,
 to dust of death at last.
 16 And many doges do compass me,
 and wicked counsell eke:
 Conspire agaynst me cursedly
 they pearce my hands and sete.
 17 I was toymented so that I, mighball my bones haue told:
 Yet still vpon me they do looke,
 and still they me behold.
 18 My garments they deuided eke,
 in partes among them all:
 And for my coate they did cast lots,
 to whom it might befall.
 19 Therfore I pray the be not farre, from me at my great need But rather sith thou art my strength, to helpe me Lord make spæd.
 20 And see the sword Lord saue my soule,
 by thy might and thy power:
 And keep my soule thy dearling daete,
 from doge that would deuour.
 21 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sunder thuer:
 And from the hornes of Wntcoynes,
 Lord safely me deliuer.
 22 And I shall to my brethern all,
 thy maiesty recorde:
 And in thy Church shall prayle the name,
 of the the liuing Lord.

Psalme xxii. xxiii.

The third part.

23 All ye that feare him praye the Lord,
thou Jacob benoz him:
And all the seed of Israell,
with reuerence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not away:
His countenance when they do call,
but graunted to they cry.

25 Among the flock that feare the Lord,
I will therefore proclaime:
Thy praye and keep thy promise made,
for setting forth thy name, 26 The poore shall eate and be sufficed, and those that do they deuce:
To know the Lord shall praye his name,
their hartes shall lue for euer.

27 All coastes of earth shall praise the Lord and turne to him for grace:
The heathen folke shall worship him,
before his blessed face.

28 The kingdom of the heathen folke,
the Lord shall haue therfore:
And he shall be their gouernour,
and king for euermore,

29 The rich man of his godly giftes, shall feed and tast also:
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall goe downe to dust,
of life by him must tast:
His seed shall serue and praye the Lord,
while any world shall last.

31 His seed shall playntly shew to them, that shall be bozne hereafter:
His iustice and his righteousnes,
and all his workes of wonder.

Dominnus regit. Psal. xxiii. W. W.

David hauing tried gods manifold inueries diuers times gathereth the assurance that God wil continue his goodnes for euer.

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

The Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thyng, whereof I stand in need.

2 He doth ricke fold in costes most safe,
the tender gras fast by:
And after druce me to the streames, which run most pleasauntly.

3 And when I sele my selfe nere lost, then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in his right pathes, euen for his owne names sake.

4 And though I were euen at deathes doze
yet would I feare none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherdes crook,
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my Table richly deckt,
in despyght of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balme restred,
my cup doth ouerflow.

6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I,
my life for euer spend.

An other of the same by Thomas Sternhold.

Sing this as the 21 psalme.

My shepherd is the liuing Lord,
nothing therfore I need:
In pastures fayre with waters calme,
he set me for to feede.

2 He did conuert and glad my soule,
and brought my mind in frame:
To walke in pathes of righteousnes,
for his most holy name.

3 Yea though I walke in bale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod, thy staffe, doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke annoynt my head.

5 Though all my life thy fauour is,
so frankly shewed to me:
That in thy house for euermore,
my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiii. I. H.

The grace of God being now vntred in the temple, more glorious then before in the Tabernacle, Was his exclamation seteth forth the honor wher-of mouing the consideration of the eternal manisons prepared in heauen, wherof this was a figure.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

The earth is all the Lordes withall,
her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world and all,
that therein do endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it,
aboue the sea to stand:
And layd a low the liquid floudes,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he (O Lord) that shall, ascend into the hill?
Or pas into the holy place,
there to continue still.

4 Whose handes are hartmeles and whose no spot there doth defile: (hart,
His soule not set on vanity,
who hath not sworne no guyle.

5 Him that is such a one the Lord, shall place in busfull plight:
And God his God and sauitour, shall yeld to hym his right.

6 This is the byrd of trauellers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the J sineute,
in that tyme of his race.

7 Ye do:inces open your gates, stand open,
the euertasting gate:
For there shall enter in therby,

the

- the king of glorious state?
 What is the king of glorious state,
 the strong and mighty Lord:
 The mighty Lord in battayle stout,
 and tryall of the sword.
- Ye Princes open your gates, stand open the euerlasting gate:
 For there shall enter in thereby,
 the king of glorious state.
- What is the king of glorious state,
 the Lord of hostes it is:
 The kingdome and the royalty of glorious state is his.

Ad te Domine. Psalxxv. T.S.

David greued at his finnes, & malicious enemies most feriently prayed for forgiveness especially of such as he committed in youth.

Lyft myne hart to thee my God and guide most iust: Now suffer me to take no shame, for in thee do I trust.

Let not my foes reioyce, nor make a scoyne of me: & let them not be ouer:

thrownd that put their trust in thee.

- But shame shall them befall, which haue them wrongfully:
 Therefore thy pathes and thy right wayes,
 vnto me Lord bescey.
- Direct me in thy truth,
 and teach me I the pray:
 Thou art my God and Saviour, on the I waight alway.
- Thy mercyes manifold,
 I pray the Lord remember:
 And eke thy pittye plentifull,
 for they haue bene for euer.
- Remember not the faultes,
 and frailtye of my youth:
 Remember not how ignoraunt,
 I haue bene of thy truth.
- Now after my desertes,
 let me thy mercy kinde:
 But of thine owne benignitye,
 Lord haue me in thy minde.
- His mercy is full swete,
 his truth a perfect guide:

Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
 and such as goe aside.

- The humble he will teach,
 his preceptes for to keepe:
 He will direct in all his wayes,
 the lowly and the meke.
- For all the wayes of God,
 are truth and mercy both:
 To them that keepe his Testament,
 the witness of his troth.
- The second part.
- Now for thy holy name,
 O Lord I the intreate:
 To graunt me pardon for my sinne,
 for it is wondrous great.
- Who so doth feare the Lord,
 the Lord doth him direct:
 To leade his lyfe in such a way,
 as he doth best accept.

His soule shall euermore,
 in godnes dwell and stand:
 His seede and his posteritye, inherite shall the land.

All those that feare the Lord,
 know his secret intent:
 And vnto them he doth declare,
 his will and testament.

Close eyes and eke my hart,
 to him I will aduance:
 That pluckt my fetter out of the snare
 of sinne and ignoraunce.

With mercy me behold,
 to the I make my moone:
 For I am poore and desolate, and comfortles alone.

The troubles of my hart,
 ate multiplyed in dede:
 Bring me out of this miserye, necessitye and neede.

Behold my pouertye,
 mine anguish and my payne:
 Remit my sinne and mine offence,
 and make me cleane agayne.

O Lord behold my foes,
 how they doe still increase:
 Pursuing me with deadly hate,
 that sayne would lyue in peace.

Defectue and heape my soule,
 and eke distress me:
 And let me not be ouerthrowen, because I trust in the.

Let my simple purenes,
 me from mine enemies shend:
 Because I loke as one of thine,
 that thou shouldst defend.

Deliver Lord my soule,
 and send them some reliefe:
 I meane thy chosen Israell,
 from all their payne and griefe.

Indica me Domine. Psal. xxvi. T.S.

David in iusticiis oppressed, and helpeles, yet assured of his integritie in Saule, calleth God to be and him causeles afflicted. The vs desirith to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregation of God, when he was banished by Saul, praying goodly life, open prayer, thanksgiving, and sacrifice for his deliverance.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

Lord be my iudge, and thou shalt see my pathes be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he will strengthen me to remain.
2 Proue me my God I the desire, my wayes to search and try:
As men do proue their god with fire my raynes and hart espy.

3 Thy goodnes layd before my face, I trust behold alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace and will doe all my dayes.
4 I doe not lust to haunt or vse, with men whose deedes are bayn:
To come in house I doe refuse, with the deceitfull trap.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort, their deedes I doe despise:
I do not once to them resort, that hurtfull things deuise.
6 My handes I wash and doe proceed, in workes that walke by right:
Then to thine altar I make speed, to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise, that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes, thou hast ben good to me.
8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare, to me it doth excell:
I haue delight and would be neare, whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 Oh shut not by my soul with them in sinne that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men, that seek much blood to spill.
10 Whose handes are heapt with craft and their life the roe is full: (guil,
And their right hand with wrenche & wile, for bythes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousnes intend, my time and dayes to serue, Haue mercy Lord and me defend, so that I doe not swerne.
12 My foot is stayd for all assayes, it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God wil I geue prayse, in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illumin. psal xxvij. I.H.

David deliuered from great perils, geueth thanks wherein we see his constant sayth against the assaults of all enemies, and the end why he desireth to liue and to be deliuered. Then he exhorteth to sayth and to attend vpon the Lords.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

The Lord is both my help and light, shall man make me dismayd?
Sith God doth geue me strength & might, why should I be afraid?

2 While that my foes w all their strength began with me to braull:
And think to eate me by, at length, themselves haue caught the fall.

3 Though they in campe agaynst me lye, my hart is not afraid:
In battail fight if they will try, I trust in God for ayd.
4 One thing of God I doe require, that he wil not deny:
For which I pray and wil desire, til he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place, my life throughout may dwell:
To see the beuty of his face, and bew his temple well.
6 In time of dread be thal me hide, within his place most pure:
And keepe me secret by his side, as on a rock most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace shal make me strong and stout:
My foes to foyle, and clean deface, that compass me about.
8 Therefore within his house wil I geue sacrifice of prayse:
With psalmes and songes I wil apply, to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

9 Lord heare the voyce of my request, for which to thee I call:
Haue mercy Lord on me oppress, and send me help withal.
10 My hart doth knowledge bnto thee, I sue to haue thy grace:
Then seeke thy face, sayst thou to me, Lord I wil seeke thy face.

11 In wrath turne not thy selfe away, nor suffer me to abide:
Thou art my help stil to this day, be stil my God and guide.
12 My parents both their soune forsook, and cast me out at large:
And then the Lord himselfe yet toke, of me the cure and charge.

13 Teach me O God the way to thee, and lead me on forthright:
For feare of such as watch for me, to tray me if they might.
14 Doe not betake me to the will, of them that be my foes:
For they surmise agaynst me stil, false witness to depose.

15 My hart would faint but that in me this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shal it see, in life that aye shal last.
16 Trust stil in God whose whol thou art, his wil abide thou must:
And he shal ease and strengthen thy hart, if thou in him doe trust.

Ad te Domine psalme xxvij. T.S.
Being in feare and penitency to see God disc and sed by wicked men, he crieth for vengeance against them, being assured that God hath heard him he commended all the faithfull to his tuition.

Sing this as the 27. psalme.

Thou art O Lord my strength and stay
the succor which I crave:

Neglect me not least I be like to them that goe to graue.

2 The voyce of thy supplicant heare,
that vnto the doth cry:

When I lift vp my hands vnto thy holy arke most hye.

3 Repute me not among the fozt,
of wicked and peruer:

That speak right fayre vnto their frends,
and think ful ill in hart.

4 According to their haue worke
as they deserue in da d:

And after their intentions,
let them receaue their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law, ne yet his loze:

Therefore will he them and their sed destroy for euer more.

6 To render thanks vnto the Lord,
how great a cause haue I:

My voyce, my prayer, and my complaint,
that heard so willingly.

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse,

My hope, my health, my harts relief,
my song shall him confesse.

8 He is our strength, and our defence
our enemyes to resist:

The health, and the saluation of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord, blese, guyd, and preserue:

Increase them Lord, and rule their hartes,
that they may neuer swaue.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T. S.

David exhorteth Moyses (who for the most part thinke there is no God) at the leaill to feare him for the thunders and tempestes, for feare whercof all creatures tremble. And albeit it thyreateth sinners yet it moueth hys to prayse hys name.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

Give to the Lord ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world:

Seue ye al prayse, honor, and strength,
vnto the liuing Lord.

2 Seue glory to his holy name,
and honor him alone:

Worship him in his manekie within his holy thron.

3 His voyce doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please:

He doth prepare the thunderclaps,
and governs all the seas.

4 The voyce of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:

It is most mighty in effect,
and much magnificent.

5 The voyce of God doth rent and breas

the Cedar trees so long:

The Cedar trees of Libanus, which are most hye and strong.

6 And makes them leap like as a Calfe, or els the Unicorn:

Not only trees, but mountaynes great,
wheron the trees are boine.

7 His voyce deuides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:

8 It makes the desert quake for feare, that called is Cedus,

9 It makes the Hindes for feare to calue and makes the coney playn:

Then in his temple euery man,
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord was set aboue the floods, ruling the raging sea:

So shal he reign as Lord and king for euer and for aye.

11 The Lord wil geue his people power,
in vertue to increase:

The Lord wil blese his chosen folke, with euerlasting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Psal. xxx. I. H.

When David should dedicate his house to the Lord he fell extreme sicke, without all hope of life, and therefore after recoverie, he thanketh God, exhorting others to do the like, and to learne by hys that God is rather mercifull then severe towards hys, alio that aduersity is foeten. Then he prayeth and promisseth to prayse God for euer.

A

In memory of his maicesty, reioyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last, and flake agayn:
But in his fauor, and his grace,
alwayes both life remain.

Though gripes of grief & panges full foze
shal lodge with vs all night:
The Lord to foze shal vs refoze,
before the day be light.

6 When I enioy the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:
Truly I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shal not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace, hadst sent me strength and ayd:
But when thou turnest away thy face,
my mind was foze dismayd.

8 Wherefoze agayn yet did I cry, to thee O Lord of might:
My God with playntes I did apply, and prayd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my bloud sayd I,
if death destroy my dayes?
Shal I not declare thy maicesty, or yet thy truth doth prayle.

10 Wherefoze my God some pity take
O Lord I the desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.

11 Then dost thou turn my grief and woe
vnto a cherfull boyce:
The mourning weed thou tokest me fro,
and madest me to reioyce.

Wherefoze my soul vncessantly,
shal sing vnto thy prayle:

My Lord, my God, to thee wil I geue laud and thanks alwayes.

In te Domine speraui. Psal. xxxi. I. H.

David deliuered from great danger betwex first what meditation hee had by the power of feyth, when death was before his eyes, and how the fa-uour of God alwayes is ready to those that feare him. He exhorteth the faythfull to trust in God, because hee pascieth them.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O God I put my trust in thee,
let nothing worke me shame:
As thou art iust deliuer me,
and let me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord, and that anone, to helpe me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why? as stones thy strength is true thou art my fort and tower:

For thy names sake be thou my guid,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Luck forth my fet out of the snare, which they for me haue layd:
Thou art my strength, and all my care is for thy mighte and ayd.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit,
my spirit which is thy due:

For why? thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folke as wil not part,
from things to be abhoyd:
When they on tristes set their hart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy ioy,
I see it doth excel:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soul full wel.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me ouercharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grief O Lord doth me assayl some pittie on me take:

Myne eyes war dim, my might doth fayl,
my womb for woe doth ake.

10 My life is worn with grief and payn
my yeares in woe are past:

My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and wast.

11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd:

My neighbors and my kinsmen boyn to see me are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:

As smal effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my mind did fray:
How they conspird and went about,
to take my life away.

14 But Lord I trust in thee for ayd,
not to be ouertrod:

For I confes and still haue sayd thou art my Lord my God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand:

Defend me from the watches and rage,
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy seruant Lord express, and shew thy ioyfull face:

And saue me Lord for thy godnes, thy mercy, and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:

But let the wicked beare the shame and in the graue to fall.

18 Oh how great good hast thou in store,
layd by full safe for them:

That fear and trust in thee therfoze,
before the sonnes of men.

19 Thy presence shal them fence & gurd,
from all proud brags and wrongs:

Within thy place thou shalt them hide,
from all the stiffe of tongues.

20 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd, on me his grace so far:

As to defend with watch and ward,
as in a cotten of war.

21 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest:
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
22 Ye Sayntes loue ye the Lord I say,
the sayntfull be doth guyde:
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pyde.

23 Be strong and God shall stay you be bold and haue a list: (hart,
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye on him trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxii. T. S.

David punished with greivous sickness, for his sins counteth them happy to whom God doth not im-pute their transgressions. And after that he had refused his finnes, and obtained pardon, he exhor-teth the wicked men to lue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30 Psalme.

The man is blest, whose wickednes
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sin and wretchednes,
is hid and also covered.

2 And blest is he, to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sin:
Which in his hart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sin,
in silence and constrain:
My bones do were and wast away with dayly mone and playnt.

4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so greivous was and smart:
That all my bloud and humors moyst,
to dimes did conuert.

5 I did therfore confesse my fault,
and all my finnes discover:
Then thou O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my finnes passe ouer.

6 The humble man shall pray therfore,
and seeke thee in due tyme:
So that the floods of waters great,
shall haue no power on hym.

7 When trouble and aduerſitie, doe compas me about:
Thou art my refuge and my toy,
and thou doest tid me out.

8 Come hether and I shall thee teach,
how thou shalt walke aright:
And will thee guyde as I my selfe, haue learned by prooffe of sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the Oxle and Assle:
Whose mouth without a rayne or bit,
from harme thou canst not rule.

10 The wicked man shall manifold, sorowes and grief sustayne:
But vnto him that trusteth in God,
hys goodness shall remaine.

11 Be mery therfore in the Lord,
ye iust list by your voyce:

And ye of pure and perfect hart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiiij. I. H.

The exhorteth good men to prayse god for creating and generating all things, for his sayntfull promises, for scattering the council of the wicked, teaching that no creature preferrieth any mā, but ones by hys mercy.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight:

That bright men with thankfull voyce, shold prayse the God of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe and song,
in Psalmes and pleasaunt things:
With Lute and instrument among,
that soundeth on ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage gowd hym prayse:

4 For why his word is euer true,
hys works and al his wayes.

5 To iudgement equite and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with hys giftes he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone,
the heauens all are wrought:
Their hostes and powers every chone, hys breath to passe hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he,
on heapes within the thore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in an house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
feare God and keepe hys law:
Ye that inhabite in eche coast,
dread hym and stand in awe.

9 What he commaunded wrought it was,
at once with present speede:
What he doth will is brought to pas,
with full effect in deede.

10 The counsels of the nations ride,
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude,
of their deuise and thought.

11 But hys decrees continue still,
they neuer slack nor swage:

12 The motions of hys mynde and will, take place in euery age.

The second part.

13 And blest are they to whome the Lord,
as god and guyde is knowne:
Whome he doth chuse of mere accord,
to take them as his own.

14 The Lord from heauen cast hys sight,
on men mortall by birth:
Considering from hys seate of might,
the dwellers of the earth.

15 The Lord I say whose hand hath mans hart and doth it frame (wrought for he alone doth know the thought, and working of the same.

16 A kyng that trusteth in hys host, shall shall nought praye at length:

The man that of hys might doth boast,
shall fail for all hys strength.

17 The troups of horsemen eke shall faile, their sturdy steeds shall serue:
The strength of horse shall not praye,
the ryder to preferue.

18 But loe the eyes of God intend,
and watch to ayde the iust:
With such as feare hym to offend,
and on hys goodnes trust.

19 That he of death and all distresse, may set their soules from deade:
And if that deatch the land oppresse,
in hunger them to feede.

20 Wherefore our soule doth still depend,
on God our strength and stay.
He is our shield vs to defend,
and dyue all darter away.

21 Our soule in God hath ioy and game, retoyng in hys might:
For why? in hys most holy name,
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodnes O Lord, all present with vs be:
As we alwayes with one accord,
doe onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Domi. Psal. xxxiiii. T.S.

David having escaped Achis (1. Sam. 22) prayeth God for his deliuerance geuing other example to trust in God, to feare and serue him, who defendeth the godly with his angels, & utterly destroyeth the wicked in their finnes.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

I Will geue laud and honor both,
vnto the Lord alwayes:
And eke my mouth for enemie,
shall speake vnto his praye.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord,
in soule and eke in voyce:
That humble men, and mortified,
may heare, and so reioyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnify, with me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalt his name,
together with one accord.

4 For I my selfe be fought the Lord,
he answered me agayne:
And me deliuered incontinent,
from all my feare and payne.

5 Who so they be that hym behold, shall see hys light most cleare:
Their countenance shall not be dait,
they neede it not to feare.

6 This sely wretch for some reliefe, vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rad hym out of thall.

7 The Angell of the Lord both pith, hys tentes in euery place:
To saue all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Talk and consider well therefore,
that God is god and iust:
O happy man that maketh hym,
his onely stay and trust.

9 Feare ye the Lord hys holy ones,
about all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord,
are sure to lacke nothing.

10 The Lyons shall be hungerbit, and pinde with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord,
no lacke shall be to such.

The second part.

21 Come neare therefore my childien deere,
and to my wordes geue eare:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how you the Lord should feare.

22 Who is that man that would liue long,
and lead a blessed lyfe?
See thou restayne thy tounge and lips,
from all deceite and strife.

23 Turne backe thy face from: doying ill,
and do the Goddy deede:
Inquire for peace and quietnes,
and follow it with speede.

24 For why? the eyes of God aboue, vpon the iust are bent:
Hys eares likewise to heare the playnt,
of the poore innocent.

25 But he doth frown & bend his browes,
vpon the wicked trayne:
And cuts away the inemoy,
that should of them remayne.

26 But when the iust doth call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of payne and misery,
soforth he lets them goe.

27 The Lord is kinde & straight at hand, to such as be contrite.
He saues also the soxrowfull,
the meeke and poore in spite.

28 Full many be the miseries, that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all aduersities,
the Lord will them deliuer.

29 The Lord doth so preserue and kepe his very bones alway:
That not so much as one of them,
doth perishe or decay.

30 The sinne shall slay the wicked man,
which he him selfe hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soone be brought to naught.

31 But they that serue the liuing Lord,
the Lord doth saue them sound:
And who that put their trust in hym,
nothing shall them confound.

Indica Domine. Psal. xxxv. I.H.

Sauls barterers persecute David who prayeth for reuenge, that his innocencie may be declared and that such as take his part may reioyce, for which he promisyth to magnify Gods name all the dayes of his life.

Sing this as the humble sute of a sinner.

C. iij. Lord

Lord plead my cause agaynst my foes confound their force and might:
 Fight on my part agaynst all those,
 that seek with me to fight.
 2 Lay hand vpon thy speare and shield.
 thy selke in armes tries:
 Stand by for me and fight the field,
 to helpe me from distresse.

3 Sit on thy sword and stop the way,
 myne enemies to withstand:
 That thou vnto my soule may say,
 loe I thy help at hand.
 3 Confound the with rebuke and blame,
 that seeke my soule to spill:
 Let them turne back and flye with shame,
 that think to worke me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flye abroad,
 as wynde doth bryne the dust:
 And that the Angell of our God,
 their might away may thrust.
 6 Let all their wayes be boyd of light, and slippery lyke to fall:
 And send thyn Angell with thy might to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they haue,
 in secret set their grin:
 And for no cause haue digde a caue,
 to take my soule therein.

8 When they thinke least and haue no
 (O Lord) destroy them all: (cate, Let them be trap in their own snare,
 and in their mischiefe fall.

9 And let my soule, my hart and voyce,
 in God haue ioy and wealth:
 That in the Lord I may reioyce,
 and in hys sauing health.

10 And then my bones shall speake and my partes shall all agree. (say, O Lord though they do seeme full gay,
 what man is lyke to thee.

The second part.

11 Thou dost besid the weake from them that are both stout and strong:
 And rid the poore from wicked men,
 that spoyle and do them wrong.

12 My cruell foes agaynst me ryse,
 to witness thynges vntuic:
 And to accuse me they deuis,
 of that I neuer knew.

13 Where I to them did owe good will,
 they quyte me with dysdayne:
 That they should pay my good with ill,
 my soule doth soxe complainne:

14 When they were sick I mourned there:
 and clad my selfe in sacke: (soxe,
 With fasting I did saynt full soxe,
 to pray I was not slacke.

15 As they had bene my b:ethren deare,
 I did my selfe behaue:
 As one that maketh wofull cheare,
 about hys mothers graue.

16 But they at my discafe did ioy,

and gather on a rout:
 Yea ablect stales at me did toy,
 with moches and chekes full stou.

The belly Gods and flattering trayne,
 that all good thynges deride:
 At me do grin with great dysdayne,
 and pluck their mouthes aside.
 18 Lord when wilt thou amed this geare,
 why dost thou stay and pause?
 O rid my soule myne onely deare,
 out of these Lyons clawes.

19 And then will I geue thanks to the,
 before thy Church alwayes:
 And where as most of people be,
 there will I shew thy payfe.

20 Let not my foes prayeale on me,
 which hate me for no fault:
 No: yet to wincke or turne their eye,
 that causelesse me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they thinke or say,
 their talke is all vntuic:
 They still consult and would betray,
 all those that peace ensue:

22 With open mouth they runne at me,
 they gape, they laugh, they sneere:
 Well, well say they, our eye doth see,
 the thyng that we desire.

23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they cease not this geare to mend: (take,
 Be not farr of no: me forsake,
 as men that fayle their frend.

24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad, defend me in my right.
 Reuenge my cause my Lord my God,
 and ayde me with thy might.

25 Accordyng to thy rightousnes,
 my Lord God set me free:
 And let not them their pride expresse,
 nor triumph ouer me.

26 Let not their hartes reioyce and cry
 there, there, this geare goeth trim:
 No: geue them cause to say on hye,
 we haue our will on hym.

27 Confound the with rebuke and shame,
 that ioy when I do mourne:
 And pay them home with sute and blame,
 that brag at me with scoorne.

28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce, which loue myne vpright way:
 And they all tymes with hart and voyce, shall prayfe the Lord and say.

29 Great is the Lord and doth excell, for why? he doth delight.

To see his seruantes prosper well,
 that is his pleasant sight.

29 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy rightousnes to prayfe: Vnto the Lord my God will I sing laud and thankes alwayes.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvi. I. H.

David besey by the wicked, complaineth of thier malice

malice, but considering gods great mercy to sinners specially toward his children by faith thereof he is comforted and assured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

The wicked with his workes vnjust,
doth thus perfwade his hart:
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his feare is far apart.
2 Yet doth he toy in his estate to walke as he began:
So long til he deserue the hate,
of God, and eke of man.
3 His words are wicked vile and nought his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught,
which way he may do well.
4 When he should sleep then doth he muse,
his mischeries to fulfil:
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
no; nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodnes doth ascend, aboue the heauens hie:
So doth thy truth it selfe extend,
aboue the cloudy skie.
6 Much more then hills so high and thy iustice is cypess. sleepe, Thy iudgement lyke to seas most deepe,
thou sauest both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is aboue all thinges,
O God it doth excell:
In trust whereof as in thy winges,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed,
with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why the well of lyfe so pure,
doth ouerflow from thee:
And in thy light we are full sure,
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousness declare and shew,
to men of vnght hart.

11 Let not the proud on me pteuarle,
O Lord of thy good grace:
No; let the wicked me assayle,
to thyrow me out of place.
12 But they in their deuile shall fall,
that wicked workes mayntayne:
They shal be overthrowne withall, and neuer rise againe.

Noli æmulari. Psal xxxvii. W. W.

Because the godly should not be daunted to see wicked men prosper, Dauid sheweth that all thinges halbe graunted euen with hartes desire, to them that loue and feare God: but the wicked albeit they hope for a tyme, shall at length perishe.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

Gudge not to see the wicked men,
in wealth to flourish still:
No; yet eny such as to ill
hane bent and set their will.
2 For as grasses growe and flourishyng herbs,

are cut and wither away:
So shall their great posteritie, sone passe, fade, and decay.

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to doe well geue thy mynde:
So shalt thou haue the land as thine,
and there sure foode shalt finde.
4 In God set all thy hartes delight, and looke what thou wouldest haue,
Or els canst with in all the world,
thou needest it not to craue:

5 Cast both thy selfe and thine assayes on God with perfect trust:
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and iust.

6 Thy perfect lyfe, and godly name,
he will cleare as the light:
So that the sun euen at noone dayes, shall not shine halfe so bright.

7 Be still therefore, and stedfastly, on God see thou wayte them:
Not thinking for the prosperous state,
of leud and wicked men.

8 Shake of despyght, enuy, and hate at least in any wise:
Their wicked steps auoyd and flye,
and follow not their gyste.

9 For euery wicked man will God, destroy both more and lesse:
But such as trust in hym, are sure the land for to possesse.

10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see no more the wicked trayne:
No, not so much as house or place,
where once he did remaine.

The second part.

11 But mercifull and humble men,
into thy sea and land:
In rest, and peace, they shall reioyce, for naught shall them withstand.

12 The leud men and malicious, agaynst the iust conspire:
They gnash they teeth at him, as men which do his hane desire.

13 But while the leud men thus do thinke
the Lord laughs them to scorn:
For why he seeth theyr treine aporch,
when they shall sigh and mourn.

14 The wicked haue their sword on drawn they bow eke haue they bent:
To overthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.

15 But the same sword shall pearce they which was to kill the iust: (harts, Likewise the bow shall breake to shivers,
wherin they put they trust.

16 Doubtles the iust mans poore estate, is better a greate deale more:
Then all these leud, and worldly mens rich pompe, and heaped store.

17 For be theyr power neuer so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Cruel, Where

Where contrary he doth preferue,
the humble men and low.

18 He seeth by hys great prouidence,
the good mans trade and way:
And will geue them inheritaunce, which neuer shall decay.

19 They shall not be discouraged, when some are hard bested:
When other shall be hungerbit,
they shall be clad and fed.

20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord:
Shall quayle, yea melt euen as Lambs of smoke that flyeth abroad. (grease)

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borroweth much,
and neuer payeth agayne:

Whereas the iust by liberall giftes,
makes many glad and fayne.

22 For they whome God doth blesse shall the land for heritage: (haue,
And they whome he doth curse lykewise, shall perishe in hys rage.

23 The Lord the iust mans wayes doth and geues hym good successe: (gyde,
To euery thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good addressie.

24 Though that he fall yet is he sure,
not dreerly to quayle:
Because the Lord stretches out hys hand,
at neede and doth not fayle.

25 I haue bene young and now am old,
yet did I neuer see:

The iust man left of cis hys seede,
to beg for misery.

26 But geues alway most liberally, and lendes where as is neede:
Hys children and posteritie, receaue of God their meede.

27 Fle byce therefore and wickednes,
and vertue do embrace:

So God shall graunt thee long to haue,
in eath a dwelling place.

28 For God so toucheth equitie, and shewes to hys such grace:
That he preferues them euermore,
but stroyes the wicked race,

29 Whereas the good and Godly men, inherit shall the land:
Hauing as Lordes all thinges therein,
in their owne power and hand.

30 The iust mans mouth doth euer speake of matters wyse and hye:
Hys tongue doth talke to edifie,
with truth and equitie.

31 For in his hart the law of God,
hys Lord doth still abyde:

So that where euer he go or walk,
hys foet can neuer slide,

32 The wicked like a rauining wolfe,
the iust man doth beset:

By all meanes seeking hym to kill,

if he fall in hys net:

The fourth part,

33 Though he should fall into his handes yet God would succour send:
Though men agaynst hym sentence geue,
God would hym yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God, and keep hys way he shall preferue thee then The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroyd these wicked men.

35 The wicked haue I scene most strong,
and placed in hye degree:
flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell tree.

36 But sodenly he passeth away,
and loe he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could scarce finde
the place, where dwelt such one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth hym increase:
For the iust man shall haue at length,
great toy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressors, wo to them, destroyed they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posteritie.

39 But the saluation of the iust,
doth come from God aboue:
Who in their trouble sendeth them ayde,
of hys meece grace and lone.

40 God doth them help, saue and deliuer,
from lewd men and vniust:
And still will saue them whilist that they in hym do put their trust.

Domine ne. Pal. xxxix. T. S.

David sicke of some greuous disease, acknowledged geues himself to be chastised of the Lord for his sinnes: and therefore prayeth God to turn away his wrath, but in the end wisheth some confidence and commendeth his cause to God, hopeth for speedy help at his hand.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

P^ride me not to rebuke (O Lord)
in thy prouoked ire: Ne in thy heavy wrath (O Lord) correct me, I desire.

2 Thyne arrowes do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth press me sore:
3 And in my fleshe no health at all,
appeareth any more.

And all this is by reason of,
thy wrath that I am in:
Noy any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.

4 For loe my wicked doyngees Lord,
aboue my head are gone.
As greater loe then can I beare,
they lye me sore vpon.

5 My woundes stinck and are festred so,
as lothsome is to see:
Which al through myne owne foolishnes,
betideth vnto me.

6 And I in carefull wise am brought,
in trouble and distresse:

That

That I go wayling all the day,
 my dolefull heaumeffe.

7 My loynes are filld with soze disease, my seich had no whole part:
 8 I feeble am and broken soze,
 I roate for grieft of hart.
 9 Thou knowst loyd my desire, my grones are open in thy sight:
 10 My hart doth pant, my strength both mine eyes haue lost their sight. sayle

11 My louers and my wonted friends, stand loking on my woe:
 And eke my brethren far away,
 ate me departed fro.

12 They that did seeke my life layd snares and they that sought the way:
 13 O doe me hurt, spake lyes, and thought on treason all the day.

The second part.

14 But as a deafe man I became that cannot hear at all: 15 And as one dum that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
 16 For all my confidence O Lord, is wholly set on the:
 17 O Lord thou Lord, that art my God
 thou shalt geue eare to me.

This did I craue that they my foes, triumph nor ouer me:
 18 For when my foot did slip, then they did toy my fall to see.
 And truly I poore wretch am set in plague a wofull weight:
 And eke my griefull heauyness,
 is euer in my sight.

19 For while that I my wickednes,
 in humble wise confesse:
 And while I for my sinful deedes,
 my sorowes doe eppresse.
 20 My foes do still remayne aloue, and mighty are also:
 And they that hate me wrongfully,
 in number hugely grow.

21 They stand agaynst me that my good,
 with euill doe repay:
 Because that good and honest thinges,
 I do ensee alway.

22 For sake me not (O Lord, my God)
 be thou not far away:
 23 Hast me to helpe (my Lord, my God)
 my safety, and my stay.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. l. H.

David having determined silence per haist forth in 20 woordes that he would not, though his bitter grieft, for he maketh certeyne request which call of mans infirmities, per mixed with many papers and all to shew a mynd wonderfull, troubled that it may appeare how he did stryue in help agaynst dearty and desperation.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

I sayd, I will looke to my wayes,
 for feare I should goe wrong:
 I will take heede all tyme, that I offe no not in my course

2 As with a bit. I will keepe fast my mouth, with force and might Not once to whisper, all the while the wicked ate in sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake no word, but kept me close and still,
 Yea from good talk I did refrayne, but soze agaynst my will.

4 My hart was hate within my brest, with musing, thought, and doubt,
 Which did increase, and fire the fire,
 at last these wordes blast out:

5 Lord number out my lyfe, and dayes, which yet I haue not past:
 So that I may be certified,
 how long my lyfe shall last.

6 Lord, thou hast poynted out my lyfe,
 in length much like a span:
 Myne age is nothing vnto thee,
 so bayne a thing is man.

7 My hart walketh like a shade, and doth in bayne him selfe annoy
 In getting goodes, and cannot tell who shall the same enioy.

8 Now Lord, see things this wise do what help I do desire? (frame
 Of truth, my help doth hang on thee,
 I nothing els require.

The second part.

9 From all the sinnes that I haue done,
 Lord quite me out of hand:
 And make me not a scorn to foles,
 that nothing vnderstand.

10 I was as dumme, and to complayn,
 no troble might me moue:
 Because I know it was thy worke,
 my patience for to proue.

11 Lord take fro me thy scourge & plague
 I can them not withstand:
 I saynt and pine away for zeate,
 of thy most heauy hand.

12 When thou for sinne doest man rebuke
 he waxeth woe and wan:
 As doth a cloth that mothes haue fret,
 so bayne a thing is man.

13 Lord heare my sute, & geue god hēd, regard my teares that fall:
 I soioyne like a stranger here,
 as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a litle, geue me space,
 my strength for to restore:
 Before I goe away from hence,
 and shall be seene no more.

Expectans expectaui. Psal. xl. H.

David belieueth that he shall be se God therfore, and committeth his prouision towards all mankyn. He he promised to geue hymself wholly to Gods seruice, and declarerh how God is cruelly worshipped. Afterward hee geue thanks, and hauing complayned of his enemies, he calleth for ayde and succour.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

I wayted long, and sought the Lord and patiently did beare:
 At length to me he did accord,

- my voyce and cry to heate.
 2 He pluckt me from that lake so deep,
 out of the mire and clay:
 And on a rock he set my feet,
 and he did guid my way.
- 3 To me he taught a psalme of prayse,
 which I must shew abroad:
 And sing new songes of thankes alwayes unto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folk these things shall see,
 as people much afraid:
 Then they unto the Lord will see,
 and trust vpon his ayd.
- 5 O blest is he whose hope and hart,
 doth in the Lord remain:
 That with the proud doth take no part,
 nor such as lye and fayn.
- 6 For Lord my God thy wondrous dedes
 in greatnes far doe pas: Thy fauor towards vs exceeds all thinges that euer was.
- 7 When I intend, and doe denie,
 thy works abroad to shew:
 To such a reckning they do rise, thereof no end I know.
- 8 Wunt offerings thou delightst not in
 I know thy wholl desire:
 With sacrifice to purge his sinne,
 thou dost no man require.
- 9 Great offerings and sacrifice,
 thou wouldest not haue at all:
 But thou, O Lord, hast open made mine eares to heare withall.
- 10 But then sayd I behold and loke,
 I come a meane to be:
 For in the volume of thy booke,
 thus it is sayd of me.
- 11 That I O God should doe thy mind which thing doth like me well:
 For in my hart thy law I find,
 fast placed there to dwell.
- 12 Thy iustice and thy righteousnes,
 in great resorts I tell:
 Behold my tongue no time doth cease
 O Lord thou knowest full well.

The second part.

- 13 I haue not hid within my breast,
 thy godnes as by stealth:
 But I declare and haue exprest thy truth and sauing health.
- 14 I kept not close thy louing mynd that no man might it know, Thee that in thy truth I my trust I wote.
- 15 For I with mischiefes many one,
 am sore beset about:
 My sinnes increas, and so come on,
 I cannot spie them out.
- 16 For why? in number they exceed the heates vpon my head:
 My hart doth faynt for very dread,
 that I am almost dead.

- 16 With speede send help, and let me free,
 O Lord I thee require:
 Make hast with ayd to succour me,
 O Lord at my desire.
- 17 Let them sustayne rebuke and shame,
 that seeke my soule to spill:
 Driue backe my foes, and them besame,
 that with and would me ill.
- 18 For their ill feates, do them desery,
 that would deface my name:
 Alwayes at me they rayle and cry,
 he on him he for shame.
- 19 Let them in thee haue toy, and wealth that seek to thee alwayes:
 That those that loue thy sauing health,
 may say to God be prayse.
- 20 But as for me I am but poore opprest and brought full low:
 Yet thou O Lord wilt me restore,
 to health full wel I know.
- 21 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
 my refuge, help and stay:
 Wherefore my God as thou art trust,
 with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T.S.

David generously afflicted, blesteth them that pite his case, complaining of faithlesse frendes such as Judas. Joh. xv. Then he getteth thankes for Gods mercy in chastising him gently, not suffering his enemyes to triumph.

The man is blest that careful is,

the needy to consider: For in the season

perilous, the Lord will hym deliuer.

The Lord will make hym safe and found e happy in the land: and he will not deliuer him into his enemyes hand.

3 And in his bed when he lyeth sick,
 the Lord will hym restore:
 All thou O Lord wilt turne to health,
 his eanes and his soze.

4 Then in thy eanes thus say I,
 haue mercy Lord on me:
 And heal my soule which is full woe
 that I offende, thee.

5 Mine enemyes wished me ill in hart,

and thus of me did say:
 When shall he dye that all his name
 may banish quite away.
 6 And when they come to visite me,
 they aske if I doe well:
 But in their hearts mischief they hate and to their mates it tell.
 7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
 as though they would me charme:
 And cast their fetters how to trap me with some mortall harime.
 8 Some gracious sin hath brought him to this sickness say they playn:
 He is so low that without doubt,
 rise can be not again.
 9 The man also that I did trust,
 with me did use deceit:
 Who at my table ate my bread,
 the same for me layd wayt.
 10 I haue mercy Lord on me therfore,
 and let me be preserued:
 That I may render vnto them,
 the things they haue deserued.
 11 By this I know assuredly, to be beloued of thee:
 When that mine enemies haue no cause to triumph ouer me.
 12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
 and maintayned alway:
 And in thy presence place assigned,
 where I shall dwell for aye.
 13 The Lord thy God of Israel, be prayd euermore:
 Euen so be it Lord will I say,
 euen so be it therfore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xliij. I.H.

David is grieved that though persecutors, hee could not be present in the congregation protesting his presence in hart, albeit in body separate. At last he sheweth that albeit these sorowes & thoughtes per he continually puttech his confidence in the Lord.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

Like as the hart doth breath and dray
 the wellspringe to obrayn:
 So doth my soul desire alway with the Lord to remain.
 2 My soul doth thirst, & would draw nere
 the living God of might.
 Oh when shall I come and appeare,
 in presence of his sight.
 3 The teares all times are my repast,
 which from mine eyes doe stide:
 When wicked men cry out to fast,
 where now is God thy guide?
 4 Alas what grief is it to think,
 what freedom once I had:
 Therfore my soule as at pits brink,
 is most heauy and sad.
 When I did march in god aray,
 furnished with my trayn:
 Vnto the temple was our way,

with songes and harts most fayn.
 5 My soul why art thou sad alwayes, and frett thus in my brest?
 Trust still in God, for him to prayse
 I hold it euer best.

By him haue I succor at need,
 against all pain and grief:
 He is my God which with all speed,
 will hast to send reliefe.
 6 And thus my soul within me Lord, doth saynt to thinke vpon:
 The land of Iordane, and record
 the litle hill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call,
 as cloudes burst forth their voyce:
 The fouds of euil that dofall,
 run ouer me with noyce.
 8 Yet I by day felt his godnes,
 and helpe at all assayes:
 Likewise by night I doe not cease
 the living Lord to prayse.
 9 I am perswaded thus to say,
 to him with pure pretence:
 O Lord thou art my guid and stay,
 my rock, and my defence.
 Why doe I then in pensiuenes, hanging the head thus walke?
 While that mine enemies me oppresse and vex me with their talk.
 10 For why? they pearce my inward parts with panges to be abhord:
 When they cry out with stubboyn harts
 where is thy God thy Lord?
 11 So soon why dost thou faint & quail,
 my soul with pain opprest?
 With thoughts why dost thy self assaill,
 so soe within my brest?
 12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes, and thajt thy time shalt see:
 To geue him thanks with laud & prayse,
 for health resord to thee.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xliij. T.S.

The prayech to be deliuered from them which cal spire with absalon, to the end that he might toyse fully prayse God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

Iudge and reuenge my cause O Lord,
 from them that euil be:
 From wicked and deceitfull men,
 O Lord deliuer me.
 2 For of my strength thou art the God
 why putt thou me the foe?
 And why walk I so heauely, opprest with my foe.
 3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
 and lead me with thy grace:
 Which may conduct me to thy hill,
 and to thy dwelling place.
 4 Then shall I to the altar goe,
 of God my toy and cheare:
 And on my harp geue thanks to thee
 O God my God most deare.

Why

My hart doth take in hart,
 some topfull newes to sing:
 The prayse that I shall shew them, pertaineth to the king.
 2 My tongue shall be as quick,
 his honor to indite:
 As is the pen of any scribe,
 that bleth fast to write.

3 O sayest of all men.
 thy speech is pleasant pure:
 For God hath blessed thee with gifts for ever to endure.
 4 About the god thy sword,
 O prince of might elect:
 With honor, glory, and renown,
 thy person pure is deckt.

5 Goe forth with godly speed,
 in meeknes, truth, and right:
 And thy right hand shall the instruct in wordes of deadfull might.
 6 Thy arrowes sharpe and keen,
 their harts so soe shall sting:
 That soke shall fall and kneele to thee,
 yea all thy foes (O king.)

7 Thy royall seat O Lord, for ever shall remain:
 Because the scepter of thy realme,
 doth righteousnes maintayn.
 8 Because thou toucht the right,
 and doest the ill detect:
 God, euen thy God hath poynted thee with ioy about the rest.

9 With mire, and sauours sweet,
 thy clothes are all bespread:
 When thou doest from thy pallace pas, therein to make thee glad.
 10 Kinges daughters doe attend,
 in fine and rich array:
 At thy right hand the Queen doth stand in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter take god by hand,
 incline and geue god care:
 Thou must forget thy kindred all,
 and fathers house most deare.
 12 Then shall the king desire,
 thy beuty fayre and trim:
 For why? he is the Lord thy God,
 and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre, with gifts ful rich to se:
 And all the wealthy of the land, shall make their sute to thee.
 14 The daughter of syde king,
 is glorious to behold:
 Within her closet she doth sit,
 all deckt in beaurty gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
 and many a pleasant thing:
 Wines, virgins fayre on her to wait,
 she commeth to the king.
 16 Thus are they brought with ioy,
 and mirth on euery side:

Into the pallace of the king,
 and there they doe abide.

17 In steede of parents left,
 (O Queene) thy case so stande:
 Thou shalt haue sounes whom thou maist as princes in all lands. (set 18 Wherefore thy holy name, all ages shall record.
 Thy people shall geue thanks to thee,
 for, eue more O Lord.

Deus noster, Psal. xlvj. I. H.

A song of thanksgiving for the deliuerance of Jerusalem after Sennacherib with his army was driven away, or some other time sodayne and mar-uelous deliuerance, by the mighty hand of God wherby the Prophet commenting this great benefite, both exhort the faithful to geue the praises wholly into the hand of God, doubting nothing but that vnder his protection they shall be safe, as against all the assaults of their enemies.

The Lord is our defence and ayde,

The strength wherby we stand: When our help at hand. 2. Though the earth that all the bankes it spils:

 And though it ouerflow the shore,

 his pleasant streames apate:
 To fresh the Citie of our God,
 and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
 she can no whit decay:
 All things agaynst her that rebell,
 the Lord will truly say.

 the kingdomes make a noyce:

The earth doth melt and not appeare,
when God puts forth hys voyce:

7 The Lord of hostes doth take our part,
to vs he hath an eye:

Our hope of health with all our hart,
on Jacobs God doth lye.

8 Come here and se with mynd & thought the working of our God:

What wonders he himself hath wrought, throughout the earth abroad.

9 By hym all warres are buist and gone,
which countries did confyre:

Their bowes he brake and speares echone their chariotes burnt with fire.

10 Leane of therefore, (sayth he) and know,
I am a God most stout:

Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hostes doth vs defend,
he is our strength and tower:

On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on hys might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlviii. I. H.

An exhortation to worship God for his mercies to ward Jacobs posteritie. Herein is propheted the kingdoms of Christ, in the tyme of the Gospell.

Sing this as the 46 psalme.

YE people all in one accord,
clap handes and che reioyce:

We glad and sing vnto the Lord,
with sweete and pleasaunt voyce.

2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold:

A mighty kyng he is trulye,
in all the earth extolde.

3 The people shall he make to be,
vnto our bondage thall:

And vnderneath our feete he shall,
the nations make to fall.

4 For as the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:

The flowing worship of Jacob, hys welbeloued one.

5 Our God ascendeth by on hys, with toy and pleasaunt voyce:

The Lord goeth by aboue the skye, with trumpets royall voyce.

6 Sing prayse vnto our God, sing prayse,
Ang prayles to our kyng:

For God is kyng of all the earth,
all skillfull prayles sing.

7 God on the heathen raygues and sits,
vpon hys holy thron:

8 The Dynices of the people haue, them toynd euery one.

To Abrahams people: for our God
which is exalted hys:

As with a buckler doth defend,
the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlviii. I. H.

Chains are geuen to God for the notable deliuer aunce of Hierusalem from the handes of many kinges: the 48. teherolis prayed, for that God is present at all times to defend it: this psalm sees meth to be made in the tyme of Akas, Iosaphat, as sa of Ezechia: for then chiefly, was the cite by foraine Princes assailed.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

Great is the Lord and with great praise,
to be aduanced still:

Within the Citie of our Lord,
vpon hys holy hill.

2 Mount Zion is a pleasaunt place,
it gladdeth all the land:

The Citie of the mighty kyng,
on her northside doth stand.

3 Within the pallaces thereof,
God is a refuge knownet:
For loe the kinges are gathered, and together eke were gone.

4 But when they did behold it so, they wondered and they were:
Astonyed much and sodenly, were dymen backe with feare.

5 Great terroz there on earth did fall;
for very woe they cry:

As doth a woman when she shall,
goe trauell by and by.

6 As thou with euerne wynde the ships,
vpon the sea doest breaue:

So they were stayd and euen as,
we heard our fathers speake.

7 So in the Citie of the Lord,
we saw as it was tolde:

Yea in the Citie which our Lord,
for euer will byhold.

8 O Lord we wayte and doe attend, on thy good helpe and grace:

For which we doe all tymes attend,
within the holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy name, for euer is thy prayse:

And thy right hand (O Lord) is full,
of righteousnes alwayes.

10 Let for thy iudgements Zion hill, fulfilled be with ioyes:

And eke of Juda graunt (O Lord)
the daughter to reioyce.

11 So walke about all Syon hill,
yea round about her goe:

And tell the towers that thereupon,
are buylded on a tow.

12 And makee you well her bulwarkes al,
behold her towers there:

That ye may tell thereof to them,
that after shalbe here.

13 For this God is our God, our God,
for euermore is hee:

Yea and vnto the death also,
our guyder shall he be.

ward them in the day of the resurrection. 1. Thes. 1.

Sing this as the 45. Psalme.

1 All people harken and geue care,
to that that I shall tell:
2 Both hygh and low both rich and poore, that in the world doe dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shall make disc:
of many things rightwise: (course
In vnderstanding shall my hart, his study exercise.

4 I will enclyne myne eares to know,
the parables to darke:
And open all my doubtfull speech,
in Answer on my hart.

5 Why should I feare afflictions, or any carefull toyle:

6 Or els my foes which at my heeles,
are prest my lyfe to spoyle:

7 For as for such as riches haue, wherein their trust is most:
And theyr which of their treasures great themselues do brag and boast.

8 There is not one of them that can,
hys brothers death redeeme:

9 That can geue a price to God, sufficient for hym.

10 It is to great a price to pay,
none can thereto attayne:

11 Or that he might hys lyfe prolong,
or not in graue remayne.

12 They see wise men as well as foolcs, subiect vnto deathes handes:
And beyng dead straungers possesse their goods, their rentes, their landes.

13 Their care is to buyle houses fayre,
and so determine sure:

14 To make their name right great in earth,
for euer to endure:

15 Yet shall no man alwayes enjoy,
hygh honoz wealth and rest:

16 But shall at length tast of deathes cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

17 And though they try their foolishhe to be most lewd and bayne: (thoughts, Their Chylzen yet approue their talkc,
and in lyke sijnne remayne.

18 As sheepe into the foldes are brought,
so shall they into geaue:

19 Death shall them eate and in that day,
the iust shall Lordship haue.

20 Their image and their royall post, shall fade and quite decay:

21 When as from house to pit they pass,
with woe and wele away.

22 But God will surely preserve me,
from death and endless payne:

23 Because he will of hys good grace,
my soule receaue agayne.

24 If any man wake wondrous rich,
feare not I say thereofe:

Although the glory of hys house, increaseth more and more.

25 For when he dyeth of all these things,
nothing shall be receiue:

26 Hys glory will not follow hym, hys pompe will take her leaue.

27 Yet in thys lyfe he takes hymselfe,
the happyest vnder sunne:

28 And others lykewise flatter hym, saying all is well done.

29 And presuppose, he lyue as long,
as did hys fathers age:

30 Yet must he needes at length geue place,
and be brought to deathes fould.

31 Thus man to honoz God hath cald.
yet doth he not consider:

32 But lyke the brute beastes so doth he lyue, which turne to dust and powder.

Deus Deorum. Psal. L. I. H.

The prophetieth how God will call all nations by people, but confession of hys benefices, and thank

God onely.

To iudge hys folke,

and now my Sayntes assemble,
My peace they keepe,

6 The heavens shall

For God is iudge, of all thinges moze and les,
7 Heare my people,
for I will now reueale.
Lift Israell.
I will thee nought conceale,
Thy God, thy God, am I, and will not blame thee:
8 For geuing not all manner offrings to me.

9 I haue no neede,
to take of thee at all:
Soates of thy folde,
or calfe out of thy stall, 10 For all thy bestes,
are myne within the woodes,
On thousandes hilles, cattell are myne owne goodes.
11 I know for myne,
all byrdes that are on mountaynes.
All bestes are myne,
which haunt the fieldes & fountaynes.

12 Hungry if I were.
I would not thee it tell:
For all is myne,
that in the world both dwell.

13 Eate I the flesh, of great Bulles or Bullockes:
Or drinke the bloud,
of Soates and of the flockes?
14 Offer to God
praye and hartty thankesgiving,
And pay thy bowes,
vnto God enertuning.

15 Call vpon me,
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honor me, 16 To the wicked,
thus sayth the eternal God,
Why doest thou preach,
my lawes and helles abroad?
Seeing thou hast,
them with thy mouth abused, 17 And hatest to be,
by discipline reformed.

My wordes I say,
thou doest reiect and hate:
18 If that thou see a theefe, as with thy mate, Thou runnest with hym,
and to your pray do seele,
And are all one,
with baudes and ruffians eke,

19 Thou geuest thy selfe,
to backbite and to saunder:
And how thy tongue
deceiveth, it is a wonder.

20 Thou sittest, musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put thy mothers sonne to shame.

21 These thinges thou didst, and whilest I held my tongue,
Thou didst me iudge,
(because I stayd so long) Lyke to thy selfe,
yet though I keepe long silence,
Once shalt thou seele,
of thy wronges with recompence.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And feare not when,
he threatneth with hys word,
Least without help,
I spoyle you as a pray,
23 But he that thankes
offreth, prayeth me aye, Sayth the (Lord God)
and he that walketh this trace,
I will hym teach,
Gods sauing health to embrace.

the earth below likewise:

He will call forth to iudge and try,
his folke he doth deuise.

5 Bring forth my sayntes (sayth he,) my saythfull flock to deare:
Which are in bond and leauge with me,
my law to loue and feare.

6 And when those thinges are tryde,
the heauens shall record

That God is iust and all must bide
the iudgement of the Lord.

7 My people O geue heed,
I saell to thee I cry:
I am thy God thy helpe at need,
thou canst it not deny.

8 I doe not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is stanche:

Thou offeredst dayly vnto me, much more then I doe lack.

9 Thinkest thou that I do need, thy catell young or old?

O: els to much desire to feed?
on Goates out of thy fold.

10 Slay all the beastes are myne, in woodes that eat their fill:
And thousand more of neat and heene,
that run wild in the hilles.

The second part.

11 The birdes that build on hye,
in hilles and out of sight:
And beastes that in the fieldes do lye,
are subiect to my might.

12 Then though I hungerd sore,
what need I ought of thine?

Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine.

13 To Bulles flesh haue I mind, to eat it doost thou think?
O: sith a sweetnes do I finde,
the blood of Goates to drinke?

14 Goe to the Lord his prayse,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy bowes alwayes,
vnto thy God most hye.

15 Then seek and call to me, when ought would worke the blame:
And I will sure deliuer thee,
that thou mayst prayse my name.

16 But to the wicked prayne, which talke of God ech day:
And yet their worshipes are foule and bayne,
to them the Lord will say:

17 With what a face darrest thou,
my word once speake or name?
Why dost thou talke my law allow?
thy doedes deupe the same.

18 Whereas for to amoude
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou doost pretend,
is cast behind thy back.

The third part.

19 When thou a the se doost see,
by thest to lue in wealthy:
With hym thou runst and doost agre,
likewise to thine by stealth.

20 When thou doost them behold, that viues and maides desile:
Thou likest it well and warest bolde,
to vse that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou doest apply,
to flaunder and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye,
and doth still vse the same.

22 Thou studiest to reuile,
thy frendes to thee so neere:
With flaunder thou wouldest needes desile thy mothers sonne so deare.

23 Hereat while I do winke,
as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so doost think that I am like to thee.

24 But sure I will not let,
to strike when I begin:
Thy faultes in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.

25 Make this I thou require, that haue not God in mind:
Least when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to finde.

26 He that both geue to me,
the sacrifice of prayse:
Dost please me well, and he shall see to walke in godly wayes.

I. Miserere mei. Psal. Li. W. W.

David rebuked by the prophet Nathan for his great offences, acknowledged the same to god, protesting his nature all corruption. Wherefore he prayeth god to forgive his sinnes, and remede in hym his holp procure, promising that he will not be unthankfull of those great graces, finally, fearing lest god would punish the whole Church for his fault, he requireth that he would rather increase his graces towards the same.

Lord consider my distresse, and now with speed some pittie take. My sinnes deface, my faultes redresse, good Lord for thy great mercyes sake. 2 W ash me (O Lord) and make me cleane D. I. from

3 Remorse and sorrow do constrainne, me to acknowledge myne excesses;
My sinne alas doth stil remaine.
before thy face without release.
4 For the alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned, yet were thy iudgements iust and right

5 It is to manifest alas, that first I was concealed in sinne:
Yea of my mother to borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.
6 Also behold Lord thou doost loue,
the inward truth of a pure hart:
Therefore thy wisdome from aboue,
thou hast reueald me to conuert.

7 If thou with Soap purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glas:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteness shall I passe.
8 Therefore O Lord such toy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swagde for my trespass 9 Turne back thy face and frowning ire, for I haue felt inough thy hand:
And purge my sinne I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
10 Make new my hart within my brest, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirite in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kil.

The second part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedely my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirite and grace,
which may from daungers me defend.
12 Restore me to those ioyes agayne, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirite retayne, which vnto thee may stire my mind.
13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise vpon zht loe,
by mine ensample shall sine sinne.
14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgue me this my bloody vice,
My hart and tongue shall then accord to sing thy mercyes and iustice.
15 Touch thou my lips my tongue vnto,

O Lord which act the onely say:
And then my mouth shall testifye, thy wondrous workes & prayse alway 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest thou none.
17 The heary hart the mind opprest,
O Lord thou neuer doost recte:
And to speak truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face, poure out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Jerusalem thy grace, build by thy walles and loue it still,
19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings,
of peace and righteousness I say:
Yea calves and many other things,
vpon thine altar will we lay.

An other of the same by T.N.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy on me (God) after,
thy great abundant graces
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sinnes deface.
2 Yet wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sinne:
For I doe know my faultes and still,
my sinne is in myne eyen.
3 Agaynst thee the alone, I haue, offended in this case:
And euill haue I done before,
the presence of thy face.
4 That in the thinges that thou doost say,
bryght thou mayst be tryde:
And eke in iudging, that the dome
may passe vpon thy side.
5 Behold in wickednes my kind,
and thape I did receate:
And loe my sinfull mother eke,
in sinne did me conceaue.
6 But loe the truth of inward partes,
is pleasaunt vnto thee:
And secrets of thy wisdome thou reuealed hast to me.
7 With hisop Lord, bespyinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.
8 Of ioy and gladnes make thou me,
to heare the pleasing boyce:
That so the byu sed bones, which thou hast broken may reioyce.
9 From the beholding of my sinnes,
Lord turn away thy face:
And al my beddes of wickednes, doe vtterly deface.
10 O God create in me a hart
vnsported in thy sight:

And

And the with in my bowels Lord, renew a stabled spiritte.

21 He cast me from the sight noz take,
thy holy spiritte away:

The comfort of thy sauing help,
geue me agayne I pray.

22 With thy free spiritte establish me,
and I will teach theretofore Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned vnto thy loze.

The second part.

23 O God that art my God of heath,
from bloud deliuer me:

That prayles of thy righteounes,
my tongue may sing to thee.

24 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord vnloze:

The prayles of thy maiestie,
my mouth shall to disclose.

25 I would haue offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:

But pleased with burnt offerings,
I know thou wilt not be.

26 A troubled spiritte is sacrifice,
delightfull in Gods eyes:

A broken and an humbled hart,
God thou wilt not despise.

27 In thy gadwyll deale gently Lord, to Sion, and withall

Strait that of thy Jerusalem, byheard may be the wall.

28 Wrent offerings, giftes, and sacrifice, of iustice in that day:

Thou shalt accept and calmes they shall,
vpon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. Lii. I.H.

David describeth the arrogant tyranny of Doeg Sauls chief shepheard, who by false furnises caused Ahimelech, and the Priestes to be slayne. Hee prophesieth his destruction, encourageth the saythes fil to trust in God, who most sharply retingeth hes and reuererch thanks for deliuerance. Heres in is hynely set forth the kingdome of Antichrist.

W hy doost thou Tyaunt boast abroad, thy wicked workes to prayse?

Doest thou not know there is a God whose mercyes last alwayes? 2. Why doest thy mynde per still deuise, such wicked wiles to warpe? Thy tounge vntrue in forging lyes, is like a ra-four sharp.

3 On mischiefe why sett thou thy minde,
and wilt not walke byright:

Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
then bring the truth light.

4 Thou doost delight in fraud and guyle,
in mischiefe bloud and wrong:

Thy lips haue learned the flattering stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for euer confound, and pluck thee from the place:

Thy seed rote out from all the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

6 The lust when they behold thy fall,
with feare will prayse the Lord:

And in reproch of thee withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man which would not take,
the Lord for his defence:

But of his goodes his God did make,
and trust his corrupt fence.

8 But I an Olive freely and greene, will spring and spread abroad:

For why my trust all tymes hath bene,
vpon the liuing God.

9 For this therefore will I geue prayse, to thee with hart and voyce:

I will set forth thy name alwayes, wherein thy sayntes reioyce.

Dixit in spiens. Psal. Liij. I.H.

David describeth the crooked nature, the crueltye and punishment of the wicked, when they look not for it, and desireth the deliuerance of the Godde that they may reioyce.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

The foolish man in that which he,
within his hart hath sayd:

That there is any God at all,
hath vterely denyed.

2 They are corrupt, and they also,
a hainous worke hath wrought?

Among them all there is not one,
of god that worketh ought.

3 The Lord lookt down on fomes of men from heauen all abroad:

To see if any were that would,
be wise and seek for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:

There is not one doth any good,
E. ii. there

there is not one at all.

- 5 Do all the wicked workers know, that they doe feed vpon
My people as they feed on bread,
the Lord they call not on.
- 6 Euen there they were affrayd and stood,
with trembling all dismayd:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be affrayd.
- 7 For God his bones that they besiege, hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they reioiced are of God.
- 8 O Lord geue thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill:
Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Syon hill.
- 9 When God his people shall restore,
that erst was captiue lad:
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. Liiii. I. H.

David in great danger through Ziphims, calleth vpon God to destroy his enemies, promising fauour for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 46 psalme.

- God saue me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodnes sake:
vnto the strength Lord of the same,
I do my cause betake.
- 1 Regard O Lord and geue an eare,
to me when I do pray:
Bow downe thy selfe to me and heare,
the wordes that I do say.
- 3 For straungers by agaynst me rise,
and tyrantes bere me still:
Which haue not God before their eyes,
they seek my soule to spill.
- 4 But loe my God doth geue me ayd
the Lord is strength at hand:
With them by whom my soule is stayd,
the Lord doth euer stand.
- 5 With plagues repay agayne all those,
for me that lye in wayt:
And with thy truth destroy my foes,
with their owne snare and bayt.
- 6 An offering of free hart and will,
then I to thee shall make:
And praye thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take.
- 7 O Lord at length do set me free,
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with ioy doth see,
on them my hartes desire.

Exaudi Deus Psal. Lv. I. H.

David in great distress, complaineth of Saules enuie and falsehood of his familiar acquaintance, effectually mouing the Lord to pittie hym. When assured of deliuerance, he stretcheth forth the grace of God, as if he had already obtained his request.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

- O God geue eare and doe apply,
to heare me when I pray,
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy selfe away.
- 2 Take heed to me graunt my request,
and answer me agayne:
With playntes I pray full sore oppress, great griefe doth me constrainne.
- 3 Because my foes with threates & cries,
opresse me through despight:
And so the wicked for the wise,
to bere me haue delight.
- 4 For they in counsell do conspire, to charge me with some ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire,
they doe pursue me still.
- 5 My hart doth faynt for want of breath,
it panteth in my brest:
The terrors and the dread of death,
do worke me much distress.
- 6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror whelmeth me with all,
that I no lyfe can make.
- 7 But I do say, who will geue me,
the swift and pleasure wings,
Of some saye Doue, that I may flie,
and rest me from these things?
- 8 Loe then I would go far away,
to flie I will not cease:
And I would hide my selfe and stay,
in some great wildernes.
- 9 I would be gone in all the hast,
and not abide behind:
That I were quite and ouerpast,
the blastes of boystrous winde.
- 10 Deuid them Lord and from them pull their diueltish double tongue,
For I haue spide their citie full,
of rapine, bribe, and wrong.
- 11 Which things both night & day through do close her as a wall:
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
- 12 Her prayntes are wicked playne,
her deedes are much to bile:
And in her streets there doth remaine,
all crafty fraude and guile.

The second part.

- 13 If that my foes did seek my bane,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame,
some where I could me hide.
- 14 But thou it was my fellow deare, which friendship didst pretend:
And dost my secret counsel heare,
as my familiar friend.
- 15 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke,
with in the house of God.

16 Let death in hast vpon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief raygneth in their hall,
and parloure where they dwell.

17 But I vnto my God do cry, to him for helpe I flye:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
and he doth succour me.

18 At morning noone and euening tyde,
vnto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly haue cryde,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet, though warre be now at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would agaynst me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth raigñ,
both now and euermoie:
Will heare, when I to him complayne,
and punish them full soie.

21 For sure there is no hope that they,
to turne wnt once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor do not feare the Lord.

22 Wps their frends they layd their hãds which were in couenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bandes,
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they haue war within their hart
as butter are their wordes:
Although their wordes were smoth as oile
they cut as sharpe as swordes.

24 Cast thou thy care vpon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord,
the iust in thall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit, that thirst for bloud alwayes:
He will no guilefull man permit,
to lue out halfe his dayes.

26 Though such be quite destroyd & gone
in thee (O Lord) I trust:
I shall depend thy grace vpon,
with all my hart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvi. I.H.

David being brought to Achis the king of Gath, 2 Samu. 21. 12. complaineth of his enemies, demaundeth succour, trusteth in God and promiseth to per-forme his vowes which was to praise God in his Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me deuour:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me ech houre.

2 Myne enemies dayly enterprise, to swallow me out right:
To fight agaynst me many rise,
O thou most hie of might.

3 When they would make me most with boasts & brags of pride; afraid
I trust in thee alone for ayd,

by thee will I abyde.

4 Gods promise I do mind and prayse,
O Lord I stick to thee:
I do not care at all allwayes,
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake, they wrec't them at their will:
And all the counsell that they take,
is how to worke me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hyde, close watch for me to lay:
They spy my pathes and snares haue tide,
to take my lyfe away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set,
thou God on them wilt frowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.

8 Thou seest how oft they make me flye, and on my teares doost look:
Relenue them in a glas by thee,
and wite them in thy boos.

9 When I do call vpon thy name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceauie it by the same,
that God doth take my part.

10 I glory in the word of God,
to prayse it I accord:
With joy will I declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my helpe and stay,
I doe not care for man.

12 I will performe with hart so free,
to God my bowes alwayes:
And I (O Lord) all tymes to thee,
will offer thankes and prayse.

13 My soule seò death thou doost defend and keep my feet vpright:
That I before thee may ascend,
with such as lue in light.

Miserere. Psal. Lvii. I.H.

David in the desert of Ziph betrayed by the inhabitantes, and in the same Caue with Sathel, calleth vnto God, with full confidence that hee will per-forme his promise, and shew his glory in heauen & earth against the cruell enemies. Therefore he reasdereth laud and prayse.

Sing this as the 44 Psalme,

TAke pity for thy promise sake,
haue mercy Lord on me:
For why my soule doth bet betake,
vnto the helpe of thee.

2 Within the shadow of thy wings,
I set my selfe full fast:
Till mischief, malice, and like things,
be gon and ouerpast.

3 I call vpon the God most hie,
to whom I stick and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by,
the cause I haue in hand.

- 4 From heauen he hath sent his ayd,
to saue me from their spight:
That to deuide me haue allayd,
his mercy truth and might.
- 5 I led my life with Lyons fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell, that fret like flames of fire.
- 6 Their teeth are speares and arrowes as sharpe as I haue sen: long They wound & cut with their quick tongue like swoydes and weapons hene.
- 7 Set vp and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright:
Straut thy praye in earth abroad, thy maiesty and might.
- 8 They lay theyr net and do prepare,
a pryuy caue and pit:
Wherein they think my soule to snare,
but they are fallen in it.
- 9 My hart is set to laud the Lord,
In him to toy alwayes:
My hart I say doth well accord,
to sing his laud and prayse.
- 10 Awake my toy awake I say,
my Lute, my Harpe, and string
For I my selfe before the day, will rise, reioyce, and sing.

- 11 Among the people I will tell,
the goodnes of my God:
And shew his prayse that doth excell,
in heathen landes abroad.
- 12 His mercy doth extend as farre,
as heauens all are hye:
His truth as high as any starre,
that standeth in the skye.
- 13 Set forth and shew thy selfe abroad,
about the heauens bright:
Extol thy prayse on earth abroad,
thy maiestic and might.

Si verè vtique. Psal. Lviii. I. H.

He describeth hys malicious enemies Saules kins erers, who secretly and openly sought his destruc tion, from whom he appealeth to Gods iudgment shewing that the iust shall reioyce, at the punish ment of the wicked to Gods glory

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

- YE rulers which are put in trust,
to iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iust,
not knowing need of might?
- 2 Nay in your hartes ye make and muse
in mischiefe to consent:
And where you should true iustice vse,
your handes to bribes are bent.
- 3 This wicked fox from their byrth day,
haue cted on this wise:
And from their mothers wombe alway,
haue bled craft and lyes.
- 4 In them the poyson and the breath,
of Serpentes doth appeare:

- Ye a like the Adder that is deafe, and fast doth stop his care.
- 5 Because he will not heare the voyce,
of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chiefe of choyse,
and did therein excell.
- 6 O God breake thou their teeth at once, within their mouth throughout:
The tusas that in their great chaw bones like Lyons whelpes hang out.
- 7 Let them confume away in was,
as water runs forth right:
The yastres that they doe shoot in hast,
let them be broke in sight.
- 8 As Snayles do wast within the shell,
and into slime do run:
As one before his tyme that fell,
and neuer saw the sun.
- 9 Before the thornes that now are yong,
to bushes big shall shall grow:
The thornes of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.
- 10 The iust shall toy it doth them good,
that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in bloud,
of them that him forsake.
- 11 Then shall the world shew forth and tel
that good men haue reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that iustice doth regard.

Eripe me. psal. Lix. I. H.

David in great danger of Saul, who sent to slay who live for a tyme to exercise hys people, but in the end continue in hys wrath, to Gods glory. for this he singeth prayse to god allured of his mercies

Ende ayde and saue me from my foes, O Lord I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those, that rise and strive with me. 2. O Lord preserve me from those men, whose doynges are not good: And let me sure & safe from them

them, that thirsteth after bloud.

- 3 For loe they wayt my soule to take,
they rage agaynst me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I neuer did them ill.
- 4 They ran and doe themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and saue me from the snare,
and see what they intend.
- 5 O Lord of hostes of Israel, arise and strike all landes:
And pur none that doe rebel,
and in their mischiefe standes.
- 6 At night they stre and seeke about,
as houndes they howle and grinne:
And all the cite cleane throughout,
from place to place they renne.
- 7 They speake of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips were swordes:
They greed my death and then would say,
what none doth heare our wordes.
- 8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espyde,
and laught thereat apace:
The beathen folke thou shalt deride,
and mock them to their face.
- 9 The strength that doth my foes with O Lord doth come of thee: stand
My God, he is my helpe at hand, a fort of fence to me.
- 10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great aboundant still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my hart doth will,

The second part.

- 11 Destroy them not at once O God, least it from mind doe fall:
But with thy strength daine them abroad,
and so consume them all.
- 12 For their ill wordes and truthles tong
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked othes with lyes and wrong,
let all the world deride.
- 13 Consume them in thy wrath (O Lord)
that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout þ world that Jacobs God doth raygne.
- 14 At euening they returne apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the strettes in euery place,
they runne about and spy.
- 15 They seeke about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherem they may,
be bold to put their head.
- 16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnes I will prayse:
For thou art my defence and God,
as wees in all assayes,

O Lord I sing to thee: (sayd,
Thou art my fort, my fence, and ayd,

Deus repulisti. psal. Lx. I.H.

David now king ouer Iudah, after many victories sheweth by euident signes, that God elected him king, assuring the people that god will prosper them, if they approue the same. After he prayeth vnto God to finish that that he had begon.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

- O Lord thou didst vs cleane forsake, and scatteredst vs abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
returne to vs O Lord.
- 2 Thy might doth moue the land so soze,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt therof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.
- 3 With heauy chaunce thou plaguest thyn
the people that are thine:
And thou hast guen vnto vs,
a drink of deadly wine.
- 4 But yet to such as feare thy name,
a token shall ensue:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.
- 5 So that thy might may keep and saue,
thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy help at hand may haue,
O Lord graunt this to me.
- 6 The Lord did speake from his owne
this was his ioyfull tale: place
I will deuide Sichem by pace, and met out Succoths bale.

- 7 Giliad is geuen to my hand,
Manasse mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Iuda gyde.
- 8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
ouer Edome throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine oughest to seeke,
for saue me vnto.
- 9 But who shall bring me at this tude,
vnto the City strong:
O who to Edome will me gyde,
so that I go not wrong.
- 10 Wilt thou my God which didst forsake, thy folke their landes and castles:
Our wares in hand thou wouldest not nor walke among our hostes. (take,
- 11 Beue ayd, O Lord, and vs relens,
from them that vs disdayne:
The helpe that hostes of men can geue,
it is but all in bayne.
- 12 But through our God we shall haue, to take great things in hand: might
He will read downe and put to flight, all those that vs withstand.

Whether he were in bawgeer of the Amonites, or puffed of Absalon, here he crieth to be deliuered, and comforted in his kingdome, promising perpetual prayse.

Regard (O Lord) for I complayne, and make my sute to thee: Let not my wordes returne in bayne, but geue an care to me. 2. From the coastes and vtmost partes of all the earth abroad:

In grief and anguish of my hart, I cry

to thee (O God.)

3 Upon the rock of thy great power,
my woefull mind repose:

Thou art my hope my fort and tower,
my fence agaynst my foes.

4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell
for euer to endure:

Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:

With godly giftes will he reward,
all them that feare his name.

6 The king shall be in health mayntayne and so prolong his dayes:

That he from age to age shall raygne,
for euer moze alwayes.

7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for ay:

O let thy mercy, truth, and grace defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I sing for euer still,
with prayse vnto thy name:

That all my bowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the same.

Nonne Deo, Psal. Lxii. I. H.

David declareth by example, and name of god that he and all people must trust in God alone, saying that all without God goeth to nought, who onely is of power to save, and that he rewardeth man according to hys workes.

Sing this as the 61. psalme.

My soule to God shall geue good heed,
and him alone intend:

For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole in him depend:

2 For he alone is my defence.
my rock my health and ayd:

He is my stay that no pretence,
shall make me much dismay.

3 O wicked folke how long will ye,
ble craftes? sure ye must fall:

For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a coterring wall.

4 Whom God doth loue ye seek alwayes, to put him to the worse:

Ye loue to lye with mouth ye prayse,
and yet your hart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soule doth whole depend,
on God my chiefe desire:

From all false feates me to defend,
none but him I require.

He is my rock my strength my tower,
my health is of his grace:

6 He doth support me that no power, can moue me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:

My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealthy
God is mine onely trust.

8 Oh haue your hope in him alway.
ye folke with one accord:

Poure out your hartes to him and say,
our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a sleight:

With things most bayne do them compare,
for they can keep no weight.

10 Trust not in wrong, robbery, or stealth
let bayne delights be gone:

Though goddes well got flow in with set not your hartes thereon. wealthy

11 The Lord long sith one thing did tell, which here to mind I call:

He spake it oft I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.

12 And that thou Lord art god and kind, thy mercy doth exceed:

So that all sootes with thee shall finde,
according to their deed.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. Lxiii. T. S.

David after hys danger of Ziph, geneth thanks to God for hys wonderfull deliuerance, in whose mercyes he trusteth euen in the midst of miserie:
prophesying the destruction of Gods enemies, and contrariwise happines to all them that trust in the Lord. i. Samuel. ij.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

O God my God I watch betyme, to come to thee in haie:

For why my soule and body both,
doe thirst of thee to fast.

And in this barayne wildernes,
where waters there are none:

My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wily alone.

1 That I might see yet once agayne, thy glory, strength, and might:
As I was wont it to behold,
with in thy temple bright.
2 For why thy mercyes far surmount
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therfore shall geue to thee,
due honor, laud and prayse.
4 And whylest I liue I will not sayle,
to worship the alway:
And in thy name I shall lift vp,
my handes when I do pray.
5 My soule is fild as with marrow,
which is both far and sweet:
My mouth therfore shall sing such songes
as are for the most meet.

7 When as in bed I thinke on thee,
and eke all the night ryde:
For vnder couert of thy wings,
thou art my ioyfull gyde.
8 My soule doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seek my soule to stroy, them death shall soone deuour, 10 The sword shall them deuour echone,
their carcases shall feed:
The hungrye Foxes which do run,
their pray to seek at need.
11 The king and all men shall reioyce, that do professe Gods word:
For lyers mouthes shall then be slopt,
which haue the truth disturbe.

Exaudiat deus. Psal. Lxiiii. I. H.

David prayeth against the false reporters and flanders decers, he declarerth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the iust and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 18. psalme.

O Lord vnto my voyce geue eare, with playntes when I do pray:
And rid my life and soule from deade,
of foes that threath to slay.
2 Defend me from that sort of men,
which in deceites do lurke:
And from the frowning face of them,
that all ill feates do worke.
3 Who whet their tonges as we haue seen men whet and sharpe their swordes:
They shoot abroad their arrowes keene,
I meane most bitter words.
4 With prauy sleight shot they their shaft
the vpright man to hit:
The iust beware to strike by craft,
they care of feare no whit.
5 A wicked word haue they decreed in counsell thus they cry:
To vse deceit let vs not deade,
what? who can it not espy?
6 What wayes to hurt they talk & muse
all times within their hart:
They all consult what feates to vse,
ech doth inuent his hart.

7 But yet all this shall not auaille,
when they thinke least vpon:
God with his dart shall sure assayle, and wound them every one. (withall 8 Their craftes and their ill tongues shall worke themselves such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
9 Then all that see and know right well,
that God the thing hath wrought,
And prayse his worthy workes and tell,
what he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy with minde and voyce, whose hart is pure and right.

¶ A thankesgiving vnto God by the saythfull, who are signified by Zion, and Ierusalem, for the chosing, preservation, and gouernance of them, and for the plentifull blessings poured forth vpon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

Thy prayse alone O Lord doth raygne,
in Syon thine owne hill:
Their bowes to thee they doe maintayne,
and their benefices fullfill.
2 For that thou doest their prayer heare,
and doest thereto agre:
Thy people all both farre and neare,
with trust shall come to thee.
3 Our wicked lyfe so farre excēdes, that we should fall therein:
But Lord forgeue our great misdoedes, and purge vs from our sinne.
4 The man is blest whom thou doest chuse within thy courtes to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall vse,
with pleasures that excell.
5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coastes lykewise.
6 With strength thou art best about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou makest the mountaynes strong and to stand in euery shower. (Mount, 7 The swelling seas thou doest awage, and make the streames full still:
Thou doest restrayne the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folke that dwell full far on earth, shall bread the signes to see:
Which moone and euening with great do passe with prayse to thee. (myrrh, 9 When that the earth is chopt and dry,
and thyrseth more and more:
Then with the drops thou doest apply,
and much increase her store.
10 The floud of God doth ouerflow, and so doth cause to spring:

The seede and corne which men doe sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou doest her furrowes fill,
wherby her cloods doe fall:

Thy drops to her thou doest distill,
and blesse her fruites withall.

12 Thou doest the earth of thy god grace with fayre and pleasaunt crop:

Thy cloudes distill their dew apace, great plenty they doe drop.

13 Wherby the desert shall beginne, full great increase to bring:

The little hilles shall toy therewith, much fruite in them shall spring.

14 In places playne the flock shall feede,
and couer all the earth:

The ballies with corne shall so excēde,
that men shall sing with mirth.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. lxvi. T.S.

The choiceth to prayse the Lord, in his wonderfull works. He setteth forth the power of God to affray rebels, and sheweth Gods mercy to Israel, ad to prouoke all men to heare, and prayse his name.

Sing this as the 68 psalme.

Ye men on earth in God reioyce, with prayse set forth his name:

Extoll his might with hart and voyce, goue glory to the same.

2 How wonderfull (O Lord) say ye,
in all thy workes thou art:

Thy foes for feare doe like to thee,
full soye agaynst their hart.

3 All men that dwell the earth through-doe prayse the name of God: (out,

The laud thereof the world about,
is shewed and set abroad.

4 All folke come forth behold and see,
what thinges the Lord hath wrought,

Marke well the wondrous workes that for man to pas hath brought. (he,

5 He layd the sea lyke heapes on hye, therein a way they had:

On soore to passe both fayre and dry, wherof their hartes were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all thing beholds:

All such as would him disobey,
dy him shall be controude.

7 Ye people gūe into our God,
due laud and thankes alwayes:

With foyfull voyce declare abroad,
and sing into his prayse.

8 Which doth indue our soule with lyfe,
and it preserve with all:

He stayeth our feete so that no strife,
can make vs slip or fall.

9 The Lord doth proue our dedes with if that they will abide: (fire,

As workemen doe when they desire,
to haue their metall's tryde.

10 Although thou suffer vs so long,

in prison to be cast:

And there with chaines and fetters strong to ly in bondage fast.

The second part.

11 Although I say thou suffer men,
on vs to ryde and raygne:

Though we through fire and water runne,
of beere grieve and payne.

12 Yet sure thou doest of thy god grace, dispose it to the best:

And bring vs out into a place,
to lyue in wealthy and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort will I,
to offer and to pray:

And there I will my selfe apply,
my bowes to thee to pay.

14 The bowes that with my mouth I in all my grieve and smart: (speake,

The bowes (I say) which I did make,
in dolor of my hart.

15 Burnt offerings I will gūe to thee,
Of Oxen fat and Rammes:

No other sacrifice shall be,
of Bullockes, Goates, and Lambes,

16 Come forth and hearken heare full soone
all ye that feare the Lord:

What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:

And thou my tongue make speede apace,
to prayse him by and by.

18 But if I feele my hart with in,
in wicked workes reioyce:

Or if I haue delight to sinne,
God will not heare my voyce.

19 But surely God my voyce hath heard,
and what I doe require:

My prayer he doth well regard,
and graunteth my desire.

20 All prayse to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:

For yet his mercy from me shut, which I doe euer finde.

Deus misericatur. Psal. Lxvii. T.S.

A sweete prayer for all the faithfull to obtaine the fauor of God and to be lightened with his cōsol-nance, to the end that his way & iudgements may be known throughout the earth. Recopling thus god is the gouernour of all nations.

Sing this as the 25. psalme.

Hau mercy on vs (Lord.)
and graunt to vs thy grace:

To shew to vs doe thou accord,
the brightnes of thy face.

2 That all the earth may know,
the way to godly wealth:

And all the nations on a tow,
may see thy sauing health.

3 Let all the world (O God.)
gūe prayse into thy name:

O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

- 4 Throughout the world so wide,
Let all reioyce with myght:
For thou with truth and right dost guide,
The nations of the earth.
- 5 Let all the world (O God)
geue praye vnto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
- 6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruite shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace, shall blesse vs eke withall.
- 7 God shall vs blesse I say,
and then both farre and neare:
The folke throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Dus. Psal. lxxviii. T.S.

And expresseth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all meanes and most strange wayes declareth himselfe to them. Gods Church therfore by reason of his promises, grace and his toyes doth excell all woorthy things, wher fore all men are moued to prayse God for euer.

Et God arise, and then hys foes will turn themselves to flight: His enemies then will run abroade, and scatter out of sight. 2. And as the fire doth melt the waxe, and winde blow smoke away: So in the presence of the Lord, the wicked shall decay.

- 3 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall hartely reioyce:
They shall be glad and merry all,
and chearefull in their voyce.
- 4 Sing prayse, sing prayse vnto the Lord,
who rydeth on the saye:
Extoll this name of Jah our God,
and him doe magnifie.
- 5 That same is he that is aboue,
within his holy place:
That father is of fatherles,
and iudge of widows case.

- 6 Wholes he genes and (sue both,
vnto the comfortes:
He bringeth bondmen out of thral,
and rebels to distress.
- 7 When thou didst march before thy folke
the Egyptians from among:
And brought them through the wilderness, which was both wide and long, (down,
- 8 The earth did quake the rayne poured heard were great claps of thünder:
The mount Sina spoke in such sort,
as it would cleave in sunder.
- 9 Thine heritage with drops of raine,
aboundantly was waite:
And it so be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refresh.
- 10 Thy chosen flocke doth there remaine, thou hast prepard that place:
And for the poore thou doest prouide,
of thine especial grace.

The second part.

- 11 God will geue women causes iust,
to magnifie his name:
When as his people triumphes make,
and purchase buyte and fame.
- 22 For puissant kinges for all their shall fly and take the soyle: (power,
And women which remaine at home,
shall helpe to part the spoyle.
- 13 And though you were as black as pots your hew should pas the daue:
Whose wings and fethers same to haue,
silver and golde aboue.
- 14 When in this land God shall triumph, ouer kinges both hye and low Then shall it be lyke Salmon hill, as whye as any snow.
- 15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill,
and in hight others passe:
Yet Sion Gods most holy hill, doth farre excell in grace:
- 16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most hye,
and leape for pryde together:
This hill of Sion God doth loue, and there will dwell for euer?
- 17 Gods army is two millions, of warriours god and strong:
The Lord also in Sina, is present then among.
- 18 Thou didst O Lord ascend on hye, and captiues led them all:
Which in tymes past thy chosen flocke,
in prison kept and thral.
- Thou madest them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine:
Thou didst subdue that they might dwell,
in thy temple be iustine.
- 19 Now praysed be the Lord so; that,
he poureth on vs such grace:
From day to day he is the God,
of our health, and solace.

The third part.

- 20 He is the God from whome alone,
saluation commeth prayne:
He is the God by whome we scape,
all daungers death and payne: (head,
- 21 Thus God will wound his enemies and breake the heary scalpe:
Of those that in their wickednes, continually do walke.
- 22 From Babilon will I bring sayd he,
my people and my shepe:
And all mine owne as I haue done,
from daunger of the depe.
- 23 And make them dip their face in blood of those that hate my name:
And dogs shal haue their tongues embud with licking of the same.
- 24 All men may see how thou O God,
thine enemies doest deface:
And how thou goest as God and king,
into thy holy place.
- 25 The fingers goe before with ioy,
the minstrells follow after:
And in the midst the dauncers play,
with Tymbell and with Taber.
- 26 Now in thy congregations,
(O Israell) praye the Lord:
And Jacobs whole posteritye, geue thanks with one accord.
- 27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin,
but Zada made their host.
With Zabulon and Nephtalim, which dwelt about their coast.
- 28 As God hath geuen power to the,
so Lord make firme and sure:
The thing that thou hast wrought in vs,
for euer to endure.
- 29 And in thy temple giffes will we,
geue vnto the O Lord:
For thine vnto Ierusalem,
sure promise made by worde.

The fourth part.

- 30 Yea and straunge hinges to vs subd: he shall doe lyke in those dayes:
I meane to the they shall present,
their giffes of laud and praye.
He shall destroy the hearemens ranches,
these calues and bulles of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as loue to fight.
- 31 Then shall the Lordes of Egypt come,
and presentes with them bring The Moyses most blacke shall stretch their vnto the Lord their king. (handes,
- 32 Therefore the kingdomes of the earth,
geue praye vnto the Lord:
Sing psalmes to God with one consent, thereto let all accord.
- 33 Who though he ryde and euer hath,
aboue the heauens bright:
Yet by his fearefull thunderclaps, men may well know his might.

- 34 Therefore the strength of Israell, ascribe to God on hye:
Whose might and power doth farre extend aboue the cloudy skye.
- 35 O God thy holynesse and power,
is dread for euer more:
The God of Israell geues vs strength, prayed be God therofore.

Saluum me fac. Psal. Lxix. I.H.

Christ and his elect is figured in Daniels zeale as anguish: the malicious crueltie of those enemies and their punishment Iudas and such traitorous noteth who are accursed. The gathereth he con-rage in afflictions and offereth prayes to god who are more acceptable then all sacrificies. finally he doth pronoke all creatures to prayes, prophes-ing of the kingdome of Christ and building of Ierusa where all the earthfull and their seede shall dwell for euer.

Aue me O God, and that with precede, the waters flow full fast: So nie my soule do they procede, that I am foze agast. 2. I stick full deepe in sith and clay, whereas I feele no ground: I fall into such fluds I say, that I am lyke be drownd.

- 2 With crying oft I faint and quaye,
my thioate is hoarse and drye:
With looking vp my sight doth fayle,
for helpe to God on hye.
- 4 My foes that gitleffe doe oppres
my soule with hate are led:
In number sure they are no lesse,
then hears are on my head.
- 5 Though for no cause they vex me foze, thy prosper and are glad:
The doe compell me to resfoze,
the thinges I neuer had.
- 6 What I haue done for want of wit, thou Lord all tymes canst tell,
And all the same that I commit,
to the is knowne full well.

7 God of hostes defend and stay all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt of thyne away,
for ought that chaunceth me.
8 It is for thee and for thy sake, that I do beare this blame:
In sight of thee they would me make,
to hide my face for shame.
9 My mothers sonnes my brethren all,
forsake me on a row:
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
10 Into thy house such zeale I beare, that it doth pynne me much:
Their checks and tauntes at thee to beare,
my very hart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I do fast my flesh to chaff,
yea if I weep and mone:
Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon:
12 If I for griefe and payne of hart,
in sackcloth vse to walke:
Then they anone will it peruert, therof they rest and talke.
13 Both hye and low and all the throng,
that sit with in the gate:
They haue me euer in their tongue,
of me they talke and prate.
14 They drunkards which in wine delight
it is their chiefe pastime:
To seeke which wayes to wound me spite of me they sing and rime.
15 But thee O Lord I pray, that when it pleaseth thee:
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
in hast send helpe to me.
16 O lucke thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep:
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deepe.
17 Least with the wanes I should be and depeh my soule deuoure: dround,
And that the pit should me confound and shut me in her power.
18 O Lord of hostes to me geue care,
as thou art god and kind:
And as thy mercy to most beare,
Lord haue me in thy mind.
19 And doe not from thy seruant hide
nor turne thy face away:
I am opprest on euery side,
in hast geue care I say.
20 O Lord vnto my soul draw nye,
the same with ayd repose:
Because of their great tyranny,
acquite me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame, thou knowest and thou canst tell:

For those that seeke and worke the same,
thou seest them all full well.
22 When they with brages doe breske my
I seeke for helpe anone: (hart,
But finde no frendes to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.
23 But in my meate they gaue me gall,
to cruell for to thinke:
And gaue me in my thirst withall, strong vineger to drinke.
24 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.
25 And let their eyes be darke and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bow downe their back and do them bind in thalldome for to be.
26 Doute out thy wrath as hote as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take holde vpon them all.

27 As defart dyt their house disgrace, their offinges eke expell:
That none therof possesse their place,
nor in their tentes doe dwell.
28 If thou doe strike the man to tame,
on him they lye full sore:
And if that thou doe wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.
29 Then let them heape by mischife still,
such they are all peruert:
That of thy fauour and good will,
they neuer haue no part.
30 And dash them cleane out of the booke,
of lyfe, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they neuer loke,
in number of the iust.

The fourth part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with woe & griefe, haue bene full sore opprest:
Thy helpe shall geue me such reliefe, that all shall be redrest.
32 That I may geue thy name the prayse,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes,
with harty thanks among.
33 Which is more pleasaunt vnto thee, such minde thy grace hath borne:
Then either Oxe, or Calf can be,
that hath both hose and horne.
34 When simple men doe thus behold,
it shall reioyce them sure:
All ye that seeke the Lord behold,
pour lyfe for aye Lord durc.
35 For why the Lord of hostes doth beare
the poore when they complayne:
His prisoners are to him full beare,
he doth them not disdain.
36 Wherefore the skye and earth below,
the sea with floud and streame:

His prayse they shall declare, and shew with all that lyue in them.

- 17 For sure our God will Sion saue, and Iudaes Cittyes builde:
Much folde possession there shall haue,
her streetes shall all be filld.
18 Her seruauents seide shal kepe the same
all ages out of minde:
19 And there all they that loue his name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiuto. Psal. Lxx. I.H.

The prayeth to be right spredely deliuered, bys enes mpes to be ashamed, and all that seeke the Lord to be comforted.

- 0 God to me take heede,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hostes with hast and speed,
help help I thee desire.
1 With shame confound them all,
that seeke my soule to spill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall,
that thinke and wyse me ill.
2 Confound them that apply, and seeke to worke me shame
And at my harme do laugh and cry, so, so, there goeth the game.
3 But let them ioyfull be in thee, with toy and wealth, Which onely trust and seke to thee,
and to thy sauing health.
4 That they may say alwayes,
in mynth and one accord:
All glory, honor, laud, and prayse,
be geuen to thee O Lord.
5 But I am weake and poore, come Lord thy ayde I lacke:
Thou art my stay and helpe therfore,
make spæde and be not slacke.

In te Domine. Psal. Lxxi. I.H.

The prayeth in sayth established by promise & confirmed by the worke of God from his youth, to be deliuered from his wicked and cruel some abaslon, with his consideracie, promising to be thanks gill therfore.

Sing this as the 27 psalme,

- My Lord my God in all distresse,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art iust defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Beue care and to my sute accord,
and send me helpe at neede.
3 Be thou my rache to whome I may,
for ayde all tymes refoze:
Thy promise is to helpe alway,
thou art my fence and foit.
4 Saue me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power.

From folke vnjust and eke from them,
that cruelly deuour.

- 5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust, thou Lord of hostes art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee.
6 Thou hast me kept euen from my bruth and I through thee was boine: Wherfore I will the prayse with mynth,
both euening and moine.
7 As to a monster seldeome seene, much folke about me thronq:
But thou art now and still hast bene,
my fence and ayde so strong.
8 Wherefore my mouth no tyme shall lacke thy glory and thy prayse:
And eke my tongue shall not be slacke,
to honour thee alwayes.
9 Refuse me not O Lord I say, when age my tynes doth take:
And when my strength doth wast away,
doe not my soule forsake.
10 Among themselves my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit:
And they agaynst me doe conspire, that for my soule layd wayre.

The second part.

- 11 Lay hand and take him now they sayd,
for God from him is gone:
Disparch him quite for to his ayde,
I was there commerly none.
12 Do not absent thy selfe away,
O Lord when neede shall be:
But that in tyme of griefe thou may,
with hast geue helpe to me.
13 With shame confound and ouerthrow,
all those that seke my lyfe:
Oppres them with rebukes also,
that sayne would worke me strife.
14 But I will patiently abyde,
thy helpe at all assayes:
Still more and more ech tyme and tyde,
I will set forth thy prayse.
15 My mouth thy iustice shall record, that dayly helpe doth send:
But of thy benefite O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
16 Yet will I goe and seke forth one,
with thy god helpe O God:
The sauing health of the alone,
to shew and set abroad.
17 For of my youth thou takest the care, and doest instruct me still:
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I haue great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didst me kepe and stay:
Forsake me not into my mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

- 19 That I thy strength and might may to them that now be here: (Ibew,
And that our sode thy power may know,
herafter many a yeare.
- 20 O Lord thy iustice, doth excede,
thy doings all may see:
Thy workes are wonderfull in dede,
Oh who is lyke to the?
- 21 Thou madest me fele affliction soze,
and yet thou didst me saue:
Yea thou didst helpe and me restore,
and tokest me from the graue.
- 22 And thou mine honoure doest encrease,
my dignitie maintayne:
Yea thou doest make all strife to cease,
and comfortt me agayne.
- 23 Therefore thy faythfulnes to prayse,
I will both lute and sing:
My harpe shall sound thy laud alwayes,
O Israels holy king.
- 24 My mouth shall toy with pleasaunt
when I shall sing to thee: (voyce,
And eke my soule will much reioyce,
for thou hast made me free.
- 25 My tongue thy brightnes shall sound and speake it dayly still:
For griefe and shame do them confound, that sought to worke me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. Lxxii. I. H.

Gods kingdome by Christ is represented by Solo, mon under whome shall be righteounes, peace, and felicity, unto whome all kinges, & nations shall doe homage whose name & power shall endure for ever.

Ord geue thy iudgements to the kyng, therein instruct him well: And wyth hys sonne that princely thyng.

Lord let thy iustice dwell. 2. That he may gouerne vprightly, and rule thy folke aright: And so descent through equitie, the poore that haue no might.

3 And let the mountaynes that are hye, vnto thy folke geue peace:

- And eke let litle hills apply,
in iustice to increase.
- 4 That he might help the weake & poze, with ayde and make them strong:
And eke destroy for euermore,
all those that doe them wrong.
- 5 And then from age to age shall they, regard and feare thy might:
So long as Sonne doth shine by day,
or els the Moone by night.
- 6 Lord make the king vnto the iust,
lyke rayne to fildes new mowne:
And lyke to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land vnsowne.
- 7 The iust shall flourish in his tyme,
and all shall be at peace:
Vntill the Moone shall leaue to prime,
wax chaunge and to increase.
- 8 He shall be Lord of Sea and land,
from syore to syore thoroughour:
And from the floudes within the land,
through all the earth about.
- 9 The people that in desert dwell, shall knele to him full thicke:
And all his enemies shall rebel,
the earth and dust shall liche.
- 10 The Lordes of all the Isles thereby, great giftes to him shall bring:
The kinges of Saba and Arabie, geue many a costly thyng.

The second part.

- 11 All kinges shall seeke with one accord,
in his god grace to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall serue him at his hand.
- 12 For he the needy for doth saue,
that vnto him doe call:
And eke the simple folke that haue,
no helpe of man at all.
- 13 He taketh pittye on the poze,
that are with neede opprest:
He doth preserue them euermore,
and bring their soules to rest.
- 14 He shall rede me therit lyfe from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might,
And eke the bloud that they shall blede,
is precious in his sight.
- 15 But he shall lye, and they shall bring,
to him of Sabacs golde:
He shall be honoured as a king,
and dayly be extold.
- 16 The mighty mountaynes of his land,
of coine shall beare such thyng:
That it lyke Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.
- 17 Their Cityes eke full well shall spede
the fountes thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall farre exceede, and spring as green as gras
- 18 For euer they shall prayse his name,
while that the sunne is light:

And

And thinke them happy though the same all folke shall bleſſe his might.

19 Praise ye the Lord of hostes and ſing to Israells God ech one:

For he doth euery wondrous thing,
yea he himſelfe alone.

20 And bleſſed be his holy name,
all tymes eternally:

That all the earth may prayſe the same,
Amen, Amen, ſay J.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. Lxxiii. T.S.

David teacheth that neither the poſſeſſors of the dingood, nor the affliction of the good ought to discourage Gods Children, but rather moue them to conſider Gods prouidence, and to reuerence his iudgements; for that the wicked vaniſh away like ſmoke and the good enter into like euell king, in hope whereof he reſigneth himſelfe to Gods handes.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

How euer it be yet God is god,
and kinde to Iſrael:

And to all ſuch as ſafely heepe,
their conſcience pure and well.

2 Yet like a ſtole I almoſt ſlurr,
my fate began to ſlide:

And o: I wiſt euen at a pntch,
my ſteps awy gan glide.

3 For when I ſaw ſuch fooliſh men,
I grudge and did diſdayne:

That wicked men all thinges ſhould haue,
without turmoyle or payne.

4 They neuer ſuffre panges nor grieſe,
as if death ſhould them ſmite:

Their bodies are both ſtout and ſtrong,
and euer in god plight.

5 And free from all aduerſitye,
when other men be ſhent:

And with the reſt they take no part,
of plague or puniſhment.

6 Therefore preſumption doth embrace, their neckes as doth a chayne:

And are euen waſt as in a robe,
with rapine and diſdayne.

7 They are to ſed that euen for faſt, their eyes oft tymes out ſart:

And as for worldly goddes they haue,
more then can wiſe their hart.

8 Their lyfe is moſt lycentious, boasting much of their wrong:

Which they haue done to ſimple men,
and euer pyde among.

9 The heauens and the lving Lord,
they ſpare not to blaſpheme:

And prate they doe on worldly thinges,
no wight they doe eſte me.

10 The people of God oft tymes turne to ſe their prosperous ſtate: (backe,

And almoſt drinke the ſelfe ſame cup,
and ſolow the ſame rate.

The ſecond part.

How can it be that God ſay they,

ſhould know and vnderſtand:

These worldly thinges ſince wicked men,
be Lordes of Sea and land.

12 For we may ſe how wicked men,
in riches ſkill increaſe:

Rewardd well with worldly goddes,
and lye in reſt and peace.

13 Then why doe I from wickednes, my fantaſie reſrayne?

And waſhe my handes with innocentes,
and cleaſe my hart in bayne.

14 And ſuffer ſcourges euery day,
as ſubiect to all blame:

And euery morning from my youth,
liſtayne rebuke and ſhame.

15 And I had almoſt ſayd as they,
miſtyking mine eſtate:

But that I ſhould the people ſudge,
as folke vnfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might,
this matter vnderſtand:

But yet the labour was to great,
for me to take in hand.

17 Untill the tyme I went into thy holy place and then

I vnderſtoode right perfectly,
the end of all theſe men.

18 And namely how thou ſetteſt them,
vpon a ſlippery place:

And at thy pleaſure and thy will,
thou doeſt them all deſace.

19 Then all men muſt at that ſtraunge to ſe how ſoderly: (ſight,

They are deſtroyd, diſpatcht, conſunde,
and dead fo horribly.

20 Much like a dreame when on awakes
ſo ſhall their wealthe decay:

Their famous names in all mens ſight, ſhall ebbe and paſ away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my hart was greued then,
my minde was much oppreſt:

So fond was I and ignorant,
and in this poynnt a beaſt.

22 Yet neuertheleſſe by my right hand,
thou holdeſt me alwayes faſt:

And with thy counſell doeſt me guide,
to glory at the laſt.

23 What thing is there that I can wiſh,
but the in heauen above:

And in the earth there is nothing,
like the that I can ioue.

24 My fleſhe and eke my hart doth ſayle,
but God doth ſayle me neuer:

For of my hart God is the ſtrength,
my poſſion eke for euer.

25 And loe all ſuch as the forſake, thou ſhalt deſtroyp ech one:

And thoſe that traſt in any thing,
ſauing in the alone.

26 Therefore I wd draw neare to God,
and

and euer with him dwell:

In God alone I put my trust his wonders wil I tel.

Vt quid Deus, Psal, Lxxiiii. I. H.

¶ A complaine of the destruction of the Church and true religion, vnder the name of Sion and the altar desoloped. But trust in the might & free mercies of God, by his covenants, requireth helpe and succour to the glory of his name, the saluation of his poore afflicted seruants, and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 72 Psalme.

Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this danger deuy?

Why dost thine anger kindle thus at thine own pasture shep?

1 Lord cal the people to thy thought,
which haue ben thine so long:

The which thou hast redeemed and brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Haue mind therfore and think vpon
remember it ful wel:

Thy pleasant place thy mount Syon,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift vp thy feet and come in hast,
and al thy foes deface:

Which now at pleasure rob and wast within thy holy place.

5 Amid the congregations all,
thine enemies roare O God:

They set as signes on euery wal their banners playd abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills doe grow:

So shine the billes and swoords of these,
within thy temple now.

7 The setting sawed, the carued wood,
the godly grauen stones:

With axes, hammers, billes, and swordes
they beat their down at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in al this toyl:

The house appoynted to thy name,
they race down to the soyl.

9 And thus they sayd within their hats dispatch hym our of hand:

Then burnt they vp in euery place,
Gods houses througth the land.

10 Yet thou no signe of help doest send,
our prophets al are gone:

To tel when this our plague should end
among vs there is none.

Why wilt thou Lord once end this shame,
and cease thine enemies strong?

11 Shal they alway blaspheme thy name,
and rayl on the so long?

12 Why doest withdraw thy hand aback and hide it in thy lap?

¶ Pluck it out and be not slack,
to geue thy foes a rap.

The second part.

13 O God thou art my king and Lord,

and euermore hast ben:

Yea thy god grace throughtout the world for our good help hath sent.

14 The seas that are so deepe and dead,
thy might did make them day:
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die.

15 Yea thou didst break 7 heads so great,
of Whales that are so fell:

And gauest them to the folks to eate,
that in the deserts dwell.

16 Thou madest a spring with streames to flow from rock both hard and dry:

And eke thy hand hath made likewise,
dey ryuers to be dry.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by the they were begun:

Thou setst to serue vs with their shine,
the light and eke the sunne.

18 Thou doest appoint the ends & coasts of al the earth about:

Both summer heates, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on O Lord no time forget,
thy foes that the defame:

And how the foolish folk are set,
to rayl vpon thy name.

30 O let no cruel beast deuour
thy turtle that is true:

Forget not alwayes in thy power,
the poore that much doe rue.

21 Regard thy covenant, and behold thy foes posses the land:

All sad, and dark, forwoyn, and old,
our realm as now both stand.

22 Let not the simple goe away,
with disapoynted shame:

But let the poore and needy eye,
geue prayse vnto thy name.

23 Rise Lord let be by the maintaynd,
the cause that is thine own:

Remember how that thou blasphemd art by the foolish one.

24 The voyce forget not of thy foes
for the presuming hye:

Is more and more increas of those that hate the spitefully.

Confitebimur tibi, Psal Lxxv. N.

¶ The saythfull prayse of the Lord who shall come to iudge at his tyme, when the wicked shall drinke the cup of his wrath. But the righteous shall be exalted to honoꝝ.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

Unto thee God we will geue thanks,
we will geue thanks to thee:

Sith thy name is so neare declare,
thy wondrous workes wil we.

2 I will by rightly iudge when get conuenient tyme I may:

The earth is weake and al thetin,
but I her pillars ſtay.

3 I did to the mad people ſay,
deale not ſo fuirpouly:

And vnto the vngodly ones,
ſet not your hornes ſo hye.

4 I ſayd vnto them ſet not vp your rayed hornes on hye:

And ſe that ye doe with ſtiſſe neck,
not ſpeake preſumptuouſly.

5 For neither from the eaſtern part nor from the weſtern ſide:
Nor from forſaken wildernes, protection doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous iudge alone:
He putteth down the one, and ſets another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God:

And al the mighty wine therin,
him ſelf doth poure abroad.

8 As for the leſs and filthy dregs, that doe remaine of it:

The wicked of the earth ſhal drink and ſuck them euery whit,

9 But I wil talke of God I ſay, of Jacobs God therfore:
And wil not ceaſe to celebrate his prayſe for euermore.

10 In ſunder break the hornes of al
vngodly men wil I:

But then the hozne of righteous men
ſhal be cſpalled hye.

Gloria Patri.

To father, Sonne, and holy Ghoſt
al glory be therfore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and ſhal be euermore.

Sing this as the 69. Pſalme.

T O all that now in Iury dwell
the Lord is cleerly known:
His name is great in Iſrael,
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pyght,
to tary there a ſpace:

In Syon eke he hath delight,
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both ſhaft and bow
the ſword, the ſpeare, and ſhield:
And brake the ray to ouerhrow
in battayl on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honor Lord,
more might in the doth lye:

Then in the ſtrongest of the world,
that roob on mountaynes hye.

5 But now the proud are ſpoilyd through

Through men of war no help can be. ^(the) them ſeues they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke O Jacobs God,
when thou doeſt them reprove,
As hal on the p their chariots ſtood
no horſeman once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord in dedd, what man the courage hath
To bide thy ſight, and doth not dread, when thou art in thy wrath. ^(heard)

8 When thou doeſt make thy iudgements from heauen through the ground:
Then all the earth ſul foie afeard,
in ſilence ſhal be found.

9 And that whē thou O God doeſt ſand,

To ſaue the afflicted of the land,

10 The fury that in man doth raig
ſhal turne vnto thy prayſe:
Hereafter Lord do thou reſtayne their wrath and threates alwayes.

11 Make bowes & pay them to your God, ye folke that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull ſure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might,
from princes great of birch:
And ful of terror is his ſight,
to all the kings on earth.

Voce mea ad. Pſal. lxxvii. I. H.

David rehearſeth his great afflictions a greuous temptations, whereby he is diuinen to conſider his former edue. ſation, & the courſe of Gods workes in the pſeruation of his ſeruanttes, and ſo he co firmeth his ſayth agapnſt theſe temptations.

Wyth my voyce to God doe cry, wyth harte and harty cheare: My voyce to God I liſe on hye: and he my ſute doth heare. In tyme of grief I ſought to God, by nyght no reſt I to oke: But ſtretcht my handes to hym abroad

abroade. my soule comfort forsooke.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I spake but could not make an end
my breath was kept so sore.
3 Thou holdst mine eyes alwayes fro rest
that I alwayes awake:
With feare am I so sore opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in mind I cast,
and oft did thinke vpon:
The times and ages that are past ful many yeares agone.

6 By night my songs I cal to mind,
once made thy playle to shew:
And wth my hart much talke I find my spirites do search to know.

7 Wth God sayd I at once for all cast of his people thus?
So that no tyme henceforth he shal be frendly vnto vs.

8 What, is his godnes clean decayd for euer and a day?
Or is his promise now delayd?
and doth his truth decay?

9 And wil the Lord our God forget, his mercies manifold?
Or shal his wrath increase so whor,
his mercies to withhold?

10 At last I sayd my weaknes is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

11 I wil regard and thinke vpon
the working of the Lord:
Of al his wonders past and gone,
I gladly wil record.

12 Yea all his workes I wil declare,
and what he doth deuise:
To tel his factes I wil not spare and eke his counsell wise.

13 Thy workes O Lord are al bright, and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match thy might
of the O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that oft doest shew
thy wonders euery houre:
And so doest make the people know thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou doest defend with strength and stretched arme:
The sonnes of Jacob that descend and Iosephes led from harme.

16 The waters Lord perceiued that the waters saw the wel:
And they for feare aside did flie,
the depths on trembling set.

The cloudes that were both cl,ick & black did raine ful plenteously:

The thunder in the ayre did crack thy shafts abroad did fly:
17 Thy thunder in the fire was heard,
the lightning from above:
18 Wth flashes great made men afearde,
the earth did quake and moue.

19 Thy way wth in the sea doth lye, thy pathes in waters deep:
yet none can there thy steps espy, nor know thy pathes to kepe.

20 Thou ledest thy folk vpon the land
as sheep on euery side:
Though Moyse & through Arons hand thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. psal. lxxviii. T. S.

He sheweth how God of his mercy chose his Church of the posteritie of Abraham, casting in there reeth the rebellion of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, & be ashamed of their peruerse ancestries. The holy ghost hath comprehended, as it were the summe of all Gods benefices, that the grosse people might see in few wordes the effect of the whole histories.

Tend my people to my law, and to my wordes incline: My mouth shall speak straunge parables, and sentences deuine. Which we our selues haue heard and leard, euen of our fathers

olde: And which for our instruction,

our fathers haue vs tolde.

4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who hold gods power to their race and all his workes of wonder. 1. prayse,

5 To Jacob he commaundement gaue,
how Israel should lue:
Willing our fathers should the same,
but to their children geue.

6 That they and their posteritie, which were not sprung by tho:
Should haue the knowledge of thy law,
and teach their seed also.

7 That they may haue the better hope,
in God that is aboue:
And not forget to keep his lawes,
and his pceptes in loue.

8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hartes
to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim, their neighbors for to spoyle:
Shooting their darts the day of war and yet they toke the spoyle.

10 For why? they did not keep with God,
the couenant that was made:
Nor yet would walke or lead their liues
according to his trade.

11 But put into obliuion.
his counsaile and his wil:
And al his works most magnifike whiche he declarerth stil.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our forfathers, did he himselfe disclose:
In Egypt land, within the field,
that called is Thaneos.

13 He did deuide and cut the sea,
that they might pass at once:
And made the waters stand as stil,
as doth an heap of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud,
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gaue them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gaue the people drinke:
As plentiful as when the dappes,
doe flow by to the bank.

16 He drew out riuers out of rocks that were both dry and hard:
Of such abundance that no fouds,
to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this agaynst the Lord their sinne they did increase:
And stirred him that is most hie,
to wrath in wilderness.

18 They tempted him within their hartes like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kind of meat,
as serued to their lust.

19 Saying with murmuratiō,
in their vnfaithfulness:
What can this God prepare for vs
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold he stroke the stony rock,
and fouds forthwith did flow:
But can he now geue to his folke both bread and flesh also?

21 When God heard this he waxed wroth with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully
belue and hope that he:
Could alwayes help and succor them,
in their necessitie.

23 Wherefore he did commaund the clouds forthwith they brake in sunder:

24 And raynd downe Manna for the eat
a fode of mickle wonder.

25 When earthly men with angels fode, were fed at their request:

26 He bad the east wind blow away,
and brought in the southweel,

27 And raynd downe flesh as thicke as dust and fowl as thicke as sand:

28 Which he did cast amidst the place where all the tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly and al men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire to serue their lustes and willes.

30 But as the meat was in their mouths
his wrath vpon them fel:

31 And slew the flower of al their youth,
and choys of Israel.

32 Yet fel they to their wonted sinne,
and stil they did him graue:
For al the wonders that he wrought
they would him not belue.

33 Their dayes therefore he shortened,
and made their honor bayn:
Their yeares did wast and pass away,
with terrois and with payn.

34 But euer when he plagued them they sought him by and by:

35 Rememb'ring then he was their strength their help, and God most hie.

36 Though in their hartes they did but and flatter with the Lord: ^(glose)
And with their tongues & in their hartes dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

37 For why? their hartes were nothing to him nor to his trade: ^(uent) Ne yet to keep, or to performe
the couenant that was made.

38 Yet was he stil so mercifull,
when they deserued to die:
That he forgauē them their misdoes and would them not destroy.

Yea many a time he turned his wrath,
and did himselfe aduise:
And would not suffer al his whol displeasure to arise.

39 Considering that they were but flesh and euen as a wind:
That passeth away and cannot wel, returne by hys own kind.

40 How oftentimes in wilderness,
did they their Lord prouoke:
How did they moue and stir the Lord,
to plague them with his stroke:

yet

41 Yet did they turne agayne to sinne and reempted God chisroune:
P^rescriving to the holy Lozd,
what thing they would haue done.
42 Not thinking of hys hand and power,
nor of the day when he:
Deliuered them out of the handes,
of the fierce enemy.
43 Nor how he wrought hys miracles,
as they themselues beheld:
In Egypt and the wonders that,
he did in Zoan field.
44 Nor how he turned by hys power,
their waters into bloud:
That no man might receaue hys bynne,
at riuer nor at fflow.
45 Nor how he sent them swarmes of which did them sore annoy: (flies,
And did their countries full of frogs,
why they did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruites,
vnto the Caterpillar:
And all the labour of their handes,
he gaue to the grasshopper.
47 With basketones he destroyed their so that they were all lost: (vines
And not so much as wilde fig trees, but he confumde with frost.
48 And yet with haylesstones once agayne,
the Lozd their cattell smote:
And all their flockes and heards likewise with thunderboltes full hote.
49 We call vpon them in hys ire,
and in hys fury strong:
Displeasure w^rath and euill spyttes,
to trouble them among.
50 Then to hys w^rath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.
51 He strake also the first bozne all,
that vp in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beastes,
within the bowels of Ham.
52 But as for all hys owne deare folk,
he did p^reserue and keepe:
And carped them through wilderness,
euen lyke a flock of sheepe.
53 Without all feare both safe and sound,
he brought them out of Egiptall:
Wher eas their foes with rage of sea,
were ouerwhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coastes of hys owne holy land:
Euen to the mount which he had got,
by hys strong arme and hand.
55 And ther call out the heathen folk,
and dye their land deserte:
And in their tentes he let the tribes,
of Israell to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most hye, they stirred and templed still:
And would not keepe hys testament,
nor yet obey hys will.
57 But as their fathers turned back,
euen so they went astray:
Such lyke a bow that will not bend,
but slip and start away.
The sixt part,
58 And greued hym with their hill altars with offeringes and with fire:
And with their Idols beheimently, prouoked hym to ire.
59 Therefore hys w^rath began agayne,
to kinde in hys brest:
The nauhtenes of Israell,
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsook the tabernacle, of Silo where he was:
Right conuersant with earthly men,
euen as his dwelling place.
61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand:
And gaue the honor of his arke,
into hys enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
w^roth with hys heritage:
63 The yong men were deuoured with firmaydes had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the Idollers all did perishe euery one:
And not a widow left aliuie,
their death for to be gone.
65 And then the Lozd began to wake,
like onc that slept a tyme:
And as a valiant man of warre,
refreshed after wine.
66 With Emrods in thy hinder partes,
he strake his enemyes all:
And put them then vnto a shame,
that was perpetuall.
67 Then he the tent and tabernacle,
of Joseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.
68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda, wher eas he thought to dwell:
Euen the noble mount Sion,
wher he did loue so well.
69 Wher eas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made,
for euer to endure.
70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe:
Which he choose vp and brought away,
euen from the foldes of sheepe.
71 As he did follow the Ewes with young the Lozd did him aduance:
To feede his people Israell,
and his inheritance.

72 Then David with a faithful hart,
his flock and charge did feed:
And prudently with all his power,
did gouern them in deed.

Deus uenerunt. Psal. Lxxix. I. H.

The Israelites complaine to God for the calamitie that they suffered, when Antiochus destroyed their temple and City, desiring and agaynst his tyranny least God and religion should be contemned by them, who should see them forsaken and perished.

Sing this as the 67 psalme.

O Lord the Gentils doe invade thine heritage to spoyl:

Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they despoyle.

2 The bodies of thy saints most deare, abroad to birds they cast:

The felts of them that do the feare,
the beastes deuour and wast.

3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
as water spilt they haue:
So that there is not one of them to lay their dead in graue.

4 Thus are we made a laughing stock almost the world throughout:
The enemies at vs iest and mock,
which dwell our coastes about.

5 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire, against vs euer fume?
And shew thy wrath as hote as fire
thy folke for to consume?

6 Upon those people poure the same,
which did the neuer know.
All realmes which cal not on thy name, consume and overthrow.

7 For they haue got the upper hand and Jacobs seed destroyed:
His habitation and his land,
they haue left wast and boyd.

8 Beate not in mind our former faultes with spied some pittie shew
And ayd vs Lord in all assaults, for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God that geuest al health and grace.
on vs declare the same:
Weigh not our workes, our sinnes deface,
for honoz of thy name.

10 Why shal the wicked stil alway to vs as people dum:
In thy reproch reioyce and say where is their God become?

Require O Lord as thou seest god,
before our eyes in sight:
Of al those folke thy seruantes blond,
which they spilt in desire.

11 Keeceau into thy sight in hast the clamozs, grief and wrong
Of such as are in pryson cast, sustayning irous strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord set them out of band:
Which vnto death are destinate,

and in their enemies hand: 12 The nations which haue ben so bold
as to blasphem thy name:
Into their laps with scuen fold,
repay agayn the same.

13 So we thy folke, and pasture shep,
wil prayse the euermore:
And teach al ages for to keep,
for the like prayse in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal Lxxx. I. H.

A lamentable prayer to god to help the miseries of the Church desiring hym to consider the first estate when hys fauoz shined towards them, that hee might finally that woe which he began.

Sing this as the 78 psalme.

T Thou heard that Israel doest keep geue care and take god heed:
Which leadeit Joseph like a shep,
and doest him watch and feed.

2 Thou Lord I say whose feat is set,
on Cherubins to bright:
Shew forth thy self and do not let send down thy beames of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise:
To shew thy power do thou begin come help vs Lord arise.

4 Direct our harts vnto thy grace
conuert vs Lord to the:
Shew vs the brightnes of thy face,
and then ful safe are we.

5 Lord God of hostes of Israel,
how long wilt thou I say:
Agaynst thy folk in anger dwell,
and wilt not heare them pray?

6 Thou doest the seed with sorowes hee their bread with teares they eat:
And drink the teares that they do weepe,
in measure ful and great.

7 Thou hast vs made a very strife, to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do loue of life,
they laugh and iest it out.

8 O take vs Lord vnto thy grace, conuert our mindes to the:
Shew forth to vs thy joyful face,
and we ful safe shal be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well thou broughtest a vine ful deare:
The heathen folk thou didst expel and thou didst plant it here.

10 Thou didst prepare for it a place and set her rootes ful fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and hid the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about,
with shade that from it came:
And eke the Cedars high and stout with branches of the same.

12 Why the doest thou her wailes destroy,
her hedge plucht by thou hast:
That at the folk that pas thereby,
thy vine may lye and wast.

- 13 The bore out of the wood so wild both dig and rot it out:
The furious beasts out of the fields denouit it all about.
- 14 O Lord of hostes returne agayn,
from heauen take betune:
Behold and with thy help sustayn this poore vineyard of thine.
- 15 Thy plant I say, thine Israel, whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst loue so wel,
O Lord do not forget.
- 16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burne it eke with fire.
And through the frowning of thy face
we perishe in thine ire.
- 17 Let thy right hand be with them now whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the sonne of man, whom thou to the last made so strong.
- 18 And so when thou hast set vs free,
and saved vs from thame:
Then wil we neuer fall from thee,
but call vpon thy name.
- 19 O Lord of hostes through thy good grace
conuert vs vnto thee:
Behold vs with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Exultate Deo. Psal. Lxxxii. I. H.

An exhortation to praise God for his benefices condemning their ingratitude.

Bright and glad, in God reioyce.

which is our strength and stay: Be ioy

full and lift by your voyce, to Jacobs

God, I say. 2. Prepare your instruments most meet, some ioyfull psalme to sing: Strike by with harp and lute so sweet, on euery pleasant string,

3 Blow as it were in the new moon,
with trumpets of the best:

As it is vsed to be done,
at any solemne feast.

4 For this is vnto Israel, a statute and a trade:

A law that must be kept full wel,
that Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed should still obserue the same.

6 When God I say had thus prepared,
to bring him from that land:
Wheras the speech which he had heard
he did not vnderstand.

7 I from his shoulders toke saith he,
the burthen clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning brick of clay.

8 When thou in grief doest cry and cal,
I help thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall:
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and proue:
Wheras the godnes of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst moue.

10 Heare O my folke, O Israel and I assure it thee:
Regard and marke my wordes full wel,
if thou wilt cleaue to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reuerie, of any land abroad:
Nor in no wise to bow, or serue
a strange and foynain God.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt set thee free:
Then aske of me abundantly and I wil geue it thee.

13 And yet my people would not heare,
my voyce when that I speak:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leaue them to theyr will,
in hardnes of theyr hart:
To walke in their own counsell still,
themselues they might peruert.

15 O that my people would haue heard,
the wordes that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard,
to walke within my way.

16 How soon would I confound their foes,
and bying them downe full low?
And turne my hand vpon all those,
that would them ouerthrow?

17 And they that at the Lord do rage, as snakes should seek him till,
But of his folk the tyme and age, should shortly euer still.

18 I would haue fed them with the crop,
and sheaf of the wheat:
And make the rock with hony drop,
that they theyr fillers should eat.

Deus Reu. in. Psal. Lxxxii. I. H.

C. liij.

David

Deus stetit in, Psal. Lxxxii. I. H.

David declaring God to be present with Judges and Magistrates, reproveth their partialitie and unrighteousnesse, and exhorteth them to do iudice due seeing no amendment, he desireth God to excuse iudice himself.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

Assid the praise with men of might,
the Lord hymselfe did stand:

To pleade the cause of truth and right,
with iudges of the land.

How long sayd he will you proceede, falle iudgement to award?

And haue respect for loue of meebe,
the wicked to regard.

Whereas of due you should defend,
the fatherles and weake:

And when the poore man doth contend,
in iudgement iustly speake

If ye be the defend the cause, of poore men in their right:

And rid the needy from the clawes, of tyrantes force and might.

But nothing will they know or learne,
in bayne to them I talk:

They will not see or ought discerne,
but still in darknes walke.

For loe euen now the tyme is come,
that all things fall to nought:

And likewise lawes both all and some,
for gayne are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight,
as Gods to take you all:

And children to the most of might,
for loue I did you call.

But notwithstanding ye shall dye,
as men and so decay:

O tyrantes I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

Up Lord and let thy strength be known and iudge the world of might:

For why? all nations are thine owne,
to take them as thy right.

Deus qui similis, Psal. Lxxxiii. I. H.

The Israelites pray the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies, both at home and far of: also that all such wicked people, be striken with hys stormy tempests, that they may know hys power.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

Do not O God refrayne thy tongue,
is silence do not stay:

Withold not Lord thy selfe so long,
nor make no more delay.

For why? behold thy foes and see,
how they do rage and cry:

And those that beate an hate to thee,
hold by their heades on hye:

Agaynst thy folke they vse deceit,
and craftily they enquire:

For thyne elect to lye in wayte,
their counsell doth conspire.

4 Come on say they let vs expell,
and pluck these folke away:

So that the name of Israel,
may bitterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their hart,
how they may thee withstand:

Agaynst thee Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.

6 The tentes of all the Edomites, the Ismaelites also.

The Haggarens and Moabites, with diuers other mo.

7 Geball with Ammon and likewise,
doth Amelech conspire:

The Philistines agaynst thee ryle, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Assur he is well apayd, with them in league to be:

And doth become a fence and ayd,
to Lots posteritie.

9 As thou doest to the Mediantes, to serue them Lord echone:

As to Citer and to Jabin,
beside the brooke Eyson.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy, and waste them through thy might:

That they lye dounge on earth did lye,
and that in open sight,

The second part.

11 Make them now and their Lords as like Zeb and Oeb than: (peare

As Zebath and Zalmana were,
the kings of Mediant.

12 Which sayd let vs throughout the land,
in all the coastes abroad:

Possesse and take into our hand,
the fayre houses of God.

13 Turn the O God with storms full fast
as wheels that haue no stay:

Or like the chaffe which men do cast,
with windes to fle away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forest spilles:

And as the flame doth quite consume,
the mountaynes, and the hills:

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath,
upon their neckes be layde:

And of thy stormy winde and shower,
Lord make them all affrayd:

16 Lord bring them all I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame:

That it may cause them to enquire,
and learne to leek thy name.

17 And let them euermore dayly, to shame and slaughter fall:

And in rebuke and obloquy, to perish eke with all.

18 That they may know and feel full wel,
that thou art called Lord:

And

And that alone thou dost erect and raign throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Psal. lxxxiiii. I.H.

David erised his country desireth ardently to see turne to Gods tabernacle, a assembly of the Saints to praise God. When he manifesteth the courage of the people, that pas the wilderness to assemble themselves in Zion.

Sing this as the 87. psalme.

How pleasaunt is thy dwelling place
O Lord of hostes to me:

The tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleasaunt Lord they be.

My soule doth long, full sope to goe into thy courtes abroad:

My hart doth lust my flesh also,
in thee the liuing God.

The sparrowes finde a roome to rest,
and saue themselves from wrong:

And eke the swallow hath a nest, wherein to saue her young.

These byrdes fill up thy altar may,
haue place to sit and sing:

O Lord of hostes thou art I say,
my God eke and my king.

Oh they be blessed that may dwell within thy house alwayes:

For they all tymes thy praises do tell,
and geue thy name the praise,

Yea happy (sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:

Whych to thy house do mind the way,
and seek thee in their hart.

As they go through the vale of teares they dig up fountaynes still:

That as a spring it all appeares,
and thou their pits doost fill.

From strength to strength they walke
no fayntnes there shall be: (full say)

And so the God of Gods at last, in Syon they do see.

O Lord of hostes to me geue heed,
and heare when I do pray.

And let it through thine eares proceed,
O Jacobs God I say.

Our Lord our shield of thy good grace, regard and so draw neare:

Regard I say behold the face,
of thine annoynted beare.

For why? wishin thy courtes one day,
is better to abide:

Then other wheret to keep or stay,
a thousand dayes beside.

Such rather would I keep a doze,
within the house of God:

Then in the tentes of wickednes, to settle myne abode.

For God the Lord light and defence, will grace and worship geue:

And no good thing shall he withhold,
from them that purely tme.

14 O Lord of hostes that man is blest, and happy sure is he:

That is perswaded in his brest,
to trust all tymes in thee.

Benedixisti Do Psal. Lxxxv. I.H.

Because God withdrew not his robs fro his Church after the returne from Babilon, first they put him in minds that he should not leaue the worke of his grace unpertie, and complaine of their long afflic-tion. Thirdly they reioyce in hope of promised beedeliuerance, which was a figure of Christs kings dome, vnder which should be perfect felicity.

Sing this as the 81. psalme.

Thou hast bene mercifull in deed,
(O Lord) vnto thy land:

For thou restoredest Jacobs seed,
from thraldome out of hand.

The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit:

And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coveredst it.

Thine anger eke thou didst awayne,
that all thy wrath is gone:

And so didst turne thee from the rage,
with them to be at one.

O God our health do now conuert,
thy people vnto thee:

For all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angry cease to be.

Why shall thine anger neuer end?
but still proceed on vs?

And shall thy wrath it selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus?

Wilt thou not rather turne therfore,
and quicken vs that we:

And all thy folke for euermore, be glad and ioy in thee?

O Lord to vs do thou declare,
thy goodness to our wealth:

Shew forth to vs and do not spare,
thyne ayd and sauing health.

I will barke what God sayth, for he speakes to his people peace,

And to his sayntes that neuer they,
returne to foolynesse.

For why? his health is still at hand,
to such as do him feare:

Wherby great gloiy in the land, shall dwell and flourish there.

For truth and mercy these shall meet,
in one to take their place:

And peace shall iustice with kisse greet and there they shall embrace.

And truth from earth shall spring apace
and flourish pleasauntly:

So righteousnes shall shew her face and look from heauen hie.

Yea God himselfe shall take in hand,
to geue vs ech good thing:

And though the coastes of all the land,
the earth her fountes shall bying.

13 Before hys face shall iustice go, much lyke a guyde or stay:
He shall direct hys steps also,
and keepe them in the way.

3 For why? my soule with woe is filld,

My lyfe and breath almost doth yeld,

4 I am esteemed as one of them, that haue no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead and free, from things that here remaine:

It were more ease for me to be,
with them the which are slayne.

6 As those that lye in graue I say,
whome thou hast cleane forgot:

The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardest them not.

7 Yea lyke to one shut vp full sure,
within the lower pit:

In places darke and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thyne anger and thy wrath likewise full soze on me doth lye:

And all thy scowles agaynst me tise,
my soule to vex and try.

9 Thou putt'st my frendes far of from me and makest them hate me soze:

I am shut vp in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

10 My sight doth fayle though griefe and I call to thee O God: (woe

Throughout the day my handes also,

to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Doeſt thou vnto the dead declare,
thy wontous workes of fame?
Shall dead to lyfe agayne repaire,
and prayse thee for the same?

12 O shall thy louing kindenes Lord, be preached in the graue?
O shall with them that are destroyed,
thy truth her honor haue?

13 Shall they that lye in darke full low,
of all thy wondrous wor?
O there shall they thy iustice know,
where all things are forgot?

14 But I (O Lord) to thee alway,
do cry and call apace:

My prayer eke ere it be day, shall come before thy face.

15 Why doeſt thou Lord abhorre my soul
in grief that seeketh thee:

And now O Lord why doeſt thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am afflict as dying fill,
from youth this many yeare:

The terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled men I beare.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage,
full soze vpon me fall:

The terrors eke do not aswage,
but me oppresse withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tyde:

And all at once with streames full stout:
beset me on eche side.

19 Thou settest far from me my frendes, and louers euery one:

Yea and mine olde acquaintance all,
out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias Psal. Lxxxix. I. H.

David prayseth God, for hys couenaunt made betwene hym and hys elect by Iesus Christ, then he complaineth of the desolation of hys kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. finally he prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions mentioning the shortnes of mans lyfe and comforting hymselfe by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 58. Psalme.

Tsing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare:
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I haue sayd that mercy should,
for euermore remaine:

In that thou doeſt the heauens say,
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To myne elect sayd God I made,
a couenaunt and behest:

My seruaunt David to perfwade,
I swore and did protest.

4 Thy seede for euer I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:

And

And stil behold thy throne alway, from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth thy wondrous works O Lord:

Thy Saints within thy church on earth thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with th: Lord is equal then,
in al the cloudes abroad?

Among the sonnes of al the Gods
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of the saints,
is greatly to be dread:

And ouer al that dwell about,
in terroz to be had.

8 Lord God of hostes in al the world
what one is like to the?

On every side most mighty Lord, thy truth is sen to be.

9 The raging sea by thine aduise,
thou rulest at thy wil:

And when the waues thereof arise
thou makest them calme and stil.

10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdued, and thou hast it destroyd:

Yea thou thy foes with mighty arme,
hast scattered al abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine & stil haue ben likewise the earth and land:

The world with al that is therein,
thou foundest with thy hand.

12 Both North & South, w: East & West, thy selfe did make and frame:

With Taboz mount and eke Hermon reioyce and prayse thy name.

13 Thine arme is strong and ful of power,
al might therein doth lye:

The strength of thy right hand ech hous
thou liuest by on hye.

14 In righteousness and equitie,
thou hast thy seat and place:

Mercy and truth are stil with thes,
and goe before thy face.

15 That folke is blest that knoweth aright
the present power of God:

For in the fauoz of thy sight,
they walke ful safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioice:

And through thy righteousness haue they
a pleasant fame and noice.

17 For why? their glory, strength, & ayd,
in the alone doth lye:

Thy goodnes eke that hath bys keyd, shal lift our home on hye.

18 Our strength that doth defend bys wel,
the Lord to bys doth bring:

The holy one of Israel,
he is our guyd and king.

19 Sometimes thy wil unto thy saints is vicious thou dost shew:

And thus then thou dost say to them thy mind to make them know.

20 A man of might I haue erect,
your king and guid to be:

And set him by whom I elect,
among the folke to me.

The third part.

21 My seruant Dauid I appoynt whom I haue searched out:

And with my holy oyl annoynt him king of al the rout.

22 For why? my hand is redy stil,
with him for to remayn:

And with mine arme also I wil him strengthen and sustayn.

23 The enemies that not him oppres,
they that nor him denour:

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednes,
on him shal haue no power.

24 His foes likewise I wil destroy,
before his face in sight:

And those that hate him I wil plague and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withal
shal stil vpon him lye:

And in my name his horn eke shal,
be lifted by on hye.

26 His kingdom I wil set to be vpon the sea and land:

And eke the running fouds shal he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shal depend with all his hart
on me, and thus shal say:

My father and my God thou art,
my rock of help, and stay.

28 As one sith born I wil him take,
of al on earth that springs:

His might and honoz I shal make aboue al worldly kinglys.

29 My mercy shal be with him stil,
as I my self haue toid:

My faithfull couenant to fulfil,
my mercy I wil hold.

30 And eke his seed I wil sustayn,
for euer strong and sure:

So that his seat shal stil remayn:
while heauen doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my law
and so begin to swerue:

And of my iudgments haue none awe
nor wil not them obserue:

32 O: if they doe not be aright,
my statutes to them made:

And let al my commaundements light,
and wil not keep my trade.

33 Then with the rod wil I begin their doings to amend:

And so with scourging for their sinne
when that they doe offend.

34 His mercy yet and my goodnes,
I will not take hym fro:
No: handle hym with craftines,
and so my truth fogoe.

35 But sure my couenaunt I will hold,
with all that I haue spoke:
No word the which my lips haue told,
shal alter or be broke.

36 Once sware I by myne holines, and that performe will I:
With Dauid I shall keepe promise, to hym I will not lye.

37 Hys seede for euermore shall raigne, and eke bys throne of might:
As doth the Sunne it shall remayne,
for euer in my sight.

38 And as the Moone within the skye,
for euer standeth fast:
A saythfull witness from on hye,
so shall hys kingdome last.

39 But now O Lord thou doest relect, and now thou chaungest cheare:
Yea thou art wath with thyne elect, thyne owne annoynted deare.

40 The couenaunt with thy seruant made,
Lord thou hast quite vnbone,
And downe vpon the ground also,
hast cast hys royall crowne.

The third part.

41 Thou pluckst hys hedges by thy might, hys walles thou doest confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarkes downe,
and breakest them to the ground.

42 That he is soze desstroyd and tozne, of comers by throughout:
And so is made a moch and scozme,
to all that dar dwell about.

43 Thou their right hand hast lyled by,
that hym so soze annoy:
And all hys foes that hym deuour,
loe thou hast made to ioi.

44 His swordes edge thou doest take away, that should hys foes withstand:
To hym in waere no victory,
thou geuest noz vpper hand.

45 Hys glory thou doest also wack,
hys throne, hys ioi and mirch:
By thee is oiterthrowne and cast,
full low vpon the earth.

46 Thou hast cut of and made full short,
hys yowth and lusty dayes:
And raysof of hym an ill reposit, with shame and great dyspraise.

47 How long away from me O Lord,
for euer wilt thou turne?
And shall thyne anger still alway,
as fire consume and burne?

48 O call to mynde remember then,
my tyne consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sennes of men,
as thynges in vayne to wast.

49 What man is hee that lyueth here,
and deatch shall neuer see?
Or from the hand of hell hys soule,
shall be deliuer free?

50 Where is O Lord thyne olde goodnes,
so oft declared before?
Which by thy truth and by sightnes,
to Dauid thou hast sworne.

51 The great rebukes to mynde I call,
that on thy seruantes lye:
The rayling of the people all,
bozne in my brest haue I,

52 Wherewith O Lord thyne enemies, blasphemed haue thy name:
The steps of thine annoynted one,
they cease not to defame.

53 All prayse to thee O Lord of hostes,
both now and eke for aye:
Througk skye and earth and al the coastes,
Amen, Amen, I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. XC. I. H.

Coless seeing the people, nether amonished by the hereticke of their life, nor by plagues, to be thankfull prayeth to God to turne their hartes, & continue hys mercies towards them and their pos-teritie for euer.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

Thou Lord hast bene our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest:
In all tyme past yea so long since,
as cannot be exprest.

1 Ere there was made mountayne or hyl,
the earth and all abroad:

for euer thou art God.

Thou grindest man through grief of payne,
to dust or clay, and then:
And then thou sayest agayne returne, agayne ye sonnes of men.

what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appeare,
or as a watch by night.

Our eares consume as wordes or blastes,
and are not cold agayne.
10 Our tyme is threescor yere and ten,
that we do lyue one mold:
If some see fourescore surely then,

The second part.

11 Yet of this tyme the strength and chiefe,
the which we count vpon:
Is nothing els but paynfull grief,
and we as blastes are gone.
12 Who once doth know what strength is what might thyne anger hath? (here, O in hys hart who doth thee feare,
according to thy wrath?

how long our dayes remayne:
And that we may our selues apply,
true wisdom to attayne.
14 Returne O Lord how long wilt thou forth on in wrath procede?
Shew fauor to thy seruantes now,
and help them at their neede.
15 Refresh vs with thy mercy soone,
and then our ioy shalbe:
All tymes so long as lyfe doth last,
in hart reioyce shall we.
16 As thou hast plagued vs before,
now also make vs glad:
And for the yeres wherein full soze, affliction we haue had.

17 O let thy worke and powet appeare,

And shew vnto thy children deare, thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord let thy grace and mercy stand,
on vs thy seruantes thus:
Confirm the workes we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to vs.

Qui habitat . Psal . XCi . I . H .

¶ Here is described the assurance he lieth in, that committeeth himselfe wholly to Gods protection in all temptations . A promise of God to those that loue hym, know hym, and trust in hym to deliuer them and geue them immortall glory.

Sing this as the 27. psalme.

HE th. within the secret place,
of God most hye doth dwell,
In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keepe hym well.
2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say:
By God he is in hym will I,
my whole assurance stay.
3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter layd:
And from the deadly care and feare,
whereof thou art affrayd.
4 And with hys wings shall couer thee,
and keepe thee safely there:
Hys sayth and truth thy fence shalbe,
as sure as shield and speare.

5 So that thou shalt not neede I say,
to feare or be affright:
Of all the thynges that flye by day,
nor terror of the night.
6 Nor of the plague that plunty, doth waite in darke to fall:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at none dayes doth wait.
7 Yea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shalbe:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet thou shalt be free.
8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thyne eyes shall well regarde:
That euen like to their desert,
the wicked haue reward.
9 For why? (O Lord) I onely trust, to stay my hope on thee:
And in the hest I put my lust,
my sure defence is he.
10 Thou shalt not neede none ill to feare,
with thee it shall not mell:
Nor yet the plague shall once come neare,
the house where thou dost dwell.
11 For why? vnto his aungels all,
with charge commaunde: he het That still in all thy wayes he shall, pursue and prosper thee.
12 And in their handes shall thee beare by,
still waiting thee vpon:
So that thy foote shall neuer chauce,
to spurne at any stone.

13 Vpon the Lyon thou shalt goe,
the adder fell and long:
And tread vpon the Lyons young,
with Dragons stout and strong.
14 For he that trusteth vnto me,
I will dispatch hym quites:
And hym defend because that hee,
doth know my name aright.
15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will geue:
And from hys griefe take hym will I,
in glory to to lyue 16 With length of yeres and dayes of
I wil fulfil hys tyme: (wealth
The godnes of my sauing health,
I will declare to hym.

Bonum est. Psal. XCii. I. H.

¶ This psalme for the Sabbath to sing by the people to acknowledge, and praise God in hys workes.
Dauid reioyseth therein: but the wicked consider not that the vngodly, when he is most desiring, shall most speedely perish. In the end is described the assurance of the iust, planted in the house of God in praise the Lord.

Sing this as the 38. psalme.

IT is a thing both good and meete, to prayse the highest Lord
And to sing name O thou most hye, to sing in one accord.

2 To shew the kynnes of the Lord

before ere day be light:
And eke declare bys truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

2 Upon ten stringed instrument, on Lute and harpe so sweete:
With all the mirthy you can inuent,
of instruments most meete.

4 For thou hast made me to reioyce, in thinges so wrought by the:
And I haue ioy in hart and boyce, thy handy workes to see.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great,
are all thy workes so stout:
So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.

6 The man brutish hath not the wit,
this geare to passe to byng:
And all such fooles are nothing fit,
to vnderstand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will,
as gratie do spyng full fast:
They when they flourish in their ill,
for euer shall be wast.

8 But thou art mighty Lord most hye, yea thou dost raigue therefore:
In euery tyme eternally,
both now and euermore.

9 For why? O Lord behold and see, behold thy foes I say:
How all that work iniquitie, shall perishe and decay.

10 But thou lyke as an Onicozne, shalt lyft my horne on hye:
With fresh and new prepared oyle, thyne oynced hyngam I.

11 And of my foes before myne eyes, shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that by agaynst me ryse, myne eare shall heare the same.

12 The mist shall flourish by on hye,
as Date trees bud and blow:
And as the Ceders multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:
Within bys courtes they spyng apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age moze fruite shal bring,
both fatte and well besecne:
And pleasauntly both bud and spring,
with boughes and braunches greene.

15 To shew that God is good and iust, and bright to bys will:
He is my roche my hope and trust,
in hym there is none ill.

Dominus regnauit. Psal.xciii.I.H.

¶ The psalme sheweth the power of God in the creation of the world, and beatech downe all people which lysethem by agaynst bys matchly, and prouoketh to consider his promises.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

The Lord as hyng aloft doth raigue,
in gloiy goodly dight:
And he to shew bys strength and mayne, hath girt himself with might.
2 The Lord lykewise the earth hath made,
and shaped it to sure:
No might can make it moue or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Eke that the world was made of thy seate was set before: (wrought, Beyond all tyme that can be thought,
thou hast bene euermore.

4 The flouds O Lord the flouds do ryse,
they roare and make a noyse:
The flouds (I say) did enterpryse,
and lifted by their boyce.

5 Yea though the stormes arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and moze of might,
for he on hye doth dwell.

6 And looke what promise he doth make, bys household to defend:
For iust and true they shall it take,
all tymes withouten end.

Deus vltionum. Psal. xciii. I. H.

¶ The psalme sheweth God agaynst the violence of tyrants and comforteth the afflicted by the good issue of their afflictions: and by the cunne of the wicked.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

O Lord thou dost reuenge all wrong,
that office longes to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy selfe for thou of right,
the earth dost iudge and guyde:
Reward the proud and men of might,
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men beare sway, with lifting by their boyce?
How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and reioyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst and proudly prate their fill? (out, Shall they reioyce which be so stout,
whose workes are euer ill?

5 Thy stocke O Lord thine heritage,
they spoyle and bere fullfore:
Agaynst thy people they do rage,
still dayly moze and moze.

6 The widowes which are comfortles, and strangers they destroy:
They slay the Children fatherles, and none do put them by.

7 And when they take these thinges in thys talk they haue of thee: hand Can Jacobs God this vnderstand, ruin no he cannot see,

8 O folke brutish and people rude,
some knowledg now discern:

Yea

yea fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.

9 The Lord that made the eare of man,
he needes of sight must heare:
He made the eyne all thinges must then,
before hys sight appeare.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand:

Shall he not then your deedes detect?
how can you scape hys hands?

The second part.

21 The Lord doth know the thought of hys hart he seeth full playne: (man,
The Lord I say mens hartes doth scan,
and sinder them but bayne.

22 But Lord that man is happy sure, whome thou doest keepe in awe:
And through correction doest prouide,
to teach them in thy law.

23 Whereby he shall in quiet rest,
in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men shall be suppressed,
and fall into the pit.

24 For sure the Lord will not refuse, hys people for to take:
Hys heritage whome he doth chuse,
he will no tyme forsake.

25 Untill that iudgement be dected,
to iustice to conuert:

That all may follow her with speede,
that are of bright hart.

26 But who vpon my part doth stand, agaynst the cursed trayne?

O, who shall rid me fro their handes,
that wicked woordes mayntayne?

27 Except the Lord had bene my ayd, myne enemies to repell:

My soule and lyfe had now bene layd,
almost as low as hell.

28 When I did say my foote did slide,
and I am lyke to fall:

Thy goodnes, Lord did so prouide,
to say me vp withall.

29 When with my selfe I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:

Then Lord thy goodnes did me touch,
and that did ease my mynde.

20 Wilt thou in haunt thy selfe and draw,
with wicked men to sit:

Which with pretence in stead of law,
much mischief do commit.

21 For they consult agaynst the lyfe,
of righteous men and good:

And in their counsels they are rife,
to shed the gillies blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me,
a strong defence of lock:

He is my God to hym I see,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefes all,

themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcvi. I. H.

¶ An earnest exhortation to prayse God for the good ueremie of the woold, and election of his Church, to eschew the rebellion of the old fathers, who tempted God in the wilderness, and therefore entered not the land of promise.

Sing this as the Benedictus.

0 Come let vs lift vp our voyce,
and sing vnto the Lord:
In him our rock of health reioyce,
let vs with one accord.

2 yea let vs come before hys face,
to geue hym thanks and prayse:
In singing psalmes vnto hys grace,
let vs be glad alwayes.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt,
a great and mighty God:
A hyng aboue all Gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deepe,
and corners of the land:
The tops of hilles that are so deepe,
he hath them in hys hand.

5 The sea and waters all are hys,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is,
hys hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let vs bow and payle the Lord,
before hym let vs fall:
And kneele to hym with one accord,
the which hath made vs all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for vs he doth prouide:
We are hys folk he doth vs feede,
his sheepe and he our guyde.

8 To day if ye hys saye will heare,
then harden not your hart:
As ye with grudging many a yere, prouokt me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to proue:
My wondrous woordes when they did see,
yet still they would me moue.

10 Twise twenty yeres they did me and I to them did say: (greue, They erre in hart and not beleue,
they haue not known my way.

21 Wherefore I sware when that my

That they should neuer tread the path, to enter to my rest.

Cantate Domi. Psal. Xcvi. I. H.

¶ An exhortation both to the Iewes and Gentiles to prayse God for his mercie, and this specially ought to be referred to the kingdome of Christ.

Sing this as the 77. Psalm.

Sing ye with prayse vnto the Lord,
new songs of toy and myght:

Sing

Sing vnto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
2 Yea sing vnto the Lord I say,
praise ye his holy name:
Declare and shew from day to day, saluation by the same.
3 Among the heathen eke declare,
his honour round about:
To shew his wonders doe not spare,
in all the world throughout.
4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right,
aboue all Gods I say.
5 For all the Gods of heathen folke, are Idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord,
that hath the heauens made.
6 All praise and honour eke do dwell,
for aye before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell,
within his holy place.
7 Ascribe vnto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world:
All might and worship eke I say,
ascribe vnto the Lord.
8 Ascribe vnto the Lord also,
the glory of his name:
And eke into his courtres doe goe,
with giftes vnto the same.

The third part.

9 Fall downe and worship ye the Lord,
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull at his sight.
10 Tell all the world be not agast,
the Lord doth raygne aboue:
Yea he hath set the earth so fast,
that it did neuer moue.
11 And that it is the Lord alone, that rules with princely might:
To iudge the nations euery one,
with equitie and right.
12 The heauens shall great ioy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce:
The sea with all that is therein, shall shoute and make a noyce.
13 The field shall ioy and euery thing,
that springeth of the earth:
The wood and euery tree shall sing,
with gladnes and with myrth.
14 Before the presence of the Lord, and comming of his might:
When he shall iudge the world,
and rule his folke with right.

Dominus reg. Psal. xcviij. I.H.

David exhorteth al to reioyce for the comming of the kingdome of Christ, dependfull to the rebels and Idolaters and ioyfull to the iust, to whom he exhorteth to innocencie, to reioysing, and thanksgyuing.

Sing this as the 77. psalme,

The Lord doth raygne wherat the earth
may ioy with pleasant voyce:
And eke the Isles with ioy full myrth,
may triumph and reioyce.
2 Both cloudes & darkness eke do swell,
and round about him beate:
Yea right and iustice euer dwell,
and bide about his seate.
3 Yea fire and heate at once did runne,
and goe before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burne,
abrood in euery place.
4 His lightning eke full bright did blase,
and to the world appaere:
Wherat the earth did loke and gase,
with dread and deadly feare.
5 The hilles lyke waxe did melt in sight,
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before that rulers might:
which guideth all the world.
6 The heauens eke declare and shew,
his iustice forth abroad:
That all the world may see, and know
the goodnes of our God.
7 Confusion sure shall come to such,
as worship Idols bayne:
And eke to those that glory much,
dumme pictures to maintayne.
8 For all the Idols of the world, which they as Gods doe call:
Shall see the power of the Lord,
and downe to him shall fall.

9 With ioy shall Ston heare this thing,
and Juda shall reioyce:
For at thy iudgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noyce.
10 That thou O Lord art set on hye,
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously, aboue ech other God.
11 All ye that loue the Lord doe this,
hate all thynges that is ill,
For ye doth kepe the foules of his,
from such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring vp to the iust, with pleasure for his part:
Great ioy with gladnes myrth and lust,
to them of vpright hart.
13 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holynes proclaime:
Be thankfull eke with hart and voyce,
and mindefull of the same.

Cantate Domi. Psal. xcviij. I.H.

An earnest exhortation to all creatures to praise the Lord for his power, mercie, and fidelitie in his promise by Christ, by whom he hath commuted his saluation to all nations.

Sing this as the 78. psalme.

O Sing ye now vnto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song: (world, for he hath wrought throughout the Within his courtes set forth his prayse, and laud his holy name.

4 For why? the godnes of the Lord, for euermore doth raygne.
From age to age throughout the world,
his truty doth still remaine.

Misericordiam. Psal. Ci. N.

¶ Dauid describeth what government he will obserue in his house and kingdome, by rooting out the wicked, and cherishing the goodly persons.

Sing this as the 8r. Psalme.

1 Mercy will and iudgement sing,
O Lord God vnto the:
2 And wisely doe in perfect way,
vntill thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walke,
in purenes of my spirite:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing, will set before my sight.
4 I hate the workes that fall away,
it shall not cleaue to me:
From me shall part the froward hart,
none euill will I fe.
5 Him will I stroy that flaunderseth,
his neighbour pryncely:
The lofty hart I can not beare,
nor him that looketh hye.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them with the land that saythfull be:
In perfect way who worketh, shall be seruaunt vnto me.
7 I will no guilefull person haue,
withyn my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not,
remayne that lyes doth tell.
8 Betymes I will destroy euen all,
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods Citte cut,
the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cii. N.

¶ It seemeth that this prayer was appointed to the saythfull to pray in the captivity of Bablon. a consolation for the building of the Church, whereat followeth the prayse of god to be published vnto all posterities. The conuersion of the Gentiles and habilitie of the Church.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

0 Heare my prayer Lord and let,
my cry come vnto the:
1 In tyme of trouble doe not hide,
thy face away from me.
2 Incline thine eares to me make hast,
to heare me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so doe
my dayes consume and fall.
4 And as a hart my bones are burnt,
my hart is smitten dead:
And withers as the grasse, that I forget to eate my bread.
5 By reason of my groning voyce,
my bones cleaue to my flunne:

6 As wellican in wolbernes, such case now am I in.
And as an Owle in desert I,
loe I am such a one:
7 I watch and as a Sparrow on,
the house top am alone.
8 Loe dayly in reprochfull wise,
mine enemies doe me scoyne:
And they that doe agaynst me rage,
agaynst me they haue swoyne.
9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I haue fild:
And mingled haue my drinke with teares,
that from mine eyes haue fild.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord, thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me downe agayne 11 The dayes wherein I passe my life, are lyke the flering shade:
And I am withered lyk the grasse,
that sone away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for euer doest, remayne in steady place:
And thy remembraunce euer doth,
abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise and mercy thou,
to Sion wilt extend:
The tyme of mercy now the tyme, forset is come to end.
14 For euen in the stones thereof,
thy seruantes doe delight:
And on the dust thereof they haue, compassion in their sprite.
15 Thou shalt the heathen people feare,
the Loydes most holy name:
And all the kinges on earth shall dread,
thy glozy and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God
agayne shall Sion reate:
And then when he most nobly in his glozy shall appeare.
17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himselfe shall bend:
When he shall not disdain vnto,
their prayers to attend:
18 This shall be written for the age,
that after shall succede:
The people yet increatd,
the Loydes renowne shall spread.
19 For he from his hye sanctuary,
hath looked downe below:
And out of heauen hath the Lord, beheld the earth also.
20 That of the mourning captiue he,
might heare the wo full cry:
And that he might deliuer those,
that damned are to dye.
21 That they in Sion may declare,
the Loydes most holy name:

And in Ierusalem let forth,
the prayes of the same.
22 Then when the people of the land,
and kingdomes with accord:
Shall be assembled for to doe,
their seruice to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath,
abated in the way:
And whither he did cut my dayes,
thus I therefore did say.
24 My God in midst of all my dayes,
now take me not away:
Thy yeares endure eternally,
from age to age for aye, 25 Thou the foundations of the earth,
before all tymes hast layd:
And Lord the heauens are the worke, which thine owne handes haue made, 26 Yea they shall pearsh and decay,
but thou shalt stay still:
And they shall all in tyme waxe olde, euen as a garment will.

Thou as a garment shalt them change,
and changed shall they be:
27 But thou dost still abide the same,
thy yeares do neuer fle.
28 The children of thy seruants shall,
continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seide,
for ever shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. Ciii. T.S.

The prophet prouoketh men and Angels, and al creatures to prayse the Lord for hys fatherly mercies, in deliuerance of hys people from euils, in his prouidence ouer all thinges, and in preservation of the church full.

My soule geue laud vnto the Lord,

my spite shall do the same: And all the secrets of my hart, prayse ye his holy name. Geue thanks to God for all hys giftes, Hew not thy selfe behind

And suffer not his benefites to slip out of thy mind.

3 That gaue the pardon for thy faultes,
and the restord agayne:
For all thy weake and frayle disafe,
and heald thee of thy payne.
4 That did rede me thy lyfe from death,
from which thou couldest not fle,
His mercy and compassion both,
he did extend to thee.
5 That hid with godnes thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Lpke as the Eagle casteth her bill, whereby her age reneweth.
6 The Lord with iustice doth repay,
all such that be opprest:
So that their sufferings & their wronges,
are turned to the best.
7 His wayes and his commandements to Moyses he did shew:
His counsells and his valiant actes,
the Israelites did know.
8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull,
when sinners doe him grieue:
The slowest to conceaue a wrath,
and redyest to forgive.

9 He chides not vs continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor kepes our faultes in memory,
for all our sinfull lyfe: 10 Nor yet according to our sinnes,
the Lord doth vs regard:
Nor after our iniquities,
he doth vs nor reward.
11 But as the space is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen above:
So is his godnes much more large,
to them that doe him loue.
12 God doth remoue our sinnes from vs,
and our offences all:
As farre as is the sunne rising,
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And loke what pittye parentes deare,
vnto their children beare:
Lpke pittye beareth God to such,
as worship him in feare.
14 The Lord that made vs knoweth ouer
our mould and fashion mist:
How weake and frayle our nature is,
and how we be but dust.
15 And how the tyme of mortall men,
is lpke the withering hay:
Or lpke the flower right saye in fild,
that fades full soone away.
16 Whose glorie & beauty flow my winde,
do bterly disface.
And make that after their faultes,
such vblowmes haue no place.

17 But yet the goodness of the Lord,
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children doe receaue,
his righteousnes at hand.

18 I meane which heepe his couenaunt with all his whole desire:
And not forget to doe the thing,
that he doth them require.

19 The heauens hye are made the seate,
and footstole of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall,
he gouerns all the world.

20 Ye Angels which are great in power,
Praise ye and blesse the Lord:
Which to obey and doe his will,
immediatly accord.

21 Ye noble hostes and ministers, cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute,
his pleasure and his will.

22 Yea all his workes in euery place,
praise ye his holy name:
My hart, my minde and eke my soule,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic anima, Psal. Ciiii. W.K.

It thanksgewing for the creation of the world, and gouernance of the same by his mercifull and prou-idence. Also a prayer against the wicked, who are occasions that God diminisheth his blessings.

MY soule praise the Lord, speak good of his name. O Lorde our great God, how doost thou appear? So pat sing in glory that great is thy fame?

Honor & maiestie in thee thine most clear. With lycht as a robe, thou hast thee beclad, Wherby all the earth thy greatnes may see, The heauens in such for thou also hast spread, That it to a curtaine compar'd may bee,

3 His chamber beames lye,
in the cloudes full sure:
Which as his chariot,
are made him to beate.
And there with much swiftnes,
his course doth endure:
Upon the windes rising,
of cloudes in the ayre.

4 He maketh his spirites,
as heraldes to goe:
And lightnings to serue,
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish,
they runne to and fro.
To saue or consume thinges,
as semeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth,
so firmly and fast:
That it once to moue,
none haue shall such power.

6 The deepe a fayre coueting, for it made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature,
the hilles would deuour.

7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters doe flye:
And so geue due place,
thy worde to obey.

At thy voyce of thunder,
so fearefull they be:
That in their great raging,
they hast soone away.

8 The mountaynes full hye,
they then by ascend:
If thou doe but speake,
thy worde they fulfill.
So likewise the ballyes,
most quickly descend:
Where thou them appointed,
remaine they doe still.

9 Their bondes thou hast broke,
how farre they shall runne,
So as in their rage,
not passe that they can.
For God hath appointed,
they shall not returne:
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springes, to strong streames of lakes:
Which runne doe full swift,
among the huge hills.

11 Where both the wilde asses,
their thirst of ryues shales:

And beastes of the mountaynes, thereof drinke their fill.

12 By these pleasant springes of fountaynes full fayre:

The foules of the ayre abyde shall and dwell.

13 Who moued by nature,
to hop here and there:

Among the greene bryanches, their songes shall excell.

14 The mountaynes to moyt,
the cloudes he doth vse:

The earth with his workes,
are wholly repleat:

15 So as the brute cattell,
be doth not refuse:

But graffe doth prouide them,
and herbe for mans meate.

Yea bread, wine, and oyle,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh.

16 The Ceders of Lyban, this great God did make:

Which trees he doth nourish,
that grow vp so long.

17 In those may bydes build,
and make there their nest:

In fire trees the Storkes, remayne and abide.

18 The hye hilles are succours,
for wilde Soates to rest:

And eke the rockes stony,
for Conies to bide:

19 The Moone then is set,
her seasons to runne:

The dayes from the nightes, thereby to discern.

And by the descending,
also of the Sunne:

The colde from heate alway, thereby we doe learne.

20 When darcknes doth come,
by Gods will and power:

Then creepe forth doe all the beastes of the wood.

21 The Lyons range roaring, their pray to deuour:

But yet it is thou (Lord)
which guesst them foode.

22 As soone as the Sunne, is vp, they retyre,

To couch in their dennes,
then are they full fayre.

23 That man to his worke may,
as right doth require,

Till night come and call him,
to take rest agayne.

The third part.

24 How sundry (O Lord,
are all thy workes found:
With wisdom full great,
they are in deede wrought.

So that the whole world,
of thy prayse doth found:

And as for the riches,
they passe all mens thought.

25 So as the great Sea, which large is and broad:
Where things that creepe swarme,
and beastes of eck sort:

26 There both mighty thyss sayle,
and some lye at coade:

The whalc huge and monstrous,
these also doth spote.

27 All thinges on the watte,
thou doest them relieue:

And thou in due tyme,
full well dost them fede.

28 Now when it doth please thee,
the same so to geue,

They gather full gladly,
those thinges which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace:

That they with good thinges, are filled we see.

29 But soe are they troubled,
if thou turne thy face:

For if thou their beards take, bile dost then they be.

30 Agayne when thy spirit,
from the doth procede:

All thinges to appoint,
and what shall ensue.

Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed:

And doest by thy godnes,
the dry earth renue.

31 The prayse of the Lord,
for euer shall last:

Who may in his workes,
by right, well reioyce.

32 His loe he can the earth make,
to tremble full fast:

And lyewise the mountynes,
to smoke at his voyce.

33 To this Lord, and God,
sing will I alwayes:

So long as I lye,
my God prayse will I.

34 Then an I most certayne, my wordes shall him please:

I will reioyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners (O Lord, consume in thine ire:

And eke the pcuterle,
them rote out with charie,

But as for my soule now
let it still desire:

And say with the faythfull, prayse ye the Lordes name.

Confitemini Domino. Pal. Cv. N.

The prayse of the singular goodnes of God, for the

to do them good euen for hys promise sake.

Sing

Sing this as the Lamentation.

Gue prayes vnto God the Lord,
and call vpon his name:
Among the people ke declare,
his workes to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
and sing vnto him prayse:
And talke of all the wondrous workes,
that he hath wrought alwayes.
3 In honoz of his holy name,
reioyce with one accord:
And let the hart also reioyce,
of them that seeke the Lord.
4 Seeke ye the Lord, and seeke the strength, of his eternall might:
And seeke his face continually,
and presence of his sight.
5 The wondrous workes that he hath kepe still in mindefull hart: (done, Ne let the indignementes of his mouth,
out of thy minde depart.
6 Ye that of faythfull Abraham, his seruauntes are the seede:
Yea his elect the children that,
of Jacob doe procede.
7 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightfull iudgementes are,
through all the earth abroad.
8 His promise and his couenaunt, which he hath made to his:
We hath remembered euermoze, to thousandes of degress.

The second part.

9 The couenaunt which he hath made,
with Abraham long agoe:
And faythfull oth which he hath swozne,
to Isaac also.
10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternall couenaunt,
to Israel for aye.
11 When thus he sayd loe I to you,
all Canaan land will geue:
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall lye.
12 Although their number at that tyme,
did very small appeare:
Yea very small and in the land,
they then but strangers were.
13 While yet they walke fro land to land without a fixe abode:
And while from sundry kingdomes they,
did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at none oppelloys hand,
he suffered them to take:
But euen the great and mighty kinges,
rejoyced for their sake.
15 And thus he sayd, touch ye not those,
that mine annoynted be:
Ne doe the prophets any harme,

that doe pertaine to me.
16 He cald a deatch vpon the land,
of bread he stroyd the boze:
But he agaynst their tyme of neede, had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Joseph which had once bene sold to lye a slaue in woe: 18 Whose sette they hurt in stocks, whose the iron pearst also. (soule, 19 Vntill the tyme came when his cause,
was knowne apparantly,
The mighty worde of God the Lord,
his faultles truty did try.
20 The king sent, and deliuered him from prison where he was:
The ruler of the people then,
did frely let him pas.
21 And ouer all his house he made,
him Lord to beare the sway:
And of his substance made him haue,
the rule and all the stay.
22 That he might to his will instruct,
the Princes of his land:
And wisdomes loze his auncient men,
might teach to vnderstand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land, came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham,
did lye a stranger tho.
24 His people he exceedingly,
in number made to flow:
And ouer all their enemies,
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose hart he turnd that they with his people did increate: (hate And did his seruauntes wrongfully, abuse with false deceite.

The fourth part.

26 His faythfull setnaunt Moyles the,
and Aroon whome he chose:
He did commaund to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous lotte of his signes,
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham,
then did they worke also.
28 Darchnes he sent and made it darch,
in stead of brighte day:
And vnto his commission,
they did not disobey.
29 He turnd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay:
30 Their land brought frogs euen in the where their king Pharaoy lay. (place 31 He spake and at his boyce there came,
great swarmes of noysome flies:
And all the quarters of their land,
were filld with crawling lye.
32 He gaue them colde and stony payle.

- in stead of milde rayne:
 And fiery flames within their land,
 he sent vnto their payne.
- 33 He smot their vines and all their trees
 whereon their figs did grow:
 And all the trees within their coastes,
 downe did he ouerthrow.
- 34 He spake then caterpillers did,
 and Grasshoppers abound:
 35 Which ate the grasse in all their land,
 and fruite of all their ground.

The fift part.

- 36 The first begotten in their land,
 eke deadly did he smite:
 Yea the beginning and first fruite, of all their strength and might.
- 37 With gold and siluer he them brought from Egypt land to passe:
 And in the number of the tribes,
 no feble one there was.
- 38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
 when they did thence depart:
 For terror and the feare of them,
 was fallen into their hart.
- 39 To shrowd them fro the parching heate,
 a cloud he did display:
 And fire he sent to geue them light,
 when night had hid the day.
- 40 They asked and he caused quayles,
 to rayne at their request:
 And fully with the bread of heauen,
 their hunger he repress.
- 41 He opened then the stony rocke,
 and water gushed out:
 And in the drye and parched groundes,
 lyke riuers ran about.

- 42 For of his holy couenaunt,
 aye mindefull was he tho:
 Which to his seruaunt Abraham,
 he plighted long ago.
- 43 He brought his people forth with and his elect with ioy: (myrrh)
 Out of the cruell land wherethey, had lyued in great annoy.
- 44 And of the heathen men he gaue,
 to them the fruitfull landes:
 The labours of the people eke,
 he gaue into their handes.
- 45 That they his holy statute might,
 obserue for euermore.
 And faythfully obey his lawes, prayse ye the Lord therefore.

Confite mini. Domi. Psal. Cvi. N.

¶ The people dispersed vnder Antiochus do magnify the goodnes of God among the repentant: & pray to be gathered from among the heathen, that they may prayse hys name.

Sing this as the 103. psalme.

¶ Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
 his mercy dureth for aye:

- 2 Who can expresse his noble actes,
 or all his prayse display:
 3 They blessed are that iudgement keepe and iustly doe alway:
 4 With fauour of thy people Lord, remember me I pray,
- 5 And with thy sauing health O Lord,
 vouchsafe to visite me:
 That I the great felicity,
 of thine elect may see.
 And with thy peoples ioy I may,
 a ioyfull minde possede:
 And may with thine inheritance,
 a glorying hart expresse.
- 6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
 haue sinned euery one:
 We haue committed wickednes,
 and lewdly we haue done.
- 7 Thy wonders great which thou O Lord
 hast done in Egypt land:
 Our fathers though they saw them al,
 yet did not vnderstand.
- 8 For thy mercyes multitude,
 did keepe in thankfull minde:
 But at the sea, yea the red sea,
 rebelled most vnkinde.
- 8 Nevertheless he saued them,
 for honoꝝ of his name:
 That he might make his power knowne,
 and spread abroad with fame.
- 9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
 and forthwith it was dryde:
 And as in wilderness so through,
 the deepe he did them guide.
- 10 He saued them from the cruell hand,
 of their despightfull foe:
 And from the enemies hand he did,
 deliuer them also.

The second part.

- 11 The waters their oppressors whelmd,
 not one was left aliue:
 12 Then they beleued his wordes, & prayse in song they did him geue.
- 13 But by and by vnthankfully,
 his workes they cleane forgot:
 And for his counsell and his will,
 they did neglect to waite.
- 14 But lusted in the wilderness,
 with fond and greedy lust:
 And in the desert tempted God,
 the stay of all.
- 15 And they murmured much
 he smote them to haue.
 But wasting leanes therewithall,
 into their soule he gaue.
- 16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
 at Abydos they did graue:
 Aton the holy of the Lord,
 so did they curse him.
- 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
 and wathan did denoure:
 An Abirams company,
 perishe in that houre.

18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hote consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then burne by,
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Boich they,
an Idol Calfe did frame:
And there the molten image they,
did worship of the same.

Into the lthenes of a Calfe,
that feedeth on the grasse:
20 Thus they their glory turned and all their honor did deface.
21 And God their onely sauour, unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighty things,
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part,

22 And in the land of Ham for them,
most wondrous workes had done:
And by the read sea breadfull things, performed long ago.

23 Therefore for their lo the wing them,
forgetfull and unkind:
To bring destruction on them all,
he purposed in his mind.

Had not his chosen Moyfes stood,
before them in the break:
To turne his wrath least he on them,
with slaughter should him weake, 24 They did despise the pleasaunt land,
that he behight to geue:
Yea and the wordes that he had spoke,
they did no whit beleue.

25 But in their tents w grudging hartes
they wickedly repind:
Not to the voyce of God the Lord,
they gaue a harkning mind.
26 Therefore agaynst them lifted he,
his strong reuenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.

27 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod:
And through the countreys of the world to scatter them abroad.

28 To Baal Peor then they did adroyne themselves also:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsooke him tho.

The fourth part,

31 It was imputed vnto him,
for righteousnes that day:

And from thenceforth so counted is from race to race for aye.
32 He waters eke of Heribath
they did him angry make:
Yea to far forth that Moyfes was then punisht for their sake.

33 Because they bent his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat:
His lips spake vnadvisedly,
his feauor was so great.
34 Not as the Lord commaunded them
they due the people tho:
35 But were among the heathen mixt, and leard their workes also.

36 And did their Idols serue, which were their ruine and decay:
37 To sendes their sons & daughters they did offer by and slay.
38 Yea with unkindly murdering knife,
the gittles bloud they spilt:
Yea their own sonnes & daughters bloud without al cause of gite.

Whom they to Canaan Idols then offred with wicked hand:
And so with bloud of Innocents, defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they slayned with y workes
of their own filthy way:
And with their own inuentions
a whooping they did stray.

40 Therefore agaynst his people was,
the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And euen his own inheritance
therefore he did abhorre.

41 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a pray:
And made their foes their lords, who they were forced to obey.

The fifth part,

42 Yea and their hateful enemies
oppress them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoupe
as subiects to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thral had he deliuered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
prouokt him neuermore.

Therefore they by their wickednes were brought full low to lye: 44 Yet when he saw them in distress
he harkned to their cry.
He cald to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therfore.

And said: he them made to find the sight of those:
And them captiues from their land,
as they were their foes.

47 Save vs O Lord that art our God
save vs O Lord we pray:
And from among the heathen folke,
Lord gather vs away.

That we may spread the noble prayle,
of thy most holy name:

That we may glory in thy prayle,
and sounding of thy fame:

48 The Lord the God of Isaac, be blest for evermore:

Let all the people say Amen,
prayle ye the Lord therfore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. Cvii. W.K.

David propheseth al that are redeemed by the Lord and gathered vnto him, to geue thanks therfore, who by sending prosperitie and aduersitie hunger vnto him. Therfore as the righteous there rejoyce, so shall the wicked haue their mouths stopped.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

Gode thanks vnto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:

And that his mercy hath none end,
all mortall men may see.

1 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks should prayle his name:
And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.

2 He gathered them forth of the lands, that lay so far about:
From East, to West, frō North, to South
his hand hath binde them out.

4 They wandred in the wildernes, and strayed from the way.
And found no Citie where to dwell,
that secur might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in these desertes so boyd:
That sayntnes did them soze assault,
and eke they soules annoyd.

6 Then did they cry in their distress,
vnto the Lord for ayd:
Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a gurd:
That they might to a Citie goe,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therfore before the Lord
confesse his kindnes then:
And shew the wonders that he dot
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the empty soule supplyd whom thirst hath made so say:
The hungry soule with goodnes and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as doe dwell in darcke
where they on death do way:
Fall bound to rash such troublous as iron chaynes doe theyeat.

The second part.

11 Ene that against the Lord

they fought so to rebell:

12 Eeking light his counsels bye, which do so far excell.

13 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell downe with griefe:
And none was found so wisly to helpe, whereby to get reliefe.

14 Then did they cry in their distress,
vnto the Lord for ayd:
Who did remoue their troublous state
according as they prayd.

15 For he from darcknes out the brought and from bearches deadlyll shade:
Bursting with force the iron bandes, which did before them lade.

16 Let men therfore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.

17 For he threw down the gates of bras, and brake them with strong hands:
The iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could dun withstand.

18 The foolish folke great plagges do feele and cannot from them wend:
But heape on more to those they haue,
because they doe offend.

19 Their soules so much do loath all meat that none they could abide:
Wherby death had them almost caught,
as they full truely tryde.

20 Then did they cry in their distress,
vnto the Lord for ayd:
Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

21 For he then sent to them his word, which health did soone restore: (decey)
And brought them from those dangers wher in they were before.

The third part.

22 Let men therfore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.

23 And let them offer Sacrifice, with thanks and also feare:
As all his monstrous workes,
