C H A P. XXI.

1 David, numbereth the people: 5 he repenteth, 9 and chooseth the pestilence.

a 2 Samuel
24. 1, &c.

AND <sup>a</sup> Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go number Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan; <sup>b</sup> and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lords servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless, the kings word prevailed against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David.
And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 <sup>c</sup> But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the kings word was abominable to Joab.

7 † And God was displeased with this thing, therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, <sup>d</sup> I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: <sup>e</sup> but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, Davids <sup>f</sup> seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying,
Thus saith the LORD, I † offer thee three things, choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, † Choose thee

12 <sup>g</sup> Either three years famine, or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, (while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee,) or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel: now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD, (for very || great are his mercies,) but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an <sup>h</sup> angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and <sup>i</sup> he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of || Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lift up his eyes, and <sup>k</sup> saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem: then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done?
let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my fathers house, but not on thy people; that they should be plagued.

18 ¶ Then the <sup>l</sup> angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and set up an altar unto the LORD, in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 || And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan,
† Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David,
Take it to thee, and let my lord the 24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

25 So <sup>m</sup> David gave to Ornan, for the place, six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD; and <sup>n</sup> he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel, and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

C H A P. XXII.

1 David prepareth for the building of the temple: 6 he instructeth Solomon.

Then David said, <sup>a</sup> This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together <sup>b</sup> the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance <sup>c</sup> without weight;

4 Also cedar-trees in abundance: for the Zidonians, and they of Tyre, brought much cedar-wood to David.

5 And David said, <sup>d</sup> Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD, must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, <sup>e</sup> it was in my mind to build an house <sup>f</sup> unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>g</sup> Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 <sup>h</sup> Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be || Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 <sup>i</sup> He shall build an house for my name, and <sup>k</sup> he shall be my son, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now my son, <sup>l</sup> the LORD be with thee, and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with, concerning Israel: <sup>m</sup> be strong, and of good courage, dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now behold, || in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass, and iron, without <sup>n</sup> weight: (for it is in abundance:) timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers, and || workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and <sup>o</sup> the LORD be with thee.

1 Solomon made king. 2 The Levites ordered. 7 The sons of Gershon, 12 Kohath, 21 and Merari.

SO when David was old and full of days, he made a Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of b thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were || to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were c officers and judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters, and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments d which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

6 And e David divided them into † courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the f Gershonites were || Laadan and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan, the chief was Jehiel, and Zethan, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were Jahath, || Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush, and Beriah † had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their fathers house.

12 ¶ g The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of h Amram; Aaron and Moses: and i Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, k to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and l to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, m his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 n The sons of Moses were, Gershon and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershon; o || Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were. p Rehabiah || the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah † were very many.

19 q Of the sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekamean the fourth.

21 r The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi: the sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and s Kishi:

22 And Eleazar died, and t had no sons, but daughters: and their || brethren the sons of Kishi u took them.

23 x The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 y These were the sons of z Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of 2 twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, || that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever;

26 And also unto the Levites: they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were † numbered from twenty years old and above:

C H A P. XXIV.

1 The divisions of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. <sup>a</sup> The sons of Aaron; Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

2 But <sup>b</sup> Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priests office.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar, than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar, according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one fort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, <sup>one</sup> of the Levites, wrote them before the king and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one † principal household being taken for Eleazar, and <sup>one</sup> taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiiah,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin.

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to <sup>c</sup> Abijah, 11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah;

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphisef,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the orderings of them in their service <sup>d</sup> to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; <sup>e</sup> Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehodiah.

21 Concerning <sup>f</sup> Rehabiah; of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

23 And the sons of <sup>h</sup> Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 <sup>i</sup> The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 ¶ The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibrî.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, <sup>k</sup> who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish; the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 <sup>l</sup> The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites, after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, and Zadok and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

1 The divisions of the porters. 13 The gates assigned by lot. 20 The Levites that had the charge of the treasures.

Concerning the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was || Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of || Afaph.

|| Or,

6. 37. &
7. 19.

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover, the sons of Obededom were, Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed || him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Réphael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men; Elibu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom; they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Melhelemiah had sons, and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also <sup>a</sup> Hofah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, yet his father made him the chief,)

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hofah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 <sup>b</sup> And they cast lots, || as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot east-ward fell to || Shelemiah; then for Zechariah his son (a wise counsellor) they cast lots, and his lot came out north-ward.

15 To Obed-edom south-ward; and to his sons, the house of † Asuppim.

16 To Shuppin and Hofah. the lot came forth west-ward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causey of the going || up, ward against ward.

17 East-ward were six Levites, north-ward four a day, south-ward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

18 At Parbar west-ward, four at the causey, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 And of the Levites, Ahijah was <sup>b</sup> over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the † dedicate things.

21 As concerning the sons of || Laadan: the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were || Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD.

23 Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

24 And <sup>c</sup> Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and <sup>d</sup> Shelomith his son.

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren, were over all the treasures of the dedicate things, which David the king and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host had dedicated.

27 † Out of the spoils won in battles, did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD.

28 And all that Samuel <sup>e</sup> the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, and whosoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

29 ¶ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for † officers and judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hasha-biah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred were † officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan west-ward, in all business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was <sup>e</sup> Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David, they were fought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour, <sup>h</sup> at Jazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and † affairs of the king.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 David exhorteth to fear God: 9, 20 he encourageth Solomon to build.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, ° the princes of the tribes, and the ° captains of the companies that ministred to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and ° the stewards over all the substance and || possession of the king, || and of his sons, with the || officers, and with ° the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people, As for me, ° I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for ° the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building :

3 But God said unto me, ° Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed † blood.

4 Howbeit, the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be king over Israel for ever : for he hath chosen ° Judah to be the ruler ; and of the house of Judah, ° the house of my father, and ° among the sons of my father, he liked me to make me king over all Israel :

5 ° And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) ° he hath chosen Solomon my son, to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, ° Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts : for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be † constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God ; that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind ; for ° the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts : if thou seek him, he will be found of thee ; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now, for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary . be strong and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son ° the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy-seat, 12 And the pattern † of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, ° of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicate things.

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD :

14 He gave of gold by weight, for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service ; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service :

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof : and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlesticks and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shew-bread, for every table, and likewise silver for the tables of silver ;

17 Also pure gold for the flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups ; and for the golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason ; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver :

18 And for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight ; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the ° cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD,

19 All this, said David, <sup>a</sup> the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, <sup>b</sup> Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee, <sup>c</sup> he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God; and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship, <sup>d</sup> every willing skilful man for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 David, by his example, causeth the princes and people to offer: 10 his thanksgiving: 26 his reign and death.

Furthermore, David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet <sup>a</sup> young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for a man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God, the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; <sup>b</sup> onyx-stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble-stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of <sup>c</sup> Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing <sup>d</sup> to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with <sup>d</sup> the rulers over the kings work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold, five thousand talents, and ten thousand drams; and of silver, ten thousand talents; and of brass, eighteen thousand talents; and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found, gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, by the hand of <sup>e</sup> Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 ¶ Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all, and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should <sup>f</sup> be able to offer so willingly, after this sort? for all things come of thee, and <sup>g</sup> of thine own have we given thee.

15 For <sup>h</sup> we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: <sup>i</sup> our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none <sup>j</sup> abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store, that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name, cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou <sup>k</sup> triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightnes. As for me, in the uprightnes of mine heart, I have willingly offered all these things: and now I have seen with joy thy people, which are <sup>l</sup> present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts

¶ The Second Book of the CHRONICLES.

CHAP. I.

I The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon: 7 his choice of wisdom is blessed by God: 13 his strength and wealth.

AND <sup>a</sup> Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at <sup>b</sup> Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 <sup>c</sup> But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim, to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover, <sup>d</sup> the brasen altar that <sup>e</sup> Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, || he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation fought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither, to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 ¶ In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me <sup>f</sup> to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: <sup>g</sup> for thou hast made me king over a people † like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 <sup>h</sup> Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may <sup>i</sup> go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, mies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king;

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee, and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as <sup>k</sup> none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon, to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 <sup>l</sup> And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 <sup>m</sup> And the king † made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 <sup>n</sup> And † Solomon had horses brought up out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the kings merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetch up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, † by their means.

C H A P. II.

1, 17 Solomons labourers for the building of the temple: 3 his ambassage to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff: 11 Hiram sendeth him a kind answer.

And Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And <sup>a</sup> Solomon told out three-score and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to ¶ Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, <sup>b</sup> As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him † sweet incense, and for the continual shew-bread, and for <sup>c</sup> the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new-moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 <sup>d</sup> But who † is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in crimson, and blue, and that can skill † to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and ¶ algum-trees out of Lebanon: (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon:) and behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house, which I am about to build, shall be † wonderful great.

10 <sup>e</sup> And behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ¶ Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel <sup>f</sup> that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, † endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man (endued with understanding) of Hiram my fathers;

14 <sup>g</sup> The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find

17 ¶ <sup>1</sup> And Solomon numbered all † the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith <sup>k</sup> David his father had numbered them ; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

i The place and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things <sup>d</sup> wherein Solomon was † instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits, after the first measure, was threecore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the <sup>e</sup> porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty : and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house he cieled with fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm-trees and chains.

6 And he † garnished the house with precious stones for beauty : and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof with gold, and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was, according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits : and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold : and he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 <sup>1</sup> And in the most holy house he made two cherubims ¶ of image-work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long : one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house ; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub ;

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house ; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits : and they stood on their feet, and their faces were ¶ inward.

14 ¶ And he made the <sup>b</sup> veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and † wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house <sup>h</sup> two pillars of thirty and five cubits † high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars ; and made <sup>i</sup> an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he <sup>k</sup> reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left ; and called the name of that on the right hand, ¶ Jachin, and the name of that on the left, ¶ Boaz.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lift up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals, and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, <sup>i</sup> For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

C H A P. VI.

1 Solomon having blessed the people, blesseth God: 12 his prayer at the consecration of the temple.

THEN <sup>a</sup> said Solomon, THE LORD hath said that he would dwell in the <sup>b</sup> thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, (and all the congregation of Israel stood,)

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there, neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But <sup>c</sup> I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there, and <sup>d</sup> have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now <sup>e</sup> it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, <sup>f</sup> wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands,

13 (For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits † long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees, before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven,)

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, <sup>g</sup> there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepeth covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

C H A P. VII.

1 God giving testimony to Solomons prayer, the people worship god.
4 Solomons sacrifice.

Now <sup>a</sup> when Solomon had made an end of praying, the <sup>b</sup> fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and <sup>c</sup> the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 <sup>d</sup> And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORDS house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, <sup>e</sup> saying, For he is good, <sup>f</sup> for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 <sup>g</sup> Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 <sup>h</sup> And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised † by their ministry; and the priests all founded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 <sup>i</sup> Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath, unto <sup>k</sup> the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made † a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And <sup>l</sup> on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month, he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus <sup>m</sup> Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the kings house: and all that came into Solomons heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 <sup>n</sup> And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, <sup>o</sup> and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, † which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways: then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now <sup>p</sup> mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent † unto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have <sup>q</sup> I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

I Solomons buildings. <sup>7</sup> The Gentiles made tributaries. <sup>12</sup> Solomons yearly sacrifices.

AND <sup>a</sup> it came to pass, (at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,)

2 That the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars:

6 And Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and <sup>b</sup> † all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel;

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not; them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots, and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomons officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 ¶ And Solomon <sup>c</sup> brought up the daughter of Pharaoh, out of the city of David, unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are <sup>d</sup> † holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch:

13 Even after a certain rate every <sup>e</sup> day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new-moons, and on the solemn feasts, <sup>f</sup> three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 ¶ And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the <sup>g</sup> courses of the priests to their service, and <sup>h</sup> the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the <sup>i</sup> porters also by their courses, at every gate: for <sup>j</sup> † so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished: so the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to <sup>k</sup> † Eloth, at the seaside in the land of Edom.

18 <sup>l</sup> And Hiram sent him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the servants of

And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and, when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, his cup-bearers also, and their apparel, and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit, I believed not thy words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

25 ¶ And Solomon <sup>c</sup> had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ <sup>d</sup> And he reigned over all the kings, <sup>e</sup> from the ¶ river, even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

27 And the king † made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees, that are in the low plains, in abundance.

10 And the young men, that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my fathers loins.

28 <sup>f</sup> And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

11 For whereas my father † put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people; <sup>e</sup> for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the <sup>d</sup> hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

2 And it came to pass when Jeroboam the son of Nebat (who was in Egypt, <sup>b</sup> whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

3 And they sent and called him: so Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying, c 1 Kings 14. 24, 25.

d Chap. 16. 8.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak.

Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel, and the king, humbled themselves, and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them || some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless, <sup>e</sup> they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the kings house, he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had <sup>f</sup> made.

10 In stead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brasse, and committed them <sup>g</sup> to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the kings house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came, and fet them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: || and also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for <sup>h</sup> Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, <sup>i</sup> the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he || prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the † book of Shemaiah the prophet, <sup>k</sup> and of Iddo the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and <sup>l</sup> Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

Abijah, succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam, and overcometh him.

NOW <sup>a</sup> in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam, began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mothers name also was <sup>b</sup> Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah:) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah † set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 ¶ And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel,

5 Ought you not to know, that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him, and to his sons <sup>c</sup> by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant <sup>c</sup> of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath <sup>d</sup> rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves which Jeroboam <sup>e</sup> made you for gods.

9 <sup>f</sup> Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and <sup>g</sup> have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? <sup>h</sup> so that whosoever cometh † to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests which minister unto the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business.

11 <sup>i</sup> And they burn unto the LORD, every morning and every evening, burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the <sup>k</sup> shew-bread also set they in order:

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Harken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel; therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again † from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow † at a venture, and smote the king of Israel † between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am † wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit, the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and, about the time of the sun going down, he died.

1 Jehoshaphat visiteth his kingdom: 5 his instructions to the judges, &c.

AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu, the son of Hanani <sup>a</sup> the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and <sup>b</sup> love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless, there are <sup>c</sup> good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and † he went out again through the people, from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 ¶ And he set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for <sup>d</sup> ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, <sup>e</sup> who is with you † in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for <sup>f</sup> there is no iniquity with the LORD our God; nor <sup>g</sup> respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 ¶ Moreover, in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat <sup>h</sup> set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 <sup>i</sup> And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and <sup>j</sup> wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you <sup>k</sup> in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah,

1 Jehoshaphat proclaimeth a fast: 5 his prayer: 22 the overthrow of his enemies: 31 his reign.

IT came to pass, after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other besides the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and behold, they be <sup>a</sup> in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set † himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD; even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and <sup>b</sup> in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, † who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham <sup>c</sup> thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 <sup>d</sup> If when evil come upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou <sup>e</sup> wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but <sup>f</sup> they turned from them, and destroyed them not:

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, <sup>g</sup> to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us: neither know we what to do, but <sup>h</sup> our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, <sup>i</sup> came the spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, <sup>k</sup> Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude: for the battle is not yours, but Gods.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the † cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the † brook, before the wilderness of Jermel.

17 <sup>l</sup> Ye shall not need to fight in this battle; set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood, and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, <sup>m</sup> Believe in the LORD your God, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the Lord, <sup>n</sup> and † that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, <sup>o</sup> Praise the LORD, <sup>p</sup> for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ † And when they began to sing and to praise, <sup>q</sup> the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and † they were smitten.

C H A P XXII.

1 Ahaziah, succeeding, reigneth wickedly: 5 he is slain by Jehu. 10 Athaliah destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, usurpeth the kingdom.

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made <sup>a</sup> Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp, had slain all the <sup>b</sup> eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 <sup>c</sup> Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was <sup>d</sup> Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors, after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel, to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 <sup>e</sup> And he returned to be healed in Jezreel, because of the wounds † which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And ¶ Azariah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the † destruction of Ahaziah <sup>f</sup> was of God, by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed <sup>g</sup> to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and <sup>h</sup> found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 <sup>i</sup> And he fought Ahaziah; and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him, because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who fought the LORD with all his heart. 887.
a 2 Kings
11. 4, 27c. AND, <sup>a</sup> in the seventh year, Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God: and he said unto them, Behold, the kings son shall reign, as the LORD hath <sup>b</sup> said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you, <sup>c</sup> entering on the sabbath, of the priests, and of the Levites, shall be porters of the † doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the kings house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and <sup>d</sup> they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not <sup>e</sup> the courses.

9 Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears and bucklers, and shields, that had been king Davids, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people (every man having his weapon in his hand) from the right † side of the † temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the kings son, and put upon him the crown, and <sup>f</sup> gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, † God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD.

13 And she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar, at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets; also the singers with instruments of musick, and <sup>g</sup> such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, † Treason, treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds, that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering <sup>h</sup> of the horse-gate, by the kings house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORDS people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars, and his images, in pieces, and <sup>i</sup> slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had <sup>k</sup> distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt-offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the <sup>l</sup> law of Moses, with rejoicing

God, why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? <sup>c</sup> because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and <sup>f</sup> stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, † at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of † Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians § came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers: so they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed; and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; ¶ Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of ¶ Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of <sup>h</sup> the burdens laid upon him, and the † repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in ¶ the story of the book of the kings: so Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 he executeth justice on the traitors: 5 having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them: 11 he overthroweth the Edomites: 17 he provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 his reign: 27 he is slain by conspiracy.

Amaziah <sup>a</sup> was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD; <sup>b</sup> but not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was † established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father:

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, <sup>c</sup> The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them <sup>d</sup> from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel, for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the † army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go † home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home † in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they were broken all in pieces.

13 ¶ But † the soldiers of the army, which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that <sup>e</sup> he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the kings counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath † determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then <sup>f</sup> Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The ¶ thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by † a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home, why shouldst thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for <sup>g</sup> it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies; because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was † put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the kings house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ¶ And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away † from following the LORD, they † made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of ¶ Judah.

his God, and <sup>b</sup> went into the temple of the LORD, to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men;

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, *It <sup>h</sup> apperburn incense unto the LORD, but to the <sup>i</sup> priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense-altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea himself <sup>k</sup> hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 <sup>1</sup> And Uzziah the king was a

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 ¶ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Ahaz, reigning wickedly, is afflicted by the Syrians: 26 he dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

A<sup>a</sup> Haz<sup>a</sup> was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the fight of the LORD, like David his father.

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover, he ¶ burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt<sup>b</sup> his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore<sup>c</sup> the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to † Damascus: and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel; who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For<sup>d</sup> Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all † valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the kings son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was † next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive, of their brethren, two hundred thousand, women, sons and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bond-men, and bond-women unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for, whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespasss is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives, and the spoil, before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men,<sup>g</sup> which were expressed by name, rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho,<sup>h</sup> the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶<sup>i</sup> At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away † captives.

18<sup>k</sup> The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low-country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low, because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he<sup>l</sup> made Judah naked, and transgressed fore against the LORD.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign: 3 he restores religion. 12 The house of God cleansed.

2 Kings 18. 1.

HEzekiah <sup>a</sup> began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Abijah, the daughter <sup>b</sup> of Zechariah.

Chap. 26. 5.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

726. See Chap. 28. 24. Ver. 7.

3 ¶ He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, <sup>c</sup> opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests, and the Levites, and gathered them together unto the east-direet,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and † turned their backs.

9 For lo, <sup>f</sup> our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

f Chapter 28. 5, 6, 8.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, || be not now negligent: for the LORD hath <sup>g</sup> chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and || burn incense.

|| Or, be not now deceived. g Numb. 7. 6. & 8. 14. & 18. 2, 6. || Or, offer sacrifices.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose. Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Afaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, || by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

|| Or, in the busyness of the LORD. Chapter 29. 12.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD, into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and in the sixteenth day

Before Christ 726. day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a <sup>h</sup> sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and <sup>i</sup> sprinkled it on the altar: likewise when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought † forth the he-goats, for the sin-offering, before the king and the congregation; and they laid their <sup>h</sup> hands upon them.

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 <sup>1</sup> And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, <sup>m</sup> according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the kings seer, and Nathan the prophet: <sup>n</sup> for so was the commandment † of the LORD † by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments <sup>o</sup> of David, and the priests with <sup>p</sup> the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar: and † when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the † instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the † singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were † present with him bowed themselves and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king, and the princes, commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD, with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have || consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices, and <sup>q</sup> thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices, and thank-offerings, and, as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was three score and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt-offerings; wherefore <sup>r</sup> their brethren the Levites † did help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: <sup>s</sup> for the Levites were more upright in heart, to sanctify themselves, than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings, for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

3 For they could not keep it <sup>b</sup> at that time, <sup>c</sup> because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing † pleased the king, and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree, to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters, † from the king and his princes, throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of <sup>d</sup> the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now † be ye not stiff-necked as your fathers were, but † yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is <sup>e</sup> gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, <sup>f</sup> divers of Asher, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun, humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, <sup>g</sup> by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people, to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose, and took away the <sup>h</sup> altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in † their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: <sup>i</sup> therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers, for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even <sup>k</sup> many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, † yet did they eat the passover, otherwise than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel, that were † present at Jerusalem, kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites, and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with † loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake † comfortably unto all the Levites, <sup>m</sup> that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep <sup>n</sup> other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah † did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon, the son of David king of Israel, there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose, and <sup>v</sup> blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to † his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 The people forward in destroying idolatry, 5 in offerings and tithes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes: 20 his sincerity.

NOW, when all this was finished, all Israel that were † present, went out to the cities of Judah, and <sup>a</sup> brake the † images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places, and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, † until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests, and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings, and for peace-offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the kings portion of his substance, for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new-moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the <sup>b</sup> law of the LORD.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people, that dwelt in Jerusalem, to give the portion of the priests, and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment † came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance <sup>c</sup> the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and † honey, and of all the increase of the field, and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the <sup>d</sup> tithe of holy things, which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them † by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him, and said, <sup>e</sup> Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left, is this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare † chambers in the house of the LORD: and they prepared them;

12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes, and the dedicate things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Afahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismaiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers † under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And † next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, and Amariah, and Shecaniah, in <sup>f</sup> the cities of the priests, in their † set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small;

16 Besides their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges, according to their courses:

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites <sup>g</sup> from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 21 An angel destroyeth the Assyrians. 24 Hezekiah's sickness and recovery: 32 he dying Manasseh succeedeth him.

After <sup>a</sup> these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought † to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that † he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes, and his mighty men, to stop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that † ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also <sup>b</sup> he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired <sup>d</sup> Millo in the city of David, and made || darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and † spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for <sup>e</sup> there be more with us, than with him.

8 With him is an <sup>f</sup> arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people † rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¶ <sup>g</sup> After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his † power with him) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah, that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 <sup>h</sup> Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide || in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 <sup>i</sup> Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations, that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 <sup>k</sup> He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 <sup>l</sup> Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth which were the work of the hands of man.

20<sup>m</sup> And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And the LORD sent an angel which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels † slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and † presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ¶ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he ‖ gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah rendered not a gain, according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was lifted up; therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26<sup>v</sup> Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself for † the pride of his heart, (both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,) so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¶ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of † pleasant jewels;

28 Store-houses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks, and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30<sup>q</sup> This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water-course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west-side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

ed them, according to the whole law, and the statutes, and the ordinances, by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west-side of Gihon in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace-offerings, and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless, the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel:

19 His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers; and they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images, which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

1 Josiah his good reign: 3 he destroyeth idolatry: 8 he repaireth the temple, 29 and, causing the law to be read, reneweth the covenant with God.

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images that were on high above them, he cut down, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten beaten the graven images † into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now <sup>f</sup> in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered <sup>g</sup> the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house :

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and || to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully : and the overseers of them were Jahath, and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari ; and Zechariah, and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward ; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service : <sup>h</sup> and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest <sup>i</sup> found a book of the law of the LORD, given † by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan :

17 And they have † gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have deli-

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read † it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and || Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Afsiah a servant of the kings, saying,

21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel, and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found : for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of <sup>k</sup> Tikvath, the son of || Hafrah, keeper of the † wardrobe ; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem || in the college;) and they spake to her that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me, 25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands ; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard, 27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me ; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

AND <sup>a</sup> when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together, as one man, to Jerusalem.

a 1 Esdras 5. 4.

2 Then stood up ¶ Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and ¶ Zerubbabel the son of <sup>b</sup> Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is <sup>c</sup> written in the law of Moses the man of God.

b March. 1. 12. 8c. Luke 2. 22. called Zerubbabel.

c Deut. 12. 5.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for fear was upon them, because of the people of those countries;) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt-offerings morning and evening;

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt-offering, both of the newmoons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD, that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering, unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD: but the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa; according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity, unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice, and many shouted aloud for joy;

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy, from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

1 The building hindered. 7 The letter to Artaxerxes: 17 his decree.

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel;

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as ye do, and we do sacrifice unto him, since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, You have nothing to do with us, to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building;

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bithlam, Mithridath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem: 11 the gracious commission of Artaxerxes to him. 27 Ezra bleisseth God for his favour.

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zeremiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was <sup>d</sup> a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, <sup>e</sup> according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 <sup>f</sup> And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and <sup>g</sup> the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and <sup>h</sup> the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month † began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes <sup>i</sup> king of kings, ¶ Unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, <sup>k</sup> and at such a time.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and || Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there || abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Arieh, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief, at the place Casiphia, and † I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren, and their sons, twenty;

20 <sup>d</sup> Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 ¶ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might <sup>e</sup> afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For <sup>f</sup> I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen, to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God <sup>is</sup> upon all them, for good, that seek him; but his power and his wrath <sup>is</sup> against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this, and he was intreated of us.

26 I even weighed unto their hand, six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents:

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams, and two vessels of † fine copper, † precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD, the vessels are holy also, and the silver, and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests, and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

1 Esra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers: 5 he prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW, when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, ever, of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons; so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and pluckt off the hair of my head, and of my beard, and sat down astonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away, and I sat astonied until the evening sacrifice.

5 ¶ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness, and, having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers, have we been in a great trespass unto this day, and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now, for a little space, grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bond-men, yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah, and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace, or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou, our God, hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldst not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day; behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee, because of this.

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant, that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and reproach; the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments,

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I, and my fathers house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

CHAP. I.

i Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth: 5 his prayer.

¶ HE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month

Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant, that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and reproach; the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments,

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I, and my fathers house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants, and thy people whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the kings cup-bearer.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very fore afraid,

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven, 15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire : come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of <sup>h</sup> the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the kings words that <sup>h</sup> he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

6 Moreover, the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodaijah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah, the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah, the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah, the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hafabniah.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hafhub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohehi, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley-gate repaired Hanan, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem: he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah: he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the kings garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashtabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

19 And next unto him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury, at the turning of the wall.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib, even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin, and Hafhub, over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, by his house.

24 After him repaired Binui the son of Henadad, another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the kings high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaijah the son of Parosh.

26 Moreover, the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water-gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

28 From above the horse-gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

29 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer, over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah, the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east-gate.

30 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanan the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, over against his chamber.

C H A P. IV.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth: 7 he setteth a watch.

BUT it came to pass, <sup>a</sup> that, when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren, and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they  $\dagger$  fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish, which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God, for we are  $\dagger$  despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5 And <sup>b</sup> cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7  $\parallel$  But it came to pass that when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem  $\dagger$  were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and  $\dagger$  to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless, we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that, when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times,  $\parallel$  From all places, whence ye shall return unto us, they will be upon you.

13  $\parallel$  Therefore set I  $\dagger$  in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, <sup>c</sup> and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, everyone with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded  $\dagger$  by his side, and so builded: and he that founded the trumpet was by me.

19  $\parallel$  And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another;

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: <sup>d</sup> our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning, till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes,  $\parallel$  saving that every one put them off for washing.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah causeth restitution: 14 he forbeareth his own allowance, &c.

And there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the kings tribute; and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now <sup>a</sup> our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we <sup>b</sup> bring into bondage our sons and our daughters, to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry, and these words.

7 Then † I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, <sup>c</sup> You exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them;

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have <sup>d</sup> redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk <sup>e</sup> in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, <sup>f</sup> and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also <sup>g</sup> I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and † emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year, <sup>h</sup> even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver, yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea also, I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily, was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 <sup>i</sup> Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

that I cannot come down : why should the work cease, whilst I leave it and come down to you ?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort ; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand ;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and || Gashmu saith it, <sup>d</sup> that thou and the Jews think to rebel : for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah : and now shall it be reported to the king, according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up ; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple : for they will come to slay thee, yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee ? and who is there that being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life ? I will not go in.

12 And lo, I perceived that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me : for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 <sup>e</sup> My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and on the prophets Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished, in the twenty and fifth day of the month S'ul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that, when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes : for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover, in those days, the nobles of Judah † sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah ; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my || words to him : and Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

scribe, <sup>f</sup> and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, <sup>g</sup> This day is holy unto the LORD your God, <sup>h</sup> mourn not, nor weep: for all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, <sup>i</sup> and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD; neither be ye sorry, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites filled all the people, saying, Hold your peace; for the day is holy, neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even ¶ to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law, which the LORD had commanded † by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in <sup>k</sup> booths, in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And <sup>l</sup> that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, <sup>m</sup> and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths; for since the days of Jehua the son of Nua, unto that day, had not the children of Israel done so: and there was very great gladness.

18 Also <sup>n</sup> day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God: and they kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day was † a solemn assembly, <sup>o</sup> according unto the manner.

1 A solemn fast and repentance of the people. 4 The Levites confess Gods goodness, and their wickedness.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of <sup>a</sup> this month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, <sup>b</sup> and earth upon them.

2 And <sup>c</sup> the seed of Israel separated themselves from all † strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and <sup>d</sup> read in the book of the law of the LORD their God, one fourth part of the day, and another fourth part they confessed and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up, upon the ¶ flairs ¶ of the Levites, Jehua and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jehua and Kadmiel, Bani, Hahabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou art LORD alone; <sup>e</sup> thou hast made heaven, <sup>f</sup> the heaven of heavens with <sup>k</sup> all their host, the earth and all things that are therein, the seas and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose <sup>h</sup> Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of <sup>i</sup> Abraham:

8 And foundest his heart <sup>k</sup> faithful before thee, and madest a <sup>l</sup> covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 <sup>m</sup> And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and <sup>n</sup> heardest their cry by the Red sea:

10 And <sup>o</sup> shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them: so didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 <sup>p</sup> And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land, and their persecutors thou thrustest into the deeps, <sup>q</sup> as a stone into the mighty waters.

13 <sup>s</sup> Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and <sup>t</sup> true laws, right statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And <sup>u</sup> gavest them bread from heaven, for their hunger, and <sup>v</sup> broughtest forth water for them out of the rock, for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should <sup>w</sup> go in to possess the land, <sup>x</sup> which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them: but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed <sup>y</sup> a captain to return to their bondage: but thou <sup>art</sup> <sup>z</sup> a God ready to pardon, <sup>a</sup> gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, <sup>a</sup> when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This <sup>is</sup> thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations:

19 Yet thou, in thy manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the <sup>b</sup> pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy <sup>c</sup> good spirit, to instruct them, and withheldst not thy <sup>d</sup> manna from their mouth, and gavest them <sup>e</sup> water for their thirst.

21 Yea, <sup>f</sup> forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, <sup>so that</sup> they lacked nothing; their <sup>g</sup> clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of <sup>h</sup> Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 <sup>1</sup> Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess <sup>i</sup> it.

24 So <sup>k</sup> the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them † as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, || wells digged, vineyards and olive-yards, and † fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and <sup>1</sup> became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and <sup>m</sup> cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy <sup>n</sup> prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 <sup>o</sup> Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest <sup>them</sup> from heaven; and, according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, † they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet, when they returned and cried unto thee, thou heardest <sup>them</sup> from heaven, and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies.

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, († which if a man do, he shall live in them.) and † withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

by thy spirit † in thy prophets; yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, for thy great mercies sake, thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, <sup>p</sup> as it is written in the law :

35 And <sup>q</sup> to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD :

36 Also the first-born of our sons and of our cattle, (as it is written <sup>r</sup> in the law,) and the firstlings of our herds, and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests, that minister in the house of our God :

37 <sup>s</sup> And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God, and <sup>t</sup> the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes, in all the cities of our tillage.

38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites, <sup>u</sup> when the Levites take tithes : and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, in the treasure-house.

39 For the children of Israel, and the children of Levi, <sup>w</sup> shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers : <sup>y</sup> and we will not forsake the house of our God.

1 The rulers, voluntary men, and the tenth man chosen by lot, dwell at Jerusalem: 3 a catalogue of their names.

AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten, to dwell in Jerusalem <sup>a</sup> the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

4 And <sup>e</sup> at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin: of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziab, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephathiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of <sup>f</sup> Perez;

5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiab, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

6 All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem, were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiab, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeseiah.

8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Sennah was over the city.

10 <sup>g</sup> Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin.

11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was ruler of the house of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house, were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pasfur, the son of Malchiah,

13 And his brethren chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai, the son of Azareel, the son of Ahafai, the son of Mishlemoth, the son of Immer, 14 And their brethren mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiele, <sup>h</sup> the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Buuni.

16 And Shabbethai, and Jozabad of the chief of the Levites, <sup>i</sup> had the oversight of <sup>h</sup> the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in the holy city, were two hundred fourscore and four.

5 † Miamin, † Maadiah, Bilgah, 6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 † Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah : these were the chief of the priests, and of their brethren in the days of <sup>d</sup> Jeshua.

8 Moreover the Levites : Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over † the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakbukiah, and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 ¶ And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim, were priests, the chief of the fathers : of Seraiah, Meraiah : of Jeremiah Hananiah :

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam : of Amariah, Jehohanan :

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan : of Shebaniah, Joseph :

15 Of Harim, Adna : of Meraioth, Helkai :

26 These were in the days of Joiakim, the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

27 ¶ And at <sup>b</sup> the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, <sup>i</sup> both with thanksgiving, and with singing with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Neotphathi, 29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba, and Azbaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof <sup>k</sup> one went on the right hand upon the wall <sup>l</sup> toward the dung-gate;

32 And after them went Hqshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

35 And certain of the priests sons with trumpets: namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michajah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Afaph:

37 ° And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by <sup>p</sup> the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto <sup>q</sup> the water-gate east-ward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks, went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall from beyond <sup>r</sup> the tower of the furnaces, even unto <sup>s</sup> the broad wall:

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with trumpets:

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer: and the singers † sang aloud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ <sup>a</sup> And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions || of the law for the priests and Levites: † for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites † that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, <sup>b</sup> according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David, <sup>c</sup> and Afaph of old, there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers, and the porters, every day his portion, and they || sanctified holy things unto the Levites, <sup>d</sup> and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

water, but <sup>b</sup> hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: <sup>c</sup> howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, <sup>d</sup> that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, <sup>e</sup> having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah :

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, <sup>f</sup> where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the titles of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, (<sup>g</sup> which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the fingers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: <sup>h</sup> for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes, king of Babylon, came I unto the king, and <sup>i</sup> after certain days <sup>j</sup> obtained I leave of the king :

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore, therefore I cast forth all the household-stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that <sup>k</sup> the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites, and the fingers that did the work, were fled every one to <sup>l</sup> his field.

11 Then <sup>m</sup> I contended I with the rulers, and said, <sup>n</sup> Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their <sup>o</sup> place.

12 <sup>p</sup> Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the <sup>q</sup> treasuries.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and <sup>r</sup> next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and <sup>s</sup> their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 <sup>t</sup> Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my † good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the <sup>u</sup> offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 <sup>v</sup> Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that, when the gates of Jerusalem <sup>w</sup> began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: <sup>x</sup> and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye <sup>y</sup> about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites, that <sup>z</sup> they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day: <sup>aa</sup> Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the <sup>ab</sup> greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that <sup>ac</sup> had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab :

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and <sup>ad</sup> could not speak in the Jews language, but according to the language <sup>ae</sup> of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and <sup>af</sup> cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto

¶ The Book of E S T H E R.

C H A P. I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti sent for, refuseth to come.

NOW it came to pass, in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces,)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes, and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces being before him.

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his excellent Majesty, many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the kings palace,

6 Where were white, and green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple, to silver rings, and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold, and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being divers one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law, none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every mans pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women, in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Meluman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the kings commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the wise-men, which knew the times, (for so was the kings manner towards all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marfena, and Memucan, seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the kings face, and which sat the first in the kingdom,)

15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti, according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus, by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the kings princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 † If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment † from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, † that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal estate † unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the kings decree, which he shall make, shall be published throughout all his empire (for it is great) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying † pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan :

22 For he sent letters into all the kings provinces, <sup>h</sup> into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and † that it should be published according to the language of every people.

C H A P. II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins, a queen is to be chosen. 15 Esther elected.

After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the kings servants, that ministred unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, † unto the custody of † Hege the kings chamberlain, keeper of the women, and let their things for purification be given them :

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kishi, a Benjamite :

6 <sup>a</sup> Who had been carried away from Jerusalem, with the captivity which had been carried away with † Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he † brought up Hadassah (that is Esther) <sup>b</sup> his uncles daughter : for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was † fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai (when her father and mother were dead) took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the kings commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the kings house, to the custody of Hegai the keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him, and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with † such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the kings house; and † he preferred her, and her maids, unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 <sup>c</sup> Esther had not shewed her people, nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her, that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens house, † to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maids turn was come, to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women,)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women, unto the kings house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shashtgaz, the kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she 9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

11 All the kings servants, and the people of the kings provinces do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, <sup>b</sup> there is one law of his to put <sup>c</sup> him to death, except such <sup>c</sup> to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the kings commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace: and the king and Haman fat down to drink; but <sup>n</sup> the city Shushan was perplexed.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esthers words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the kings house, more than all the Jews.

C H A P. IV.

1 Mordecai and the Jews mourn.

15 Esther appointeth a fast.

When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth <sup>a</sup> with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, <sup>b</sup> then shall there <sup>c</sup> enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but thou and thy fathers house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth, whether thou art come to the kingdom for <sup>d</sup> such a time as this?

2 And came even before the kings gate: for none <sup>e</sup> might enter into the kings gate clothed with sackcloth.

15 ¶ Then Esther bade <sup>f</sup> them return Mordecai <sup>g</sup> this answer,

3 And in every province, whithersoever the kings commandment and his decree came, <sup>h</sup> there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing, and <sup>i</sup> many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

16 Go, gather together all the Jews <sup>j</sup> that are <sup>k</sup> present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink <sup>l</sup> three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which <sup>m</sup> is not according to the law; <sup>n</sup> and if I perish, I perish.

4 ¶ So Esthers maids, and her <sup>o</sup> chamberlains, came and told <sup>p</sup> it her: Then was the queen exceedingly grieved, and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him; but he received it not.

17 So Mordecai <sup>q</sup> went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, <sup>r</sup> one of the kings chamberlains, <sup>s</sup> to whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it <sup>t</sup> was, and why it <sup>u</sup> was.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, <sup>g</sup> What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee : and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day, joyful, and with a glad heart : but when Haman saw Mordecai in the kings gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless, Haman refrained himself : and when he came home, he sent and † called for his friends, and Zereſh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and <sup>h</sup> the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared, but myself; and to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the kings gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zereſh his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a † gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon : then go thou in merrily 12 Upon one day, in all the provinces of king Ahafuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing, for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day, to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the kings commandment; and the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen, and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad:

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the kings commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day: and many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

C H A P. IX.

1 The Jews slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman, 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW is the twelfth month, (that is the month Adar,) on the thirteenth day of the same, when the kings commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them,)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ahafuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them: for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews: because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the kings house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace, the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the kings provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan, to do tomorrow also according unto this days decree, and let Hamans ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shushan, and they hanged Hamans ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the kings provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand; but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same, rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan, assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar, a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly:

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them.

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur (that is the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days, according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year:

28 And that these days should be remembered, and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth:

31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew, and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

C H A P. I.

The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children: 6 Satan, appearing before God, by calumniation, obtaineth leave to tempt Job.

THERE was a man <sup>a</sup> in the land of Uz, whose name was <sup>b</sup> Job, and that man was <sup>c</sup> perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons, and three daughters.

3 His || substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and a very great || household; so that this man was the greatest of all the † men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters, to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, <sup>d</sup> and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and <sup>e</sup> cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job † continually.

6 ¶ Now <sup>f</sup> there was a day <sup>g</sup> when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and † Satan came also † among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From <sup>h</sup> going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, † Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his || substance is increased in the land.

11 † But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, † and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath <sup>is</sup> in thy † power, only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day, when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, ¶ The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and † fell upon the camels, and have carried them away; yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

19 And behold, there came a great wind † from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, <sup>k</sup> and rent his || mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

21 And said, † Naked came I out of my mothers womb, and naked shall I return <sup>h</sup> thither: the LORD gave, and the

C H A P. II.

1 Satan, appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job: 7 he smitteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God.

A Gain <sup>a</sup> there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And <sup>b</sup> Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, <sup>c</sup> a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, † to <sup>d</sup> destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin; yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 <sup>e</sup> But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 <sup>f</sup> And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand, || but save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; <sup>g</sup> and he fat down among the ashes.

9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh: what? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? <sup>h</sup> In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now when Jobs three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come <sup>i</sup> to mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lift up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and <sup>k</sup> sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground <sup>l</sup> seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

5 Let darkness and <sup>b</sup> the shadow of death || stain it, let a cloud dwell upon it, || let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it, || let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up || their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark, let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see † the dawning of the day:

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless: 8 he wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort: 14 he reproveth his friends.

5 Doth the wild ass bray † when he hath grafs? or loveth the ox over his fodder?
 6 Can that which is unfavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch, are as my sorrowful meat.
 8 O that I might have my request! and that God would grant me † the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off.
 10 Then should I yet have comfort, yea, I would harden myself in sorrow; let him not spare, for I have not concealed the words of <sup>d</sup> the holy One.

20 I have sinned, what shall I do unto thee, <sup>o</sup> O thou preserver of men ? why <sup>p</sup> hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself ?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity ? for now shall I sleep in the dust, and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

C H A P. IX.

1 Job, acknowledging Gods justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 2 Mans innocency is not to be condemned by affliction.

Then Job answered, and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should a man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4<sup>b</sup> He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger;

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble;

7 Which commandeth the sun and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars;

8<sup>c</sup> Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea;

9<sup>d</sup> Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;

10<sup>e</sup> Which doth great things past finding out, yea, and wonders without number.

11<sup>f</sup> Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12<sup>g</sup> Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What dost thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15<sup>i</sup> Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall fet me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, he destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now<sup>n</sup> my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that halleth to the prey.

27<sup>p</sup> If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30<sup>q</sup> If I wash myself with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For he is not a man as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions: 18 he complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease, &c.

MYA soul is || weary of my life, I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress? that thou shouldest despise † the work of thine hands? and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or b seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as maus days, are thy years as maus days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 † Thou knowest that I am not wicked, and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands † have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, wo unto me; f and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head: I am full of confusion, therefore see thou mine affliction;

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 5 Gods wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should † a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy || lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For a thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But, O that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would slew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! know therefore that b God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 c Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is † as high as heaven, what canst thou do? deeper than hell, what canst thou know?

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that prove him : 7 he acknowledgeth Gods omnipotency.

AND Job answered, and said, 2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But <sup>a</sup> I have † understanding as well as you ; † I am not inferior to you : yea, † who knoweth not such things as these ?

4 <sup>b</sup> I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him : the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 <sup>c</sup> He that is ready to slip with his feet, is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 <sup>d</sup> The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure ; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee ; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee :

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee ; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this ?

10 <sup>e</sup> In whose hand is the || soul of every living thing, and the breath of † all mankind.

11 <sup>f</sup> Doth not the ear try words ? and the † mouth taste his meat ?

13 || <sup>g</sup> With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, <sup>h</sup> he breaketh down and it cannot be built again : he

15 Behold, he with-holdeth the waters, and they dry up ; also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 <sup>k</sup> With him is strength and wisdom : the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leaeth counsellors away spoiled, and <sup>1</sup> maketh the judges fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leaeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 <sup>m</sup> He removeth away † the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 <sup>n</sup> He poureth contempt upon princes, and || weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 <sup>o</sup> He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 <sup>p</sup> He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them : he enlargeth the nations, and † straiteneth them again.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to † stagger like a drunken man.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality : 14 he professeth his confidence in God, 20 and intreateth to know his own sins, and Gods purpose in afflicting him.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 <sup>a</sup> What ye know, the same do I know also : I am not inferior unto you.

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 † Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore † do I take my flesh in my teeth, and † put my life in mine hand?

15 † Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: † but I will † maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also † shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 † Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 † Only do not two things unto me; then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me; and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 † Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and † holdest me for thine enemy?

25 † Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and † makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 † Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and † lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the † heels of my feet.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Job entreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

Man that is born of a woman, is † of few days, and † full of trouble.

2 † He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 † Who † can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 † Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass.

6 † Turn from him that he may † rest, till he shall accomplish, † as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, † that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground:

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and † wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not † till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time † will I wait till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 † For now thou numberest my steps, dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 † My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling † cometh to nought: and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou † wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth, and thou destroyest the hope of man.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself: 17 he proveth by tradition the unquietness of wicked men.

Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter † vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east-wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, † thou callest off fear, and restrainest || prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth † uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosetest the tongue of the crafty:

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? <sup>a</sup> or wast thou made before the hills?

8 <sup>b</sup> Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 <sup>c</sup> With us are both the gray-headed, and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 <sup>d</sup> What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 <sup>e</sup> Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 <sup>f</sup> How much more abominable and filthy is man, <sup>g</sup> which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me, and that which I have seen I will declare,

18 Which wise men have told <sup>h</sup> from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, <sup>i</sup> and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 † A dreadful sound is in his ears; <sup>k</sup> in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He <sup>l</sup> wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? <sup>m</sup> he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 <sup>n</sup> Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness, the flame shall dry up his branches, and <sup>o</sup> by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 It shall be || accomplished <sup>p</sup> before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 <sup>q</sup> They conceive mischief, and bring forth || vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their fight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and fail-eth not, their cow calveth, and cast-eth not her calf.

11 They fend forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because <sup>e</sup> I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish, came upon me: and I caused the widows heart to sing for joy.

14 <sup>f</sup> I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands amongst us, and multiplieth his words against God.

C H A P. XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

E Lihu spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than Gods?

3 For <sup>a</sup> thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have || if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 † I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 <sup>b</sup> Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what dost thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what dost thou unto him?

7 <sup>c</sup> If thou be righteous, what giveth thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions, they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none faith, Where is God my maker, <sup>d</sup> who giveth songs in the night?

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven.

12 <sup>e</sup> There they cry, (but none giveth answer,) because of the pride of evil men.

13 <sup>f</sup> Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 <sup>g</sup> Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now because it is not so, || he hath visited in his anger; yet || he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 <sup>h</sup> Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain: he multiplieth words without knowledge.

C H A P. XXXVI.

1 Elishu sheweth how God is just in his ways: 16 how Jobs sins hinder Gods blessings. 24 Gods works are to be magnified.

E Lihu also proceeded, and said, 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee † that I have yet to speak on Gods behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my maker.

4 For, truly, my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiteth not any: <sup>a</sup> he is mighty in strength and † wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the || poor.

7 <sup>b</sup> He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but <sup>c</sup> with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And <sup>d</sup> if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 <sup>e</sup> He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall <sup>f</sup> spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, † they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart <sup>g</sup> heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14 <sup>h</sup> † They die in youth, and their life is among the || unclean.

15 He delivereth the || poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness, and † <sup>i</sup> that which should be set on thy table, should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: || judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then <sup>k</sup> a great ransom cannot † deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? <sup>l</sup> no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: <sup>m</sup> who teacheth like him?

23 <sup>n</sup> Who hath enjoined him his way? or <sup>o</sup> who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof;
28 Which the clouds do drop, and distil upon man abundantly.
29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?
30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.
31 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.
32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that cometh betwixt.
33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works: 15 his wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth; he thundereth with the voice of his excellency, and he will not stay them when his wrath is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doth he which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given; and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud,

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

14 Harken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds; but the wind passeth and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice; he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

10. 26, 28.

11 <sup>a</sup> Who hath prevented me that I should repay him? <sup>b</sup> whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him || with his double bridle?

|| Or, within.

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

† Heb. Strong pieces of shields.

15 His † scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

7 ¶ And it was so, that, after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks, and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering, and my servant Job shall pray for you; for † him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand the-asses.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted † Job.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

10 ¶ And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD † gave Job † twice as much as he had before.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jenima, and the name of the second, Kezia, and the name of the third Keren-happuch.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and 15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: <sup>a</sup> how I say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to thy mountain?

2 For lo, <sup>b</sup> the wicked bend their bow, <sup>c</sup> they make ready their arrow upon the string; that they may † privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 <sup>d</sup> If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 <sup>e</sup> The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORDS throne is in heaven: <sup>f</sup> his eyes behold, his eye-lids try the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

6 <sup>g</sup> Upon the wicked he shall rain || snares, fire and brimstone, and || a horrible tempest: <sup>h</sup> this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness, his countenance doth behold the upright.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God: 3 he comforteth himself with Gods judgments on the wicked, and confidence in Gods tried promises.

¶ To the chief musician || * upon Sheminith, A psalm of David.

HELp, LORD, for <sup>a</sup> the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 <sup>b</sup> They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: <sup>c</sup> with flattering lips, and with † a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh <sup>d</sup> † proud things;

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail, our lips † are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, (saith the LORD,) I will set him in safety from him that || e puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words; <sup>f</sup> as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve † them from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when † the vilest men are exalted.

¶ To the || chief musician, A psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD, for ever? <sup>a</sup> how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider, and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, <sup>b</sup> lest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 <sup>c</sup> Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in thy mercy, my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

¶ To the chief musician, A Psalm of David * the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,

I <sup>a</sup> Will love thee, O LORD my strength.

2 THE LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer: my God, † my strength, <sup>b</sup> in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, <sup>c</sup> who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 <sup>d</sup> The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of † ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The || sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 <sup>e</sup> Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved, and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke † out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 <sup>f</sup> He bowed the heavens also and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 <sup>g</sup> And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, <sup>h</sup> he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: <sup>i</sup> his pavilion round about him were dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

12 <sup>k</sup> At the brightness that was before him, his thick clouds passed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave <sup>l</sup> his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 <sup>m</sup> Yea, he sent out his arrows and scattered them; and he shot out lightning and discomfited them.

15 <sup>n</sup> Then the chanel of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered: at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 <sup>o</sup> He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of || many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 <sup>p</sup> He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 <sup>q</sup> The LORD rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright † before him: and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 <sup>r</sup> Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands † in his eye-sight.

25 <sup>s</sup> With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure, and <sup>t</sup> with the froward thou wilt || shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people: but wilt bring down <sup>u</sup> high looks.

28 <sup>x</sup> For thou wilt light my || candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have || run through a troop: and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, <sup>y</sup> his way is perfect: <sup>z</sup> the word of the LORD is || tried; he is a buckler <sup>a</sup> to all those that trust in him.

31 <sup>b</sup> For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that <sup>c</sup> girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 <sup>d</sup> He maketh my feet like hinds feet, and <sup>e</sup> setteth me upon my high places.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement: 9 he prayeth in great distress: 23 he praiseth God.

¶ To the chief musician upon Aijeleth-Shahar, A psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season, and I am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 He trusted on the LORD, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me hope, when I was upon my mothers breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mothers belly.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd: and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me, the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD; O my strength, haste thee to help me.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I, that the LORD saveth his anointed: he will hear him from his holy heaven, with the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salvation, honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the king trusteth in the LORD; and through the mercy of the most High, he shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they interded evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings, against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

2 <sup>b</sup> Examine me, O LORD, and prove me : try my reins and my heart.

3 For thy loving kindness is before mine eyes : and I have walked in thy truth.

4 <sup>c</sup> I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers : <sup>d</sup> and will not sit with the wicked.

6 <sup>e</sup> I will wash mine hands in innocency : so will I compass thine altar, O LORD;

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

8 LORD, <sup>f</sup> I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place + where thine honour dwelleth.

9 || <sup>g</sup> Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with + bloody men;

<sup>b</sup> The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, + came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 <sup>c</sup> Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear : though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 <sup>d</sup> One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold || <sup>e</sup> the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For <sup>f</sup> in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion : in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall <sup>g</sup> mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me : therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices + of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice : have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 || When thou saidst <sup>h</sup> Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 <sup>i</sup> Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger : thou hast been my help, leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked.

5 The excellency of Gods mercy.

10 David prayeth for favour to Gods children.

To the chief musician, A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

The transgression of the wicked is faith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed, he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like thy great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preferrest man and beast.

7 How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

P S A L M XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience, and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

A psalm of David.

Fret not thyself, because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and thy verity thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD: trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall laugh at him, for he seeth that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; and into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him, shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him, shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old: yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom; and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power: and spreading himself like a green bay-tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together; the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD; he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

P S A L M XXXVIII. David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

A psalm of David to bring to remembrance.

O LORD rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger: neither is there any rest in my bones, because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt: because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 LORD, all my desire is before thee: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore: and my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O LORD my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

4 LORD, <sup>b</sup> make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know || how frail I am.

6 Surely every man walketh in a † vain shew; surely they are disquieted in vain: <sup>e</sup> he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I, for? my hope is in thee.

1 Gods care of the poor. 4 David complaineth of his enemies treachery.

To the chief musicians, A psalm of David.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth; and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me; heal my soul: for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me: when shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise to hurt me.

8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me; for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy-day.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God, for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will command his loving kindness in the day-time, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me: while they say daily unto me, where is thy God?

To the chief musician, A psalm for the sons of Korah.

Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom: and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For their redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man being in honour, abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly; yet their posterity approve their saying. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave, from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased:

17 For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him, 18 Though, while he lived, he is blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou dost well to thyself.

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers, they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

The majesty of God in the church: his order to gather saints. The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies, but in sincerity of obedience.

A psalm of Asaph. The mighty God, even the LORD hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, ever thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

1 David prayeth for remission of sins, 6 and for justification. 16 God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity: 18 he prayeth for the church.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David, * when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Beth-sheba.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies<sup>a</sup> blot out my transgressions.

2<sup>b</sup> Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me,

4<sup>c</sup> Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil<sup>d</sup> in thy sight; ° that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5<sup>f</sup> Behold, I was shapen in iniquity: ° and in sin did my mother † conceive me.

6 Behold, <sup>h</sup> thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7<sup>i</sup> Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be<sup>k</sup> whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins; and<sup>l</sup> blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew || a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, and uphold me with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from † blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O LORD, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For<sup>m</sup> thou desirest not sacrifice, || else would I give it; thou delightest not in burnt-offering.

17<sup>n</sup> The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with<sup>o</sup> the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt-offering and whole-burnt-offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

David, complaining to God of former judgment, & now upon better hope prayeth for deliverance: 6 he comforteth himself in Gods promise.

To the chief musician * upon Shushan-eduth, || Michtam of David; to teach, * when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt, twelve thousand.

O God, <sup>a</sup> thou hast cast us off, thou hast † scattered us, thou hast been displeas'd; O turn thyself to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

David fleeth to God upon his former experience: 4 he voweth perpetual service unto him, &c.

To the chief musician upon Neginoth, A psalm of David.

Hear my cry, O God, attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 <sup>a</sup> I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: <sup>b</sup> I will || trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

5 <sup>f</sup> My soul, wait thou only upon God: for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, <sup>g</sup> pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

O God, thou art my God, early will I seek thee: a my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and † thirsty land, † where no water is;

2 To see b thy power and thy glo- ry, so as I have seen thee in the sanc- tuary.

5 My soul shall be satisfied, as with † marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When a I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help; therefore e in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul to destroy it shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 † They shall fall by the sword; † they shall be a portion for foxes.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have born reproach: shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mothers children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

15 Let not the water-flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O LORD; for thy loving kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: † hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee, 20 Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my meat, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate, and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For thou hast persecuted him whom thou hast smitten, and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

27 Add iniquity to their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

32 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God.

33 For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

34 Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein.

35 For God will save Sion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

36 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his Name shall dwell therein.

1 The prophet, prevailing in a temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked: 13 the wound given thereby, diffidence: 15 the victory over it, knowledge of Gods purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

¶ || A psalm of * Afaph.

¶ Truly God is good to Israel, ever so such as are † of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone: my steps had well-nigh slipt.

3 <sup>a</sup> For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is † firm.

5 <sup>b</sup> They are not † in trouble as other men: neither are they plagued † like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 <sup>c</sup> Their eyes stand out with fatness: † they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and <sup>d</sup> speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: <sup>e</sup> and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, <sup>f</sup> How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world, they increase in riches.

13 <sup>g</sup> Verily, I have cleansed my heart in vain, and <sup>h</sup> washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus: behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 <sup>i</sup> When I thought to know this, † it was too painful for me, 17 Until <sup>k</sup> I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

18 Surely <sup>l</sup> thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 <sup>m</sup> As a dream when one awaketh: so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 <sup>n</sup> So foolish was I, and † ignorant: I was as a beast † before thee.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

1 The prophet complaineth of the desolation of the sanctuary: 10 he moveth God to help, in consideration of his power, 18 of his reproachful enemies, of his children, and of his covenant.

¶ Maschil of Afaph.

O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why thou thine anger smoke against <sup>a</sup> the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation <sup>b</sup> which thou hast purchased of old: the || <sup>c</sup> rod of thine inheritance which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 <sup>d</sup> Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations: <sup>e</sup> they set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous, according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down <sup>f</sup> the carved work thereof at once, with axes and hammers.

7 <sup>g</sup> † They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled <sup>h</sup> by casting down the dwelling-place of thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us † destroy them together: they have burnt up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs; <sup>i</sup> there is no more a † prophet, neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 <sup>k</sup> Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: <sup>r</sup> thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: <sup>s</sup> thou hast † made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul <sup>t</sup> of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the wicked; <sup>u</sup> forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 <sup>v</sup> Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

46 <sup>u</sup> He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 <sup>x</sup> He † destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore-trees with || frost.

48 <sup>y</sup> † He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to || hot thunder-bolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 † He made a way to his anger ; he spared not their soul from death : but gave || their life over to the pestilence ;

51 <sup>z</sup> And smote all the first-born in Egypt ; the chief of their strength in <sup>a</sup> the tabernacles of Ham :

52 But <sup>b</sup> made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so that thy feared not : but the sea <sup>c</sup> † overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, <sup>d</sup> which his right hand had purchased.

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and <sup>e</sup> divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies ;

57 But turned back and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers : they were turned aside <sup>f</sup> like a deceitful bow.

58 <sup>g</sup> For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel :

65 Then the LORD <sup>n</sup> awaked as one out of sleep, and <sup>o</sup> like a mighty man that thouteth by reason of wine.

66 And <sup>p</sup> he smote his enemies in the hinder parts : he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover, he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim ;

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion, <sup>q</sup> which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath † established for ever.

70 <sup>r</sup> He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheep-folds :

71 † From following <sup>s</sup> the ewes great with young, he brought him <sup>t</sup> to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart ; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

1 Moses, setting forth Gods providence, 3 complaineth of human fragility, 10 and brevity of life: 12 he prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of Gods good providence.

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world; even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood, they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years in as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice, and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto thy children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 3 for his greatness, 6 and for his goodness, 8 and not to tempt him.

O LORD: let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O Come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand: to day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

P S A L M XCVI.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 4 for his greatness, 8 for his kingdom, 11 and for his general judgment.

O Sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name: shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen, that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved; he shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the seas roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

13 Before the LORD; for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint: 12 he taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God. 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded. 23 David sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

A prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me, in the day when I am in trouble, incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burnt as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grey haif: so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day: and they that are mad against me, are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping;

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever, and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion for the time to favour her, yea, the set time is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD; and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary: from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner, to loose those that are appointed to death;

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem:

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that <sup>d</sup> thy youth is renewed like the eagles.

6<sup>e</sup> The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7<sup>f</sup> He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8<sup>g</sup> The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and † plenteous in mercy.

9<sup>h</sup> He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger forever.

10<sup>i</sup> He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11<sup>k</sup> For † as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13<sup>l</sup> Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame: <sup>m</sup> he remembereth that we are dust.

4<sup>g</sup> Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flame of fire:

5<sup>h</sup> Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6<sup>i</sup> Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7<sup>k</sup> At thy rebuke they fled: at the voice of thy thunder they hast away.

8 || They go up by the mountains: they go down by the vallies unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9<sup>l</sup> Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over: <sup>m</sup> that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10† He sendeth the springs into the vallies, which † run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses † quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which † sing among the branches.

13<sup>n</sup> He watereth the hills from his chambers: <sup>o</sup> the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14<sup>p</sup> He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man; that he may bring forth food out of the earth:

15 And <sup>q</sup> wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and † oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth mans heart.

23 <sup>a</sup> Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen <sup>x</sup> stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised <sup>y</sup> † the pleasure land; they believed not his word: 25 <sup>z</sup> But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 <sup>a</sup> Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 <sup>† b</sup> To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 <sup>c</sup> They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them.

30 <sup>d</sup> Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness, unto all generations for evermore.

32 <sup>e</sup> They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 <sup>f</sup> Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 <sup>g</sup> They did not destroy the nations, <sup>h</sup> concerning whom the LORD commanded them;

35 <sup>i</sup> But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols; <sup>k</sup> which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, <sup>l</sup> they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils;

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and <sup>m</sup> the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and <sup>n</sup> went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, in so much that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 <sup>o</sup> Many times did he deliver them, but they provoked him with their counsel, and were || brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, he regarded their affliction, when <sup>p</sup> he heard their cry.

45 <sup>q</sup> And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

1 Because God is truly glorious, and idols are vanity, 9 he exhorteth to confidence in God. 12 God is to be blessed for his blessings.

N O T<sup>a</sup> unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truths sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, b Where is now their God?

3<sup>c</sup> But our God is in the heavens, he hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4<sup>d</sup> Their idols are silver and gold, the work of mens hands.

5 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

6 They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not;

7 They have hands, but they handle not; feet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

8<sup>e</sup> They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

f See Psal. 118. 4, 3, 4. & 135. 12, 20. 9<sup>f</sup> O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: g he is their help and their shield.

g Psalm 33. 20. 10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

12 The LORD hath been mindful of us, he will bless us, he will bless the house of Israel, he will bless the house of Aaron.

1 The psalmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance:

12 he studieth to be thankful.

I Love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice, and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him + as long as I live.

3<sup>a</sup> The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell + gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

6 The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul, for b the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8<sup>c</sup> For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before d the LORD in the land of the living.

10<sup>e</sup> I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted.

11<sup>f</sup> I said in my haste, g All men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits towards me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.

14<sup>h</sup> I will pay my vows unto the LORD, now in the presence of all his people.

15<sup>i</sup> Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

16 Oh LORD, truly k I am thy servant, I am thy servant, and l the son of thy handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

17 I will offer to thee m the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.

18<sup>n</sup> I will pay my vows unto the LORD, now in the presence of all his people;

19 In the courts of the LORDS house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M CXVII.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

1<sup>a</sup> Praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him all ye people.

2 For his merciful kindness is great towards us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy. 5 The psalmist sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 The coming of Christ's kingdom typified.

1<sup>a</sup> Give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good; because his mercy endureth for ever.

2<sup>b</sup> Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5<sup>c</sup> I called upon the LORD † in distress: the LORD answered me, and <sup>d</sup> set me in a large place.

6<sup>e</sup> The LORD is † on my side, I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7<sup>f</sup> The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

8<sup>g</sup> It is better to trust in the LORD, than to put confidence in man.

9<sup>h</sup> It is better to trust in the LORD, than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I † destroy them.

11 They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

12 They compassed me about <sup>i</sup> like bees, they are quenched <sup>k</sup> as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will † destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14<sup>l</sup> The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doth valiantly.

16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doth valiantly.

17<sup>m</sup> I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19<sup>n</sup> Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go in to them, and I will praise the LORD:

20<sup>o</sup> This gate of the LORD, <sup>p</sup> into which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee; for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

22<sup>q</sup> The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

23† This is the LORDS doing, it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the LORD hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD; O LORD I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26<sup>r</sup> Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us <sup>s</sup> light; bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

29 O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

David praiseth God for his all-seeing providence.

¶ To the chief musician,

A psalm of David.

O LORD, <sup>a</sup> thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 <sup>b</sup> Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou <sup>c</sup> compassest my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 <sup>c</sup> Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 <sup>d</sup> Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence.

8 <sup>e</sup> If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: <sup>f</sup> if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea:

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me: even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, <sup>g</sup> the darkness <sup>h</sup> hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: <sup>i</sup> the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mothers womb.

14 I will praise thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth † right well.

15 <sup>h</sup> My <sup>i</sup> substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance yet being imperfect, and in thy book † all my members were written, || which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 <sup>i</sup> How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I wake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: <sup>k</sup> depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 <sup>l</sup> Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 <sup>m</sup> Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts;

24 And see if there be any † wicked way in me, and <sup>n</sup> lead me in the way everlasting.

2 Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath also stablished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth, ye dragons and all deeps;

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapour, stormy wind, fulfilling his word;

9 Mountains and all hills, fruitful trees and all cedars;

10 Beasts and all cattle, creeping things, and flying fowl;

11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth;

12 Both young men and maidens, old men and children;

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is † excellent, his glory is above the earth and heaven.

14 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M CXLIX.

The prophet exhorteth to praise God.

† Praise ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be † in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M CL.

An exhortation to praise God.

† Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

THE proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction, to perceive the words of instruction;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 ¶<sup>b</sup> The fear of the LORD is
|| the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8<sup>c</sup> My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For<sup>d</sup> they shall be † an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us e lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause,

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave, and whole, as those that go down into the pit;

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us, let us all have one purse.

15 My son, f walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16<sup>g</sup> For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread
† in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood, they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ †<sup>h</sup> Wisdom crieth without;
she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse; in the openings of the gates:
in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorn-ers delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold,
I will pour out my spirit unto you,
I will make known my words unto you.

24 ¶<sup>i</sup> Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye<sup>k</sup> have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 I also will laugh at your calamity,
I will mock when your fear cometh;

27 When<sup>m</sup> in your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

28<sup>n</sup> Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not<sup>o</sup> choose the fear of the LORD.

30<sup>p</sup> They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof;

31 Therefore<sup>q</sup> shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the || turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But<sup>r</sup> whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and<sup>s</sup> shall be quiet from fear of evil.

C H A P. II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and<sup>a</sup> hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding:

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and † listest up thy voice for understanding;

4<sup>b</sup> If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures:

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD; and find the knowledge of God.

6<sup>c</sup> For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous; <sup>d</sup> he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity;
yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul,

11 Discretion shall preserve thee,
e understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness; to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15<sup>f</sup> Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from<sup>g</sup> the strange

1 Solomon, to persuade obedience, 2 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked: 20 he exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake you not my law.

3 For I was my fathers son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments and live.

5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not, neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and, with all thy getting, get understanding.

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings: and the years of thy life shall be many.

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom: I have led thee in right paths.

12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened, and when thou runnest thou shalt not stumble.

13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her, for she is thy life.

14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 For they sleep not except they have done mischief: and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble:

20 My son, attend to my words, incline thine ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes: keep them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

23 Keep thy heart with all diligence: for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee a forward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eye-lids look straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

27 Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy feet from evil.

CHAP. V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom: 3 he sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot: 15 he exhorteth to contentedness, liberality, and chastity. 22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding;

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

3 For the lips of a strange woman drop as a honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil.

4 But her end is bitter as worm-wood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

5 Her feet go down to death: her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel.

10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, 12 And say, how have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof?

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver

4 ¶ Give not sleep to thine eyes,

9 ¶ How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep,

11 ¶ So shall thy poverty come as 14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually, he soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate; yea, seven are an abomi-law of thy mother.

21 ¶ Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 ¶ When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 ¶ For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the ways of life:

24 ¶ To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ¶ Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eye-lids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbours wife: whosoever toucheth her, shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry:

31 But if he be found, he shall restore seven-fold, he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But who so committeth adultery with a woman lacketh an understanding: he that doth it destroy-

C H A P. VII.

1 Solomon persuadeth to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom: 6 in an example of his own experience, he sheweth, 10 the cunning of an whore, 22 and the desperate simplicity of a young wanton: 24 he dehorteth from such wickedness.

M<sup>a</sup> y son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 <sup>b</sup> Keep my commandments, and live; <sup>c</sup> and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 <sup>d</sup> Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 <sup>e</sup> That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 ¶ For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among † the youths, a young man <sup>f</sup> void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner, and he went the way to her house,

9 <sup>g</sup> In the twilight, † in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

11 (<sup>h</sup> She is loud and stubborn, her feet abide not in her house.

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner:)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and † with an impudent face said unto him, 14 † I have peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have deckt my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with <sup>k</sup> fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, albes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning, let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long journey;

20 He hath taken a bag of money † with him, and will come home at † the day appointed.

21 With <sup>l</sup> her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her † straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks:

23 Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

27 <sup>m</sup> Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

4 Unto you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom; and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear, for I will speak of <sup>b</sup> excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth, and wickedness is † an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness, there is nothing † froward or perverse in them.

15 e By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

22 i The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 k I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths I was brought forth: when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 l Before the mountains were settled; before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the || fields, nor || the highest part of the dust of the world.

30 o Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: p and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him:

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for q blessed are they that keep my ways, 33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 r Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whofo findeth me, findeth life, and shall t s obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul; all they that hate me, love death.

CHAP. IX.

1 The discipline, 4 and doctrine of wisdom. 13 The custom, 16 and error of folly.

Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewen out her seven pillars.

2 a She hath killed t her beasts, b she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table;

3 She hath sent forth her maidens; c she crieth d upon the highest places of the city,

4 e Whofo is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 f Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forfake the foolish and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 g Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: h rebuke a wife man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wife man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 i The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 k For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 l If thou be wise, thou shalt be wife for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 m A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat n in the high places of the city, 15 To call passengers who go right on their ways.

16 o Whofo is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

10 || Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure, and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox, and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it?

24 The way of life is above to the wife, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things 29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

C H A P. XVI.

The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes: but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a mans ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.

9 A mans heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 A just weight and balance are the LORDs: † all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings: and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wife man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the kings countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding, rather to be chosen than silver?

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whose trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wife in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wife teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as an honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man: but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that laboureth, laboureth for himself; for his mouth teacheth it of him.

27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife, and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap: but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

C H A P. XVII.

Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have love over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The sining-pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips: and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 Childrens children are the crown of old men: and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love: but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man, than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool, doth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 A merry heart doth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27<sup>2</sup> He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of || an excellent spirit.
28<sup>3</sup> Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAP. XVIII.

Or, He that se-seeketh according to his desire,

leth in every business: See Jude
19.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominny reproach.

4<sup>a</sup> The words of a mans mouth are as deep waters, <sup>b</sup> and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5<sup>c</sup> It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fools lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

10<sup>g</sup> The name of the LORD is a § Heb. a sturneth

a word.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge: and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

¶ Heb. is sturneth
a word.

16<sup>k</sup> A mans gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

k Chap. 17. 8. &
21. 14.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city; and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20<sup>l</sup> A mans belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21<sup>m</sup> Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22<sup>n</sup> Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth intreaties, but the rich answereth ° roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: ° and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAP. XIX.

A Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet, sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: ° and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4<sup>c</sup> Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5<sup>d</sup> A false witness shall not be † unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6<sup>e</sup> Many will intreat the favour of the prince; and † every man is a friend to † him that giveth gifts.

7<sup>g</sup> All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth † wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9<sup>h</sup> A false witness shall not be unpunished: and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool:
much less<sup>i</sup> for a servant to have rule over princes.

11<sup>k</sup> The || discretion of a man deferreth his anger; ° and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12<sup>m</sup> The kings wrath is as the roaring of a lion: but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

13<sup>n</sup> A foolish son is the calamity of his father: ° and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and ° a prudent wife is from the LORD.

CHAP. XXIV.

BE not thou a envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

2 b For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded, and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 c Awife man † is strong; yea, a man of knowledge † increaseth strength.

6 d For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

1 Observations of publick government, 15 and of private. 22 Of anger, pride, thievery, and cowardice, &c.

† HE that being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2<sup>a</sup> When the righteous are || in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3<sup>b</sup> Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: <sup>c</sup> but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment stablisheth the land: but † he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7<sup>d</sup> The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8<sup>e</sup> Scornful men || bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 † The blood-thirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11<sup>f</sup> A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13<sup>g</sup> The poor and || the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14<sup>h</sup> The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15<sup>i</sup> The rod and reproof give wisdom: but <sup>k</sup> a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: <sup>l</sup> but the righteous shall see their fall.

17<sup>m</sup> Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18<sup>n</sup> Where there is no vision, the people || perish: but <sup>o</sup> he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for, though he understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty || in his words? <sup>p</sup> there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22<sup>q</sup> An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23<sup>r</sup> A mans pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD † shall be safe.

CHAP. I.

1 The preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain; 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses; 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten; 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words<sup>a</sup> of the preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem.

2<sup>b</sup> Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher, vanity of vanities;
c all is vanity.

3<sup>d</sup> What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: e but the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and † hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually:
and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7<sup>f</sup> All the rivers run into the sea;
yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they † return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9<sup>g</sup> The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.

and search out by wisdom, concern-

17<sup>m</sup> And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madnes and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For<sup>n</sup> in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wife be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom.

I Said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and behold, this also is vanity.

2<sup>a</sup> I said of laughter, It is mad; and of mirth, What doth it?

3<sup>b</sup> I fought in mine heart † to give myself unto wine, (yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven, † all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works, I builded me houses, I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits;

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees;

7 I got<sup>me</sup> servants and maidens, and had † servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle, above all that were in Jerusalem before me;

8<sup>c</sup> I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as † musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So<sup>d</sup> I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired, I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and<sup>e</sup> this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and behold, all was<sup>f</sup> vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom,<sup>g</sup> and madnes, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? || even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw † that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darknes.

14<sup>h</sup> The wise mans eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darknes: and I myself perceived also that<sup>i</sup> one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it † happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten: and how dieth the wise man<sup>j</sup> as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had † taken under the sun; because<sup>k</sup> I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me:

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity: yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he † leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22<sup>l</sup> For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are<sup>m</sup> sorrows, and his travel grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶<sup>n</sup> There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he || should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

a Job 27. 16, 17. Proverbs 28. 8.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten herewnto more than I?
26 For God giveth to a man that is good † in his sight, wisdom and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travel, to gather and to heap up, that ° he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

C H A P. III.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travel: 16 but as for man, God shall judge his works hereafter, and here he shall be like a beast.

TO every thing there is a season, and a <sup>a</sup> time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time † to be born, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted:

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up:

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance:

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together: a time to embrace, and <sup>b</sup> a time † to refrain from embracing:

6 A time to || get, and a time to lose: a time to keep, and a time to cast away:

7 A time to rent, and a time to sew: a time to keep silence, and a time to speak:

8 A time to love, and a time to hate: a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 <sup>c</sup> What profit hath he that worketh, in that wherein he laboureth?

10 <sup>d</sup> I have seen the travel which God hath given to the sons of men, to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that <sup>e</sup> no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 <sup>f</sup> I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also <sup>g</sup> that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatsoever God doth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it; and God doth it, that men should fear before him.

15 <sup>h</sup> That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been: and God requireth † that which is past.

16 ¶ And moreover, <sup>i</sup> I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is <sup>k</sup> a time there for every <sup>k</sup> purpose, and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, || that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 <sup>l</sup> For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place: <sup>m</sup> all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 <sup>n</sup> Who knoweth the spirit † of man that † goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 <sup>o</sup> Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

C H A P. IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, <sup>p</sup> by envy, <sup>q</sup> by idleness, <sup>r</sup> by covetousness, &c.

SO I returned, and considered all the <sup>a</sup> oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the † side of their oppressors there was power, but they had no comforter.

2 <sup>b</sup> Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive.

3 <sup>c</sup> Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travel, and † every right work, that † for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity, and vexation of spirit.

5 <sup>d</sup> The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 <sup>e</sup> Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travel and vexation of spirit.

 reave my ſoul of good? This is alſo vanity, yea, it is a fore travel.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; becauſe they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but wo to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail againſt him, two ſhall withſtand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wife child, than an old and fooliſh king, † who will no more be admoniſhed.

14 For out of priſon he cometh to reign: whereas alſo he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I conſidered all the living which walk under the ſun, with the ſecond child that ſhall ſtand up in his ſtead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they alſo that come after ſhall not rejoice in him. Surely this alſo is vanity, and vexation of ſpirit.

1 Vanities in divine ſervice, 8 in murmuring againſt oppreſſion, 9 and in riches. 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

Keep * thy foot when thou goeſt to the houſe of God, and be more ready to hear, <sup>b</sup> than to give the ſacrifice of fools: for they conſider not that they do evil.

2 Be not raſh with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be haſty to utter any ¶ thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words <sup>c</sup> be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of buſineſs, and <sup>d</sup> a fools voice is known by multitude of words.

4 <sup>e</sup> When thou voweſt a vow unto God, deſer not to pay it; for he hath no pleaſure in fools: <sup>f</sup> pay that which thou haſt vowed.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cauſe thy fleſh to ſin; <sup>h</sup> neither ſay thou before the angel that it was an error. wherefore ſhould God be angry at thy voice, and deſtroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words, there are alſo divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou ſeeſt the oppreſſion of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and juſtice in a province, marvel not † at the matter: for <sup>i</sup> he that is higher than the higheſt regardeth, and there be higher than they.

11 When goods increaſe, they are increaſed that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, ſaving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The ſleep of a labouring man is ſweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not ſuffer him to ſleep.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use, 3 of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires.

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, a so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity; and it is an evil disease.

3 || If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and b also that he have no burial, I say, that c an untimely birth is better than he:

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 || Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 d All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the † appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wife more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 || Better is the sight of the eyes, † than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: e neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 || Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, † all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as f a shadow? for g who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER VII.

1 Remedies against vanity are a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 The difficulty of wisdom.

A Good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death, than the day of ones birth.

2 || It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 || Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 b It is better to hear the rebuke of the wife, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 c For as the † crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 || Surely oppression maketh a wife man mad, d and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing, than the beginning thereof: and e the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 f Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire † wisely concerning this.

11 || Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit g to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a † defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for h who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath † set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: i there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 k Be not righteous over-much; l neither make thyself over-wise: why shouldst thou † destroy thyself?

17 Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: m why shouldst thou die † before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea also, from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

29 Lo, this only have I found, <sup>u</sup> that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected.

6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

Who is as the wife man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? <sup>a</sup> a mans wisdom maketh his face to shine, and † the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the kings commandment, <sup>b</sup> and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 <sup>c</sup> Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What dost thou?

5 Who so keepeth the commandment † shall feel no evil thing: and a wise mans heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because <sup>d</sup> to every purpose there is time and judgment; therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 <sup>e</sup> For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him || when it shall be?

8 <sup>f</sup> There is no man that hath power <sup>g</sup> over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no || discharge in that war, neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 <sup>h</sup> Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily; therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ <sup>i</sup> Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that <sup>k</sup> it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth, that there be just men unto whom it <sup>l</sup> happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 <sup>m</sup> Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour, the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that <sup>n</sup> a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further, though a wise man think to know it, <sup>o</sup> yet shall he not be able to find it.

C H A P. IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad.
 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 12 Gods providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this † I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, a that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 b All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madnes is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living, there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but c the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for d the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, e eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 † Thou lovest, all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: f for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, g and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill, but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For h man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men i snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 k There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 l Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor mans wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

C H A P. XI.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

Cast thy bread † upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after † many days.

2 † Give a portion † to seven, and also to eight; † for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north; in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As † thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, † nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening with-hold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether † shall prosper, either † his or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes † to behold the sun.

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, † and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou that for all these things † God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove ¶ sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: † for childhood and youth are vanity.

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and ¶ the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond-tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goeth to his long home, and † the mourners go about the streets:

CHAP. I.

1 The churches love unto Christ : she confesseth her deformity, 7 and prayeth to be directed to his flock : 8 Christ directeth her to the shepherds tents ;
9 and, shewing his love to her,
11 giveth her gracious promises.

THE song of songs, which is Solomons.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth :
a for † thy love is better than wine.
3 Because of the favour of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

4 b Draw me, c we will run after thee. The king d hath brought me into his chambers : we will be glad and rejoice in thee ; we will remember thy love more than wine : ¶ the upright love thee.

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me : my mothers children were angry with me, they made me the keeper of the vineyards ; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon :
for why should I be ¶ as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions ?

8 ¶ If thou know not, e O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds tents.

9 I have compared thee, f O my love, g to a company of horses in Pharaohs chariots :
10 h Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.
11 We will make thee both borders of gold with studs of silver.
12 ¶ While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me ; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us <sup>e</sup> see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape † appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The <sup>f</sup> mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates <sup>g</sup> are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

4 <sup>c</sup> I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, † that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 (<sup>d</sup> Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?) I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth, there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 ¶ <sup>e</sup> Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is † cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: <sup>f</sup> if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths; for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

21 ¶ How is the faithful city become an harlot? it was full of judgment, righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixt with water.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fathers, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are footholders like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel. Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures: their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin.

8 Their land also is full of idols: they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

10 ¶ Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

28 ¶ And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, 31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

C H A P. VII.

1 Ahaz is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Christ promised. 17 Ahaz his judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

And it came to pass, in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the high-way of the fullers field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of these smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah:

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal.

7 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliahs son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 More over, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God, ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David, Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign, Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy fathers house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass, in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate vallies, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a razor that is hired, namely by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass, in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep:

22 And it shall come to pass for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass, in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines, as a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

18 ¶ For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts <sup>q</sup> the land darkened, and the people shall be as the † fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

4 My heart shall cry out for Moab, his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith, with weeping shall they go it up: for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

5 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away; the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

6 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

The miserable overthrow of Tyre.

THe burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle, thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass, in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise, and her hire, shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is desiled under the inhabitants thereof: because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

12 And the <sup>f</sup> fortrefs of the high fort of thy wall shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God: 20 an exhortation to wait on him.

In the land of Judah: We have a strong city, <sup>b</sup> salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 <sup>c</sup> Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the † truth may enter in.

3 † Thou wilt keep him in † perfect peace, whose || mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: <sup>d</sup> for in the LORD JEHOVAH is † everlasting strength.

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high, <sup>e</sup> the lofty city he layeth it low: he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is upright-ness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, <sup>f</sup> in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 <sup>g</sup> With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for, when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 <sup>h</sup> Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in <sup>i</sup> the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, <sup>k</sup> they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their eny || at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works || in us.

13 O LORD our God, <sup>l</sup> other lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified; thou hadst removed it far <sup>to</sup> all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a † prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as <sup>m</sup> a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 <sup>n</sup> Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were <sup>o</sup> for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For behold, the LORD <sup>p</sup> cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her † blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 The care of God over his vineyard. 12 The church of Jews and Gentiles.

In that day the LORD, with his sore, and great, and strong sword, shall punish leviathan, the || piercing serpent, <sup>a</sup> even leviathan that crooked serpent, and he shall slay <sup>b</sup> the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day <sup>c</sup> sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD do keep it, I will water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would || go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold <sup>d</sup> of my strength, that he may <sup>e</sup> make peace with me, and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the rye in their place?

26 ¶ For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing-instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence, he will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing; for in the wildernesses shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirity land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be gras, with reeds and rushes.

8 And an high way shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for those: the way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walk there.

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Sennacherib irradeth Judah. 3 Rabshakehs blasphemous persuasions to the people: 4 his words are told, &c.

Now it came to pass, in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, unto king Hezekiah, with a great army: and he stood by the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fullers field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiahs son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Afaphs son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he whose high places, and whose altars, Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give || pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my masters servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not unto us in the Jews language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, || † Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-trees, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath, and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 ¶ Who are they amongst all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the kings commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

AT<sup>a</sup> that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his || precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his || † armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts.

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry; "yea, roar; he shall || prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace, I have been still and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and † devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things † straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 ¶ They shall be ° turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

10 Wo unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the holy One of Israel, and his maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons; and concerning the work of my hands, command ye me.

12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded 13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabians, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over: and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else; there is no God.

15 Verily, thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel the saviour

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it, he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the LORD, and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain. I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell me, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD, and there is no God else beside me: a just God, and a saviour; there is none beside me

22 Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely, shall one say, In the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

him in his place, and he standeth ; from his place shall he not remove ; yea, <sup>5</sup> one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves men : <sup>h</sup> bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old : <sup>l</sup> for I am God, and <sup>k</sup> there is none else ; I am God, and there is none like me ;

10 <sup>l</sup> Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, <sup>m</sup> My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure ;

11 Calling a ravenous bird <sup>n</sup> from the east, † the man that executeth my counsel from a far country : yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass ; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness.

13 I bring near my righteousness : it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry ; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 Gods judgment upon Babylon and Chaldaea, 6 for their unmercifulness, 7 pride, 10 and over-boldness, 11 shall be irresistible.

Come <sup>a</sup> down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground : there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans ; for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 <sup>b</sup> Take the millstones and grind meal : uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 <sup>c</sup> Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen : I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans : <sup>d</sup> for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 ¶ <sup>e</sup> I was wroth with my people ; <sup>f</sup> I have polluted mine inheritance, and given <sup>g</sup> them into thine hand : thou didst shew them no mercy ; <sup>h</sup> upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou saidst, I shall be <sup>h</sup> a lady for ever : so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, <sup>i</sup> neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, <sup>k</sup> I am, and none else besides me ; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children :

9 But these two <sup>l</sup> things shall come to thee in a moment, in one day ; the loss of children and widowhood : they shall come upon thee in their perfection, <sup>m</sup> for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness ; thou hast said, None seeth me : thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath <sup>n</sup> perverted thee ; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee ; thou shalt not know † from whence it riseth : and mischief shall fall upon thee ; thou shalt not be able to † put it off : and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth ; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now <sup>o</sup> the † astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble ; the fire shall burn them : they shall not deliver † themselves from the power of the flame ; there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even <sup>p</sup> thy merchants from thy youth : they shall wander every one to his quarter ; none shall save thee.

C H A P. XLVIII.

1 God, to convince the people of their obstinacy, revealeth his prophecies : 12 he exhorteth them to repent.

Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, <sup>h</sup> which are called by the name of Israel ; and <sup>a</sup> are come forth out of the waters of Judah ; <sup>b</sup> which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, <sup>c</sup> but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves <sup>d</sup> of the holy city, and <sup>e</sup> stay themselves upon the God of Israel; and the LORD of hosts is his name.

3 <sup>f</sup> I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them: I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art † obdurate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow bras;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee; lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning, even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not, yea, thou knewest not, yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called <sup>g</sup> a transgressor from the womb.

9 <sup>h</sup> For my namesake <sup>i</sup> will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not || with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for <sup>k</sup> how should my name be polluted? and <sup>l</sup> I will not give ye my glory unto another.

12 <sup>m</sup> Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel my called; <sup>n</sup> I am he; I am the <sup>n</sup> first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and || my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when. <sup>o</sup> I call unto them they stand up together.

14 <sup>p</sup> All ye assemble yourselves and hear: which among them hath declared these things? <sup>q</sup> the LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 Even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 <sup>r</sup> Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; <sup>s</sup> I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now <sup>t</sup> the LORD God and his spirit hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD thy Redeemer, the holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 <sup>t</sup> O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea;

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off, nor destroyed from before me.

20 <sup>u</sup> Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath <sup>x</sup> redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they <sup>y</sup> thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he <sup>z</sup> caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 <sup>a</sup> There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

3 And said unto me, <sup>d</sup> Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

4 <sup>e</sup> Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain; yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and || my work with my God.

<sup>3</sup> For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places, and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert <sup>z</sup> like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein. thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

<sup>4</sup> ¶ Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

<sup>5</sup> My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people: the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

<sup>6</sup> Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for <sup>aa</sup> the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, <sup>ab</sup> and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

<sup>10</sup> Art thou not it which hath <sup>aj</sup> dried the sea, the waters of the great deep, that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her, among all the sons whom she hath brought forth: neither is there any that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee; desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine;

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again.

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street to them that went over.

C H A P. LII.

1 Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, 7 to receive the ministers, 9 and to joy in the power thereof.

Awake, awake; put on thy strength O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised, and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there, and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day, that I am he that doth speak; behold, it is I.

7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice, with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing, go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward.

13 Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men;)

15 So shall he sprinkle many nations: the kings shall shut their mouths at him; for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

2 For <sup>b</sup> he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: <sup>c</sup> he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 <sup>d</sup> He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and || † we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely <sup>e</sup> he hath born our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was || † wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his || † stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way, and the LORD † hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet <sup>h</sup> he opened not his mouth: <sup>i</sup> he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 || He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for <sup>k</sup> he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people † was he stricken.

12 <sup>r</sup> Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, <sup>s</sup> and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was <sup>t</sup> numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and <sup>u</sup> made intercession for the transgressors.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of the church, 4 their safety, 6 their certain deliverance out of affliction, 11 their fair edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

2 <sup>c</sup> Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; <sup>d</sup> and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not, for thou shalt not be ashamed; neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widow-hood any more.

5 <sup>e</sup> For thy maker is thine husband; (the <sup>f</sup> LORD of hosts is his name;) and thy Redeemer the holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD <sup>g</sup> hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 <sup>h</sup> For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee, for a moment; <sup>i</sup> but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of <sup>k</sup> Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For <sup>l</sup> the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; <sup>m</sup> but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ Oh thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with <sup>n</sup> fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work, and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 ¶ No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

HO, a every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money: b come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye † spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live: c and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the d sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, e a leader and commander to the people.

5 f Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the holy One of Israel: for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ g Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and † the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for † he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ h For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 i For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For k as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 l So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 m For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall n break forth before you into singing, and o all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 p In stead of q the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and in stead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification: 3 he promisseth it shall be general: 9 he inveigheth against blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: a for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it, b that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ c Neither let e the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people; neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters. I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

CRy † aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we <sup>2</sup> afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your † labours.

4 <sup>b</sup> Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: † ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it <sup>c</sup> such a fast that I have chosen? <sup>d</sup> † a day for a man to afflict his soul? <sup>e</sup> is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and <sup>e</sup> to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am, if thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity:

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day.

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in † drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters † fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee <sup>1</sup> shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable, and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words;

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD, and I will cause thee to <sup>m</sup> ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

1 The office of Christ. 5 The forwardness, 7 and blessings of the faithful.

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek, he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of righteousness, The planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen, and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the priests of the Lord; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves.

7 For your shame you shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the Lord love judgment, I hate robbery by burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the Lord hath blessed.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually, they shall not be shut day nor night, that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary, and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee: and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the Lord, The Zion of the holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings, and thou shalt know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, waiting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day, neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the Lord will hasten it in his time.

The prophets fervent desire to confirm the church in Gods promises. 5 The office of ministers.

For Zions sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalems sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed, Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed, Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land, Beulah; for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerufalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence;

7 And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerufalem a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare you the way of the people; cast up, cast up the high-way; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, a city not forsaken.

CHAP. LXIII.

Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, &c.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have troden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me, and my fury it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the loving kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them, and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea, with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy spirit within him?

16 ° That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bless himself in the God of truth, and <sup>p</sup> he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 ¶ For behold, I create <sup>q</sup> new heavens, and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor <sup>r</sup> come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And <sup>t</sup> I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and the <sup>v</sup> voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; <sup>u</sup> but the sinner, being an hundred years old, shall be accursed.

21 And <sup>v</sup> they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for <sup>w</sup> as the days of a tree, are the days of my people, and mine elect <sup>x</sup> shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, <sup>y</sup> nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that, <sup>z</sup> before they call, I will answer, and whiles they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The <sup>a</sup> wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: <sup>b</sup> and dust shall be the serpents meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

1 Gods expostulation with the Jews touching their causeless revolt: 14 they are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah: 31 her confidence is rejected.

Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember || thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 b Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and c the first-fruits of his increase: d all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, e What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, f and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts, and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof; but, when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, i and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and m with your childrens children will I plead.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 <sup>r</sup> Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he <sup>t</sup> spoiled?

17 <sup>v</sup> Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 <sup>w</sup> For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands, and thou saidst, I will not <sup>x</sup> transgress; when <sup>x</sup> upon every high hill, and under every green tree thou waidereft, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had <sup>y</sup> planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into <sup>z</sup> the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou <sup>a</sup> wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet <sup>b</sup> thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: <sup>c</sup> thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

25 With-hold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but <sup>d</sup> thou saidst, || There is no hope, No; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found; so is the house of Israel ashamed: they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast || brought me forth: for they have turned <sup>t</sup> their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their <sup>e</sup> trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But <sup>f</sup> where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise if they <sup>g</sup> can save thee in the time of thy <sup>t</sup> trouble: for <sup>h</sup> according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I <sup>i</sup> smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath <sup>k</sup> devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 <sup>l</sup> O generation, see ye the word of the LORD: || have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, || We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by <sup>t</sup> secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 <sup>m</sup> Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? <sup>n</sup> thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, <sup>o</sup> as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me, in the days of Josiah the king, <sup>h</sup> Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is <sup>i</sup> gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me; but she returned not: and her treacherous <sup>k</sup> sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when, for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass, through the <sup>l</sup> lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this, her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me <sup>m</sup> with her whole heart, but <sup>n</sup> feignedly, saith the LORD.

13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy 14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD, <sup>r</sup> for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

15 And I will give you <sup>s</sup> pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land; in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it <sup>t</sup> come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall <sup>u</sup> that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, <sup>v</sup> to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they <sup>w</sup> walk any more after the <sup>x</sup> imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days <sup>y</sup> the house of Judah shall walk <sup>z</sup> with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north, to the land that I have <sup>aa</sup> given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee <sup>ab</sup> a <sup>ac</sup> pleasant land, <sup>ad</sup> a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father, and shalt not turn away <sup>ae</sup> from me.

20 ¶ Surely, as a wife treacherously departeth from her <sup>af</sup> husband, so <sup>ag</sup> have you dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 * Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings: behold, we come unto thee; for thou <sup>ah</sup> art the LORD our God.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem, and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land; cry, gather together, and say, <sup>i</sup> Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: ¶ retire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the <sup>k</sup> north, and a great <sup>l</sup> destruction.

7 <sup>1</sup> The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place <sup>m</sup> to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this <sup>n</sup> gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass, at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes: and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah Lord God, <sup>o</sup> surely thou hast greatly deceived this people, and Jerusalem, <sup>p</sup> saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people, and to Jerusalem, <sup>q</sup> A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 12 Even ¶ a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I <sup>r</sup> give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and <sup>s</sup> his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: <sup>t</sup> his horses are swifter than eagles. Wo unto us; for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, <sup>u</sup> wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth <sup>v</sup> from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations: behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As keepers of a field are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 <sup>w</sup> Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this <sup>x</sup> is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ¶ My <sup>y</sup> bowels, my bowels; I am pained at <sup>z</sup> my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 <sup>2</sup> Destruction upon destruction is cried, for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people <sup>aa</sup> is foolish, they have not known me, they are foolish children, and they have none understanding: <sup>ab</sup> they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 <sup>b</sup> I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 <sup>c</sup> I beheld the mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the 27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; <sup>d</sup> yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this shall the earth mourn, and <sup>e</sup> the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

Though thou clothe thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, <sup>f</sup> though thou rentest thy † face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now, for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

C H A P. V.

The judgments of God upon the Jews for their manifold corruptions.

RUn ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, <sup>a</sup> if ye can find a man, <sup>b</sup> if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth, and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, <sup>c</sup> The LORD liveth, surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast <sup>d</sup> stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but <sup>e</sup> they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor, they are foolish: for <sup>f</sup> they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for <sup>g</sup> they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether <sup>h</sup> broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore <sup>i</sup> a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and <sup>k</sup> a wolf of the || evening shall spoil them, <sup>l</sup> a leopard shall watch over their cities; every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings † are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and <sup>m</sup> sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, then they committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots houses.

8 <sup>n</sup> They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbours wife.

9 <sup>o</sup> Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; <sup>q</sup> but make not a full end: take away her battlements, for they are not the LORDS.

11 For <sup>r</sup> the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 <sup>s</sup> They have belied the LORD, and said, <sup>t</sup> It is not he, neither shall evil come upon us, neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, <sup>u</sup> behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a <sup>x</sup> nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD; it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine <sup>y</sup> harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless, in those days, saith the LORD, I <sup>z</sup> will not make a full end with you.

19 ¶ And it shall come to pass when ye shall say, <sup>a</sup> Wherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land; so shall shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,
21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes and see not; which have ears and hear not:

22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree that it cannot pass it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart: they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ¶ Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have with-holden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, they shine; yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land:

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear love by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah, encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins.

O Ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa; and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about: they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise and let us go up at noon: wo unto us, for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned out to others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore they shall fall fall among them that fall : at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet: but they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth; behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba? and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north-country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses set in array, as men for war, against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way: for the sword of the enemy, and fear, is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes; make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower, and fortrefs among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire, the founder melteth in vain; for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 ¶ Reprobate silver shall call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

C H A P. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance: he rejecteth their vain confidence.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORDS house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways, and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways, and your doings; if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods, to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it, for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early, and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not:

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which which I gave to you, and to your fathers, as I have done to <sup>1</sup> Shiloh.

 15 And I will caſt you out of my ſight, as I have caſt out all your brethren, <sup>in</sup> even the whole ſeed of Ephraim.
 16 Therefore <sup>a</sup> pray not thou for this people, neither liſt up cry nor prayer for them, neither make interceſſion to me; <sup>o</sup> for I will not hear thee.
 17 ¶ Seeſt thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the ſtreets of Jeruſalem?
 18 <sup>p</sup> The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough to make cakes to the || queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.
 19 Do they provoke me to anger? ſaith the LORD: do they not provoke themſelves to the confuſion of their own faces?
 20 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury ſhall be poured out upon this place, upon man and upon beaſt, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it ſhall burn, and ſhall not be quenched.
 21 ¶ Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, the God of Iſrael, <sup>q</sup> Put your burnt-offerings unto your ſacrifices, and eat fleſh.
 22 <sup>r</sup> For I ſpake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, † concerning burnt-offerings or ſacrifices;
 23 But this thing commanded I them, ſaying, <sup>s</sup> Obey my voice, and <sup>t</sup> I will be your God, and ye ſhall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.
 24 <sup>u</sup> But they hearkeued not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counſels, and in the || imagination of their evil heart, and † <sup>x</sup> went backward, and not forward.
 25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even <sup>y</sup> ſent unto you all my ſervants the prophets, <sup>z</sup> daily riſing up early, and ſending them:
 26 <sup>a</sup> Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but <sup>b</sup> hardened their neck; they did worſe than their fathers.
 27 Therefore thou ſhalt ſpeak all theſe words unto them, but they will not hearken to thee: thou ſhalt alſo call unto them, but they will not anſwer thee.

28 But thou ſhalt ſay unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth || correction: truth is per- iſhed, and is cut off from their mouth.
 29 ¶ <sup>c</sup> Cut off thine hair; O Jeruſalem, and caſt it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forſaken the generation of his wrath.
 30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my ſight, ſaith the LORD: <sup>d</sup> they have ſet their abominations in the houſe which is called by my name, to pollute it.
 31 And they have built the <sup>e</sup> high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, to burn their ſons and their daughters in the fire, which I commanded them not, neither † came it into my heart.
 32 ¶ Therefore behold, the days <sup>f</sup> come, ſaith the LORD, that it ſhall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, but the valley of ſlaughter: for they ſhall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.
 33 And the <sup>g</sup> carcaſes of this people ſhall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beaſts of the earth, and none ſhall fray them away.

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out, it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 Who is the wife man that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burnt up like a wilderness that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning-women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eye-lids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 <sup>i</sup> Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able † to escape; and <sup>i</sup> though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, go and <sup>k</sup> cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense; but they shall not save them at all in the time of their † trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy <sup>l</sup> cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem, have ye set up altars to that † shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

17 For the LORD of hosts, <sup>o</sup> that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Baal.

18 <sup>p</sup> And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it, then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb, or an ox, that is brought to the slaughter, and I knew not that <sup>q</sup> they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy † the tree with the fruit thereof, † and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that <sup>r</sup> triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, <sup>s</sup> that seek thy life, saying, † Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will † punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine.

6 For even <sup>i</sup> thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, || they have called a multitude after thee: <sup>k</sup> believe them not, though they speak † fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage, I have given † the dearly beloved of my soul into the hands of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest, it || † crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a || speckled bird; the birds round about are against her: come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, || † come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have troden my portion under foot, they have made my † pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land; no flesh shall have peace.

13 <sup>m</sup> They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and <sup>n</sup> they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit, Behold, I will <sup>n</sup> pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out, I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth, (as they taught my people to swear by Baal,) then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not <sup>o</sup> obey, I will utterly pluck up, and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, the peoples destruction is prefigured: <sup>12</sup> by the bottles filled with wine, their drunkenness in misery foretold.

Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass, after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the || imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon Davids throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, <sup>a</sup> with drunkenness.

THe word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning † the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded,
and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And <sup>b</sup> the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy names sake: for our backslidings are many, we have sinned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why should-est thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a way-faring man, that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and † we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, <sup>c</sup> Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore the LORD doth not accept them; <sup>d</sup> he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me,
<sup>e</sup> Pray not for this people for their good.

12 <sup>f</sup> When they fast I will not hear their cry, and <sup>g</sup> when they offer burnt-offering, and an oblation, I will not accept them: but <sup>h</sup> I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord God, behold, the prophets say unto them,
Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine: but I will give you † assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me,
The prophets prophecy lies in my name;

14 And I will dash them † one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD:
I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, † but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear, be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 <sup>b</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause <sup>c</sup> darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye <sup>d</sup> look for light, he turn it into <sup>e</sup> the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride, and <sup>f</sup> mine eye shall weep fore, and run down with tears, because the LORDS flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king, and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your ¶ principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them;
Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north; where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall † punish thee? (for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee,) shall not <sup>e</sup> sorrows take thee as a woman in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart,
<sup>h</sup> Wherefore come these things upon me? for the greatness of thine iniquity are <sup>i</sup> thy skirts discovered, and thy heels ¶ made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are † accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore <sup>k</sup> will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 <sup>l</sup> I have seen thine adulteries,

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land, By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD, <sup>d</sup> Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine, and the sword: and they shall have none to bury them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

3 And I will <sup>e</sup> appoint over them four † kinds, saith the LORD; the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and † the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, <sup>1</sup> Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

4 And † I will cause them to be <sup>2</sup> removed into all kingdoms of the earth; because of <sup>h</sup> Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword; and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine: yea, both the prophet and the priest || go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? <sup>m</sup> we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble.

5 For <sup>i</sup> who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside † to ask how thou dost?

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for <sup>n</sup> we have sinned against thee.

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward; therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; <sup>k</sup> I am weary with repenting.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy names sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land: I will bereave them of || children, I will destroy my people, sith they return not from their ways.

22 <sup>o</sup> Are there any among <sup>p</sup> the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? <sup>q</sup> art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons, and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land,

4 They shall die of <sup>a</sup> grievous neither shall they be buried: but they shall be as dung upon the face eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of no more be said, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many <sup>m</sup> fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine <sup>n</sup> eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because <sup>o</sup> they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, my strength and my fortress, and <sup>p</sup> my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and <sup>q</sup> they are no gods?

21 Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand, and my might; and they shall know that <sup>r</sup> my name is the LORD.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed, 7 in God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot deceive God. 12 The salvation of God.

THE sin of Judah is written with a <sup>a</sup> pen of iron, and with the † point of a diamond: it is <sup>b</sup> graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their <sup>c</sup> groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, <sup>d</sup> I will give thy substance, and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even † thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for <sup>e</sup> ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh <sup>f</sup> flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall be <sup>g</sup> like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, <sup>h</sup> in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 <sup>i</sup> Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be <sup>k</sup> as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh; but her leaf shall be green, and shall not be careful in the year of || drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ¶ The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD <sup>l</sup> search the heart, I try the reins, <sup>m</sup> even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge || sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not: so he that getteth riches, and not by right, <sup>n</sup> shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, <sup>o</sup> all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the <sup>p</sup> fountain of living waters

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for <sup>q</sup> thou art my praise.

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, <sup>r</sup> Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, <sup>s</sup> I have not hastened from being a pastor † to follow thee, neither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips, was <sup>t</sup> right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: † thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 <sup>u</sup> Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and <sup>v</sup> destroy them with double destruction.

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates.

THe word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Arise, and go down to the potters house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potters house, and behold, he wrought a work on the || wheels.

4 And the vessel || that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he † made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, <sup>a</sup> cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, <sup>b</sup> as the clay is in the potters hand, so <sup>are</sup> ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it:

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: <sup>f</sup> return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways, and your doings good.

12 And they said, <sup>g</sup> There is no hope, but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD, <sup>h</sup> Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave || the snow of Lebanon, which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters, that come from another place, be forsaken?

Under the type of breaking a potters vessel, is foreshewed the desolation of the Jews for their sins.

THUS saith the LORD, Go and get a potters earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests,

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of † the east-gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee;

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall a tingle.

4 Because they b have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal, ° which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their d carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city ° desolate, and an hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the f flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, 11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ° Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potters vessel that cannot † be made whole again, and they shall h bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For <sup>k</sup> the land is full of adulterers; for because of || swearing the land mourneth: <sup>l</sup> the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their || course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For <sup>m</sup> both prophet and priest are profane; yea, <sup>n</sup> in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 <sup>o</sup> Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen || <sup>p</sup> folly in the prophets of Samaria; <sup>q</sup> they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem || an horrible thing: <sup>r</sup> they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of the unto me as <sup>s</sup> Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with <sup>t</sup> wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is || profaneuess gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophecy unto you; they make you vain: <sup>u</sup> they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, <sup>v</sup> Ye shall have peace: and they say unto every one that walketh after the || imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For <sup>w</sup> who hath stood in the || counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a <sup>x</sup> whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The <sup>y</sup> anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: <sup>z</sup> in the latter days, ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 <sup>b</sup> I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any <sup>c</sup> hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD: <sup>d</sup> do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophecy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophecy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, <sup>e</sup> as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet that <sup>f</sup> hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: what is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD: and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore behold, <sup>g</sup> I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, || that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophecy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by <sup>h</sup> their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even <sup>i</sup> punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered?

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Hananiahs false prophecy; 50 he breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah foretelleth of an iron yoke, 15 and Hananiahs death.

And as it came to pass, the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORDS house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon.

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so, the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORDS house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people,

8 The prophets that have been before me, and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD. Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations, within the space of two years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying, 13 Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD. Thou hast broken the yokes of wood, but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they shall serve him; and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, The LORD hath not sent thee, but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD. Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD, and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely<sup>p</sup> after that I was turned, I repented: and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; <sup>q</sup> therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up way-marks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the high-way, even the way which thou wentest; turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity, The LORD blefs thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have fatiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 * In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sown grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sown grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; (which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD;)

33 <sup>z</sup> But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; the LORD of hosts is his name:

36 ¶ If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And <sup>d</sup> I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them <sup>e</sup> as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me, and I will <sup>f</sup> pardon all their iniquities whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Again there shall be heard in this place, (which ye say shall be desolate without man, and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate without man and without inhabitant, and without beast,)

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the † door.

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine : for <sup>b</sup> Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever.

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any : but all your days ye shall dwell in tents, <sup>c</sup> that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters ;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in : neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed.

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab, our father, commanded us.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed ; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their fathers commandment : <sup>d</sup> notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, <sup>e</sup> rising early, and speaking ; but ye hearkened not unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people have not hearkened unto me ;

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them : because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard ; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

C H A P. XXXVI.

1 Baruch writeth Jeremiahs prophecy.
20 Jehoiakim burneth the roll: 27 his judgment. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy.

And it came to pass, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up, I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD, in the ears of the people in the LORDS house upon the fasting-day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah, that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORDS house.

9 And it came to pass, in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORDS house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the kings house into the scribes chamber, and lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll which thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go hide thee, thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to set the roll, and he took it out of Elishama the scribes chamber, and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter-house, in the ninth month; and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

C H A P. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah is put into the dungeon:

7 Ebed-melech getteth him some enlargement: 14 his counsel to the king.

Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylons army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the kings house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the kings house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon, and † he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men † with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts, and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts, and rotten rags under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, sware unto them, and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

monites, and in Edom; and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits, very much.

13 ¶ Moreover, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah † to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Ishmael treacherously killeth Gedaliah, and others. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives.

NOW it came to pass, in the seventh month, <sup>a</sup> that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and <sup>b</sup> smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and slew him whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves; with offerings, and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, † weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and <sup>c</sup> cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have treasures in the field; of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men (whom he had slain) † because of Gedaliah) was it <sup>d</sup> which Afa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, <sup>e</sup> even the kings daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done;

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by <sup>f</sup> the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about, and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

C H A P. XLII.

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience, 7 Jeremiahs answer: 19 their hypocrisy reproved.

Then all the captains of the forces, <sup>a</sup> and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ¶ Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant, (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us,)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you: I will <sup>b</sup> keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; <sup>c</sup> that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him,

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And <sup>d</sup> I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 ¶ But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread, and there will we dwell:

15 (And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye <sup>e</sup> wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there:)

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword which ye feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, <sup>f</sup> shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 <sup>g</sup> So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt, to sojourn there, they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and <sup>h</sup> none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, as mine anger and my fury hath been <sup>i</sup> poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and <sup>j</sup> ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 Johanan carrieth Jeremiah into Egypt, 8 who prophecieth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people, all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 <sup>a</sup> Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there.

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah;

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, <sup>b</sup> and the kings daughters, <sup>c</sup> and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He † made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another; and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 Oh thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, † furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh: it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her, like † fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched, because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith, Behold, I will punish the † † multitude of <sup>s</sup> No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, <sup>h</sup> with their gods, and their kings, even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him.

26 <sup>i</sup> And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and <sup>k</sup> afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 ¶ <sup>l</sup> But fear not thou. O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel; for behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity: and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee; but I will not make <sup>m</sup> a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure: yet will I <sup>n</sup> not leave thee wholly unpunished.

The destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet <sup>a</sup> against the Philistines, <sup>b</sup> before that Pharaoh smote † Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, <sup>c</sup> waters rise up <sup>d</sup> out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and † all that is therein, the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands:

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from <sup>e</sup> Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, <sup>f</sup> the remnant of † the country of Caphtor.

5 <sup>g</sup> Baldness is come upon Gaza; <sup>h</sup> Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long will thou <sup>i</sup> cut thyself?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? † put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest and be still.

7 † How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he appointed it.

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: <sup>l</sup> howl and cry, tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath, 13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a ° rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill; <sup>p</sup> though thou shouldst make thy <sup>q</sup> nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation; <sup>r</sup> every one that goeth by it, shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 <sup>s</sup> As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD: no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 <sup>t</sup> Behold, he shall come up like a lion from <sup>u</sup> the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her; and who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her? for <sup>x</sup> who is like me? and who will <sup>y</sup> appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom, and his purposes that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall: at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the † Red sea.

22 Behold, ‡ he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings; they are † faint-hearted: there is sorrow || on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: <sup>b</sup> anguish and sorrows have taken her as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 <sup>c</sup> Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a <sup>d</sup> fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD, Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ † Lee, † get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the || wealthy nation that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds ‡ them that are † in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

1, 9, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon.

4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

THe word that the LORD spake against Babylon, and against the land of the Chaldeans, † by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and † set up a standard; publish and conceal not : say, Babylon is taken, <sup>b</sup> Bel is confounded, Mero-dach is broken in pieces, her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 <sup>c</sup> For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein : they shall remove, they shall depart both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, <sup>d</sup> going and weeping : they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in <sup>e</sup> a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep : their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains : they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their † resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them ; and <sup>f</sup> their adversaries said, <sup>g</sup> We offend not : because they have sinned against the LORD, <sup>h</sup> the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 <sup>i</sup> Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ <sup>k</sup> For lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north-country, and they shall set themselves in array against her, from thence the shall be taken : their arrows shall be as of a mighty || expert man : none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil : <sup>l</sup> all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown † fat <sup>m</sup> as the heifer at grass, and || bellow as bulls ;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded, she that bare you shall be ashamed : behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD, it shall not be inhabited, <sup>n</sup> but it shall be wholly desolate : <sup>o</sup> every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 <sup>p</sup> Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about : all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows ; for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about : she hath given her hand : her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down : for <sup>q</sup> it is the vengeance of the LORD : take vengeance upon her ; <sup>r</sup> as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the || sickle in the time of harvest : for <sup>s</sup> fear of the oppressing sword, <sup>t</sup> they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is a scattered sheep, the lions have driven <sup>u</sup> him away : first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and <sup>v</sup> there shall be none ; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found : for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

23 How is <sup>u</sup> the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken ! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations !

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, <sup>x</sup> and thou wast not aware : thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation : for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts, in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her † from the utmost border, open her store-houses ; || cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly : let nothing of her be left.

34 <sup>b</sup> Their Redeemer is strong, the LORD of hosts is his name : he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holes; their might hath failed, they became as women:
they have burnt her dwelling-places;
her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end,

32 And that the passages are stop-with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vesel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me, and to my flesh, be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will plead thy cause and take vengeance for thee: and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment and an hissing without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feats, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith
the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The sea is come up upon Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up, and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And I left your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land: a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon, and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiahs sons killed, and his own eyes put out.

Zedekiah was <sup>a</sup> one and twenty years old when he † began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mothers name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, in the <sup>b</sup> ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the kings garden, (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about,) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

9 <sup>c</sup> Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

13 And burnt the house of the LORD, and the kings house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burnt he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 ¶ Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vine-dressers, and for husbandmen.

17 ¶ Also the † pillars of bras that were in the house of the LORD, and the basins, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the bras of them to Babylon.

¶ The LAMENTATIONS of JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Jerusalem's misery for her sin: 12 her complaint, 18 and confession of Gods righteous judgment.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! <sup>a</sup> how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princeſs among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She <sup>b</sup> weepeth fore in the <sup>c</sup> night, and her tears are on her cheeks; <sup>d</sup> among all her lovers, <sup>e</sup> she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and <sup>f</sup> because of great fervitude; she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts; all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries <sup>f</sup> are the chief, her enemies prosper: for the LORD hath afflicted her; for the multitude of her transgressions, her <sup>g</sup> children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture; and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her <sup>h</sup> pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her, the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she <sup>i</sup> is removed: all that honoured her, despise her, because <sup>j</sup> they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she <sup>k</sup> remembereth not her last end: therefore she came down wonderfully; <sup>l</sup> she had no comforter: O LORD, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her <sup>m</sup> pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that <sup>n</sup> they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, <sup>o</sup> they seek bread, they have given their pleasant things for meat || to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ || Is it nothing to you, all ye that <sup>p</sup> pass by? behold and see, <sup>q</sup> if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done upon me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me, in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate, and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath troden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against me, to crush my young men: <sup>r</sup> the LORD hath troden || the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep: <sup>s</sup> mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should <sup>t</sup> relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 <sup>u</sup> Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be a round about him; Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is <sup>v</sup> righteous; for I have <sup>w</sup> rebelled against his <sup>x</sup> commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow; my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but <sup>y</sup> they deceived me; my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress; my <sup>z</sup> bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: <sup>aa</sup> abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies

CHAP. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth Jerusalem's misery: 20 he complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, <sup>a</sup> and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not <sup>b</sup> his foot-stool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, <sup>c</sup> and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: <sup>d</sup> he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, <sup>e</sup> and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew <sup>f</sup> all that were pleasant to the eye, in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently <sup>g</sup> taken away his || tabernacle, <sup>h</sup> as if it were of a garden, he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: <sup>i</sup> the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar; he hath abhorred his sanctuary: he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; <sup>j</sup> they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; <sup>k</sup> he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart, and the wall, to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; <sup>l</sup> her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her <sup>m</sup> prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, <sup>n</sup> and keep silence: they have <sup>o</sup> cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 <sup>p</sup> Mine eyes do fail with tears; <sup>q</sup> my bowels are troubled; my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people, because <sup>r</sup> the children and the sucklings || swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned, as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

14 Thy <sup>s</sup> prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 <sup>t</sup> All that pass <sup>u</sup> by || clap their hands at thee; they hiss <sup>v</sup> and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call <sup>y</sup> The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth.

16 <sup>z</sup> All their enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had <sup>a</sup> devised: he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old; <sup>b</sup> he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee; he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, <sup>c</sup> let tears run down like a river day and 19 Arise, cry out in the night; in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands towards him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 ¶ Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this: shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thy anger, thou hast killed and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, as in a solemn day, my terrors round about; so that in the day of the LORDS anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up, hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAPTER III.

The faithful bewail their calamities.

I Am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he roused, he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old, he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with heavn stone: he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was as a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 It is of the LORDS mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my portion, faith my soul, therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope, and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath born it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him, he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever.

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men,

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.

37 Who is he that faith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

1 Zions pitiful estate bewailed: 13 she confesseth her sins.

How is the gold become dim! how the stones of the sanctuary are poured out <sup>a</sup> in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed <sup>b</sup> as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the || sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, <sup>c</sup> like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 <sup>d</sup> The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: <sup>e</sup> the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet <sup>f</sup> embrace dunghills.

6 For the || punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was <sup>g</sup> overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her <sup>h</sup> Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire.

8 Their visage is <sup>i</sup> blacker than a coal: they are not known in the streets; their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword, are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these <sup>j</sup> pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 <sup>k</sup> The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children, they were their <sup>l</sup> meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury, he hath poured out his fierce anger, and <sup>m</sup> hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed, that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 <sup>n</sup> For the sins of her prophets,

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion.

Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider and behold our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money, our wood † is sold unto us.

5 † Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

6 <sup>a</sup> We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 <sup>b</sup> Our fathers have sinned and are not, and we have born their iniquities.

8 Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our <sup>c</sup> skin was black like an oven, because of the || terrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: <sup>d</sup> the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased, our dance is turned into mourning.

16 † The crown is fallen from our head: wo unto us that we have sinned.

17 For this <sup>e</sup> our heart is faint; <sup>f</sup> for these things our eyes are dim.

C H A P. IV.

By type of a siege is shewed the time from Jeroboams defection to the captivity.

Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city, and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it: this shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make these bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley-cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the type of hair, is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for rebellion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barbers razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head, and upon thy beard; then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife; and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire: for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and wherunto I will not do any more the like; because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee, neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury, and in furious rebukes: I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread.

17 So will I send upon you famine, and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee, and I will bring the sword upon thee: I the Lord have spoken it.

a Chap. 36. 17.

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the vallies, Behold I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places;

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your || images shall be broken: and <sup>b</sup> I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will † lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols, and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you; and <sup>c</sup> ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because <sup>e</sup> I am broken with their whorish heart which hath departed from me, and <sup>f</sup> with their eyes which go a whoring after their idols; and <sup>g</sup> they shall loath themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations:

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, Smite <sup>h</sup> with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel: for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence, and he that is near shall fall by the sword, and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then <sup>i</sup> shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, <sup>k</sup> upon every high hill in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate; yea, || more desolate than the wilderness towards Diblath, in all their habitations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the land of Israel, <sup>a</sup> An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and <sup>b</sup> will judge thee according to thy ways, and will † recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And <sup>c</sup> mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; <sup>d</sup> and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD, An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come, it † watcheth for thee, behold, it is come.

7 <sup>e</sup> The morning is come upon thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: <sup>f</sup> the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the || founding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense † thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; <sup>g</sup> and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold it is come, the morning is gone forth, the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 <sup>h</sup> Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their || multitude, nor of any of || theirs; <sup>i</sup> neither shall there be waiting for them.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Ezekiel's vision of jealousy. 7 The chambers of imagery.

AND it came to pass, in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that <sup>a</sup> the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.

2 <sup>b</sup> Then I beheld, and lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, <sup>c</sup> as the colour of amber.

3 And he <sup>d</sup> put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head, and the spirit lift me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I <sup>e</sup> saw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way towards the north: so I lift up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw, and behold, every form of creeping things, and 11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thicke cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, <sup>f</sup> The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORDS house, which was towards the north, and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORDS house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, <sup>g</sup> were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipp'd <sup>h</sup> the sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? ¶ Is it a light thing to the house of Judah, that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and lo, they put the branch to their nose.

Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel : for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, <sup>c</sup>Your slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the LORD GOD.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Israel; <sup>f</sup>and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel.

12 And <sup>g</sup>ye shall know that I am the LORD: || for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, <sup>h</sup>Ah, Lord God, wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came upon me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get ye far from the LORD; unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the LORD GOD, Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, <sup>i</sup>yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And <sup>k</sup>I will give them one heart, and I will put <sup>l</sup>a new spirit within you; and I will take <sup>m</sup>the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: <sup>n</sup>and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things, and their abominations, <sup>o</sup>I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels besides them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And the glory of the LORD <sup>p</sup>went up from the midst of the city, and stood <sup>q</sup>upon the mountain <sup>r</sup>which is on the east-side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision, by the spirit of God, into Chaldea, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I † digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What dost thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them; † they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And <sup>4</sup> the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My <sup>e</sup> net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and <sup>f</sup> I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans, yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And <sup>2</sup> I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and <sup>h</sup> I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave † a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, <sup>i</sup> eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness,

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel, they shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from † all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, <sup>k</sup> The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth.

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For <sup>l</sup> there shall be no more any vain vision, or flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For <sup>m</sup> I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 <sup>n</sup> Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is <sup>o</sup> for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, there shall none of my words be prolonged any more; but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

1 By a wretched infant is shewed the state of Jerusalem: 6 Gods love to her.

Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the LORD GOD unto Jerusalem, Thy † birth, <sup>a</sup> and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; <sup>b</sup> thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, <sup>c</sup> in the day thou wast born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water || to supple thee: thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee || polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live: yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 <sup>d</sup> I have † caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to † excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love, <sup>e</sup> and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the LORD GOD, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy † blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I <sup>f</sup> put bracelets upon thine hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy † forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver, and thy raiment was of fine linen and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness which I had put upon thee, saith the LORD GOD.

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, <sup>g</sup> and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pourest out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 <sup>h</sup> And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be † so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images † of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, where-with I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for † a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the LORD GOD.

20 <sup>i</sup> Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast born unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them † to be devoured: is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms, thou hast not remembered the days of thy <sup>k</sup> youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (wo, wo unto thee, saith the LORD GOD.)

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh, and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable: yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldaea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou dost all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman?

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street, and hast not been as an harlot, (in that thou scornest hire,)

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers in stead of her husband.

33 They give gifts to all whores, but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord.

36 Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold therefore, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee, in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt also give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury towards thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold therefore, I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God; and thou shalt not commit this lewdness, above all thine abominations.

44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mothers daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister that dwelleth at thy right hand is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

1 By two eagles and a vine, †† is shewed Gods judgment upon Jerusalem.

22 God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had † divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and <sup>a</sup> took the highest branch of the cedar.

† Heb. embrodering. a 2 King 24. 12.

4 He cropt off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and † planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree.

† Heb. put it in a field of seed.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings, and many feathers; and behold, this vine did bend her roots towards him, and shot forth her branches towards him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good † soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

† Heb. field.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? <sup>b</sup> shall it not utterly wither, wither, when the east-wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 <sup>c</sup> Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the kings feed, and made a covenant with him, and hath † taken an oath of him; he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be safe, that it might not lift itself up, † but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But <sup>e</sup> he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, † that they might give him hortet, and much people: <sup>g</sup> shall he prosper? shall he escape that doth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely <sup>h</sup> in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him, in the midst of Babylon, he shall die.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, <sup>i</sup> by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons.

18 Seeing he despised the oath, by breaking the covenant, (when lo, he had given his hand,) and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will <sup>k</sup> spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And <sup>l</sup> all his fugitives, with all his bands, shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered towards all winds; and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent.

23 <sup>m</sup> In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken, and have done it.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of four grapes: 25 he defendeth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live; he hath done all these abominations: he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now lo, if he beget a son that seeth all his fathers sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbours wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not with-holden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? when the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness shall he live.

23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doth, shall he live? all his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God: repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed, and make you a new heart, and a new spirit; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

CHAP. XX.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel: 5 the story of their rebellions: 33 he promiseth to gather them.

193.

AND it came to pass, in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that <sup>a</sup> certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD, Are ye come to enquire of me? <sup>a</sup> I live, saith the LORD GOD, <sup>b</sup> I will not be enquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou || <sup>c</sup> judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge <sup>d</sup> them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5 || And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD, In the day when <sup>d</sup> I chose Israel, and || lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself <sup>e</sup> known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, <sup>f</sup> I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them to bring them forth of the land of Egypt, into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, <sup>g</sup> which <sup>is</sup> the glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt; then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 <sup>h</sup> But I wrought for my names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 || Wherefore I <sup>h</sup> caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 And I gave them my statutes, and <sup>i</sup> shewed them my judgments, <sup>j</sup> which <sup>is</sup> if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my <sup>k</sup> sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which <sup>is</sup> if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly <sup>l</sup> polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the <sup>m</sup> wilderness to consume them.

15 Yet also <sup>o</sup> I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, <sup>p</sup> which is the glory of all lands;

16 <sup>q</sup> Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless, mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor desire yourselves with their idols.

19 I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 <sup>r</sup> And hallow my sabbaths, and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

22 <sup>t</sup> Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and <sup>u</sup> wrought for my names sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that <sup>x</sup> I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 <sup>y</sup> Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

25 Wherefore <sup>z</sup> I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live.

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass <sup>a</sup> through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD, Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have † committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then <sup>b</sup> they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their <sup>c</sup> sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then || I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? and the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the LORD GOD, Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols even unto this day: and <sup>d</sup> shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the LORD GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 ¶ As I live, saith the LORD GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you.

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the LORD GOD.

37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into || the bond of the covenant.

3 And<sup>b</sup> they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were, Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her siter: and<sup>c</sup> they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters: thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine, and she doted on her lovers, on<sup>d</sup> the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she † committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were † the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the<sup>e</sup> Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These † discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became † famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And<sup>h</sup> when her siter Aholibah saw this, <sup>h</sup> † she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms † more than her siter in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the<sup>i</sup> Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16<sup>k</sup> And † as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the † Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and<sup>l</sup> her mind was † alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then<sup>m</sup> my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her siter.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, <sup>n</sup> whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians, for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, ° Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, ° Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose, and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26<sup>q</sup> They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy † fair jewels.

27 Thus<sup>r</sup> will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare, and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therefore will I give her cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou shalt drink of thy sisters cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn, and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And sattest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabean from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it; bring it out piece by piece, let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock: she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance: I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the bloody city: I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burnt.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the bras of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She both wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 ¶ I the LORD have spoken it, it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 † Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning, and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou dost so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters, whom ye have left, shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn, nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one towards another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters;

26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 ¶ In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb, and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; <sup>c</sup> and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, <sup>d</sup> a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall make a fort against thee, and † cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

3 Speak and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, <sup>b</sup> Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great <sup>c</sup> dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But <sup>d</sup> I will put hooks in thy chaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the <sup>e</sup> open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a <sup>f</sup> staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 <sup>g</sup> When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break and rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste: and they shall know that I am the LORD; because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt <sup>h</sup> utterly waste and desolate, <sup>i</sup> from the tower of <sup>j</sup> Syene, even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 <sup>k</sup> No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 <sup>l</sup> And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities, among the cities that are laid waste, shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord GOD, At the <sup>m</sup> end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their <sup>n</sup> habitation, and they shall be there a <sup>o</sup> base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms, neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them; but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, in the seven and twentieth year, in the first <sup>p</sup> month, in the first <sup>q</sup> day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army <sup>r</sup> to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled; yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take her multitude, and <sup>s</sup> take her spoil, and take her prey, and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt <sup>t</sup> for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

21 ¶ In that day <sup>u</sup> will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, || when he shot forth.

6 All the <sup>d</sup> fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the <sup>c</sup> garden of God could not hide him; the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut-trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen: † he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, <sup>f</sup> the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the vallies his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees || stand up in their height, all that drink water: for <sup>g</sup> they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave, I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I cauled Lebanon † to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

18 ¶ <sup>k</sup> To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: <sup>l</sup> thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

4 Then <sup>d</sup> will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 By the duty of a watchman, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty.

10 God sheweth the justice of his ways.

A Gain the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, † When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

3 If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then † whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, his blood shall be upon him: but he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned: if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

7 ¶ <sup>a</sup> So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 ¶ Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we <sup>b</sup> pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, <sup>c</sup> I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for <sup>d</sup> why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The <sup>e</sup> righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die: if he turn from his sin, and do † that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked <sup>f</sup> restore the pledge, <sup>g</sup> give again that he had robbed, walk in <sup>h</sup> the statutes of life without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ <sup>i</sup> Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, <sup>k</sup> The way of the Lord is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

24 Son of man, <sup>q</sup> they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel, speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many, the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD, <sup>r</sup> Ye eat with the blood, and <sup>s</sup> lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood; and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbours wife; and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field <sup>t</sup> will I give to the beasts † to be devoured: and they that be in the forts, and <sup>u</sup> in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

28 <sup>x</sup> For I will lay the land † most desolate, and the <sup>y</sup> pomp of her strength shall cease: and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking ¶ against thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And <sup>z</sup> they come unto thee † as the people cometh, and ¶ they <sup>a</sup> sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: <sup>b</sup> for with their mouth † they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And lo, thou art unto them as † a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 <sup>c</sup> And when this cometh to pass, (lo it will come,) then <sup>d</sup> shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

C H A P. XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted by the heathens destruction, 8 and Gods blessings.

ALio, thou son of man, prophesy unto the <sup>a</sup> mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because <sup>b</sup> the enemy had said against you, Aha, <sup>c</sup> even the ancient high places are ours in possession ;

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, † Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and || ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people :

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the || rivers, and to the vallies, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about ;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, <sup>d</sup> Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the vallies, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have born the shame of the heathen.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8<sup>e</sup> But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown.

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it : and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded.

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast, and they shall increase and bring fruit; and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings; <sup>e</sup> and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel, and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations ;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither || bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15<sup>f</sup> Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more. neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

defiled it by their own way, and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it.

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way, and according to their doings, I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy names sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before ¶ their eyes.

26 A <sup>k</sup> new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my <sup>l</sup> spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; <sup>m</sup> and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses; and <sup>n</sup> I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and <sup>o</sup> lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then <sup>p</sup> shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and <sup>q</sup> shall loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 <sup>r</sup> Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of <sup>s</sup> Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I <sup>t</sup> the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the † holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

4 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy chaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 Gomer, and all his bands, the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands, and many people with thee.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste; but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm; thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought.

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages: I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates;

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD, In that day, when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army.

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence: and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every mans sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that <sup>a</sup> the city was smitten, in the selfsame day <sup>b</sup> the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, || by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, <sup>c</sup> and a measuring-reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, <sup>d</sup> Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither : declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the mans hand <sup>a</sup> a measuring-reed of six cubits long, by the cubit, and an hand-breadth : so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed, and the height one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate † which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits, and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof two cubits: and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate, eastward, were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate ten cubits; and the length of the gate thirteen cubits.

12 The † space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of three-score cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance, unto the face of the porch of the inner gate, were fifty cubits.

16 And there were † narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the || arches; and windows were round about || inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 <sup>e</sup> Then brought he me into the outward court, and lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: † thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate, unto the forefront of the inner court || without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court, † that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east, and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south-gate: and he measured the south-gate according to these measures:

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court: and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof on this side, and on that side; and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates where they washed the burnt-offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering, and <sup>h</sup> the sin-offering, and <sup>i</sup> the trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, ¶ as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables: and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were ¶ hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about; and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north-gate; and their prospect was toward the south, one at the side of the east-gate, having the prospect toward the north.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the || door was ten cubits, and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof forty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So <sup>a</sup> he measured the length thereof twenty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber four cubits round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, † one over another, and || thirty in order: and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might † have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And † † there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were <sup>c</sup> a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers without, was five cubits, and that which was left, was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad, and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long, and the separate place, and the building with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long.

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the || galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

18 He measured the south-side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west-side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, <sup>c</sup> five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindereth Gods presence.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east.

2. <sup>a</sup> And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and <sup>b</sup> his voice was like a noise of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was <sup>c</sup> according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw, ¶ when I came <sup>d</sup> to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Cherbar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court, and behold, <sup>e</sup> the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house: and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever; and my holy name shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by <sup>g</sup> the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 <sup>h</sup> In their setting of their thresholds by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, ¶ and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities, and let them measure the ¶ pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the laws thereof; and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain, the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy: behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits. <sup>1</sup> The cubit is a cubit and an hand-breadth: even the † bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the † edge thereof round about shall be a span; and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground, even to the lower settle, shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So † the altar shall be four cubits; and from † the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof, and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about: and <sup>2</sup> his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, Thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar, in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, <sup>m</sup> a young bullock for a sin-offering.

1 The east-gate assigned only to the prince. 9 Idolaters incapable of the priests office. 17 Ordinances for the priests.

Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD the God of Israel hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north-gate before the house: and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof, and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary † strangers uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols, they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them:

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans: 14 Daniel findeth it. 31 The dream, 36 and interpretation. 46 Daniels advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams <sup>a</sup> wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sojourners, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams: so they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, <sup>b</sup> O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be <sup>c</sup> † cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and ¶ rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again, and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would † gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, <sup>d</sup> there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed; therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the kings matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can shew it before the king, <sup>e</sup> except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise-men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise-men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel † answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the † captain of the kings guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise-men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch, the kings captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 <sup>f</sup> That they would desire mercies † of the God of heaven concerning this secret; ¶ that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise-men of Babylon.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became <sup>x</sup> like the chaff of the summer-threshing-floors, and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them ; and the stone that smote the image <sup>y</sup> became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream ; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 <sup>z</sup> Thou, O king, art a king of kings : for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 <sup>a</sup> And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all : thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, <sup>b</sup> which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron : forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces, and subdueth all things ; and as iron that breaketh all these shall it break in pieces, and bruise.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 <sup>g</sup> But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar † full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heat.

20 And he commanded the † most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their || coats, their hosen, and their || hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the kings † commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the || flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his || counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and † they have no hurt in them; and the form of the fourth is like <sup>h</sup> the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the † mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the kings counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the kings word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 <sup>i</sup> Therefore † I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak † any thing against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be <sup>k</sup> † cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghil; <sup>l</sup> because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king † promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; † I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: 1 the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong; 2 for thy greatness is grown and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, 3 a watcher, and 4 an holy one, came down from heaven.

23 5 And whereas the king saw a watcher, and an holy one, coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass in the tender grafs of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, 6 and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

14 He cried † aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit; let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grafs of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grafs of the earth.

25 That they shall 7 drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee 8 to eat grafs as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and 9 giveth it to whomsoever he will.

16 Let his heart be changed from mans, and let a beasts heart be given unto him: and let seven 10 times pass over him.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree-roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the 11 heavens do rule.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know 12 that the most high ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor, 13 if it may be 14 a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise-men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

19 ¶ Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him: the king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered, and said, My lord, 15 the dream be to them that Belshazzar: now let Daniel be called and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king; and the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my || father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

15 And now the wise-men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing.

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst † make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, <sup>1</sup> and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy || rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, <sup>m</sup> the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour.

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, <sup>n</sup> all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 <sup>o</sup> But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened || in pride, he was † deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

21 And he was <sup>p</sup> driven from the sons of men, and || his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, <sup>q</sup> till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou, his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven, and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them, and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which fees not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, <sup>r</sup> and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him, and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKELE, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing; MENE, God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKELE, <sup>s</sup> thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES, thy kingdom is divided, and given to the <sup>t</sup> Medes and <sup>u</sup> Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet; and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, <sup>x</sup> that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

C H A P. VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts, 9 of God's kingdom: 15 the interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed; then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagles wings: and I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a mans heart was given to it.

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, another like a leopord, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl, the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night-visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceeding; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns pluckt up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued, and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministrated unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night-visions, and behold, one like the son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this: so he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet.

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High: and the time time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom, are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them, and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, until a time and times, and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Daniels vision of the ram and he-goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice.

I king Belshazzar, a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision, (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan, in the palace which is in the province of Elam,) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai:

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, so that no beast might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And, as I was considering, behold, an he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven: and it cast down some of the host, and of the stars, to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground, and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, <sup>r</sup> Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18<sup>c</sup> Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: "but he touched me, and † set me upright.

20 The ram which thou sawest, having two horns, are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes <sup>y</sup> is the first king.

22<sup>z</sup> Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, <sup>a</sup> when the transgressors † are come to the full, a king <sup>b</sup> of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, <sup>c</sup> but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, <sup>d</sup> and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty, and the † holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; <sup>e</sup> and he shall magnify himself in his heart, <sup>f</sup> and by <sup>g</sup> peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be <sup>h</sup> broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning, which was told, is true: <sup>i</sup> wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27<sup>i</sup> And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up and did the kings business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Daniel, confessing his sin, 16 prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem.

20 The seventy weeks.

IN the first year <sup>a</sup> of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, <sup>b</sup> which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to <sup>b</sup> Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3<sup>c</sup> And I set my face unto the LORD GOD, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O<sup>d</sup> LORD, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant, and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5<sup>e</sup> We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments.

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness || belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, <sup>f</sup> to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9<sup>g</sup> To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him.

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the <sup>h</sup> law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: <sup>i</sup> for under the whole heaven hath not been done, as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As <sup>k</sup> it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet † made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD || watched upon the evil, and brought 17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, <sup>x</sup> and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary <sup>y</sup> that is desolate, <sup>z</sup> for the Lords sake.

18 <sup>a</sup> O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, <sup>b</sup> and behold our desolations, and the city <sup>c</sup> † which is called by thy name: for we do not † present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, <sup>d</sup> for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city, and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ <sup>e</sup> And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God, for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man <sup>f</sup> Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly † swiftly, <sup>g</sup> touched me <sup>h</sup> about the time of the evening oblation.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, <sup>a</sup> I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

b Ver. 8.

16 And behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision <sup>b</sup> my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

|| Or,
the first part of thy lord.

17 For how can || the servant of this my lord, talk with this my lord? for, <sup>as</sup> for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again, and touched me, one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 <sup>c</sup> And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not, peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, let my lord speak: for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight <sup>d</sup> with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

d Ver. 13.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that † holdeth with me in these things, <sup>e</sup> but Michael your prince.

CHAP. XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Kings of the north and south.

Also <sup>a</sup> I, in the first year of <sup>b</sup> Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

a Chap.

b Chap.
5. 31.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth, Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

c Chap.
8. 4.

3 And <sup>c</sup> a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, <sup>d</sup> his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, <sup>e</sup> nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

d Chap.
9. 7. 8.

e Chap.
8. 22.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes: and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they † shall join themselves together; for the kings daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make † an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and || he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

whom she brought forth.

7 But out of a branch of her root shall one stand up || in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortresses of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

|| Or, in his place, or, office.

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with † their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons || shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come † and overflow, and pass through; || then shall he return, and be stirred up, <sup>B</sup> even to his fortrefs.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude, but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up, and he shall cast down many ten thousands; but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come († after certain years) with a great army, and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also † the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take † the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither † his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the || † glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter the strength of his whole kingdom, and || upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women † corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, † neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince † for his own behalf shall cause † the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face towards the sort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up || in his estate † a raifer of taxes in the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in † anger, nor in battle.

21 And || in his estate <sup>k</sup> shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom; but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 <sup>1</sup> And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; <sup>m</sup> yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter || peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province: and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers fathers; <sup>n</sup> he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall † forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army: and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings † hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for <sup>o</sup> yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches, and <sup>p</sup> his heart shall be against the holy covenant: and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; <sup>q</sup> but it shall not be as the former, <sup>r</sup> or as the latter.

30 ¶ <sup>s</sup> For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved and return, and have indignation <sup>t</sup> against the holy covenant: so shall he do, he shall even return, <sup>u</sup> and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, <sup>x</sup> and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall; to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will, and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the god of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 And in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold and silver, and with precious stones, and with pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east, and out of the north, shall trouble him; therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas, in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles. 5 Daniel is informed of the times.

And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation, even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, <sup>a</sup> Go take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for <sup>b</sup> the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will † destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are † destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge; I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me; seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

Hear ye this, O priests, and hearken, ye house of Israel, and give ye ear, O house of the king: for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

4 † ¶ They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for <sup>b</sup> the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And <sup>c</sup> the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 <sup>d</sup> They shall go with their flocks, and with their herds, to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten strange children. now shall <sup>e</sup> a month devour them with their portions.

|| Or, whispered.

of Samaria: for they commit falshood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers † spoileth without:

2 And they † consider not in their hearts, that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes<sup>a</sup> with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, || who ceaseth || from railing after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be lea-vened.

5 In the day of our king, the princes have made him sick || with bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have || made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baken sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: <sup>b</sup> all their kings are fallen; <sup>c</sup> there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he<sup>d</sup> hath mixed himself among the people: Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not;
yea, grey hairs are † here and there upon him, yet he knoweth it not.

10 And the<sup>e</sup> pride of Israel testified to his face; and they do not return to the L O R D their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ <sup>f</sup> Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: <sup>g</sup> they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven: I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard.

13 Wo unto them, for they have fled from me; † destruction unto them, because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14<sup>h</sup> And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds; they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I || have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 <sup>i</sup> They return, but not to the most High; <sup>k</sup> they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the <sup>l</sup> rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAP. VIII.

1, 12 Destruction is threatened for their impiety, 5 and idolatry.

SET <sup>a</sup> the trumpet to † thy mouth: <sup>b</sup> he shall come <sup>b</sup> as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because <sup>c</sup> they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 <sup>d</sup> They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I knew it not: <sup>e</sup> of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For <sup>f</sup> they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no || stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles, <sup>g</sup> as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim <sup>h</sup> hath hired † lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now <sup>i</sup> will I gather them, and they shall || sorrow a little for the burden of <sup>k</sup> the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 || They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; <sup>m</sup> but the LORD accepteth them not: <sup>n</sup> now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins; <sup>o</sup> they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten <sup>p</sup> his maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX. The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as <sup>r</sup> other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a <sup>s</sup> reward || upon every corn-floor.

2 <sup>b</sup> The floor and the || wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORDS land; <sup>c</sup> but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and <sup>d</sup> they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 <sup>e</sup> They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: <sup>f</sup> their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For lo, they are gone, because of † destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: || † the pleasant places for their silver, <sup>g</sup> nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the † <sup>h</sup> spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The <sup>i</sup> watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred || in the house of his God.

9 <sup>k</sup> They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of <sup>l</sup> Gibeah: <sup>m</sup> therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.
