Israel is reproved and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

1 Israel is<sup>a</sup> an empty vine, he bring-eth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit, <sup>b</sup> he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land, they have made goodly † images.

2 || Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall † break down their altars; he shall spoil their images.

3 <sup>c</sup> For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up<sup>d</sup> as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear, because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and || the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, <sup>e</sup> for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to <sup>f</sup> king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed<sup>g</sup> of his own counsel.

7 <sup>h</sup> As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon † the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, <sup>i</sup> the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: <sup>j</sup> the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; <sup>k</sup> and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 <sup>m</sup> O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah, thus they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them: and <sup>n</sup> the people shall be gathered against them, || when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 <sup>o</sup> And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon † her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 <sup>p</sup> Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; <sup>q</sup> break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 <sup>r</sup> Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity, ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men,

14 <sup>s</sup> Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortress shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled <sup>t</sup> Beth-arbel in the day of battle: <sup>u</sup> the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you, because of † your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAP. XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 his judgment.

W HEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and <sup>a</sup> called <sup>b</sup> my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that † take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ <sup>c</sup> He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, <sup>d</sup> because of their own counsels.

6<sup>h</sup> Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

9 And <sup>k</sup> I, that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, <sup>l</sup> will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

CHAPTER I.

1 Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn: 14 he prescribeth a fast for complaint.

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear all ye inhabitants of the land: hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the palmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine: for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meat-offering, and the drink-offering, is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORDS ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God; for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withheld from the house of your God.

14 ¶ Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD;

15 Alas for the day: for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan? the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee; for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

C H A P. II.

1 The terribleness of Gods judgment: 12 he exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 and promiseth a blessing thereon.

Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and found an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them, and behind them a flame burneth:

the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men, they shall climb the wall like men of war, and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks.

8 Neither shall one thrust another, they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city: they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses: they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them, the heavens shall tremble; the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining;

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word, for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD; turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

13 And rent your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering and a drink-offering unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders: gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

3 And they have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head.

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly † pleasant things.

6 The children also of Judah, and the children of Jerusalem, have ye sold unto † the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head.

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off; for the LORD hath spoken it.

1 Gods judgments against Syria, 6 the Philistines, 9 Tyrus, 11 Edom, 13 and Ammon.

THE words of Amos, <sup>a</sup> who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel <sup>b</sup> in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the <sup>c</sup> earthquake.

2 And he said, THE LORD will <sup>d</sup> roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of <sup>e</sup> Damascus, || and for four, I will not || turn away the punishment thereof; <sup>f</sup> because they have threshed Gilead with threshing-instruments of iron:

4 <sup>g</sup> But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from || the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from || the house of Eden: and <sup>h</sup> the people of Syria shall go into captivity <sup>i</sup> unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of <sup>k</sup> Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they || carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 <sup>l</sup> But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant <sup>m</sup> from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, for three transgressions of <sup>n</sup> Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not † the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

1 He reproveth Israel for oppression, 5 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

Hear this word, ye <sup>a</sup> kine of Basan that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

4 ¶ <sup>e</sup> Come to Beth-el and transgress, at Gilgal multiply transgressions; and bring your sacrifices every morning, <sup>f</sup> and your tithes after † three years.

5 <sup>g</sup> And † offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for † this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.

6 ¶ And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your palaces: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have with-holden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not, withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 <sup>h</sup> I have smitten you with blasting and mildew; || when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, <sup>i</sup> the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence || after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, † and have taken away your horses, and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew <sup>k</sup> Sodom and Gomorrah, <sup>l</sup> and ye were as a fire-brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, <sup>m</sup> prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the || wind, <sup>n</sup> and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, <sup>o</sup> and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, <sup>p</sup> the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

upon her land, there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand, shall leave an hundred; and that which went forth by an hundred, shall leave ten to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live.

5 But seek not <sup>a</sup> Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to <sup>b</sup> Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and <sup>c</sup> Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the Lord, and ye shall live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who <sup>d</sup> turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth.

8 Seek him that maketh the <sup>e</sup> seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that <sup>f</sup> calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth, <sup>g</sup> the Lord is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the <sup>h</sup> spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 <sup>h</sup> They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; <sup>i</sup> ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted † pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them:

12 For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take || a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right:

13 Therefore <sup>k</sup> the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 <sup>l</sup> Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: <sup>m</sup> it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets, and they shall say in all the highways, Alas!

alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and <sup>n</sup> such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing:

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for <sup>o</sup> I will pass through thee, saith the Lord.

18 <sup>p</sup> Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord: to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

19 <sup>q</sup> As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ <sup>r</sup> I hate, I despise your feasts-days, and <sup>s</sup> I will not || smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the || peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs, for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment † run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 <sup>t</sup> Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have born || the tabernacle <sup>u</sup> of your Moloch and Chinn your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose name is the God of hosts.

Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold, he formed || grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and lo, it was the latter growth after the kings mowings.

3 <sup>b</sup> The LORD repented for this. It shall not be, faith the LORD.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 he is bewrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto <sup>a</sup> || Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 Arise, go to Nineveh that great city, and cry against it; for <sup>b</sup> their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah <sup>d</sup> rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to <sup>e</sup> Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it to go with them unto Tarshish, <sup>f</sup> from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD <sup>d</sup> sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship † was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid; and cried every man unto his god, and <sup>g</sup> cast forth the wares, that were in the ship, into the sea, to lighten <sup>it</sup> of them: but Jonah was gone down <sup>h</sup> into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the ship-master came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, <sup>i</sup> if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us: what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew, and I fear the LORD the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men † exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea † may be calm unto us? (for the sea || wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men † rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this mans life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea, and the sea † ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and † offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

C H A P. II.

1 The prayer of Jonah: 10 he is delivered from the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fishes belly,

2 And said, I <sup>a</sup> cried || by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of || hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the † midst of the seas, and the floods compassed me about; <sup>b</sup> all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 <sup>c</sup> Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The <sup>d</sup> waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about; the weeds were wrapt about my head.

6 I went down to the † bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life <sup>e</sup> from || corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe <sup>f</sup> lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of <sup>g</sup> thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed: <sup>h</sup> salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

C H A P. III.

1 Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites: 5 upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. (Now Nineveh was an † exceeding great city of three days journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a days journey, and <sup>a</sup> he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh <sup>b</sup> believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered <sup>him</sup> with sackcloth, <sup>c</sup> and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused <sup>it</sup> to be proclaimed, and † published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his † nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water.

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from <sup>d</sup> the violence that is in their hands.

9 <sup>e</sup> Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ <sup>f</sup> And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them, and he did <sup>it</sup> not.

CHAP. I.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans: 12 he complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them, &c.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you.

6 For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: || their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hateth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: || † their faces shall sup up as the east-wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine holy One? we shall not die: O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast † established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously,

I Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldeans for insatiableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, &c.

I Will <sup>a</sup> stand upon my watch, and I set me upon the † tower, and will watch to see what he will say || unto me, and what I shall answer || † when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, <sup>b</sup> Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For <sup>c</sup> the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will <sup>d</sup> surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul, which is lifted up, is not upright in him: but the <sup>e</sup> just shall live by his faith.

5 ¶ || Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire <sup>f</sup> as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people.

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, || Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his: how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay.

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 <sup>g</sup> Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee: <sup>h</sup> because of mens † blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Wo to him that <sup>i</sup> coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the † power of evil.

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the || beam out of the timber shall || answer it.

12 ¶ Wo to him that buildeth a town with <sup>k</sup> † blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts <sup>l</sup> that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves || for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled || with the <sup>m</sup> knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink: that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness.

16 Thou art filled || with shame for glory: <sup>n</sup> drink thou also, and let thy forekin be uncovered: the cup of the LORDS right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid <sup>o</sup> because of mens blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a <sup>p</sup> teacher of lies, that † the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make him dumb idols?

19 Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach: behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 The judgment of the Philistines, 8 of Moab and Ammon, 12 of Ethiopia and Assyria.

Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation || not desired:

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORDS anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment: seek righteousness, seek meekness; it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORDS anger.

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ahud at the noon-day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Wo unto the inhabitants of the sea-coasts, the nation of the Cherethites; the word of the LORD is against you: O Caparn, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening; || for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will furnish all the gods of the earth, and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows, desolation shall be in the

IN<sup>a</sup> the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD, † by Haggai the prophet, unto <sup>b</sup> Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, || governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORDS house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 <sup>c</sup> Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houfes, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, † Consider your ways.

6 Ye have <sup>d</sup> sown much, and bring in little: ye eat, but ye have not enough: ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink: ye clothe you, but there is none warm: and <sup>e</sup> he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag † with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, <sup>f</sup> I did || blow upon it: why? saith the LORD of hosts, because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore <sup>g</sup> the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I <sup>h</sup> called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and <sup>i</sup> upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, (as the LORD their God had sent him,) and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai, the LORDS messenger, in the LORDS message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, <sup>k</sup> governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts their God,

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD;

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 ¶ I smote you with blasting, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labours of your hands, yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day, and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORDS temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth,

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them, and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

I Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 The vision of the horses. 12 Comfortable promises are made to Jerusalem.

I N the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers:

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, with me, said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

8 I saw by night, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled and white.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem, and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the angel, that communed with me, said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am jealous for Jerusalem, and for Zion, with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore, thus saith the LORD, I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad, and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lift I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lift up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

I God in the care of Jerusalem sendeth to measure it. 6 The redemption of Zion.

Lift up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold, a man with a measuring-line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, for the multitude of men and cattle therein.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

5 Then the angel, that talked with me, answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain; and he shall bring forth the head-stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, his hands shall also finish it: and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive-branches, which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me, and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two that anointed ones, that stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

Then I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a flying roll.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And behold, there was lift up a ¶ talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness; and he cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lift I up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings, (for they had wings like the wings of a stork,) and they lift up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To <sup>c</sup> build it an house in the land of Shinar; and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vision of the four chariots. 9 By the crowns of Joshua, is shewed the temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

And I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were <sup>a</sup> red horses, and in the second chariot black horses,

3 And in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot grised, and ¶ bay horses.

4 Then I answered, <sup>b</sup> and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four ¶ spirits of the heavens, which go forth from <sup>c</sup> standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein, go forth into the north-country, and the white go forth after them; and the grised go forth toward the south-country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go, that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north-country have quieted my spirit in the north-country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah; and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make <sup>d</sup> crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua, the son of Josedech the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold, <sup>e</sup> the man whose name is the ¶ BRANCH: and he shall ¶ grow up out of his place, <sup>g</sup> and he shall build the temple of the LORD;

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and <sup>h</sup> he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Hëlcm, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And <sup>i</sup> they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and <sup>k</sup> ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,
5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye <sup>b</sup> fasted and mourned in the fifth <sup>c</sup> and seventh month, <sup>d</sup> even those seventy years, did ye at all fast <sup>e</sup> unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, || did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 || Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried † by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited, and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, † Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother :

10 And <sup>b</sup> oppresses not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor: <sup>b</sup> and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and <sup>i</sup> † pulled away the shoulder, and † stopped their ears that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit, † by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so <sup>k</sup> they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid <sup>l</sup> the † pleasant land desolate.

1 Jerusalem's restoration: 9 they are encouraged to the building by Gods favour.

A Gain the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>a</sup> I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem <sup>b</sup> shall be called A city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, The holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>c</sup> There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand † for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be || marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days; <sup>d</sup> should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east-country, and from † the west-country.

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, <sup>e</sup> and I will be their God in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, † Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of <sup>f</sup> the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days || there was no <sup>g</sup> hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people, as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 <sup>h</sup> For the seed shall be † prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew: and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that, as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and <sup>k</sup> ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not;

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

truth to his neighbour: † execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates;

17 <sup>m</sup> And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour, and <sup>n</sup> love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ° The fast of the fourth month, <sup>p</sup> and the fast of the fifth, <sup>q</sup> and the fast of the seventh, <sup>r</sup> and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful † feasts; <sup>s</sup> therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities;

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, <sup>t</sup> Let us go <sup>u</sup> † speedily † to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people, and strong nations, shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard <sup>v</sup> that God is with you.

1 God defendeth his church. 9 Zion is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ, and his peaceable kingdom.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and <sup>a</sup> Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus and <sup>b</sup> Zidon, though it be very <sup>c</sup> wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and <sup>d</sup> heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, <sup>e</sup> the LORD will cast her out, and he will finite her power in the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 <sup>f</sup> Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron: for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell <sup>g</sup> in Ashdod; and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his † blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he shall be for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And <sup>h</sup> I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ <sup>i</sup> Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy king cometh unto thee; he is just, and <sup>j</sup> having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the sole of an ass.

10 And I <sup>k</sup> will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be <sup>l</sup> from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, <sup>m</sup> by the blood of thy covenant, I have sent forth thy <sup>n</sup> prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn ye to the strong hold, <sup>o</sup> ye prisoners of hope; even to-day do I declare, that <sup>p</sup> I will render double unto thee:

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go <sup>q</sup> with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them: and they shall devour, and <sup>r</sup> shall subdue with sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as the through wine: and they <sup>s</sup> shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them, in that day, as the flock of his people; for <sup>t</sup> they shall be as the stones of a crown, <sup>u</sup> lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness! and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men <sup>v</sup> cheerful, and new wine the maids.

1 God is to be sought unto, and not idols: 5 as he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

Ask ye a of the LORD b rain, c in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make || bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grafs in the field.

2 For the d † idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they e comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they || were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, f and I † punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock, the house of Judah, and g hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle-bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which h tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets, in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and || the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them: for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase, as they have increased.

9 And i I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries, and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 k I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria: l and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and m place shall not be found for them.

11 n And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and o the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD, and p they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

2 Howl, fir-tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the || mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; b for || the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flock of the slaughter,

5 Whose possessors slay them, and c hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them, d say, Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but lo, I will † deliver the men, every one into his neighbours hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, || even you, O poor of the flock: and I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called || Bands: and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off e in one month; and my soul † loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: f that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat, every one the flesh † of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and || so g the poor of the flock, that waited upon me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, † If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear: so they h weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

C H A P. XII.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself, and a burthenfome stone to her adversaries. 6 The victorious restoring of Judah.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege, both against Judah, and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdenfome stone for all people : all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness : and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf ; and they shall devour all the people round about ;

on the right hand and on the left : and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again, in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David, and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem : and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David ; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass, in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications ; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 ¶ And the land shall mourn, every family apart : the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart : the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart :

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart : the family of Semei apart, and their wives apart :

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

1 Jerusalem's purgation from idolatry, and false prophesy. 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

IN that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin, and for uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass, in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered : and also I will cause the prophets, and the unclean spirit, to pass out of the land.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day<sup>c</sup> upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east: and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east, and toward the west, <sup>d</sup> and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

C H A P. I.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph: 18 his conception and birth: 21, 23 his names with their interpretation.

THE book of the <sup>a</sup> generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 <sup>b</sup> Abraham begat Isaac, and <sup>c</sup> Isaac begat Jacob, and <sup>d</sup> Jacob begat Judas and his brethren,

3 And <sup>e</sup> Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, and <sup>f</sup> Phares begat Esrom, and Esrom begat Aram,

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon,

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse,

6 And <sup>g</sup> Jesse begat David the king, and <sup>h</sup> David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias,

7 And <sup>i</sup> Solomon begat Reboam, and Reboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Afa,

8 And Afa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Jorani, and Joram begat Ozias, 9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezekias,

10 And <sup>k</sup> Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias,

11 And <sup>l</sup> Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, <sup>m</sup> Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel,

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor, 14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud, 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob, 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations, from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the <sup>n</sup> birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child <sup>o</sup> of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband being a just man, and not willing <sup>p</sup> to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; <sup>q</sup> for that which is <sup>r</sup> conceived in her is of the holy Ghost.

21 <sup>s</sup> And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for <sup>t</sup> he shall save his people from their sins.

22 ( Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 <sup>u</sup> Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and <sup>v</sup> they shall call his name Emmanuel, which, being interpreted, is, God with us.)

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife;

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth <sup>w</sup> her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS.

1 The wise men, coming to Christ, 11 worship him. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt.

NOW, when <sup>x</sup> Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise-men <sup>y</sup> from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, <sup>z</sup> Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen <sup>a</sup> his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all <sup>b</sup> the chief priests and <sup>c</sup> scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea; for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 <sup>d</sup> And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall shall come a Governour<sup>h</sup> that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise-men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed, and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child, and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother, by night, and departed into Egypt;

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise-men, was exceeding wroth; and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise-men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Ramra was there a voice heard, lamentation and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel; for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea, in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

1 John preacheth: 4 his apparel, meat, and baptism. 8 The fruits of repentance. 13 Christ baptized by John in Jordan.

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camels hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance.

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose

14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, * This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IV.

1 Christ fasteth, is tempted, and overcome: 17 he beginneth to preach, 18 calleth some to be his disciples, 23 and healeth all the diseased.

Then was <sup>a</sup> Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, <sup>b</sup> Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up <sup>c</sup> into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, <sup>d</sup> He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, left at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, <sup>e</sup> Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, <sup>f</sup> Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, <sup>g</sup> angels came and ministered unto him.

12 <sup>h</sup> Now when Jesus had heard that John was || cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.

13 And, leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea-coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim;

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 <sup>i</sup> The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

17 <sup>k</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, <sup>l</sup> Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 <sup>m</sup> And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon, <sup>n</sup> called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers:)

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 <sup>o</sup> And, going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 <sup>p</sup> And Jesus went about all Galilee, || teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases, and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

Anno Dom. 25 <sup>9</sup> And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

C H A P. V.

3 Who are blessed. 13 The apostles are the salt and light of the world.

And, seeing the multitudes, <sup>a</sup> he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 <sup>b</sup> Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 <sup>c</sup> Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 <sup>d</sup> Blessed are the meek: for <sup>e</sup> they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: <sup>f</sup> for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: <sup>g</sup> for they shall obtain mercy.

8 <sup>h</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart: for <sup>i</sup> they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 <sup>k</sup> Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 <sup>l</sup> Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of <sup>m</sup> evil against you <sup>n</sup> falsely for my sake.

12 <sup>a</sup> Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great <sup>b</sup> is your reward in heaven: for <sup>c</sup> so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 <sup>d</sup> Ye are the salt of the earth: <sup>e</sup> but if the salt have lost his flavour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be troden under foot of men.

14 <sup>f</sup> Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men <sup>g</sup> light a candle, and put it under <sup>h</sup> a bushel: but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, <sup>i</sup> that they may see your good works, and <sup>j</sup> glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 <sup>k</sup> Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily, I say unto you, <sup>l</sup> Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one little shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 <sup>m</sup> Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do, and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed <sup>n</sup> the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 <sup>o</sup> Ye have heard that it was said <sup>p</sup> by them of old time, <sup>q</sup> Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That <sup>r</sup> whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother, <sup>s</sup> Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell-fire.

23 Therefore, <sup>t</sup> if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 <sup>u</sup> Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 <sup>v</sup> Agree with thine adversary quickly, <sup>w</sup> whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily, I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 <sup>x</sup> Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time <sup>y</sup> Thou shalt not commit adultery.

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever <sup>z</sup> looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast <sup>ff</sup> it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

32 But I say unto you, That <sup>m</sup> whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that <sup>n</sup> it hath been said by them of old time, <sup>o</sup> Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but <sup>p</sup> shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

34 But I say unto you, <sup>q</sup> Swear not at all: neither by heaven; for it is <sup>r</sup> Gods throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is <sup>s</sup> the city of the great King:

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head; because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 <sup>t</sup> But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these, cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, <sup>u</sup> An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 But I say unto you, <sup>x</sup> That ye resist not evil; <sup>y</sup> but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and <sup>a</sup> from him that would borrow of thee, turn not thou away.

43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, <sup>b</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour, <sup>c</sup> and hate thine enemy:

44 But I say unto you, <sup>d</sup> Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray <sup>e</sup> for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 <sup>f</sup> For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 Be ye therefore perfect, even <sup>g</sup> as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiveness, 19 our treasure. 24 God and mammon.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore, <sup>a</sup> when thou dost thine alms, do not found a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily, I say unto you, they have their reward.

3 But when thou dost alms, let not tly left hand know what thy right doth;

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret, himself <sup>b</sup> shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily, I say unto you, they have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, <sup>c</sup> enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain <sup>d</sup> repetitions, as the heathen do: <sup>e</sup> for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: <sup>f</sup> Our Father which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our <sup>g</sup> daily bread;

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: <sup>h</sup> For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 <sup>i</sup> For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15 But <sup>k</sup> if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance:

13 ¶ <sup>1</sup> Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 ¶ Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Beware of false prophets, <sup>n</sup> which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are <sup>o</sup> ravening wolves.

16 <sup>p</sup> Ye shall know them by their fruits. <sup>q</sup> Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so <sup>r</sup> every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit: neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 <sup>s</sup> Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, <sup>t</sup> Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we <sup>u</sup> not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And <sup>x</sup> then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: <sup>y</sup> depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore, <sup>z</sup> whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell not; for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them not; shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, <sup>a</sup> the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 <sup>b</sup> For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, <sup>5</sup> healeth the centurions servant, <sup>14</sup> Peters mother-in-law, <sup>16</sup> and many other diseased; <sup>18</sup> sheweth how he is to be followed, <sup>23</sup> stilleth the tempest on the sea, <sup>28</sup> driveth the devils out of two men possessed, <sup>31</sup> and suffereth them to go into the swine.

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 <sup>a</sup> And behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, <sup>b</sup> See thou tell no man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that <sup>c</sup> Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ <sup>d</sup> And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, <sup>e</sup> I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but <sup>f</sup> speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, that <sup>g</sup> many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven;

12 But <sup>h</sup> the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts ?

5 For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee ? or to say, Arise and walk ?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, ( then saith he to the sick of the palsy, ) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

34 But the Pharisees said, <sup>n</sup> He casteth out the devils through the prince of the devils.

35 ° And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, <sup>y</sup> teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness, and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ <sup>z</sup> But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they ¶ fainted, and were scattered abroad, <sup>a</sup> as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, <sup>b</sup> The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.

38 ° Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

C H A P. X.

1 The apostles are sent to do miracles, and to teach.

¶ And <sup>a</sup> when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power ¶ against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, <sup>b</sup> who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother,

3 Philip, and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the publican, James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus,

4 ° Simon the Canaanite, and Judas <sup>d</sup> Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, ° Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of <sup>f</sup> the Samaritans enter ye not.

9 <sup>l</sup> Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor <sup>m</sup> brags in your purses;
10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet <sup>n</sup> staves: (<sup>o</sup> for the workman is worthy of his meat.)
11 <sup>p</sup> And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy, and there abide till ye go thence.
12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.
13 <sup>q</sup> And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: <sup>r</sup> but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If <sup>m</sup> they have called the master of the house † Beelzebub, how much more <sup>n</sup> shall they call them of his household?
26 Fear them not therefore: <sup>o</sup> for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

33 <sup>t</sup> But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is heaven.
34 <sup>u</sup> Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.
35 For I am come to set a man at variance <sup>v</sup> against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER. XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ.

7 The testimony of Christ concerning John. 20 Christ upbraided the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum, 25 and praiseth his fathers wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 <sup>a</sup> Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 <sup>b</sup> The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and <sup>c</sup> the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he whosoever shall not <sup>d</sup> be offended in me.

7 <sup>e</sup> And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? <sup>f</sup> A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, <sup>g</sup> and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, <sup>h</sup> Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily, I say unto you, among them that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 <sup>i</sup> And from the days of John the Baptist, until now, the kingdom of heaven || suffereth violence, and the violent taketh it by force.

13 <sup>k</sup> For all the prophets, and the law, prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is <sup>l</sup> Elias which was for to come.

15 <sup>m</sup> He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 <sup>n</sup> But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners: <sup>o</sup> but wisdom is justified of her children.

20 <sup>p</sup> Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not.

21 Wo unto thee, Chorazin, wo unto thee, Bethsaida: for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago <sup>q</sup> in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, <sup>r</sup> It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, <sup>s</sup> which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 <sup>t</sup> At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, because <sup>u</sup> thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, <sup>x</sup> and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father, for so it seemeth good in thy sight.

27 <sup>y</sup> All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; <sup>z</sup> neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal || him.

28 || Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, <sup>a</sup> and learn of me, for I am meek and <sup>b</sup> lowly in heart; <sup>c</sup> and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 <sup>d</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

C H A P. XII.

1 The disciples pluck the ears of corn on the sabbath. 31 Of blasphemy against the holy Ghost.

At that time<sup>a</sup> Jesus went on the sabbath-day through the corn: and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath-day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read<sup>b</sup> what David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him,

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat<sup>c</sup> the shew-bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, <sup>d</sup> but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the<sup>e</sup> law, how that on the sabbath-days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, that in this place is<sup>f</sup> one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, <sup>g</sup> I will have mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

9 <sup>h</sup> And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue.

10 ¶ And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered: and they asked him, saying, <sup>i</sup> Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and <sup>k</sup> if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then <sup>l</sup> the Pharisees went out, and <sup>m</sup> held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, <sup>n</sup> he withdrew himself from thence: <sup>o</sup> and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And <sup>p</sup> charged them that they should not make him known;

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying;

18 <sup>q</sup> Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; my beloved <sup>r</sup> in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ <sup>s</sup> Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 <sup>t</sup> But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation: and every city or house divided against itself, shall not stand.

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by <sup>u</sup> Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 <sup>v</sup> Or else, how can one enter into a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me, is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ Wherefore, I say unto you, <sup>w</sup> All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: <sup>x</sup> but the blasphemy against the holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, <sup>y</sup> it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and <sup>z</sup> his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ <sup>c</sup> Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and <sup>d</sup> adulterous generation seeketh after a sign, and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas.

40 <sup>e</sup> For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whales belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

42 <sup>i</sup> The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 <sup>k</sup> When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, <sup>l</sup> he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: <sup>m</sup> and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, <sup>n</sup> behold, his mother, and <sup>o</sup> his brethren, stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother, and thy brethren, stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

3 Of the sower and the seed. 24 Divers other parables. 34 Why Christ spake in parables.

THe same day went Jesus out of the house, <sup>a</sup> and sat by the sea-side.

2 <sup>b</sup> And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that <sup>c</sup> he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, <sup>d</sup> Behold, a sower went forth to sow.

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the ways-side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had not root, they withered away:

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold.

9 <sup>e</sup> Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because <sup>f</sup> it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 <sup>g</sup> For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away, even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, <sup>h</sup> By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive.

Anno Dom. 31.
 15 For this peoples heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; left at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

 22 <sup>q</sup> He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the household came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

Anno Dom. 21.
 29 But he said, Nay; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree; so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them, The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 * All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom, but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burnt in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field: the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and <sup>e</sup> selleth all that he hath, and <sup>f</sup> buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and <sup>g</sup> gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and <sup>h</sup> sever the wicked from among the just;

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: <sup>i</sup> there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure <sup>k</sup> things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 <sup>l</sup> And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they <sup>p</sup> were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, <sup>q</sup> A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And <sup>r</sup> he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

1 Herods opinion of Christ. 3 John Baptist beheaded. 15 Five thousand miraculously fed.

A T that time <sup>a</sup> Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, 2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist: he is risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works <sup>b</sup> do shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ <sup>b</sup> For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put <sup>c</sup> him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife.

4 For John said unto him, <sup>c</sup> It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, <sup>d</sup> because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herods birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced <sup>e</sup> before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised, with an oath, to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptists head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: <sup>f</sup> nevertheless, for the oaths sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded <sup>g</sup> it to be given <sup>h</sup> her.

10 And he sent and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought <sup>i</sup> it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ <sup>j</sup> When Jesus heard <sup>k</sup> of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and, when the people had heard <sup>l</sup> thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and <sup>m</sup> was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ <sup>n</sup> And when it was evening his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments, that remained, twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 <sup>i</sup> And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: <sup>k</sup> and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind ¶ boisterous, he was afraid; and, beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ <sup>l</sup> And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they went out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased,

36 And besought him, that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and <sup>m</sup> as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

3 Gods commandments, and mens traditions. 11 What defileth a man.

Then <sup>a</sup> came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 <sup>b</sup> Why do thy disciples transgress <sup>c</sup> the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, <sup>d</sup> Honour thy father and mother: and, <sup>e</sup> He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, <sup>f</sup> It is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 <sup>g</sup> Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 <sup>h</sup> This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, <sup>i</sup> teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ <sup>k</sup> And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear and understand:

11 <sup>l</sup> Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man, but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, <sup>m</sup> Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: <sup>n</sup> they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

1 The sign of Jonas. 6 The leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

21 Christ foresheweth his death. The Pharisees also, with the Sadducees, came, and tempting, desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather; for the sky is red:

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day; for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign, and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

¶ Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed, and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

Anno Dom. 10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist, some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, I Thou art Christ the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan, thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily, I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes, that Elias must first come?

foever they lifted: likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13<sup>m</sup> Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶<sup>n</sup> And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily, I say unto you, <sup>o</sup> If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit, this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶<sup>p</sup> And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men;

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again: and they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶<sup>q</sup> And <sup>q</sup> when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute-money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and, when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find ¶ a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

1 Christ teacheth to be humble.

7 Touching offences, and forgiving one another.

A<sup>T</sup> <sup>a</sup> the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily, I say unto you, <sup>b</sup> Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 <sup>c</sup> Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And <sup>d</sup> who so shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 <sup>e</sup> But who so shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶<sup>f</sup> Wo unto the world because of offences: for <sup>f</sup> it must needs be that offences come; but <sup>g</sup> wo to that man by whom the offence cometh.

8 <sup>h</sup> Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell-fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven <sup>i</sup> their angels do always <sup>k</sup> behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 <sup>l</sup> For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 <sup>m</sup> How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, Verily, I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 <sup>z</sup> So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

2 <sup>b</sup> And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, <sup>c</sup> that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female?

5 And said, <sup>d</sup> For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and <sup>e</sup> they twain shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, <sup>f</sup> Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 20 Christ teacheth his disciples to be lowly.

¶ For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

¶ The Roman penny is the eighth part of an ounce, which is five shillings the ounce, is seven pence half penny.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

Anno Dom. 33.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good-man of the house,

¶ Or, have continued one hour only.

12 Saying, These last ¶ have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have born the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

12 ¶ <sup>l</sup> And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, <sup>m</sup> My house shall be called the house of prayer, <sup>n</sup> but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: have ye never read, <sup>o</sup> Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into <sup>p</sup> Bethany, and he lodged there.

18 <sup>q</sup> Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 <sup>r</sup> And, when he saw <sup>t</sup> a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw <sup>it</sup>, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily, I say unto you, <sup>u</sup> If ye have faith, and <sup>v</sup> doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, <sup>w</sup> but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

23 ¶ <sup>y</sup> And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests, and the elders of the people came unto him as 25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people: <sup>a</sup> for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ <sup>b</sup> But what think you? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my Vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, <sup>c</sup> Verily, I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For <sup>d</sup> John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: <sup>e</sup> but the publicans and the harlots believed him. And ye, when ye had seen <sup>it</sup>, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable; There was a certain householder <sup>f</sup> which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and <sup>g</sup> went into a far country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, <sup>h</sup> that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all, he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son,

C H A P. XXII.

1 The marriage of the kings son. 9 The calling of the Gentiles. 12 The wedding garment.

a Luke 14. 16. Revel. 19. 7, 9. AND Jesus answered, <sup>a</sup> and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king; which made a marriage for his son;

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; <sup>b</sup> my oxen and <sup>c</sup> my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them:

7 But when the king heard thereof he was wroth: and he sent forth <sup>c</sup> his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, Anno Dom. 33. The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and <sup>d</sup> gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. d Chap. 13. 38, 47.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man <sup>e</sup> which had not on a wedding-garment: e 2 Corin. 5. 2. Ephes. 4. 22. Coloss. 3. 10, 17. Rev. 3. 4. & 16. 15. & 19. 8.

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him <sup>f</sup> into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. f Chap. 8. 12.

14 <sup>g</sup> For many are called, but few are chosen. g Chap. 20. 16.

15 ¶ <sup>h</sup> Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. h Mark 12. 13. Luke 20. 20.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a ¶ penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and ¶ superscription? ¶ In value seven pence half penny, Chap. 20. 2.

21 They say unto him, Cæsars. ¶ Or, inscription. i Chap. 17. 25. Romane. 13. 17. Then saith he unto them, <sup>i</sup> Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cæsars; and unto God, the things that are Gods.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ <sup>k</sup> The same day came to him the Sadducees, <sup>l</sup> which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him. k Mark 12. 18. Luke 20. 27. 1 Afs 23. 8.

24 Saying, Master, <sup>m</sup> Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. m Deut. 25. 5.

25 <sup>n</sup> Now there were with us seven brethren; and the first, when he had married n Tobit 3. 6.

n Tobit 3. 6.

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the † seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God:

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; <sup>o</sup> but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But, as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 <sup>p</sup> I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, <sup>q</sup> they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 <sup>r</sup> But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, <sup>s</sup> Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, <sup>t</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 <sup>u</sup> On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 <sup>v</sup> While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose Son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit <sup>y</sup> call him Lord, saying, 44 <sup>z</sup> The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man (from that day forth) ask him any more questions.

The scribes and Pharisees good doctrine, but evil examples of life.

The destruction of Jerusalem.

Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, <sup>a</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses seat.

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for <sup>b</sup> they say, and do not.

4 <sup>c</sup> For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be born, and lay them on mens shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But <sup>d</sup> all their works they do for to be seen of men: <sup>e</sup> they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 <sup>f</sup> And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 <sup>g</sup> But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: <sup>h</sup> for one is your Father which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called Masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But <sup>i</sup> he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

12 <sup>k</sup> And whosoever shall exalt himself, shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted.

14 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; <sup>m</sup> for ye devour widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Wo unto you, <sup>n</sup> ye blind guides, which say, <sup>o</sup> Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing: but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.

1 The destruction of the temple. 29 Of Christ's coming to judgment.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily, I say unto you, <sup>b</sup> There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, <sup>c</sup> the disciples came unto him privately, saying, <sup>d</sup> Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>e</sup> Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For <sup>f</sup> Many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; <sup>g</sup> and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For <sup>h</sup> nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

 ſhall alſo the coming of the Son of a Chapter 25. 21, 22.

47 Verily, I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming,

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken :

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not ware of,

|| Or, cut him off.

51 And shall || cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites : * there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

C H A P. XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet <sup>a</sup> the bridegroom.

a Ephes. 5. 37. Revel. 19. 7. & 21. 2, 9.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them :

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, <sup>b</sup> they all slumbered and slept.

b x Theff. 5. 6.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil ; for our lamps are || gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so ; left there be not enough for us and you : but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came ; and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage : and <sup>c</sup> the door was shut.

c Luke 13. 25.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, <sup>d</sup> Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily, I say unto you, I know you not.

14 <sup>f</sup> For the kingdom of heaven is <sup>g</sup> as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five || talents, to another two, and to another one : to every man according to his several ability, and straightway took his journey.

Anno Dom. 37.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went, and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went, and digged in the earth, and hid his lords money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came, and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents : behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant ; thou hast been faithful over a few things, <sup>h</sup> I will make thee ruler over many things : enter thou into <sup>i</sup> the joy of thy lord.

h Chap. 24. 47. Luke 21. 29, 30. i Hebr. 12. 2.

22 He also that had received two talents came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents : behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, <sup>k</sup> Well done, good and faithful servant ; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things : enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

k Ver. 27.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not sowed ;

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth : lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not sowed ;

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance : but from him that hath not shall be taken away, even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer, and say unto them, Verily, I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily, I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

The rulers conspire against Christ: Judas selleth him. Christ eateth the passover.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples.

Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas;

And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

But they said, not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

¶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

There came unto him a woman having an alabaster-box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

Verily, I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

¶ Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him,

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that dipperh his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth, as it is written of him: but wouunto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed; it had been good for that man, if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and ¶ blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it:

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my fathers kingdom.

30 ¶ And when they had sung an ¶ hymn, they went out into the mount of olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily, I say unto thee, that this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here and watch with me.

39 ¶ And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What? could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest; behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priests, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father; and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In the same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off, unto the high priests palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, fought false witness against Jesus to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witness came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnessess, 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 * And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us, whether thou be the Christ the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless, I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ; who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Christ delivered to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 34 Christ is crucified.

When the morning was come, all the chief priests, and elders of the people, took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value,

Anno Dom. 37.

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearst thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, in so much that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day, in a dream, because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude, that they should kill Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why? what evil hath he done? but they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews.

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet. They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down, they watched him there.

37 And set up over his head, his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others, himself he cannot save: if he be the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also which were crucified with him cast the same in his teeth.

45 f Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour <sup>g</sup> Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lamma fabachthani? that is to say, <sup>h</sup> My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, <sup>i</sup> and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ <sup>k</sup> Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And behold, <sup>l</sup> the vail of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent,

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 <sup>m</sup> Now when the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there, (beholding afar off,) <sup>n</sup> which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

56 <sup>o</sup> Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedees children.

57 <sup>p</sup> When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth;

60 And <sup>q</sup> laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, <sup>r</sup> After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch; go your way, make it as sure as you can.

66 So they went and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

IN the <sup>a</sup> end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, <sup>b</sup> and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there <sup>c</sup> was a great earthquake; for <sup>c</sup> the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, <sup>d</sup> as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay:

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and behold, <sup>e</sup> he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him. Lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, <sup>f</sup> Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go, tell <sup>g</sup> my brethren, that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

¶ The GOSPEL according to St. M A R K.

C H A P. I.

I John Baptists office. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted, 14 he preacheth, 16 calleth Peter and others, &c.

Anno Dom. 26. ending.

THE beginning of the gospel, of Jesus Christ the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, <sup>a</sup> Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 <sup>b</sup> The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 <sup>c</sup> John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance, || for the remission of sins.

5 <sup>d</sup> And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was <sup>e</sup> clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat <sup>f</sup> locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, <sup>g</sup> There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 <sup>h</sup> I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you <sup>i</sup> with the holy Ghost.

9 <sup>k</sup> And it came to pass, in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway, coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens || opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, <sup>l</sup> Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 <sup>m</sup> And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan: and was with the wild beasts; <sup>n</sup> and the angels ministred unto him.

14 Now, after that John was put in prison, <sup>o</sup> Jesus came into Galilee, <sup>p</sup> preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, <sup>q</sup> The time is fulfilled, and <sup>r</sup> the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye and believe the gospel.

16 <sup>s</sup> Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers.)

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway <sup>t</sup> they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 <sup>u</sup> And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 <sup>x</sup> And they went into Capernaum: and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue and taught.

22 <sup>y</sup> And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone, <sup>a</sup> what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy One of God.

25 And Jesus<sup>b</sup> rebuked him, saying,
Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit
<sup>c</sup> had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, in-fomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 <sup>d</sup> And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simons wives mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lift her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she mi-nistred unto them.

32 <sup>e</sup> And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and <sup>f</sup> suffered not the devils || to speak, because they knew him.

35 And <sup>g</sup> in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, <sup>h</sup> Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for <sup>i</sup> therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 <sup>k</sup> And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth <sup>his</sup> hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will;
be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him,
and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things <sup>l</sup> which Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

45 <sup>m</sup> But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, in somuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

it was noised that he was in the house.

was no room to receive <sup>them</sup>, no not

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? <sup>b</sup> who can forgive sins perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

C H A P. IV.

1 The parable of the sower: 14 the meaning thereof. 26 Of the seed growing secretly. 30 of the mustard-seed.

And he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea, and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched: and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables;

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground, who when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward when affliction or persecution ariseth for the words sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid which shall not be manifested: neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear. With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear, shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God; as if a man should cast seed into the ground, 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself, first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear:

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth.

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air, may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship; and there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow; and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still: and the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that you have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

anno Domini 31. 5 And always night and day he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine; and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befel to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And <sup>b</sup> they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, <sup>c</sup> he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 <sup>d</sup> And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him, and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 <sup>e</sup> And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death, I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him, and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman <sup>f</sup> which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up: and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus immediately knowing in himself that <sup>g</sup> virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came, and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, <sup>h</sup> thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 <sup>i</sup> While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogues house, certain which said, Thy daughter is dead, Why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

2 Christ is contemned of his countrymen. 27 John Baptist is beheaded.

ANd he went out from thence, and came into his own country, and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, c the brother of James and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they d were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, e A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 f And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. h And he went round about the villages, teaching.

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only: no scrip, no bread, no || money in their purse:

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, n and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 o And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad;) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 p Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 q But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife; for he had married her.

23 And he sware unto her, u Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by, in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples, to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled.) And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship, and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 † And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Genesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region roundabout, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

31 And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things; and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests and scribes; and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes <sup>d</sup> that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias, verily, cometh first, and restor-eth all things; and <sup>e</sup> how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and <sup>f</sup> be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, that <sup>g</sup> Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ <sup>h</sup> And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye <sup>i</sup> with them?

17 And <sup>j</sup> one of the multitude answered, and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he <sup>k</sup> teareth him; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 He answered him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and <sup>l</sup> when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oft-times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, <sup>m</sup> If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, <sup>n</sup> Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For <sup>o</sup> whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospels, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 <sup>p</sup> Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, Come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him fore, and came out of him; and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and said unto them, ¶ If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbade him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us, is on our part.

42 * And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 ¶ And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 ¶ Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife.

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeas'd, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily, I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said unto him. One thing thou lackest; go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor; and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves; Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus, looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily, I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake and the gospels,

30 But he shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 But many that are first, shall be last; and the last, first.

32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed: and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes: and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles;

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and the third day he shall rise again.

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ rideth with triumph into Jerusalem: 12 he curseth the fruitless fig-tree.

ANd when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him thither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without, in a place where two ways met: and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and drawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the even-tide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry.

13 And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, we can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal, shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand, is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles, exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the high-way-side, begging.

47 And, when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

28 And say unto him, By what authority dost thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus, answering, saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

C H A P. XII.

1 Of the parable of the vineyard. 13 Touching the paying of tribute, 18 and the resurrection. 41 The widow and her two mites.

And <sup>a</sup> he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again, he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said amongst themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture? <sup>b</sup> The stone which the builders rejected, is become the head of the corner.

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a ¶ penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it: and he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cefars.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cefars, and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Then come unto him the Sadducees, <sup>e</sup> which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, <sup>f</sup> Moses wrote unto us, If a mans brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now, there were seven brethren; and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died; neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus, answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, <sup>g</sup> I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ <sup>h</sup> And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, <sup>i</sup> Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord;

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, <sup>k</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: there is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, <sup>l</sup> is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ <sup>m</sup> And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said by the holy Ghost, <sup>n</sup> The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

1 The destruction of the temple. 9 Persecution for the gospel. 14 Great calamities on the Jews. 24 Christ's coming to judgment.

ANd <sup>a</sup> as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here.

2 And Jesus, answering, said unto him, See'st thou these great buildings? <sup>b</sup> there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, asked him privately,

4 <sup>c</sup> Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus, answering them, began to say, <sup>d</sup> Take heed lest any man deceive you.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines, and troubles; <sup>e</sup> these are the beginnings of || sorrows.

9 <sup>f</sup> But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And <sup>g</sup> the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 <sup>h</sup> But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the holy Ghost.

12 Now <sup>i</sup> the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 <sup>k</sup> And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake: but <sup>l</sup> he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 <sup>m</sup> But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, <sup>n</sup> spoken of by Daniel the prophet; standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then <sup>o</sup> let them that be in Judea, flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days.

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation, which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 <sup>p</sup> And then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs, and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But <sup>q</sup> take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 <sup>r</sup> But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light;

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 <sup>s</sup> And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth, to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 <sup>t</sup> Now learn a parable of the fig-tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 a woman poureth ointment upon his head: 10 Judas selleth, 43 and betrayeth him: 66 Peter thrice denieth him.

After <sup>a</sup> two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ <sup>b</sup> And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaster-box of ointment of ¶ spikenard, very precious: and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred ¶ pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For <sup>c</sup> ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good; but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily, I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ <sup>d</sup> And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ <sup>e</sup> And the first day of unleavened bread, when they ¶ killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whersoever he shall go in, say ye to the good-man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 ¶ <sup>f</sup> And as they sat, and did eat, Jesus said, Verily, I say unto you, one of you, which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed; good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ <sup>g</sup> And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and, when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

1 Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate. 15 Barabbas is released, and Christ is delivered to be crucified, 27 hangeth between two thieves, 43 and is honourably buried.

And straightway, in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he, answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things; but he answered nothing.

4 Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.)

11 But the chief priests envied the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why? what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, king of the Jews.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and, bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And, when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

4 (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away :) for it was very great.

5 <sup>d</sup> And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment ; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified ; he is risen, he is not here : behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee : there shall ye see him, <sup>e</sup> as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre ; for they trembled, and were amazed : <sup>f</sup> neither said they any thing to any man ; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And he went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that, he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 So then, after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

¶ The GOSPEL according to St. L U K E.

CHAP. I.

1 Lukes preface. 5 The conception of John Baptist, 26 and of Christ. 57 The nativity and circumcision of John.

FORasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 THERE was, in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren; and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that, while he executed the priests office before God, in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priests office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, even from his mothers womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel. that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckened unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man, whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing, which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour:

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden; for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed:

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his name;

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, 55<sup>t</sup> As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeths full time came, that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and <sup>u</sup> they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that, * on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child: and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, <sup>v</sup> Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, <sup>z</sup> His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these || sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea.

66 And all they that had heard them, <sup>a</sup> laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for <sup>b</sup> he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 <sup>c</sup> And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David:

70 <sup>d</sup> As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began;

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant,

73 <sup>e</sup> The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might <sup>f</sup> serve him without fear;

75 <sup>g</sup> In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for <sup>h</sup> thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his ways:

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, <sup>i</sup> || by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the || tender mercy of our God, whereby the || day-spring from on high hath visited us,

79 <sup>k</sup> To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And <sup>l</sup> the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and <sup>m</sup> was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

7 And <sup>d</sup> she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping || watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 <sup>e</sup> For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, <sup>f</sup> which is Christ the Lord.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

14 <sup>g</sup> Glory to God in the highest, and on earth <sup>h</sup> peace, good will to-wards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, † the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

21 <sup>k</sup> And when eight days were accomplished, for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, <sup>p</sup> waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lords Christ.

27 And he came by the spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, <sup>q</sup> now leavest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

36 And there was one Anna a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser; she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity:

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers <sup>y</sup> night and day.

38 And she, coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that <sup>z</sup> looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem <sup>b</sup> every year at the feast of the passover.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a days journey: and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

1 Johns preaching and baptism: 15 his testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ is baptized: 23 his genealogy.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lyfanias the tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup> a Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

15 And as the people were || in expectation, and all men || mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not.

<sup>3</sup> b And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins;

16 John answered, saying unto them all, <sup>i</sup> I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, <sup>c</sup> The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth:

18 And many other things, in his exhortation, preached he unto the people.

6 And <sup>d</sup> all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

19 <sup>k</sup> But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,

1 Christ's temptation and fasting: 13 he overcometh the devil: 14 beginneth to preach: 16 they of Nazareth admire him.

And Jesus, being full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee;

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering, said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee: and there there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 ° The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised;

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Josephs son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily, I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 * And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill, (whereon their city was built,) that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he, passing through the mids of them, went his way,

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, ¶ Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the mids, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simons house: and Simons wifes mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick, with divers diseases, brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also; for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sat down and taught the people out of the ship.

5 John 22. 6.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their net brake.

7 And they beckened unto their partners which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships: so that they began to sink.

C H A P. VII.

1 Of the centurions faith. 10 Christ healeth his servant being absent; 11 raiseth the widows son: 24 his testimony of John.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, <sup>a</sup> he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurions servant, who was dear unto him, was sick and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof.

7 Wherefore, neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers; and I say unto † one, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the || bier, (and they that bare him stood still,) and he said, Young man, I say unto thee, <sup>b</sup> Arise,

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, <sup>c</sup> That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, <sup>d</sup> That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 <sup>e</sup> And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent <sup>them</sup> unto Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of <sup>their</sup> infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 <sup>f</sup> Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard, <sup>g</sup> how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, <sup>h</sup> to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ <sup>i</sup> And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

38 And stood at his feet behind him, weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee, which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, <sup>q</sup> This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

2 Women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 26 The legion of devils.

4 ¶ <sup>c</sup> And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it:

6 And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture:

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it:

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 <sup>d</sup> And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

that ſeeing they might not ſee, and hearing they might not underſtand.

11 ¶ Now the parable is this; The ſeed is the word of God.

12 Thoſe by the way-ſide, are they that hear: then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, left they ſhould believe and be ſaved.

13 They on the rock, are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and theſe have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches, and pleaſures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which, in an honeſt and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a veſſel, or putteth it under a bed: but ſetteth it on a candleſtick, that they which enter in may ſee the light.

17 ¶ For nothing is ſecret, that ſhall not be made maniſeſt; neither any thing hid, that ſhall not be known, and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whoſoever hath, to him ſhall be given; and whoſoever hath not, from him ſhall be taken even that which he ſeemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the prefs.

20 And it was told him by certain, which ſaid, Thy mother and thy brethren ſtand without, deſiring to ſee thee.

21 And he answered and ſaid unto them, My mother and my brethren are theſe which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to paſs, on a certain day, that he went into a ſhip, with his diſciples; and he ſaid unto them, Let us go over unto the other ſide of the lake. And they lanch'd forth.

23 But as they ſailed, he fell aſleep; and there came down a ſtorm of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, ſaying, Maſter, maſter, we periſh. Then he aroſe, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water; and they ceaſed, and there was a calm.

25 And he ſaid unto them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, ſaying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over againſt Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any houſe, but in the tombs.

28 When he ſaw Jeſus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice ſaid, What have I to do with thee, Jeſus, thou Son of God moſt high? I beſeech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean ſpirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderneſs.)

30 And Jeſus asked him, ſaying, What is thy name? And he ſaid, Legion: becauſe many devils were entered into him.

31 And they beſought him, that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many ſwine feeding on the mountain: and they beſought him that he would ſuffer them to enter into them. And he ſuffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the ſwine: and the herd ran violently down a ſteep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them ſaw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city, and in the country.

35 Then they went out to ſee what was done; and came to Jeſus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, ſitting at the feet of Jeſus, clothed, and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him : for they were all waiting for him.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me ? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me ?

46 And Jesus said, Some body hath touched me : for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and, falling down before him, she declared unto him, before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort : thy faith hath made thee whole ; go in peace.)

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead ; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not : believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her : but he said, Weep not ; she is not dead, * but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway : and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished : but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people:

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 <sup>k</sup> And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, <sup>l</sup> John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? <sup>m</sup> Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

23 <sup>p</sup> And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 <sup>q</sup> For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 <sup>r</sup> For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Fathers, and of the holy angels,

27 <sup>s</sup> But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 <sup>t</sup> And it came to pass, about an eight days after these <sup>u</sup> sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And, as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias,

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, <sup>v</sup> were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, <sup>w</sup> This is my beloved Son, <sup>x</sup> ye hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: <sup>y</sup> and they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 <sup>z</sup> And it came to pass, that, on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon my son, for he is mine only child.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they could not.

45 <sup>c</sup> But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when <sup>g</sup> the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And <sup>h</sup> they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as <sup>i</sup> Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For <sup>k</sup> the Son of man is not come to destroy mens lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ <sup>l</sup> And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 <sup>m</sup> And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, <sup>n</sup> I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two <sup>e</sup> pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman, named <sup>f</sup> Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, <sup>g</sup> which also <sup>h</sup> sat at Jesus feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many things:

42 But <sup>i</sup> one thing is needful; and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a mans life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully.

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have store-house nor barn; and God feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you, with taking thought, can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon, in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Fathers good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the wedding, that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall find watching: verily, I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room: lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

9 And he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men, which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

10 <sup>c</sup> But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

11 <sup>d</sup> For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

26 <sup>i</sup> If any man come to me, <sup>k</sup> and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, <sup>l</sup> yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

27 And <sup>m</sup> whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call <sup>e</sup> the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

29 Lest haply after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him, heard these things, he said unto him, <sup>f</sup> Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

16 <sup>g</sup> Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

17 And <sup>h</sup> sent his servant at supper-time, to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

4 <sup>c</sup> What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep <sup>d</sup> which was lost.

d 1 Peter 2. 10, 25.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them <sup>f</sup> his living.

f 1 John 3. 17.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the hulks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my fathers have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came, and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he, answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee; neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment, and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Of the unjust steward. 14 The hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees reprov'd. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him: that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lords debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another mans, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed amongst men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John; since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which should pass from hence to you, cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

3 The importunate widow. 9 The Pharisee and publican. 15 Children brought to Christ. 28 All to be left for Christs sake.

And he spake a parable unto them, to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily, I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

1 Of Zaccheus a publican. 13 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem, 41 weepeth over it, 45 and purgeth the temple.

And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was, and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor: and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him four-fold.

9. And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is the son of Abraham.

10. For the son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added, and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12. He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that, when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou laidest not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee; thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that, at my coming, I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one that hath, shall be given: and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village, over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen, 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees, from among the multitude, said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near he beheld the city, and wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another: because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ¶ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought,

46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes, and the chief of the people, sought to destroy him;

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: <sup>c</sup> A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen, beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, <sup>d</sup> The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but <sup>e</sup> on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 <sup>f</sup> And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, <sup>g</sup> Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God <sup>h</sup> truly;

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew <sup>i</sup> me a penny; whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsars.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsars, and unto God the things which be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ <sup>k</sup> Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, (<sup>l</sup> which deny that there is any resurrection,) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, <sup>m</sup> Moses wrote unto us, If any mans brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also, and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, the children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

36 Neither can they die any more; for <sup>n</sup> they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, <sup>o</sup> being the children of the resurrection.

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; || and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars, and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass, but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

43 And there appeared <sup>i</sup> an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, <sup>l</sup> behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus, to kiss him.

50 ¶ And <sup>m</sup> one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 <sup>n</sup> Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: <sup>o</sup> but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

1. Jesus is accused before Pilate, 7 sent to Herod, 11 mocked and sent back to Pilate, 18 delivered to be crucified: 46 his death and burial.

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

2. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a king.

20 Pilate, therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

3. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

4. Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why? what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

5. And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief priests, prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them, him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired: but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus, turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other malefactors led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding: and the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost thou not fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily, I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the mids.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them: he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; (i who also himself waited for the kingdom of God:)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre, that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

NOW, upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre, and, stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 And behold, two of them went, that same day, to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were held, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth: which was a prophet, mighty in deed, and word, before God, and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them, which were with us, went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures, the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone farther.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found

Anno Dom. 33. found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-comb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day,

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name, among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bethany: and he lift up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimony of John. 39 The calling of Andrew, &c.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John:

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

me, is preferred before me; * for he was before me.
16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us: what sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold k the Lamb of God, which || taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not; but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples:

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where || dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was || about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, we have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, || the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: r thou shalt be called Cephas; which is by interpretation, || a stone.

43 The day following, Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now s Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth t Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom u Moses in the law, and the x prophets did write, Jesus y of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, z Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, a in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and said unto him, Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God, thou art the King of Israel.

C H A P. II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 departeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 and purgeth the temple.

And the third day there was a marriage in a Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew,) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this, he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables; 16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou dost these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast-day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men;

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. 18 Of condemnation for unbelief.

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou dost, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born || again.

8 ° The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth : so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, <sup>f</sup> How can these things be ?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things ?

11 <sup>z</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and <sup>h</sup> ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things ?

13 And <sup>i</sup> no man hath ascended up to heaven, <sup>k</sup> but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ <sup>l</sup> And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so <sup>m</sup> must the Son of man be lifted up :

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but <sup>n</sup> have eternal life.

16 ¶ <sup>o</sup> For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 <sup>p</sup> For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world ; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ <sup>q</sup> He that believeth on him, is not condemned : but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, <sup>r</sup> that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For <sup>s</sup> every one that doth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be || reproved.

21 But he that doth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea, and there he tarried with them, <sup>t</sup> and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Sajim, because there was much water there ; and they came, and were baptized :

24 For <sup>u</sup> John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Johns disciples and the Jews, about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, <sup>x</sup> to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, <sup>y</sup> A man can || receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, <sup>z</sup> I am not the Christ, but <sup>a</sup> that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegroom : but <sup>b</sup> the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegrooms voice. This my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above, <sup>c</sup> is above all : he that is of the earth, is earthly, and speaketh of the earth : <sup>d</sup> he that cometh from heaven, is above all.

32 And <sup>e</sup> what he hath seen and heard, that he testified ; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, <sup>f</sup> hath set to his seal, that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God : for God giveth not the Spirit <sup>g</sup> by measure unto him.

35 <sup>h</sup> The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 <sup>i</sup> He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life : and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life ; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

Anno Dom. 30. 4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground b that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for c the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee d living water?

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst again:

14 But e whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him, f shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 g The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, h I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped i in this mountain: and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, j when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship m ye know not what: we know what we worship; for n salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in o spirit p and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 q God is a spirit; and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, r I that speak unto thee, am he.

27 s Upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 t Upon the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him uught to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, v My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; w for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice together.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

43 ¶ Now, after two days, he departed thence, and went into Galilee :

44 For * Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then, when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast : for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down and heal his son : for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way ; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend : and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth ; and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

C H A P. V.

¶ Jesus on the sabbath-day cureth him that was diseased eight and thirty years. 10 The Jews cavil and persecute him for it.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water : whosoever then first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole ?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool : but, while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked : and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day ; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk ?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was : for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole : sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, you, <sup>k</sup> The son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doth, these also doth the Son likewise.

20 For <sup>l</sup> the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them: even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man; but <sup>m</sup> hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. <sup>n</sup> He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>o</sup> He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; <sup>p</sup> but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when <sup>q</sup> the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And <sup>r</sup> hath given him authority to execute judgment also, <sup>s</sup> because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; <sup>t</sup> they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 <sup>u</sup> I can of mine ownself do nothing: as I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just: because <sup>x</sup> I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 <sup>y</sup> If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 <sup>z</sup> There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, <sup>a</sup> and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and <sup>b</sup> a shining light: and <sup>c</sup> ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But <sup>d</sup> I have greater witness than that of John: for <sup>e</sup> the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself which hath sent me, <sup>f</sup> hath born witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, <sup>g</sup> nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ <sup>h</sup> Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and <sup>i</sup> they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 <sup>k</sup> I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 <sup>l</sup> How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not <sup>m</sup> the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: <sup>n</sup> there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: <sup>o</sup> for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: <sup>e</sup> but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grafs in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth <sup>f</sup> that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 <sup>g</sup> And when even was now come, his disciples went down into the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum: and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I, be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people, which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks;)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

C H A P. VIII.

I Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery: 12 he preacheth himself the light of the world. &c.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives: 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery: and when they had set her in the mids,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 <sup>a</sup> Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them, <sup>b</sup> He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, <sup>c</sup> Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, <sup>d</sup> I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, <sup>e</sup> Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>f</sup> Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but <sup>g</sup> ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; <sup>h</sup> I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true; for <sup>i</sup> I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 <sup>k</sup> It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and <sup>l</sup> the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, <sup>m</sup> Ye neither know me, nor my Father: <sup>n</sup> if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in <sup>o</sup> the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and <sup>p</sup> no man laid hands on him; for <sup>q</sup> his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and <sup>r</sup> ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go ye cannot come.

<sup>c</sup> Ver. 24. 24 <sup>1</sup> I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but <sup>u</sup> he that sent me is true; and <sup>x</sup> I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have <sup>y</sup> lift up the Son of man, <sup>z</sup> then shall ye know that I am he, and <sup>a</sup> that I do nothing of myself; but <sup>b</sup> as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And <sup>c</sup> he that sent me, is with me: <sup>d</sup> the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, <sup>e</sup> many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed:

32 And ye shall know the truth, and <sup>f</sup> the truth shall make you free.

33 <sup>g</sup> They answered him, <sup>h</sup> We be Abrahams feed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>i</sup> Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And <sup>j</sup> the servant abideth not in the house for ever; but the Son abideth ever.

36 <sup>k</sup> If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams feed: but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 <sup>l</sup> I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, <sup>m</sup> Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, <sup>n</sup> If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication: <sup>o</sup> we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, <sup>p</sup> If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God; <sup>q</sup> neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 <sup>r</sup> Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 <sup>s</sup> Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and <sup>t</sup> abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 <sup>u</sup> He that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and <sup>v</sup> hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And <sup>w</sup> I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>x</sup> If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil.

53 Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and <sup>y</sup> thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

54 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

55 Jesus answered, <sup>z</sup> If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say that he is your God.

56 Yet <sup>a</sup> ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I should be a liar like unto you; but I know him, and keep his saying.

57 Your father Abraham <sup>b</sup> rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

58 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

C H A P. IX.

1 He that was born blind is restored to sight: 13 he is brought to the Pharisees: 34 they excommunicate him: 35 Christ receiveth him, and he confesseth him.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He saith, <sup>h</sup> He is a prophet.

h Chap. 4: 19, & 6: 14.

And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: <sup>a</sup> but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

4 <sup>b</sup> I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work.

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age, ask him; he shall speak for himself.

5 As long as I am in the world, <sup>c</sup> I am the light of the world.

22 These words spake his parents, because <sup>i</sup> they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that, if any man did confess that he was Christ, he <sup>k</sup> should be put out of the synagogue.

i Chap. 7: 13, & 12: 42, & 19: 34. Acts 5: 13. k Chap. 16: 22.

6 When he had thus spoken, <sup>d</sup> he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he || anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age, ask him.

7 And said unto him, Go wash <sup>e</sup> in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him, that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner, or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses disciples.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, <sup>l</sup> we know not from whence he is.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

14 And it was the sabbath-day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put 34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they || cast him out.

C H A P. X.

1 Christ the door, and the good shepherd: 24 he proveth that he is the Christ.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 <sup>a</sup> I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 <sup>b</sup> I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and <sup>c</sup> leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and <sup>d</sup> know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 <sup>e</sup> As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And <sup>f</sup> other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; <sup>g</sup> and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, <sup>h</sup> because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself: I have power to lay it down, and <sup>i</sup> I have power to take it again. <sup>k</sup> This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ <sup>l</sup> There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, <sup>m</sup> He hath a devil, and is mad: why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil: <sup>n</sup> Can a devil <sup>o</sup> open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the <sup>p</sup> feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple, <sup>q</sup> in Solomons porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou || make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: <sup>r</sup> the works that I do in my Fathers name, they bear witness of me.

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto Auno Dom. him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, <sup>c</sup> but for the glory of God, that the Son of Vet. 40. God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, <sup>d</sup> he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, <sup>e</sup> the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? <sup>f</sup> If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But <sup>g</sup> if a man walk in the 12. 35. night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that, he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus <sup>h</sup> sleepeth; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord,
if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit, Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad, for your sakes, that I was not there; (to the intent ye may believe;) nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lien in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, || about fifteen furlongs off.) || That is, about two miles.

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now whatsoever thou wilt ask of God,
God will give it thee.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the <sup>k</sup> life: <sup>l</sup> he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live;

26 And whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. Believeth thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord; <sup>m</sup> I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, She went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 Assoon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and † was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? they say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 <sup>n</sup> Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold, how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, <sup>o</sup> which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest <sup>p</sup> see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up <sup>q</sup> his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but <sup>r</sup> because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and <sup>s</sup> his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, <sup>t</sup> and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 <sup>u</sup> ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, <sup>v</sup> What do we? for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him; and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them <sup>w</sup> named Caia-phas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 <sup>x</sup> Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And <sup>y</sup> not for that nation only, <sup>z</sup> but that also he should gather together, in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then, from that day forth, they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore <sup>aa</sup> walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called <sup>ab</sup> Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 <sup>ac</sup> ¶ And the Jews passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 <sup>ad</sup> ¶ Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

C H A P. XII.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet: 10 the chief priests consult to kill him.

Then Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took <sup>b</sup> Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and <sup>c</sup> had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For <sup>d</sup> the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, <sup>e</sup> whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that, by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ <sup>f</sup> On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, <sup>g</sup> Hosanna: blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 <sup>h</sup> Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an asses colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: <sup>i</sup> but when Jesus was glorified, <sup>k</sup> then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, <sup>l</sup> Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there <sup>m</sup> were certain Greeks among them, <sup>n</sup> that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, <sup>o</sup> which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again, Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, <sup>p</sup> The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>q</sup> except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 <sup>r</sup> He that loveth his life, shall lose it: and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and <sup>s</sup> where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 <sup>t</sup> Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: <sup>u</sup> but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. <sup>x</sup> Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, <sup>y</sup> This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall <sup>z</sup> the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, <sup>a</sup> if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw <sup>b</sup> all men unto me.

33 <sup>c</sup> This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

abideth forever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lift up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also, many believed on him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried, and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting; whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples feet, 14 exhorteth them to humility and charity, 36 and forewarneth Peter of his denial.

Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons son, to betray him.)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towel and girded himself.

5 After that, he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith unto him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one anothers feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his Lord, neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now x there was leaning on Jesus bosom, one of his disciples whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckened to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then, lying on Jesus breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it ?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a ¶ sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot the son of Simon.

27 ¶ And after the sop, Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou dost, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because z Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast ; or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, having received the sop, went immediately out : and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 a If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and b shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me : c and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come ; so now I say unto you.

The mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away : and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine : no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit : for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered ; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit ; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you ; continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love : even as I have kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye <sup>a</sup> should not be offended.

4 But <sup>d</sup> these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And <sup>e</sup> these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, <sup>f</sup> the Comforter will not come unto you; but <sup>g</sup> if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will || reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

10 <sup>i</sup> Of righteousness, <sup>k</sup> because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 <sup>l</sup> Of judgment, because <sup>m</sup> the prince of this world is judged.

Anno Dom. 33.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman, when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing: Verily, verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in || proverbs: the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in || proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name; and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no || proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his || own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ prayeth his Father to glorify him, & to preserve his apostles, in unity, and in truth.

These words spake Jesus, and lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth; I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine ownself, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee:

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thou art mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 12 Jesus is taken and led unto Annas and Caiaphas, 28 and arraigned.

When Jesus had spoken these words, <sup>a</sup> he went forth with his disciples over <sup>b</sup> the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place; <sup>c</sup> for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 <sup>d</sup> Judas then having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, <sup>e</sup> Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 <sup>f</sup> Then Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and smote the high priests servant, and cut off his right ear. The servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath; <sup>g</sup> the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews, took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And <sup>h</sup> led him away to <sup>i</sup> Annas first; (for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.) ||

14 <sup>k</sup> Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 <sup>l</sup> And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 <sup>m</sup> But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also <sup>n</sup> one of this mans disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold,) and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 <sup>o</sup> The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, <sup>p</sup> I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, <sup>q</sup> struck

° struck Jesus || with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest to?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 (P Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.)

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: ° they said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, (being his kinsman, whose ear Peter cut off,) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again, and r immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas, unto || the hall of judgment: and it was early, ° and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 ¶ That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 * Then Pilate entered into the judgment-hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the king of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation, and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done?

36 ¶ Jesus answered, ° My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth.

Every one that ° is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, ° I find in him no fault at all.

39 ° But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

40 ¶ Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. ° Now Barabbas was a robber.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that faying, he brought Iefus forth, and fat down in the judgment-feat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And <sup>b</sup> it was the preparation of the paffover, and about the fixth hour : and he faith unto the Jews, Behold your king.

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate faith unto them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, <sup>h</sup> We have no king but Cefar.

16 <sup>i</sup> Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Iefus and led him away.

17 <sup>k</sup> And he, bearing his crofs, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha;

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either fide one, and Iefus in the midft.

19 ¶ <sup>l</sup> And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the crofs. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH,
THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews; for the place where Iefus was crucified was nigh to the city :
and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then faid the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews; but that he faid,
I am king of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Then the foldiers, when they had crucified Iefus, took his garments, (and made four parts, to every foldier a part,) and alfo his coat: now the coat was without feam, ¶ woven from the top throughout.

24 They faid therefore among themfelves, Let us not rent it, but caft lots for it, whose it fhall be: that the fcripture might be fulfilled, which faith, <sup>n</sup> They parted my raiment among them,
and for my vefture they did caft lots.
Thefe things therefore the foldiers did.

25 ¶ <sup>o</sup> Now there ftood by the crofs of Iefus, his mother, and his mothers fifter, Mary the wife of ¶ <sup>p</sup> Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Iefus therefore faw his mother, and <sup>q</sup> the difciple ftanding by whom he loved, he faith unto his mother, <sup>r</sup> Woman, behold thy fon.

27 Then faith he to the difciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour that difciple took her <sup>v</sup> unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Iefus knowing that all things were now accomplifhed, <sup>t</sup> that the fcripture might be fulfilled, faith, I thirft.

29 Now there was fet a veflell full of vinegar: and <sup>u</sup> they filled a fponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyffop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Iefus therefore had received the vinegar, he faid, <sup>x</sup> It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghoft.

31 The Jews therefore, becaufe it was the preparation, that the bodies fhould not remain upon the crofs on the fabbath-day, (for that fabbath-day was an high day,) befought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the foldiers, and brake the legs of the firft, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Iefus, and faw that he was dead already,
they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the foldiers, with a fpear, pierced his fide, and forthwith <sup>y</sup> came there out blood and water.

35 And he that faw it bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he faith true, that ye might believe.

36 For thefe things were done,
<sup>z</sup> that the fcripture fhould be fulfilled,
A bone of him fhall not be broken.

37 And again another fcripture faith, <sup>a</sup> They fhall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ <sup>b</sup> And after this, Iofeph of Arimathea, (being a difciple of Iefus, but fecretly <sup>c</sup> for fear of the Jews,) befought Pilate that he might take away the body of Iefus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Iefus.

39 And there came alfo <sup>d</sup> Nicode-mus, (which at the firft came to Iefus by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jefus, and <sup>e</sup> wound it in linen clothes, with the fpices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden a new fepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre, 3 and Peter and John. 24 The incredulity of Thomas.

THe <sup>a</sup> first day of the week cometh <sup>b</sup> Mary Magdalene, early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the <sup>b</sup> other disciple whom Jesus loved, and faith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 <sup>c</sup> Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together : and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw <sup>d</sup> the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie ;

7 And <sup>e</sup> the napkin that was about his head not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not <sup>f</sup> the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ <sup>g</sup> But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, weeping : and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain :

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She faith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 <sup>h</sup> And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and <sup>i</sup> knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus faith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? she, supposing him to be the gardener, faith unto him, Sir, if thou have born him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus faith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and faith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus faith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father : but go to <sup>k</sup> my brethren, and say unto them, <sup>l</sup> I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and to <sup>m</sup> my God and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ <sup>n</sup> Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and faith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. <sup>o</sup> Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you : <sup>p</sup> as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and faith unto them, Receive ye the holy Ghost.

23 <sup>q</sup> Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, <sup>r</sup> called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And, after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then faith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and <sup>s</sup> reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side : and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus faith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed : <sup>t</sup> blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

31 * But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, and that believing ye might have life through his name.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth again to his disciples: 18 he foretelleth Peter's death.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself:

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore; but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fishers coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 Assoon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three; and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, I thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 * Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 ° And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

35 Until I make thy foes thy foot-stool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God d hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they had heard this, e they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do ?

38 Then Peter said unto them, f Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and g to your children, and h to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized : and the same day there were added i unto them about three thousand souls.

2 Peter and John restore a lame man to his feet. 19 The people are exhorted to repentance.

NOW Peter and John went up together a into the temple, at the hour of prayer, b being the ninth hour.

2 And c a certain man, lame from his mothers womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, d to ask alms of them that entered into the temple ;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none ; but such as I have, give I thee : e In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lift f him up ; and immediately his feet and ancle-bones received strength.

8 And he, leaping up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.

10 And they knew that it was he which g sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple : and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man, which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch h that is called Solomons, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this ? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk ?

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of <sup>1</sup> restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets, <sup>2</sup> since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, * A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, <sup>7</sup> And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 <sup>2</sup> Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, <sup>a</sup> in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

C H A P. IV.

1 The rulers imprison Peter and John. 8 Peters boldness.

And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the || captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now even-tide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass, on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And <sup>a</sup> Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, <sup>b</sup> By what power, or by what name have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, <sup>c</sup> whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 <sup>d</sup> This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 <sup>e</sup> Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, <sup>f</sup> What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them <sup>is</sup> manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 <sup>g</sup> And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, <sup>h</sup> Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which <sup>i</sup> we have seen and heard.

21 So, when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, <sup>k</sup> because of the people: for all men glorified God for <sup>l</sup> that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

16 There came alſo a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jeruſalem, bringing <sup>h</sup> ſick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean ſpirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high prieſt roſe up, and all they that were with him, (which is the feſt of the Sadducees,) and were filled with ¶ indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apoſtles, and put them in the common priſon.

19 But <sup>i</sup> the angel of the Lord, by night, opened the priſon-doors, and brought them forth, and ſaid, 20 Go, ſtand and ſpeak in the temple to the people, <sup>k</sup> all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high prieſt came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the ſenate of the children of Iſrael, and ſent to the priſon to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the priſon, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The priſon truly found we ſhut with all ſafety, and the keepers ſtanding without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high prieſt, and <sup>l</sup> the captain of the temple, and the chief prieſts, heard theſe things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, ſaying, Behold, the men whom ye put in priſon are ſtanding in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: (<sup>m</sup> for they feared the people, leſt they ſhould have been ſtoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they ſet them before the council: and the high prieſt asked them,

28 Saying, <sup>n</sup> Did not we ſtraitly command you, that you ſhould not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jeruſalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this mans blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter, and the other apoſtles, answered and ſaid, <sup>o</sup> We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 <sup>p</sup> The God of our fathers raiſed up Jeſus, whom ye ſlew, and <sup>q</sup> hanged on a tree:

32 And <sup>u</sup> we are his witneſſes of theſe things; and ſo is alſo the holy Ghoſt, <sup>x</sup> whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ <sup>y</sup> When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counſel to ſlay them.

34 Then ſtood there up one in the council, a Pharifee, named <sup>z</sup> Gamaliel, a doctour of law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apoſtles forth a little ſpace, 35 And ſaid unto them, ye men of Iſrael, take heed to yourſelves, what ye intend to do aſtouching theſe men.

36 For before theſe days roſe up Theudas, boaſting himſelf to be ſomebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themſelves: who was ſlain, and all, as many as ¶ obeyed him, were ſcattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man roſe up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he alſo periſhed, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were diſperſed.

38 And now I ſay unto you, Refrain from theſe men, and let them alone: <sup>a</sup> for if this counſel, or this work, be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; leſt haply ye be found even <sup>b</sup> to fight againſt God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had <sup>c</sup> called the apoſtles, and beaten them, they commanded that they ſhould not ſpeak in the name of Jeſus, and let them go.

the <sup>a</sup> Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected <sup>b</sup> in the daily ministrations.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, <sup>c</sup> It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, <sup>d</sup> look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we <sup>e</sup> will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, <sup>f</sup> a man full of faith, and of the holy Ghost, and <sup>g</sup> Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and <sup>h</sup> Nicolas a profelyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles; and when they had prayed, <sup>i</sup> they laid their hands on them.

7 And <sup>k</sup> the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly: and a great company <sup>l</sup> of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And <sup>m</sup> they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law.

14 For we have heard him say, That this Jesus of Nazareth shall <sup>n</sup> destroy this place, and shall change the || customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

1 Stephen answereth to his accusation:

54 he is stoned to death.

Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, <sup>a</sup> Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken, The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, <sup>b</sup> Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then <sup>c</sup> came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, not so much as to set his foot on: <sup>d</sup> yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, <sup>e</sup> that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and intreat them evil <sup>f</sup> four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and <sup>g</sup> serve me in this place.

8 <sup>h</sup> And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: <sup>i</sup> and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: <sup>k</sup> and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs,

9 <sup>m</sup> And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, <sup>n</sup> and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt, and all his house.

11 <sup>o</sup> Now there came a death over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 <sup>p</sup> But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 <sup>q</sup> And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren: and Josephs kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and <sup>r</sup> all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 <sup>s</sup> So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and our fathers, Anno Dom. 16 And <sup>u</sup> were carried over into Sychem, and laid in <sup>x</sup> the sepulchre that Abraham bought, for a sum of money, of the sons of Emmor, the father of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, <sup>y</sup> the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, <sup>z</sup> so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 <sup>a</sup> In which time Moses was born, and <sup>b</sup> was || exceeding fair, and nourished up in his fathers house three months :

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was <sup>c</sup> mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 <sup>d</sup> And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian :

25 || For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them; but they understood not.

26 <sup>e</sup> And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, <sup>f</sup> Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 <sup>g</sup> And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight : and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

32 Saying, <sup>h</sup> I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 <sup>i</sup> Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet : for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hands of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had <sup>k</sup> shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, <sup>l</sup> and in the wilderness, forty years.

37 || This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, <sup>m</sup> A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, || like unto me : <sup>n</sup> him shall ye hear.

38 <sup>o</sup> This is he that was in the church in the wilderness, with <sup>p</sup> the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers : who received the lively <sup>q</sup> oracles to give unto us ;

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 <sup>r</sup> Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us : for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then <sup>s</sup> God turned, and gave them up to worship <sup>t</sup> the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, <sup>u</sup> O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts, and sacrifices, by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them : and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, || speaking unto Moses, <sup>x</sup> that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

1 The church planted in Samaria by Philip: 26 he is sent to baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.

And <sup>a</sup> Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and <sup>b</sup> they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and <sup>c</sup> made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, <sup>d</sup> he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore <sup>e</sup> they that were scattered abroad; went every where preaching the word.

5 Then <sup>f</sup> Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For <sup>g</sup> unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which before-time in the same city <sup>h</sup> used sorcery and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one.

10 To whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with forceries.

12 But when they believed Philip, preaching the things <sup>i</sup> concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also : and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the † miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John.

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them <sup>k</sup> that they might receive the holy Ghost :

16 (For <sup>l</sup> as yet he was fallen upon none of them : only <sup>m</sup> they were baptized in <sup>n</sup> the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then <sup>o</sup> laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that, through laying on of the apostles hands, hands, the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot, read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? and he desired Philip that he would come up, and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away; and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

1 Saul, going to Damascus, is baptized by Ananias, 20 and preacheth Christ boldly.

AND Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus; and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without fight, and neither did eat nor drink.
 10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, <sup>8</sup> named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas, for <sup>one</sup> called Saul <sup>h</sup> of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting <sup>his</sup> hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, <sup>i</sup> how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to bind all <sup>k</sup> that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for <sup>l</sup> he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before <sup>m</sup> the Gentiles, and <sup>n</sup> kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For <sup>o</sup> I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And <sup>p</sup> Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and <sup>q</sup> putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest,) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and <sup>r</sup> be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales; and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, <sup>s</sup> that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard <sup>him</sup> were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him.

24 <sup>t</sup> But their laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and <sup>u</sup> let <sup>him</sup> down by the wall in a basket.

26 And <sup>x</sup> when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But <sup>y</sup> Barnabas took him, and brought <sup>him</sup> to the apostles, and declared unto them, how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And <sup>z</sup> he was with them coming in, and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the <sup>a</sup> Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed <sup>b</sup> throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and <sup>c</sup> Saron, saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called <sup>d</sup> Dorcas: this woman was full <sup>d</sup> of good works, and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass, in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid <sup>her</sup> in <sup>e</sup> an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring <sup>him</sup> that he would not || delay to come to them.

1 Cornelius sending for Peter. 34 Peter preacheth. 44 The holy Ghost falleth on the hearers: 48 they are baptized.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself, what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made enquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate,

A. D. 41.

There was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

Chap. 12.

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them.

g Chap. 15. 7.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

h Chap. 27. 12.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually:

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

9 On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour.

e Chapter 11. 5, 6.

Anno Dom. 26 But Peter took him up, saying, <sup>41.</sup>
 Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how <sup>k</sup> that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew, to keep company, or come unto one of another nation: but <sup>l</sup> God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainfaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, <sup>m</sup> a man stood before me <sup>n</sup> in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send-therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, <sup>o</sup> Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, <sup>p</sup> preaching peace by Jesus Christ, (<sup>q</sup> he is Lord of all;)

37 That word (I say) you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and <sup>r</sup> began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How <sup>s</sup> God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: <sup>t</sup> for God was with him.

39 And <sup>u</sup> we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him <sup>x</sup> God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 <sup>y</sup> Not to all the people, but unto witnesses, chosen before of God, even to us, <sup>z</sup> who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And <sup>a</sup> he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify <sup>b</sup> that it is he which was ordained of God, to be the Judge <sup>c</sup> of quick and dead.

43 <sup>d</sup> To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name, <sup>e</sup> whosoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, <sup>f</sup> the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision, which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost, <sup>g</sup> as well as we?

48 <sup>h</sup> And he commanded them to be baptized <sup>i</sup> in the name of the Lord. They prayed they him to tarry certain days.

Anno Domini 41.

10 And this was done three times : and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And <sup>f</sup> the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the mans house :

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter ;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, <sup>g</sup> as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, <sup>h</sup> John indeed baptized with water ; but <sup>i</sup> ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 <sup>k</sup> Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>l</sup> what was I that I could withstand God ?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 <sup>m</sup> Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And <sup>n</sup> the hand of the Lord was with them : and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem : and they sent forth <sup>o</sup> Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and <sup>p</sup> exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and <sup>q</sup> full of the holy Ghost, and of faith :

and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to <sup>r</sup> Tarsus, for to seek Saul :

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves || with the church, and taught much people ; and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, named <sup>s</sup> Agabus, and signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world : which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send <sup>t</sup> relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 <sup>u</sup> Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison ; but || prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains ; and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also <sup>g</sup> John to their minister. g Chap. 12. 25, &c. 15. 37.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But <sup>h</sup> Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. h Exodus 7. 11. 2 Tim. 3. 8.

11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckening with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people, when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that, he gave unto them judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this mans seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus:

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and <sup>b</sup> spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, <sup>c</sup> It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but <sup>d</sup> seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, <sup>e</sup> we turn to the Gentiles:

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted.

8 Paul healing a cripple, they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned.

21 They pass through divers churches, 26 and return to Antioch.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, <sup>a</sup> which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the <sup>b</sup> apostles.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment :

25 It seemed good unto us, being assenbled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul;

26 <sup>y</sup> Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by † mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 <sup>z</sup> That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and <sup>a</sup> from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle :

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the || consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let <sup>b</sup> go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city, where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them <sup>c</sup> John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, <sup>d</sup> who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, <sup>e</sup> being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria, and Cilicia, <sup>f</sup> confirming the churches.

1 Paul circumciseth Timothy, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination: 19 he and Silas are imprisoned.

Then came he to <sup>a</sup> Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, <sup>b</sup> named Timothy, <sup>c</sup> the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which <sup>d</sup> was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium:

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and <sup>e</sup> took and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep <sup>f</sup> that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And <sup>g</sup> so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the spirit suffered them not.

11 Therefore, looſing from Troas, we came with a ſtraight courſe to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

13 And on the † ſabbath we went out of the city by a river ſide, where prayer was wont to be made; and we ſat down, and ſpoke unto the women which reſorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a ſeller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worſhipped God, heard us : whoſe <sup>1</sup> heart the Lord opened, that the attended unto the things which were ſpoken of Paul.

15 And when ſhe was baptized, and her houſhold, ſhe beſought us, ſaying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my houſe, and abide there. And <sup>m</sup> ſhe conſtrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to paſs, as we went to prayer, a certain damſel, <sup>n</sup> poſſeſſed with a ſpirit of || divination, met us, which brought her maſters <sup>o</sup> much gain by ſoothſaying.

18 And this did ſhe many days. But Paul <sup>p</sup> being grieved, turned and ſaid to the ſpirit, I command thee in the name of Jeſus Chriſt to come out of her. <sup>q</sup> And he came out the ſame hour.

<sup>f</sup> Chap. 16. 20. 6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, <sup>f</sup> These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also;

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

11 These were more noble than those in Theſſalonica, in that they received the word with all readines of

<sup>i</sup> 12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, <sup>u</sup> we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art, and mans device.

30 And <sup>v</sup> the time of this ignorance God winked at, but <sup>w</sup> now commandeth all men every where to repent:

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth, 9 is encouraged in a vision, 12 accused before the deputy, but dismissed. 24 Of Apollos.

After these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome,) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, <sup>b</sup> and wrought; (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the jews and the Greeks.

5 And <sup>c</sup> when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul

8 <sup>i</sup> And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then <sup>k</sup> spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee; for I have much people in this city.

11 And he † continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat,

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, <sup>1</sup> If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took <sup>m</sup> Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having <sup>n</sup> shorn his head in <sup>o</sup> Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

The holy Ghoſt is given by Pauls hands.

And it came to paſs, that, while Apolloſ was at Corinth, Paul having paſſed through the upper coaſts, came to Ephelus; and finding certain diſciples,

2 He ſaid unto them, Have ye received the holy Ghoſt ſince ye believed? And they ſaid unto him, We have not ſo much as heard whether there be any holy Ghoſt.

3 And he ſaid unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they ſaid, Unto Johns baptiſm.

4 Then ſaid Paul, John, verily, baptized with the baptiſm of repentance, ſaying unto the people, That they ſhould believe on him which ſhould come after him, that is, on Chriſt Jeſus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jeſus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghoſt came on them; and they ſpoke with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the ſynagogue, and ſpoke boldly for the ſpace of three months, diſputing and perſuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but ſpoke evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and ſeparated the diſciples, diſputing daily in the ſchool of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the ſpace of two years; ſo that all they which dwelt in Aſia heard the word of the Lord Jeſus, both Jews and Greeks:

11 And God wrought ſpecial miracles by the hands of Paul;

12 So that from his body were brought unto the ſick, handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diſeaſes departed from them, and the evil ſpirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorciſts, took upon them to call over them which had evil ſpirits, the name of the Lord Jeſus, ſaying, We adjure you by Jeſus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were ſeven ſons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the prieſts, which did ſo.

15 And the evil ſpirit answered and ſaid, Jeſus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man, in whom the evil ſpirit was, leapt on them, and overcame them, and prevailed againſt them, ſo that they fled out of that houſe naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks alſo dwelling at Ephelus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jeſus was magnified.

when he had passed through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

20 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

21 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way:

22 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

23 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth:

24 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be no gods which are made with hands:

25 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia, and the world worshippeth.

26 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

27 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

28 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

29 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

30 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

31 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckened with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

32 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice, about the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesses.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies; let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this days uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

1 Paul went to Macedonia: 7 he celebrated the Lords supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus, killed by a fall, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletus Paul committeth the flock to the elders, 36 and prayeth.

And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These, going before, tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days, where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto

8 And there were many lights <sup>h</sup> in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

1 Kings 17. 21. 2 Kings 4. 34. k Meech. 9. 24.

10 And Paul went down, and <sup>i</sup> fell on him, and embracing him, said, <sup>k</sup> Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for <sup>l</sup> he hastened, if it were possible for him, <sup>m</sup> to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, <sup>n</sup> from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons.

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which beset me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how <sup>o</sup> I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house;

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, <sup>p</sup> repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, <sup>q</sup> I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall beset me there:

23 Save that <sup>r</sup> the holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions <sup>r</sup> abide me

24 But <sup>s</sup> none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, <sup>t</sup> so that I might finish my course with joy, <sup>u</sup> and the ministry <sup>x</sup> which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, <sup>y</sup> I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am <sup>z</sup> pure from the blood of all men.

27 For <sup>a</sup> I have not shunned to declare unto you all <sup>b</sup> the counsel of God.

28 ¶ <sup>c</sup> Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the holy Ghost <sup>d</sup> hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, <sup>e</sup> which he hath purchased <sup>f</sup> with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing <sup>g</sup> shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also <sup>h</sup> of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that <sup>i</sup> by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and <sup>k</sup> to the word of his grace, which is able <sup>l</sup> to build you up, and to give you <sup>m</sup> an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 <sup>n</sup> I have coveted no mans silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, you yourselves know, <sup>o</sup> that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, <sup>p</sup> how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give, than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he <sup>q</sup> kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him:

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words <sup>r</sup> which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Paul will not be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philips daughters, prophetesses. 17 Paul at Jerusalem, 27 is apprehended, 31 but is rescued by the chief captain.

And it came to pass, that, after we were gotten from them, and had lanch'd, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sail'd into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days; a who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed, and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and b we knee'd down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned c home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Pauls company departed, and came unto Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Phillip d the evangelist, (e which was one of the seven,) and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, f which did prophely.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named g Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Pauls girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, h So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, i What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, k The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea. and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto l James; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles m by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe, and they are all n zealous of the law.

21 And they are informed of thee that thou teachest all the Jews, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: we have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may o have their heads: and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee are nothing, but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepst the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, p we have written and concluded, that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from frangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, q entered into the temple, r to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, <sup>a</sup> the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and <sup>b</sup> laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and farther, <sup>c</sup> brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, <sup>d</sup> Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And <sup>e</sup> all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar;

32 Who immediately took soldiers, and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near and took him, and <sup>f</sup> commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was born of the soldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, <sup>g</sup> Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 <sup>h</sup> Art not thou that Egyptian which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, <sup>i</sup> I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and

<sup>j</sup> beckened with the hand unto the people: and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

C H A P. XXII.

1 Paul declareth his conversion, 17 and calling to the apostleship.

MEN, <sup>a</sup> brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 <sup>b</sup> I am, verily, a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city, <sup>c</sup> at the feet of <sup>d</sup> Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and <sup>e</sup> was zealous towards God, <sup>f</sup> as ye all are this day.

4 <sup>g</sup> And I persecuted <sup>h</sup> this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and <sup>i</sup> all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And <sup>k</sup> it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 And <sup>l</sup> they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And <sup>m</sup> one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, <sup>n</sup> having a good report of all the <sup>o</sup> Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

Anno Dom. 60. 14 And he said, The God of our fathers <sup>p</sup> hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and <sup>q</sup> see <sup>r</sup> that just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men, of <sup>s</sup> what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now, why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, <sup>t</sup> and wash away thy sins, <sup>u</sup> calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And <sup>x</sup> it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, <sup>y</sup> Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, <sup>z</sup> they know that I imprisoned, and <sup>a</sup> beat in every synagogue, them that believed on thee.

20 <sup>b</sup> And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and <sup>c</sup> consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: <sup>d</sup> for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, <sup>e</sup> Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that <sup>f</sup> he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, <sup>g</sup> Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest; for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have || examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he looked him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Paul pleadeth his cause: 7 Dissension among his accusers: 27 he is sent to Felix.

And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, <sup>a</sup> I have lived in all good conscience before God, until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him <sup>b</sup> to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall; for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and <sup>c</sup> commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou Gods high priest?

5 Then said Paul, <sup>d</sup> I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, <sup>e</sup> Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, <sup>f</sup> I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: <sup>g</sup> of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 <sup>h</sup> For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, <sup>i</sup> We find no evil in this man: but <sup>k</sup> if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, <sup>l</sup> let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

n Verses 21, 30.

|| Or, with an oath of excommunication.

good cheer, Paul; for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, <sup>a</sup> certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves || under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye, with the council, signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him; and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pauls sisters son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

2 Ver. 11.

20 And he said, <sup>o</sup> The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night.

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias, unto the most excellent governor Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 <sup>b</sup> This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

n Chap. 21. 33.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council;

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle;

33 Who when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods judgment-hall.

C H A P. XXIV.

I Paul, accused by Tertullus, 10 answereth for himself, 24 preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife: 27 he, going out of his office, leaveth Paul in prison:

And after <sup>a</sup> five days, <sup>b</sup> Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

Anno Dom. 60.

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes :

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple ; whom we took, and would have judged according to our law :

7 But the chief captain Lyfias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers for come unto thee : by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckened unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself :

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city :

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, we worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and the prophets :

15 And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult :

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lyfias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister, or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time ; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him : wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years, Portius Festus came into Felix room : and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Paul, accused before Festus, 8 answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Cesar, &c.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest, and the chief of the Jews, informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them || more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea, and the next day, sitting in the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove;

8 While he answered for himself, <sup>a</sup> Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, <sup>b</sup> willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 <sup>c</sup> For if I be an offender, or have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. <sup>d</sup> I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Pauls cause unto the king, saying, <sup>e</sup> There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow, I sat on the judgment-seat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth;

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because || I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the || hearing of Augustus. I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then <sup>f</sup> Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought <sup>g</sup> not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that <sup>h</sup> he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

after <sup>a</sup> the most straitest se<sup>t</sup> of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of <sup>b</sup> the promise made of God unto our fathers :

7 Unto which promise <sup>c</sup> our twelve tribes, instantly serving God <sup>d</sup> † day and night, hope to come; for which hopes sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I, verily, thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 <sup>e</sup> Which thing I also did in Jerusalem : and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority <sup>f</sup> from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 <sup>g</sup> And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 <sup>h</sup> Whereupon as I went to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet : for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 <sup>i</sup> To open their eyes, and <sup>k</sup> to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and <sup>l</sup> inheritance among them which are <sup>m</sup> sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision :

20 But <sup>n</sup> shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do <sup>o</sup> works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes <sup>p</sup> the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witness both to small and great, saying none other things than those <sup>q</sup> which the prophets and <sup>r</sup> Moses did say should come;

23 That Christ should suffer, and <sup>s</sup> that he should be the first that should rise <sup>t</sup> from the dead, and <sup>u</sup> should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, <sup>v</sup> thou art beside thyself: much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely : for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, <sup>x</sup> I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, <sup>y</sup> This man doth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, <sup>z</sup> if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

4 And when we had lanchod from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under || Crete, over against Salmone :

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called, The fair haven, nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, <sup>d</sup> because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, d The Fast was on the tenth Day of the seventh Month. Leviticus 23. 27. 29.

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with || hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

|| Or,

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west, and north-west.

13 And when the south-wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there || arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

|| Or,

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island, which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat :

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quick sands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day <sup>e</sup> we cast out <sup>e</sup> with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

e Jonah

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer : for there shall be no loss of any mans life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul ; thou must be brought before Cesar : and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good cheer : for I believe God that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit <sup>f</sup> we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country ;

28 And founded, and found it twenty fathoms : and when they had gone a little further, they founded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then, fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, we cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the Soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoisted up the main-sail to the wind, and made toward shore.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

17 And it came to pass, that, after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the ROMANS.

CHAP. I.

Pauls calling commended: 16 what his gospel is. 18 Gods anger at sin.

PAUL a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,
2 Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead;

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name;

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ;

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,
10 Making request, (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey, by the will of God,) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the barbarians, both to the wife, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that that believeth, <sup>b</sup> to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For <sup>c</sup> therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, <sup>d</sup> The just shall live by faith.

18 <sup>e</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.

19 Because <sup>f</sup> that which may be known of God is manifest <sup>g</sup> in them; for <sup>h</sup> God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For <sup>h</sup> the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; || so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but <sup>i</sup> became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible <sup>k</sup> God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 <sup>l</sup> Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, <sup>m</sup> to dishonour their own bodies <sup>n</sup> between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God <sup>o</sup> into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature || more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto <sup>p</sup> vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men, working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 <sup>q</sup> And even as they did not like || to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to || a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, cov-nant breakers, || without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who, knowing the judgment of God, (that they which commit such things are worthy of death,) not only do the same, but || have pleasure in them that do them.

C H A P. II.

They that condemn sin in others, and yet sin, are inexcusable, whether Jews or Gentiles.

Therefore thou art <sup>a</sup> inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: <sup>b</sup> for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest, dost the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and dost the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou <sup>c</sup> the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and <sup>d</sup> long-suffering; <sup>e</sup> not knowing <sup>f</sup> that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, <sup>g</sup> treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 <sup>h</sup> Who will render to every man according to his deeds;

7 To them who, by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life;

8 But unto them that are contentious, and <sup>i</sup> do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath;

9 Tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man that doth evil, of the Jew <sup>k</sup> first, and also of the <sup>l</sup> Gentile:

10 <sup>m</sup> But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the <sup>n</sup> Gentile.

11 For <sup>o</sup> there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law,

having not the law, are a law unto themselves :

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, || their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts || the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another, )

16 ° In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men <sup>p</sup> by Jesus Christ, <sup>q</sup> according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and <sup>r</sup> retest in the law, <sup>s</sup> and makest thy boast of God ;

18 And knowest his will, and || <sup>t</sup> approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law ;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness ;

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, " which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 * Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preacheest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that <sup>y</sup> makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is <sup>z</sup> written.

25 For circumcision, verily, profiteth, if thou keep the law : but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For <sup>a</sup> he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly ; neither <sup>b</sup> is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh :

29 But he <sup>c</sup> is a Jew, <sup>d</sup> which is one inwardly ; and <sup>e</sup> circumcision is that of the heart, <sup>f</sup> and in the spirit, and not in the letter ; <sup>g</sup> whose praise <sup>h</sup> is not of men, but of God.

C H A P . III.

1 The Jews prerogative. 20 None justified by the law, 28 but all by faith.

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit <sup>i</sup> is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way : chiefly, because that <sup>a</sup> unto them were committed the Oracles of God.

3 For what if <sup>b</sup> some did not believe? <sup>c</sup> shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid : yea, let <sup>d</sup> God be true, but <sup>e</sup> every man a liar ; as it is written, <sup>f</sup> That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? <sup>g</sup> Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man,)

6 God forbid : for then <sup>h</sup> how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory ; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not <sup>i</sup> rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, ) Let us do evil that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better <sup>j</sup> than they? No, in no wise : for we have before <sup>k</sup> proved both Jews and Gentiles, that <sup>l</sup> they are all under sin ;

10 As it is written, <sup>m</sup> There is none righteous, no not one ;

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable ; there is none that doth good, no not one.

13 <sup>n</sup> Their throat is an open sepulchre : with their tongues they have used deceit ; <sup>o</sup> the poison of Asps is under their lips :

14 <sup>p</sup> Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 <sup>q</sup> Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways ;

17 And the way of peace have they not known.

18 <sup>r</sup> There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever <sup>s</sup> the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law : that <sup>t</sup> every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become || guilty before God.

20 Therefore <sup>u</sup> by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight : for <sup>v</sup> by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now <sup>r</sup> the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and <sup>u</sup> the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God, <sup>v</sup> which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe; for <sup>x</sup> there is no difference:

23 For <sup>y</sup> all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely <sup>z</sup> by his grace, <sup>a</sup> through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

25 Whom God hath <sup>b</sup> set forth <sup>c</sup> to be a propitiation, through faith <sup>e</sup> in his blood, to declare his righteousness <sup>d</sup> for the <sup>h</sup> remission of <sup>e</sup> sins that are past, through the forbearance of God:

26 To declare, <sup>i</sup> I say, at this time his righteousness; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 <sup>f</sup> Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude <sup>g</sup> that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 <sup>h</sup> Is he the God of the Jews only? <sup>i</sup> is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing <sup>j</sup> it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

C H A P. IV.

Abrahams faith was imputed to him for righteousness.

What shall we say then that <sup>k</sup> Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were <sup>l</sup> justified by works, he hath <sup>m</sup> whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what faith the scripture? <sup>n</sup> Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now <sup>o</sup> to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 <sup>p</sup> Saying, <sup>q</sup> blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose fins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 <sup>r</sup> Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision <sup>s</sup> only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And <sup>t</sup> he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which <sup>u</sup> he had yet being uncircumcised: that <sup>v</sup> he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which <sup>w</sup> he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the <sup>x</sup> heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For <sup>y</sup> if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because <sup>z</sup> the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, <sup>a</sup> there is no transgression.

16 Therefore <sup>b</sup> it is of faith, that it <sup>c</sup> might be <sup>d</sup> by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, <sup>e</sup> who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, <sup>f</sup> I have made thee a father of many nations,) <sup>g</sup> before him whom he believed, <sup>h</sup> even God, who quickeneth the dead, and <sup>i</sup> calleth those things which be not as though they were:

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, <sup>j</sup> So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, <sup>k</sup> he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Saras womb.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God:

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, <sup>l</sup> he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead,

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 12 Sin and death came by Adam.

Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace, wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son: much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.

13 For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come:

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one, many be dead; much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one mans offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation: even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover, the law entered, that the offence might abound: But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

1 We may not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it, 12 nor let sin reign in us. 23 The wages of sin.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid: how shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized unto Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth, 4 but we are dead to the law. 7 Yet the law is not sin, 12 but holy, just, and good.

K Now ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For a the woman, which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then b if while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become c dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should d bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the † motions of sins which were by the law, e did work in our members f to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, || that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve g in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, h I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known || lust, except the law had said, i Thou shalt not covet.

8 But k sin taking occasion by the commandment wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For l without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment m which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore, n the law is holy; and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ° fold under sin.
15 For that which I do, I † allow not: for p what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that a in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, after r the inward man.

23 But s I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from || the body of this death?

25 I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh, the law of sin.

C H A P. VIII.

I Who are free from condemnation.

5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being Gods children.

¶ Here is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who a walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For b the law of c the Spirit of life, in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son; in the likeness of sinful flesh, and || for sin condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For d they that are after the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, e the things of the Spirit.

6 For f † to be carnally minded is death; but † to be spiritually minded is life and peace:

7 Because † the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, g neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that h the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not i the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sin; but the Spirit is life, because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of k him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you; l he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies, || by his spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For m if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye, through the Spirit, n do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For o as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For p ye have not received the spirit of bondage again q to fear; but ye have received the r spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, s Abba, Father.

16 t The Spirit itself beareth witness with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs; u heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ: v if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that w the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For z the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for a the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that || the whole creation b groaneth, and travaileth in pain together until now:

23 And not only they, but ourselves also which have c the first-fruits of the Spirit; d even we ourselves groan within within ourselves, waiting<sup>e</sup> for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope. But hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man feeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for he knoweth not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth:

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, ye rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 (As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long: we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.)

37 Nay in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

C H A P. IX.

1 Pauls sorrow for the Jews. 7 All Abrahams seed were not the children of the promise. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejection of the Jews.

1<sup>a</sup> Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the holy Ghost,

2<sup>b</sup> That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen, according to the flesh:

4<sup>d</sup> Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants; and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all God blessed for ever. Amen.

6<sup>1</sup> Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7<sup>n</sup> Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.

10 And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac,

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth,) 12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

24 Even us whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he saith also in Osee, <sup>h</sup> I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her, beloved, which was not beloved.

26 <sup>i</sup> And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, <sup>k</sup> Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, <sup>l</sup> a remnant shall be saved.

28 For he will finish || the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, <sup>m</sup> Except the Lord of sabaoth had left us a seed; <sup>n</sup> we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, <sup>o</sup> even the righteousness which is of faith;

31 But Israel, <sup>p</sup> which followed after the law of righteousness, <sup>q</sup> hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for <sup>r</sup> they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, <sup>s</sup> Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: and <sup>t</sup> whosoever believeth on him, shall not be || ashamed.

C H A P. X.

5 The difference of the righteousness of the law, and that of faith. 11 No believers shall be confounded, whether Jew or Gentile.

Rethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, <sup>a</sup> that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of <sup>b</sup> Gods righteousness, and going about to establish their own <sup>c</sup> righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For <sup>d</sup> Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, <sup>e</sup> That the man which doth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, <sup>f</sup> Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is to bring Christ down from above;)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? <sup>g</sup> The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is the word of faith which we preach,

9 That <sup>h</sup> if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, <sup>i</sup> Whosoever believeth on him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For <sup>k</sup> there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for <sup>l</sup> the same Lord over all, <sup>m</sup> is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 <sup>n</sup> For whosoever shall call <sup>o</sup> upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed thy report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

God hath not cast off all Israel.

7 There were elected, though some were hardened. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them.

I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded:

8 According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of blindness, and eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this day.

9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap: and a stumbling-block, and a reproach unto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you, Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world; what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in amongst them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;

18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee,

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these which be the natural branches be grafted into their own olive-tree?

Anno Dom. 60.

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery (left ye should be wise in your own conceits) that || blindness in part is happened to Israel, <sup>y</sup> until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, <sup>z</sup> There shall come out of Zion the deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are <sup>a</sup> without repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not || believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not || believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For <sup>b</sup> God hath || concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! <sup>c</sup> how unsearchable are his judgments, and <sup>d</sup> his ways past finding out!

34 <sup>e</sup> For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or <sup>f</sup> who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or <sup>g</sup> who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For <sup>h</sup> of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to <sup>i</sup> whom be glory for ever. Amen.

C H A P. XII.

Gods mercies must move us to please God. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

I <sup>a</sup> Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, <sup>b</sup> that ye <sup>c</sup> present your bodies <sup>d</sup> a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And <sup>e</sup> be not conformed to this world: but <sup>f</sup> be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may <sup>g</sup> prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, <sup>h</sup> through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, <sup>i</sup> not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think † soberly, according as God hath dealt <sup>k</sup> to every man the measure of faith.

4 For <sup>l</sup> as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So <sup>m</sup> we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 <sup>n</sup> Having then gifts, differing <sup>o</sup> according to the grace that is given to us, whether <sup>p</sup> prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or <sup>q</sup> he that teacheth, on teaching;

9 <sup>x</sup> Let love be without dissimulation. <sup>y</sup> Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good.

10 <sup>z</sup> Be kindly affectioned one to another || with brotherly love, <sup>a</sup> in honour preferring one another:

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 <sup>b</sup> Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; <sup>c</sup> continuing instant in prayer;

13 <sup>d</sup> Distributing to the necessity of saints; <sup>e</sup> given to hospitality.

14 <sup>f</sup> Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 <sup>g</sup> Be of the same mind one towards another. <sup>h</sup> Mind not high things, but || condescend to men of low estate. <sup>i</sup> Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 <sup>k</sup> Recompense to no man evil for evil. <sup>l</sup> Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, <sup>m</sup> live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, <sup>n</sup> avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, <sup>o</sup> Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 <sup>p</sup> Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

1 Of duties to magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Against gluttony, drunkenness, &c.

1 Et every soul <sup>a</sup> be subject unto the higher powers. For <sup>b</sup> there is no power but of God: the powers that be are <sup>c</sup> ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth <sup>c</sup> the power, resisteth the ordinance of God; and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and <sup>d</sup> thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil.

5 Wherefore <sup>e</sup> ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, <sup>f</sup> but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are Gods ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for <sup>h</sup> he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, <sup>i</sup> Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if <sup>j</sup> there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, <sup>k</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore <sup>l</sup> love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now <sup>m</sup> it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

13 <sup>p</sup> Let us walk <sup>q</sup> honestly as in the day; <sup>r</sup> not in rioting and drunkenness, <sup>s</sup> not in chambering and wantonness, <sup>t</sup> not in strife and envying;

14 But <sup>u</sup> put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and <sup>v</sup> make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

C H A P. XIV.

3 Men may not contend nor condemn one another for things indifferent; <sup>13</sup> but take heed of the giving offence in them.

1 Him that is <sup>a</sup> weak in the faith receive you, <sup>b</sup> but <sup>c</sup> not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 <sup>b</sup> Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 <sup>c</sup> Who art thou that judgest another mans servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: yea, he shall be holden up; for God is able to make him stand.

5 <sup>d</sup> One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be <sup>e</sup> fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that <sup>e</sup> regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for <sup>f</sup> he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For <sup>g</sup> none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lords.

9 For <sup>h</sup> to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for <sup>i</sup> we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, <sup>k</sup> As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then <sup>l</sup> every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge thus rather, that <sup>m</sup> no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall in his brothers way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, <sup>n</sup> that there is nothing unclean of itself: but <sup>o</sup> to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean, 26 For <sup>c</sup> it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

3 Paul sendeth greeting to many, 21 and endeth with praise and thanks.

I Commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at <sup>a</sup> Cenchrea ;

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, <sup>b</sup> as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you : for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet <sup>c</sup> Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus :

4 (Who have for my life laid down their own necks ; unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.)

5 Likewise greet <sup>d</sup> the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is <sup>e</sup> the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinsmen and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also <sup>f</sup> were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus || household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the || household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Peris, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus <sup>e</sup> chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Afyneritus, Philegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 <sup>h</sup> Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned ; and <sup>i</sup> avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but <sup>k</sup> their own belly ; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For <sup>l</sup> your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf : but yet I would have you <sup>m</sup> wise unto that which is good, and || simple concerning evil.

20 And <sup>n</sup> the God of peace <sup>o</sup> shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. <sup>p</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>be</sup> with you. Amen.

¶ The First Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth to unity, 12 and reproveth their dissensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but * Crispus and <sup>y</sup> Gaius;

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of <sup>z</sup> Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: <sup>a</sup> not with wisdom of || words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to <sup>b</sup> them that perish foolishness: but unto us <sup>c</sup> which are saved, it is the <sup>d</sup> power of God

19 For it is written, <sup>e</sup> I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 <sup>f</sup> Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? <sup>g</sup> hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 <sup>h</sup> For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the <sup>i</sup> Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, <sup>k</sup> unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks, foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ <sup>l</sup> the power of God, and <sup>m</sup> the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that <sup>n</sup> not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called.

27 But <sup>o</sup> God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, <sup>c</sup> to them that <sup>d</sup> are sanctified in Christ Jesus, <sup>e</sup> called to be saints, with all that in every place <sup>f</sup> call upon the name of Jesus Christ <sup>g</sup> our Lord, both theirs and ours.

3 <sup>h</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 <sup>i</sup> I thank my God always, on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him; <sup>k</sup> in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as <sup>l</sup> the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behind in no gift: <sup>m</sup> waiting for the <sup>n</sup> coming of our Lord Jesus Christ;

8 <sup>o</sup> Who shall also confirm you unto the end, <sup>p</sup> that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 <sup>q</sup> God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto <sup>r</sup> the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no <sup>s</sup> divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, <sup>t</sup> that every one of you faith, I am of Paul, and I of <sup>u</sup> Apollos, and I of <sup>v</sup> Cephas, and I of Christ.

CHAP. III.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

4 And my speech, and my preaching, was not with enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the spirit, and of power:

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

a Hebrews 5. 12. 1 Pet. 2. 2.

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for where as there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

6 Howbeit, we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought.

t Cr. according to mans. c Chap. 1. 12.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world unto our glory;

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

6 I have planted, Apollos watered: but God gave the increase.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

i 1 Peter 4. 11.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

11 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

ii For 4. 11.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, than <sup>k</sup> that is laid, <sup>l</sup> which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 <sup>m</sup> Every mans work shall be made manifest: for the day <sup>n</sup> shall declare it, because <sup>o</sup> it <sup>p</sup> shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every mans work, of what sort it is.

14 If any mans work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any mans work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved; yet so, as by fire.

16 <sup>q</sup> Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man <sup>r</sup> defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 <sup>s</sup> Let no man deceive himself: If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, <sup>t</sup> He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, <sup>u</sup> The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours:

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And <sup>v</sup> ye are Christs; and Christ is Gods.

C H A P. IV.

1 How to account of ministers. 7 We have nothing but what we have received. 15 The apostles are our fathers in Christ.

Let a man so account of us, as of <sup>w</sup> the ministers of Christ, and <sup>x</sup> stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing, that I should be judged of you, or of mans <sup>y</sup> judgment: yea, I judge not mine ownself.

4 For I know nothing by myself, <sup>z</sup> yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 <sup>a</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have <sup>b</sup> praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, <sup>c</sup> I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of ye be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who <sup>d</sup> maketh thee to differ from another? and <sup>e</sup> what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, <sup>f</sup> now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth <sup>g</sup> us the apostles last, <sup>h</sup> as it were appointed to death. For <sup>i</sup> we are made a <sup>j</sup> spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 <sup>k</sup> We are <sup>l</sup> fools for Christs sake, but ye <sup>m</sup> are wise in Christ: <sup>n</sup> we are weak, but ye <sup>o</sup> are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 <sup>p</sup> Even unto this present hour, we both hunger and thirst, and <sup>q</sup> are naked, and <sup>r</sup> are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 <sup>s</sup> And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 <sup>t</sup> Being defamed, we intreat: <sup>u</sup> we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but <sup>v</sup> as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for <sup>w</sup> in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, <sup>x</sup> be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you <sup>y</sup> Timotheus, <sup>z</sup> who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you <sup>a</sup> into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I <sup>b</sup> teach every where <sup>c</sup> in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 <sup>d</sup> But I will come to you shortly, <sup>e</sup> if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

C H A P. V.

1 The incestuous person. 7 The old leaven must be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be avoided.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named amongst the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.

3 For I, verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed;

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying is not good: Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us.

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one, no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without, God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

1 Go not to law with the brethren.
16 Our bodies are Christs members.

ARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do not ye know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge, who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another: why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Benot deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doth is without the body: but he that committeth fornication sinneth <sup>p</sup> against his own body.

19 What? <sup>q</sup> know ye not that your body is the temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 For <sup>r</sup> ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit which are Gods.

C H A P. VII.

2 He treateth of marriage, 4 shewing it to be a remedy against fornication.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me; <sup>a</sup> It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 <sup>b</sup> Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 <sup>c</sup> Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that <sup>d</sup> Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, <sup>e</sup> and not of commandment.

7 For <sup>f</sup> I would that all men were <sup>g</sup> even as I myself: but <sup>h</sup> every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, <sup>i</sup> It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But <sup>k</sup> if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, <sup>l</sup> yet not I, but the Lord, <sup>m</sup> Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I; <sup>n</sup> not the Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: <sup>o</sup> else <sup>p</sup> were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us <sup>q</sup> to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt <sup>r</sup> save thy husband? or <sup>s</sup> how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk: and <sup>t</sup> fo ordain I in all churches:

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him <sup>u</sup> not become uncircumcised: is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.

19 <sup>v</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but <sup>w</sup> the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is <sup>x</sup> the Lords <sup>y</sup> free-man; likewise also he that is called being free, is <sup>z</sup> Christs servant.

23 <sup>aa</sup> Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, <sup>ab</sup> I have no commandment of the Lord; yet I give my judgment as one <sup>ac</sup> that hath obtained mercy of the Lord <sup>ad</sup> to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore, that this is good for the present || distrefs, I say, <sup>ae</sup> that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. <sup>h</sup> He that is unmarried, careth for the things † that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please <sup>his</sup> wife.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for some <sup>m</sup> with conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it is a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is <sup>n</sup> defiled. || Or, k John 12. 13. Chapter 13. 3. Eph. 4. 5. Phil. 2. 15. 1 John 1. 3. Col. 1. 16. Heb. 1. 7.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman <sup>h</sup> careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please <sup>her</sup> husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not; let them marry.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge sit at meat <sup>r</sup> in the idols temple, shall not <sup>t</sup> the conscience of him which is weak be † emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; r Rom. 14. 13, 20. t Corin. 11. 29.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that giveth <sup>her</sup> in marriage doth well: but he that giveth <sup>her</sup> not in marriage doth better.

12 But when ye sin <sup>so</sup> against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

39 <sup>i</sup> The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

4 <sup>d</sup> Have we not power to eat and to drink ?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a || wife, as well as other apostles, and as <sup>c</sup> the brethren of the Lord, and <sup>e</sup> Cephas ?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, <sup>g</sup> have not we power to forbear working ?

7 Who <sup>h</sup> goeth a warfare any time at his own charges ? who <sup>i</sup> planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof ? or who <sup>k</sup> feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock ?

8 Say I these things as a man ? or faith not the law the same also ?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, <sup>l</sup> Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen ?

10 Or faith he it altogether for our sakes ? for our sakes, no doubt, this is written : that <sup>m</sup> he that ploweth should plow in hope ; and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 <sup>n</sup> If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things ?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather ? <sup>b</sup> Nevertheless, we have not used this power ; but suffer all things, <sup>p</sup> lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 <sup>q</sup> Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things, || live of the things of the temple ? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar ?

14 Even so <sup>r</sup> hath the Lord ordained, <sup>s</sup> that they which preach the gospel, should live of the gospel.

15 But <sup>t</sup> I have used none of these things ; neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me : for <sup>u</sup> it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of : for <sup>v</sup> necessity is laid upon me ; yea, wo is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward : but if against my will, <sup>y</sup> a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then ? verily, that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have <sup>z</sup> I made myself servant unto all, <sup>a</sup> that I might gain the more.

20 And <sup>b</sup> unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews ; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law.

21 <sup>c</sup> To <sup>d</sup> them that are without law, as without law, (<sup>e</sup> being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 <sup>f</sup> To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak. <sup>g</sup> I am made all things to all men, <sup>h</sup> that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize ? <sup>i</sup> So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that <sup>k</sup> striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things : now, they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we <sup>l</sup> an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly ; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air :

27 <sup>m</sup> But I keep under my body, and <sup>n</sup> bring it into subjection ; lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under <sup>a</sup> the cloud, and all passed through <sup>b</sup> the sea ;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea ;

3 And did all eat the same <sup>c</sup> spiritual meat ;

4 And did all drink the same <sup>d</sup> spiritual drink ; (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that || followed them : and that Rock was Christ.)

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased : for they <sup>e</sup> were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were <sup>f</sup> our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as <sup>g</sup> they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them ; as it is written, <sup>h</sup> The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have || power on her head, m because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman: but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves; is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a || covering.

16 But n if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, o neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that you come together, not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, p I hear that there be || divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For q there must be also || heresies among you, r that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, || this is not to eat the Lords supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and s another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and t shame || them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For u I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, x That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body which is broken for you: this do || in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, || ye do shew the Lords death y till he come.

27 z Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But a let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh || damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For b if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, c we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man d hunger, let him eat at e home; that ye come not together unto || condemnation. And the rest f will I set in order when b I come.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Spiritual gifts are divers, 7 yet all to profit withal, 8 and to that end are diversly bestowed.

NOW, a concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know b that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, c that no man, speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus || accursed: and d that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now e there are diversities of gifts, but f the same Spirit.

5 g And there are diversities of || ministrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God h which worketh all in all.

7 i But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another k the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 l To another faith by the same Spirit; to another m the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 n To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; o to another discerning of spirits; to another p divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, <sup>a</sup> dividing to every man severally <sup>r</sup> as he will.

12 For <sup>s</sup> as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, <sup>a</sup> are one body: <sup>c</sup> so also is Christ.

13 For <sup>n</sup> by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, <sup>x</sup> whether we be Jews or † Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and <sup>y</sup> have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath <sup>z</sup> God set the members, every one of them in the body, <sup>a</sup> as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we || bestow more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need; but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no || schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now <sup>b</sup> ye are the body of Christ, and <sup>c</sup> members in particular.

28 And <sup>d</sup> God hath set some in the church, first apostles, <sup>e</sup> secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings,

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But <sup>h</sup> covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

C H A P. XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity: 4 its praises.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of a prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, <sup>b</sup> so that I could remove mountains, and have no charity, I am nothing.

3 And <sup>c</sup> though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 <sup>d</sup> Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity || vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, <sup>e</sup> seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil,

6 <sup>f</sup> Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but <sup>g</sup> rejoiceth || in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I was understood as a child, I || thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For <sup>h</sup> now we see through a glass † darkly; but then <sup>i</sup> face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

1 Prophecy commended, 2, 3, 4, and preferred before speaking with tongues.

d Gr. Acaroth.

Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you, either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian: and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou, verily, givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than you all.

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues, and other lips, will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all;

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest: and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home; for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

C H A P. XV.

3 By Christs resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection: 21 the fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and the change of them that shall be alive then.

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory that I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain:

For I delivered unto you, first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the scriptures;

And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.

After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace, which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen;

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God: because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up; if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christs at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

29 Else what shall they do, which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And <sup>h</sup> why stand we in jeopardy every way?

31 I protest by || <sup>i</sup> your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>k</sup> I die daily.

32 If || after the manner of men <sup>l</sup> I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? <sup>m</sup> let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 <sup>n</sup> Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: <sup>o</sup> I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, <sup>p</sup> How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, <sup>q</sup> that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.

38 But God giveth it a body, as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 <sup>r</sup> So also is the resurrection of the dead: <sup>s</sup> it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown <sup>t</sup> in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam <sup>u</sup> was made a living soul, the last Adam was made <sup>v</sup> a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 <sup>z</sup> The first man is of the earth, <sup>a</sup> earthy; the second man is the Lord <sup>b</sup> from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, <sup>c</sup> such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And <sup>d</sup> as we have born the image of the earthy, <sup>e</sup> we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now thus I say, brethren, that <sup>f</sup> flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; <sup>g</sup> We shall not all sleep, <sup>h</sup> but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last <sup>i</sup> trump; (for the trumpet shall sound,) and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and <sup>k</sup> this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, <sup>l</sup> Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 <sup>m</sup> O death, where is thy sting? O || grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and <sup>n</sup> the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us <sup>o</sup> the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 <sup>p</sup> Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: (for I do pass through Macedonia:)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey, whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apolos, I greatly desired him to come unto you, with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul, with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be anathema, maran-atha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Second Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, 12 and sheweth the sincerity of his preaching, &c.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead;

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver; in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed flowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity, and godly sincerity, <sup>k</sup> not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what you read or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, <sup>l</sup> that we are your rejoicing, even as <sup>m</sup> ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have <sup>n</sup> a second || benefit ;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and <sup>o</sup> to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay ?

18 But as God is true, our || word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and <sup>p</sup> hath anointed us, is God :

22 Who <sup>q</sup> hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, <sup>r</sup> I call God for a record upon my soul, <sup>s</sup> that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for <sup>t</sup> that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for <sup>x</sup> by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

1 The reason of his not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicated person. 14 The success of his preaching in every place.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came <sup>a</sup> I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice, <sup>b</sup> having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction, and anguish of heart, I wrote unto you with many tears; not that you should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But <sup>c</sup> if any have caused grief, he hath not <sup>d</sup> grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this || punishment, which was inflicted <sup>e</sup> of many.

7 So that, contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you, that ye would confirm your love towards him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be <sup>f</sup> obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it, || in the person of Christ ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, <sup>g</sup> when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and <sup>h</sup> a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not <sup>i</sup> Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest <sup>k</sup> the favour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet favour of Christ, <sup>l</sup> in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

16 <sup>m</sup> To the one we are the favour of death unto death; and to the other the favour of life unto life: and <sup>n</sup> who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which || <sup>o</sup> corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we || in Christ.

you, or letters of commendation from you?

2<sup>c</sup> Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: 3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, 4 minitred by us, written, not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not <sup>c</sup> in tables of stone, but <sup>r</sup> in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward.

5<sup>u</sup> Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves: but <sup>u</sup> our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able <sup>k</sup> ministers of <sup>k</sup> the new testament, not <sup>i</sup> of the letter, but of the spirit: for <sup>m</sup> the letter killeth, <sup>a</sup> but the spirit || giveth life.

7 But if <sup>o</sup> the ministration of death, <sup>p</sup> written and engraven in stones, was glorious, <sup>u</sup> so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which <sup>g</sup> glory was to be done away,

8 How shall not <sup>r</sup> the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration <sup>o</sup> of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, <sup>c</sup> we use great || plainness of speech.

13 And not as Moses, <sup>u</sup> which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to <sup>u</sup> the end of that which is abolished.

14 But <sup>r</sup> their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away, in the reading of the old testament; which <sup>v</sup> veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, <sup>z</sup> when it shall turn to the Lord, <sup>a</sup> the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all with open face beholding <sup>b</sup> as in a glass <sup>c</sup> the glory of the Lord, <sup>d</sup> are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as || by the Spirit of the Lord.

C H A P. IV.

1 Pauls sincerity and diligence in preaching, 7 and his troubles for the same.

1<sup>r</sup> Herefore, seeing we have this ministry, <sup>a</sup> as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things <sup>b</sup> of † dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, <sup>c</sup> nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but <sup>d</sup> by manifestation of the truth, <sup>e</sup> commending ourselves to every mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, <sup>f</sup> it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom <sup>g</sup> the God of this world <sup>h</sup> hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, left the light of <sup>i</sup> the glorious gospel of Christ, <sup>k</sup> who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and <sup>l</sup> ourselves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God, <sup>m</sup> who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, † hath <sup>n</sup> shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in <sup>o</sup> earthen vessels, <sup>p</sup> that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but || not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; <sup>q</sup> cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body <sup>r</sup> the dying of the Lord Jesus, <sup>s</sup> that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, <sup>t</sup> are always delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then, <sup>u</sup> death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having <sup>x</sup> the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, <sup>y</sup> I believed, and therefore have I spoken: we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that <sup>z</sup> he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For <sup>a</sup> all things are for your sakes, that <sup>b</sup> the abundant grace might, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet <sup>c</sup> the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For <sup>d</sup> our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen, are temporal; but the things which are not seen, are eternal.

C H A P. V.

1 In hope of immortal glory, <sup>g</sup> and in expectation of it, and the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience.

FOR we know, that, if <sup>a</sup> our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this <sup>b</sup> we groan earnestly, desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that <sup>c</sup> being clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but <sup>d</sup> clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now <sup>e</sup> he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also <sup>f</sup> hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For <sup>g</sup> we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and <sup>h</sup> willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we || labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 <sup>i</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, <sup>k</sup> that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore <sup>l</sup> the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but <sup>m</sup> we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For <sup>n</sup> we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion <sup>o</sup> to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer them which glory <sup>p</sup> in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For <sup>q</sup> whether we be besides ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that <sup>r</sup> if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, <sup>r</sup> that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 <sup>s</sup> Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, <sup>t</sup> yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man <sup>u</sup> be in Christ, || he is <sup>x</sup> a new creature: <sup>y</sup> old things are past away, behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, <sup>z</sup> who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that <sup>a</sup> God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath † committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are <sup>b</sup> ambassadors for Christ, as <sup>c</sup> though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For <sup>d</sup> he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made <sup>e</sup> the righteousness of God in him.

C H A P. VI.

WE then as <sup>a</sup> workers together with him, <sup>b</sup> beseech you also, <sup>c</sup> that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, <sup>d</sup> I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee; behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by <sup>h</sup> the power of God, by <sup>i</sup> the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report : as deceivers, and yet true ;

9 As unknown, and <sup>k</sup> yet well known ; <sup>l</sup> as dying, and behold, we live ; <sup>m</sup> as chastened, and not killed ;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing ; as poor, yet making many rich ; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, <sup>n</sup> our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but <sup>o</sup> ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, ( <sup>p</sup> I speak as unto my children ) be ye also enlarged.

14 <sup>q</sup> Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers : for <sup>r</sup> what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness ? and what communion hath light with darkness ?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial ? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel ?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols ? for <sup>s</sup> ye are the temple of the living God : as God hath said, <sup>t</sup> I will dwell in them, and walk in them ; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 <sup>u</sup> Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing ; and I will receive you, 18 <sup>x</sup> And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

C H A P. VII.

1 He exhorteth to purity, 3 and sheweth what comfort he took in afflictions.

HAVING <sup>a</sup> therefore these promises, (dearly beloved,) let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us : we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, <sup>b</sup> we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you : for <sup>c</sup> I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you : <sup>d</sup> I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For <sup>e</sup> when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side : <sup>f</sup> without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, <sup>g</sup> God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by <sup>h</sup> the coming of Titus :

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me ; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, <sup>i</sup> though I did repent : for I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye were made sorry || after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation, not to be repented of : but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge ! in all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort : yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed ; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his † inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 I rejoice

C H A P. VIII.

He stirreth them up to contribute to the poor saints: 16 commendeth Titus and others.

MOreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and <sup>a</sup> their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their † liberality.

3 For to <sup>their</sup> power, (I bear record,) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us <sup>b</sup> the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us, by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as <sup>c</sup> ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us; see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 <sup>d</sup> I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>e</sup> that though he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I <sup>f</sup> give my advice: for <sup>g</sup> this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be † <sup>h</sup> forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For <sup>i</sup> if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality;

15 As it is written, <sup>k</sup> He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted <sup>l</sup> the exhortation, but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him <sup>m</sup> the brother, whose praise is in the gospel, throughout all the churches:

19 (And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches, to travel with us with this <sup>n</sup> grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:)

20 Avoiding this; that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 <sup>n</sup> Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which <sup>o</sup> I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner, and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are <sup>p</sup> the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our <sup>p</sup> boasting on your behalf.

C H A P. IX.

1 He sheweth why he sent Titus, 6 and stirreth them up to a bountiful alms, 10 which shall yield them a plentiful increase.

FOr as touching <sup>a</sup> the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, <sup>b</sup> for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that <sup>c</sup> Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply, if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

2 But I beseech you, <sup>b</sup> that I may not be bold, when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some which † think of us, as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons <sup>d</sup> of our warfare are not carnal, but <sup>e</sup> mighty through God <sup>f</sup> to the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 Casting down † imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when <sup>g</sup> your obedience is fulfilled:

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? <sup>h</sup> if any man trust to himself that he is Christs, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christs, even so are <sup>i</sup> we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more <sup>k</sup> of our authority, (which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction,) <sup>l</sup> I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, † (say they,) are weighty and powerful, but <sup>m</sup> his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that such as we are in word by letters, when we are absent, such will we be also in deed, when we are present.

12<sup>n</sup> For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves amongst themselves, † are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the † rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; for we are come as far as to you also, in preaching the gospel of Christ:

C H A P. XI.

Paul, being enforced, entereth into a commendation of himself, and comparison with the other apostles.

Would to God you could bear and indeed  $\parallel$  bear with me.

2 For I am <sup>b</sup> jealous over you with godly jealousy: for <sup>c</sup> I have espoused you to one husband, <sup>d</sup> that I may present you <sup>e</sup> as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, least by any means, as <sup>f</sup> the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtily, so your minds <sup>g</sup> should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or <sup>h</sup> another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear  $\parallel$  with him.

5 For I suppose <sup>i</sup> I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though <sup>k</sup> I be rude in speech, yet not <sup>l</sup> in knowledge: but <sup>m</sup> we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence <sup>n</sup> in abusing myself, that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, <sup>o</sup> I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, <sup>p</sup> the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself <sup>q</sup> from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 <sup>r</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, <sup>s</sup> no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, <sup>t</sup> that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such <sup>u</sup> are false apostles, deceitful <sup>v</sup> workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into <sup>w</sup> an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the <sup>z</sup> ministers of righteousness; <sup>a</sup> whose end shall be according to their works.

16 <sup>b</sup> I say again. let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool  $\parallel$  receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, <sup>c</sup> I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly <sup>d</sup> in this confidence of boasting.

18 <sup>e</sup> Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, <sup>f</sup> as though we had been weak. Howbeit, whereinsomver any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? <sup>g</sup> so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool,) <sup>h</sup> I am more: <sup>i</sup> in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, <sup>k</sup> in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I <sup>l</sup> forty stripes, save one.

25 Thrice was I <sup>m</sup> beaten with rods, <sup>n</sup> once was I stoned, thrice I <sup>o</sup> suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, <sup>p</sup> the care of all the churches.

29 <sup>q</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, <sup>r</sup> I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 <sup>s</sup> The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>t</sup> which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

C H A P. XII.

1 He commendeth his apostleship, not by his revelations, 9 but by his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to vain boasting.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory: † I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ, above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth,) such an one <sup>a</sup> caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth,)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise; and heard unspeakable words, which it is not || lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: <sup>b</sup> yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For <sup>c</sup> though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure, through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me <sup>d</sup> a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 <sup>e</sup> For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore <sup>f</sup> I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become <sup>g</sup> a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you; for <sup>h</sup> in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though <sup>i</sup> I be nothing.

12 <sup>k</sup> Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you, in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that <sup>l</sup> I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong

14 <sup>m</sup> Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you; for <sup>n</sup> I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And <sup>o</sup> I will very gladly spend and be spent <sup>p</sup> for † you, though <sup>q</sup> the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, <sup>r</sup> I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 <sup>s</sup> Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 <sup>t</sup> I desired Titus, and with him I sent a <sup>u</sup> brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 <sup>x</sup> Again, think you that we excuse ourselves unto you? <sup>y</sup> we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that <sup>z</sup> I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, trifles, back-bitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

5 m Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves: know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though o we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

10 q Therefore I write these things, being absent, left, being present, r I should use sharpness, s according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell: Be perfect, be of good comfort, t be of one mind, live in peace: and the God of love u and peace shall be with you.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel, || which he learned, not of men, but of God.

PAUL an apostle, (a not of men, neither by man, but b by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, c who raised him from the dead,)

2 And all the brethren d which are with me, e unto the churches of Galatia:

3 f Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 g Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us h from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel:

7 i Which is not another; but there be some k that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though l we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any m preach any other gospel unto you, n than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For o do I now p persuade men, or God? or q do I seek to please men?

for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 r But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel, which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For s I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but t by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past, in the Jews religion, how that u beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and v wasted it;

14 And profited in the Jews religion above many my t equals in mine own nation, x being more exceedingly zealous y of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, z who separated me from my mothers womb, and called me by his grace,

16 a To reveal his Son in me, that b I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with c flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years, d I || went up to Jerusalem, to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But e other of the apostles saw I none, save f James the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, g behold, before God, I lie not.

21 h Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face<sup>i</sup> unto the churches of Judea, which<sup>k</sup> were in Christ :

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me. C H A P. II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and why. 14 Of justification by faith, and not by works : 20 they that are so justified, live not in sin.

Then fourteen years after<sup>a</sup> I went up again to Jerusalem, with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but || privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means<sup>c</sup> I should run, or had run in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised :

4 And that because of<sup>d</sup> false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our<sup>e</sup> liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, f that they might bring us into bondage :

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no not for an hour, that<sup>g</sup> the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these<sup>h</sup> who seemed to be somewhat, ( whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me : i God accepteth no mans person ; ) for they who seemed to be somewhat, k in conference added nothing to me.

7 But contrariwise, l when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision<sup>m</sup> was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter ;

8 ( For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, n the same was o mighty in me toward the Gentiles ; )

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be p pillars, perceived q the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship ; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor ; r the same which I also was forward to do.

11 s But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For, before that certain came from James, t he did eat with the Gentiles : but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him ; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to u the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter x before them all, y If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews ?

15 We who are z Jews by nature, and not a sinners of the Gentiles,

16 b Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but c by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ ; that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law : for d by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found e sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin ? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I f through the law g am dead to the law, that I might h live unto God.

20 I am i crucified with Christ : nevertheless I live ; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me : and the life which I now live in the flesh, k I live by the faith of the Son of God, l who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God : for m if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

C H A P. III.

1 He asketh what moveth them to leave the faith, and depend upon the law.

6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham.

o Foolish Galatians, a who hath bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth crucified among you ?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye b the Spirit by the works of the law, c or by the hearing of faith ?

3 Are ye so foolish ? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh ?

8 Howbeit, <sup>1</sup> then, when ye knew not God, <sup>k</sup> ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, <sup>1</sup> after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, <sup>m</sup> how turn ye || again to <sup>n</sup> the weak and beggarly || elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 <sup>o</sup> Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, <sup>p</sup> lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: <sup>q</sup> ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how, <sup>r</sup> through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you <sup>s</sup> at the first.

14 And my temptation, which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me <sup>t</sup> as an angel of God, <sup>u</sup> even as Christ Jesus.

15 || Where is then the blessedness you spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, <sup>v</sup> because I tell you the truth?

17 They <sup>w</sup> zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude || you, that you might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 <sup>z</sup> My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for || I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, <sup>a</sup> the one by a bond-maid, <sup>b</sup> the other by a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman <sup>c</sup> was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two || covenants; the one from the mount † Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and || answereth to Jerusalem which now is. and is in bondage with her children

26 But <sup>d</sup> Jerusalem, which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, <sup>e</sup> Rejoice, thou barren, that bearest not, break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are <sup>f</sup> the children of promise.

29 But as then, <sup>g</sup> he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the spirit, <sup>h</sup> even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith <sup>i</sup> the scripture? <sup>k</sup> Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for <sup>l</sup> the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, <sup>m</sup> but of the free.

CHAP. V.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision, 13 but rather love. 19 The works of the flesh, 21 the fruits of the Spirit

Stand fast therefore in <sup>a</sup> the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again <sup>b</sup> with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that <sup>c</sup> if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 <sup>d</sup> Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; <sup>e</sup> ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for <sup>f</sup> the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For <sup>g</sup> in Jesus Christ, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but <sup>h</sup> faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye <sup>i</sup> did run well, <sup>k</sup> || who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him <sup>l</sup> that calleth you.

9 <sup>m</sup> A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 <sup>n</sup> I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but <sup>o</sup> he that troubleth you || shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 <sup>p</sup> And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, <sup>q</sup> why do I yet suffer persecution? then is <sup>r</sup> the offence of the cross ceased.

12 <sup>s</sup> I would they were even cut off || which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty: only <sup>t</sup> use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but <sup>u</sup> by love serve one another.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christs have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that slippereth, & to be liberal to their teachers, &c.

2 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the Spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

3 Bear ye one anothers burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

4 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves, who are circumcised, keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your Spirit. Amen.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the EPHESIANS.

C H A P. I.

4 Of election, 6 and adoption, 11 which is the fountain of salvation.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> by the will of God, <sup>b</sup> to the saints which are at Ephesus, <sup>c</sup> and to the faithful in Christ Jesus :

2 <sup>d</sup> Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>e</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings, in heavenly <sup>f</sup> places, in Christ :

4 According as <sup>g</sup> he hath chosen us in him <sup>h</sup> before the foundation of the world, that we should <sup>i</sup> be holy, and without blame before him in love :

5 <sup>j</sup> Having predestinated us unto <sup>k</sup> the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, <sup>l</sup> wherein he hath made us accepted in <sup>m</sup> the beloved :

7 <sup>n</sup> In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to <sup>o</sup> the riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence,

9 <sup>p</sup> Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, <sup>q</sup> which he hath purposed in himself :

10 That in the dispensation of <sup>r</sup> the fulness of times, <sup>s</sup> he might gather together in one <sup>t</sup> all things in Christ, both which are in <sup>u</sup> heaven, and which are on earth, even in him :

11 <sup>v</sup> In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will :

12 <sup>w</sup> That we should be to the praise of his glory, <sup>x</sup> who first <sup>y</sup> trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also <sup>z</sup> trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation : in whom also after that ye believed, <sup>aa</sup> ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise.

14 <sup>ab</sup> Which is the earnest of our inheritance, <sup>ac</sup> until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, <sup>ad</sup> after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 <sup>ae</sup> Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers :

17 That <sup>af</sup> the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, <sup>ag</sup> may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, <sup>ah</sup> in the knowledge of him :

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened ; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints.

19 And what <sup>ai</sup> is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward, who believe, <sup>aj</sup> according to the working <sup>ak</sup> of his mighty power ;

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when <sup>al</sup> he raised him from the dead, and <sup>am</sup> set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 <sup>an</sup> Far above all <sup>ao</sup> principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come :

22 And <sup>ap</sup> hath put all things under his feet, and gave him <sup>aq</sup> to be the head over all things to the church,

23 <sup>ar</sup> Which is his body, the fulness of him <sup>as</sup> that filleth all in all.

1 What we were by nature, 5 and what we are by grace. 10 We are created to good works.

AND <sup>a</sup> you hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses and sins ;

2 <sup>b</sup> Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to <sup>c</sup> the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in <sup>d</sup> the children of disobedience.

3 <sup>e</sup> Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the luts of our flesh, fulfilling <sup>f</sup> the desires of the flesh, and of the mind ; and <sup>g</sup> were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, <sup>h</sup> who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 <sup>i</sup> Even when we were dead in sins, hath <sup>j</sup> quickened us together with Christ ; ( <sup>k</sup> by grace ye are saved ; )

6 And hath raised <sup>l</sup> us up together and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

his grace, in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast:

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore I remember that ye, being in time passed Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision, by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye, who formerly were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us:

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments, contained in ordinances, for to make in himself, of twain, one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them which were nigh.

18 For through him we both have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone:

21 In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom you also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

C H A P. III.

The hidden mystery, that the Gentiles should be saved.

For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ, for you Gentiles;

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby when ye read ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ,)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unfearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now, unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God.

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might, by his Spirit, in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, 29 and corrupt communication.

I Therefore, ° the prisoner || of the Lord, beseech you that ye <sup>b</sup> walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 ° With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit <sup>d</sup> in the bond of peace.

4 ° There is one body, and <sup>f</sup> one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 ° One Lord, one faith, <sup>h</sup> one baptism,

6 <sup>i</sup> One God and Father of all, who is above all, and <sup>k</sup> through all, and in you all.

7 But <sup>l</sup> unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, <sup>m</sup> When he ascended up on high, <sup>n</sup> he led || captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (° Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, <sup>p</sup> that he might || fill all things.)

11 <sup>q</sup> And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, <sup>r</sup> evangelists; and some, <sup>s</sup> pastors and teachers;

12 <sup>t</sup> For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of <sup>u</sup> the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come || in the unity of the faith, <sup>v</sup> and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the || stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more <sup>w</sup> children ° tossed to and fro, and carried about with every <sup>a</sup> wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But <sup>b</sup> || speaking the truth in love, <sup>c</sup> may grow up into him in all things, <sup>d</sup> which is the head, even Christ:

16 ° From whom, the whole body, fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore and testify in the Lord, that <sup>f</sup> ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, <sup>g</sup> in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, <sup>h</sup> being alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the <sup>i</sup> || blindness of their heart:

19 <sup>k</sup> Who, being past feeling, <sup>l</sup> have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye <sup>m</sup> put off, concerning <sup>n</sup> the former conversation, <sup>o</sup> the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And <sup>p</sup> be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye <sup>q</sup> put on the new man, which after God <sup>r</sup> is created in righteousness, and || true holiness.

25 Wherefore, putting away lying, <sup>s</sup> speak every man truth with his neighbour: for <sup>t</sup> we are members one of another.

26 <sup>u</sup> Be ye angry and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath;

27 <sup>v</sup> Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather <sup>w</sup> let him labour, working with <sup>x</sup> his hands the thing which is good, that he may have || to give <sup>y</sup> to him that needeth.

29 <sup>z</sup> Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but <sup>a</sup> that which is good || to the use of edifying, <sup>b</sup> that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And <sup>c</sup> grieve not the holy Spirit of God, <sup>d</sup> whereby ye are sealed unto the day of <sup>e</sup> redemption.

31 <sup>f</sup> Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, <sup>g</sup> with all malice.

32 And <sup>h</sup> be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, <sup>i</sup> forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Be ye therefore followers of God as dear children;

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering, and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But as fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints:

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light;

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth;)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather prove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit:

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord,

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it:

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word;

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise.)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness

6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; 7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye, masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel:

20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds; that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus a beloved brother, and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

3 Pauls thanksgiving and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to suffer.

PAUL and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus, which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you;

4 (Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy:)

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all, in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere, and without offence, till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

Anno Dom. 64. 13 So that my bonds || in Christ are manifest <sup>r</sup> in all || the palace, and || in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy, <sup>o</sup> and strife; and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds;

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation <sup>t</sup> through your prayer, and the supply of <sup>u</sup> the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 <sup>v</sup> According to my earnest expectation, and <sup>w</sup> my hope, that <sup>x</sup> in nothing I shall be ashamed, but <sup>y</sup> that with all boldness, as always, <sup>z</sup> so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether <sup>aa</sup> it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live <sup>is</sup> Christ, and to die <sup>is</sup> gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this <sup>is</sup> the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For <sup>z</sup> I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh <sup>is</sup> more needful for you.

25 And <sup>a</sup> having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That <sup>b</sup> your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Only <sup>c</sup> let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, <sup>d</sup> that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, <sup>e</sup> striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: <sup>f</sup> which is to them an evident token of perdition, <sup>g</sup> but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you <sup>h</sup> it is given in the behalf of Christ, <sup>i</sup> not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 <sup>k</sup> Having the same conflict <sup>l</sup> which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He exhortheth to unity and humility, 12 and to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation.

If there be therefore any consolation <sup>a</sup> in Christ, if any comfort of love, <sup>b</sup> if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies;

2 Fulfil ye my joy, <sup>b</sup> that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 <sup>c</sup> Let nothing be done through strife, or vain glory, but <sup>d</sup> in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 <sup>e</sup> Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 <sup>f</sup> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who <sup>g</sup> being in the form of God, <sup>h</sup> thought it not robbery to be equal with God;

7 <sup>i</sup> But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form <sup>k</sup> of a servant, and <sup>l</sup> was made in the <sup>m</sup> likeness of men;

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and <sup>m</sup> became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also <sup>n</sup> hath highly exalted him, and <sup>o</sup> given him a name which is above every name;

10 <sup>p</sup> That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and thing under the earth;

11 And <sup>q</sup> that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ <sup>r</sup> is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation <sup>r</sup> with fear and trembling.

13 For <sup>s</sup> it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things <sup>t</sup> without murmurings, and disputings;

15 That ye may be blameless and <sup>u</sup> harmless, <sup>v</sup> the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst <sup>x</sup> of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom <sup>y</sup> ye shine as lights in the world.

16 Holding forth the word of life; that <sup>z</sup> I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that <sup>aa</sup> I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all 18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and shod on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold him such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life to supply your lack of service toward me.

C H A P. III.

1 He warneth them of false teachers, and to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death:

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an example.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly; and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working

CHAP. IV.

1 General exhortations: <sup>10</sup> his joy for their liberality towards him, and Gods grace in them.

Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved, and <sup>a</sup> longed for, <sup>b</sup> my joy and crown, <sup>c</sup> so stand fast in the Lord, <sup>my</sup> dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which <sup>d</sup> laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in <sup>e</sup> the book of life.

4 <sup>f</sup> Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. <sup>g</sup> The Lord is at hand.

6 <sup>h</sup> Be careful for nothing: but in every thing, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And <sup>i</sup> the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are || honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, <sup>k</sup> whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 <sup>l</sup> Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and <sup>m</sup> the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last <sup>n</sup> your care of me || hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, <sup>o</sup> therewith to be content.

12 <sup>p</sup> I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things <sup>q</sup> through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that <sup>r</sup> ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, <sup>s</sup> no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire <sup>t</sup> fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But || I have all, and abound: I am full, having received <sup>u</sup> of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, <sup>x</sup> an odour of a sweet smell, <sup>y</sup> a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God <sup>z</sup> shall supply all your need, <sup>a</sup> according to his riches in glory, by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every faint in Christ Jesus. The brethren <sup>b</sup> which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, <sup>c</sup> chiefly they that are of Cæsars household.

23 <sup>d</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

3 <sup>d</sup> We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you:

CHAP. III.

8<sup>1</sup> Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after<sup>m</sup> the tradition of men, after the || rudiments of the world, and not after Christ;

9 For<sup>o</sup> in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10<sup>p</sup> And ye are compleat in him, <sup>q</sup> which is the head of all<sup>r</sup> principality and power;

11 In whom also ye are<sup>s</sup> circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in<sup>t</sup> putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ;

12<sup>u</sup> Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through<sup>x</sup> the faith of the operation of God, <sup>y</sup> who hath raised him from the dead.

13<sup>z</sup> And ye being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses,

14<sup>aa</sup> Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances, that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross:

15 And<sup>b</sup> having spoiled<sup>c</sup> principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them || in ic.

16 Let no man therefore judge you ||<sup>d</sup> in meat or in drink, or || in respect<sup>e</sup> of an holy-day, or of the new-moon, or of the sabbath-days:

17<sup>f</sup> Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body<sup>is</sup> of Christ.

18<sup>g</sup> Let no man || beguile you of your reward, † in a voluntary humility, and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things<sup>h</sup> which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind;

19 And not holding<sup>i</sup> the head, from which all the body, by joints and bands, having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be<sup>k</sup> dead with Christ from<sup>l</sup> the || rudiments of the world, <sup>m</sup> why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not, taste not, handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using,) <sup>n</sup> after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23<sup>o</sup> Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in<sup>p</sup> will-worship and humility, and || neglecting of the body, not in any honour, to the satisfying of the flesh.

1 He sheweth where to seek Christ: 5 he exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ, 12 and to sundry other duties.

IF ye then<sup>a</sup> be risen with Christ, I seek those things which are above, where<sup>b</sup> Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your || affection on things<sup>c</sup> above, not on things on the earth.

3<sup>c</sup> For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4<sup>d</sup> When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in<sup>e</sup> glory.

6<sup>l</sup> For which things sake the wrath of God cometh on<sup>m</sup> the children of disobedience.

7<sup>n</sup> In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But<sup>o</sup> now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, <sup>p</sup> filthy communication out of your mouth.

9<sup>q</sup> Lie not one to another, <sup>r</sup> seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which<sup>s</sup> is renewed in knowledge, <sup>t</sup> after the image of him<sup>u</sup> that created him:

11 Where there is neither<sup>x</sup> Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free; but Christ<sup>is</sup> all, and in all.

12<sup>y</sup> Put on therefore<sup>z</sup> (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) <sup>a</sup> bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a || quarrel against any; <sup>b</sup> even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14<sup>c</sup> And above all these things, <sup>d</sup> put on charity, which is the<sup>e</sup> bond of perfectness.

15 And let<sup>f</sup> the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called<sup>g</sup> in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another<sup>h</sup> in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing<sup>i</sup> with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God, and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren || beloved, & your election of God.

5 For h our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and i in the holy Ghost, k and in much assurance; as l ye know what manner of men we were among you, for your sake.

6 And m ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, n with joy of the holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you o founded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also p in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us, q what manner of entering in we had unto you, r and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God,

10 And s to wait for his Son from heaven, t whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us u from the wrath to come.

C H A P. II.

How the gospel was preached unto them, and how they received it.

FOr a yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at b Philippi, c we were bold in our God, d to speak unto you the gospel of God, e with much contention.

3 f For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness nor in guile:

4 But as g we were allowed of God h to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, i not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For k neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; l 1 God is witness.

6 m Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when n we might have || been o burdensome, p as the apostles of Christ.

7 But q we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing r to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also s our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring t night and day, u because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, x how holily, and justly, and unblameably, we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As you know, how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged, every one of you, (as a father doth his children,)

12 y That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God z without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it a not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers b of the churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for c ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, d even as they have of the Jews;

15 e Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and f their own prophets, and have || persecuted us: and they please not God, g and are contrary to all men;

16 h Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, i to fill up their sins alway: k for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you, for a short time, l in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly m to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again; but n Satan hindered us.

19 For o what is our hope, or joy, or crown of || rejoicing? are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ, p at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

2 And sent <sup>c</sup> Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Charitt, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;

3 <sup>d</sup> That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that <sup>e</sup> we are appointed thereunto.

4 <sup>f</sup> For, verily, when we were with you, we told you before, that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, <sup>g</sup> when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, <sup>h</sup> lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and <sup>i</sup> our labour be in vain.

6 <sup>k</sup> But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, <sup>l</sup> as we also to see you;

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord:

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God,

10 <sup>m</sup> Night and day <sup>n</sup> praying exceedingly <sup>o</sup> that we might see your face, <sup>p</sup> and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>q</sup> direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord <sup>r</sup> make you to increase and abound in love <sup>s</sup> one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:

13 To the end he may <sup>t</sup> establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>u</sup> with all his saints.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth them to go on in <sup>v</sup> all manner of godliness, <sup>w</sup> to holiness, <sup>x</sup> to brotherly love, <sup>y</sup> to quietness, <sup>z</sup> to moderate sorrow for the dead. <sup>aa</sup> Of the resurrection, and of the second coming of Christ to judgment.

Furthermore then, we <sup>bb</sup> beseech you, brethren, and <sup>cc</sup> exhort you by the Lord Jesus, <sup>dd</sup> that as ye have received of us <sup>ee</sup> how you ought to walk <sup>ff</sup> and to please God, so ye would abound more and more,

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is <sup>dd</sup> the will of God, even <sup>ee</sup> your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 <sup>ff</sup> That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, <sup>gg</sup> even as the Gentiles <sup>hh</sup> which know not God:

6 <sup>ii</sup> That no man go beyond and <sup>jj</sup> defraud his brother <sup>kk</sup> in any matter: because that the Lord <sup>ll</sup> is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but <sup>mm</sup> unto holiness.

8 <sup>nn</sup> He therefore that <sup>oo</sup> despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, <sup>pp</sup> who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, <sup>qq</sup> ye need not that I write unto you; for <sup>rr</sup> ye yourselves are <sup>ss</sup> taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren, which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, <sup>tt</sup> that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and <sup>uu</sup> to do your own business, and <sup>vv</sup> to work with your own hands, (as we commanded you,)

12 <sup>ww</sup> That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and <sup>xx</sup> that ye may have lack <sup>yy</sup> of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not <sup>zz</sup> even as others which have no hope.

14 For <sup>aaa</sup> if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so <sup>bbb</sup> them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you <sup>ccc</sup> by the word of the Lord, <sup>ddd</sup> that we, which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For <sup>eee</sup> the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with <sup>fff</sup> the trump of God: <sup>ggg</sup> and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 <sup>hhh</sup> Then we which are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them <sup>iii</sup> in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so <sup>jjj</sup> shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 <sup>kkk</sup> Wherefore <sup>lll</sup> comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 He sheweth Christ's second coming to judgment, 16 and giveth divers precepts, 23 and so concludeth.

But of the times and the seasons. Brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love, and for an helmet the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath; but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 Who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their works sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 Quench not the spirit.

20 Despise not prophesyings.

21 Prove all things: hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly: and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

The Second Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth his good opinion of their faith, love, and patience: 11 and comforteth them against persecution.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothyens, unto the church of the Thessalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you ail towards each other aboundeth:

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure;

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God,

9 <sup>o</sup> Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and <sup>p</sup> from the glory of his power ;

10 <sup>q</sup> When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, <sup>r</sup> and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would || count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power :

12 <sup>s</sup> That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

C H A P. II.

1 He willeth them to continue stedfast in the truth received ; 3 shewing that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of antichrist, before the day of the Lord come.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, <sup>a</sup> by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>b</sup> and by our gathering together unto him,

2 <sup>c</sup> That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 <sup>d</sup> Let no man deceive you by any means : for that day shall not come, <sup>e</sup> except there come a falling away first, and <sup>f</sup> that man of sin be revealed, <sup>g</sup> the son of perdition :

4 Who opposeth and <sup>h</sup> exalteth himself <sup>i</sup> above all that is called God, or that is worshipped ; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things ?

6 And now ye know what || withholderh, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For <sup>k</sup> the mystery of iniquity doth already work : only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked be revealed, <sup>l</sup> whom the Lord shall consume <sup>m</sup> with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy <sup>n</sup> with the brightness of his coming :

9 Even him whose coming is <sup>o</sup> after the working of Satan, with all power, and <sup>p</sup> signs, and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in <sup>q</sup> them that perish ; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And <sup>r</sup> for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, <sup>s</sup> that they should believe a lie ;

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But <sup>t</sup> we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God <sup>u</sup> hath <sup>x</sup> from the beginning chosen you to salvation, <sup>y</sup> through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth :

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to <sup>z</sup> the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold <sup>a</sup> the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 <sup>b</sup> Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation, and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, <sup>c</sup> and stablish you in every good word and work.

C H A P. III.

1 He craveth their prayers, 3 testifieth his confidence in them, 6 and giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness and ill company.

Finally, brethren, <sup>a</sup> pray for us, that the word of the Lord <sup>b</sup> may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you ;

2 And <sup>c</sup> that we may be delivered from <sup>d</sup> unreasonable and wicked men : for all men have not faith.

3 But <sup>e</sup> the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and <sup>f</sup> keep you from evil.

4 And <sup>g</sup> we have confidence in the Lord, touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into || the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>h</sup> that ye withdraw yourselves <sup>i</sup> from every brother that walketh <sup>j</sup> disorderly, and not after <sup>k</sup> the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know <sup>l</sup> how ye ought to follow us : for <sup>m</sup> we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you.

The First Epistle of PAUL,

CHAPTER I.

Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul.

The end of the law. Pauls calling to be an apostle.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope,

2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith : Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine.

4 Neither give heed to fables, and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying, which is in faith ; so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned ;

6 From which some, having swerved, have turned aside unto vain jangling ;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully ;

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry ;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners ; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare, 19 Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

C H A P. II.

That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. 9 How women should be attired: 12 they are not permitted to teach: 15 they shall be saved, &c. if they continue in faith.

Exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty:

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, that he should testify in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not,) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with brodered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding they shall be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holiness with sobriety.

How bishops, and deacons, and their wives, should be qualified; 14 and to what end Saint Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the Church, and the truth therein taught, &c.

This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, nor covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest, being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre,

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour, and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things, give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto thy doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this, thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of widows, 17 and elders.

REBUKE not an elder, but intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number, under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but ratlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, nour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins; keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer wine, but use a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 Servants duties. 3 To avoid new fangled teachers. 6 The gain of godliness.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke, count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God, and his doctrine, be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but dotting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto, whom no man hath seen, nor can see; to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

The Second Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

Pauls love to Timothy, and Timothys faith. 3 Paul giveth divers exhortations to Timothy. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes. and such like, are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers, night and day.

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy:

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands:

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light, through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing, which was committed unto thee, keep by the holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that if all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus, for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain.

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

Timothy exhorted to constancy and perseverance, 15 and to shew himself approved. Of Hymeneus and Philetus.

THou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elects sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

11 ° It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 ° If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 ° If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But flee unprofitable and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying, That the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, b The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 ° But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold, and of silver, but also of wood, and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 ° If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified and meet for the masters use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient;

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

1 He advertiseth him of the times to come, 6 describeth the enemies of the truth, 16 and commendeth the holy scriptures.

This know also, that the days perilous times shall come: 2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy;

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good;

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres stood against Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but all of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

children,

children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convince the gain-sayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers, and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be found in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled, and unbelieving, is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

C H A P. II.

1 Directions given to Titus, both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the duty of servants.

But speak thou the things which become a sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience:

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children;

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.

In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again,

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God, that bringeth salvation, hath appeared to all men;

12 Teaching us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

C H A P. III.

1 Titus directed what to teach, and what not. 12 The conclusion.

Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of righteousness, which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That, being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL TO PHILEMON.

Paul rejoiceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon.

PAUL, <sup>a</sup> a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy <sup>b</sup> our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, <sup>c</sup> and fellow labourer,

2 And <sup>d</sup> to our beloved Apphia, and <sup>e</sup> Archippus <sup>d</sup> our fellow-soldier, and <sup>f</sup> to <sup>e</sup> the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 <sup>f</sup> I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 <sup>g</sup> Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual <sup>h</sup> by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints <sup>i</sup> are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, <sup>k</sup> though I might be much bold in Christ, to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for loves sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, <sup>l</sup> and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son <sup>m</sup> Onesimus, <sup>n</sup> whom I have begotten in my bonds;

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me,

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him that is mine own bowels;

13 Whom I would have retained with me, <sup>o</sup> that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; <sup>p</sup> that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, <sup>q</sup> both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore <sup>r</sup> a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or <sup>s</sup> oweth <sup>t</sup> thee ought, put that on mine account.

19 I Paul have written <sup>u</sup> it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine ownself besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 <sup>v</sup> Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for <sup>w</sup> I trust that <sup>x</sup> through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee <sup>y</sup> Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>ac</sup> be <sup>ad</sup> with your spirit. Amen.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL, the Apostle, to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

1 Christ, in these last times coming to us from the Father, is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who at sundry times, and in divers manners, spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath, in these last days, spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment,

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministring spirits sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him.

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if by the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him:

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he, by the grace of God, should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, <sup>a</sup> he also himself likewise took part of the same; <sup>b</sup> that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who, <sup>c</sup> through fear of death, were all their life-time subject to bondage.

16 For, verily, † he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things he behaved him <sup>d</sup> to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be <sup>e</sup> a merciful and faithful high priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people:

18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy of punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of <sup>a</sup> the heavenly calling, consider <sup>b</sup> the apostle and high priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; 2 Who was faithful to him that † appointed him, as also <sup>c</sup> Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as <sup>d</sup> he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but <sup>e</sup> he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses, verily, was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a Son over his own house; <sup>f</sup> whose house are we, <sup>g</sup> if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope, firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, <sup>h</sup> To-day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, † They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, <sup>i</sup> if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, <sup>k</sup> To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, <sup>l</sup> whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And <sup>m</sup> to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of Gods word.

14 By our high priest, Jesus the Son of God, subject to infirmities, but not sin, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them; but † the word preached did not profit them, || not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we, which have believed, do enter into rest, as he said, <sup>a</sup> As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest; although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, <sup>b</sup> And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they, to whom || it was first preached, entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, <sup>c</sup> To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

 8 For if || Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
 9 There remaineth therefore a || rest to the people of God.
 10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
 11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of || unbelief.
 12 For the word of God is <sup>d</sup> quick, and powerful, and <sup>e</sup> sharper than any <sup>f</sup> two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is <sup>g</sup> a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
 13 <sup>h</sup> Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked, <sup>i</sup> and opened, unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
 14 Seeing then that we have <sup>k</sup> a great high priest, <sup>l</sup> that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, <sup>m</sup> let us hold fast our profession.
 15 For <sup>n</sup> we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but <sup>o</sup> was in all points tempted like as we are, <sup>p</sup> yet without sin.
 16 <sup>q</sup> Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.
 C H A P. V.
 1 The authority and honour of our Saviours priesthoood: 11 negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.
 FOr every high priest, taken from among men, <sup>a</sup> is ordained for men <sup>b</sup> in things pertaining to God, <sup>c</sup> that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
 2 <sup>d</sup> Who || can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he <sup>e</sup> himself also is compassed with infirmity:
 3 And <sup>f</sup> by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
 4 <sup>g</sup> And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as <sup>h</sup> was Aaron:
 5 <sup>i</sup> So also Christ glorified not himself, to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, <sup>k</sup> Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee:
 †

6 As he saith also in another place,
 1 Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:
 7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had <sup>m</sup> offered up prayers and supplications, <sup>n</sup> with strong crying and tears, unto him <sup>o</sup> that was able to save him from death, and was heard, || <sup>p</sup> in that he feared.
 8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he <sup>q</sup> obedience; by the things which he suffered:
 9 And <sup>r</sup> being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him:
 10 Called of God an high priest <sup>s</sup> after the order of Melchisedec:
 11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered; seeing ye are <sup>t</sup> dull of hearing.
 12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God: and are become such as have need of <sup>u</sup> milk, and not of strong meat.
 13 For every one that useth milk, <sup>v</sup> † is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is <sup>w</sup> a babe.
 14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are || of full age, even those who by reason || of use have their senses exercised <sup>y</sup> to discern both good and evil.
 C H A P. VI.
 1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be steadfast, 12 diligent and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.
 TTherefore, <sup>a</sup> leaving || the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance <sup>b</sup> from dead works, and of faith towards God,
 2 <sup>c</sup> Of the doctrine of baptisms, <sup>d</sup> and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
 3 And this will we do, <sup>e</sup> if God permit.
 4 For <sup>f</sup> it is impossible for those <sup>g</sup> who were once enlightened, and have tasted of <sup>h</sup> the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,
 5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of <sup>i</sup> the world to come,
 6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth, which drinketh in the rain that cometh off upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them || by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God :

8 But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10<sup>k</sup> For <sup>1</sup> God is not unrighteous to forget<sup>m</sup> your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that <sup>n</sup> every one of you do shew the same diligence, <sup>o</sup> to the full assurance of hope unto the end;

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who, through faith and patience, inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, <sup>p</sup> he swore by himself,

14 Saying, Surely, blessing, I will bless thee, and multiplying, I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men, verily, swear by the greater; and <sup>q</sup> an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, † confirmed it by an oath;

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us :

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, <sup>r</sup> and which entereth into that within the veil,

20<sup>s</sup> Whither the fore-runner is for us entered, even Jesus <sup>t</sup> made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

C H A P. VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, <sup>11</sup> and so far more excellent than the priests of Aarons order.

FOR this <sup>a</sup> Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all : first being by interpretation king of righteousness, and after that also king of Salem, which is king of peace ;

3 Without father, without mother, † without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life ; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, <sup>b</sup> unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And, verily, <sup>c</sup> they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham :

6 But he, whose || descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed <sup>d</sup> him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes : but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11<sup>e</sup> If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron ?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he, of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that <sup>f</sup> our Lord sprang out of Judah : of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident ; for that, after the similitude of Melchisedec, there ariseth another priest, <sup>16</sup> Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, <sup>g</sup> Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is, verily, a disannulling of the commandment going before, for <sup>h</sup> the weakness and unprofitable-ness thereof.

19 For <sup>i</sup> the law made nothing perfect, || but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which <sup>k</sup> we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest;

21 (For those priests were made || without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said unto him,

The Lord sware, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much <sup>m</sup> was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an || unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them || to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth <sup>n</sup> to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmles, undefiled, separate from sinners, <sup>o</sup> and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as <sup>p</sup> those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the peoples: for <sup>q</sup> this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh <sup>r</sup> men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, <sup>s</sup> who is <sup>t</sup> consecrated for evermore.

C H A P. VIII.

1 By Christ's eternal priesthood, the Levitical priesthood is abolished; 7 and the temporal covenant by the eternal covenant.

NOW, of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: we have such an high priest, <sup>a</sup> who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister || of <sup>b</sup> the sanctuary, and of <sup>c</sup> the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For <sup>d</sup> every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices; wherefore <sup>e</sup> it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that || there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God, when he was about to make the tabernacle.

2 For see (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now <sup>h</sup> hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better || covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, <sup>i</sup> Behold, the days come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those days, saith the Lord; I will † put my laws into their mind, and write them || in their hearts: and <sup>k</sup> I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And <sup>l</sup> they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 <sup>m</sup> In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth, and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

C H A P. IX.

1 The rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 11 far inferior to the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN, verily, the first covenant had also || ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, <sup>a</sup> the first <sup>b</sup> wherein was the candlestick, and <sup>c</sup> the table, and the shew-bread; which is called || the sanctuary.

3 <sup>d</sup> And after the second vail, the tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all:

4 Which had the golden censer, and <sup>e</sup> the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was <sup>r</sup> the golden pot that had manna, and <sup>s</sup> Aarons rod that budded, and <sup>t</sup> the tables of the covenant;

5 And <sup>1</sup> over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now, when these things were thus ordained, <sup>k</sup> the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God:

7 But into the second went the high priest alone <sup>1</sup> once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.

8 <sup>m</sup> The holy Ghost this signifying, that <sup>n</sup> the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, <sup>o</sup> that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience,

10 Which stood only in <sup>p</sup> meats and drinks, and <sup>q</sup> divers washings, and carnal || ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come <sup>r</sup> an high priest of good things to come, <sup>s</sup> by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, <sup>t</sup> but by his own blood he entered in <sup>u</sup> once into the holy place, <sup>v</sup> having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if <sup>y</sup> the blood of bulls, and of goats, and <sup>z</sup> the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

15 <sup>g</sup> And for this cause <sup>h</sup> he is the mediator of the new testament, <sup>i</sup> that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity || be the death of the testator.

17 For <sup>k</sup> a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 <sup>1</sup> Whereupon, neither the first testament was || dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, <sup>m</sup> he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and || scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

20 Saying, <sup>n</sup> This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover, <sup>o</sup> he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and <sup>p</sup> without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For <sup>q</sup> Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of <sup>r</sup> the true; but into heaven itself, now <sup>s</sup> to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as <sup>t</sup> the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 (For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world;) but now <sup>u</sup> once, <sup>v</sup> in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So <sup>y</sup> Christ was once <sup>z</sup> offered to bear the sins <sup>a</sup> of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin unto salvation.

FOR the law, having <sup>a</sup> a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, <sup>b</sup> can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto <sup>c</sup> perfect.

2 For then, || would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers, once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins.

Anno Dom. 64. d Chap. 9. 13. e Psalm 40. 6. &c. f Iai. 1. 11. Jer. 6. 20. Amos 5. 21. || Or, thou hast fitted me.

4 For <sup>d</sup> it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, <sup>e</sup> Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body || hast thou prepared me :

6 In burnt-offerings, and sacrifices for sin, thou hast had no pleasure :

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, (which are offered by the law ;)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 <sup>f</sup> By the which will we are sanctified, <sup>g</sup> through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins :

12 <sup>h</sup> But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God ;

13 From henceforth expecting <sup>i</sup> till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering <sup>k</sup> he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witness to us ; for after that he had said before,

16 <sup>l</sup> This is the covenant that I will make with them, after those days, saith the Lord ; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them :

17 † And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, <sup>m</sup> boldness to enter <sup>n</sup> into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way which he hath || consecrated for us, <sup>o</sup> through the veil, that is to say, his flesh ;

21 And <sup>p</sup> having <sup>q</sup> a high priest over the house of God ;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, <sup>r</sup> in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled <sup>r</sup> from an evil conscience, and <sup>s</sup> our bodies washed with pure water.

23 <sup>t</sup> Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering ; (for <sup>u</sup> he is faithful that promised ;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works :

25 <sup>x</sup> Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is ; but <sup>y</sup> exhorting one another : and <sup>z</sup> for so much the more, as ye see <sup>z</sup> the day approaching.

26 For <sup>a</sup> if we sin wilfully, <sup>b</sup> after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and <sup>c</sup> fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 <sup>d</sup> He that despised Moses law died without mercy, under two or three witnesses ;

29 Of how much forer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath troden under foot the Son of God, and <sup>e</sup> hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace ?

30 For we know him that hath said, <sup>f</sup> Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, <sup>g</sup> The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But <sup>h</sup> call to remembrance the former days, in which, <sup>i</sup> after ye were illuminated, ye endured <sup>k</sup> a great fight of afflictions :

33 Partly whilst ye were made <sup>l</sup> a gazing-stock, both by reproaches and afflictions ; and partly whilst <sup>m</sup> ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and <sup>n</sup> took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing <sup>o</sup> in yourselves that <sup>o</sup> ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, <sup>p</sup> which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience ; that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For <sup>q</sup> yet a little while, and <sup>r</sup> he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now <sup>s</sup> the just shall live by faith : but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition ; but of them that believe, to the saving of the soul.

1 An exhortation to constant faith.

2 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, <sup>a</sup> let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and <sup>b</sup> let us run <sup>c</sup> with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the || author and finisher of our faith; <sup>d</sup> who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and <sup>e</sup> is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 <sup>f</sup> Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which <sup>g</sup> speaketh unto you as unto children, <sup>h</sup> My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For <sup>i</sup> whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, <sup>i</sup> whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto <sup>k</sup> the Father of Spirits, and live?

10 For they, verily, for a few days chastened us, || after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth <sup>l</sup> the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore <sup>m</sup> lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make || straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, <sup>n</sup> but let it rather be healed.

14 <sup>o</sup> Follow peace with all men; and holiness, <sup>p</sup> without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 <sup>q</sup> Looking diligently, <sup>r</sup> lest any man || fail of the grace of God; <sup>s</sup> lest any root of bitterness, springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 <sup>t</sup> Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, <sup>u</sup> who for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward, <sup>x</sup> when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: <sup>y</sup> for he found no || place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto <sup>z</sup> the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

C H A P. XIII.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard Gods preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ.

Let <sup>a</sup> brotherly love continue. 2 <sup>b</sup> Be not forgetful to entertain strangers : for thereby <sup>c</sup> some have entertained angels unawares.

3 <sup>d</sup> Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled : but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and <sup>e</sup> be content with such things as ye have : for he hath said, <sup>f</sup> I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, <sup>g</sup> The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 <sup>h</sup> Remember them which <sup>h</sup> have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God : whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation;

8 Jesus Christ <sup>i</sup> the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

9 <sup>k</sup> Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines : for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, <sup>i</sup> not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 <sup>m</sup> We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat, which serve the tabernacle.

11 For <sup>n</sup> the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, <sup>o</sup> suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing <sup>p</sup> his reproach.

14 <sup>q</sup> For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 <sup>r</sup> By him therefore let us offer <sup>r</sup> the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, <sup>r</sup> the fruit of our lips, <sup>r</sup> giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, forget not : for <sup>s</sup> with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 <sup>x</sup> Obey them that <sup>h</sup> have the rule over you, and submit yourselves : for <sup>y</sup> they watch for your souls, as they that must give account; that they may do it with joy, and not with grief : for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us : for we trust we have <sup>z</sup> a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you <sup>a</sup> the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

JAMES <sup>a</sup> a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>b</sup> to the twelve tribes, <sup>c</sup> which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, <sup>d</sup> count it all joy <sup>e</sup> when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 <sup>f</sup> Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 <sup>h</sup> If any of you lack wisdom, <sup>h</sup> let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and <sup>i</sup> it shall be given him.

6 <sup>k</sup> But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering; for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind, and tossed:

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 <sup>l</sup> A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted;

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because <sup>m</sup> as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 <sup>n</sup> Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive <sup>o</sup> the crown of life, <sup>p</sup> which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say, when he is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with <sup>q</sup> evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 <sup>q</sup> Every good gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, <sup>r</sup> with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 <sup>s</sup> Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, <sup>t</sup> that we should be a kind of <sup>u</sup> first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, <sup>x</sup> let every man be swift to hear, <sup>y</sup> slow to speak, <sup>z</sup> slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore <sup>a</sup> lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls:

22 But <sup>b</sup> be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For <sup>c</sup> if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But <sup>d</sup> whofo looketh into the perfect <sup>e</sup> law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, <sup>f</sup> this man shall be blessed in his <sup>g</sup> deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and <sup>h</sup> brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, <sup>h</sup> T<sub>O</sub>

To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

C H A P. II.

1 Christians must not regard the rich, and despise the poor. 14 Faith without works, 17 is a dead faith.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto you assembling a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food;

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed, and filled: notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

C H A P. III.

We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others, but rather to bridle the tongue. 13 They who be truly wise, be mild, and peaceable, without envying and strife.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue amongst our members, that it defileth the 13 Is any among you afflicted? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, <sup>r</sup> anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; <sup>s</sup> and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. <sup>t</sup> The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man <sup>x</sup> subject to like passions as we are, and <sup>y</sup> he prayed <sup>z</sup> earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And <sup>a</sup> he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, <sup>b</sup> if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, <sup>c</sup> shall save a soul from death, and <sup>d</sup> shall hide a multitude of sins.

¶ The First Epistle general of P E T E R.

C H A P. I.

1 He bleſſeth God for his manifold ſpiritual graces, 10 ſhewing that the ſalvation in Chriſt is no news, but a thing propheſied of old; 13 and exhorteth them to a godly converſation, forasmuch as they now are born anew by the word of God.

P E T E R, an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, to the ſtrangers <sup>a</sup> ſcattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Aſia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect <sup>b</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, <sup>c</sup> through ſanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and <sup>d</sup> ſprinkling of the blood of Jeſus Chriſt: <sup>e</sup> Grace unto you, and peace be multiplied.

3 <sup>f</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which, according to his <sup>g</sup> abundant mercy, <sup>h</sup> hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, <sup>b</sup> by the reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, <sup>i</sup> and that fadeeth not away, <sup>k</sup> reſerved in heaven <sup>l</sup> for you,

5 <sup>m</sup> Who are kept by the power <sup>n</sup> of God through faith unto ſalvation, ready to be revealed in the laſt time:

6 <sup>o</sup> Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now <sup>p</sup> for a ſeaſon (if need be) <sup>q</sup> ye are in heavineſs through manifold temptations;

7 That <sup>r</sup> the trial of your faith being much more precious than of gold that periſheth, though <sup>s</sup> it be tried with fire, <sup>t</sup> might be found unto praiſe, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jeſus Chriſt:

8 <sup>u</sup> Whom having not ſeen, ye love; <sup>v</sup> in whom though now ye ſee <sup>w</sup> him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unſpeakable, and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have enquired, and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us, they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you, with the holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore did god up the loins of your mind, to be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts, in your ignorance;

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation:

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every mans work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 Who, verily, was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you;

21 Who by him do believe in God that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit, unto unfeigned love of the brethren; see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For all flesh is as grass, and the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

1 He dehortheth them from the breach of charity; 4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they are built: 11 he beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 13 to be obedient to magistrates; 18 and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well-doing, after the example of Christ.

Wherefore, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil-speaking,

2 As new-born babes desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby,

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious;

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

12 u Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that || whereas they speak against you as supreme ;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him a for the punishment of evil-doers, and b for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that c with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men :

16 d As free, and not t using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as e the servants of God.

17 f || Honour all men. g Love the ward.

19 For this is || k thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For l what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is || acceptable with God.

21 For m even hereunto were ye for us, o leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps :

22 p Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth :

23 q Who, when he was reviled, astray; but are now returned x unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER III.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other; 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer persecution, 19 and declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

L ikewise, a ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, that, if any obey not the word, b they also may without the word c be won by the conversation of the wives,

2 d While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear :

3 e Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel ;

4 But let it be f the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not cor-ruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner, in the old time, the holy women also who trusted in God adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands ;

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham,
 g calling him lord : whose t daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 h Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife i as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, k that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, l be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another,
 || love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous :

9 m Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing : but contrariwise, blessing ; knowing that ye are there-unto called, n that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For o he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.

11 Let him p eschew evil, and do good ; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers : but the face of the Lord is t against them that do evil.

13 q And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good ?

14 r But and if ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye ; and s be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled,

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready <sup>1</sup> to judge the quick and the dead.

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and <sup>2</sup> be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and <sup>3</sup> fear:

6 For, for this cause <sup>k</sup> was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

16 <sup>u</sup> Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

7 But <sup>1</sup> the end of all things is at hand: <sup>m</sup> be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing.

8 <sup>n</sup> And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for <sup>o</sup> charity || shall cover the multitude of sins.

18 For Christ also hath <sup>x</sup> once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, (that he might bring us to God,) <sup>y</sup> being put to death <sup>z</sup> in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

9 <sup>p</sup> Use hospitality one to another <sup>q</sup> without grudging.

19 By which also he went and <sup>a</sup> preached unto the spirits in prison;

10 <sup>r</sup> As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, <sup>s</sup> as good stewards of <sup>t</sup> the manifold grace of God.

20 Which sometime were disobedient, <sup>b</sup> when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while <sup>c</sup> the ark was a preparing, <sup>d</sup> wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

11 <sup>u</sup> If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God: if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that <sup>x</sup> God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; <sup>y</sup> to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

21 <sup>e</sup> The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us (not the putting away of <sup>f</sup> the filth of the flesh, <sup>g</sup> but the answer of a good conscience towards God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning <sup>z</sup> the fiery trial, which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

22 Who is gone into heaven, and <sup>h</sup> is on the right hand of God, <sup>i</sup> angels, and authorities, and powers, being made subject unto him.

13 <sup>a</sup> But rejoice, inasmuch as <sup>b</sup> ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; <sup>c</sup> that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

C H A P. IV.

14 <sup>d</sup> If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory, and of God, resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin, by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth: 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

15 But <sup>e</sup> let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, <sup>f</sup> or as a busy-body in other mens matters.

2 <sup>e</sup> Orasmuch then <sup>a</sup> as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for <sup>b</sup> he that hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sin;

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

3 <sup>c</sup> That he no longer <sup>d</sup> should live the rest of his time in the flesh, to the lusts of men, <sup>e</sup> but to the will of God.

17 For the time is come <sup>g</sup> that judgment must begin at the house of God; and <sup>h</sup> if it first begin at us, <sup>i</sup> what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

4 <sup>f</sup> For the time past of our life may suffice us <sup>g</sup> to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

18 <sup>k</sup> And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

5 Wherein they think it strange that you run not with them to the same excess of riot, <sup>h</sup> speaking evil of you:

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, <sup>i</sup> commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

C H A P. V.

1 He exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey; 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and constant, &c.

The elders which are among you, I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 d Feed the flock of God: which is among you, taking the oversight thereof; not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as being lords over Gods heritage, but being examples to the flock.

4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder: yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility; for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time;

7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour;

9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus a faithful brother unto you (as I suppose) I have written briefly, exhorting and testifying, that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Second Epistle general of PETER.

C H A P. I.

1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of Gods grace, 5 he exhorteth them by faith and good works, to make their calling sure; 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand, 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God.

SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained a like precious faith with us, through the righteousness of God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature; having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

7 And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity:

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren, nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see far off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall;

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, <sup>a</sup> as long as I am in this tabernacle, <sup>r</sup> to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance;

14 <sup>s</sup> Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as <sup>t</sup> our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that you may be able, after my decease, to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed <sup>u</sup> cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but <sup>x</sup> were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, <sup>y</sup> This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in <sup>z</sup> the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed as unto <sup>a</sup> a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and <sup>b</sup> the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that <sup>c</sup> no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For <sup>d</sup> the prophecy came not || in old time by the will of man: <sup>e</sup> but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

C H A P. II.

He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing their impiety and punishment; 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot out of Sodom; 10 and describeth the manners of profane and blasphemous seducers.

BUT <sup>a</sup> there were false prophets also among the people, even as <sup>b</sup> there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even <sup>c</sup> denying the Lord <sup>d</sup> that bought them, <sup>e</sup> and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their || pernicious ways, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And <sup>f</sup> through covetousness shall they with feigned words <sup>g</sup> make merchandise of you: <sup>h</sup> whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not <sup>i</sup> the angels <sup>k</sup> that sinned, but <sup>l</sup> cast them down to hell, and delivered them in to chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved <sup>m</sup> Noah the eighth person, <sup>n</sup> a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And <sup>o</sup> turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, <sup>p</sup> making them an example unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And <sup>q</sup> delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked.

8 (<sup>r</sup> For that righteous man dwelling among them, <sup>s</sup> in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.)

9 <sup>t</sup> The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly <sup>u</sup> them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleanness, and despise || government. <sup>x</sup> Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas <sup>y</sup> angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation || against them before the Lord.

12 But these, <sup>z</sup> as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time: <sup>a</sup> spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while <sup>b</sup> they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of † adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of <sup>c</sup> Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with mans voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 <sup>d</sup> These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when <sup>e</sup> they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that <sup>f</sup> were clean escaped from them who live in error

19 While they promise them <sup>g</sup> liberty, they themselves are <sup>h</sup> the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For <sup>i</sup> if, after they <sup>k</sup> have escaped the pollutions of the world <sup>l</sup> through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome; the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For <sup>m</sup> it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, <sup>n</sup> The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

C H A P. III.

1 The certainty of Christ's coming to judgment. 10 The manner how the world shall be destroyed. 11 An exhortation to holiness.

This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which <sup>a</sup> I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance.

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, <sup>b</sup> and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 <sup>c</sup> Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, <sup>d</sup> Where is the promise of his coming? for, since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that <sup>e</sup> by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth <sup>f</sup> standing out of the water, and in the water:

6 <sup>g</sup> Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.

7 But <sup>h</sup> the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto <sup>i</sup> fire against the day of judgment, and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day <sup>j</sup> is with the Lord as a thousand years, and <sup>k</sup> a thousand years as one day.

9 <sup>l</sup> The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, (as some men count slackness,) but <sup>m</sup> is long-suffering to us-ward, <sup>n</sup> not willing that any should perish, but <sup>o</sup> that all should come to repentance.

10 But <sup>p</sup> the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which <sup>q</sup> the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved; what manner of persons ought ye to be <sup>r</sup> in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and <sup>s</sup> hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall <sup>t</sup> be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for <sup>u</sup> new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, Seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent <sup>v</sup> that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless:

15 <sup>w</sup> And account that the long-suffering of our Lord <sup>x</sup> is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

16 As also in all <sup>y</sup> his epistles, <sup>z</sup> speaking in them of these things: in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wreit, as <sup>aa</sup> they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, <sup>ab</sup> seeing ye know <sup>ac</sup> these things before, <sup>ad</sup> beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 <sup>ae</sup> But grow in grace, and <sup>af</sup> in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him <sup>ag</sup> be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

¶ The First Epistle general of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life, by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoin holiness.

THAT<sup>a</sup> which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes,<sup>b</sup> which we have looked upon, and<sup>c</sup> our hands have handled of the word of life;

2 (For the life<sup>d</sup> was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life<sup>e</sup> which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father,<sup>g</sup> and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you,<sup>h</sup> that your joy may be full.

5<sup>i</sup> This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that<sup>k</sup> God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6<sup>l</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and<sup>m</sup> the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8<sup>n</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves,<sup>o</sup> and the truth is not in us.

9<sup>p</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

Comfort against sins of infirmity. 3 To know God, is to keep his commandments. 18 To beware of seducers; 20 from whose deceits the godly are safely preserved by faith and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin,<sup>a</sup> we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And<sup>b</sup> he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but<sup>c</sup> also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments,

4<sup>d</sup> He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments,<sup>e</sup> is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But<sup>f</sup> whoſo keepeth his word, is in him, verily, is the love of God perfected: <sup>h</sup> hereby know we that we are in him.

6<sup>i</sup> He that saith he abideth in him, <sup>k</sup> ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, <sup>i</sup> I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment<sup>m</sup> which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, <sup>n</sup> a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; <sup>o</sup> because the darkness is past, and<sup>p</sup> the true light now shineth.

9<sup>q</sup> He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10<sup>r</sup> He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and<sup>s</sup> there is none<sup>t</sup> occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because<sup>u</sup> your sins are forgiven you for his names sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because<sup>v</sup> ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. <sup>y</sup> If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh,<sup>z</sup> and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And<sup>a</sup> the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth forever.

18 <sup>b</sup> Little children, <sup>c</sup> it is the last time: and as ye have heard that <sup>d</sup> antichrist shall come, <sup>e</sup> even now are there many antichrists: whereby we know <sup>f</sup> that it is the last time.

19 <sup>g</sup> They went out from us, but they were not of us. for <sup>h</sup> if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But <sup>k</sup> ye have an unction <sup>l</sup> from the holy One, and <sup>m</sup> ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 <sup>n</sup> Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? he is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 <sup>o</sup> Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] <sup>p</sup> he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you <sup>q</sup> which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, <sup>r</sup> ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 <sup>s</sup> And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you <sup>t</sup> concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and <sup>u</sup> ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing <sup>x</sup> teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie; and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in <sup>y</sup> him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, <sup>y</sup> when he shall appear, we may have confidence, <sup>z</sup> and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 <sup>a</sup> If ye know that he is righteous, <sup>b</sup> ye know that every one that doth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons; 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEhold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that <sup>a</sup> we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, <sup>b</sup> because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, <sup>c</sup> now are we the sons of God, and <sup>d</sup> it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that when he shall appear, <sup>e</sup> we shall be like him; for <sup>f</sup> we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the law: for <sup>g</sup> sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know <sup>h</sup> that he was manifested <sup>i</sup> to take away our sins; and <sup>k</sup> in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: <sup>l</sup> whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, <sup>m</sup> let no man deceive you: <sup>n</sup> he that doth righteousness, is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 <sup>o</sup> He that committeth sin, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 <sup>p</sup> Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin; for <sup>q</sup> his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, <sup>r</sup> neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For <sup>s</sup> this is the <sup>t</sup> message that ye heard from the beginning, <sup>u</sup> that we should love one another.

12 Not as <sup>v</sup> Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brothers righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if <sup>x</sup> the world hate you.

14 <sup>y</sup> We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: <sup>z</sup> he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 <sup>a</sup> Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murderer; and ye know that <sup>b</sup> no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 <sup>c</sup> Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But <sup>d</sup> whoso hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, <sup>e</sup> how dwelleth the love of God in him?

 18 My little children, f let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.
 19 And hereby we know g that we are of the truth, and shall † assure our hearts before him.

20 h For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 i Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, k then have we confidence towards God.

22 And l whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, m and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And n this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and o love one another, p as he gave us commandment.

24 And q he that keepeth his commandments, r dwelleth in him, and he in him: and s hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

1 He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholic faith; 7 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

2 Beloved, a believe not every spirit, b but b try the spirits whether they are of God; because c many false prophets are gone out into the world.

3 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God; d every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

4 And e every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whoso of you have heard that it should come, and f even now already is it in the world.

5 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you, than g he that is in the world.

6 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and h the world heareth them.

7 We are of God: k he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby know we l the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

8 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, n knoweth not God; for o God is love.

9 p In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, q not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son r to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, s if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 t No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and u his love is perfected in us.

13 v Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And y we have seen and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. z God is love; and a he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is † our love made perfect, that b we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth c is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him; because he first loved us.

20 d If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And e this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1 He that loveth God, loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments; 3 which to the faithful are light, and not grievous. 9 Jesus is the Son of God, able to save us, 14 and to hear our prayers, which we make for ourselves, and for others.

Whosoever a believeth that b Jesus is the Christ, is c born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

¶ The Second Epistle of J O H N.

1 He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, & lest they lose the reward of their profession; 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine.

4 I rejoiced greatly, that I found of thy children <sup>c</sup> walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

¶ The Third Epistle of JOHN.

2 He commendeth Gaius for his piety, and hospitality, 7 to true preachers.

THE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, <sup>a</sup> whom I love || in the truth.

2 Beloved, I || wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as <sup>b</sup> thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that <sup>c</sup> my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou dost faithfully whatsoever thou dost to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have born witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey † after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrefes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, <sup>d</sup> follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. <sup>e</sup> He that doth good, is of God: but he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record, <sup>f</sup> and ye know that our record is true.

13 <sup>g</sup> I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak † face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

¶ The General Epistle of JUDE.

1 He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them; for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared; 20 whereas the godly, shall be preserved, &c.

JUDE the servant of Jesus Christ, and <sup>a</sup> brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and <sup>b</sup> preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you <sup>c</sup> of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that <sup>d</sup> ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 <sup>e</sup> For there are certain men crept in unawares, <sup>f</sup> who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, <sup>g</sup> turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and <sup>h</sup> denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, <sup>i</sup> how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward <sup>k</sup> destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally as brute beasts; in those things they corrupt themselves

11 Wo unto them; for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gaining of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame: wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed; and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having mens persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you, there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wife God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

The REVELATION of Saint JOHN the Divine.

CHAP. I.

4 John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. 7 The coming of Christ: 14 his glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which he hath shortly to do: and he hath sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace from him which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth; unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, what thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned,

13 I saw seven golden candlesticks; and in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen, and I have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter,

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks, which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels (that is, the ministers) of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira; and what is commended, or found wanting, in them.

Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus, write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

1 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not; and hast found them liars:

2 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

3 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

4 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

5 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

7 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna, write, These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

8 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

9 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 <sup>r</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of <sup>t</sup> the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos, write, These things saith <sup>u</sup> he, which hath the sharp sword with two edges.

13 <sup>v</sup> I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even <sup>x</sup> where Satans seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of <sup>y</sup> Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, <sup>z</sup> to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine <sup>a</sup> of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and <sup>b</sup> will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 <sup>c</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and in the stone <sup>d</sup> a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira, write, These things saith the Son of God, <sup>e</sup> who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 <sup>f</sup> I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman <sup>g</sup> Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants <sup>h</sup> to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space <sup>i</sup> to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that <sup>k</sup> I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and

<sup>l</sup> I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, As many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak, <sup>m</sup> I will put upon you none other burden:

25 But <sup>n</sup> that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth <sup>o</sup> my works unto the end, <sup>p</sup> to him will I give power over the nations,

27 (<sup>q</sup> And he shall rule them with a rod of iron: as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers,) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him <sup>r</sup> the morning star.

29 <sup>s</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

C H A P. III.

2 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved. 3 Philadelphia approved.

15 Laodicea rebuked. 20 Christ standeth at the door, and knocketh.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis, write, These things saith he <sup>a</sup> that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; <sup>b</sup> I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 <sup>c</sup> Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and <sup>d</sup> repent. <sup>e</sup> If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast <sup>f</sup> a few names even in Sardis, which have not <sup>g</sup> defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me <sup>h</sup> in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not <sup>i</sup> blot out his name out of the <sup>k</sup> book of life, but <sup>l</sup> I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 <sup>m</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write, These things saith <sup>n</sup> he that is holy, <sup>o</sup> he that is true, he that hath <sup>p</sup> the key of David, <sup>q</sup> he that openeth, and no man shutteth, and <sup>r</sup> shutteth, and no man openeth;

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, <sup>y</sup> I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, <sup>z</sup> which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell <sup>a</sup> upon the earth.

11 Behold, <sup>b</sup> I come quickly: <sup>c</sup> hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take <sup>d</sup> thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make <sup>e</sup> a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and <sup>f</sup> I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is <sup>g</sup> new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: <sup>h</sup> and I will write upon him my new name.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, <sup>o</sup> I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsel thee <sup>p</sup> to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and <sup>q</sup> white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve that thou mayest see.

19 <sup>r</sup> As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, <sup>s</sup> I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

11<sup>b</sup> Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAP. V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open: 12 therefore the elders praise him, and confess that he redeemed them with his blood.

And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne<sup>a</sup> a book written within, and on the back side, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man<sup>c</sup> in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood<sup>8</sup> a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and<sup>h</sup> seven eyes, which are<sup>i</sup> the seven Spirits of God sent forth unto all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand<sup>k</sup> of him that sat upon the throne.

8<sup>1</sup> And when he had taken the book, the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them<sup>m</sup> harps, and golden vials full of || odours, which are the prayers of saints.

9<sup>o</sup> And they sung a new song, saying, P Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and<sup>r</sup> hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10<sup>t</sup> And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels<sup>u</sup> round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders: and the number of them was<sup>x</sup> ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Y<sup>y</sup>Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And<sup>z</sup> every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, a Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him<sup>b</sup> that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

14<sup>c</sup> And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him<sup>d</sup> that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

The opening of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon; containing a prophecy to the end of the world.

And<sup>a</sup> I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, b one of the four beasts saying, Come, and see.

2 And I saw, and behold, c a white horse; d and he that sat on him had a bow, e and a crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, f I heard the second beast say, Come, and see.

4<sup>g</sup> And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, h I heard the third beast say, Come, and see. And I beheld, and lo, i a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, || A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and<sup>k</sup> see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, l I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come, and see.

8<sup>m</sup> And I looked, and behold, a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given || unto them over the fourth part of the earth, earth, <sup>a</sup> to kill with sword, and with hunger, <sup>o</sup> and with death, <sup>p</sup> and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under <sup>q</sup> the altar <sup>r</sup> the souls of them that were slain <sup>s</sup> for the word of God, and for <sup>t</sup> the testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, <sup>u</sup> How long, O Lord, holy and true, <sup>x</sup> dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And <sup>y</sup> white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, <sup>z</sup> that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also, and their brethren that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, <sup>a</sup> and lo, there was a great earthquake, and <sup>b</sup> the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 <sup>c</sup> And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her <sup>d</sup> untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 <sup>e</sup> And the heaven departed as a scroll, when it is rolled together; and <sup>f</sup> every mountain and island were moved out of their places:

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man, <sup>g</sup> hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 <sup>h</sup> And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hid us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 <sup>i</sup> For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able <sup>j</sup> to stand?

C H A P. VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number; 9 of all other nations an innumerable multitude which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands: 14 their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

And, after these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, <sup>a</sup> holding the four winds of the earth, <sup>b</sup> that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, <sup>c</sup> Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have <sup>d</sup> sealed the servants of our God <sup>e</sup> in their foreheads.

4 <sup>f</sup> And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtholim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, <sup>g</sup> a great multitude which no man could number, <sup>h</sup> of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, <sup>i</sup> clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, <sup>k</sup> Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 <sup>l</sup> And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 <sup>m</sup> Saying, Amen: blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in <sup>n</sup> white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, <sup>o</sup> These are they which came out of great tribulation, life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them. 3 Another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar. 6 Four angels sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound.

And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

CHAPTER IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit: 2 he openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first wo past. 13 The sixth trumpet soundeth. 14 Four angels are let loose that were bound.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense that he should offer it, with the prayers of all saints, upon the golden altar, which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God, out of the angels hand.

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit, and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened, by reason of the smoke of the pit.

6 And the seven angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood:

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breast-plates, as it were breast-plates of iron; and the found of their wings was as the found of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 One wo is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand; and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses, were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and didols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood; which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their forceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

1 A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand: he sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven and the things that therein are, and the earth and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book, which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angels hand, and ate it up; and

C H A P. XI.

3 The two witnesses prophesy: 6 they have power to shut heaven, that it rain not: 7 the beast shall fight against them, and kill them: 8 they lie unburied, 11 and after three days and an half rise again. 14 The second wo is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me <sup>a</sup> a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, <sup>b</sup> Rise and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple † leave out, and measure it not; <sup>c</sup> for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they <sup>d</sup> tread under foot <sup>e</sup> forty and two months.

3 And || I will give power unto my two <sup>f</sup> witnesses, <sup>g</sup> and they shall prophesy <sup>h</sup> a thousand two hundred and threescore days clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the <sup>i</sup> two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, <sup>k</sup> fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: <sup>l</sup> and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These <sup>m</sup> have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and <sup>n</sup> have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they <sup>o</sup> shall have finished their testimony, <sup>p</sup> the beast that ascendeth <sup>q</sup> out of the bottomless pit <sup>r</sup> shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of <sup>s</sup> the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, <sup>t</sup> where also our Lord was crucified.

9 <sup>u</sup> And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, <sup>x</sup> and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 <sup>y</sup> And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, <sup>z</sup> and shall send gifts one to another; <sup>a</sup> because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 <sup>b</sup> And after three days and an half, <sup>c</sup> the Spirit of life from God entered into them; and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. <sup>d</sup> And they ascended up to heaven <sup>e</sup> in a cloud, <sup>f</sup> and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour <sup>g</sup> was there a great earthquake, <sup>h</sup> and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain † of men seven thousand; and the remnant were affrighted, <sup>i</sup> and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 <sup>k</sup> The second wo is past, and behold, the third wo cometh quickly.

15 And <sup>l</sup> the seventh angel sounded, <sup>m</sup> and there were great voices in heaven, saying, <sup>n</sup> The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ, <sup>o</sup> and he shall reign for ever and ever.

4 And e his tail drew the third part f of the stars of heaven, g and did cast them to the earth; and the dragon stood h before the woman which was ready to be delivered, i for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man-child, k who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And l the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there m a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven; n Michael and his angels fought o against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And p the great dragon was cast out, q that old serpent, called the devil and Satan, r which deceiveth the whole world: s he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, t Now is come salvation and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, u which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And x they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; y and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore z rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. a Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea; for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, b because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted c the woman which brought forth the man-child.

14 d And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, e that she might fly f into the wilderness, into her place: where she is nourished g for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent h cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, i and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have k the testimony of Jesus Christ.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

And I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Fathers name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder; and I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders; and no man could learn that song, but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women: for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God, and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgment is come; and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone, in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

Lord, from henceforth : Yea, faith the Spirit, <sup>1</sup> that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat, <sup>k</sup> like unto the Son of man, <sup>1</sup> having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel <sup>m</sup> came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, <sup>n</sup> Thrust in thy sickle, and reap : for the time is come for thee to reap ; for the harvest <sup>o</sup> of the earth is || ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth ; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple, which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, <sup>p</sup> which had power over fire ; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, <sup>q</sup> and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth ; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into <sup>r</sup> the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And <sup>s</sup> the wine-press was troden <sup>t</sup> without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, <sup>u</sup> even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcome the beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

And <sup>a</sup> I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, <sup>b</sup> seven angels having the seven last plagues, <sup>c</sup> for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were <sup>d</sup> a sea of glass, <sup>e</sup> mingled with fire ; and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, <sup>f</sup> and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, <sup>g</sup> having the harps of God.

3 And they sing <sup>h</sup> the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, <sup>i</sup> Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God almighty ; <sup>k</sup> just and true are thy ways, thou King of || saints.

4 <sup>1</sup> Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name ? for thou only art holy : for <sup>m</sup> all nations shall come and worship before thee ; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, <sup>n</sup> the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened :

6 <sup>o</sup> And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and <sup>p</sup> having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 <sup>q</sup> And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, <sup>r</sup> who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And <sup>s</sup> the temple was filled with smoke <sup>t</sup> from the glory of God, and from his power ; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath : 6 the plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying <sup>a</sup> to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials <sup>b</sup> of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial <sup>c</sup> upon the earth ; and <sup>d</sup> there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men <sup>e</sup> which had the mark of the beast, and upon them <sup>f</sup> which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial <sup>g</sup> upon the sea ; and <sup>h</sup> it became as the blood of a dead man : <sup>i</sup> and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial <sup>k</sup> upon the rivers and fountains of waters ; <sup>l</sup> and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, <sup>m</sup> which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus :

6 For <sup>n</sup> they have shed the blood <sup>o</sup> of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink ; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, <sup>p</sup> Lord God almighty, <sup>q</sup> true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial <sup>r</sup> upon the sun ; <sup>s</sup> and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

11 And <sup>a</sup> blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and their sores, <sup>b</sup> and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial <sup>c</sup> upon the great river Euphrates; <sup>d</sup> and the water thereof was dried up, <sup>e</sup> that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean <sup>f</sup> spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of <sup>g</sup> the dragon, and out of the mouth of <sup>h</sup> the beast, and out of the mouth of <sup>i</sup> the false prophet.

14 <sup>j</sup> For they are the spirits of devils, <sup>k</sup> working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, <sup>l</sup> and of the whole world, to gather them to <sup>m</sup> the battle of that great day of God almighty.

16 <sup>p</sup> And he gathered them together into a place called, in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, <sup>q</sup> It is done.

18 And <sup>r</sup> there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; <sup>s</sup> and there was a great earthquake, <sup>t</sup> such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And <sup>u</sup> the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon <sup>x</sup> came in remembrance before God, <sup>y</sup> to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 <sup>z</sup> And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 <sup>a</sup> And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and <sup>b</sup> men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 14 The victory of the Lamb. 16 The punishment of the whore.

AND there came <sup>a</sup> one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, <sup>b</sup> I will shew unto thee the judgment of <sup>c</sup> the great whore, <sup>d</sup> that sitteth upon many waters;

4 And the woman <sup>m</sup> was arrayed in purple, and scarlet-colour, <sup>n</sup> and <sup>o</sup> decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, <sup>p</sup> having a golden cup in her hand, <sup>q</sup> full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

6 And I saw <sup>v</sup> the woman drunken <sup>w</sup> with the blood of the saints, <sup>x</sup> and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not; and <sup>y</sup> shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and <sup>z</sup> go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth <sup>a</sup> shall wonder, (<sup>b</sup> whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

10 And there are seven kings : five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, <sup>d</sup> he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, <sup>c</sup> and goeth into perdition.

12 And <sup>f</sup> the ten horns, which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 <sup>g</sup> These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them : <sup>h</sup> for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; <sup>i</sup> and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, <sup>k</sup> The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, <sup>l</sup> are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, <sup>m</sup> these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, <sup>n</sup> and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and <sup>o</sup> burn her with fire.

17 <sup>p</sup> For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, <sup>q</sup> until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, <sup>r</sup> is that great city <sup>s</sup> which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

C H A P. XVIII.

2 Babylon is fallen. 4 The people of God commanded to depart out of her. 9 The kings of the earth, 11 with the merchants and mariners, lament over her : 20 the saints rejoice for the judgments of God upon her.

And <sup>a</sup> after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, <sup>b</sup> Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and <sup>c</sup> is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and <sup>d</sup> a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations <sup>e</sup> have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, <sup>f</sup> and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the <sup>g</sup> abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, <sup>h</sup> Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues :

5 <sup>i</sup> For her sins have reached unto heaven, and <sup>j</sup> God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 <sup>k</sup> Reward her even as the rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works : <sup>l</sup> in the cup which she hath filled, <sup>m</sup> fill to her double.

7 <sup>n</sup> How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her : for the faith in her heart, I sit a <sup>o</sup> queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come <sup>p</sup> in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and <sup>q</sup> she shall be utterly burnt with fire : <sup>r</sup> for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And <sup>s</sup> the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, <sup>t</sup> shall bewail her, and lament for her, <sup>u</sup> when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, <sup>x</sup> Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city ! <sup>y</sup> for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And <sup>z</sup> the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth her merchandise any more :

12 <sup>a</sup> The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all <sup>b</sup> thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and <sup>c</sup> slaves, and <sup>d</sup> souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 <sup>e</sup> The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping, and wailing,

17 <sup>e</sup> For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And <sup>f</sup> every ship-matter, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried <sup>g</sup> when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, <sup>h</sup> What city is like unto this great city?

19 And <sup>i</sup> they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness! <sup>k</sup> for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 <sup>l</sup> Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets, for <sup>m</sup> God hath avenged you on her.

21 And <sup>n</sup> a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, <sup>o</sup> Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all

22 <sup>p</sup> And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be <sup>q</sup> heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 <sup>r</sup> And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; <sup>s</sup> and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for <sup>t</sup> thy merchants were the great men of the earth; <sup>u</sup> for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And <sup>v</sup> in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped.

And after these things <sup>a</sup> I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying All luita; <sup>b</sup> Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For <sup>c</sup> true and righteous are his judgments, for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and <sup>d</sup> hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And <sup>e</sup> her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And <sup>f</sup> the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts, fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, <sup>g</sup> Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, <sup>h</sup> both small and great.

6 <sup>i</sup> And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for <sup>k</sup> the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for <sup>l</sup> the marriage of the Lamb is come, and <sup>m</sup> his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And <sup>n</sup> to her was granted, that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and <sup>o</sup> white: <sup>p</sup> for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, <sup>q</sup> Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, <sup>r</sup> These are the true sayings of God.

10 And <sup>s</sup> I fell at his feet to worship him; and he said unto me, <sup>t</sup> See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren <sup>u</sup> that have the testimony of Jesus; worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 <sup>v</sup> And I saw heaven opened, and behold, <sup>w</sup> a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called <sup>x</sup> Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 <sup>y</sup> His eyes were as a flame of fire, <sup>z</sup> and on his head were many crowns; <sup>a</sup> and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself:

13 <sup>b</sup> And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood; and his name is called, <sup>c</sup> The Word of God.

14 <sup>d</sup> And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, <sup>e</sup> clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And <sup>f</sup> out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations, and <sup>g</sup> he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and <sup>h</sup> he treadeth the wine-prefs of the fierceness and wrath of almighty God.

5 The first resurrection: 6 they blessed that have part therein.

10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, <sup>a</sup> having the key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on <sup>b</sup> the dragon, that old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, <sup>c</sup> and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, <sup>d</sup> that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that, he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw <sup>e</sup> thrones, and they sat upon them, and <sup>f</sup> judgment was given unto them: and I saw <sup>g</sup> the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and <sup>h</sup> which had not worshipped the beast, <sup>i</sup> neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and <sup>k</sup> reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again, until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such <sup>l</sup> the second death hath no power, but they shall be <sup>m</sup> priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, <sup>n</sup> Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out <sup>o</sup> to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, <sup>p</sup> Gog and Magog, <sup>q</sup> to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 <sup>r</sup> And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 <sup>s</sup> And the devil, that deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, <sup>t</sup> where the beast and the false prophet are, and <sup>u</sup> shall be tormented day and night, for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face <sup>v</sup> the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, <sup>w</sup> small and great, stand before God; <sup>x</sup> and the books were opened: and another <sup>y</sup> book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, <sup>z</sup> according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; <sup>a</sup> and death and <sup>b</sup> hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And <sup>c</sup> death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. <sup>d</sup> This is the second death.

1 A new heaven and a new earth.
 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof: 23 she needeth no sun, the glory of God is her light: 24 the kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

12 And had a wall great and high, and had <sup>2</sup> twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 <sup>3</sup> On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and <sup>b</sup> in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me <sup>c</sup> had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysopterus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: <sup>d</sup> and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 <sup>e</sup> And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple of it.

23 <sup>f</sup> And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it: <sup>g</sup> for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 <sup>h</sup> And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 <sup>i</sup> And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for <sup>k</sup> there shall be no night there.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him.

4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book. Worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and fornicers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whatsoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, faith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

TABLES of SCRIPTURE MEASURES, WEIGHTS and COINS. With an APPENDIX containing the Method of Calculating its MEASURES of SURFACE, hereto wanting in Treatises on this Subject.

By the Right Rev. RICHARD Lord Bishop of Peterborough.

A MEASURE is a known Quantity applied to another of the same Kind that is less known, to make its Dimensions better known, by help of Numbers expressing the Proportion that the known Quantity bears to the unknown. The Dimensions to be measured are three. 1 Mere Length, which hath but one Dimension. 2 Surface, which consists of Length multiplied into Breadth: So it hath two Dimensions, as it were, interwoven, and this is always measured by some square Surface already known, as by a square Foot, or a square Cubit, or any other square already known by Help of its Side. Moses generally useth the square Cubit. 3 Is Solidity or Capacity, which hath three Dimensions multiplied into each other: Length, Breadth, and Height or Depth. This is measured by a known Cube. From Solidity ariseth Weight in all sublunary Bodies; and by Weight we measure the Value of Coins: Therefore I shall join Weights and Coins together in the fourth Table.

I use = to signify Equal, :: to express Proportion: . is called Separatrix, putting Decimals from Integers.

I. T A B L E. Measures of Length.

I express the Cubit, and its Parts, both by Inch-measure and by Foot-measure; which I deduce from Inches by this Proportion.

II. T A B L E

TABLES of Scripture Measures, Weights and Coins.

II. TABLE. Measures of Surface.

Moses hath described these by square Cubits. I here express them reduced to our square Feet: The Method of this Reduction is taught in an Appendix. I first propose three clear examples given by Moses. Secondly, I place six Instances of greater Difficulty.

The clearest Examples are,

I. The Altar of Incense. Only two Sides of it, viz. its Length and Breadth are express'd by Moses, each of them is affirm'd to be one Cubit. Yet he declares that it was four-square: Whence we collect, that it was just one square Cubit. See Exodus xxx. 2. Now it is demonstrat'd in the Appendix, that one Jewish square Cubit amounts to in Surface three English square Feet, and about 47 square Inches.

II. The Table of Shew-bread, Exodus xxv. 23. It is affirm'd to be two Cubits in Length, and one in Breadth: None doubt but it was rectangular, containing two Jewish square Cubits. These amount to above six English square Feet, and above Half, viz. 94 square Inches.

III. The Boards of the Tabernacle, each ten Cubits in Length, and one and a Half in Breadth, Exodus xxvi. 16. being rectangular, must contain 15 square Cubits Jewish. These are prov'd to contain very near 50 square Feet of English Measure.

The more difficult Cases refer'd to the Appendix are,

I. The mercy-seat, whose Surface is = 12 square Feet and a half.

II. A general Method is taught of reducing any given Number of Jewish Cubits to English square Feet.

III. The Example of the Fifteen square Cubits in the Boards of the Tabernacle is made clear.

IV. The Court of the Tabernacle, described Exodus xxvii. 18. is found to be just Half the Egyptian Aroura, and to contain 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 square Feet, &c.

V. The whole Aroura is determin'd, and reduced to our English Measures, 3 Roods, 2 Perches, 55 square Feet.

VI. The Suburbs, or Glebe-land, given to each City of the Levites, Numbers xxxv. 3, 4, 5. is shew'd to be a Square, on each of the four Sides of every City, containing a Million of Jewish square Cubits, or 100 Arourae; which amount to, in each Square, 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet: Whence we collect, that all the four Squares amounted to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch, besides 51 Feet square.

III. TABLE. Measures of Capacity.

This Cotyla contains just 10 Ounces Averdupois of Rain-water: Omer 100: Epha 1000: Chomer 10,000. So by these Weights, all these Measures of Capacity may be expeditiously recover'd, very near Exactness.

AN APPENDIX to the second Table of Measures of Surface, described by Moses, shewing the Method of reducing them by Calculation to the Measures used in England, for the Benefit of those that understand Decimal Arithmetick, and desire to try the Reductions given in the Table, or to make further Improvements in this Kind of Measures.

I Shall begin with Reduction of the Measures of the Mercy-seat, which was God's Throne of Grace among the Jews. Moses in Exodus xxv. 17. affirms, that its Length was two Cubits and  $\frac{1}{2}$ , its Breadth one Cubit and  $\frac{1}{2}$ . The Fractions, adhering to its Length and Breadth, make some Difficulty to Beginners in Arithmetick, which the Decimal Way doth much abate. Supposing therefore, what I have elsewhere proved, that the Jewish Cubit was in Foot-measure 1.824. the Length must be expressed in Foot-measure, and Decimals thereof 4.560. the Breadth in like Measure, will be 2.736. wherefore the Product of these Numbers multiplied into each other gives its Surface 12.47616: In Number of its square Feet, and Decimals thereof, 12 square Feet, and very near Half a square Foot, if the Decimals had been .50, it had been just Half a Foot. If we desire to express those Decimals of a Foot in square Inches, as is usual in England, we must multiply .47616 by 144, the square Inches of a Foot, and the Product will be 68.56704: Which shews, that the Decimals we found amount to 68 square Inches, and above Half an Inch more: We need not be nicer.

2. In the Altar of Incense Moses describes the Jewish square Cubit, which must be reduced to our Foot-measure, thus  $1 \frac{8}{12} \frac{1}{2}$ : the Product of these Numbers multiplied, will be the upper Surface of this Altar, 3.326976, that is, three square Feet and .326976 Decimals of a square Foot, which we may express by 47 square Inches, and a few Decimals of an Inch square, inconsiderable.

3. Moses's

1. The Mercy-seat.

2. A square Cubit reduced to our Measure.

APPENDIX to the second Table of Measures of Surface.

2. The Boards of the Tabernacle.

3. Moses's Description of the Boards of the Tabernacle, Exodus xxvi. 16. by ten Cubits in Length, and one and a Half in Breadth, naturally leads a Man to discern in each Board's Surface 15 Jewish square Cubits; because if we conceive a Line drawn from the End of one Cubit at the Bottom of the Board, to the End of one Cubit at the Top of the Board, this must needs be ten whole square Cubits on one Side of that Line, and ten Half square Cubits (= 5 whole) on the other Side of that Line: Here therefore are 15 square Cubits. The Reduction of these into English square Feet is performed by multiplying 15, viz. the Number of Cubits given, into 3.326976, the Feet and Decimals of one square Cubit, and the Product will be 49.90464, and that is very near to 50 square Feet, for those Decimals amount to above 10 square Inches, and little more than 13 square Inches would make it just 50 Feet, which Abatement we need not here regard.

4. The Court of the Tabernacle.

4. Let us now go to the Measure of the Surface of Land: But we will begin with the Court of the Tabernacle, the Ground on which the Priests performed all the solemn publick worship of Israel, in Moses's Time. The Area of this Court is described by Moses, Exodus xxvii. 18. by its Length 100 Cubits, and its Breadth every where 50 Cubits. Wherefore this Area must be in Jewish Measure 5000 square Cubits, for that is the Product of 100 multiplied into 50. To reduce these 5000 Jewish Cubits into English square Feet, I must multiply 5000 into 3.326976, the Product is 16634.88 English square Feet.

But in Cases of such long Numbers of Feet, we use, for Brevity's sake, and to help our Memories, to reduce them into Perches, or Roods, or Acres, which contain known Numbers of square Feet. A Perch contains 272 square Feet and  $\frac{1}{2}$ . A Rood is = to 10890 square Feet. An Acre is = to 43560 square Feet. It is plain that the Number 16634.88 hath not Integers equal to those of an Acre: but it hath enough to answer those in a Rood, and some overplus; therefore I must divide 16634.88, by 10890 which is a Rood, by such Division continued in the Decimal Way, until I have a Fraction of five or six Places, which is exact enough, I find the Quote to be 1.527587, which assures me that my Number 16634.88, hath but once entirely in it a whole Rood; but it hath moreover in it many Decimal Parts of a Rood. These therefore I reduce to the Perches contained in them, by multiplying them into 40, which is the Number of Perches that make up a Rood; and cutting off six Places from the Product, which is 21.101480; so I find there are 21 Perches entire, and the Figures after the Separatrix are Decimals of a Perch. These also I multiply by 272.25 which are the square Feet and Decimals of a Perch. The Product of this last Multiplication, after eight Places cut off from it by the Separatrix, because there are six Places of Decimals in one of the Multipliers, and two in the other, is 27.62793000. Hence I learn, that there are therein but 27 entire Feet, all the eight Decimal Places amount to little above Half a Foot, and therefore I cast them away as inconsiderable in the Measure of Land. This Method of Reduction by Multiplication of Decimals I find to be easier than the common Way of Reduction by Division, and therefore I propose it to be used by Beginners in this Practice of Surveying. So I find this Court to contain in English Measure 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 Feet, and little more than Half a Foot squared. But reflecting upon Moses's Measure by Cubits, and finding them to be precisely 5000 square Cubits, I observed that they were just Half 10000, which I had observed from Herodotus Euterpe, to be the Area of the Egyptian Aouræ, by which their Land was as generally measured as ours is by Acres and Roods. See Herodot. l. 2. c. 168; I called also to mind a Passage in Manetho an Egyptian Priest, cited by Josephus in his first Book against Apion, where he affirms that Manetho in his History of the Reign, Wars, and Expulsion of the Pastors, (whom Africanus affirms to be Phœnicians or Canaanites, and Josephus vainly believed to be Jews.) wrote out of the publick Records of Egypt, that the Pastors made at Abaris, a very large and strong Encampment that encompassed 10000 Aouræ, sufficient to contain 240000 Men, and long to maintain their Cattle. Hence it appears, that not only the Egyptians, but the Phœnicians or Canaanites also that had dwelt among them, and had reigned there during the Time of six Kings successively, used this Measure of Land, called Aouræ. Now this was long before Moses's Time; for the beginning of Amosis or Tethmofis, who expelled them out of Egypt, was very near the Time of Abraham's Death, as appears by the Annals of the learned Primate

mate of Ireland. Wherefore I believe that Moses, who was skilled in all Egyptian learning, especially Surveying, did of Choice make the Court of the Tabernacle to be just Half an Aroura, which was a known Measure to him and his People, who had long dwelt in Egypt, and Divine Authority directed him so to do.

5. Because we have shewn from Herodotus, that an Aroura is the Square of 100 Jewish or Egyptian Cubits, and 100 such Cubits may in English Foot-measure be express'd by 182.4 English Feet. it follows that the Square of this Number will express exactly the Number of the English square Feet, that are contained in an Aroura. Now by Multiplication of 182.4 into itself. I find the Product to be 33269.76. Therefore I conclude that there are 33269 square Feet entire, and 76 Decimals of a square Foot in an Aroura. Now to reduce these English square Feet into Roods, Perches, and the Remainder of square Feet. I use the Method used in the last Paragraph; First, I divide them by 10890, the square Feet in a Rood, and the Quote I find 3.055074, that is, three Roods, and .055074 Decimals of a Rood. Secondly, I multiply those Decimals by 40, which is the Number of Perches in a Rood, the Product is 2.202960. Hence I conclude there are therein two Perches and .202960 Decimals of a Perch. Thirdly, I multiply these last Decimals by 272.25, which are the square Feet of a Perch. The Product is 55.25586000, that is 55 intire square Feet, the eight Places of Decimals amount to little above  $\frac{1}{7}$  of a square Foot, therefore I reject them as inconsiderable in Measure of Land. By all these Reductions it is found that an Aroura is, in English Measure, three Roods, two Perches,  $55\frac{1}{7}$  square Feet. Hence it follows also that it is not well translated by Jugerum, for it is much larger; nor is it well in English called an Acre, for it is considerably less. To this Place I refer the Use of the lesser Sort of  $\chi\epsilon\iota\nu\omicron\varsigma$ , which yet is most convenient for the Use of the Egyptians and of the Jews to measure out private Mens Inheritances, by a Line which was 80 Cubits long. For the Length of this Line will measure one Side of an Aroura, if the other Side be 125 Cubits long, which is the Length of this Line, and its Half, and five Cubits above Half of it, which they might easily mark in it by a knot or a Ring. And by this Means they might easily lay any Number of Arourae together, all of them rectangular and parallel to each other. Such Lines I suppose for Measure of Inheritances are intimated Psalms lxxviii. 55. and xvi. 6, &c.

6. I shall conclude with an Example amounting, after Reduction, to a Number of English Acres, which Measure we have not yet reached to. This I take from Numbers xxxv. 3, 4, 5, Verses: There Moses describes what Measure of Land the Levites were to be allowed for their Cattle, their Goods, and all their Beasts on the North, East, South and West Sides of each of their Cities. So that the City was to be in midst of the Land belonging to it. This Land in our Translation is called Suburbs, because of its nearness to all their Cities. But we must not thence imagine, that it means Houses and Streets adjoining to their Cities, in which Sense we some times use the Word Suburbs. For Moses plainly tells us, they were Places for their several Sorts of Cattle to feed in, such as might also be Orchards or Gardens for Fruits, or perhaps for a little Corn, comprehended in the Word [their Goods.] These Fields he limits by 1000 Cubits, which was just a Quarter of an Eastern Mile, but amounts in mere Length to 608 Yards English Measure, and therefore exceeds a Quarter of an English Mile by 168 Yards in Length. But it is certain, that Cattle cannot feed upon mere Length, but this must signify the Side of some Surface of Land bounded thereby, and we must have two Sides of that Surface given before we can find the Area, or Surface contained. Therefore Moses, Verse 5. tells us, That on each side of each City, they must measure 2000 Cubits, which will determine no Surface, unless we understand it to mean the two Sides of a Square, bounded on every side by 1000 Cubits; these two Sides multiplied into each other will produce a Square that contains just a Million of square Cubits, and that is a known and exact Measure of just 100 Arourae, and this shews that the 2000 Cubits mentioned, Verse 5. are the two Sides of that Square, whereof the 1000 mentioned Verse 4. is one, and may be called the Root of the Square. This shews the Agreement of the two different Numbers. The Reduction of this Million of Square Cubits will be performed by the same Method that I have used before. Therefore, First, I express 1000 Jewish Cubits by 182.4 English Feet, without any Separatrix, according to the Principles owned in Decimal Arithmetick, and

6. The Levites Glebe.

APPENDIX to the second Table of Measures of Surface.

and the Square of that Number will be 3326976, without a Separatrix. Secondly, I divide this Number by 43560, which are the square Feet of an Acre, and find the Quote to be 76.376859, which signify 76 intire Acres, and 376859 Decimals of an Acre. Thirdly, To find what Roods are contained in these Decimals, I multiply them by 4, the Number of Roods in an Acre, and find the Quote to be 1.507436, which proves that there is but one Rood in them, and the six Figures cut off by the Separatrix, (because there were six Decimals in one of the Multipliers,) are all Decimals of a Rood. Fourthly, Therefore to find what Perches are in these last Decimals, I multiply them by 40, which is the Number of Perches contained in a Rood. The Product is 20.297440; hereby I find there are 20 intire Perches, besides the Decimals of a Perch placed after the Separatrix. Fifthly, To find what square Feet are in those last Decimals, I multiply them by 272.25, which are the square Feet and Decimals in a Perch, the Product is 80.97804, which is 80 square Feet. and all the Decimals not amounting to a square Foot, I reject as inconsiderable in Measure of Land. Thus we have found, that this and every other Square, on each Side of every Levitical City, was prescribed to be 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet in our Measure, but was just a Million of square Cubits in their Measure.

To add the four Squares belonging to one Levitical City together, the best Way will be to take the first Quote that we found in Acre-measure, viz. 76.376859, and we must multiply it by 4, and we shall find, by the Method I have used, all the four Squares together to amount to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch; we need not take Notice of any lesser Quantities in this Case: We may also, by this Method, find the Sum of the Acres belonging to all the 48 Cities of the Levites, and many other Improvements in this Kind of measuring Surfaces: But I leave them to the Industry of others.

The PSALMS of DAVID in METRE.

PSALM I.

THAT man hath perfect blessedness, who walketh not astray
 In counsel of ungodly men,
 nor stands in sinners way,
 Nor sitteth in the scorners chair:
 But placeth his delight
 Upon Gods law, and meditates on his law day and night.
 He shall be like a tree that grows near planted by a river,
 Which in his season yields his fruit,
 and his leaf fadeth never:
 And all he doth shall prosper well.
 The wicked are not so;
 But like they are unto the chaff which wind drives to and fro.
 In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are;
 Nor in th' assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.
 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
 Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrowen.

PSALM II.

WHY rage the heathen? and vain things
 why do the people mind?
 Kings of the earth do set themselves,
 and princes are combin'd,
 To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, saying thus,
 Let us asunder break their bands,
 and cast their cords from us.
 He that in heaven sits shall laugh:
 the Lord shall scorn them all.
 Then shall he speak to them in wrath,
 in rage he vex them all.
 Yet notwithstanding I have him,
 to be my King appointed:
 And o'er Zion my holy hill
 I have him King anointed.
 The sure decree I will declare:
 the Lord hath said to me,
 Thou art mine only Son, this day
 I have begotten thee
 Ask of me, and for heritage
 the heathen I'll make thine;
 And, for possession, I to thee will give earth's utmost line.
 Thou shalt, as with a weighty rod of iron, break them all;
 And, as a potter's sherd, thou shalt them dash in pieces small.
 Now therefore, kings, be wise, be taught,
 ye judges of the earth.
 Serve God in fear, and see that ye join trembling with your mirth.

12 Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire
 ye perish from the way,
 If once his wrath begin to burn:
 blest all that on him stay.

PSALM III.

1 O Lord, how are my foes increas'd?
 against me many rise.
 2 Many say of my soul, For him
 in God no succour lies.
 3 Yet thou my shield and glory art,
 th' uplifter of mine head.
 4 I cry'd, and from his holy hill
 the Lord me answer made.
 5 I laid me down, and slept, I wak'd, for God sustained me.
 6 I will not fear, though thousands ten set round against me be.
 7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God;
 for thou my foes hast strok
 All on the cheek-bone, and the teeth of wicked men hast broke.
 8 Salvation doth appertain unto the Lord alone:
 Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore thy people is upon.

PSALM IV.

1 Give ear unto me when I call,
 God of my righteousness:
 Have mercy, hear my pray'r, thou hast
 enlarg'd me in distress.
 2 O ye the sons of men, how long will ye love vanities?
 How long my glory turn to shame,
 and will ye follow lies?
 3 But know, that for himself the Lord
 the godly man doth choose:
 The Lord, when I on him do call,
 to hear will not refuse.
 4 Fear, and sin not, talk with your heart on bed, and silent be.
 5 Off'rings present of righteousness,
 and in the Lord trust ye.
 6 O who will shew us any good?
 is that which many say:
 But of thy countenance the light,
 Lord, list on us alway.
 7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee,
 more gladness I have found.
 Than they ev'n then when corn and wine
 did most with them abound.
 8 I will both lye me down in peace, and quiet sleep will take:
 Because thou only me to dwell in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

1 Give ear unto my words, O Lord, my meditation weigh.
 2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my God,
 for I to thee will pray.

P S A L M S V, VI, VII.

3 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voice,
I early will direct
My prayer to thee, and looking up an answer will expect.

4 For thou art not a God that doth in wickedness delight:
Neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 Nor fools stand in thy sight:
All that ill-doers are thou hast.

6 Cutt' off that liars be:
The bloody and deceitful man abhorred is by thee.

7 But I into thy house will come in thine abundant grace:
And I will worship in thy fear, towards thy holy place.

8 Because of those mine enemies,
Lord, in thy righteousness,
Do thou me lead: do thou thy way make straight before my face.

9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
their inward part is ill;
Their throats an open sepulchre, their tongue doth flatter still.

10 O God, destroy them, let them be by their own counsel quell'd:
Them, for their many sins, cast out,
for they 'gainst thee rebell'd.

11 But let all joy that trust in thee,
and still make shouting noise:
For them thou sav'st: let all that love thy name in thee rejoice.

12 For, Lord, unto the righteous man thou wilt thy blessing yield:
With favour thou wilt compass him about, as with a shield.

P S A L M VI.

1 Lord, in thy wrath rebuke me not,
Nor in thine anger chasten me.

2 Lord, pity me, for I am weak:
Heal me, for my bones vexed be.

3 My soul is also vexed sore;
But, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?

4 Return, O Lord, my soul set free:
O save me for thy mercies sake.

5 Because those that deceased are
Of thee shall no remembrance have;
And who is he that will to thee
Give praises, lying in the grave?

6 I with my groaning weary am,
I also, all the night my bed,
Have caused for to swim: and I
With tears my couch have watered.

7 Mine eye, consum'd with grief, grows old,
Because of all mine enemies,

8 Hence from me wicked workers all;
For God hath heard my weeping cries.

9 God hath my supplication heard,
My pray'r received graciously.

10 Sham'd and sore vex'd be all my foes,
Sham'd and back-turn'd suddenly.

Another of the same.

1 IN thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not:
Nor on me lay thy chastening hand
in thy displeasure hot.

2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me have mercy, and me spare:
Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st my bones much vexed are.

3 My soul is vexed sore: but, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?

4 Return, Lord, free my soul, and save me for thy mercies sake.

5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be:
Of those that in the grave do ly,
who shall give thanks to thee?

6 I with my groaning weary am,
and all the night my bed
I caused for to swim: with tears
my couch I watered

7 By reason of my vexing grief, mine eye consumed is:

It waxeth old because of all that be mine enemies.

8 But now depart from me, all ye
that work iniquity:
For why, the Lord hath heard my voice,
when I did mourn and cry.

9 Unto my supplication
the Lord did hearing give;
When I to him my prayer make,
the Lord will it receive.

10 Let all be sham'd and troubled sore that enemies are to me;
Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

P S A L M VII.

1 O Lord, my God, in thee do I
my confidence repose:
Save and deliver me from all my persecuting foes.

2 Lest that the enemy my soul
should like a lion tear,
In pieces renting it, while there is no deliverer.

3 O Lord my God, if it be so that I committed this;
If it be so that in my hands
iniquity there is:

4 If I rewarded ill to him that was at peace with me: (Ye, ev'n the man that without cause my foe was, I did free.)

5 Then let the foe pursue, and take my soul, and my life thrust Down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord, raise thyself, for my foes raging be:
And to the judgment which thou hast commanded, wake for me.

P S A L M S VIII. IX.

So shall th' assembly of thy folk about encompass thee :
Thou therefore, for their sakes, return unto thy place on high.
The Lord he shall the people judge :
my judge, Jehovah, be,
After my righteousnes, and mine
integrity in me.

O let the wicked's malice end,
but stablish stedfastly
The righteous : for the righteous God
the hearts and reins doth try.
In God, who saves th' upright in heart,
is my defence and stay.
God just men judgeth, God is wroth with ill men ev'ry day.

If he do not return again,
then he his sword will whet ;
His bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set.
He also hath for him prepar'd
the instruments of death ;
Against the persecutors he his shafts ordained hath.
Behold, he with iniquity doth travail as in birth ;
A mischief he conceived hath,
and falsehood shall bring forth.
He made a pit, and digg'd it deep,
another there to take.
But he is fall'n into the ditch which he himself did make.

Upon his own head his mischief shall be returned home ;
His violent dealing also down on his own pate shall come.
According to his righteousness
the Lord I'll magnify : And will sing praise unto the name of God that is most high.

P S A L M VIII.

How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy name !
Who hast thy glory far advanc'd above the starry frame.
From infants and from sucklings mouth,
thou didest strength ordain,
For thy foes cause that so thou might'st
th' avenging foe restrain.
When I look up unto the heav'ns, which thine own fingers fram'd, Unto the moon, and to the stars,
which were by thee ordain'd ;
Then say I, What is man, that he remembered is by thee ?
Or what the son of man, that thou so kind to him should'st be ?
For thou a little lower hast him than the angels made,
With glory and with dignity
thou crown'd hast his head.

Of thy hand-works thou mad'st him lord,
all under's feet didst lay :
7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and beasts that in the field do stray.
8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea,
all that pass through the same.
9 How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy name !

P S A L M IX.

Lord, thee I'll praise with all my heart,
thy wonders all proclaim.
2 In thee, most High, I'll greatly joy, and sing unto thy name.
3 When back my foes were turn'd, they fell,
and perish'd at thy sight.
4 For thou maintain'st my right and cause,
on throne sat'st judging right.
5 The heathen thou rebuked hast,
the wicked overthrown ;
Thou hast put out their names, that they may never more be known.
6 O en'my ! now destructions have an end perpetual.
Thou cities raz'd, perish'd with them is their memorial.
7 God shall endure for ay, he doth for judgment set his throne :
8 In righteousness to judge the world,
justice to give each one.
9 God also will a refuge be for those that are oppress ;
A refuge will be, in times of trouble, to distrest.
10 And they that know thy name in thee their confidence will place :
For thou hast not forsaken them
that truly seek thy face.
11 O sing ye praises to the Lord,
that dwells in Zion hill,
And all the nations among his deeds record ye still.

12 When he enquireth after blood,
he then remembereth them :
The humble folk he not forgets,
that call upon his name.
13 Lord, pity me, behold the grief which I from foes sustain, Ev'n thou, who from the gates of death
do'st raise me up again :
14 That I, in Sion's daughters gates, may all thy praise advance :
And that I may rejoice always in thy deliverance.
15 The heathen are sunk in the pit, which they themselves prepar'd ;
And in the net which they have hid,
their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 The Lord is by the judgment known which he himself hath wrought :
The sinners hands do make the snares, wherewith themselves are caught,

P S A L M S X, XI, XII.

- 17 They who are wicked into hell
each one shall turned be ;
And all the nations that forget to seek the Lord most high.
- 18 For they that needy are shall not for rotten be a way ;
The expectation of the poor shall not be lost for ay.
- 19 Arise, Lord, let not man prevail,
judge heathens in thy sight :
- 20 That they may know themselves but men
the nations, Lord, affright.

P S A L M X.

- 1 Wherefore is it, that thou, O Lord,
doest stand from us afar ?
And wherefore hidest thou thyself, when times so troublous are ?
- 2 The wicked in his lustin'is
doth persecute the poor :
In these devices they have fram'd,
let them be taken sure.
- 3 The wicked of his hearts desire doth talk with boasting great ;
He blesteth him that's covetous, whom yet the Lord doth hate.
- 4 The wicked, through his pride of face,
on God he doth not call ;
And in the counsels of his heart
the Lord is not at all.
- 5 His ways they always grievous are ;
thy judgments from his sight Removed are : at all his foes
he puffeth with despite.
- 6 Within his heart he thus hath said,
I shall not moved be ;
And no adversity at all shall ever come to me.
- 7 His mouth with cursing, fraud, deceit,
is fill'd abundantly :
And underneath his tongue there is mischief and vanity.
- 8 He closely sits in villages ;
he slays the innocent :
Against the poor that pass him by,
his cruel eyes are bent.
- 9 He lion-like lurks in his den ;
he waits the poor to take :
And when he draws him in his net,
his prey he doth him make.
- 10 Himself he humbleth very low,
he croucheth down withal,
That so a multitude of poor
may by his strong ones fall.
- 11 He thus hath said within his heart,
The Lord hath quite forgot :
He hides his countenance, and he for ever sees it not.
- 12 O Lord, do thou arise ; O God, lift up thine hand on high :
Put not the meek afflicted ones out of thy memory.

- 13 Why is it that the wicked man
thus doth the Lord despise :
Because that God will it require,
he in his heart denies.
- 14 Thou hast it seen, for their mischief and spit thou wilt repay :
The poor commits himself to thee,
thou art the orphans stay.
- 15 The arm break of the wicked man,
and of the evil one :
Do thou seek out his wickedness,
until thou findest none.
- 16 The Lord is King through ages all,
ev'n to eternity :
The heathen people from his land are perish'd utterly.
- 17 O Lord, of those that humble are thou the desire didst bear :
Thou wilt prepare their heart, and thou to hear wilt bend thine ear.
- 18 To judge the fatherless, and those that are oppress'd fore ;
That man, that is but sprung of earth,
may them oppress no more.

P S A L M XI.

- 1 In the Lord do put my trust :
how is it then that ye Say to my soul, Flee as a bird unto your mountain high ?
- 2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow, their shafts on string they fit,
That those who upright are in heart
they privily may hit.
- 3 If the foundations be destroy'd, what hath the righteous done ?
- 4 God in his holy temple is,
in heaven is his throne.
His eyes do see, his eye-lids try mens sons. The just he proves ;
But his soul hates the wicked man,
and him that violence loves.
- 6 Snares, fire and brimstone, furious storm on sinners he shall rain :
This, as the portion of their cup,
doth unto them pertain.
- 7 Because the Lord most righteous doth in righteousness delight,
And with a pleasant countenance beholdeth the upright.

P S A L M XII.

- 1 Help, Lord, because the godly man
doth daily fade away,
And from among the sons of men
the faithful do decay.
- 2 Unto his neighbour ev'ry one doth utter vanity :
They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of flattery.
- 3 God shall cut off all flattering lips, tongues that speak proudly, thus.
- 4 We'll with our tongue prevail, our lips are ours : who's Lord o'er us ?

P S A L M S XIII, XIV, XV, XVI.

- 5 For poor oppress'd, and for the sighs of needy rife will I, Saith God, and him in safety fet from such as him defy.
- 6 The words of God are words most pure,
they be like silver try'd
In earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purify'd.
- 7 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and keep for ever from this race.
- 8 On each side walk the wicked, when vile men are high in place.

P S A L M XIII.

- 1 How long wilt thou forget me, Lord?
shall it for ever be?
O how long shall it be, that thou wilt hide thy face from me?
- 2 How long take counsel in my soul,
still sad in heart, shall I?
How long exalted over me
shall be mine enemy?
- 3 O Lord my God, consider well, and answer to me make:
Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep of death me overtake.
- 4 Lest that mine enemy should say,
Against him I prevail'd;
And those that trouble me rejoice,
when I am mov'd and fail'd.
- 5 But I have all my confidence thy mercy set upon;
My heart within me shall rejoice in thy salvation.
- 6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises cheerfully,
Because he hath his bounty shown to me abundantly.

P S A L M XIV.

- 1 That there is not a God, the fool doth in his heart conclude:
They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.
- 2 Upon mens sons the Lord from heav'n did cast his eyes abroad,
To see if any understand,
and did seek after God.
- 3 They altogether filthy are,
they all aside are gone;
And there is none that doeth good,
yea, sure there is not one.
- 4 Those workers of iniquity,
do they not know at all,
That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call?
- 5 There fear'd they much; for God is with the whole race of the just.
- 6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
because God is his trust.
- 7 Let Israel's help from Zion come, when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall sing.

P S A L M XV.

- 1 Within thy tabernacle, Lord, who shall abide with thee?
And in thy high and holy hill who shall a dweller be?
- 2 The man that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteounesse,
And as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth he truth express.
- 3 Who doth not slander with his tongue;
nor to his friend doth hurt;
Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.
- 4 In whose eyes vile men are despis'd;
but those that God do fear
He honoureth: and changeth not,
though to his hurt he swear.
- 5 His coin puts not to usury, nor take reward will he Against the guiltlesse. Who doth thus, shall never moved be.

P S A L M XVI.

- 1 Lord, keep me: for I trust in thee.
- 2 To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee
my goodnesse doth not reach;
- 3 To saints on earth, to th' excellent,
where my delights all plac'd.
- 4 Their sorrows shall be multiply'd,
to other gods that haste:
Of their drink-offerings of blood
I will no offering make:
Yea, neither I their very names up in my lips will take.
- 5 God is of mine inheritance and cup the portion:
The lot that fallen is to me
thou dost maintain alone.
- 6 Unto me happily the lines
in pleasant places fell;
Yea, the inheritance I got in beauty doth excel.
- 7 I blese the Lord, because he doth by counsel me conduct:
And, in the seasons of the night,
my reins do me instruct.
- 8 Before me still the Lord I set:
sith it is so, that he Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.
- 9 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be express Ev'n by my glory: and my flesh in confidence shall rest.
- 10 Because my soul in grave to dwell shall not be left by thee;
Nor wilt thou give thine holy One corruption to see.
- 11 Thou wilt me shew the path of life:
of joys there is full store
Before thy face, at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

P S A L M XVII.

- 1 Lord, hear the right, attend my cry,
unto my prayer give heed,
That doth not in hypocryfy from feigned lips proceed.
- 2 And from before thy presence forth my sentence do thou send :
Toward these things that equal are,
do thou thine eyes intend.
- 3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit'dst me
by night thou didst me try,
Yet nothing found'st ; for that my mouth shall not sin purpos'd I
- 4 As for mens works, I by the word that from thy lips doth flow, Did me preserve out of the paths wherein destroyers go.
- 5 Hold up my goings, Lord, me guide
in those thy paths divine,
So that my footsteps may not slide out of those ways of thine.
- 6 I called have on thee, O God, because thou wilt me hear :
That thou may'st hearken to my speech to me incline thine ear.
- 7 Thy wondrous loving kindness show,
thou that by thy right hand, Sav'st them that trust in thee, from those that up against thee stand.
- 8 As th' apple of the eye me keep ;
in thy wings shade me close :
- 9 From lewd oppressors, compassing me round, as deadly foes.
- 10 In their own fat they are inclos'd :
their mouth speaks loftily.
- 11 Our steps they compass'e ; and to ground down b. wing set their eye.
- 12 He like unto a lion is, that's greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which lurking doth in secret places stay.
- 13 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
and call him down, O Lord :
My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword.
- 14 From men which are thy hand, O Lord,
from worldly men me save,
Which only in this present life their part and portion have :
Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fillst : they children have In plenty ; of their goods the rest they to their children leave.
- 15 But as for me, I thine own face in righteousness will see ;
And with thy likeness, when I wake,
I satisfy'd shall be.

P S A L M XVIII.

- 1 Thee will I love, O Lord, my strength,
2 My fortrefs is the Lord,
My rock, and he that doth to me deliverance afford :

My God, my strength, whom I will trust,
a buckler unto me,
The horn of my salvation,
and my high tow'r is he.

- 3 Upon the Lord, who worthy is of praises, will I cry :
And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.
- 4 Floods of ill men affrighted me, death's pangs about me went.
- 5 Hell's sorrows me invironed :
death's snares did me prevent.
- 6 In my distress I call'd on God, cry to my God did I ;
He from his temple heard my voice,
to his ears came my cry.
- 7 Th' earth, as affrighted, then did shake, trembling upon it seiz'd ;
The hills foundations moved were,
because he was displeas'd.
- 8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke, and from his mouth there came De ouring fire, and coals by it were turned into flame.
- 9 He also bowed down the heav'ns, and thence he did descend :
And thickest clouds of darkness did under his feet attend.
- 10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and thereon he did fly :
Yea, on the swift wings of the wind his flight was from on high.
- 11 He darkness made his secret place :
about him for his tent
Dark waters were, and thickest clouds of th' airy firmament.
- 12 And at the brightness of that light which was before his eye,
His thick clouds pass'd away, hailstones and coals of fire did fly :
- 13 The Lord God also in the heav'ns did thunder in his ire ;
And there the Highest gave his voice,
hailstones and coals of fire.
- 14 Yea, he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered ;
His lightnings also he shot out,
and them discomfited.
- 15 The waters channels then were seen the world's foundations vast At thy rebuke discover'd were,
and at thy nostrils blast.
- 16 And from above the Lord sent down,
and took me from below.
From many waters he me drew,
which would me overflow.
- 17 He me reliev'd from my strong foes,
and such as did me hate ;
Because he saw that they for me too strong were, and too great.

P S A L M XIX.

- 18 They me prevented in the day
of my calamity :
But even then the Lord himself
a stay was unto me.
- 19 He to a place, where liberty and room was, hath me brought :
Because he took delight in me,
he my deliv'rance wrought.
- 20 According to my righteousness
he did me recompense,
He me repaid according to my hands pure innocence.
- 21 For I God's ways kept, from my God did not turn wickedly.
- 22 His judgments were before me, I his laws put not from me.
- 23 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I :
And watchfully I kept myself
from mine iniquity.
- 24 After my righteousness the Lord
bath recompensed me,
After the cleanness of my hands appearing in his eye.
- 25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright.
- 26 Pure to the pure, froward thou kyth'st unto the froward wight.
- 27 For thou wilt the afflicted save,
in grief that low do ly :
But wilt bring down the countenance of them whose looks are high.
- 28 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright :
The Lord my God will also make my darkness to be light.
- 29 By thee through troops of men I break, and them discomfit all :
And by my God assisting me,
I over-leap a wall.
- 30 As for God, perfect is his way :
the Lord his word is try'd :
He is a buckler to all those who do in him confide.
- 31 Who but the Lord is God? but he who is a rock and stay?
- 32 'Tis God that girdeth me with strength, and perfect makes my way.
- 33 He made my feet swift as the hinds, set me on my high places.
- 34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine arms break bows of steel in pieces.
- 35 The shield of thy salvation
thou didst on me bestow :
Thy right hand held me up, and great thy kindness made me grow.
- 36 And in my way my steps thou hast enlarged under me,
That I go safely, and my feet are kept from sliding free.
- 37 Mine enemies I pursued have,
and did them overtake :
Nor did I turn again, till I an end of them did make.
- 38 I wounded them, they could not rise :
they at my feet did fall.
- 39 Thou girdedst me with strength for war :
my foes thou brought'st down all.
- 40 And thou hast given to me the necks of all mine enemies :
That I might them destroy and slay who did against me rise.
- 41 They cried out, but there was none that would or could them save :
Yea, they did cry unto the Lord,
but he no answer gave.
- 42 Then did I beat them small as dust before the wind that flies :
And I did cast them out like dirt upon the street that lies.
- 43 Thou mad'st me free from people's strife and heathens head to be :
A people, whom I have not known,
shall service do to me.
- 44 At hearing they shall me obey,
to me they shall submit.
- 45 Strangers for fear shall fade away,
who in close places sit.
- 46 God lives, blest be my Rock ; the God of my health praised be.
- 47 God doth avenge me and subdues
the people under me.
- 48 He saves me from mine enemies ;
yea, thou hast lifted me Above my foes ; and from the man of violence set me free.
- 49 Therefore to thee will I give thanks
the heathen folk among :
And to thy Name, O Lord, I will sing praises in a song.
- 50 He great deliv'rance gives his king ;
he mercy doth extend
To David, his anointed one,
and his seed without end.

P S A L M XIX.

- 1 THE heav'n's God's Glory do declare,
the skies his hand-works preach :
- 2 Day utters speech to day, and night to night doth knowledge teach.
- 3 There is no speech, nor tongue, to which their voice doth not extend.
- 4 Their line is gone through all the earth,
their words to the world's end.
- In them he set the sun a tent,
Who bridgroom-like forth goes From's chamber as a strong man doth, to run his race. rejoice.
- 6 From heav'n's end is his going forth, circling to th' end again :
And there is nothing from his heat that hidden doth remain.

- 7 God's law is perfect, and converts
the soul in sin that lies:
God's testimony is most sure,
and makes the simple wise.
- 8 The statutes of the Lord are right,
and do rejoice the heart:
The Lord's command is pure; and doth light to the eyes impart.
- 9 Unspotted is the fear of God,
and doth endure for ever:
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
- 10 They more than gold, yea, much fine gold to be desired are:
Than honey, honey from the comb that droppeth, sweeter far.
- 11 Moreover they thy servant warn how he his life should frame:
A great reward provided is for them that keep the same.
- 12 Who can his errors understand?
O cleanse thou me within
- 13 From secret faults. Thy servant keep from all presumptuous sin:
And do not suffer them to have dominion over me:
Then righteous and innocent
I from much sin shall be.
- 14 The words which from my mouth proceed,
the thoughts sent from my heart Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my Redeemer art.

P S A L M XX.

- 1 Jehovah hear thee in the day when trouble he doth send:
And let the Name of Jacob's God thee from all ill defend.
- 2 O let him help send from above,
out of his sanctuary:
From Sion his own holy hill,
let him give strength to thee.
- 3 Let him remember all thy gifts, accept thy sacrifice:
- 4 Grant thee thine heart's wish, and fulfil thy thoughts and counsel wise.
- 5 In thy salvation we will joy;
in our God's name we will Display our banners: and the Lord thy prayers all fulfil.
- 6 Now know I God his king doth save,
he from his holy heav'n
Will hear him, with the saving strength by his own right hand giv'n.
- 7 In chariots some put confidence,
some horses trust upon:
But we remember will the Name of our Lord God alone.
- 8 We rise, and upright stand, when they are bowed down, and fall.
- 9 Deliver, Lord, and let the King us hear, when we do call.

P S A L M XXI.

- 1 The king in thy great strength, O Lord shall very joyful be:
In thy salvation rejoice
how vehemently shall he?
- 2 Thou hast bestowed upon him
all that his heart would have.
And thou from him didst not withhold whate'er his lips did crave.
- 3 For thou with blessings him prevent'st of goodness manifold;
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of purest gold.
- 4 When he desired life of thee, thou life to him didst give:
Ev'n such a length of days, that he for evermore should live.
- 5 In that salvation wrought by thee,
his glory is made great:
Honour and comely Majesty
thou hast upon him set.
- 6 Because that thou for evermore most blessed hast him made:
And thou hast with thy countenance made him exceeding glad.
- 7 Because the king upon the Lord
his confidence doth lay,
And through the grace of the most High shall not be mov'd away.
- 8 Thine hand shall all those men find out that enemies are to thee, Ev'n thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.
- 9 Like fiery ov'n thou shalt them make,
when kindled is thine ire:
God shall them swallow in his wrath,
devour them shall the fire.
- 10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt destroy,
their seed men from among.
- 11 For they beyond their might 'gainst thee did plot mischief and wrong.
- 12 Thou therefore shalt make them turn back when thou thy shafts shalt place Upon thy strings made ready all to fly against their face.
- 13 In thy great power and strength, O Lord be thou exalted high;
So shall we sing with joyful hearts,
thy power praise shall we.

P S A L M XXII.

- 1 MY God, my God, why hast thou me forsaken? why so far Art thou from helping me, and from my words that roaring are?
- 2 All day, my God, to thee I cry,
yet am not heard by thee:
And in the season of the night
I cannot silent be.
- 3 But thou art holy, thou that dost inhabit Isra'el's praise.
- 4 Our father's hop'd in thee, they hop'd,
and thou didst them release.

P S A L M S XXIII, XXIV.

- 5 When unto thee they sent their cry,
to them deliverance came:
Because they put their trust in thee,
they were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, a worm I am,
and as no man am priz'd:
Reproach of men I am, and by the people am despis'd.
- 7 All that me see laugh me to scorn;
shoot out the lip do they,
They nod and shake their heads at me,
and mocking, thus do say,
- 8 This man did trust in God, that he would free him by his might:
Let him deliver him, sith he had in him such delight.
- 9 But thou art he out of the womb that didst me safely take:
When I was on my mother's breasts, thou me to hope didst make.
- 10 And I was cast upon thy care,
ev'n from the womb till now:
And from my mother's belly, Lord,
my God and Guide art thou.
- 11 Be not far off, for grief is near;
and none to help is found.
- 12 Bulls many compass me, strong bulls of Bashan me surround.
- 13 Their mouths they open'd wide on me, upon me gape did they,
Like to a lion ravening,
And roaring for his prey.
- 14 Like water I'm pour'd out, my bones
all out of joint do part:
Amidst my bowels, as the wax,
so melted is my heart.
- 15 My strength is like a potsherd dry'd:
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws; and to the dust of death thou brought me hast.
- 16 For dogs have compass'd me about:
the wicked, that did meet
In their assembly, me inclos'd, they pierc'd my hands and feet.
- 17 I all my bones may tell, they do upon me look and stare.
- 18 Upon my vesture lots they cast,
and clothes among them share.
- 19 But be not far, O Lord, my strength;
haste to give help to me.
- 20 From sword my soul, from pow'r of dogs
my darling set thou free.
- 21 Out of the roaring lion's mouth
do thou me shield and save:
For from the horns of unicorns an ear to me thou gave.
- 22 I will shew forth thy name unto those that my brethren are:
Amidst the congregation
thy praise I will declare.
- 23 Praise ye the Lord, who do him fear:
him glorify, all ye
The seed of Jacob; fear him all that Isra'ls children be.
- 24 For he despis'd not, nor abhor'd
th' afflicted's misery:
Nor from him hid his face, but heard when he to him did cry.
- 25 Within the congregation great
my praise shall be of thee;
My vows, before them that him fear,
shall be perform'd by me.
- 26 The meek shall eat, and shall be fill'd, they also praise shall give Unto the Lord, that do him seek;
your heart shall ever live.
- 27 All ends of th' earth remember shall,
and turn the Lord unto;
All kindreds of the nations
to him shall homage do:
- 28 Because the kingdom to the Lord
doth appertain, as his;
Likewise among the nations
the Governor he is.
- 29 Earth's fat ones eat, and worship shall:
all who to dust descend Shall bow to him; none of them can his soul from death defend.
- 30 A seed shall service do to him, unto the Lord it shall Be for a generation
reck'ned in ages all.
- 31 They shall come, and they shall declare, his truth and righteousness Unto a people yet unborn, and that he hath done this.

P S A L M XXIII.

- 1 THe Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.
2 He makes me down to lie
In pastures green: he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.
- 3 My soul he doth restore again;
and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness,
ev'n for his own names sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.
- 5 My table thou hast furnished,
in presence of my foes:
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.
- 6 Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.

P S A L M XXIV.

- 1 THe earth belongs unto the Lord, and all that it contains;
The world that is inhabited, and all that there remains.

- 2 For the foundations thereof
he on the seas did lay,
And he hath it established upon the floods to stay.
- 3 Who is the man that shall ascend into the hill of God?
Or who within his holy place shall have a firm abode?
- 4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart is pure, and unto vanity
Who hath not lifted up his soul,
nor sworn deceitfully.
- 5 He from th' Eternal shall receive the blessing him upon,
And righteousnes ev'n from the God of his salvation.
- 6 This is the generation that after him enquire,
O Jacob, who do seek thy face with their whole hearts desire.
- 7 Ye gates, lift up your heads on high,
ye doors that last for ay,
Be lifted up, that so the King
of glory enter may.
- 8 But who of glory is the King?
the mighty Lord is this,
Ev'n that same Lord, that great in might and strong in battle is.
- 9 Ye gates lift up your heads, ye doors, doors that do last for ay,
Be lifted up, that so the King
of glory enter may.
- 10 But who is he that is the King of glory? Who is this?
The Lord of hosts, and none but he,
the King of glory is.

P S A L M XXV.

- 1 TO thee I lift my soul:
O Lord, I trust in thee:
My God, let me not be ashamed,
nor foes triumph o'er me.
- 2 Let none that wait on thee be put to shame at all;
But those that without cause transgress,
let shame upon them fall.
- 3 Shew me thy ways, O Lord;
thy paths, O teach thou me:
And do thou lead me in thy truth,
therein my teacher be:
For thou art God that dost to me salvation send,
And I upon thee all the day expecting do attend.
- 4 Thy tender mercies, Lord,
I pray thee to remember,
And loving kindnesses; for they
have been of old for ever.
- 5 My sins and faults of youth
do thou, O Lord, forget;
After thy mercy think on me,
and for thy goodness great.
- 6 God good and upright is:
the way he'll sinners show.
- 7 The meek in judgment he will guide,
and make his path to know.
- 8 The whole paths of the Lord
are truth and mercy sure,
To those that do his covenant keep,
and testin onies pure.
- 9 Now for thine own name's sake,
O Lord, I thee inreat
To pardon mine iniquity;
for it is very great.
- 10 What man is he that fears the Lord, and doth him serve?
Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose, and still observe.
- 11 His soul shall dwell at ease;
and his posterity Shall flourish still, and of the earth inheritors shall be.
- 12 With those that fear him is the secret of the Lord:
The knowledge of his covenant
he will to them afford.
- 13 Mine eyes upon the Lord continually are set:
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
- 14 Turn unto me thy face,
and to me mercy show:
Because that I am desolate,
and am brought very low.
- 15 My heart's griefs are increas'd,
me from distress relieve.
- 16 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.
- 17 Consider thou my foes,
because they many are,
And it a cruel hatred is
which they against me bear.
- 18 O do thou keep my soul,
do thou deliver me:
And let me never be ashamed
because I trust in thee.
- 19 Let uprightnes and truth
keep me, who thee attend.
- 20 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his troubles send.

Another of the same.

- 1 TO thee I lift my soul, O Lord:
My God, I trust in thee:
Let me not be ashamed; let not my foes triumph o'er me.
- 2 Yea, let thou none ashamed be that do on thee attend:
Ashamed let them be, O Lord,
who without cause offend.
- 3 Thy ways, Lord shew; teach me thy paths,
Lead me in truth, teach me:
For of my safety thou art God,
all day I wait on thee.

P S A L M S XXVI, XXVII.

- 6 Thy mercies that most tender are,
do thou, O Lord, remember,
And loving kindnesses; for they
have been of old for ever.
- 7 Let not the errors of my youth,
nor sins remembered be:
In mercy, for thy goodness sake,
O Lord, remember me.
- 8 The Lord is good and gracious,
he upright is also:
He therefore sinners will instruct in ways that they should go.
- 9 The meek and lowly he will guide in judgment just always:
To meek and poor afflicted ones
he'll clearly teach his way.
- 10 The whole paths of the Lord our God
are truth and mercy sure.
To such as keep his covenant,
and testimonies pure.
- 11 Now for thine own name's sake, O Lord,
I humbly thee intreat
To pardon mine iniquity;
for it is very great.
- 12 What man fears God? him shall he teach the way that he shall choose.
- 13 His soul shall dwell at ease, his seed
the earth, as heirs, shall use.
- 14 The secret of the Lord is with such as do fear his name,
And he his holy covenant
will manifest to the n.
- 15 Towards the Lord my waiting eyes
continually are set:
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
- 16 O turn thou unto me, O God, have mercy me upon;
Because I solitary am,
and in affliction.
- 17 Enlarg'd the griefs are of mine heart:
me from distress relieve.
- 18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.
- 19 Consider thou mine enemies,
because they many are;
And it a cruel hatred is
which they against me bear.
- 20 O do thou keep my soul, O God;
do thou deliver me:
Let me not be ashamed; for I do put my trust in thee.
- 21 O let integrity and truth
keep me, who thee attend.
- 22 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his troubles send.
- 2 Examine me, and do me prove;
try heart and reins, O God.
- 3 For thy love is before mine eyes,
thy truth's paths I have trode.
- 4 With persons vain I have not sat,
nor with dissemblers gone.
- 5 Th' assembly of ill men I hate:
to fit with such I shun.
- 6 Mine hands in Innocence, O Lord, I'll wash and purify:
So to thine holy altar go,
and compass it will I.
- 7 That I, with voice of thanksgiving,
may publish and declare,
And tell of all thy mighty works that great and wondrous are.
- 8 The habitation of thy house,
Lord, I have loved well,
Yea, in that place I do delight,
where doth thine honour dwell.
- 9 With sinners gather not my soul,
and such as blood would spill:
- 10 Whose hands mischievous plots, right hand corrupting bribes do fill.
- 11 But as for me, I will walk on
in mine integrity:
Do thou redeem me, and, O Lord,
be merciful to me.
- 12 My foot upon an even place
doth stand with steadfastness:
Within the congregations
th' Eternal I will bless.

P S A L M XXVII.

- 1 THe Lord's my light and saving health;
who shall make me dismay'd?
My life's strength is the Lord, of whom then shall I be afraid?
- 2 When as mine enemies and foes,
most wicked persons all,
To eat my flesh against me rose,
they stumbled and did fall.
- 3 Against me though an host encamp,
my heart yet fearless is:
Though war against me rise, I will be confident in this.
- 4 One thing I of the Lord desired,
and will seek to obtain,
That all days of my life I may within God's house remain.
- That I the beauty of the Lord behold may and admire,
And that I in his holy place
may reverently enquire.
- 5 For he, in his pavilion, shall me hide in evil days:
In secret of his tent me hide,
and on a rock me raise.
- 6 And now, ev'n at this present time, mine head shall lifted be Above all those that are my foes,
and round encompass me:
- 1 Judge me, O Lord, for I have walk'd
in mine integrity:
I trusted also in the Lord;
slide therefore shall not I.

P S A L M XXVI.

- 1 Judge me, O Lord, for I have walk'd
in mine integrity:
I trusted also in the Lord;
slide therefore shall not I.

Therefore

- Therefore unto his tabernacle
I'll sacrifices bring Of joyfulness. I'll sing, yea, I to God will praises sing.
- 7 O Lord, give ear unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee:
Upon me also mercy have,
and do thou answer me.
- 8 When thou didst say, Seek ye my face,
then unto thee reply
Thus did my heart, Above all things thy face, Lord, seek will I.
- 9 Far from me hide not thou thy face, put not away from thee
Thy servant in thy wrath: thou hast an helper been to me.
O God of my salvation,
leave me not, nor forsake;
10 Tho' me my parents both should leave,
the Lord will me up take.
- 11 O Lord, instruct me in thy way,
to me a leader be
In a plain path, because of those that hatred bear to me.
- 12 Give me not to mine enemies will;
for witness, that lie, Against me risen are, and such as breathe out cruelty.
- 13 I fainted had, unless that I believed had to see The Lord's own goodness in the land of them that living be.
- 14 Wait on the Lord, and be thou strong,
and he shall strength afford Unto thine heart, yea, do thou wait,
I say, upon the Lord.

P S A L M XXVIII.

- 1 TO thee I'll cry, O Lord, my rock, hold not thy peace to me:
Left, like those that to pit descend,
I by thy silence be.
- 2 The voice hear of my humble pray'rs, when unto thee I cry:
When to thy holy oracle
I lift mine hands on high.
- 3 With ill men draw me not away,
that work iniquity:
That speak peace to their friends, while in their hearts doth mischief ly.
- 4 Give them according to their deeds,
and ills endeavoured:
And as their handy-works deserve,
to them be rendered.
- 5 God shall not build, but them destroy,
who would not understand The Lord's own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.
- 6 For ever blessed be the Lord, for graciously he heard
The voice of my petitions, and prayers did regard.

- 7 The Lord's my strength and shield, my heart upon him did rely;
And I am helped, hence my heart
doth joy exceedingly,
And with my song I will him praise.
- 8 Their strength is God alone:
He also is the saving strength of his anointed one.
- 9 O thine own people do thou save,
bless thine inheritance:
Them also do thou feed, and them for evermore advance.

P S A L M XXIX.

- 1 Give ye unto the Lord, ye sons that of the mighty be,
All strength and glory to the Lord with cheerfulness give ye.
- 2 Unto the Lord the glory give,
that to his name is due;
And in the beauty of holiness,
unto Jehovah bow.
- 3 The Lord's voice on the water is:
the God of majesty
Doth thunder, and on multitudes of waters sitteth he.
- 4 A powerful voice it is that comes out from the Lord most high;
The voice of that great Lord is full of glorious majesty.
- 5 The voice of the Eternal doth afunder cedars tear:
Yea, God the Lord doth cedars break that Lebanon doth bear.
- 6 He makes them like a calf to skip,
ev'n that great Lebanon,
And like to a young unicorn,
the mountain Sirion.
- 7 God's voice divides the flames of fire:
8 The desert it doth shake:
The Lord doth make the wilderness of Kadesh all to quake.
- 9 God's voice doth make the hinds to calve,
it makes the forest bare:
And in his temple ev'ry one his glory doth declare.
- 10 The Lord sits on the floods: the Lord sits King, and ever shall.
- 11 The Lord will give his people strength, and with peace bless them all.

P S A L M XXX.

- 1 Lord, I will thee extol, for thou hast lifted me on high,
And over me thou to rejoice
mad'st not mine enemy.
- 2 O thou who art the Lord my God,
I in distress to thee
With loud cries lifted up my voice, and thou hast healed me.
- 3 O Lord, my soul thou hast brought up,
and rescu'd from the grave;
That I to pit should not go down alive thou didst me save.

P S A L M XXXI.

- O ye that are his holy ones,
 sing praise unto the Lord:
 And give unto him thanks, when you his holiness record.
- For but a moment lasts his wrath,
 life in his favour lies:
 Weeping may for a night endure,
 at morn doth joy arise.
- In my prosperity I said,
 that nothing shall me move.
 O Lord, thou hast my mountain made to stand strong by thy love:
- But when that thou, O gracious God, didst hide thy face from me,
 Then quickly was my prosp'rous state turn'd into misery.
- Wherefore unto the Lord my cry
 I caus'd to ascend:
 My humble supplication
 I to the Lord did send.
- What profit is there in my blood,
 when I go down to pit?
 Shall unto thee the dust give praise?
 thy truth declare shall it?
- Hear, Lord, have mercy, help me, Lord:
 Thou turned hast my sadness
 To dancing, yea, my sackcloth loos'd, and girded me with gladness.
- That sing thy praise my glory may,
 and never silent be:
 O Lord my God, for evermore
 I will give thanks to thee.
- P S A L M XXXI.
- IN thee, O Lord, I put my trust, sham'd let me never be:
 According to thy righteousness,
 do thou deliver me.
- Bow down thine ear to me, with speed
 send me deliverance:
 To save me, my strong rock be thou,
 and my house of defence.
- Because thou art my rock, and thee
 I for my fortress take:
 Therefore do thou me lead and guide,
 ev'n for thine own name's sake.
- And sith thou art my strength, therefore pull me out of the net.
 Which they in subtilty for me
 so privily have set.
- Into thine hands I do commit my spirit; for thou art he,
 O thou JEHOVAH, God of truth, that hast redeemed me.
- Those that do lying vanities regard, I have abhor'd:
 But as for me, my confidence is fixed on the Lord.
- I'll in thy mercy gladly joy:
 for thou my miseries Consider'd hast; thou hast my soul known in adversities:
- 8 And thou hast not inclosed me
 within the en'mies hand;
 And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.
- 9 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
 for trouble is on me:
 Mine eye, my belly, and my soul,
 with grief consumed be.
- 10 Because my life with grief is spent,
 my years with sighs and groans:
 My strength doth fail; and for my sin consumed are my bones.
- 11 I was a scorn to all my foes,
 and to my friends a fear:
 And specially reproach'd of those that were my neighbours near:
 When they me saw, they from me fled.
- 12 Ev'n so I am forgot,
 As men are out of mind when dead:
 I'm like a broken pot.
- 13 For slanders I of many heard, fear compass'd me, while they Against me did consult and plot, to take my life away.
- 14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust upon thee I did lay:
 And I to thee, Thou art my God,
 did confidently say.
- 15 My times are wholly in thine hand:
 do thou deliver me
 From their hands, that mine enemies and persecutors be.
- 16 Thy countenance to shine do thou upon thy servant make:
 Unto me give salvation,
 for thy great mercies sake.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord, for on thee call'd I have:
 Let wicked men be sham'd, let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 To silence put the lying lips, that grievous things do say,
 And hard reports, in pride and scorn,
 on righteous men do lay.
- 19 How great's the goodness thou for them that fear thee keep'st in store;
 And wrought'st for them that trust in thee
 the sons of men before!
- 20 In secret of thy presence thou shalt hide them, from man's pride:
 From strife of tongues, thou closely shalt,
 as in a tent them hide.
- 21 All praise and thanks be to the Lord;
 for he hath magnify'd
 His wondrous love to me, within a city fortify'd.
- 22 For from thine eyes cut off I am,
 (I in my haste had said,)
 My voice yet heardst thou, when to thee with cries my moan I made.

- 23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints;
because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and he plenteously proud doers doth reward.
- 24 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall send,
All ye whose hope and confidence
doth on the Lord depend.

P S A L M XXXII.

- 1 O Blessed is the man, to whom is freely pardoned
All the transgression he hath done, whose sin is covered.
- 2 Bless'd is the man, to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin,
And in whose spirit there is no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
- 3 When as I did refrain my speech,
and silent was my tongue;
My bones then waxed old, because I roared all day long.
- 4 For, upon me both day and night thine hand did heavily;
So that my moisture turned is in summer's drought thereby.
- 5 I thereupon have unto thee
my sin acknowledged,
And likewise mine iniquity
I have not covered:
I will confess unto the Lord
my trespasses, said I;
And of my sin thou freely didst forgive th' iniquity.
- 6 For this shall ev'ry godly one his prayer make to thee,
In such a time he shall thee seek,
as found thou mayest be.
Surely, when floods of waters great
do swell up to the brim,
They shall not overwhelm his soul,
nor once come near to him.
- 7 Thou art my hiding-place, thou shalt from trouble keep me free:
Thou, with songs of deliverance,
about shalt compass me.
- 8 I will instruct thee, and thee teach the way that thou shalt go:
And, with mine eye upon thee set,
I will direction show.
- 9 Then be not like the horse or mule which do not understand;
Whose mouth, lest they come near to thee,
a bridle must command.
- 10 Unto the man that wicked is his sorrow shall abound;
But him that trusteth in the Lord mercy shall compass round.
- 11 Ye righteous in the Lord be glad,
in him do ye rejoice:
All ye that upright are in heart,
for joy lift up your voice.

P S A L M XXXIII.

- 1 YE righteous in the Lord rejoice,
it comely is, and right:
That upright men, with thankful voice, should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise God with harp, and unto him
sing with the psaltery:
Upon a ten-string'd instrument make ye sweet melody.
- 3 A new song to him sing, and play with loud noise skilfully.
- 4 For right is God's word, all his works, are done in verity.
- 5 To judgment and to righteousness a love he beareth still:
The loving kindness of the Lord
the earth throughout doth fill.
- 6 The heavens by the word of God did their beginning take;
And, by the breathing of his mouth,
he all their hosts did make.
- 7 The waters of the seas he brings together as an heap:
And, in store-houses, as it were,
he layeth up the depth.
- 8 Let earth, and all that live therein, with reverence fear the Lord;
Let all the world's inhabitants dread him with one accord.
- 9 For he did speak the word, and done
it was without delay;
Established it firmly stood,
whatever he did say.
- 10 God doth the counsel bring to nought which heathen folk do take:
And what the people do devise of none effect doth make.
- 11 O! but the counsel of the Lord
doth stand for ever sure;
And of his heart the purposes from age to age endure.
- 12 That nation blessed is, whose God JEHOVAH is, and those
A blessed people are, whom for his heritage he chose.
- 13 The Lord from heav'n sees and beholds all sons of men full well.
- 14 He views all, from his dwelling-place,
that in the earth do dwell.
- 15 He forms their hearts alike, and all their doings he observes.
- 16 Great hosts save not a king, much strength
no mighty man preserves.
- 17 An horse for preservation is a deceitful thing:
And, by the greatness of his strength,
can no deliverance bring.
- 18 Behold, on those that do him fear
the Lord doth set his eye; Ev'n those who on his mercy do with confidence rely.

- 19 From death to free their soul, in dearth life unto them to yield.
20 Our soul doth wait upon the Lord,
he is our help and shield.
21 Sith in his holy name we trust,
our heart shall joyful be.
22 Lord, let thy mercy be on us,
as we do hope in thee.

P S A L M XXXIV.

- 1 God will I blefs all times; his praise
my mouth shall still exprefs.
2 My soul shall boast in God: the meek shall hear with joyfulness.
3 Extol the Lord with me, let us
exalt his name together.
4 I fought the Lord, he heard, and did me from all fears deliver.
5 They look'd to him, and light'ned were:
not shamed were their faces.
6 This poor man cry'd, God heard, and sav'd him from all his distresses.
7 The angel of the Lord encamps, and round encompasseth
All those about that do him fear, and them delivereth.
8 O taste and see that God is good:
who trusts in him is blest.
9 Fear God, his saints: none that him fear shall be with want oppress'd.
10 The Sons young may hungry be,
and they may lack their food:
But they that truly seek the Lord shall not lack any good.
11 O children, hither do ye come,
and unto me give ear:
I shall you teach to understand how ye the Lord should fear.
12 What man is he that life desires, to see good would live long?
13 Thy lips refrain from speaking guile, and from ill words thy tongue.
14 Depart from ill, do good, seek peace, pursue it earnestly.
15 God's eyes are on the just; his ears are open to their cry.
16 The face of God is set against
those that do wickedly,
That he may quite out from the earth
cut off their memory.
17 The righteous cry unto the Lord,
he unto them gives ear;
And they out of their troubles all by him deliver'd are.
18 The Lord is ever nigh to them that be of broken spirit:
To them he safety doth afford that are in heart contrite.
19 The troubles that afflict the just in number many be:
But yet at length out of them all the Lord doth set him free.

†

- 20 He carefully his bones doth keep whatever can befall:
That not so much as one of them can broken be at all.
21 Ill shall the wicked slay; laid waste shall be who hate the just.
22 The Lord redeems his servants souls, none perish that him trust.

P S A L M XXXV.

- 1 Plead, Lord, with those that plead, and with those that fight with me. (fight 2 Of shield and buckler take thou hold, stand up mine help to be.
3 Draw also out the spear, and do against them stop the way,
That me pursue: unto my soul,
I'm thy salvation say.
4 Let them confounded be, and sham'd, that for my soul have fought:
Who plot my hurt, turn'd back be they,
and to confusion brought.
5 Let them be like unto the chaff that flies before the wind:
And let the angel of the Lord
pursue them hard behind.
6 With darkness cover thou their way,
and let it slipp'ry prove,
And let the angel of the Lord
pursue them from above.
7 For, without cause, have they for me their net hid in a pit,
They also have, without a cause,
for my soul digged it.
8 Let ruin seize him unawares, his net he hid withal Himself let catch; and in the same destruction let him fall.
9 My soul in God shall joy, and glad in his salvation be.
10 And all my bones shall say, O Lord,
who is like unto thee,
Which dost the poor set free from him
that is for him too strong;
The poor and needy from the man that spoils and does him wrong?
11 False witness rose; to my charge things I not knew they laid.
12 They, to the spoiling of my soul,
me ill for good repaid.
13 But as for me, when they were sick,
in sackcloth sad I mourn'd:
My humbled soul did fast, my pray'r into my bosom turn'd.
14 Myself I did behave, as he had been my friend or brother;
I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth for his mother.
15 But in my trouble they rejoic'd, gath'ring themselves together;
Yea, abjects vile together did themselves against me gather;

B

I knew

- I knew it not, they did me tear, and quiet would not be.
- 16 With mocking hypocrites at feasts,
they gnash'd their teeth at me.
- 17 How long, Lord, look'st thou on? from those destructions they intend Rescue my soul, from lions young my darling do defend.
- 18 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, within th' assembly great;
And, where much people gather'd are,
thy praises forth will set.
- 19 Let not my wrongful enemies
proudly rejoice o'er me:
Nor, who me hate without a cause,
let them wink with the eye.
- 20 For peace they do not speak at all:
but crafty plots prepare Against all those within the land that meek and quiet are.

- 21 With mouths set wide, they 'gainst me said,
Ha, ha, our eye doth see.
- 22 Lord, thou hast seen, hold not thy peace:
Lord, be not far from me.
- 23 Stir up thyself, wake, that thou may'st judgment to me afford:
Ev'n to my cause, O thou that art
my only God and Lord.
- 24 O Lord my God, do thou me judge
after thy righteousness;
And let them not their joy 'gainst me triumphantly express.
- 25 Nor let them say within their hearts,
Ah, we would have it thus;
Nor suffer them to say, that he is swallow'd up by us.
- 26 Sham'd and confounded be they all
that at my hurt are glad:
Let those against me that do boast,
with shame and scorn be clad.
- 27 Let them that love my righteous cause be glad, shout, and not cease
To say, The Lord be magnify'd, who loves his servant's peace.
- 28 Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue;
The praises that belong to thee speak shall it all day long.

P S A L M XXXVI.

- 1 THe wicked man's transgression within my heart thus says, Undoubtedly the fear of God is not before his eyes.
- 2 Because himself he flattereth in his own blinded eye.
Until the hatefulness be found
of his iniquity.
- 3 Words from his mouth proceeding are,
fraud and iniquity:
He to be wise, and to do good,
hath left off utterly.

- 4 He mischief, lying on his bed,
most cunningly doth plot:
He sets himself in ways not good,
ill he abhorreth not.
- 5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heavens;
thy truth doth reach the clouds.
- 6 Thy justice is like mountains great;
thy judgments deep as floods:
Lord, thou preservest man and beast.
- 7 How precious is thy grace!
Therefore in shadow of thy wings mens souls their trust shall place.
- 8 They with the fatness of thy house
shall be well satisf'd;
From rivers of thy pleasures thou wilt drink to them provide.
- 9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee:
And in that purest light of thine
we clearly light shall see.
- 10 Thy loving kindness unto them continue that thee know;
And still on men upright in heart thy righteousness bestow.
- 11 Let not the foot of cruel pride come, and against me stand:
And let me not removed be,
Lord, by the wicked's hand.
- 12 There fall'n are they, and ruined,
that work iniquities:
Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

P S A L M XXXVII.

- 1 FOR evil-doers fret thou not thyself quietly;
Nor do thou envy bear to those
that work iniquity.
- 2 For, even like unto the grass,
soon be cut down shall they:
And, like the green and tender herb,
they wither shall away.
- 3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord,
and be thou doing good;
And so thou in the land shalt dwell,
and verily have food.
- 4 Delight thyself in God, he'll give thine heart's desire to thee.
- 5 Thy way to God commit, him trust, it bring to pass shall he.
- 6 And, like unto the light, he shall thy righteousness display.
And be thy judgment shall bring forth like noon-tide of the day.
- 7 Rest in the Lord and patiently wait for him: do not fret
For him, who, prospering in his way, success in sin doth get.
- 8 Do thou from anger cease, and wrath see thou forsake also:
Fret not thyself in any wise,
that evil thou should'st do.

P S A L M XXXVIII.

- 9 For those that evil-doers are shall be cut off and fall:
But those that wait upon the Lord
the earth inherit shall.
- 10 For yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be;
His place thou shalt consider well,
but it thou shalt not see.
- 11 But by inheritance the earth
the meek ones shall possess:
They also shall delight themselves in an abundant peace.
- 12 The wicked plots against the just,
and at him whets his teeth.
- 13 The Lord shall laugh at him, because his day he coming seeth.
- 14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and bent their bow, to slay
The poor and needy, and to kill men of an upright way.
- 15 But their own sword, which they have shall enter their own heart: (drawn, Their bows which they have bent shall and into pieces part. (break,
- 16 A little that a just man hath is more and better far,
Than is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.
- 17 For sinners arms shall broken be;
but God the just sustains.
- 18 God knows the just man's days, and still their heritage remains.
- 19 They shall not be ashamed, when they
the evil time do see;
And when the days of famine are,
they satisfy'd shall be.
- 20 But wicked men, and foes of God,
as fat of lambs decay,
They shall consume, yea, into smoke
they shall consume away.
- 21 The wicked borrows, but the same again he doth not pay;
Whereas the righteous mercy shows,
and gives his own away.
- 26 He's ever merciful, and lends:
his seed is blest therefore.
- 27 Depart from evil, and do good:
and dwell for evermore.
- 28 For God loves judgment, and his saints leaves not in any case,
They are kept ever: but cut off shall be the sinners race.
- 29 The just inherit shall the land,
and ever in it dwell.
- 30 The just man's mouth doth wisdom speak;
his tongue doth judgment tell.
- 31 In's heart the law is of his God,
his steps slide not away.
- 32 The wicked man doth watch the just;
and seeketh him to slay.
- 33 Yet him the Lord will not forsake, nor leave him in his hands,
The righteous will he not condemn,
when he in judgment stands.
- 34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way,
and thee exalt shall he,
Th' earth to inherit: when cut off
the wicked thou shalt see.
- 35 I saw the wicked great in pow'r, spread like a green bay-tree.
- 36 He past, yea, was not: him I fought,
but found he could not be.
- 37 Mark thou the perfect, and behold
the man of uprightnes:
Because that surely of this man
the latter end is peace.
- 38 But those men that transgressors are,
shall be destroy'd together,
The latter end of wicked men shall be cut off for ever.
- 39 But the salvation of the just is from the Lord above,
He, in the time of their distress, their stay and strength doth prove.
- 40 The Lord shall help, and them deliver:
he shall them free and save
From wicked men: because in him their confidence they have.

P S A L M XXXVIII.

- 1 IN thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand,
in thy displeasure hot.
- 2 For in me fast thine arrows stick,
thine hand doth press me fore.
- 3 And in my flesh there is no health,
nor soundness any more.
- This grief I have, because thy wrath is forth against me gone:
And in my bones there is no rest,
for sin that I have done.
- 4 Because gone up above mine head
my great transgressions be:
And, as a weighy burden, they too heavy are for me.
- 22 For such as blessed be of him
the earth inherit shall;
And they that cursed are of him shall be destroyed all.
- 23 A good man's footsteps by the Lord
are ordered aright:
And in the way wherein he walks,
he greatly doth delight.
- 24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly;
Because the Lord with his own hand upholds him mightily.
- 25 I have been young, and now am old;
yet have I never seen
The just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

P S A L M S XXXIX, XL.

- 5 My wounds do stink and are corrupt :
my folly makes it so.
- 6 I troubled am, and much bow'd down,
all day I mourning go.
- 7 For a disease that loathsome is,
so fills my loins with pain,
That in my weak and weary flesh
no soundness doth remain.
- 8 So feeble and infirm am I,
and broken am so fore :
That, through disquiet of my heart,
I have been made to roar.
- 9 O Lord, all that I do desire is still before thine eye ;
And of my heart the secret groans not hidden are from thee.
- 10 My heart doth pant incessantly,
my strength doth quite decay :
As for mine eyes, their wonted light is from me gone away.
- 11 My lovers and my friends do stand at distance from my sore :
And those do stand aloof that were kinmen, and kind before.
- 12 Yea, they that seek my life lay snares who seek to do me wrong Speak things mischievous, and deceits imagine all day long.
- 13 But as one deaf, that heareth not,
I suffer'd all to pass :
I as a dumb man did become,
whose mouth not op'ned was.
- 14 As one that hears not, in whose mouth are no reproofs at all.
- 15 For, Lord, I hope in thee ; my God, thou'lt hear me when I call.
- 16 For I said, Hear me, lest they should rejoice o'er me with pride ;
And o'er me magnify themselves,
when as my foot doth slide.
- 17 For I am near to halt, my grief is still before mine eye.
- 18 For I'll declare my sin, and grieve for mine iniquity.
- 19 But yet mine enemies lively are,
and strong are they beside :
And they that hate me wrongfully,
are greatly multiply'd.
- 20 And they for good that render ill,
as enemies me withstood :
Yea, ev'n for this, because that I do follow what is good.
- 21 Forsake me not, O Lord : my God, far from me never be.
- 22 O Lord, thou my salvation art,
haste to give help to me.
- 2 With silence I as dumb became,
I did myself restrain
From speaking good ; but then the more increas'd was my pain.
- 3 My heart within me waxed hot,
and, while I musing was,
The fire did burn ; and from my tongue
these words I did let pass.
- 4 Mine end, and measure of my days,
O Lord, unto me show,
What is the fame : that I thereby my frailty well may know.
- 5 Lo, thou my days an hand-breadth mad'st, mine age is in thine eye
As nothing, sure each man at best is wholly vanity.
- 6 Sure each man walks in a vain show,
they vex themselves in vain :
He heap- up wealth, and doth not know to whom it shall pertain.
- 7 And now, O Lord, what wait I for ?
my hope is fix'd on thee.
- 8 Free me from all my trespasses,
the fools soon make not me.
- 9 Dumb was I, op'ning not my mouth, because this work was thine.
- 10 Thy stroke take from me : by the blow of thine hand I do pine.
- 11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity,
Thou wastes his beauty like a moth ;
sure each man's vanity.
- 12 Attend my cry, Lord, at my tears, and pray'rs not silent be :
I sojourn as my fathers all,
and stranger am with thee.
- 13 O spare thou me, that I my strength recover may again,
Before from hence I do depart, and here no more remain.

P S A L M XL.

- 1 I Waited for the Lord my God, and patiently did bear :
At length to me he did incline
my voice and cry to hear.
- 2 He took me from a fearful pit,
and from the miry clay,
And on a rock he set my feet,
establishing my way.
- 3 He put a new song in my mouth,
our God to magnify :
Many shall see it, and shall fear,
and on the Lord rely.
- 4 O blessed is the man whose trust
upon the Lord relies :
Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
- 5 O Lord my God, full many are the wonders thou hast done ;
Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far above all thoughts are gone :
- 1 I Said, I will look to my ways,
lest with my tongue I sin :
In sight of wicked men my mouth with bridle I'll keep in.

P S A L M S XLI, XLII.

In order none can reckon them
to thee: if them declare,
And speak of them I would, they more than can be numbred are.

6 No sacrifice, nor offering didst thou at all desire,
Mine ears thou bor'd: sin-offering thou and burnt didst not require.

7 Then to the Lord these were my words,
I come, behold and see:
Within the volume of thy book
it written is of me:

8 To do thy will I take delight,
O thou my God that art:
Yea, that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.

9 Within the congregation great
I righteousness did preach:
Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I refrain'd not my speech.

10 I never did within my heart conceal thy righteousness:
I thy salvation have declar'd,
and shown thy faithfulness;
Thy kindness, which most loving is,
conceal'd have not I,
Nor from the congregation great have hid thy verity.

11 Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me
O do thou not refrain:
Thy loving kindness, and thy truth,
let them me still maintain.

12 For ills past reckon'ng compass me,
and mine iniquities
Such hold upon me taken have,
I cannot lift mine eyes:

They more than hairs are on mine head, thence is my heart distain'd.

13 Be pleas'd, Lord, to rescue me:
Lord, hasten to mine aid.

14 Sham'd and confounded be they all
that seek my soul to kill:
Yea, let them backward driven be,
and sham'd, that wish me ill.

15 For a reward of this their shame,
confounded let them be,
That in this manner scoffing say,
Aha, aha, to me.

16 In thee let all be glad, and joy, who seeking thee abide:
Who thy salvation love, say still,
The Lord be magnify'd.

17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord of me a care doth take:
Thou art my help and saviour,
my God, no tarrying make.

P S A L M XLI.

1 Bless'd is he that wisely doth the poor man's case consider;
For, when the time of trouble is,
the Lord will him deliver.

2 God will him keep; yea, save alive,
on earth he blest shall live;
And to his enemies desire thou wilt him not up give.

3 God will give strength, when he offend of languishing doth mourn:
And, in his sickness fore, O Lord,
thou all his bed wilt turn.

4 I said, O Lord, do thou extend thy mercy unto me;
O do thou heal my soul, for why?
I have offended thee.

5 Those that to me are enemies of me do evil say,
When shall he die, that so his name
may perish quite away?

6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart Heaps mischief to it, which he tells, when forth he doth depart.

7 My haters, jointly whispering, 'gainst me my hurt devise.

8 Mi chief, say they, cleaves fast to him;
he ly'eth, and shall not rise.

9 Yea, ev'n mine own familiar friend,
on whom I did rely,
Who ate my bread, ev'n he his heel against me lifted high

10 But, Lord, be merciful to me,
and up again me raise,
That I may justly them requite
according to their ways.

11 By this I know that certainly
I favour'd am by thee:
Because my hateful enemy
triumphs not over me.

12 But as for me, thou me uphold'st
in mine integrity:
And me before thy countenance
thou sett'st continually

13 The Lord, the God of Israel, be blest for ever then,
From age to age eternally.
Amen, yea, and amen.

P S A L M XLII.

1 Like as the hart for water brooks in thirst doth pant and bray;
So pants my longing soul, O God,
that come to thee I may.

2 My soul for God, the living God, doth thirst; when shall I near unto thy countenance approach, and in God's sight appear?

3 My tears have unto me been meat,
both in the night and day,
While unto me continually
Where is thy God, they say?

4 My soul is pour'd out in me,
when this I think upon;
Because that with the multitude
I heretofore had gone:

With them into God's house I went,
with voice of joy and praise;

Yea, with the multitude that kept the solemn holy days.

5 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why in me so dismay'd?

Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,
his count'nance is mine aid.

6 My God, my soul's cast down in me :
thou therefore mind I will
From Jordan's land, the Hermonites, and ev'n from Mizar hill.

7 At the noise of thy water-spouts deep unto deep doth call :
Thy breaking waves pass over me,
yea, and thy billows all.

8 His loving kindness yet the Lord command will in the day,
His song's with me by night, to God,
by whom I live, I'll pray.

9 And I will say to God, my Rock, why me forgett'st thou so ?
Why, for my foes oppression,
thus mourning do I go ?

10 'Tis as a sword within my bones,
when my foes me upbraid :
Ev'n when by them, Where is thy God ?
'tis daily to me said.

11 O why art thou cast down, my soul ?
why, thus with grief oppress'd,
Art thou disquieted in me ?
in God still hope and rest ;

For yet I know I shall him praise, who graciously to me
The health is of my countenance, yea, mine own God is he.

P S A L M XLIII.

1 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against th' ungodly nation,
From the unjust and crafty man,
O be thou my salvation.

2 For thou the God art of my strength,
why thrusts thou me thee fro ?
For th' enemies oppression
why do I mourning go ?

3 O send thy light forth and thy truth ;
let them be guides to me,
And bring me to thine holy hill,
ev'n where thy dwellings be.

4 Then will I to God's altar go,
to God my chiefest joy :
Yea, God, my God, thy name to praise
my harp I will employ.

5 Why art thou then cast down, my soul ?
what should discourage thee ?
And why, with vexing thoughts, art thou disquieted in me ?

Still trust in God, for him to praise good cause I vet shall have :
He of my count'nance is the health,
my God that doth me save.

P S A L M XLIV.

1 O God, we with our ears have heard,
our fathers have us told,
What works thou in their days hadst done,
ev'n in the days of old.

2 Thy hand did drive the heathen out,
and plant them in their place ;
Thou didst afflict the nations,
but them thou didst increase.

3 For neither got their sword the land, nor did their arm them save :
But thy right hand, arm, countenance, for thou them favour gave.

4 Thou art my King : for Jacob, Lord, deliv'rance command.

5 Through thee we shall push down our foes, that do against us stand :

We, through thy name, shall tread down that ris'n against us have. (those)

6 For in my bow I shall not trust, nor shall my sword me save.

7 But from our foes thou hast us sav'd,
our haters put to shame.

8 In God we all the day do boast, and ever praise thy name.

9 But now we are cast off by thee,
and us thou putt'st to shame :
And, when our armies do go forth,
thou go'st not with the same.

10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy
faint-hearted to turn back :
And they who hate us for themselves
our spoils away do take.

11 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us :
'mong heathen cast we be.

12 Thou didst for nought thy people sell ;
their price enrich'd not thee.

13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be, unto our neighbours near :
Derision, and a scorn to them that round about us are.

14 A by-word also thou dost us among the heathen make :
The people, in contempt and spite,
at us their heads do shake.

15 Before me my confusion continually abides :
And of my bashful countenance
the shame me ever hides.

16 For voice of him that doth reproach and speaketh blasphemy ;
By reason of th' avenging foe,
and cruel enemy.

17 All this is come on us, yet we have not forgotten thee, Nor falsly in thy covenant
behav'd ourselves have we.

18 Back from thy way our heart not turn'd ;
our steps no fraying made.

19 Though us thou brak'st in dragons place,
and cov'redst with death's shade.

- 20 If we God's name forgot, or stretch'd to a strange god our hands:
21 Shall not God search this out? for he hearts secrets understands.
22 Yea, for thy sake we're kill'd all day, counted as slaughter-sheep.
23 Rise, Lord, cast us not ever off, awake, why dost thou sleep?
24 O wherefore hidest thou thy face?
forgett'st our case distress, 25 And our oppression? For our soul is to the dust down prest:
Our belly also on the earth fast cleaving hold doth take.
26 Rise for our help, and us redeem, ev'n for thy mercies sake.

P S A L M XLV.

- 1 MY heart brings forth a goodly thing;
my works that I indite Concern the king: my tongue's a pen of one that swift doth write.
2 Thou fairer art than sons of men:
into thy lips is store
Of grace infus'd; God therefore thee hath blest for evermore.
3 O thou that art the mighty One,
thy sword gird on thy thigh:
Ev'n with thy glory excellent,
and with thy majesty.
4 For meekness, truth, and righteousness,
in state ride prosperously;
And thy right hand shall thee instruct,
in things that fearful be.
5 Thine arrows sharply pierce the heart of th' enemies of the king;
And under thy subjection
the people down do bring.
6 For ever and for ever is,
O God, thy throne of might:
The sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre that is right.
7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill;
for God, thy God most high,
Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy anointed thee.
8 Of aloes, myrrh, and cassia,
a smell thy garments had:
Out of the iv'ry palaces,
whereby they made thee glad.
9 Among thy women honourable king's daughters were at hand:
Upon thy right hand did the queen in gold of Ophir stand.
10 O daughter, hearken and regard,
and do thine ear incline;
Likewise forget thy father's house,
and people that are thine.
11 Then of the king desir'd shall be thy beauty vehemently:
Because he is thy Lord, do thou him worship reverently.

- 12 The daughter there of Tyre shall be,
with gifts and offerings great:
Those of the people that are rich,
thy favour shall intreat.
13 Behold, the daughter of the king
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold
her garments wrought have been.
14 She shall be brought unto the king,
in robes with needle wrought:
Her fellow-virgins following,
shall unto thee be brought.
15 They shall be brought with gladness great,
and mirth on ev'ry side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they shall abide.
16 Instead of those thy fathers dear,
thy children thou may'st take,
And in all places of the earth
them noble princes make.
17 Thy name rememb'red I will make through ages all to be:
The people therefore evermore shall praises give to thee.

Another of the same.

- 1 MY heart inditing is good matter in a song:
I speak the things that I have made;
which to the king belong:
My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe that useth fast to write.
2 Thou'rt fairest of all men,
grace in thy lips doth flow:
And therefore blessings evermore on thee doth God bestow.
3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh,
thou that art most of might:
Appear in dreadful majesty,
and in thy glory bright.
4 For meekness, truth, and right, ride prosperously in state:
And thy right hand shall reach to thee things terrible and great.
5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts that foes are to the king, Whereby into subjection
the people thou shalt bring.
6 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
The sceptre of thy kingdom doth all righteousness maintain.
7 Thou lov'st right, and hat'st ill:
for God, thy God most high,
Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy anointed thee.
8 Of myrrh and spices sweet
a smell thy garments had:
Out of the iv'ry palaces
whereby they made thee glad.

9 And, in thy glorious train, king's daughters waiting stand:
And thy fair queen, in Ophir-gold, doth stand at thy right hand.

10 O daughter, take good heed, incline, and give good ear;
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and father's house most dear.

11 Thy beauty to the king shall then delightful be:
And do thou humbly worship him,
because thy Lord is he.

12 The daughter then of Tyre
there with a gift shall be,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.

13 The daughter of the king
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold
her garments wrought have been.

14 She cometh to the king
in robes with needle wrought:
The virgins that do follow her shall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought with joy,
and mirth on ev'ry side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they shall abide.

16 And in thy fathers stead,
thy children thou may'st take,
And, in all places of the earth,
then noble princes make.

17 I will shew forth thy name
to generations all:
Therefore, the people evermore to thee give praises shall.

P S A L M XLVI.

1 God is our refuge and our strength;
in straits a present aid.

2 Therefore, although the earth remove,
we will not be afraid;
Though hills amidst the seas be cast.

3 Though waters roaring make,
And troubled be; yea, though the hills
by swelling seas do shake.

4 A river is, whose streams do glad the city of our God:
The holy place, wherein the Lord
most high hath his abode.

5 God in the midst of her doth dwell:
nothing shall her remove;
The Lord to her an helper will,
and that right early, prove.

6 The heathen rag'd tumultuously, the kingdoms moved were:
The Lord God uttered his voice,
the earth did melt for fear.

7 The Lord of hosts upon our side
doth constantly remain:
The God of Jacob's our refuge, us safely to maintain.

8 Come, and behold what wondrous works have by the Lord been wrought:

Come, see what desolations
he on the earth hath brought.

9 Unto the ends of all the earth
war's into peace he turns:
The bow he breaks, the spear he cuts,
in fire the chariot burns.

10 Be still, and know that I am God:
among the heathen I Will be exalted, I on earth will be exalted high.

11 Our God, who is the Lord of hosts, is still upon our side:
The God of Jacob our refuge for ever will abide.

P S A L M XLVII.

1 All people clap your hands, to God with voice of triumph shout.

2 For dreadful is the Lord most high, great King the earth throughout.

3 The heathen people under us
he surely shall subdue:
And he shall make the nations
under our feet to bow.

4 The lot of our inheritance choose out for us shall he,
Of Jacob, whom he loved well,
ev'n the excellency.

5 God is with shouts gone up, the Lord with trumpets sounding high.

6 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing praise, praise to our King sing ye.

7 For God is King of all the earth, with knowledge praise express.

8 God rules the nations, God sits on his throne of holiness.

9 The princes of the people are assembled willingly;
Ev'n of the God of Abraham
they who the people be.

For why? the shields that do defend the earth are only his:

They to the Lord belong; yea, he exalted greatly is.

P S A L M XLVIII.

1 Great is the Lord, and greatly he is to be praised still,
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Zion stands most beautiful,
the joy of all the land;
The city of the mighty King on her north-side doth stand.

3 The Lord within her palaces is for a refuge known.

4 For lo, the kings that gather'd were together by have gone.

5 But when they did behold the same,
they wond'ring would not stay;
But, being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away.

Great terror there took hold on them,
 they were possess'd with fear ;
 Their grief came like a woman's pain,
 when she a child doth bear.
 Thou Tarshish ships with east-windbreak'ft :
 As we have heard it told ;
 So in the city of the Lord
 our eyes did it behold :

In our God's city, which his hand for ever stablish will.
 We of thy loving kindness thought,
 Lord, in thy temple still.
 O Lord, according to thy name,
 through all the earth's thy praise :
 And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

1 Because thy judgments are made known,
 let Zion mount rejoice ;
 Of Judah let the daughters all send forth a cheerful voice.
 2 Walk about Zion, and go round ;
 the high tow'rs thereof tell.
 3 Consider ye her palaces, and mark her bulwarks well ;
 That ye may tell posterity.
 4 For this God doth abide.
 Our God for evermore he will ev'n unto death us guide.

P S A L M XLIX.

1 Hear this, all people, and give ear,
 all in the world that dwell :
 2 Both low and high, both rich and poor,
 3 My mouth shall wisdom tell :
 My heart shall knowledge meditate,
 4 I will incline mine ear
 To parables, and on the harp
 my sayings dark declare, 5 Amidst those days that evil be,
 why should I, fearing, doubt ?
 When of my heels th' iniquity shall compass me about.
 6 Whoe'er they be that in their wealth their confidence do pitch,
 And boast themselves, because they are become exceeding rich.
 7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any way ;
 Nor can he unto God for him sufficient ransom pay.
 8 (Their souls redemption precious is,
 and it can never be) 9 That still he should for ever live, and not corruption see.
 10 For why ? he seeth that wise men die, and brutish fools also Do perish, and their wealth, when dead,
 to others they let go.
 11 Their inward thought is, that their house and dwelling-places shall Stand through all ages ; they their lands by their own names do call.

12 But yet in honour shall not man abide continually :
 But passing hence, may be compar'd unto the beasts that die.
 13 Thus, brutish folly plainly is their wisdom, and their way ;
 Yet their posterity approve what they do fondly say.
 14 Like sheep they in the grave are laid,
 and death shall them devour ;
 And, in the morning, upright men shall over them have pow'r ;
 Their beauty, from their dwelling, shall consume within the grave 15 But from hell's hand God will we free, for he shall me receive.
 16 Be thou not then afraid, when one enriched thou dost see,
 Nor when the glory of his house advanced is on high.
 17 For he shall carry nothing hence,
 when death his days doth end :
 Nor shall his glory after him into the grave descend.
 18 Although he his own soul did bless,
 whilst he on earth did live :
 (And when thou to thyself dost well, men will thee praises give ) 19 He to his fathers race shall go, they never shall see light.
 20 Man honour'd, wanting knowledge, is like beasts that perish quite.

P S A L M L.

1 The mighty God, the Lord hath spoken, and did call
 The earth from rising of the sun, to where he hath his fall.
 2 From out of Zion hill,
 which of excellency,
 And beauty the perfection is,
 God shined gloriously.
 3 Our God shall surely come,
 keep silence shall not he ;
 Before him fire shall waste, great storms
 shall round about him be.
 4 Unto the heavens clear
 he from above shall call,
 And to the earth likewise, that he may judge his people all.
 5 Together let my saints unto me gather'd be,
 Those that by sacrifice have made a covenant with me.
 6 And then the heavens shall his righteousness declare :
 Because the Lord himself is he by whom men judg'd are.
 7 My people Isra'l hear.
 speak will I from on high,
 Against thee I will testify,
 God, ev'n thy God am I.

P S A L M L.

- 8 I, for thy sacrifice,
no blame will on thee lay,
Nor for burnt-off'rings, which to me
thou offer'dst ev'ry day.
- 9 I'll take no calf, nor goats,
from house or fold of thine.
- 10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thousand hills are mine.
- 11 The fowls on mountains high are all to me well known, Wild beasts, which in the fields do ly, ev'n they are all mine own.
- 12 Then, if I hungry were,
I would not tell it thee:
Because the world, and fulness all thereof, belongs to me.
- 13 Will I eat flesh of bulls?
or goats blood drink will I?
- 14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most High.
- 15 And call upon me, when in trouble thou shalt be,
I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorify.
- 16 But to the wicked man
God saith, My laws and truth Shouldest thou declare? how dar'st thou take my cov'nant in thy mouth?
- 17 Sith thou instruction hat'st,
which should thy ways direct;
And sith my words behind thy back thou cast'st, and dost reject.
- 18 When thou a thief didst see,
with him thou didst consent;
And with the vile adulterers partaker on thou went.
- 19 Thou giv'st thy mouth to ill,
thy tongue deceit doth frame.
- 20 Thou stir'st and gainst thy brother speak'st,
thy mother's son dost shame.
- 21 Because I silence kept,
while thou these things hast wrought;
That I was altogether like thyself, hath been thy thought;
- Yet I will thee reprove, and set before thine eyes
In order ranked thy misdeeds, and thine iniquities.
- 22 Now, ye that God forget,
this carefully consider;
Lest I in pieces tear you all,
and none can you deliver.
- 23 Whofo doth offer praise me glorifies, and I Will shew him God's salvation, that orders right his way.
- Another of the same.*
- 1 THe mighty God the Lord hath spoke,
and call'd the earth upon,
Ev'n from the rising of the sun unto his going down.
- 2 From out of Zion his own hill,
where the perfection high Of beauty is, from thence the Lord hath shined gloriously.
- 3 Our God shall come, and shall no more be silent, but speak out:
Before him fire shall waste, great storms
shall compass him about.
- 4 He, to the heavens from above,
and to the earth below,
Shall call, that he his judgments may before his people show.
- 5 Let all my saints together be unto me gathered:
Those that by sacrifice with me
a covenant have made.
- 6 And then the heavens shall declare his righteousness abroad:
Because the Lord himself doth come,
none else is judge but God.
- 7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speak;
O Israel by name,
Against thee I will testify,
God, ev'n thy God I am.
- 8 I, for thy sacrifices few,
reprove thee never will;
Nor for burnt-off'rings to have been before me offer'd still.
- 9 I'll take no bullock, nor he-goats,
from house nor folds of thine.
- 10 For beasts of forests, cattle all
on thousand hills, are mine.
- 11 The fowls are all to me well known,
that mountains high do yield:
And I do challenge as mine own the wild beasts of the field.
- 12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain;
For earth, and all its fulness, doth to me of right pertain.
- 13 That I, to eat the flesh of bulls, take pleasure, dost thou think?
Or that I need, to quench my thirst,
the blood of goats to drink?
- 14 Nay, rather unto me thy God
thanksgiving offer thou;
To the most High perform thy word,
and fully pay thy vow.
- 15 And, in the day of trouble great,
see that thou call on me;
I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorifie.
- 16 But God unto the wicked saith,
Why shouldest thou mention make
Of my commands? how dar'st thou in thy mouth my cov'nant take?
- 17 Sith it is so, that thou dost hate
all good instruction:
And sith thou cast'st behind thy back,
and slight'st my words each one.

PSALMS LI, LII.

When thou a thief did'st see, then straight,
 thou join'dst with him in sin,
 And with the vile adulterers
 thou hast partaker been.
 Thy mouth to evil thou dost give,
 thy tongue deceit doth frame.
 Thou stir'st, and 'gainst thy brother speak'st
 thy mother's son to shame.
 These things thou wickedly hast done,
 and I have silent been ;
 Thou thought'st that I was like thyself,
 and did approve thy sin :
 But I will sharply thee reprove, and I will order right
 Thy sins and thy transgressions, in presence of thy sight.
 Consider this, and be afraid,
 ye that forget the Lord,
 Lest I in pieces tear you all,
 when none can help afford.
 Who off'reth praise me glorifies :
 I will shew God's salvation
 To him that ordereth aright his life and conversation.

PSALM LI.

After thy loving kindness, Lord,
 have mercy upon me :
 For thy compassions great blot out all mine iniquity.
 Me cleanse from sin, and thoroughly wash
 from mine iniquity :
 For my transgressions I confess,
 my sin I ever see.
 'Gainst thee, thee only, have I sinn'd, in thy sight done this ill, [just,
 That, when thou speak'st, thou may'st be and clear in judging still.
 Behold, I in iniquity was form'd the womb within ;
 My mother also me conceiv'd in guiltiness and sin.
 Behold, thou in the inward parts with truth delighted art ;
 And wisdom thou shalt make me know within the hidden part.
 Do thou with hyssop sprinkle me,
 I shall be cleansed so ;
 Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the snow.
 Of gladness and of joyfulness
 make me to hear the voice ;
 That so these very bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
 All mine iniquities blot out,
 thy face hide from my sin.
 Create a clean heart, Lord, renew a right spirit me within.
 Cast me not from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away.
 Restore me thy salvation's joy ;
 with thy free Spirit me stay.

13 Then will I teach thy ways unto those that transgressors be ;
 And those that sinners are shall then be turned unto thee.
 14 O God, of my salvation God, me from blood-guiltiness Set free ; then shall my tongue aloud sing of thy right'ousness.
 15 My closed lips, O Lord, by thee let them be opened,
 Then shall thy praises by my mouth abroad be published.
 16 For thou desir'st not sacrifice,
 else would I give it thee ;
 Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering at all delighted be.
 17 A broken spirit is to God
 a pleasing sacrifice ;
 A broken and a contrite heart,
 Lord, thou wilt not despise.
 18 Shew kindness, and do good, O Lord, to Zion thine own hill :
 The walls of thy Jerusalem build up of thy good will.
 19 Then right'ous off'rings shall thee please,
 and off'rings burnt which they,
 With whole burnt-off'rings, and with calves, shall on thine altar lay.

PSALM LII.

Why dost thou boast, O mighty man,
 of mischief and of ill ?
 The goodness of Almighty God
 endureth ever still.
 2 Thy tongue mischievous calumnies
 deviseth subtilly,
 Like to a razor sharp to cut,
 working deceitfully.
 3 Ill more than good, and more than truth thou lovest to speak wrong :
 4 Thou lovest all devouring words,
 O thou deceitful tongue.
 5 So God shall thee destroy for ay, remove thee, pluck thee out Quite from thy house, out of the land of life he shall thee root.
 6 The right'ous shall it see, and fear, and laugh at him they shall :
 7 Lo, this the man is that did not make God his strength at all :
 But he in his abundant wealth
 his confidence did place ;
 And he took strength unto himself from his own wickedness.
 8 But I am in the house of God
 like to an olive green :
 My confidence for ever hath upon God's mercy been.
 9 And I for ever will thee praise, because thou hast done this :
 I on thy name will wait, for good before thy saints it is.

P S A L M LIII.

- 1 THAT there is not a God, the fool doth in his heart conclude; They are corrupt, their works are vile, not one of them doth good.
- 2 The Lord upon the sons of men from heav'n did cast his eyes, To see if any one there was that fought God, and was wise.
- 3 They altogether filthy are, they all are backward gone; And there is none that doeth good, no not so much as one.
- 4 These workers of iniquity do they not know at all, That they my people eat as bread, and on God do not call?
- 5 Ev'n there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismay'd, Whereas there was no cause at all, why they should be afraid: For God his bones, that thee besieg'd, hath scatter'd all abroad; Thou hast confounded them, for they despis'd are of God.
- 6 Let Isra'l's help from Zion come: when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall sing.

P S A L M LIV.

- 1 SAve me, O God, by thy great name, and judge me by thy strength:
- 2 My prayer hear, O God, give ear unto my words at length.
- 3 For they that strangers are to me do up against me rise; Oppressors seek my soul, and God, set not before their eyes.
- 4 The Lord my God my helper is, lo, therefore I am bold: He taketh part with ev'ry one that doth my soul uphold.
- 5 Unto mine enemies he shall mischief and ill repay: O for thy truth's sake cut them off, and sweep them clean away.
- 6 I will a sacrifice to thee give with free willingness: Thy name, O Lord, because 'tis good, with praise I will confess.
- 7 For he hath me delivered from all adversities: And his desire mine eye hath seen upon mine enemies.

P S A L M LV.

- 1 Lord hear my pray'r, hide not thyself from my intreating voice:
- 2 Attend and hear me, in my plaint I mourn and make a noise.

- 3 Because of th' en'mies voice, and for lewd mens oppression great: On me they cast iniquity, and they in wrath me hate.
- 4 Sore pain'd within me is my heart: death's terrors on me fall.
- 5 On me comes trembling, fear and dread o'erwhelm'd me withal.
- 6 O that I like a dove had wings, said I, then would I fly Far hence, that I might find a place where I in rest might be.
- 7 Lo, then far off I wander would, and in the desert stay:
- 8 From windy storm and tempest I would haste to 'scape away.
- 9 O Lord, on them destruction bring, and do their tongues divide: For in the city violence and strife I have epy'd.
- 10 They day and night upon the walls do go about it round: There mischief is, and sorrow there in midst of it is found.
- 11 Abundant wickedness there is within her inward part; And froin her streets deceitfulness and guile do not depart.
- 12 He was no foe that me reproach'd, then that endure I could; Nor hater that did 'gainst me boast, from him me hide I would.
- 13 But thou, man, who mine equal, guide, and mine acquaintance wast.
- 14 We join'd sweet counsels, to God's house in company we past.
- 15 Let death upon them seize, and down let them go quick to hell; For wickedness doth much abound among them where they dwell.
- 16 I'll call on God: God will me save.
- 17 I'll pray, and make a noise At ev'ning, morning, and at noon; and he shall hear my voice.
- 18 He hath my soul delivered, that it in peace might be From battle that against me was, for many were with me.
- 19 The Lord shall hear and them afflict, of old who hath abode: Because they never changes have, therefore they fear not God.
- 20 'Gainst those that were at peace with him he hath put forth his hand: The covenant that he hath made, by breaking he profan'd.
- 21 More smooth than butter were his words, while in his heart was war; His speeches were more soft than oil, and yet drawn swords they are.

PSALMS LVI, LVII, LVIII.

Cast thou thy burden on the Lord,
and he shall thee sustain;
Yea, he shall cause the righteous man
unmoved to remain.
But thou, O Lord my God, those men
in justice shalt o'erthrow.
And in destruction's dungeon dark at last shalt lay them low.
The bloody and deceitful men shall not live half their days;
But upon thee with confidence
I will depend always.

PSALM LVI.

1 Shew mercy, Lord, to me, for man would swallow me outright;
He me oppresseth, while he doth against me daily fight.
2 They daily would me swallow up,
that hate me spitefully;
For they be many that do fight against me, O most High.
3 When I'm afraid, I'll trust in thee:
4 In God I'll praise his word;
I will not fear what flesh can do,
my trust is in the Lord.
5 Each day they wrest my words, their thoughts
'gainst me are all for ill.
6 They meet, they lurk, they mark my steps, waiting my soul to kill.
7 But shall they by iniquity escape thy judgments so?
O God, with indignation down
do thou the people throw.
8 My wand'rings all what they have been thou know'st, their number took;
Into thy bottle put my tears:
are they not in thy book?
9 My foes shall, when I cry, turn back,
I know't, God is for me.
10 In God his word I'll praise: his word in God shall praised be.
11 In God I trust, I will not fear
what man can do to me.
12 Thy vows upon me are, O God:
I'll render praise to thee.
13 Wilt thou not, who from death me sav'd,
my feet from falls keep free,
To walk before God in the light of those that living be?

PSALM LVII.

1 BE merciful to me, O God,
thy mercy unto me
Do thou extend because my soul
doth put her trust in thee:
Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
my refuge I will place, Until these sad calamities do wholly overpass.
2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the Lord most High,
To God, who doth all things for me, perform most perfectly.

3 From heav'n he shall send down, and me from his reproach defend,
That would devour me; God his truth and mercy forth shall send.
4 My soul among fierce lions is,
I firebrands live among,
Mens sons, whose teeth are spears and darts,
a sharp sword is their tongue.
5 Be thou exalted very high above the heav'ns, O God; Let thou thy glory be advanc'd o'er all the earth abroad.
6 My soul's bow'd down: for they a net have laid, my steps to mare:
Into the pit, which they have digg'd for me, they fallen are.
7 My heart is fixt, my heart is fixt,
O God, I'll sing and praise.
8 My glory wake, wake psaltry, harp;
myself I'll early raise.
9 I'll praise thee among the people, Lord,
among nations sing will I:
10 For great to heav'n thy mercy is,
thy truth is to the sky.
11 O Lord, exalted be thy Name, above the heav'ns to stand;
Do thou thy glory far advance above both sea and land.

PSALM LVIII.

1 DO ye, O congregation, indeed speak righteousness?
O ye that are the sons of men,
judge ye with uprightnes?
2 Yea, ev'n within your very hearts
ye wickedness have done;
And ye the violence of your hands
do weigh the earth upon.
3 The wicked men estranged are ev'n from the very womb;
They speaking lies do stray, as soon
as to the world they come.
4 Unto a serpent's poison like their poison doth appear;
Yea, they are like the adder deaf,
that closely stops her ear:
5 That so she may not hear the voice of one that charm her would,
No not though he most cunning were,
and charm most wisely could.
6 Their teeth, O God, within their mouth break thou in pieces small;
The great teeth break thou out, O Lord,
of these young lions all.
7 Let them like waters melt away,
which downward still do flow:
In pieces cut his arrows all,
when he shall bend his bow.
8 Like to a snail that melts away,
let each of them be gone:
Like woman's birth untimely, that they never see the sun.

- 9 He shall them take away before your pots the thorns can find,
Both living, and in fury great,
as with a stormy wind.
- 10 The righteous, when he vengeance sees,
he shall be joyful then;
The righteous one shall wash his feet
in blood of wicked men.
- 11 So men shall say, The righteous man reward shall never miss;
And, verily, upon the earth
a God to judge there is.

PSALM LIX.

- 1 MY God, deliver me from those that are mine enemies;
And do thou me defend from those that up against me rise.
- 2 Do thou deliver me from them
that work iniquity;
And give me safety from the men of bloody cruelty.
- 3 For lo, they for my soul lay wait:
the mighty do combine Against me, Lord, not for my fault, nor any sin of mine.
- 4 They run, and without fault in me, themselves do ready make:
Awake to meet me with thy help,
and do thou notice take.
- 5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts,
thou God of Israel,
To visit heathen all: spare none that wickedly rebel.
- 6 At ev'ning they go to and fro;
they make great noise and found
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.
- 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth,
and in their lips are swords;
For they do say thus, Who is he that now doth hear our words?
- 8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them,
and all the heathen mock.
- 9 While he's in power I'll wait on thee:
for God is my high Rock.
- 10 He of my mercy that is God, betimes shall me prevent:
Upon mine en'mies God shall let me see mine heart's content.
- 11 Them slay not, lest my folk forget;
but scatter them abroad
By thy strong power; and bring them down,
O thou our shield, and God.
- 12 For their mouth's sin, and for the words that from their lips do fly, Let them be taken in their pride;
because they curse and lie.
- 13 In wrath consume them, them consume, that so they may not be:
And that in Jacob God doth rule, to th' earth's ends, let them see.

- 14 At ev'ning let thou them return, making great noise and found,
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.
- 15 And let them wander up and down,
in seeking food to eat;
And let them grudge, when they shall not be satisfy'd with meat.
- 16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud,
at morn thy mercy praise:
For thou to me my refuge wast,
and tow'r, in troublous days.
- 17 O God, thou art my strength, I will sing praises unto thee;
For God is my defence, a God of mercy unto me.

PSALM LX.

- 1 O Lord, thou hast rejected us,
and scatter'd us abroad,
Thou justly hast displeas'd been;
return to us, O God.
- 2 The earth to tremble thou hast made;
therein didst breaches make:
Do thou thereof the breaches heal,
because the land doth shake.
- 3 Unto thy people thou hard things hast shew'd, and on them sent;
And thou hast caus'd us to drink wine of astonishment.
- 4 And yet a banner thou hast giv'n to them who thee do fear:
That it by them, because of truth,
displayed may appear.
- 5 That thy beloved people may deliver'd be from thrall;
Save with the pow'r of thy right hand,
and hear me when I call.
- 6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
herein I will take pleasure:
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoth's valley measure.
- 7 Gilead I claim as mine by right,
Manasseh mine shall be:
Ephraim is of mine head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me.
- 8 Moab's my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw:
And over Palestina's land
I will in triumph go.
- 9 O who is he will bring me to
the city fortify'd?
O who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide?
- 10 O God, which hadest us cast off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
Ev'n thou, O God, which didest not forth with our armies go.
- 11 Help us from trouble; for the help is vain which man supplies.
- 12 Through God we'll do great acts; he shall tread down our enemies.

PSALMS LXI, LXII, LXIII, LXIV.

PSALM LXI.

O God, give ear unto my cry, unto my pray'r attend.
From th' utmost corner of the land
my cry to thee I'll send.
What time my heart is overwhelm'd and in perplexity :
Do thou me lead unto the Rock
that higher is than I.

For thou hast for my refuge been
a shelter by thy pow'r,
And, for defence against my foes,
thou hast been a strong tow'r.
Within thy tabernacle I
for ever will abide :
And under covert of thy wings,
with confidence me hide.

For thou, the vows that I did make,
O Lord my God, didst hear :
Thou hast giv'n me the heritage of those thy Name that fear.
A life prolong'd for many days thou to the king shalt give :
Like many generations be the years which he shall live.

He in God's presence his abode for evermore, shall have :
O do thou truth and mercy both prepare, that may him save.
And so will I perpetually
sing praise unto thy name ;
That, having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

PSALM LXII.

MY soul with expectation depends on God indeed :
My strength and my salvation doth from him alone proceed.
He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he :
He only is my sure defence ;
much mov'd I shall not be.
How long will ye against a man plot mischief? ye shall all be slain, ye as a tott'ring fence shall be, and bowing wall.
They only plot to cast him down
from his excellency ;
They joy in lies, with mouth they bless,
but they curse inwardly.

My soul, wait thou with patience
upon thy God alone :
On him dependeth all my hope and expectation.
He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he ;
He only is my sure defence :
I shall not moved be.

In God my glory placed is,
and my salvation sure :
In God the rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure.

8 Ye people, place your confidence in him continually ;
Before him pour ye out your heart :
God is our refuge high.

9 Surely mean men are vanity,
and great men are a lie :
In balance laid, they wholly are more light than vanity.

10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robb'ry be not vain ;
On wealth set not your hearts, when as increas'd is your gain.

11 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,
That power to Almighty God alone doth appertain.

12 Yea, mercy also unto thee belongs, O Lord, alone :
For thou according to his work rewardest ev'ry one.

PSALM LXIII.

1 Lord, thee my God, I'll early seek :
my soul doth thirst for thee,
My flesh longs in a dry parch'd land,
wherein no waters be:

2 That I thy power may behold,
and brightness of thy face,
As I have seen thee heretofore, within thy holy place.

3 Since better is thy love than life, my lips thee praise shall give.

4 I in thy name will lift my hands, and bless thee while I live.

5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat,
my soul shall filled be ;
Then shall my mouth with joyful lips
sing praises unto thee.

6 When I do thee upon my bed
remember with delight,
And when on thee I meditate,
in watches of the night.

7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy, for thou mine help hast been.

8 My soul thee follows hard; and me thy right hand doth sustain.

9 Who seek my soul to spill shall sink down to earth's lowest room.

10 They by the sword shall be cut off, and foxes prey become.

11 Yet shall the king in God rejoice, and each one glory shall,
That swear by him: but stopt shall be the mouth of liars all.

PSALM LXIV.

1 When I to thee my prayer make,
Lord, to my voice give ear ;
My life save from the enemy
of whom I stand in fear.

2 Me from their secret counsel hide who do live wickedly ;
From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity.

- 3 Who do their tongues with malice whet,
and make them cut like swords;
In whose bent bows are arrows set,
ev'n sharp and bitter words.
- 4 That they may at the perfect man
in secret aim their shot:
Yea, suddenly they dare at him to shoot, and fear it not.
- 5 In ill encourage they themselves:
and their snares close do lay,
Together conference they have,
Who shall them see? they say.
- 6 They have search'd out iniquities, a perfect search they keep:
Of each of them the inward thought,
and very heart is deep.
- 7 God shall an arrow shoot at them,
and wound them suddenly.
- 8 So their own tongue shall them confound,
all who them see shall fly.
- 9 And on all men a fear shall fall,
God's works they shall declare;
For they shall wisely notice take what these his doings are.
- 10 In God the righteous shall rejoice, and trust upon his might;
Yea, they shall greatly glory all,
in heart that are upright.

P S A L M LXV.

- 1 PRAISE waits for thee in Zion, Lord:
to thee vows paid shall be.
- 2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r,
all flesh shall come to thee.
- 3 Iniquities, I must confess, prevail against me do:
But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.
- 4 Blest is the man whom thou dost choose,
and mak'it approach to thee,
That he within thy courts, O Lord,
may still a dweller be:
We surely shall be satisfy'd with thy abundant grace,
And with the goodness of thy house,
ev'n of thy holy place.
- 5 O God of our salvation,
thou in thy righteousness,
By fearful works unto our pray'r thine answer dost express:
Therefore the ends of all the earth, and those afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
O Lord, will place in thee.
- 6 Who, being girt with pow'r, sets fast,
by his great strength, the hills.
- 7 Who noise of seas, noise of their waves,
and people's tumult stills.
- 8 Those in the outmost parts that dwell are at thy signs afraid:
Th' out-goings of the morn and ev'n
by thee are joyful made.
- 9 The earth thou visit'st, wat'ring it, thou mak'it rich to grow
With God's full flood; thy corn prepar'd when thou provid'it so.
- 10 Her ridg's thou wat'rest plentifully her furrows sett'st:
With show'rs thou dost her mollify;
her spring by thee is blest.
- 11 So thou the year most liberally
dost with thy goodness crown;
And all thy paths abundantly on us drop fatness down.
- 12 They drop upon the pastures wide,
that do in deserts ly:
The little hills on ev'ry side rejoice right pleasantly.
- 13 With flocks the pastures clothed be,
the valleys with corn are clad;
And now they shout and sing to thee,
for thou hast made them glad.

P S A L M LXVI.

- 1 ALL lands to God, in joyful sounds, aloft your voices raise.
- 2 Sing forth the honour of his Name,
and glorious make his praise.
- 3 Say unto God, How terrible in all thy works art thou?
Through thy great pow'r thy foes to thee shall be constrain'd to bow.
- 4 All on the earth shall worship thee, they shall thy praise proclaim In songs: they shall sing cheerfully unto thy holy Name.
- 5 Come, and the works that God hath with admiration see: [wrought In's working to the sons of men most terrible is he.
- 6 Into dry land the sea he turn'd, and they a passage had.
Ev'n marching through the flood on foot
there we in him were glad.
- 7 He ruleth ever by his pow'r,
his eyes the nations see:
O let not the rebellious ones lift up themselves on high.
- 8 Ye people, bless our God: aloud
the voice speak of his praise.
- 9 Our soul in life who safe preserves,
our foot from sliding stays.
- 10 For thou didst prove, and try us, Lord,
as men do silver try:
- 11 Brought'it us into the net, and mad'st bands on our loins to ly.
- 12 Thou hast caus'd men ride o'er our head and though that we did pass Through fire and water, yet thou brought'st us to a wealthy place.
- 13 I'll bring burnt-off'rings to thy house,
to thee my vows I'll pay.
- 14 Which my lips utter'd, my mouth spake
when trouble on me lay.

P S A L M S LXVII, LXVIII.

- 5 Burnt-sacrifices of fat rams with incense I will bring;
Of bullocks and of goats I will present an offering.
- 6 All that fear God, come hear, I'll tell what he did for my soul.
- 7 I with my mouth unto him cry'd,
my tongue did him extol.
- 8 If in my heart I sin regard,
the Lord me will not hear;
- 9 But surely God me heard, and to my prayer's voice gave ear.
- 10 O let the Lord, our gracious God, for ever blessed be,
Who turned not my pray'r from him,
nor yet his grace from me.

P S A L M LXVII.

- 1 Lord, bless and pity us,
shine on us with thy face :
- 2 That th' earth thy way, and nations all may know thy saving grace.
- 3 Let people praise thee, Lord,
let people all thee praise.
- 4 O let the nations be glad,
in songs their voices raise :
- Thou'lt justly people judge,
on earth rule nations all:
- 5 Let people praise thee, Lord, let them praise thee, both great and small.
- 6 The earth her fruit shall yield,
our God shall blessing send.
- 7 God shall us bless, men shall him fear unto earth's utmost end.

Another of the same.

- 1 Lord, unto us be merciful,
do thou us also bless:
And graciously cause shine on us
the brightness of thy face.
- 2 That so thy way upon the earth to all men may be known,
Also among the nations all thy saving health be shown.
- 3 O let the people praise thee, Lord,
let people all thee praise.
- 4 O let the nations be glad,
and sing for joy always:
For rightly thou shalt people judge,
and nations rule on earth.
- 5 Let people praise thee, Lord, let all the folk praise thee with mirth.
- 6 Then shall the earth yield her increase, God, our God bless us shall.
- 7 God shall us bless, and of the earth
the ends shall fear him all.
- 2 As smoke is driv'n, so drive thou them:
as fire melts wax away,
Before God's face let wicked men
so perish and decay.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad,
let them before God's sight
Be very joyful; yea, let them rejoice with all their might.
- 4 To God sing, to his name sing praise:
extol him with your voice,
That rides on heav'n by his name JAH,
before his face rejoice.
- 5 Because the Lord a father is unto the fatherless:
God is the widow's judge within his place of holiness.
- 6 God doth the solitary set in families: and from bands
The chain'd doth free, but rebels do inhabit parched lands.
- 7 O God, what time thou didst go forth before thy people's face;
And when through the great wilderness thy glorious marching was:
- 8 Then at God's presence shook the earth,
then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
the God of Israel.
- 9 O God, thou to thine heritage
didst send a plentiful rain; Whereby thou, when it weary was,
didst it refresh again.
- 10 Thy congregation then did make their habitation there:
Of thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.
- 11 The Lord himself did give the word,
the word abroad did spread;
Great was the company of them
the same who published.
- 12 Kings of great armies foiled were,
and forc'd to flee away,
And women, who remain'd at home,
did distribute the prey.
- 13 Though ye have ly'n among the pots,
like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings with silver, and with gold whose feathers cover'd are.
- 14 When there th' Almighty scatter'd kings, like Salmon's snow 'twas white.
- 15 God's hill is like to Bashan hill,
like Bashan hill for height.
- 16 Why do ye leap, ye mountains high?
this is the hill where God Desires to dwell; yea, God in it for ay will make abode.
- 17 God's chariots twenty thousand are,
thousands of angels strong;
In's holy place God is, as in mount Sinai, them among.

P S A L M LXVIII.

- 1 Let God arise, and scattered let all his enemies be;
And let all those that do him hate before his presence flee.

P S A L M LXIX.

- 18 Thou hast, O Lord, most glorious ascended up on high :
And, in triumph victorious, led captive captivity :
Thou hast received gifts for men,
for such as did rebel ;
Yea, ev'n for them, that God the Lord in midst of them might dwell.
- 19 Bless'd be the Lord, who is to us of our salvation God,
Who daily with his benefits us plentifully doth load
- 20 He of salvation is the God, who is our God most strong ;
And unto God the Lord from death
the issues do belong.

- 21 But surely God shall wound the head of those that are his foes ;
The hairy scalp of him that stem on in his trespass goes.
- 22 God said, My people I will bring again from Bashan hill, Yea, from the sea's devouring depths them bring again I will.
- 23 That in the blood of enemies thy foot imbrud' may be ;
And of thy dogs d'pt in the same the tongues thou mayest see.
- 24 Thy goings they have seen, O God,
the steps of majesty
Of my God, and my mighty King, within the sanctuary.

- 25 Before went singers, players next on instruments took way ;
And them among the damsels were that did on timbrels play.
- 26 Within the congregations
bless God with one accord ;
From Isra'ls fountain do ye bless,
and praise the mighty Lord.
- 27 With their prince little Benjamin, princes and council there
Of Judah were, there Zabulon's and Napht'li's princes were. [strong
- 28 Thy God commands thy strength : make what thou wrought'st for us, Lord.
- 29 For thy cause at Jerusalem
King : shall thee gifts afford.
- 30 The pear-mens host, the multitude of bulls, which mercely look,
Those calves which people have forth sent,
O Lord our God rebuke.
Take ev'ry one submit himself,
and silver pieces bring.
Th' people that delight in war
dispers'd, O God and King.
- 31 Those that be princes great shall then come out of Egypt lands,
And Ethiopia to God
shall soon stretch out her hands.

- 32 O all ye kingdoms of the earth,
sing praises to this King,
For he is Lord that ruleth all,
unto him praises sing.
- 33 To him that rides on heav'ns of heav'ns which he of old did found ; Lo, he sends out his voice, a voice in might that doth abound.
- 34 Strength unto God do ye ascribe ;
for his excellency
Is over Israel, his strength is in the clouds most high.
- 35 Thou'rt from thy temple dreadful, Lord, Isra'ls own God is he,
Who gives his people strength and pow'r :
O let God blessed be.

P S A L M LXIX.

- 1 SAve me, O God, because the floods
do so environ me,
That ev'n unto my very soul
come in the waters be.
- 2 I downward in deep mire do sink,
where standing there is none :
I am into deep waters come,
where floods have o'er me gone.
- 3 I weary with my crying am,
my throat is also dry'd ;
Mine eyes do fail, while for my God
I waiting do abide.
- 4 Those men that do without a cause bear hatred unto me,
Than are the hairs upon mine head in number moe they be :
- They that would me destroy, and are mine en'mies wrongfully, Are mighty : so, what I took not to render forc'd was I.
- 5 Lord, thou my folly know'st, my sins not cover'd are from thee.
- 6 Let none that wait on thee be sham'd,
Lord God of hosts, for me.
- O Lord, the God of Israel, let none, who search do make,
And seek thee, be at any time confounded for my sake.
- 7 For I have born reproach for thee,
my face is hid with shame.
- 8 To brethren strange, to mothers sons an alien I became.
- 9 Because the zeal did eat me up,
which to thine house I bare ;
And the reproaches cast at thee upon me fallen are.
- 10 My tears and fasts, t' afflict my soul,
were turned to my shame.
- 11 When sackcloth I did wear, to them a prove-b I became.
- 12 The men that in the gate do sit against me evil spake ;
They also that vile drunkards were,
of me their song did make.

- 13 But, in an acceptable time,
my pray'r, Lord, is to thee;
In truth of thy salvation, Lord,
and mercy great, hear me.
- 14 Deliver me out of the mire,
from sinking do me keep;
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.
- 15 Let not the flood on me prevail,
whose water overflows;
Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
her mouth upon me close.
- 16 Hear me, O Lord, because thy love and kindness is most good;
Turn unto me, according to thy mercies multitude.
- 17 Nor from thy servant hide thy face;
I'm troubled, soon attend.
- 18 Draw near my soul, and it redeem;
me from my foes defend.
- 19 To thee is my reproach well known,
my shame, and my disgrace:
Those that mine adversaries be are all before thy face.
- 20 Reproach hath broke my heart, I'm full of grief; I look'd for one To pity me, but none I found;
comforters found I none.
- 21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat:
They gave me vinegar to drink,
when as my thirst was great.
- 22 Before them let their table prove a snare; and do thou make Their welfare and prosperity a trap themselves to take.
- 23 Let thou their eyes so dark'ned be,
that sight may them forsake:
And let their loins be made by thee continually to shake.
- 24 Thy fury pour thou out on them,
and indignation;
And let thy wrathful anger, Lord,
fast hold take them upon.
- 25 All waste and desolate let be their habitation;
And in their tabernacles all inhabitants be none.
- 26 Because him they do persecute, whom thou didst smite before;
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hast wounded sore.
- 27 Add thou iniquity unto their former wickedness:
And do not let them come at all into thy righteousness.
- 28 Out of the book of life let them be raz'd and blotted quite;
Among the just and righteous
let not their names be writ.

- 2) But now become exceeding poor and sorrowful am I:
By thy salvation, O my God,
let me be set on high.
- 30 The name of God I with a song
most cheerfully will praise;
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his name shall highly raise.
- 31 This to the Lord a sacrifice more gracious shall prove,
Than bullock, ox, or any beast,
that hath both horn and hoof.
- 32 When this the humble men shall see,
it joy to them shall give:
O all ye that do seek the Lord,
your hearts shall ever live.
- 33 For God the poor hears, and will not his prisoners contemn.
- 34 Let heav'n, and earth, and seas him praise,
and all that move in them.
- 35 For God will Judah's cities build,
and he will Zion save;
That they may dwell therein, and it
in sure possession have.
- 26 And they that are his servants feed inherit shall the same;
So shall they have their dwelling there that love his blessed name.

P S A L M LXX.

- 1 Lord, haste me to deliver,
with speed, Lord, succour me.
- 2 Let them that for my soul do seek,
sham'd and confounded be:
Turn'd back be they and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.
- 3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha, that say,
their shaming to requite.
- 4 In thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them, who thy salvation love,
say still, God praised be.
- 5 I poor and needy am,
come, Lord, and make no stay;
My help thou and deliverer art,
O Lord, make no delay.

with speed, Lord, succour me.

sham'd and confounded be:
Let them be turned back, and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.

their shaming to requite.
- 4 O Lord, in thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them, who thy salvation love,
say still, God praised be.

come, Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliverer art,
O Lord, make no delay.

P S A L M S LXXI, LXXII.

P S A L M LXXI.

- 1 O Lord, my hope and confidence is plac'd in thee alone:
Then let thy servant never be put to confusion.
- 2 And let me, in thy right'ousness, from thee deliverance have;
Cause me escape, incline thine ear unto me, and me save.
- 3 Be thou my dwelling-rock, to which
I ever may resort:
Thou gav'st commandment me to save,
for thou'rt my rock and fort.
- 4 Free me, my God, from wicked hands, hands cruel and unjust.
- 5 For thou, O Lord God, art my hope,
and, from my youth, my trust.
- 6 Thou from the womb didst hold me up;
thou art the same that me
Out of my mothers bowels took,
I ever will praise thee.
- 7 To many I a wonder am;
but thou'rt my refuge strong.
- 8 Fill'd let my mouth be with thy praise,
and honour all day long.
- 9 O do not cast me off, when as old age doth overtake me;
And when my strength decayed is,
then do not thou forsake me.
- 10 For those that are mine enemies, against me speak with hate:
And they together counsel take,
that for my soul lay wait.
- 11 They said, God leaves him; him pursue and take: none will him save.
- 12 Be thou not far from me, my God:
thy speedy help I crave.
- 13 Confound, consume them, that unto my soul are enemies:
Cloth'd be they with reproach and shame that do my hurt devise.
- 14 But I with expectation will hope continually;
And yet with praises more and more
I will thee magnify.
- 15 Thy justice and salvation
my mouth abroad shall show:
Ev'n all the day; for I thereof
the numbers do not know.
- 16 And I will constantly go on in strength of God the Lord:
And thine own right'ousness, ev'n thine alone, I will record.
- 17 For, even from my youth, O God,
by thee I have been taught;
And hitherto I have declar'd
the wonders thou hast wrought.
- 18 And now, Lord, leave me not, when I old, and gray-headed grow:
Till to this age thy strength and pow'r to all to come I show.

- 19 And thy most perfect right'ousness,
O Lord, is very high,
Who hast so great things done: O God,
who is like unto thee?
- 20 Thou, Lord, who great adversities, and sore to me didst show, Shalt quicken, and bring me again from depths of earth below.
- 21 My greatness and my pow'r thou wilt increase, and far extend:
On ev'ry side, against all grief thou wilt me comfort send.
- 22 Thee, ev'n thy truth, I'll also praise,
my God, with psaltery:
Thou holy One of Israel,
with harp I'll sing to thee.
- 23 My lips shall much rejoice in thee,
when I thy praises found:
My soul, which thou redeemed hast,
in joy shall much abound.
- 24 My tongue thy justice shall proclaim,
continuing all day long:
For they confounded are, and sham'd, that seek to do me wrong.

P S A L M LXXII.

- 1 O Lord, thy judgments give the King, his sou thy right'ousness.
- 2 With right he shall thy people judge,
thy poor with uprightnes.
- 3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace:
Likewise the little hills the same shall do by right'ousness.
- 4 The people's poor ones he shall judge,
the needies children save:
And those shall he in pieces break, who them oppressed have.
- 5 They shall thee fear, while sun and moon
do last, through ages all.
- 6 Like rain on mown grass he shall drop,
or show'rs on earth that fall.
- 7 The just shall flourish in his days,
and prosper in his reign:
He shall, while doth the moon endure, abundant peace maintain.
- 8 His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend:
It from the river shall reach forth
unto earth's utmost end.
- 9 They in the wilderness that dwell bow down before him must:
And they that are his enemies shall lick the very dust.
- 10 The kings of Tarshish, and the isles, to him shall presents bring,
And unto him shall offer gits,
Sheba's and Seba's king.
- 11 Yea, all the mighty kings on earth,
before him down shall fall:
And all the nations of the world do service to him shall.

- 12 For he the needy shall preserve,
when he to him doth call :
The poor also, and him that hath no help of man at all.
- 13 The poor man and the indigent
in mercy he shall spare;
He shall preserve alive the souls of those that needy are.
- 14 Both from deceit and violence their soul he shall set free ;
And in his sight right precious and dear their blood shall be.
- 15 Yea, he shall live, and giv'n to him
shall be of Sheba's gold ;
For him still shall they pray, and he shall daily be extoll'd.
- 16 Of corn an handful in the earth,
on tops of mountains high,
With prosperous fruit shall shake like trees on Lebanon that be.
- The city shall be flourishing,
her citizens abound
In number shall, like to the grass that grows upon the ground.
- 17 His name for ever shall endure, last like the sun it shall :
Men shall be blest in him, and blest
all nations shall him call.
- 18 Now blessed be the Lord our God,
the God of Israel,
For he alone doth wondrous works,
in glory that excel.
- 19 And blessed be his glorious name to all eternity ;
The whole earth let his glory fill :
Amen, so let it be.

P S A L M LXXIII.

- 1 YET God is good to Israel, to each pure-hearted one.
- 2 But as for me, my steps near slipt,
my feet were almost gone.
- 3 For I envious was, and grudg'd the foolish folk to see,
When I perceiv'd the wicked fort enjoy prosperity.
- 4 For still their strength continueth firm, their death of bands is free.
- 5 They are not toil'd as other men, nor plagu'd as others be.
- 6 Therefore their pride, like to a chain,
them compasseth about ;
And, as a garment, violence
doth cover them throughout.
- 7 Their eyes stand out with fat, they have more than their hearts could wish.
- 8 They are corrupt, their talk of wrong
both lewd and lofty is.
- 9 They set their mouth against the heav'ns in their blasphemous talk ;
And their reproaching tongue throughout the earth at large doth walk,
- 10 His people oftentimes for this look back, and turn about ;
Sith waters of so full a cup to these are poured out.
- 11 And thus they say. How can it be that God these things doth know ?
Or, can there in the Highest be knowledge of things below ?
- 12 Behold, these are the wicked ones, yet prosper at their will
In worldly things, they do increase in wealth and riches still.
- 13 I, verily, have done in vain
my heart to purify ;
To no effect in innocence washed my hands have I.
- 14 For daily, and all day throughout, great plagues I suffer'd have ;
Yea, ev'ry morning I of new did chastisement receive.
- 15 If in this manner foolishly to speak I would intend,
Thy childrens generation,
behold, I should offend.
- 16 When I this thought to know, it was too hard a thing for me :
- 17 Till to God's sanctuary I went,
then I their end did see.
- 18 Assuredly thou did'st them set a slipp'ry place upon :
Them suddenly thou calledst down into destruction.
- 19 How, in a moment, suddenly to ruin brought are they !
With fearful terrors utterly they are consum'd away.
- 20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one from sleeping doth arise ;
So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st, their image shalt despise.
- 21 Thus grieved was my heart in me,
and me my reins oppress.
- 22 So rude was I, and ignorant, and in thy sight a beast.
- 23 Nevertheless, continually,
O Lord, I am with thee :
Thou dost me hold by my right hand,
and still upholdest me.
- 24 Thou, with thy counsel, while I live, wilt me conduct and guide ;
And to thy glory afterward receive me to abide.
- 25 Whom have I in the heavens high,
but thee, O Lord, alone ?
And in the earth, whom I desire besides thee, there is none.
- 26 My flesh and heart doth faint and fail,
but God doth fail me never :
For of my heart God is the strength, and portion for ever.

27 For lo, they that are far from thee,
for ever perish shall:
Then that a whoring from thee go thou hast destroyed all.

28 But surely it is good for me,
that I draw near to God:
In God I trust, that all thy works
I may declare abroad,

P S A L M LXXIV.

1 O God, why hast thou cast us off?
is it for evermore?

Against thy pasture-sheep why doth thine anger smoke so sore?

2 O call to thy remembrance thy congregation,
Which thou hast purchased of old,
still think the same upon.

The rod of thine inheritance,
which thou redeemed hast,
This Zion hill, wherein thou hadst thy dwelling in times past.

3 To these long desolations thy feet list, do not tarry:
For all the ills thy foes have done within thy sanctuary.

4 Amidst thy congregations thine enemies do roar:
Their ensigns they set up, for signs of triumph, thee before.

5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation,
According as he lifted up his ax thick trees upon.

6 But all at once, with axes now and hammers they go to;
And down the carved work thereof
they break and quite undo.

7 They fired have thy sanctuary, and have desid'd the same,
By casting down into the ground
the place where dwelt thy name.

8 Thus said they in their hearts, Let us destroy them out of hand:
They burnt up all the synagogues of God within the land.

9 Our signs we do not now behold;
there is not us among A prophet more, nor any one that knows the time how long.

10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy
thus in reproach exclaim?
And shall the adversary thus always blaspheme thy name?

11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of might,
why dost thou thus draw back?
O from thy bosom puek it out,
for our deliv'rance sake.

12 For certainly God is my King, ev'n from the times of old,
Working in midst of all the earth
salvation manifold.

13 The sea, by thy great pow'r to part,
afunder thou didst make:
And thou the dragons heads, O Lord,
within the waters brake.

14 The leviathan's heads thou brak'st in pieces, and didst give Him to be meat unto the folk in wilderness that live.

15 Thou clav'st the fountain and the flood,
which did with streams abound:
Thou dry'dst the mighty waters up unto the very ground.

16 Thine only is the day, O Lord, thine also is the night:
And thou alone prepared hast
the sun and shining light.

17 By thee the borders of the earth were settled ev'ry where:
The summer and the winter both by thee created were.

18 That th' enemy reproached hath,
O keep it in record;
And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy name, O Lord.

19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtle's soul deliver:
The congregation of thy poor
do not forget for ever.

20 Un'o thy cov'nant have respect; for earth's dark places be Full of the habitations of horrid cruelty.

21 O let not those that be oppress'd, return again with shame:
Let those that poor and needy are give praise unto thy name.

22 Do thou, O God, arise and plead the cause that is thine own:
Remember how thou art reproach'd still by the foolish one.

23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies:
Of those the tumult ever grows that do against thee rise.

P S A L M LXXV.

1 TO thee, O God, do we give thanks,
we do give thanks to thee:
Because thy wondrous works declare thy great name near to be.

2 I purpose, when I shall receive the congregation,
That I shall judgment uprightly render to ev'ry one.

3 Dissolved is the land, with all that in the same do dwell;
But I the pillars thereof do bear up and stablish well.

4 I to the foolish people said
Do not deal foolishly:
And unto those that wicked are,
Lift not your horn on high.

P S A L M S LXXVI, LXXVII.

- 5 Lift not your horn on high, nor speak
6 with stubborn neck. But know,
That not from east, nor west, nor south,
promotion doth flow.
7 But God is judge: he puts down one,
and sets another up.
8 For in the hand of God most high of red wine is a cup:
'Tis full of mixture, he pours forth, and makes the wicked all Wring out the bitter dregs thereof;
yea, and they drink them shall.
9 But I for ever will declare,
I Jacob's God will praise.
10 All horns of lewd men I'll cut off;
but just mens horns will raise.

P S A L M LXXVI.

- 1 IN Judah's land God is well known,
his name's in Isra'l great:
2 In Salem is his tabernacle,
in Zion is his seat.
3 There arrows of the bow he brake,
the shield, the sword, the war.
4 More glorious thou than hills of prey, more excellent art far.
5 These that were stout of heart are spoil'd, they slept their sleep outright:
And none of those their hands did find,
that were the men of might.
6 When thy rebuke, O Jacob's God, had forth against them past,
Their horses and their chariots both were in a dead sleep cast.
7 Thou, Lord, ev'n thou art he that should be fear'd, and who is he
That may stand up before thy sight, if once thou angry be? <sup>heard,</sup> 8 From heav'n thou judgment caus'd be the earth was still with fear, 9 When God to judgment rose, to save all meek on earth that were.
10 Surely the very wrath of man unto thy praise redounds:
Thou to the remnant of his wrath
wilt set restraining bounds.
11 Vow to the Lord your God, and pay;
all ye that near him be,
Bring gifts and presents unto him;
for to be fear'd is he.
12 By him the sp'rits shall be cut off of those that princes are:
Unto the kings that are on earth
he fearful doth appear.

P S A L M LXXVII.

- 1 UNto the Lord I with my voice,
I unto God did cry,
Ev'n with my voice, and unto me
his ear he did apply.
2 I in my trouble sought the Lord,
my sore by night did run,
And ceased not: my griev'd soul did consolation shun.

- 3 I to remembrance God did call,
yet trouble did remain:
And overwhelm'd my spirit was,
whilst I did sore complain.
4 Mine eyes, rebarr'd from rest and sleep,
thou makett still to wake:
My trouble is to great, that I unable am to speak.
5 The days of old to mind I call'd, and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past full many years ago.
6 By night my song I call to mind,
and commune with my heart,
My sp'rit did carefully enquire how I might ease my smart.
7 For ever will the Lord cast off,
and gracious be no more?
8 For ever is his mercy gone?
faile his word evermore?
9 Is't true, that to be gracious
the Lord forgotten hath?
And that his tender mercies he hath shut up in his wrath?
10 Then did I say, That surely this is mine infirmity;
I'll mind the years of the right hand of him that is most High.
11 Yea, I remember will the works performed by the Lord:
The wonders done of old by thee
I surely will record.
12 I also will of all thy works
my meditation make,
And of thy doings to discourse great pleasure I will take.
13 O God, thy way most holy is,
within thy sanctuary:
And what God is so great in pow'r,
as is our God most high?
14 Thou art the God that wonders dost by thy right hand most strong;
Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd
the nations among.
15 To thine own people with thine arm thou didst redemption bring:
To Jacob's sons, and to the tribes of Joseph that do spring.
16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear aside did flee:
the depths on trembling fell.
17 The clouds in water forth were pour'd, found loudly did the sky:
And swiftly through the world abroad thine arrows fierce did fly.
18 Thy thunder's voice alongst the heav'n a mighty noise did make:
By lightning lightned was the world,
th' earth tremble did and shake.

- 19 Thy way is in the sea, and in the waters great thy path ;
Yet are thy footsteps hid, O Lord, none knowledge thereof hath.
- 20 Thy people thou didst safely lead
like to a flock of sheep,
By Moses' hand and Aaron's thou didst them conduct and keep.
- P S A L M LXXVIII.
- 1 Attend, my people, to my law, thereto give thou an ear :
The words that from my mouth proceed attentively do hear.
- 2 My mouth shall speak a parable,
and sayings dark of old :
- 3 The same which we have heard and known and us our fathers told.
- 4 We also will them not conceal from their posterity :
Them to the generation
to come declare will we :
The praises of the Lord our God,
and his almighty strength.
The wondrous works that he hath done,
we will shew forth at length.
- 5 His testimony and his law
in Isra'l he did place,
And charg'd our fathers it to show to their succeeding race.
- 6 That so the race which was to come might well them learn and know ;
And sons unborn, who should arise,
might to their sons them show.
- 7 That they might set their hope in God,
and suffer not to fall
His mighty works out of their mind, but keep his precepts all.
- 8 And might not, like their fathers, be a stiff rebellious race ;
A race not right in heart : with God whose spirit not steadfast was.
- 9 The sons of Ephra'm, who nor bows,
nor other arms did lack,
When as the day of battle was,
they faintly turned back.
- 10 They brake God's covenant, and refus'd in his commands to go.
- 11 His works and wonders they forgot,
which he to them did show.
- 12 Things marvellous he brought to pass,
their fathers them beheld,
Within the land of Egypt done,
yea, ev'n in Zoan's field.
- 13 By him divided was the sea,
he caus'd them through to pass ;
And made the waters so to stand,
as like an heap it was.
- 14 With cloud by day, with light of fire
all night he did them guide.
- 15 In desert rocks he clave, and drink
as from great depths supply'd.
- 16 He from the rock brought streams, like made waters to run down. (flood)
- 17 Yet sinning more, in desert they provok'd the highest One.
- 18 For in their heart they tempted God,
and speaking with mistrust,
They greedily did meat require to satisfy their lust.
- 19 Against the Lord himself they spake, and, murmuring, said thus,
A table in the wilderness
can God prepare for us ?
- 20 Behold, he smote the rock, and thence came streams and waters great ;
But can he give his people bread ?
and send them flesh to eat ?
- 21 The Lord did hear, and waxed wroth
so kindled was a flame
'Gainst Jacob, and 'gainst Israel up indignation came.
- 22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust in his salvation had :
- 23 Though clouds above he did command, and heav'n's doors open made ;
- 24 And manna rain'd on them, and gave them corn of heav'n to eat,
- 25 Man angels food did eat, to them
he to the full sent meat.
- 26 And in the heaven he did cause an eastern wind to blow ;
And by his power he let out
the southern wind to go.
- 27 Then flesh as thick as dust he made to rain down them among ;
And feather'd fowls, like as the sand which ly'th the shore along.
- 28 At his command amidst their camp
these show'rs of flesh down fell,
All round about the tabernacles,
and tents where they did dwell.
- 29 So did they eat abundantly, and had of meat their fill,
For he did give to them what was their own desire and will.
- 30 They from their lust had not estrang'd their heart and their desire ;
But while the meat was in their mouths which they did so require,
- 31 God's wrath upon them came, and slew
the fattest of them all :
So that the choice of Israel o'erthrown by death did fall.
- 32 Yet, notwithstanding of all this,
they sinned still the more ;
And, though he had great wonders wrought, believ'd him not therefore.
- 33 Wherefore their days in vanity
he did consume and waste ;
And by his wrath their wretched years away in trouble past.

- 4 But when he slew them, then they did to seek him shew desire :
Yea, they return'd, and after God right early did enquire.
- 5 And that the Lord had been their rock
they did remember then :
Ev'n that the high almighty God had their Redeemer been.
- 6 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd him,
and spake but feignedly ;
And they unto the God of truth with their false tongues did lie.
- 7 For though their words were good, their with him was not sincere : (heart Unstedfast and perfidious they in his cov'nant were.
- 8 But full of pity, he forgave their sin, them did not slay :
Nor stirr'd up all his wrath, but oft his anger turn'd away.
- 9 For that they were but fading flesh to mind he did recal,
A wind that passeth soon away,
and not returns at all.
- 10 How often did they him provoke within the wilderness ?
And in the desert did him grieve with their rebelliousness ?
- 11 Yea, turning back, they tempted God, and limits set upon Him, who in midst of Isra'l is the only holy One.
- 12 They did not call to mind his pow'r, nor yet the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hand of their fierce enemy.
- 13 Nor how great signs in Egypt land
he openly had wrought,
What miracles in Zoan's field his hand to pass had brought.
- 14 How lakes and rivers ev'ry where he turned into blood ;
So that no man nor beast could drink of standing lake or flood.
- 15 He brought among them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy ;
And divers kinds of filthy frogs
he sent them to destroy.
- 16 He to the caterpillar gave the fruits of all their soil ;
Their labours he deliver'd up unto the locusts spoil.
- 17 Their vines with hail, their sycamores
he with the frost did blast.
- 18 Their beasts to hail he gave, their flocks hot thunder-bolts did waste.
- 19 Fierce burning wrath he on them cast,
and indignation strong,
And troubles fore, by sending forth ill angels them among.
- 20 He to his wrath made way, their soul, from death he did not save ;
But over to the pestilence
the lives of them he gave.
- 21 In Egypt land the first-born all he smote down ev'ry where ;
Amongst the tents of Ham, ev'n these chief of their strength that were.
- 22 But his own people like to sheep thence to go forth he made ;
And he amidst the wilderness them, as a flock, did lead.
- 23 And he them safely on did lead,
so that they did not fear :
Whereas their en'mies by the sea quite overwhelmed were.
- 24 To borders of his sanctuary
the Lord his people led,
Ev'n to the mount, which his right hand for them had purchased.
- 25 The nations of Canaan,
by his almighty hand,
Before their face he did expel out of their native land, Which for inheritance to them
by line he did divide,
And made the tribes of Israel within their tents abide.
- 26 Yet God most high they did provoke, and tempted ever still ;
And to observe his testimonies did not incline their will.
- 27 But like their fathers turned back,
and dealt unfaithfully :
Aside they turned, like a bow that shoots deceitfully.
- 28 For they to anger did provoke him with their places high ;
And with their graven images
mov'd him to jealousy.
- 29 When God heard this, he waxed wroth, and much loath'd Isra'l then :
- 30 So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent which he had plac'd with men :
- 31 And he his strength delivered into captivity,
He left his glory in the hand of his proud enemy.
- 32 His people also he gave o'er unto the sword's fierce rage :
So fore his wrath inflamed was against his heritage.
- 33 The fire consum'd their choice young men :
their maids no marriage had.
- 34 And when their priests fell by the sword, their wives no mourning made.
- 35 But then the Lord arose, as one that doth from sleep awake ;
And like a giant that, by wine refresh'd, a shout doth make.

- 66 Upon his enemies hinder parts
 he made his stroke to fall;
 And so upon them he did put a shame perpetual.
- 67 Moreover, he the tabernacle of Joseph did refuse:
 The mighty tribe of Ephraim
 he would in no wise choose.
- 68 But he did choose Jehudah's tribe to be the rest above;
 And of mount Sion he made choice,
 which he so much did love.
- 69 And he his sanctuary built like to a palace high,
 Like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.
- 70 Of David, that his servant was,
 he also choice did make,
 And even from the folds of sheep was pleased him to take:
- 71 From waiting on the ewes with young,
 he brought him forth to feed Isra'el his inheritance, his people, Jacob's feed.

- 72 So after the integrity
 he of his heart them fed;
 And by the good skill of his hands them wisely governed.

P S A L M LXXIX.

- 1 O God, the Heathen enter'd have thine heritage; by them Defiled is thy house: on heaps they laid Jerusalem.
- 2 The bodies of thy servants they have cast forth to be meat
 To ravenous fowls, thy dear saints flesh they gave to beasts to eat.
- 3 Their blood about Jerusalem like water they have shed:
 And there was none to bury them when they were slain and dead.
- 4 Unto our neighbours a reproach most bate become are we:
 A scorn and laughing-stock to them that round about us be.
- 5 How long, Lord, shall thine anger last?
 wilt thou still keep the same?
 And shall thy servant jealousy burn like unto a flame?
- 6 On heathen pour thy fury forth, that have thee never known,
 And on those kingdoms which thy name have never call'd upon.
- 7 For these are they who Jacob have devoured cruelly:
 And they his habitation
 have caused waste to lie.
- 8 Against us mind not former sins:
 thy tender mercies show,
 Let them prevent us speedily,
 for we're brought very low,

- 9 For thy Name's glory, help us, Lord, who hast our saviour been:
 Deliver us; for thy name's sake,
 O purge away our sin.
- 10 Why say the heathen? Where's their God?
 let him to them be known;
 When those, who shed thy servants blood,
 are in our sight o'erthrown.
- 11 O let the prisoners sighs ascend before thy sight on high; Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r that are design'd to die.
- 12 And to our neighbours bosom cause it sev'n-fold render'd be,
 Even the reproach wherewith they have,
 O Lord, reproached thee.
- 13 So we thy folk, and pasture sheep, shall give thee thanks always:
 And unto generations all we will shew forth thy praise.

P S A L M LXXX.

- 1 Hear, Isra'el's shepherd, like a flock thou that dost Joseph guide.
 Shine forth, O thou that dost between the cherubims abide.
- 2 In Ephraim's and Benjamin's, and in Manasseh's sight,
 O come, for our salvation
 stir up thy strength and might.
- 3 Turn us again, O Lord our God,
 and upon us vouchsafe
 To make thy countenance to shine,
 and so we shall be safe.
- 4 O Lord of hosts, Almighty God, how long shall kindled be Thy wrath against the prayer made by thine own folk to thee?
- 5 Thou tears of sorrow giv'st to them,
 in stead of bread, to eat;
 Yea, tears in stead of drink thou giv'st to them in measure great.
- 6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours round about:
 Our enemies among themselves at us do laugh and flout.
- 7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
 and upon us vouchsafe
 To make thy countenance to shine,
 and so we shall be safe.
- 8 A vine from Egypt brought thou hast,
 by thine outstretched hand:
 And thou the heathen out didst cast,
 to plant it in their land.
- 9 Before it thou a room didst make,
 where it might grow and stand;
 Thou caus'dst it deep root to take,
 and it did fill the land.
- 10 The mountains vail'd were with its shade
 as with a covering;
 Like goodly cedars were the boughs which out from it did spring.

P S A L M S LXXXI, LXXXII, LXXXIII.

Upon the one hand, to the sea
her boughs she did out-ſend;
On th' other ſide, unto the flood her branches did extend.
Why haſt thou then thus broken down and ta'en her hedge away?
So that all paſſengers do pluck,
and make of her a prey.

The boar, who from the foreſt comes,
doth waſte it at his pleaſure;
The wild beaſt of the field alſo
devours it out of meaſure.
O God of hoſts, we thee beſeech,
return now unto thine:
Look do wn from heav'n in love, behold,
and viſit this thy vine:

This vineyard which thine own right hand haſt planted us among;
And that ſame branch, which for thyſelf
thou haſt made to be ſtrong, Burnt up it is with flaming fire,
it alſo is cut down:
They utterly are periſhed
when as thy face doth frown.

O let thy hand be ſtill upon
the man of thy right hand,
The ſon of man, whom for thyſelf thou madeſt ſtrong to ſtand.

So henceforth we will not go back;
nor turn from thee at all:
O do thou quicken us, and we upon thy name will call.

Turn us again, Lord God of hoſts, and upon us vouchſafe
To make thy countenance to ſhine, and ſo we ſhall be ſafe.

P S A L M LXXXI.

Sing loud to God, our ſtrength; with joy to Jacob's God do ſing.
Take up a psalm, the pleaſant harp, timbrel and psal'try bring.
Blow trumpets at new-moon, what day
our feaſt appointed is:
For charge to Iſra'el, and a law of Jacob's God was this.

To Joſeph this a testimony
he made, when Egypt land
He travell'd through, where ſpeech I heard
I did not underſtand.

His ſhoulder I from burdens took,
his hands from pots did free.
Thou didſt in trouble on me call,
and I deliver'd thee:

In ſecret place of thundering
I did thee answer make;
And at the ſtreams of Meribah of thee a proof did take.

O thou my people, give an ear,
I'll teſtify to thee:
To thee, O Iſra'el, if thou wilt but hearken unto me.

9 In miſt of thee there ſhall not be any ſtrange god at all;
Nor unto any god unknown
thou bowing down ſhalt fall.

10 I am the Lord thy God, which did from Egypt land thee guide;
I'll fill thy mouth abundantly,
do thou it open wide.

11 But yet my people to my voice would not attentive be;
And ev'n my choſen Iſrael
he would have none of me.

12 So to the luſt of their own hearts
I them delivered:
And then in counſels of their own they vainly wandered.

13 O that my people had me heard
Iſra'el my ways had choſe!

14 I had their enemies ſoon ſubdu'd,
my hand turn'd on their foes.

15 The haters of the Lord to him
ſubmiſſion ſhould have feign'd.
But as for them, their time ſhould have for evermore remain'd

16 He ſhould have alſo fed them with the fineſt of the wheat:
Of honey from the rock, thy fill
I ſhould have made thee eat.

P S A L M LXXXII.

IN gods aſſembly God doth ſtand;
he judgeth gods among.

2 How long, accepting perſons vile, will ye give judgment wrong?

3 Defend the poor and fartherlets, to poor oppreſt do right.

4 The poor and needy ones let free, rid them from ill mens might.

5 They know not, nor will underſtand, in darkneſs they walk on:
All the foundations of the earth
out of their courſe are gone.

6 I ſaid that you are gods, and are ſons of the Higheſt all:

7 But ye ſhall die like men, and as one of the princes fall.

8 O God, do thou raiſe up thyſelf, the earth to judgment call:
For thou, as thine inheritance,
ſhalt take the nations all.

P S A L M LXXXIII.

KEEP not, O God, we thee intreat,
O keep not ſilence now:
Do thou not hold thy peace, O God,
and ſtill no more be thou.

2 For lo, thine enemies a noiſe tumultuouſly have made;
And they that haters are of thee have liſted up the head.

3 Againſt thy choſen people they do crafty counſel take;
And they againſt thy hidden ones do conſultations make.

P S A L M S LXXXIV, LXXXV, LXXXVI.

- 4 Come, let us cut them off, said they,
from being a nation.
That of the name of Isra'l may no more be mention.
- 5 For with joint heart they plot, in league against thee they combine.
- 6 The tents of Edom, Ishma'rites, Moab's and Hagar's line.
- 7 Gebal, and Ammon, Amalek, Philistines, those of Tyre.
- 8 And Assur join'd with them, to help
Lot's children they conspire.
- 9 Do to them as to Midian, Jabin at K'ison strand :
- 10 And Sis'ra, which at Endor fell,
as dung to fat the land.
- 11 Like Oreb, and like Zeeb make their noble men to fall :
Like Zeba, and Zalmunna like,
make thou their princes all :
- 12 Who said, For our possession,
let us God's houses take.
- 13 My God them like a wheel, as chaff before the wind them make.
- 14 As fire consumes the wood, as flame doth mountains set on fire ;
- 15 Chase and affright them with the storm and tempest of thine ire.
- 16 Their faces fill with shame, O Lord, that they may seek thy name.
- 17 Let them confounded be, and vex'd, and perish in their shame :
- 18 That men may know, that thou to whom alone doth appertain
The name JEHOVAH, dost most high o'er all the earth remain.

P S A L M LXXXV.

- 1 O Lord, thou hast been favourable to thy beloved land :
Jacob's captivity thou hast recall'd with mighty hand.
- 2 Thou pardoned thy people hast
all their iniquities,
Thou all their trespasses and sins hast cover'd from thine eyes.
- 3 Thou took'st off all thine ire, and turn'dst from thy wrath's furiousness.
- 4 Turn us, 'God of our health, and cause thy wrath 'gainst us to cease.
- 5 Shall thy displeasure thus endure against us without end ?
Wilt thou to generations all thine anger forth extend ?
- 6 That in thee may thy people joy,
wilt thou not us revive ?
- 7 Shew us thy mercy, Lord, to us do thy salvation give.
- 8 I'll hear what God the Lord will speak, to his folk he'll speak peace,
And to his saints, but let them not return to foolishness.
- 9 To them that fear him surely near is his salvation ;
That glory in our land may have her habitation.
- 10 Truth met with mercy, right'ousness and peace kiss'd mutually :
- 11 Truth springs from earth, and right'ousness looks down from heaven high.
- 12 Yea, what is good the Lord shall give ;
our land shall yield increase.
- 13 Justice, to set us in his steps, shall go before his face.

P S A L M LXXXIV.

- 1 H O W lovely is thy dwelling-place,
O Lord of hosts, to me !
The tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleasant, Lord, they be !
- 2 My thirty soul longs veh'mently ;
yea, fainst thy courts to see :
My very heart and flesh cry out,
O living God, for thee.

- 3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out an house wherein to rest ;
The swallow also for herself
hath purchased a nest, Evn' thine own altars, where she safe her young ones forth may bring,
O thou almighty, Lord of hosts,
who art my God and King.

- 4 Blest are they in thy house that dwell,
they ever give thee praise.
- 5 Blest is the man whose strength thou art,
in whose heart are thy ways.
- 6 Who passing thorough Baca's vale, therein do dig up wells :
Also the rain that saltieth down
the pools with water fills,

P S A L M LXXXVI.

- 1 O Lord, do thou bow down thine ear, and hear me graciously ;
Because I fore afflicted am,
and am in poverty.

P S A L M S LXXXVII, LXXXVIII.

- Because I'm holy, let my soul by thee preserved be:
O thou my God, thy servant save that puts his trust in thee.
- 3 Sit unto thee I daily cry,
be merciful to me.
- 4 Rejoice thy servant's soul; for, Lord,
I lift my soul to thee.
- 5 For thou art gracious. O Lord, and ready to forgive;
And rich in mercy, all that call upon thee to relieve.
- 6 Hear, Lord, my pray'r; unto the voice of my request attend.
- 7 In troublous times I'll call on thee, for thou wilt answer send.
- 8 Lord, there is none among the gods that may with thee compare;
And like the works, which thou hast done,
not any work is there.
- 9 All nations whom thou mad'st shall come,
and worship reverently
Before thy face; and they, O Lord, thy name shall glorify.
- 10 Because thou art exceeding great,
and works by thee are done,
Which are to be admir'd; and thou art God thyself alone.
- 11 Teach me thy way, and in thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I; Unite my heart, that I thy name may fear continually.
- 12 O Lord, my God, with all my heart to thee I will give praise;
And I the glory will ascribe unto thy name always.
- 13 Because thy mercy toward me
in greatness doth excel;
And thou deliver'd hast my soul
out from the lowest hell.
- 14 O God, the proud against me rise;
and violent men have met,
That for my soul have fought; and thee before them have not set.
- 15 But thou art full of pity, Lord,
a God most gracious,
Long-suffering, and in thy truth and mercy plenteous.
- 16 O turn to me thy countenance, and mercy on me have:
Thy servant strengthen, and the son of thine own hand-maid save.
- 17 Shew me a sign for good, that they which do me hate may see,
And be ashamed, because thou, Lord, didst help and comfort me.
- P S A L M LXXXVII.
- 1 Thou the hills of holiness his foundation sets.
- 2 God more than all his dwellings all delights in holiness.
- 3 Things glorious are said of thee,
thou city of the Lord.
- 4 Rahab and Babel, I to those that know me, will record:
Behold ev'n Tyrus, and with it
the land of Palestine,
And likewise Ethiopia;
this man was born therein.
- 5 And it of Zion shall be said,
This man and that man there
Was born; and he that is most High himself shall stablish her.
- 6 When God the people writes, he'll count that this man born was there.
- 7 There be that sing, and play; and all my well-springs in thee are.
- P S A L M LXXXVIII.
- 1 Lord God, my Saviour, day and night before thee cry'd have I, 2 Before thee let my prayer come;
give ear unto my cry.
- 3 For troubles great do fill my soul:
my life draws nigh the grave.
- 4 I'm counted with those that go down to pit, and no strength have.
- 5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them that slain in grave do ly:
Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou hast in memory.
- 6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,
in deeps and darksome caves.
- 7 Thy wrath lies hard on me, thou hast me prest with all thy waves.
- 8 Thou hast put far from me my friends,
thou mad'st them to abhor me;
And I am to shut up, that I find no evasion for me.
- 9 By reason of affliction
mine eye mourns dolefully:
To thee, Lord, do I call, and stretch
my hands continually.
- 10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead?
shall they rise, and thee bless?
- 11 Shall in the grave thy love be told?
in death thy faithfulness?
- 12 Shall thy great wonders in the dark,
or shall thy righteousness
Be known to any in the land of deep forgetfulness?
- 13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd, my pray'r at morn prevent shall thee.
- 14 Why, Lord, dost thou cast off my soul?
and hid'st thy face from me?
- 15 Distress am I, and from my youth
I ready am to die;
Thy terrors I have born, and am distracted fearfully.
- 16 The dreadful fierceness of thy wrath quite over me doth go:
Thy terrors great have cut me off,
they did pursue me so.

P S A L M LXXXIX.

- 1) For round about me ev'ry day
like water they did roll:
And, gathering together, they have compassed my soul.
- 2) My friends thou hast put far from me,
and him that did me love;
And those that mine acquaintance were to darkness didst remove.
- P S A L M LXXXIX.
- 1) God's mercies I will ever sing, and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known
to generations all.
- 2) For mercy shall be built, said I,
for ever to endure:
Thy faithfulness, ev'n in the heav'ns,
thou wilt establish sure.
- 3) I with my chosen one have made a covenant graciously:
And to my servant whom I lov'd,
to David sworn have I:
- 4) That I thy seed establish shall
for ever to remain;
And will to generations all thy throne build and maintain.
- 5) The praises of thy wonders, Lord,
the heavens shall express;
And in the congregation of saints thy faithfulness,
- 6) For who in heaven with the Lord may once himself compare?
Who is like God among the sons of those that mighty are?
- 7) Great fear in meeting of the faints is due unto the Lord;
And he of all about him should with reverence be ador'd.
- 8) O thou that art the Lord of hosts, what lord in mightines is like to thee? who compass round art with thy faithfulness.
- 9) Ev'n in the raging of the sea
thou over it dost reign;
And when the waves thereof do swell,
thou stillest them again.
- 10) Rahab in pieces thou didst break, like one that slaughter'd is:
And with thy mighty arm thou hast dispers'd thine enemies.
- 11) The heav'ns are thine, thou for thine own the earth dost also take:
The world, and fulness of the same,
thy pow'r did found and make.
- 12) The north and south from thee alone their first beginning had:
Both Tabor mount and Hermon hill shall in thy name be glad.
- 13) Thou hast an arm that's full of pow'r, thy hand is great in might:
And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in height.
- 14) Justice and judgment of thy throne are made the dwelling-place:
Mercy, accompan'd with truth,
shall go before thy face.
- 15) O greatly blest the people are,
the joyful found that know;
In brightness of thy face, O Lord,
they ever on shall go.
- 16) They in thy name shall all the day
rejoice exceedingly:
And in thy righteousness shall they exalted be on high.
- 17) Because the glory of their strength
doth only stand in thee:
And in thy favour shall our horn and pow'r exalted be.
- 18) For God is our defence, and he
to us doth safety bring:
The holy One of Israel is our almighty King.
- 19) In vision to thy holy One thou saidst, I help upon
A strong one laid; out of the folk
I rais'd a chosen one:
- 20) Ev'n David, I have found him out
a servant unto me;
And with my holy oil my king anointed him to be.
- 21) With whom my hand shall stablish'd be:
mine arm shall make him strong.
- 22) On him the foe shall not exact,
nor son of mischief wrong.
- 23) I will beat down before his face
all his malicious foes:
I will them greatly plague, who do with hatred him oppose.
- 24) My mercy, and my faithfulness, with him yet still shall be:
And in my name his horn and pow'r men shall exalted see.
- 25) His hand and pow'r shall reach afar,
I'll set it in the sea:
And his right hand established shall in the rivers be.
- 26) Thou art my Father, he shall cry,
thou art my God alone;
And he shall say, Thou art the rock
of my salvation.
- 27) I'll make him my first born, more high than kings of any land.
- 28) My love I'll ever keep for him,
my covenant fast shall stand.
- 29) His seed I by my pow'r will make
for ever to endure:
And, as the days of heav'n, his throne shall stable be and sure.
- 30) But if his children shall forsake
my laws and go astray,
And in my judgments shall not walk,
but wander from my way:

P S A L M XC.

1 If they my laws break, and do not keep my commandements:
2 I'll visit then their faults with rods,
their sins with chastisements.
3 Yet I'll not take my love from him, nor false my promise make.
4 My cov'nant I'll not break, nor change what with my mouth I spake.
5 Once by my holiness I swear, to David I'll not lie.
6 His seed and throne shall as the sun
before me last for ay.
7 It, like the moon, shall ever be establish'd steadfastly;
And like to that which in the heav'n doth witness faithfully.
8 But thou, displeas'd, hast cast off,
thou didst abhor and loathe;
With him that thine anointed is,
thou hast been very wroth.
9 Thou hast thy servant's covenant made void, as I quite cast by;
Thou hast profan'd his crown, while it cast on the ground doth ly.
10 Thou all his hedges hast broke down, his strong holds down hast torn.
11 He to all passers by a spoil, to neighbours is a scorn.
12 Thou hast set up his foes right hand, mad'st all his enemies glad:
13 Turn'd his sword's edge, and him to stand in battle hast not made.
14 His glory thou hast made to cease,
his throne to ground down cast;
15 Short'ned his days of youth and him with shame thou cover'd hast.
16 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thyself for ever in thine ire?
And shall thine indignation burn like unto a fire?
17 Remember, Lord, how short a time
I shall on earth remain:
O wherefore is it so, that thou hast made all men in vain?
18 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the power of the grave
what man his soul shall free?
19 Thy former loving kindnesses,
O Lord, where be they now?
These which in truth and faithfulness to David sworn hast thou.
20 Mind, Lord, thy servant's sad reproach:
how I in bosom bear
The scornings of the people all who strong and mighty are.
21 Wherewith thy raging enemies
reproach'd, O Lord, think on.
Wherewith they have reproach'd the steps of thine anointed One.

52 All blessing to the Lord our God, let be ascribed then:
For evermore so let it be.
Amen, yea, and amen.

P S A L M XC.

1 T Ord, thou hast been our dwelling-place
L in generations all.
2 Before thou ever hadst brought forth the mountains great or small:
Ere ever thou hadst form'd the earth,
and all the world abroad,
Ev'n thou from ever-lasting art to everlasting God.
3 Thou dost unto destruction man that is mortal turn:
And unto them thou say'st, Again,
ye sons of men, return.
4 Because a thousand years appear no more before thy sight,
Than yesterday, when it is past, or than a watch by night.
5 As with an overflowing flood thou carry'st them away:
They like a sleep are, like the grass that grows at morn are they.
6 At morn it flourishes and grows, cut down at ev'n doth fade.
7 For by thine anger we're consum'd, thy wrath makes us afraid.
8 Our sins thou and iniquities dost in thy presence place,
And sett'st our secret faults before
the brightness of thy face.
9 For in thine anger all our days
do pass on to an end;
And, as a tale that hath been told,
so we our years do spend.
10 Threescore and ten years do sum up our days and years, we see:
Or if, by reason of more strength,
in some fourscore they be:
Yet doth the strength of such old men but grief and labour prove;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly hence, and soon remove.
11 Who knows the power of thy wrath?
according to thy fear,
12 So is thy wrath; Lord, reach thou us
our end in mind to bear:
And so to count our days, that we
our hearts may still apply
To learn thy wisdom and thy truth, that we may live thereby.
13 Turn yet again to us, O Lord, how long thus shall it be?
Let it repent thee now, for those that servants are to thee.
14 O with thy tender mercies, Lord, us early satisfy;
So we rejoice shall all our days,
and still be glad in thee.

P S A L M S XCI, XCII.

- 15 According as the days have been,
wherein we grief have had,
And years wherein we ill have seen,
so do thou make us glad.
- 16 O let thy work and pow'r appear thy servants face before ;
And shew unto their children dear thy glory evermore.
- 17 And let the beauty of the Lord
our God be us upon ;
Our handy-works establish thou,
establish them each one.

P S A L M XCI.

- 1 HE that doth in the secret place
of the most High reside, Under the shade of him that is th' Almighty, shall abide.
- 2 I of the Lord my God will say,
He is my refuge still,
He is my fortress, and my God,
and in him trust I will.
- 3 Assuredly he shall thee save,
and give deliverance
From subtil fowler's snare, and from the noisome pestilence.
- 4 His feathers shall thee hide ; thy trust under his wings shall be :
His faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler unto thee.
- 5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid
for terrors of the night, Nor for the arrow that doth fly
by day, while it is light :
- 6 Nor for the pestilence, that walks
in darkness secretly,
Nor for destruction, that doth waste at noon-day openly.
- 7 A thousand at thy side shall fall, on thy right hand shall ly
Ten thousand dead, yet unto thee
it shall not once come nigh.
- 8 Only thou with thine eyes shalt look,
and a beholder be :
And thou therein the just reward of wicked men shalt see.
- 9 Because the Lord, who constantly my refuge is alone,
Ev'n the most High, is made by thee thy habitation.
- 10 No plague shall near thy dwelling come,
no ill shall thee beset :
- 11 For thee to keep in all thy ways his angels charge he shall.
- 12 They in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon ;
Lest thou at any time should'st dash thy foot against a stone.
- 13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread,
and on the lion strong :
Thy feet on dragons trample shall,
and on the lions young.

- 14 Because on me he set his love,
I'll save and set him free :
Because my great name he hath known,
I will him set on high.
- 15 He'll call on me, I'll answer him,
I will be with him still,
In trouble to deliver him,
and honour him I will.
- 16 With length of days unto his mind,
I will him satisfy ;
I also my salvation
will cause his eyes to see.

P S A L M XCII.

- 1 TO render thanks unto the Lord
it is a comely thing,
And to thy name, O thou most High,
due praise aloud to sing.
- 2 Thy loving kindness to shew forth,
when shines the morning light ;
And to declare thy faithfulness with pleasure ev'ry night.
- 3 On a ten-stringed instrument,
upon the psaltery ;
And on the harp with solemn sound,
and grave sweet melody.
- 4 For thou, Lord, by thy mighty wor-hast made my heart right glad :
And I will triumph in the works,
which by thine hands were made.
- 5 How great, Lord, are thy works ! each of thine a deep it is. [thought]
- 6 A brutish man it knoweth not ;
fools understand not this.
- 7 When those that lewd and wicked are spring quickly up like grass,
And workers of iniquity
do flourish all apace ;
It is that they for ever may destroyed be and slain :
- 8 But thou, O Lord, art the most High,
for ever to remain.
- 9 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, thine enemies perish shall :
The workers of iniquity shall be dispersed all.
- 10 But thou shalt, like unto the horn of th' unicorn, exalt
My horn on high : thou with fresh oil anoint me also shalt.
- 11 Mine eyes shall also my desire see on mine enemies :
Mine ear shall of the wicked hear,
that do against me rise.
- 12 But like the palm-tree flourishing shall be the righteous one :
He shall like to the cedar grow that is in Lebanon.
- 13 Those that within the house of God
are planted by his grace ;
They shall grow up, and flourish all in our God's holy place.

P S A L M S XCIII, XCIV, XCV.

- 14 And in old age, when others fade, they fruir still forth shall bring:
They shall be fat, and full of sap,
and ay be flourishing.
- 15 To shew that upright is the Lord,
he is a rock to be:
And he from all unright'ousness is altogether free.

P S A L M XCIII.

- 1 THe Lord doth reign, and cloth'd is he with majesty most bright;
His works do shew him cloth'd to be,
and girt about with might.
The world is also stablished, that it cannot depart.
- 2 Thy throne is fix'd of old, and thou from everlasting art.
- 3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,
they lifted up their voice;
The floods have lifted up their waves,
and made a mighty noise.
- 4 But yet the Lord, that is on high,
is more of might by far,
Than noise of many waters is,
or great sea-billows are.
- 5 Thy testimonies ev'ry one in faithfulness excel;
And holiness for ever, Lord,
thine house becometh well.

P S A L M XCIV.

- 1 O Lord God, unto whom alone
all vengeance doth belong,
O mighty God, who vengeance own'st, shine forth, avenging wrong.
- 2 Lift up thyself, thou of the earth
the sov'reign Judge that art,
And unto those that are so proud a due reward impart.
- 3 How long, O mighty God, shall they who lewd and wicked be,
How long shall they who wicked are thus triumph haughtily?
- 4 How long shall things most hard by them be uttered and told;
And all that work iniquity to boast themselves be bold?

- 5 Thy folk they break in pieces, Lord, thine heritage oppress.
- 6 The widow they, and stranger slay,
and kill the fatherless.
- 7 Yet say they, God it shall not see,
nor God of Jacob know.
- 8 Ye brutish people understand;
fools, when wise will ye grow?
- 9 The Lord did plant the ear of man, and hear then shall not he?
He only form'd the eye, and then shall he not clearly see?
- 10 He that the nations doth correct, shall he not chastise you?
He knowledge unto man doth teach,
and shall himself not know?

†

- 11 Man's thoughts to be but vanity,
the Lord doth well discern.
- 12 Blest is the man thou chalt'nest, Lord, and mak'st thy law to learn.
- 13 That thou may'st give him rest from days
of sad adversity,
Until the pit be digg'd for those
that work iniquity.

- 14 For sure the Lord will not cast off those that his people be, Neither his own inheritance quit and forsake will he.
- 15 But judgment unto right'ousness shall yet return again;
And all shall follow after it,
that are right-hearted men.
- 16 Who will rise up for me, against
those that do wickedly?
Who will stand up for me, 'gainst those
that work iniquity?
- 17 Unless the Lord had been my help,
when I was sore oppress'd, Almost my soul had in the house of silence been at rest.
- 18 When I had uttered this word,
(my foot doth slip away,) Thy mercy held me up, O Lord;
thy goodness did me stay.
- 19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts,
which in my heart do fight,
My soul, lest it be overcharg'd,
thy comforts do delight.

- 20 Shall of iniquity the throne have fellowship with thee,
Which mischief, cunningly contriv'd, doth by a law decree?
- 21 Against the right'ous souls they join,
they guiltless blood condemn.
- 22 But of my refuge God's the rock,
and my defence from them.
- 23 On the'n their own iniquity
the Lord shall bring and lay,
And cut them off in their own sin,
our Lord God shall them slay.

P S A L M XCV.

- 1 O Come, let us sing to the Lord, come, let us ev'ry one
A joyful noise make to the Rock of our salvation.
- 2 Let us before his presence come,
with praise and thankful voice:
Let us sing psalms to him with grace;
and make a joyful noise.
- 3 For God a great God, and great King above all gods he is.
- 4 Depths of the earth are in his hand,
the strength of hills is his.
- 5 To him the spacious sea belongs,
for he the same did make:
The dry land also from his hands its form at first did take.

D

6 O come,

- 6 O come, and let us worship him,
let us bow down withal,
And on our knees before the Lord
our maker let us fall.
- 7 For he's our God, the people we
of his own pasture are,
And of his hand the sheep; to-day
if ye his voice will hear.
- 8 Then, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,
As in the desert, on the day of the tentation.
- 9 When me your fathers tempt'd and prov'd,
and did my working see:
- 10 Ev'n for the space of forty years
this race hath grieved me:

I said, This people errs in heart,
my ways they do not know:
11 To whom I swear in wrath, that to my rest they should not go.

P S A L M XCVI.

- 1 O Sing a new song to the Lord,
sing all the earth to God,
2 To God sing, bless his name, shew still his saving health abroad.
- 3 Among the heathen nations his glory do declare;
And unto all the people show his works that wondrous are.
- 4 For great's the Lord, and greatly he is to be magnify'd:
Yea, worthy to be fear'd is he above all gods beside.
- 5 For all the gods are idols dumb which blinded nations fear;
But our God is the Lord, by whom the heav'ns created were.
- 6 Great honour is before his face,
and majesty divine:
Strength is within his holy place,
and there doth beauty shine,
- 7 Do you ascribe unto the Lord,
of people ev'ry tribe,
Glory do ye unto the Lord,
and mighty pow'r ascribe.
- 8 Give ye the glory to the Lord
that to his name is due:
Come ye into his courts, and bring an offering with you.
- 9 In beauty of his holiness
O do the Lord adore:
Likewise let all the earth throughout tremble his face before.
- 10 Among the heathen say, God reigns:
the world shall stedfastly
Be fix'd from moving, he shall judge
the people right'ously:
- 11 Let heav'ns be glad before the Lord and let the earth rejoice:
Let seas, and all that is therein,
cry out, and make a noise.

- 12 Let fields rejoice, and ev'ry thing that springeth of the earth:
Then woods, and ev'ry tree shall sing with gladness and with mirth
- 13 Before the Lord; because he comes,
to judge the earth comes he:
He'll judge the world with right'ousness,
the people faithfully.

P S A L M XCVII.

- 1 G O d reigneth: let the earth be glad,
and isles rejoice each one.
- 2 Dark clouds him compass; and in right with judgment dwells his throne.
- 3 Fire goes before him, and his foes,
it burns up round about.
- 4 His lightnings lighten did the world, earth saw, and shook throughout.
- 5 Hills, at the presence of the Lord,
like wax, did melt away:
Ev'n at the presence of the Lord of all the earth, I say.
- 6 The heav'ns declare his right'ousness all men his glory see.
- 7 All who serve graven images,
confounded let them be.
- Who do of idols boast themselves,
let shame upon them fall:
Ye that are called gods, see that ye do him worship all.
- 8 Zion did hear, and joyful was, glad Judah's daughters were.
They much rejoic'd, O Lord, because thy judgments did appear.
- 9 For thou, O Lord, art high above all things on earth that are:
Above all other gods thou art exalted very far.
- 10 Hate ill, all ye that love the Lord:
his saints souls keepeth he,
And from the hands of wicked men
he sets them safe and free.
- 11 For all those that be righteous sown is a joyful light,
And gladness sown is for all those that are in heart upright.
- 12 Ye right'ous, in the Lord rejoice, express your thankfulnes,
When ye into your memory
do call his holiness.

P S A L M XCVIII.

- 1 O Sing a new song to the Lord,
for wonders he hath done:
His right hand, and his holy arm,
him victory hath won.
- 2 The Lord God his salvation hath caused to be known:
His justice in the heathen's sight
he openly hath shown.
- 3 He mindful of his grace and truth to Isra'ls house hath been:
And the salvation of our God
all ends of th' earth have seen.

P S A L M S XCIX, C, CI, CII.

- 4 Let all the earth unto the Lord
send forth a joyful noise :
Lift up your voice aloud to him,
sing praises, and rejoice.
- 5 With harp, with harp, and voice of psalms unto J E H O V A H sing.
- 6 With trumpets, cornets, gladly sound
before the Lord the King.
- 7 Let seas, and all their fulness roar,
the world, and dwellers there.
- 8 Let floods clap hands, and let the hills together joy declare
- 9 Before the Lord ; because he comes,
to judge the earth comes he :
He'll judge the world with righteousness,
his folk with equity.

P S A L M XCIX.

- 1 TH' eternal Lord doth reign as King,
let all the people quake :
He sits between the cherubims,
let th' earth be mov'd and shake.
- 2 The Lord in Zion great, and high above all people is.
- 3 Thy great and dreadful Name (for it is holy) let them bless.
- 4 The king's strength also judgment loves :
thou settlest equity.
Just judgment thou dost execute in Jacob right'ously.
- 5 The Lord our God exalt on high,
and rev'rently do ye
Before his footstool worship him :
the holy One is he.
- 6 Moses and Aaron 'mongst his priests,
Samuel with them that call Upon his name : these call'd on God, and he them answer'd all.
- 7 Within the pillar of the cloud
he unto them did speak :
The testimonies he them taught,
and laws they did not break.
- 8 Thou answer'dst them, O Lord our God, thou wast a God that gave Pardon to them, though on their deeds thou wouldest vengeance have.
- 9 Do ye exalt the Lord our God,
and at his holy hill
Do ye him worship : for the Lord our God is holy still.

P S A L M C.

- 1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
- 2 Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.
- 3 Know, that the Lord is God indeed, Without our aid he did us make ;
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.
- 4 O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto :
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

- 5 For why ? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure :
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

- 1 O All ye lands, unto the Lord make ye a joyful noise.
- 2 Serve God with gladness, him before come with a singing voice.
- 3 Know ye the Lord, that he is God, not we but he us made ;
We are his people, and the sheep within his pasture fed.
- 4 Enter his gates and courts with praise,
to thank him go ye thither :
To him express your thankfulness,
and bless his name together.
- 5 Because the Lord our God is good,
his mercy faileth never ;
And to all generations
his truth endureth ever.

P S A L M CI.

- 1 Mercy will and judgment sing,
Lord, I will sing to thee.
- 2 With wisdom, in a perfect way, shall my behaviour be.
O when in kindness unto me,
wilt thou be pleas'd to come ?
I with a perfect heart will walk within my house at home.
- 3 I will endure no wicked thing before mine eyes to be :
I hate their work that turn aside ;
it shall not cleave to me.
- 4 A stubborn and a froward heart depart quite from me shall :
A person giv'n to wickedness
I will not know at all.
- 5 I'll cut him off that slandereth his neighbour privily :
The haughty heart I will not bear,
nor him that looketh high.
- 6 Upon the faithful of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me : he shall me serve that walks in perfect way.
- 7 Who of deceit a worker is,
in my house shall not dwell :
And in my presence shall he not remain, that lies doth tell.
- 8 Yea, all the wicked of the land early destroy will I :
All from God's city to cut off
that work iniquity.

P S A L M CII.

- 1 O Lord, unto my pray'r give ear,
my cry let come to thee ;
- 2 And in the day of my distress,
hide not thy face from me.

- Give ear to me: what time I call,
to answer me make haste.
- 3 For as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my days like smoke do waste.
- 4 My heart within me smitten is,
and it is withered
Like very grais: so that I do forget to eat my bread.
- 5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin.
- 6 Like pelican in wilderness forsaken I have been:
- I like an owl in desert am,
that nightly there doth roan.
- 7 I watch, and like a sparrow am on the house-top alone.
- 8 My bitter en'mies all the day
reproaches cast on me:
And being mad at me, with rage against me sworn they be.
- 9 For why, I ashes eaten have,
like bread in furrows deep:
My drink I also mingled have with tears that I did weep.
- 10 Thy wrath and indignation did cause this grief and pain:
For thou hast lift me up on high,
and cast me down again.
- 11 My days are like unto a shade,
which doth declining pass:
And I am dry'd and withered,
ev'n like unto the grais.
- 12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall continually endure, and be
to generations all.
- 13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Zion yet:
The time to favour her is come,
the time that thou hast set.
- 14 For in her rubbish and her stones thy servants pleasure take,
Yea, they the very dust thereof
do favour for her sake.
- 15 So shall the heathen people fear
the Lord's most holy name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory, and thy fame.
- 16 When Zion by the mighty Lord built up again shall be In glory then and majestic, to men appear shall he.
- 17 The prayer of the destitute
he surely will regard,
Their prayer will he not despise,
by him it shall be heard.
- 18 For generations yet to come
this shall be on record:
So shall the people, that shall be created, praise the Lord.
- 19 He from his sanctuary's height hath downward cast his eye:
And from his glorious throne in heav'n
the Lord the earth did spy:
- 20 That of the mournful prisoner
the groanings he might hear,
To set them free, that unto death by men appointed are:
- 21 That they in Zion may declare
the Lord's most holy name,
And publish in Jerusalem
the praises of the same.
- 22 When as the people gather shall in troops with one accord.
When kingdoms shall assembled be to serve the Highest Lord.
- 23 My wonted strength and force he hath abated in the way,
And he my days hath shortened:
- 24 Thus therefore did I say,
My God, in mid-time of my days,
take thou me not away;
From age to age eternally
thy years endure and stay.
- 25 The firm foundation of the earth of old time thou hast laid:
The heavens also are the work which thine own hands have made.
- 26 Thou shalt for evermore endure,
but they shall perish all:
Yea, ev'ry one of them wax old,
like to a garment, shall:
- Thou as a vesture shalt them change,
and they shall changed be.
- 27 But thou the same art, and thy years are to eternity.
- 28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure,
And in thy sight, O Lord, their seed shall be establish'd sure
- Another of the same.*
- 1 Lord, hear my pray'r, and let my cry
Have speedy access unto thee.
- 2 In day of my calamity
O hide not thou thy face from me:
Hear when I call to thee, that day
An answer speedily return.
- 3 My days like smoke consume away,
And, as an hearth, my bones do burn.
- 4 My heart is wounded very sore,
And withered, like grais, doth fade:
I am forgetful grown therefore
To take and eat my daily bread.
- 5 By reason of my smart within,
And voice of my most grievous groans,
My flesh consumed is, my skin,
All parch'd, doth cleave unto my bones.
- 6 The pelican of wilderness,
The owl in desert I do match:
- 7 And sparrow-like, companionless,
Upon the house's-top, I watch.

8 I all day long am made a scorn,
 Reproach'd by my malicious foes:
 The mad-men are against me sworn,
 The men against me that arose.

9 For I have ashes eaten up
 To me as if they had been bread;
 And with my drink I in my cup
 Of bitter tears a mixture made.

10 Because thy wrath was not appeas'd,
 And dreadful indignation:
 Therefore it was that thou me rais'd,
 And thou again didst cast me down.

11 My days are like a shade away,
 Which doth declining swiftly pass:
 And I am withered away
 Much like unto the fading grass,

12 But thou, O Lord, shalt still endure,
 From change and all mutation free,
 And, to all generations, sure Shall thy remembrance ever be.

13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy yet
 Thou to mount Zion shalt extend:
 Her time for favour which was set,
 Behold, is now come to an end.

14 Thy saints take pleasure in her stones,
 Her very dust to them is dear.

15 All heathen lands, and kingly thrones
 On earth, thy glorious name shall fear.

16 God in his glory shall appear,
 When Zion he builds and repairs.

17 He shall regard and lend his ear
 Unto the needy's humble pray'rs:
 Th' afflicted's pray'r he will not scorn.

18 All times this shall be on record,
 And generations yet unborn
 Shall praise and magnify the Lord.

19 He from his holy place look'd down,
 The earth he view'd from heav'n on high:

20 To hear the pris'ners mourning groan,
 And free them that are doom'd to die;

21 That Zion, and Jerus'lem too,
 His name and praise may well record:

22 When people, and the kingdoms do Assemble all to praise the Lord.

23 My strength he weak'ned in the way,
 My days of life he shortened.

24 My God, O take me not away
 In mid-time of my days I said:
 Thy years throughout all ages last.

25 Of old thou hast established
 The earth's foundation firm and fast:
 Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have made.

26 They perish shall, as garments do,
 But thou shalt evermore endure:
 As vestures thou shalt change them so;
 And they shall all be changed sure.

27 But from all changes thou art free;
 Thy endless years do last for ay.

28 Thy servants, and their seed who be,
 Establish'd shall before thee stay.

1 O Thou my soul, bless God the Lord, and all that in me is
 Be stirred up, his holy name to magnify and bless.

2 Bless, O my soul, the Lord thy God, and not forgetful be
 Of all his gracious benefits
 he hath bestow'd on thee.

3 All thine iniquities who doth most graciously forgive:
 Who thy diseases all and pains doth heal, and thee relieve.

4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou to death may'st not go down:
 Who thee with loving kindness doth and tender mercies crown.

5 Who with abundance of good things
 doth satisfy thy mouth:
 So that, ev'n as the eagle's age,
 renewed is thy youth.

6 God right'ous judgment executes for all oppress'd ones.

7 His ways to Moses, he his acts made known to Isra'ls sons.

8 The Lord our God is merciful, and he is gracious,
 Long-suffering, and slow to wrath,
 in mercy plenteous.

9 He will not chide continually, nor keep his anger still.

10 With us he dealt not as we sinn'd,
 nor did requite our ill.

11 For as the heaven in its height
 the earth surmounteth far;
 So great to those that do him fear
 his tender mercies are.

12 As far as east is distant from the west, so far hath he
 From us removed, in his love, all our iniquity.

13 Such pity as a father hath unto his children dear;
 Like pity shews the Lord to such as worship him in fear.

14 For he remembers we are dust, and he our frame well knows.

15 Frail man, his days are like the grass, as flow'r in field he grows:

16 For over it the wind doth pass,
 and it away is gone,
 And of the place, where once it was,
 it shall no more be known.

17 But unto them that do him fear
 God's mercy never ends;
 And to their childrens children still his right'ousness extends.

18 To such as keep his covenant,
 and mindful are alway
 Of his most just commandments, that they may them obey.

- 19 The Lord prepared hath his throne
in heavens firm to stand :
And ev'ry thing that being hath his kingdom doth command.
- 20 O ye his angels, that excel in strength, blefs ye the Lord, Ye who obey what he commands,
and hearken to his word,
- 21 O blefs and magnify the Lord, ye glorious hosts of his,
Ye minifters that do fulfil whate'er his pleasure is.
- 22 O blefs the Lord, all ye his works, wherewith the world is stor'd
In his dominions every where :
my foul, blefs thou the Lord.
- P S A L M CIV.
- 1 Blefs God, my foul : O Lord, my God, thou art exceeding great,
With honour and with majesty thou clothed art in itate.
- 2 With light as with a robe, thyself thou coverest about ;
And, like unto a curtain, thou
the heavens stretchest out.
- 3 Who of his chambers doth the beams within the waters lay,
Who doth the clouds his chariot make,
on wings of wind make way.
- 4 Who flaming fire his minifters ;
his angels sp'rits doth make.
- 5 Who earth's foundations did lay,
that it should never shake.
- 6 Thou didst it cover with the deep,
as with a garment spread :
The waters stood above the hills,
when thou the word but said.
- 7 But, at the voice of thy rebuke,
they fled, and would not stay
They at thy thunders dreadful voice, did haste them fast away.
- 8 They by the mountains do ascend, and by the valley-ground
Descend, unto that very place which thou for them didst found.
- 9 Thou hast a bound unto them set,
that they may not pass over,
That they do not return again
the face of earth to cover.
- 10 He to the vallies sends the springs, which run among the hills :
- 11 They to all beasts of field give drink,
wild asses drink their fills.
- 12 By them the fowls of heav'n shall have
their habitation :
Which do among the branches sing with delectation.
- 13 He from his chambers watereth
the hills, when they are dry'd :
With fruit and increase of thy works
the earth is satisfy'd.
- 14 For cattle he makes gras to grow,
he makes the herb to spring
For th' use of man, that food to him he from the earth may bring :
- 15 And wine, that to the heart of man
doth cheerfulness impart,
Oil that his face makes shine, and bread that strengtheneth his heart.
- 16 The trees of God are full of sap
the cedars that do stand In Lebanon, which planted were
by his almighty hand.
- 17 Birds of the air, upon their boughs, do choose their nests to make :
As for the stork, the fir-tree she doth for her dwelling take.
- 18 The lofty mountains for wild goats
a place of refuge be :
The conies also to the rocks
do for their safety flee.
- 19 He sets the moon in heav'n, thereby the seasons to discern :
From him the sun his certain time of going down doth learn.
- 20 Thou darkness mak'it, 'tis night, then beasts of forests creep abroad.
- 21 The lions young roar for their prey,
and seek their meat from God.
- 22 The sun doth rise, and home they flock, down in their dens they lie.
- 23 Man goes to work, his labour he doth to the ev'ning ply.
- 24 How manifold, Lord, are thy works !
in wisdom wonderful Thou ev'ry one of them hast made ;
earth's of thy riches full.
- 25 So is this great and spacious sea, wherein things creeping are,
Which numbred cannot be ; and beasts both great and small are there.
- 26 There ships go, there thou mak'it to play that leviathan great.
- 27 These all wait on thee, that thou may'it in due time give them meat.
- 28 That which thou givest unto them,
they gather for their food ;
Thine hand thou open'it lib'rally,
they filled are with good.
- 29 Thou hid'it thy face, they troubled are,
their breath thou tak'it away :
Then do they die, and to their dust return again do they.
- 30 Thy quick'ning sp'rit thou sendest forth,
then they created be :
And then the earth's decayed face renewed is by thee.
- 31 The glory of the mighty Lord continue shall for ever ;
The Lord JEHOVAH shall rejoice
in all his works together.

32 Earth, as affrighted, trembleth all if he on it but look:
And if the mountains be but touch,
they presently do smoke.

33 I will sing to the Lord most high,
so long as I shall live;
And, while I being have, I shall to my God praises give.

34 Of him my meditation shall sweet thoughts to me afford;
And as for me, I will rejoice in God my only Lord.

35 From earth let sinners be consum'd, let ill men no more be:
O thou my soul, bless thou the Lord.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CV.

1 Give thanks to God, call on his name, to men his deeds make known.

2 Sing ye to him, sing psalms, proclaim his wondrous works each one.

3 See that ye in his holy name to glory do accord:
And let the heart of ev'ry one rejoice that seeks the Lord.

4 The Lord almighty, and his strength, with stedfast heart seek ye;
His blessed and his gracious face seek ye continually.

5 Think on the works that he hath done,
which admiration breed;
His wonders, and the judgments all which from his mouth proceed.

6 O ye that are of Abr'ham's race,
his servant well approv'n:
And ye that Jacob's children are,
whom he choos'd for his own.

7 Because he, and he only, is the mighty Lord our God;
And his most righteous judgments are in all the earth abroad.

8 His cov'nant he rememb'rd hath,
that it may ever stand:
To thousand generations
the word he did command.

9 Which covenant he firmly made with faithful Abraham,
And unto Isaac, by his oath,
he did renew the same:

10 And unto Jacob, for a law,
he made it firm and sure,
A covenant to Israel,
which ever should endure.

11 He said, I'll give Canaan's land for heritage to you:

12 While they were strangers there, and few,
in number very few.

13 While yet they went from land to land without a sure abode;
And while, through sundry kingdoms, they did wander far abroad,

14 Yet notwithstanding suffer'd he no man to do them wrong;
Yea, for their sakes, he did reprove kings, who were great and strong.

15 Thus did he say, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be,
Nor do the prophets any harm,
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd for famine on the land,
he brake the staff of bread;

17 But yet he sent a man before by whom they should be fed:
Ev'n Joseph, whom unnat'rally sell for a slave did they;

18 Whose feet with fetters they did hurt,
and he in irons lay;

19 Until the time that his word came to give him liberty:
The word and purpose of the Lord
did him in prison try:

20 Then sent the king, and did command that he enlarg'd should be:
He that the people's ruler was did send to set him free.

21 A lord, to rule his family,
he rais'd him, as most fit:
To him, of all that he possess'd,
he did the charge commit.

22 That he might at his pleasure bind
the princes of the land;
And he might teach his senators wisdom to understand.

23 The people then of Israel down into Egypt came:
And Jacob also sojourned
within the land of Ham.

24 And he did greatly by his pow'r increase his people there;
And stronger than their enemies
they by his blessing were.

25 Their heart he turned to envy
his folk maliciously,
With those that his own servants were to deal in subtilty.

26 His servant Moses he did send,
Aaron his chosen one.

27 By these his signs and wonders great in Ham's land were made known.

28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark;
his word they did obey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood, and he their fish did slay.

30 The land in plenty brought forth frogs in chambers of their kings.

31 His word all sorts of flies and lice in all their borders brings.

32 He hail for rain, and flaming fire into their land he sent:

33 And he their vines and fig-trees smote, trees of their coasts he rent.

P S A L M CVI.

- 34 He spake, and caterpillars came,
lo uss did much abound;
35 Which in their land all herbs consum'd, and all fruits of their ground.
36 He smote all first-born in their land,
chief of their strength each one.
37 With gold and silver brought them forth, weak in their tribes were none.
38 Egypt was glad when forth they went,
their fear on them did light.
39 He spread a cloud for covering, and fire to shew by night. [bread 40 They ask'd, and he brought quails: with of heav'n he filed them.
41 He open'd rocks, floods gush'd, and ran in deserts like a stream.
42 For on his holy promise he,
and servant Abr'ham, thought.
43 With joy his people, his elect with gladness forth he brought.
44 And unto them the pleasant lands
he of the heathen gave:
That of the people's labour they inheritance might have.
45 That they his statutes might observe according to his word:
And that they might his laws obey,
Give praise unto the Lord.

P S A L M CVI.

- 1 Give praise and thanks unto the Lord, for bountiful is he,
His tender mercy doth endure
unto eternity.
2 God's mighty works who can express?
or shew forth all his praise?
3 Blessed are they that judgment keep and justly do always.
4 Remember me, Lord, with that love, which thou to thine dost bear;
With thy salvation, O my God,
to visit me draw near:
5 That I thy chosen's good may see,
and in their joy rejoice:
And may with thine inheritance triumph with cheerful voice.
6 We with our fathers sinned have,
and of iniquity
Too long we have the workers been,
we have done wickedly.
7 The wonders great, which thou, O Lord,
diddst work in Egypt land,
Our fathers, though they saw, yet them
they did not understand;
And they thy mercies multitude kept not in memory:
But at the sea, ev'n the Red sea,
provok'd him grievously.
8 Nevertheless, he saved them,
ev'n for his own name's sake:
That so he might to be well known his mighty power make.

- 9 When he the Red sea did rebuke, then dried up it was:
Through depths, as through the wilderness,
he safely made them pass.
10 From hands of those that hated them
he did his people save:
And from the enemy's cruel hand
to them redemption gave.
11 The waters overwhelm'd their foes, not one was left alive.
12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise to him in songs did give.
13 But soon did they his mighty works forget unthankfully,
And on his counsel and his will
did not wait patiently:
14 But much did lust in wilderness,
and God in desert tempt.
15 He gave them what they fought, but to their soul he leanings sent.
16 And against Moses, in the camp, their envy did appear;
At Aaron they, the faint of God,
envious also were.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour,
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.
18 Likewise among their company a fire was kindled then;
And so the hot consuming flame burnt up these wicked men.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol-calf did frame;
A molten image they did make,
and worshipp'd the same.
20 And thus their glory, and their God, most vainly changed they Into the likeness of an ox that eateth grass or hay.
21 They did forget the mighty God, that had their Saviour been,
By whom such great things brought to pass
they had in Egypt seen.
22 In Ham's land he did wondrous works, things terrible did he.
When he his mighty hand and arm
stretch'd out at the Red sea.
23 Then said he, He would them destroy,
had not, his wrath to stay,
His chosen Moses stood in breach,
that them he should not slay.
24 Yea, they despoil'd the pleasant land, believed not his word:
25 But in their tents they murmured, not heark'ning to the Lord.
26 Therefore in desert them to slay
he list'd up his hand:
27 'Mong nations to o'erthrow their seed,
and scatter in each land.

P S A L M CVII.

- 23 They unto Baal-peor did themselves associate ;
The sacrifices of the dead they did profanely eat.
- 29 Thus, by their lewd inventions, they did provoke his ire :
And then upon them suddenly the plague brake in as fire.
- 30 Then Phineas rose, and justice did, and so the plague did cease.
- 31 That to all ages counted was to him for righteousness.
- 32 And at the waters, where they strove, they did him angry make,
In such sort, that it fared ill with Moses for their sake :
- 33 Because they there his spirit meek provoked bitterly,
So that he utter'd with his lips words unadvisedly.
- 34 Nor, as the Lord commanded them, did they the nations slay :
- 35 But with the heathen mingled were, and learn'd of them their way.
- 36 And they their idols serv'd, which did a snare unto them turn.
- 37 Their sons and daughters they to de'ls, in sacrifice did burn.
- 38 In their own childrens guiltless blood their hands they did imbrue, Whom to Canaan's idols they for sacrifices slew :
So was the land desil'd with blood.
- 39 They stain'd with their own way,
And with their own inventions a whoring they did stray.
- 40 Against his people kindled was the wrath of God therefore,
Insomuch that he did his own inheritance abhor.
- 41 He gave them to the heathens hand ; their foes did them command.
- 42 Their en'mies them oppress'd, they were made subject to their hand.
- 43 He many times deliver'd them, but with their counsel so They him provok'd, that for their sin they were brought very low.
- 44 Yet their affliction he beheld, when he did hear their cry :
- 45 And he for them his covenant did call to memory.
- After his mercies multitude,
46 He did repent : and made them to be pitied of all those who did them captive lead.
- 47 O Lord our God, us save. and gather the heathen from among,
That we thy holy name may praise in a triumphant song.

- 48 Blest be J E H O V A H, Isra'l's God, to all eternity :
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CVII.

- 1 Praise God, for he is good : for still his mercies lasting be.
- 2 Let God's redeem'd say so, whom he from th' en'mies hand did free :
- 3 And gather'd them out of the lands, from north, south, east, and west.
- 4 They stray'd in desert's pathless way, no city found to rest.
- 5 For thirst and hunger in them faints
- 6 Their soul. When straits them press,
They cry unto the Lord, and he them frees from their distress.
- 7 Them also in a way to walk that right is he did guide,
That they might to a city go, wherein they might abide.
- 8 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done unto the sons of men !
- 9 For he the soul that longing is doth fully satisfy,
With goodness he the hungry soul doth fill abundantly.
- 10 Such as shut up in darkness deep, and in death's shade abide,
Whom strongly hath affliction bound, and irons fast have ty'd.
- 11 (Because against the words of God they wrought rebelliously, And they the counsel did contemn of him that is most High.)
- 12 Their heart he did bring down with grief, they fell, no help could have.
- 13 In trouble then they cry'd to God, he them from straits did save.
- 14 He out of darkness did them bring, and from death's shade them take :
These bands wherewith they had been afunder quite he brake. [bound
- 15 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodness then.
And for his works of wonder done unto the sons of men !
- 16 Because the mighty gates of brass in pieces he did tear,
By him in sunder also cut the bars of iron were.
- 17 Fools for their sin, and their offence, do sore affliction bear,
- 18 All kind of meat their soul abhors, they to death's gates draw near.
- 19 In grief they cry to God, he saves them from their miseries.
- 20 He sends his word, them heals, and them from their destructions frees.

P S A L M S CVIII, CIX.

- 21 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!
- 22 And let them sacrifice to him offerings of thankfulness;
And let them shew abroad his works
in songs of joyfulness.
- 23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trading be, 24 Within the deep, these men God's works and his great wonders see.
25 For he commands, and forth in haste,
the stormy tempest flies,
Which makes the sea with rolling waves aloft to swell and rise.
- 26 They mount to heav'n, then to the depths
they do go down again,
Their soul doth faint, and melt away with trouble and with pain.
- 27 They reel and stagger like one drunk,
at their wits end they be,
28 Then they to God in trouble cry, who them from straits doth free.
- 29 The storm is chang'd into a calm,
at his command and will,
So that the waves, which rag'd before,
now quiet are and still.
- 30 Then are they glad, because at rest and quiet now they be;
So to the haven he them brings,
which they desir'd to see.
- 31 O that men to the Lord would give
praise, for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men!
- 32 Among the people gathered
let them exalt his name;
Among assembled elders spread his most renowned fame.
- 33 He to dry land turns water-springs,
and floods to wilderness:
34 For sins of those that dwell therein,
fat land to barrenness.
- 35 The burnt and parched wilderness to water-pools he brings,
The ground, that was dry'd up before,
he turns to water-springs.
- 36 And there, for dwelling, he a place doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare commodiously to live.
- 37 There sow they fields, and vineyards plant, to yield fruits of increase.
- 38 His blessing makes them multiply, lets not their beasts decrease.
- 39 Again they are diminished,
and very low brought down,
Through sorrow and affliction,
and great oppression.

- 40 He upon princes pours contempt,
and causeth them to stray,
And wander in a wilderness,
wherein there is no way.
- 41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from all his miseries,
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families.
- 42 They that are righteous shall rejoice,
when they the same shall see:
And, as ashamed, stop her mouth shall all iniquity.
- 43 Whoso is wise, and will these things observe, and them record, Ev'n they shall understand the love and kindness of the Lord.

P S A L M CVIII.

- 1 MY heart is fixt, Lord, I will sing,
and with my glory praise.
- 2 Awake up, psaltery and harp,
myself I'll early raise.
- 3 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord,
'mong nations sing will I:
- 4 For above heav'n thy mercy's great,
thy truth doth reach the sky.
- 5 Be thou above the heavens, Lord,
exalted gloriously:
Thy glory all the earth above
be lifted up on high.
- 6 That those who thy beloved are delivered may be:
O do thou save with thy right hand and answer give to me.
- 7 God in his holiness hath said,
Herein I will take pleasure,
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoth's valley measure.
- 8 Gilead I claim as mine by right,
Manasseh mine shall be.
Ephra'm is of my head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me.
- 9 Moab is my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw,
Over the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.
- 10 O who is he will bring me to
the city fortify'd!
O who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide!
- 11 O God, thou who had'st cast us off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God,
forth with our armies go?
- 12 Do thou from trouble give us help,
for helpless is man's aid.
- 13 Through God we shall do valiantly, our foes he shall down tread.

P S A L M CIX.

- 1 O Thou the God of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace:
- 2 For mouths of wicked men to speak against me do not cease.

P S A L M CX.

- The mouths of vile deceitful men against me open'd be;
And with a false and lying tongue
they have accused me.
- 3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spite:
And though to them no cause I gave,
against me they did fight
- 4 They for my love became my foes,
but I me set to pray.
- 5 Evil for good, hatred for love,
to me they did repay.
- 6 Set thou the wicked over him,
and upon his right hand
Give thou his greatest enemy,
ev'n Satan, leave to stand.
- 7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd let him condemned be;
And let his pray'r be turn'd to sin,
when he shall call on thee.
- 8 Few be his days, and in his room his charge another take.
- 9 His children let be fatherless, his wife a widow make.
- 10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually;
And, from their places desolate,
seek bread for their supply.
- 11 Let covetous extortioners catch all he hath away:
Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prey.
- 12 Let there be none to pity him, let there be none at all That on his children fatherless will let his mercy fall.
- 13 Let his posterity from earth cut off for ever be,
And in the following age their name
be blotted out by thee.
- 14 Let God his fathers wickedness still to remembrance call:
And never let his mother's sin be blotted out at all.
- 15 But let them all before the Lord appear continually,
That he may wholly from the earth
cut off their memory.
- 16 Because he mercy minded not,
but persecuted still
The poor and needy, that he might the broken-hearted kill.
- 17 As he in cursing pleasure took,
so let it to him fall;
As he delighted not to bless,
so bless him not at all.
- 18 As cursing he like clothes put on,
into his bowels so,
Like water, and into his bones,
like oil, down let it go.
- 19 Like to the garment let it be which doth himself array,
And for a girdle, wherewith he is girt about alway.
- 20 From God let this be their reward,
that en'mies are to use,
And their reward, that speak against my soul maliciously.
- 21 But do thou, for thine own name's sake,
O God the Lord, for me:
Sith good and sweet thy mercy is,
from trouble set me free.
- 22 For I am poor and inuigent, afflicted sore am I,
My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.
- 23 I pass like a declining shade,
am like the locust tost.
- 24 My knees through fasting weak'ned are,
my flesh hath fatness lost.
- 25 I also am a vile reproach unto the n' made to be:
And they that did upon me look did shake their heads at me.
- 26 O do thou help and succour me,
who art my God and Lord:
And, for thy tender mercies sake, safety to me afford.
- 27 That thereby they may know, that this is thy almighty hand;
And that thou, Lord, hast done the same,
they may well understand.
- 28 Although they curse with spite, yet, Lord, bless thou with loving voice:
Let them asham'd be when they rise;
thy servant let rejoice.
- 29 Let thou mine adversaries all with shame be clothed over,
And let their own confusion them, as a mantle, cover.
- 30 But as for me, I with my mouth will greatly praise the Lord;
And I among the multitude his praises will record.
- 31 For he shall stand at his right hand
who is in poverty,
To save him from all those that would condemn his soul to die.

P S A L M CX.

- 1 THE LORD did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou at my right hand,
Until I make thy foes a stool whereon thy feet may stand.
- 2 The Lord shall out of Zion send the rod of thy great power;
In midst of all thine enemies be thou the governor.
- 3 A willing people in thy day of pow'r shall come to thee.
In holy beauties, from morn's womb:
thy youth like dew shall be.

P S A L M S CXI, CXII, CXIII, CXIV.

- 4 The Lord himself hath made an oath, and will repent him never,
Of th' order of Malchisedeck thou art a priest for ever.
- 5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
that sits at thy right hand, Shall, in his day of wrath, strike through kings that do him withstand.
- 6 He shall among the heathen judge,
he shall with bodies dead
The places fill; o'er many lands
he wound shall ev'ry head.
- 7 The brook that runneth in the way with drink shall him supply:
And for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on high.

P S A L M CXI.

- 1 PRAISE ye the Lord; with my whole heart,
I will God's praise declare,
Where the assemblies of the just and congregations are.
- 2 The whole works of the Lord our God are great above all measure, Sought out they are of ev'ry one that do therein take pleasure.
- 3 His work most honourable is,
most glorious and pure,
And his untainted right'ousness for ever doth endure.
- 4 His works most wonderful he hath made to be thought upon:
The Lord is gracious, and he is full of compassion.
- 5 He giveth meat unto all those that truly do him fear;
And evermore his covenant
he in his mind will bear.
- 6 He did the power of his works unto his people show,
When he the heathen's heritage upon them did bestow.
- 7 His handy-works are truth and right;
all his commands are sure:
- 8 And, done in truth and uprightness,
they evermore endure.
- 9 He sent redemption to his folk,
his covenant for ay
He did command: holy his name and rev'rend is alway.
- 10 Wisdom's beginning is God's fear:
good understanding they Have all that his commands fulfil:
his praise endures for ay.

P S A L M CXII.

- 1 PRAISE ye the Lord. The man is blest, that fears the Lord aright,
He who in his commandments doth greatly take delight.
- 2 His seed and offspring powerful shall be the earth upon:
Of upright men blessed shall be the generation.

- 3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store:
And his unspotted right'ousness endures for evermore.
- 4 Unto the upright light doth rise,
though he in darkness be:
Compassionate and merciful, and righteous is he.
- 5 A good man doth his favour shew,
and doth to others lend:
He with discretion his affairs will guide unto the end.
- 6 Surely there is not any thing that ever shall him move;
The right'ous man's memorial shall everlasting prove.
- 7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid:
His heart is fix'd, his confidence
upon the Lord is stay'd.
- 8 His heart is firmly stablished, afraid he shall not be,
Until upon his enemies
he his desire shall see.
- 9 He hath dispers'd, giv'n to the poor, his right'ousness shall be To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.
- 10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do most desire shall utterly decay.

P S A L M CXIII.

- 1 PRAISE God: ye servants of the Lord,
O praise, the Lord's name praise.
- 2 Yea, blessed be the name of God from this time forth always.
- 3 From rising sun, to where it sets,
God's name is to be prais'd.
- 4 Above all nations God is high,
'bove heav'n's his glory rais'd.
- 5 Unto the Lord, our God, that dwells on high, who can compare?
- 6 Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.
- 7 He from the dust doth raise the poor,
that very low doth lie;
And from the dung-hill lifts the man
oppress'd with poverty.
- 8 That he may highly him advance, and with the princes set:
With those that of his people are the chief, ev'n princes great.
- 9 The barren woman house to keep he maketh, and to be
Of sons a mother full of joy.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CXIV.

- 1 W HEN Isra'l out of Egypt went,
and did his dwelling change,
When Jacob's house went out from those that were of language strange.

P S A L M S CXV, CXVI, CXVII.

- 2 He Judah did his sanctuary,
his kingdom Isra'l make :
- 3 The sea it saw, and quickly fled,
Jordan was driven back.
- 4 Like rams the mountains, and like lambs
the hills skipp'd to and fro.
- 5 O sea, why fled'st thou? Jordan back, why wast thou driven so?
- 6 Ye mountains great, wherefore was it that ye did skip like rams?
And wherefore was it, little hills,
that ye did leap like lambs?
- 7 O at the presence of the Lord,
earth, tremble thou for fear, While as the presence of the God of Jacob doth appear.
- 8 Who from the hard and stony rock did standing water bring :
And by his pow'r did turn the flint into a water-spring.

P S A L M CXV.

- 1 Not unto us, Lord, not to us, but do thou glory take Unto thy name, ev'n for thy truth, and for thy mercies sake.
- 2 O wherefore should the heathen say,
Where is their God now gone?
- 3 But our God in the heavens is,
what pleas'd him he hath done.
- 4 Their idols silver are and gold, work of mens hands they be.
- 5 Mouths have they, but they do not speak ;
and eyes, but do not see :
- 6 Ears have they, but they do not hear ;
noses, but savour not :
- 7 Hands, feet, but handle not, nor walk ;
nor speak they through their throat.
- 8 Like them their makers are, and all on them their trust that build.
- 9 O Isra'l trust thou in the Lord,
he is their help and shield.
- 10 O Aaron's house trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he.
- 11 Ye that fear God trust in the Lord, their help and shield he'll be.
- 12 The Lord of us hath mindful been,
and he will bless us still,
He will the house of Isra'l bless,
bless Aaron's house he will.
- 13 Both small and great, that fear the Lord,
he will them surely bless.
- 14 The Lord will you, you and your seed,
ay more and more increase.

- 15 O blessed are ye of the Lord, who made the earth and heav'n.
- 16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'ns are God's, but he earth to mens sons hath giv'n.
- 17 The dead, nor who to silence go,
God's praise do not record.
- 18 But henceforth we for ever will bless God. Praise ye the Lord.

P S A L M CXVI.

- 1 I Love the Lord, because my voice and prayers he did hear.
- 2 I, while I live, will call on him,
who bow'd to me his ear.
- 3 Of death the cords and forrows did about me compass round,
The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found.
- 4 Upon the name of God, the Lord,
then did I call, and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
- 5 God merciful and righteous is,
yea, gracious is our Lord.
- 6 God saves the meek : I was brought low,
he did me help afford.
- 7 O thou my soul, do thou return unto thy quiet rest ;
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath exprest.
- 8 For my distressed soul from death
deliver'd was by thee :
Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears,
my feet from falling free.
- 9 I in the land of those that live will walk the Lord before.
- 10 I did believe, therefore I spake :
I was afflicted sore.
- 11 I said, when I was in my haste, that all men liars be.
- 12 What shall I render to the Lord,
for all his gifts to me?
- 13 I'll of salvation take the cup,
on God's name will I call.
- 14 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord,
before his people all.
- 15 Dear in God's sight is his saints death.
- 16 Thy servant, Lord, am I.
Thy servant sure, thine hand-maid's son :
my bands thou didst unty.
- 17 Thank-off'rings I to thee will give,
and on God's name will call.
- 18 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord,
before his people all ;
- 19 Within the courts of God's own house,
within the midst of thee,
O city of Jerusalem.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CXVII.

- 1 O Give ye praise unto the Lord,
all nations that be :
Likewise, ye people all, accord
his name to magnify.
- 2 For great to us-ward ever are his loving kindneses :
His truth endures for evermore,
the Lord, O do ye bless.

P S A L M CXVIII.

- 1 O Praise the Lord, for he is good :
his mercy lasteth ever.
- 2 Let those of Irael now say,
His mercy faileth never.
- 3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercy lasteth ever.
- 4 Let those that fear the Lord now say,
His mercy faileth never.
- 5 I in distress call'd on the Lord:
the Lord did answer me,
He in a large place did me set,
from trouble made me free.
- 6 The mighty Lord is on my side,
I will not be afraid :
For any thing that man can do
I shall not be dismay'd.
- 7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me ;
Therefore on those that do me hate
I my desire shall see.
- 8 Better it is to trust in God,
than trust in man's defence ;
- 9 Better to trust in God, than make princes our confidence.
- 10 The nations, joining all in one,
did compass me about :
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
- 11 They compass'd me about, I say,
they compass'd me about :
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
- 12 Like bees they compass'd me about :
like unto thorns that flame
They quenched are : for them shall I destroy in God's own name.
- 13 Thou sore hast thrust, that I might fall,
but my Lord helped me.
- 14 God my salvation is become,
my strength and song is he.
- 15 In dwellings of the righteous is heard the melody
Of joy and health ; the Lord's right hand doth ever valiantly.
- 16 The right hand of the mighty Lord
exalted is on high :
The right hand of the mighty Lord
doth ever valiantly.
- 17 I shall not die, but live, and shall the works of God discover.
- 18 The Lord hath me chastised sore,
but not to death giv'n over.
- 19 O set ye open unto me
the gates of right'ousness :
Then will I enter into them,
and I the Lord will bless.
- 20 This is the gate of God, by it
the just shall enter in.
- 21 Thee will I praise, for thou me heard'st and hast my safety been.

- 22 That stone is made head corner-stone, which builders did despise :
- 23 This is the doing of the Lord,
and wondrous in our eyes.
- 24 This is the day God made, in it we'll joy triumphantly.
- 25 Save now, I pray thee, Lord, I pray, send now prosperity.
- 26 Blessed is he, in God's great name that cometh us to save ;
We, from the house which to the Lord pertains, you blessed have.
- 27 God is the Lord, who unto us hath made light to arise :
Bind ye unto the altar's horns with cords the sacrifice.
- 28 Thou art my God, I'll thee exalt ;
my God, I will thee praise.
- 29 Give thanks to God, for he is good :
his mercy lasts always.

P S A L M CXIX.

A L E P H.

The 1st Part

- 1 Bless'd are they that undefil'd, and straight are in the way :
Who in the Lord's most holy law
do walk, and do not stray.
- 2 Bless'd are they who to observe,
his statutes are inclin'd ;
And who do seek the living God with their whole heart and mind.
- 3 Such in his ways do walk, and they do no iniquity.
- 4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts carefully.
- 5 O that thy statutes to observe thou wouldst my ways direct
- 6 Then shall I not be sham'd, when I thy precepts all respect.
- 7 Then with integrity of heart thee will I praise and bless,
When I the judgments all have learn'd of thy pure right'ousness.
- 8 That I will keep thy statutes all firmly resolv'd have I :
O do not then, most gracious God, forsake me utterly.

B E T H.

The 2d Part

- 9 By what means shall a young man learn his way to purify ?
If he according to thy word thereto attentive be.
- 10 Unfeignedly thee have I sought with all my soul and heart ;
O let me not from the right path of thy commands depart.
- 11 Thy word I in my heart have hid,
that I offend not thee.
- 12 O Lord, thou ever blessed art,
thy statutes teach thou me.

- 13 The judgments of thy mouth each one my lips declared have.
14 More joy thy testimonies way than riches all me gave.
15 I will thy holy precepts make my meditation:
And carefully I'll have respect unto thy ways each one.
16 Upon thy statutes my delight shall constantly be set:
And by thy grace I never will thy holy word forget.

G I M E L.

The 3d Part.

- 17 With me thy servant, in thy grace,
deal bountifully, Lord;
That by thy favour I may live,
and duly keep thy word.
18 Open mine eyes, that of thy law
the wonders I may see.
19 I am a stranger on this earth,
hide not thy laws from me.
20 My soul within me breaks, and doth much fainting still endure, Through longing that it hath all times unto thy judgments pure.
21 Thou hast rebuk'd the cursed proud, who from thy precepts swerve.
22 Reproach and shame remove from me,
for I thy laws observe.
23 Against me princes spake with spite,
while they in council sat:
But I, thy servant, did upon thy statutes meditate.
24 My comfort, and my heart's delight, thy testimonies be;
And they, in all my doubts and fears,
are counsellors to me.

D A L E T H.

The 4th Part.

- 25 My soul to dust cleaves; quicken me
according to thy word.
26 My ways I shew'd, and me thou heard'st:
teach me thy statutes, Lord.
27 The way of thy commandments make me aright to know;
So all thy works that wondrous are
I shall to others show.
28 My soul doth melt, and drop away,
for heaviness and grief:
To me, according to thy word,
give strength, and send relief.
29 From me the wicked way of lies let far removed be,
And graciously thy holy law
do thou grant unto me.
30 I chosen have the perfect way
of truth and verity:
Thy judgments, that most right'ous are,
before me laid have I.
31 I to thy testimonies cleave;
shame do not on me cast.
32 I'll run thy precepts way, when thou my heart enlarged hast.

- 33 Teach me, O Lord, the perfect way of thy precepts divine.
And to observe it to the end
I shall my heart incline.
34 Give understanding unto me,
so keep thy law shall I.
Yea, ev'n with my whole heart I shall observe it carefully.
35 In thy laws path make me to go,
for I delight therein.
36 My heart unto thy testimonies, and not to greed incline.
37 Turn thou away my sight and eyes from viewing vanity:
And in thy good and holy way
be pleas'd to quicken me.
38 Confirm to me thy gracious word,
which I did gladly hear, Ev'n to thy servant, Lord, who is devoted to thy fear.
39 Turn thou away my fear'd reproach:
for good thy judgments be.
40 Lo, for thy precepts I have long'd:
in thy truth quicken me.

V A U.

The 6th Part.

- 41 Let thy sweet mercies also come,
and visit me, O Lord:
Ev'n thy benign salvation,
according to thy word.
42 So shall I have wherewith I may give him an answer just.
Who spitefully reproacheth me:
for in thy word I trust.
43 The word of truth, out of my mouth take thou not utterly;
For on thy judgments righteous
my hope doth still rely.
44 So shall I keep for evermore
thy law continually, 45 And, sith that I thy precepts seek,
I'll walk at liberty.
46 I'll speak thy word to kings, and I with shame shall not be mov'd:
47 And will delight myself always in thy laws which I lov'd.
48 To thy commandments, which I lov'd, my hands lift up I will:
And I will also meditate upon thy statutes still.

Z A I N.

The 7th Part.

- 49 Remember, Lord, thy gracious word
thou to thy servant spake, Which for a ground of my sure hope thou causedit me to take.
50 This word of thine my comfort is in mine affliction:
For in my straits I am reviv'd
by this thy word alone.

- 51 The men whose hearts with pride are stuff'd,
did greatly me deride :
Yet from thy straight commandements
I have not turn'd aside.
- 52 Thy judgments righteous, O Lord, which thou of old forth gave,
I did remember, and myself
by them comforted have.
- 53 Horror took hold on me, because ill men thy law forfake.
- 54 I in my house of pilgrimage thy laws my songs do make.
- 55 Thy name by night, Lord, I did mind,
and I have kept thy law.
- 56 And this I had, because thy word
I kept, and stood in awe.

C H E T H. The 8th Part.

- 57 Thou my sure portion art alone, which I did choose. O Lord :
I have resolv'd, and said, that I would keep thy holy word.
- 58 With my whole heart I did intreat thy face and favour free :
According to thy gracious word
be merciful to me.
- 59 I thought upon my former ways, and did my life well try :
And to thy testimonies pure
my feet then turned I.
- 60 I did not stay, nor linger long,
as those that slothful are ;
But hastily thy laws to keep myself I did prepare.

- 61 Bands of ill men me robb'd ; yet I thy precepts did not slight.
- 62 I'll rise at midnight thee to praise,
ev'n for thy judgments right.
- 63 I am companion to all those who fear, and thee obey.
- 64 O Lord, thy mercy fills the earth :
teach me thy laws I pray.

T E T H. The 9th Part.

- 65 Well hast thou with thy servant dealt,
as thou did'st promise give.
- 66 Good judgment me, and knowledge teach :
for I thy word believe.
- 67 Ere I afflicted was I stray'd ;
but now I keep thy word.
- 68 Both good thou art, and good thou dost :
teach me thy statutes, Lord.
- 69 The men that are puffed up with pride
again't me forg'd a lie ;
Yet thy commandements observe with my whole heart will I.
- 70 Their hearts, through worldly ease and as fat as greafe they be : [wealth,
But in thy holy law I take delight continually.

- 71 It hath been very good for me,
that I afflicted was,
That I might well instructed be,
and learn thy holy laws.

- 72 The word that cometh from thy mouth is better unto me,
Than many thousands, and great sums of gold and silver be.

J O D. The 10th Part.

- 73 Thou mad'st and fashion'dst me : thy laws to know, give wisdom, Lord :
- 74 So who thee fear shall joy to see me trusting in thy word.
- 75 That very right thy judgments are
I know, and do confesse ;
And that thou hast afflicted me
in truth and faithfulness.
- 76 O let thy kindness merciful,
I pray thee, comfort me,
As to thy servant faithfully was promised by thee.
- 77 And let thy tender mercies come to me, that I may live :
Because thy holy laws to me
sweet delectation give.
- 78 Lord, let the proud ashamed be :
for they, without a cause,
With me perversly dealt ; but I will muse upon thy laws.
- 79 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy statutes, turn to me.
- 80 My heart let in thy laws be found,
that sham'd I never be.

C A P H. The 11th Part.

- 81 My soul for thy salvation faints ;
yet I thy word believe.
- 82 Mine eyes fail for thy word : I say,
When wilt thou comfort give ?
- 83 For like a bottle I'm become,
that in the smoke is set :
I'm black, and parch'd with grief ; yet I thy statutes not forget.
- 84 How many are thy servant's days ?
when wilt thou execute Just Judgment on these wicked men that do me persecute ?
- 85 The proud have digged pits for me which is against thy laws.
- 86 Thy words all faithful are : help me
pursu'd without a cause.
- 87 They so consum'd me, that on earth
my life they scarce did leave :
Thy precepts yet forsook I not,
but close to them I'd cleave.
- 88 After thy loving kindness, Lord,
me quicken, and preserve :
The testimony of thy mouth
so shall I still observe.

L A M E D. The 12th Part.

- 89 Thy word for ever is, O Lord,
in heaven settled fast :
- 90 Unto all generations
thy faithfulness doth last :

The earth thou hast established,
and it abides by thee.
91 This day they stand as thou ordain'dst;
for all thy servants be.

92 Unless in thy most perfect law
my soul delights had found,
I should have perished, when as my troubles did abound.

93 Thy precepts I will ne'er forget:
they quick'ning to me brought.

94 Lord, I am thine, O save thou me:
thy precepts I have sought.

95 For me the wicked have laid wait, me seeking to destroy:
But I thy testimonies true
consider will with joy.

96 An end of all perfection
here have I seen, O God;
But as for thy commandment,
it is exceeding broad.

M E M. The 13th Part.

97 O how love I thy law! it is my study all the day.

98 It makes me wiser than my foes:
for it doth with me stay.

99 Than all my teachers now I have,
more understanding far;
Because my meditation thy testimonies are.

100 In understanding I excel
those that are ancients;
For I endeavoured to keep all thy commandments.

101 My feet from each ill way I stay'd, that I may keep thy word.

102 I from thy judgments have not swerv'd, for thou hast taught me, Lord.

103 How sweet unto my taste, O Lord, are all thy words of truth!

Yea, I do find them sweeter far,
than honey to my mouth.

104 I through thy precepts that are pure,
do understanding get:

I therefore ev'ry way that's false with all my heart do hate.

N U N. The 14th Part.

105 Thy word is to my feet a lamp,
and to my path a light.

106 I sworn have, and I will perform, to keep thy judgments right.

107 I am with sore affliction
ev'n overwhelm'd, O Lord:

In mercy raise, and quicken me,
according to thy word.

108 The free-will-offerings of my mouth accept, I thee beseech:

And unto me thy servant, Lord,
thy judgments clearly teach.

109 Though still my soul be in my hand,
thy laws I'll not forget.

110 I erid not from them, though for me
the wicked snares did set.

111 I of thy testimonies have above all things made choice,
To be my heritage for ay,
for they my heart rejoice.

112 I carefully inclined have my heart, still to attend:
That I thy statutes may perform
alway unto the end.

S A M E C H. The 15th Part.

113 I hate the thoughts of vanity,
but love thy law do I.

114 My shield and hiding-place thou art:
I on thy word rely.

115 All ye that evil-doers are,
from me depart away;
For the commandments of my God
I purpose to obey.

116 According to thy faithful word
uphold and stablish me,
That I may live, and of my hope ashamed never be.

117 Hold thou me up, so shall I be in peace and safety still:
And to thy statutes have respect continually I will.

118 Thou tread't down all that love to stray false their deceit doth prove.

119 Lewd men, like dross, away thou putt't, therefore thy law I love.

120 For fear of thee my very flesh
doth tremble, all dismay'd;
And of thy righteous judgments, Lord,
my soul is much afraid.

A I N. The 16th Part.

121 To all men I have judgment done, performing justice right:
Then let me not be left unto my fierce oppressors might.

122 For good unto thy servant, Lord, thy servant's surety be;
From the oppression of the proud
do thou deliver me.

123 Mine eyes do fail with looking long for thy salvation,
The word of thy pure righ'tousness
while I do wait upon.

124 In mercy with thy servant deal, thy laws me teach and show.

125 I am thy servant, wisdom give,
that I thy laws may know.

126 'Tis time thou work, Lord; for they have made void thy law divite.

127 Therefore thy precepts more I love than gold, yea, gold most fine.

128 Concerning all things thy commands all right I judge therefore:
And ev'ry false and wicked way
I perfectly abhor.

P E.

The 17th Part.

- 129 Thy statutes, Lord, are wonderful,
my soul them keeps with care.
- 130 The entrance of thy words gives light, makes wife who simple are.
- 131 My mouth I have wide opened,
and panted earnestly,
While after thy commandments
I long'd exceedingly.
- 132 Look on me, Lord, and merciful do thou unto me prove,
As thou art wont to do to those thy name who truly love,
- 133 O let my footsteps in thy word aright still order'd be;
Let no iniquity obtain
dominion over me,
- 134 From man's oppression save thou me,
so keep thy laws I will.
- 135 Thy face make on thy servant shine;
teach me thy statutes still.
- 136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes did run down, when I saw How wicked men run on in sin, and do not keep thy law.

T S A D D I.

The 18th Part.

- 137 O Lord, thou art most righteous, thy judgments are upright.
- 138 Thy testimonies thou command'st most faithful are and right.
- 139 My zeal hath ev'n consumed me,
because mine enemies Thy holy words forgotten have,
and do thy laws despise.
- 140 Thy word's most pure, therefore on it thy servant's love is set.
- 141 Small, and despis'd I am, yet I thy precepts not forget.
- 142 Thy right'ousness is right'ousness, which ever doth endure:
Thy holy law, Lord, also is the very truth most pure.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have me found,
and taken hold on me;
Yet in my trouble my delight thy just commandments be.
- 144 Eternal right'ousness is in thy testimonies all:
Lord, to me understanding give,
and ever live I shall.

K O P H.

The 19th Part.

- 145 With my whole heart I cry'd, Lord hear;
I will thy word obey.
- 146 I cry'd to thee, save me, and I will keep thy laws alway.
- 147 I of the morning did prevent.
the dawning, and did cry
For all mine expectation did on thy word rely.

- 148 Mine eyes did timeously prevent the watches of the night,
That in thy word, with careful mind;
then meditate I might.
- 149 After thy loving kindness hear my voice that calls on thee:
According to thy judgment, Lord,
revive and quicken me.
- 150 Who follow mischief they draw nigh;
they from thy laws are far.
- 151 But thou art near, Lord; most firm truth,
all thy commandments are.
- 152 As for thy testimonies all of old this have I try'd, That thou hast surely founded them for ever to abide.

R E S H.

The 20th Part.

- 153 Consider mine affliction,
in safety do me set:
Deliver me, O Lord, for I
thy law do not forget.
- 154 After thy word revive thou me,
save me and plead my cause.
- 155 Salvation is from sinners far,
for they seek not thy laws.
- 156 O Lord, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be:
According to thy judgments just revive and quicken me.
- 157 My persecutors many are,
and foes that do combine:
Yet from thy testimonies pure
my heart doth not decline.
- 158 I saw transgressors, and was griev'd:
for they keep not thy word.
- 159 See how I love thy law! as thou art kind, me quicken, Lord,
- 160 From the beginning all thy word hath been most true and sure;
Thy right'ous judgments ev'ry one for evermore endure.

S C H I N.

The 21st Part.

- 161 Princes have persecuted me,
although no cause they saw:
But still of thy most holy word
my heart doth stand in awe.
- 162 I at thy word rejoice, as one of spoil that finds great store,
- 163 Thy law I love, but lying all
I hate and do abhor.
- 164 Sev'n times a day it is my care to give true praise to thee:
Because of all thy judgments, Lord, which right'ous ever be.
- 165 Great peace have they who love thy law, offence they shall have none.
- 166 I hop'd for thy salvation, Lord, and thy commands have done.
- 167 My soul thy testimonies pure observed carefully:
On them my heart is set, and them
I love exceedingly.

P S A L M S CXX, CXXI, CXXII, CXXIII, CXXIV.

168 Thy testimonies and thy laws
I kept with special care ;
For all my works, and ways each one,
before thee open are.

T A U.

The 22d Part.

169 O let my earnest pray'r and cry
come near before thee, Lord ;
Give understanding unto me,
according to thy word.

170 Let my request before thee come :
after thy word me free.

171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught thy laws to me.

172 My tongue of thy most blessed word shall speak, and it confesses:
Because all thy commandments are perfect righteousness.

173 Let thy strong hand make help to me:
thy precepts are my choice.

174 I long'd for thy salvation, Lord, and in thy law rejoice.

175 O let my soul live, and it shall give praises unto thee:
And let thy judgments gracious be helpful unto me.

176 I like a lost sheep went astray, thy servant seek, and find:
For thy commands I suffer'd not to slip out of my mind.

P S A L M CXX.

1 IN my distress to God I cry'd, and he gave ear to me.

2 From lying lips, and guileful tongue,
O Lord, my soul set free.

3 What shall be giv'n thee? or what shall be done to thee, false tongue?

4 Ev'n burning coals of juniper, sharp arrows of the strong.

5 Wo's me, that I in Meshech am a sojourner so long ;
That I in tabernacles dwell to Kedar that belong.

6 My soul with him that hateth peace hath long a dweller been.

7 I am for peace: but when I speak for battle they are keen.

P S A L M CXXI.

1 ITo the hills will lift mine eyes,
from whence doth come mine aid,
2 My safety cometh from the Lord, who heav'n and earth hath made.

3 Thy foot he'll not let slide, nor will he slumber that thee keeps.

4 Behold, he that keeps Israel,
he slumbers not, nor sleeps.

5 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy shade on thy right hand doth stay.

6 The moon by night thee shall not smite,
nor yet the sun by day.

7 The Lord shall keep thy soul, he shall preserve thee from all ill.

8 Henceforth thy going out and in God keep for ever will.

P S A L M CXXII.

1 IJoy'd, when to the house of God,
Go up, they said to me.

2 Jerusalem, within thy gates our feet shall standing be.

3 Jerus'lem as a city is compactly built together :

4 Unto that place the tribes go up,
the tribes of God go thither.

To Isra'l's testimony, there :
to God's name thanks to pay.

5 For thrones of judgment, ev'n the thrones, of David's house there stay.

6 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity :
Let them that love thee, and thy peace,
have still prosperity.

7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain,
And ever may thy palaces prosperity retain.

8 Now, for my friends, and brethrens sakes,
Peace be in thee, I'll say,

9 And for the house of God our Lord,
I'll seek thy good alway.

P S A L M CXXIII.

1 O Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns,
I lift mine eyes to thee.

2 Behold, as servant's eyes do look their master's hand to see,
As hand-maid's eyes her mistress hand,
so do our eyes attend
Upon the Lord our God, until to us he mercy send.

3 O Lord, be gracious to us, unto us gracious be :
Because replenish'd with contempt exceedingly are we.

4 Our soul is fill'd with scorn of those that at their ease abide,
And with the insolent contempt of those that swell in pride.

P S A L M CXXIV.

1 HAd not the Lord been on our side,
may Israel now say :

2 Had not the Lord been on our side,
when men rose us to slay :

3 They had us swallow'd quick, when as their wrath 'gainst us did flame :

4 Waters had cover'd us, our soul had sunk beneath the stream.

5 Then had the waters, swelling high over our soul made way.

6 Blest be the Lord, who to their teeth us gave not for a prey,

- 7 Our soul's escaped, as a bird
out of the fowler's snare:
The snare asunder broken is,
and we escaped are.
- 8 Our sure and all-sufficient help is in J E H O V A H 's name:
His name who did the heav'n create,
and who the earth did frame.

Another of the same.

- 1 NOW Israel
may say and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd:
- 2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd, When cruel men
against us furiously
Rose up in wrath,
to make of us their prey.
- 3 Then certainly
they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem;
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem:
- 4 And as fierce floods
before them all things down,
So had they brought our soul to death quite down.
- 5 The raging streams,
with their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
o'erwhelmed in the deep:
- 6 But blest be God,
who doth us safely keep,
And hath not given us for a living prey Unto their teeth,
and bloody cruelty.
- 7 Ev'n as a bird
out of the fowler's snare Escapes away,
so is our soul set free;
Broke are their nets,
and thus escaped we.
- 8 Therefore our help
is in the Lord's great name, Who heav'n and earth
by his great power did frame.

P S A L M CXXV.

- 1 THEY in the Lord that firmly trust
shall be like Zion hill,
Which at no time can be remov'd;
but standeth ever still.
- 2 A round about Jerusalem
the mountains stand alway,
The Lord his folk doth compass so from henceforth and for ay.
- 3 For ill mens rod upon the lot of just men shall not ly:
Lest righteous men stretch forth their hands unto iniquity.

- 4 Do thou to all those that be good thy goodness, Lord, impart, And do thou good to those that are upright within their heart.
- 5 But as for such as turn aside
after their crooked way,
God shall lead forth with wicked men:
on Isra'el peace shall stay.

P S A L M CXXVI.

- 1 WHEN Zion's bondage God turn'd back as men that dream'd were we.
- 2 Then fill'd with laughter was our mouth,
our tongue with melody:
They 'mong the heathen said, The Lord great things for them hath wrought.
- 3 The Lord hath done great things for us, whence joy to us is brought.
- 4 As streams of water in the south
our bondage, Lord, recal.
- 5 Who sow in tears, a reaping time of joy enjoy they shall.
- 6 That man who, bearing precious seed,
in going forth doth mourn,
He doubtless, bringing back his sheaves, rejoicing shall return.

P S A L M CXXVII.

- 1 EXCEPT the Lord do build the house,
the builders lose their pain:
Except the Lord the city keep,
the watchmen watch in vain.
- 2 'Tis vain for you to rise betimes or late from rest to keep,
To feed on sorrows bread: so gives he his beloved sleep.
- 3 Lo children are God's heritage,
the womb's fruit his reward.
- 4 The sons of youth as arrows are,
for strong mens hands prepar'd.
- 5 O happy is the man that hath his quiver fill'd with those;
They unshamed in the gate shall speak unto their foes.

P S A L M CXXVIII.

- 1 Blest is each one that fears the Lord,
and walketh in his ways.
- 2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat, and happy be always.
- 3 Thy wife shall as a fruitful vine,
by thy house-sides be found:
Thy children like to olive-plants about thy table round.
- 4 Behold, the man that fears the Lord,
thus blessed shall he be.
- 5 The Lord shall out of Zion give his blessing unto thee:
Thou shalt Jerus'lem's good behold, whilst thou on earth dost dwell.
- 6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
and peace on Israel.

P S A L M CXXIX

- 1 Oft did they vex me from my youth,
 may Isra'l now declare :
- 2 Oft did they vex me from my youth,
 yet not victorious were.
- 3 The plowmen plow'd upon my back,
 they long their furrows crew.
- 4 The righteous Lord did cut the cords of the ungodly crew.
- 5 Let Zion's haters all be turn'd back with confusion,
- 6 As grass on houses-tops be they,
 which fades ere it be grown :
- 7 Whereof enough to fill his hand
 the mower cannot find ;
 Nor can the man his bosom fill,
 whose work is sheaves to bind.
- 8 Neither say they who do go by,
 God's blessing on you rest :
 We in the name of God, the Lord,
 do wish you to be blest.

P S A L M CXXX.

- 1 Lord, from the depths to thee I cry'd,
 My voice, Lord, do thou hear :
- 2 Unto my supplication, voice give an attentive ear.
- 3 Lord, who shall stand, if thou, O Lord,
 shou'd'st mark iniquity ?
- 4 But yet with thee forgiveness is,
 that fear'd thou mayest be.
- 5 I wait for God, my soul doth wait,
 my hope is in his word.
- 6 More than they that for morning watch,
 my soul waits for the Lord :
 I say more than they that do watch
 the morning light to see.
- 7 Let Israel hope in the Lord, for with him mercies be ;
- And plenteous redemption is ever found with him.
- 8 And from all his iniquities
 he Isra'l shall redeem.

P S A L M CXXXI.

- 1 MY heart not haughty is, O Lord, mine eyes not lofty be ;
 Nor do I deal in matters great,
 or things too high for me.
- 2 I surely have myself behav'd with quiet spirit and mild,
 As child of mother wean'd: my soul is like a weaned child.
- 3 Upon the Lord let all the hope of Israel rely,
 Ev'n from the time that present is unto eternity.

P S A L M CXXXII.

- 1 David, and his afflictions all,
 Lord, do thou think upon :
- 2 How unto God he sware, and vow'd to Jacob's mighty One.

- 3 I will not come within my house,
 nor rest in bed at all :
- 4 Nor shall mine eyes take any sleep, nor eye-lids slumber shall ;
- 5 Till for the Lord a place I find,
 where he may make abode :
 A place of habitation
 for Jacob's mighty God.
- 6 Lo, at the place of Ephratah of it we understood :
 And we did find it in the fields,
 and city of the wood.

- 7 We'll go into his tabernacles,
 and at his footstool bow.
- 8 Arise, O Lord, into thy rest,
 th' ark of thy strength, and thou.
- 9 O let thy priests be clothed, Lord, with truth and righteousness :
 And let all those that are thy saints shout loud for joyfulness.
- 10 For thine own servant David's sake,
 do not deny thy grace ;
 Nor of thine own anointed one turn thou away the face.
- 11 The Lord in truth to David sware,
 he will not turn from it,
 I of thy body's fruit will make upon thy throne to sit.
- 12 My covenant if thy sons will keep,
 and laws to them made known,
 Their children then shall also sit for ever on thy throne.
- 13 For God of Zion hath made choice ;
 there he desires to dwell.
- 14 This is my rest, here still I'll stay,
 for I do like it well.
- 15 Her food I'll greatly bless, her poor with bread will satisfy.
- 16 Her priests I'll clothe with health, her shall shout forth joyfully. [saints]
- 17 And there will I make David's horn to bud forth pleasantly :
 For him that mine anointed is a lamp ordain'd have I.
- 18 As with a garment I will clothe, with shame his enemies all :
 But yet the crown that he doth wear upon him flourish shall.

P S A L M CXXXIII.

- 1 Behold, how good a thing it is,
 and how becoming well, Together such as brethren are in unity to dwell.
- 2 Like precious ointment on the head,
 that down the beard did flow, Ev'n Aaron's beard, and to the skirts did of his garments go.
- 3 As Hermon's dew, the dew that doth on Zion hills descend :
 For there the blessing God commands, life that shall never end.

P S A L M CXXXIV.

- 1 BEhold, bless ye the Lord, all ye that his attendants are,
Ev'n you that in God's temple be,
and praise him nightly there.
- 2 Your hands within God's holy place lift up, and praise his name.
- 3 From Zion hill the Lord thee bless, that heaven and earth did frame.

P S A L M CXXXV.

- 1 Praise ye the Lord, the Lord's name
his servants, praise ye God. [praise,
- 2 Who stand in God's house, in the courts of our God make abode.
- 3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
unto him praises sing:
Sing praises to his name, because it is a pleasant thing.
- 4 For Jacob to himself the Lord did choofe of his good pleasure,
And he hath chosen Israel
for his peculiar treasure,
- 5 Because I know assuredly
the Lord is very great,
And that our Lord above all gods
in glory hath his seat.
- 6 What things soever pleas'd the Lord, that in the heav'n did he,
And in the earth, the seas, and all the places deep that be.
- 7 He from the ends of earth doth make the vapours to ascend,
With rain he lightnings makes, and wind doth from his treasures send.
- 8 Egypt's first-born from man to beast who smote. Strange tokens he On Pharaoh and his servants sent,
Egypt, in midst of thee.
- 9 He smote great nations, slew great kings:
Sihon of Heshbon king,
And Og of Bashan, and to nought did Canaan's kingdoms bring.
- 12 And for a wealthy heritage their pleasant land he gave,
An heritage which Israel his chosen folk should have.
- 13 Thy name, O Lord, shall still endure, and thy memorial
With honour shall continu'd be
to generations all.
- 14 For why, the right'ous God will judge
his people right'ously, Concerning those that do him serve,
himself repent will he.
- 15 The idols of the nations of silver are and gold,
And by the hands of men is made their fashion and mould.
- 16 Mouths have they, but they do not speak;
eyes, but they do not see:
- 17 Ears have they, but hear not, and in their mouths no breathing be.

- 18 Their makers are like them, so are all that on them rely.
- 19 O Isra'l's house, bless God, bless God, O Aaron's family.
- 20 O bless the Lord, of Levi's house
ye who his servants are;
And bless the holy name of God,
all ye the Lord that fear.
- 21 And blessed be the Lord our God,
from Zion's holy hill,
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem.
The Lord, O praise ye still.

for mercy hath he ever.
- 2 Thanks to the God of gods give ye;
for his grace faileth never.
- 3 Thanks give the Lord of lords unto:
for mercy hath he ever.
- 4 Who only wonders great can do:
for his grace faileth never.
- 5 Who by his wisdom made heav'ns high:
for mercy hath he ever.
- 6 Who stretch'd the earth above the sea:
for his grace faileth never.
- 7 To him that made the great lights shine:
for mercy hath he ever.
- 8 The sun to rule till day decline:
for his grace faileth never.
- 9 The moon and stars to rule by night:
for mercy hath he ever.
- 10 Who Egypt's first-born kill'd outright:
for his grace faileth never.
- 11 And Isra'l brought from Egypt land:
for mercy hath he ever. [hand;
- 12 With stretch'd out arm, and with strong
for his grace faileth never.
- 13 By whom the Red sea parted was:
for mercy hath he ever.
- 14 And through its midst made Isra'l pass:
for his grace faileth never.
- 15 But Pharaoh and his host did drown:
for mercy hath he ever.
- 16 Who through the desert led his own:
for his grace faileth never.
- 17 To him great kings who overthrew:
for mercy he hath ever.
- 18 Yea, famous kings in battle slew;
for his grace faileth never.
- 19 Ev'n Sihon king of Amorites:
for he hath mercy ever.
- 20 And Og the king of Bashanites:
for his grace faileth never.
- 21 Their land in heritage to have:
(for mercy hath he ever,)
- 22 His servant Isra'l right he gave:
for his grace faileth never.
- 23 In our low state who on us thought:
for he hath mercy ever.
- 24 And from our foes our freedom wrought:
for his grace faileth never.

P S A L M CXXXVII.

- 25 Who doth all flesh with food relieve :
for he hath mercy ever.
26 Thanks to the God of heaven give:
for his grace faileth never.

Another of the same.

- 1 Praise God, for he is kind,
His mercy lasts for ay.
2 Give thanks with heart and mind
To God of gods alway:
For certainly
His mercies dure
Most firm and sure Eternally.
3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies still endure.
4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great pow'r:
For certainly, &c.
5 Which God omnipotent,
By might and wisdom high,
The heav'n and firmament
Did frame, as we may see:
For certainly, &c.
6 To him who did out-stretch
This earth so great and wide,
Above the waters reach,
Making it to abide:
For certainly, &c.
7 Great lights he made to be,
For his grace lasteth ay.
8 Such as the sun we see.
To rule the lightfome day:
For certainly, &c.
9 Also the moon so clear.
Which shineth in our sight,
The stars that do appear,
To guide the darkfome night:
For certainly, &c.
10 To him that Egypt smote,
Who did his message scorn,
And in his anger hot
Did kill all their first-born:
For certainly, &c.
11 Thence Isra'l out he brought,
For his grace lasteth ever.
12 With a strong hand he wrought,
And stretch'd out arm deliver;
For certainly, &c.
13 The sea he cut in two:
For his grace lasteth still;
14 And through its midst to go
Made his own Israel:
For certainly, &c.
15 But overwhelm'd and lost
Was proud king Pharaoh,
With all his mighty host,
And chariots there also:
For certainly, &c.

- 16 To him who pow'rfully
His chosen people led;
Ev'n through the desert dry,
And in that place them fed:
For certainly, &c.
17 To him great kings who smote:
For his grace hath no bound,
18 Who slew, and spared not Kings famous and renown'd:
For certainly, &c.
19 Sihon th' Amorites king:
For his grace lasteth ever,
20 Og also who did reign
The land of Bashan over:
For certainly, &c.
21 Their land by lot he gave:
For his grace faileth never,
22 That Isra'l might it have
In heritage for ever:
For certainly, &c.
23 Who hath remembered
Us in our low estate:
24 And us delivered
From foes which did us hate:
For certainly, &c.
25 Who to all flesh gives food:
For his grace faileth never.
26 Give thanks to God most good,
The God of heav'n for ever:
For certainly, &c.

- 1 By Babel's streams we sat and wept,
When Zion we thought on.
2 In midst thereof we hang'd our harps
The willow-trees upon.
3 For there a song required they,
who did us captive bring;
Our spoilers call'd for mirth, and said,
A song of Zion sing.
4 O how the Lord's song shall we sing within a foreign land?
5 If thee J-rus'lem I forget, skill part from my right hand.
6 My tongue to my mouth's roof let cleave
if I do thee forget, Jerusalem, and thee above
my chief joy do not let.
7 Remember Edom's children, Lord, who in Jerus'lem's day,
Ev'n unto its foundation
Raze, raze it quite, did say.
8 O daughter thou of Babylon, near to destru&tion:
Blest shall he be that thee rewards,
as thou to us hast done.
9 Yea, happy surely shall he be,
thy tender little ones Who shall lay hold upon, and them shall dash against the stones.

P S A L M CXXXVIII.

- 1 Thee will I praise with all my heart,
I will sing praise to thee
2 Before the gods: And worship will toward thy sanctuary.
I'll praise thy name, ev'n for thy truth,
and kindness of thy love:
For thou thy word hast magnify'd all thy great name above.
- 3 Thou didst me answer in the day
when I to thee did cry:
And thou my fainting soul with strength
didst strengthen inwardly.
- 4 All kings upon the earth that are shall give thee praise, O Lord:
When as they from thy mouth shall hear thy true and faithful word.
- 5 Yea, in the righteous ways of God with gladness they shall sing:
For great's the glory of the Lord,
who doth for ever reign.
- 6 Though God be high, yet he respects
all those that lowly be;
Wh-reas the proud and lofty ones afar off knoweth he.
- 7 Though I in midst of trouble walk,
I life from thee shall have: [hand,
'Gainst my foes wrath thou'lt stretch thine thy right hand shall me save.
- 8 Surely that which concerneth me
the Lord will perfect make;
Lord, still thy mercy lasts, do not thine own hands works forsake.

P S A L M CXXXIX. [known.

- 1 O Lord, thou hast me search'd, and 2 Thou know'ld my sitting down,
And rising up; yea all my thoughts afar to thee are known.
- 3 My footsteps and my lying down, thou compassed always:
Thou also most entirely art acquaint with all my ways.
- 4 For in my tongue, b-fore I speak, not any word can be,
But altogether, lo, O Lord,
it is well known to thee.
- 5 Behind, before, thou hast b-fet,
and laid on me thine hand.
- 6 Such knowledge is too strange for me, too high to understand.
- 7 From thy Spirit whither shall I go?
or from thy presence fly?
- 8 Ascend I heav'n, lo, thou art there:
there, if in hell I ly.
- 9 Take I the morning-wings, and dwell
in utmost parts of sea;
- 10 Ev'n there, Lord, shall thy hand me lead,
thy right hand hold shall me.
- 11 If I do say, That darkness shall me cover from thy sight.
Then surely shall the very night;
about me be as light.

- 12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darkness and the light are both alike away.
- 13 For thou possessedst haft my reins,
and thou hast cover'd me,
When I within my mothers womb inclosed was by thee.
- 14 Thee will I praise, for fearfully and strangely made I am;
Thy works are marvellous, and right well my soul doth know the same.
- 15 My substance was not hid from thee, when as in secret I
Was made; and in earth's lowest parts was wrought most curiously.
- 16 Thine eyes my substance did behold,
yet being unperfect:
And in the volume of thy book
my members all were writ;
Which after in continuance were fashion'd ev'ry one,
When as they yet all shapeless were,
and of them there was none.
- 17 How precious also are thy thoughts,
O gracious God, to me!
And in their sum: how passing great and numberless they be!
- 18 If I should count them, than the sand
they more in number be;
What time soever I awake,
I ever am with thee.
- 19 Thou, Lord, wilt sure the wicked slay:
hence from me bloody men.
- 20 Thy foes against thee loudly speak, and take thy name in vain.
- 21 Do not I hate all those, O Lord, that hatred bear to thee?
With those that up against thee rise can I but grieved be?
- 22 With perfect hatred them I hate,
my foes I them do hold.
- 23 Search me, O God, and know my heart,
try me, my thoughts unfold:
- 24 And see if any wicked way
there be at all in me;
And in thine everlasting way
to me a leader be.

P S A L M CXL.

- 1 Lord, from the ill and froward man
give me deliverance,
And do thou safe preserve me from the man of violence:
- 2 Who in their heart mischievous things are meditating ever:
And they for war assembled are continually together.
- 3 Much like unto a serpent's tongue, their tongues they sharp do make:
And underneath their lips there lies the poison of a snake.

P S A L M S CXXI, CXXII, CXXIII.

- 4 Lord, keep me from the wicked's hands,
from vilest men me save;
Who utterly to overthrow my goings purpos'd have.
- 5 The proud for me a snare have hid,
and cords, yea they a net
Have by the way-side for me spread,
they grins for me have set.
- 6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art
my God: unto the cry
Of all my supplications,
Lord, do thine ear apply.
- 7 O God the Lord, who art the strength
of my salvation;
A cov'ring in the day of war
my head thou hast put on.
- 8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord,
his wishes, do not grant,
Nor further thou his ill device,
lest they themselves should vaunt.
- 9 As for the head and chief of those about that compass me, Ev'n by the mischief of their lips
let thou them cover'd be.
- 10 Let burning coals upon them fall,
them throw in fiery flame,
And in deep pits, that they no more may rise out of the fame.
- 11 Let not an evil speaker be on earth established:
Mischief shall hunt the vilest man till he be ruined.
- 12 I know God will th' afflicteds cause maintain, and poor mens right.
- 13 Surely the just shall praise thy name,
th' upright dwell in thy sight.
- 6 When as their judges down shall be in stony places cast:
Then shall they hear my words, for they shall sweet be to their taste.
- 7 About the grave's devouring mouth
our bones are scatter'd round,
As wood, which men do cut and cleave lies scatter'd on the ground.
- 8 But unto thee, O God the Lord, mine eyes uplifted be;
My soul do not leave destitute,
my trust is set on thee.
- 9 Lord, keep me safely from the snare which they for me prepare.
And from the subtil grins of them that wicked workers are.
- 10 Let workers of iniquity into their own nets fall, Whilst I do by thine help escape
the danger of them all.

P S A L M CXXII.

- 1 I With my voice cry'd to the Lord,
with it made my request:
2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him
my trouble I express.
- 3 When in me was o'erwhelm'd my spirit,
then well thou knew'st my way:
Where I did walk, a snare for me
they privily did lay.
- 4 I look'd on my right hand, and view'd, but none to know me were:
All refuge failed me, no man did for my soul take care.
- 5 I cry'd to thee, I said, Thou art
my refuge, Lord, alone,
And in the land of those that live thou art my portion.
- 6 Because I am brought very low,
attend unto my cry;
Me from my persecutors save,
who stronger are than I.
- 7 From prison bring my soul, that I thy name may glorify:
The just shall compass me, when thou with me deal'st bounteously.

P S A L M CXXI.

- 1 O Lord, I unto thee do cry,
do thou make haste to me,
And give an ear unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.
- 2 As incense let my pray'r be directed in thine eyes;
And th' uplifting of my hands
as the ev'ning sacrifice.
- 3 Set, Lord, a watch before my mouth;
keep of my lips the door.
- 4 My heart incline thou not unto the ills I should abhor,
To practise wicked works with men
that work iniquity:
And with their delicacies my taste
let me not satisfy.

P S A L M CXXIII.

- 1 Lord, hear my pray'r, attend my suits:
and in thy faithfulnes
Give thou an answer unto me,
and in thy righteousness.
- 2 Thy servant also bring thou not in judgment to be try'd:
Because no living man can be in thy sight justify'd.
- 3 For th' enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground down tread:
In darkness he hath made me dwell,
as who have long been dead.
- 4 My spirit is therefore overwhelm'd in me perplexedly;
Within me is my very heart amazed wondrously.

- 5 I call to mind the days of old,
to meditate I use
On all thy works : upon the deeds
I of thy hands do muse.
- 6 My hands to thee I stretch : my soul thirsts as dry land for thee.
- 7 Haste, Lord, to hear, my spirit fails :
hide not thy face from me.
- Lest like to them I do become,
that go down to the dust.
- 8 At morn let me thy kindness hear,
for in thee do I trust :
Teach me the way that I should walk,
I lift my soul to thee.
- 9 Lord, free me from my foes, I flee to thee to cover me.
- 10 Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct :
Thy Spirit is good, me to the land of uprightness conduct.
- 11 Revive and quicken me, O Lord,
ev'n for thine own name's sake ;
And do thou, for thy right'ousness, my soul from trouble take.
- 12 And of thy mercy slay my foes ;
let all destroyed be
That do afflict my soul, for I a servant am to thee.

Another of the same.

- 1 OH, hear my pray'r, Lord,
And unto my desire
To bow thine ear accord,
I humbly thee require :
And in thy faithfulness Unto me answer make,
And in thy right'ousness Upon me pity take.
- 2 In judgment enter not
With me thy servant poor ;
For why, this well I wot,
No sinner can endure
The sight of thee, O God,
If thou his deeds shalt try,
He dare make none abode Himself to justify.
- 3 Behold, the cruel foe
Me persecutes with spite,
My soul to overthrow :
Yea, he my life down quite Unto the ground hath smote,
And made me dwell full low
In darkness, as forgot,
Or men dead long ago.
- 4 Therefore, my spirit much vex'd O'erwhelm'd is me within :
My heart right sore perplex'd
And desolate hath been.
- 5 Yet I do call to mind
What ancient days record,
Thy works of ev'ry kind
I think upon, O Lord.

- 6 Lo, I do stretch my hands
To thee my help alone,
For thou well understands
All my complaint and moan :
My thirsting soul desires,
And longeth after thee,
As thirsty ground requires
With rain refresh'd to be.

- 7 Lord, let my pray'r prevail,
To answer it make speed,
For lo, my spirit doth fail :
Hide not thy face in need :
Lest I be like to those,
That do in darkness sit,
Or him that downward goes Into the dreadful pit.
- 8 Because I trust in thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving kindness free,
When morning doth appear:
Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be,
For why, my soul on high
I do lift up to thee.
- 9 From my fierce enemy
In safety do me guide,
Because I flee to thee,
Lord, that thou may'st me hide.
- 10 My God alone art thou,
Teach me thy right'ousness :
Thy spirit's good, lead me to
The land of uprightness.
- 11 O Lord, for thy name's sake,
Be pleas'd to quicken me :
And for thy truth forth take My soul from misery.
- 12 And of thy grace destroy
My foes, and put to thame
All who my soul annoy ;
For I thy servant am.

P S A L M CXLIV.

- 1 OBlessed ever be the Lord, who is my strength and might,
Who doth instruct my hands to war,
my fingers teach to fight.
- 2 My goodness, fortress, my high tow'r,
deliverer, and shield,
In whom I trust : who under me
my people makes to yield.
- 3 Lord, what is man, that thou of him
dost so much knowledge take ?
Or son of man, that thou of him so great account dost make ?
- 4 Man is like vanity : his days as shadows pass away. [thou
- 5 Lord, bow thy heav'ns, come down, touch the hills, and smoke shall they.
- 6 Cast forth thy lightning, scatter them :
thine arrows shoot, them rout.
- 7 Thine hand send from above, me save, from great depths draw me out : And

- And from the hand of children strange :
 Whose mouth speaks vanity :
 And their right hand is a right hand,
 that works deceitfully.
- A new song I to thee will sing,
 Lord, on a psaltery,
 I on a ten-string'd instrument will praises sing to thee.
- Ev'n he it is, that unto kings salvation doth send :
 Who his own servant David doth from hurtful sword defend.
- O free me from strange childrens hand,
 whose mouth speaks vanity ;
 And their right hand a right hand is,
 that works deceitfully.
- That as the plants our sons may be in youth grown up that are ;
 Our daughters like to corner-stones,
 carv'd like a palace fair.
- That to afford all kind of store,
 our garners may be fill'd ;
 That our sheep thousands, in our streets
 ten thousands they may yield.
- That strong our oxen be for work, that no in-breaking be,
 Nor going out, and that our streets may from complaints be free.
- Those people blessed are, who be in such a case as this :
 Yea, blessed all those people are,
 whose God JEHOVAH is.

P S A L M CXLV.

- I 'll thee extol, my God, O king,
 I'll bless they name always.
- Thee will I bless, each day, and will thy name for ever praise.
- Great is the Lord, much to be prais'd, his greatness search exceeds.
- Race unto race shall praise thy works,
 and shew thy mighty deeds.
- I of thy glorious majesty
 the honour will record,
 I'll speak of all thy mighty works,
 which wondrous are, O Lord.
- Men of thine acts the might shall show, thine acts that dreadful are :
 And I, thy glory to advance,
 thy greatness will declare.
- The mem'ry of thy goodness great they largely shall express,
 With songs of praise they shall extol thy perfect right'ousness.
- The Lord is very gracious,
 in him compassions flow,
 In mercy he is very great,
 and is to anger slow.
- The Lord JEHOVAH unto all his goodness doth declare :
 And over all his other works
 his tender mercies are.

- 10 Thee all thy works shall praise, O Lord, and thee thy saints shall bless.
- 11 They shall thy kingdom's glory show,
 thy pow'r by speech express.
- 12 To make the sons of men to know his acts done mightily,
 And of his kingdom th' excellent and glorious majesty.
- 13 Thy kingdom shall for ever stand,
 thy reign through ages all.
- 14 God raiseth all that are bow'd down,
 upholdeth all that fall.
- 15 The eyes of all things wait on thee,
 the giver of all good,
 And thou in time convenient bestows on them their food.
- 16 Thine hand thou open'st lib'rally, and of thy bounty gives Enough to satisfy the need of ev'ry thing that lives.
- 17 The Lord is just in all his ways,
 holy in his works all.
- 18 God's near to all that call on him,
 in truth that on him call.
- 19 He will accomplish the desire of those that do him fear ;
 He also will deliver them,
 and he their cry will hear.
- 20 The Lord preserves all who him love,
 that nought can them annoy :
 But he all those that wicked are will utterly destroy.
- 21 My mouth the praises of the Lord to publish cease shall never :
 Let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and for ever.

Another of the same.

- O Lord, thou art my God and King,
 Thee will I magnify and praise,
 I will thee bless, and gladly sing Unto thy holy name always.
- 2 Each day I rise I will thee bless,
 And praise thy name time without end.
- 3 Much to be prais'd, and great God is,
 His greatness none can comprehend.
- 4 Race shall thy works praise unto race,
 The mighty acts show, done by thee.
- 5 I will speak of the glorious grace,
 And honour of thy majesty ;
 Thy wondrous works I will record.
- 6 By men the might shall be extol'd
 Of all thy dreadful acts, O Lord :
 And I thy greatness will unfold.
- 7 They utter shall abundantly
 The mem'ry of thy goodness great,
 And shall sing praises cheerfully,
 Whilst they thy right'ousness relate.
- 8 The Lord our God is gracious, Compassionate is he also,
 In mercy he is plenteous,
 But unto wrath and anger slow.

- 9 Good unto all men is the Lord :
O'er all his works his mercy is.
- 10 Thy works all praise to thee afford,
Thy saints, O Lord, thy name shall bless.
- 11 The glory of thy kingdom show Shall they, and of thy power tell.
- 12 That so mens sons his deeds may know,
His kingdom's grace that doth excel.
- 13 Thy kingdom hath none end at all,
It doth through ages all remain.
- 14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
The cast down raiseth up again.
- 15 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend,
And on thee wait that here do live :
And thou in season due dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.
- 16 Yea, thou thine hand dost open wide,
And ev'ry thing dost satisfy
That lives, and doth on earth abide,
Of thy great liberality.
- 17 The Lord is just in his ways all,
And holy in his works each one.
- 18 He's near to all that on him call,
Who call in truth on him alone.
- 19 God will the just desire fulfil
Of such as do him fear and dread :
Their cry regard, and hear he will,
And save them in the time of need.
- 20 The Lord preserves all, more and less,
That bear to him a loving heart :
But workers all of wickedness
Destroy will he, and clean subvert.
- 21 Therefore my mouth and lips I'll frame
To speak the praises of the Lord :
To magnify his holy Name
For ever let all flesh accord.

P S A L M CXLVI.

- 1 Praise God. The Lord praise, O my soul.
- 2 I'll praise God while I live :
While I have being, to my God in songs I'll praises give.
- 3 Trust not in princes, nor man's son
in whom there is no stay :
- 4 His breath departs, to's earth he turns ;
that day his thoughts decay.
- 5 O happy is that man, and blest, whom Jacob's God doth aid, Whose hope upon the Lord doth rest,
and on his God is staid :
- 6 Who made the earth, and heavens high,
who made the swelling deep,
And all that is within the same :
who truth doth ever keep :
- 7 Who righteous judgment executes for those oppress'd that be.
Who to the hungry giveth food :
God sets the prisoners free.
- 8 The Lord doth give the blind their sight ;
the bowed down doth raise :
The Lord doth dearly love all those that walk in upright ways.

- 9 The stranger's shield, the widow's stay,
the orphan's help is he :
But yet by him the wicked's way turn'd upside down shall be.
- 10 The Lord shall reign for evermore, thy God, O Zion, he Reigns to all generations.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L M CXLVII.

- 1 Praise ye the Lord : for it is good praise to our God to sing ;
For it is pleasant, and to praise
it is a comely thing.
- 2 God doth build up Jerusalem :
and he it is alone
That the dispers'd of Israel doth gather into one.
- 3 Those that are broken in their hearts and grieved in their minds,
He healeth, and their painful wounds
he tenderly up-binds.
- 4 He counts the number of the stars :
he names them ev'ry one.
- 5 Great is our Lord, and of great pow'r :
his wisdom search can none.
- 6 The Lord lifts up the meek : and casts the wicked to the ground.
- 7 Sing to the Lord, and give him thanks :
on harp his praises sound.
- 8 Who covereth the heav'n with clouds, who for the earth below
Prepareth rain, who maketh grafs upon the mountains grow.
- 9 He gives the beast his food, he feeds
the ravens young that cry.
- 10 His pleasure not in horse's strength, nor in man's legs doth lie.
- 11 But in all those that do him fear,
the Lord doth pleasure take,
In those that to his mercy do by hope themselves betake.
- 12 The Lord praise, O Jerusalem :
Zion, thy God confess.
- 13 For thy gates bars he maketh strong :
thy thons in thee doth bless.
- 14 He in thy borders maketh peace :
with fine wheat filleth thee.
- 15 He sends forth his command on earth,
his word runs speedily.
- 16 Hoar frost, like ashes, scatt'reth he ;
like wool he snow doth give :
- 17 Like morsels casteth forth his ice :
who in its cold can live ?
- 18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again :
His winds he makes to blow, and then the waters flow amain.
- 19 The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth show ;
His statutes and his judgments he gives Israel to know.

P S A L M S CXLVIII, CXLIX.

0 To any nation never he such favour did afford ;
For they his judgments have not known.
O do ye praise the Lord.

P S A L M CXLVIII.

1 PRAISE God. From heavens, praise the in heights praise to him be. [Lord, 2 All ye his angels, praise ye him,
his hosts all, praise him ye.
3 O praise ye him, both sun and moon, praise him all stars of light. [floods 4 Ye heav'ns of heav'ns him praise, and above the heaven's height.
5 Let all the creatures praise the name of our almighty Lord :
For he commanded, and they were created by his word.
6 He also, for all times to come,
hath them establish'd sure :
He hath appointed them a law,
which ever shall endure.
7 Praise ye JEHOVAH from the earth, dragons, and ev'ry deep :
8 Fire, hail, snow, vapour, stormy wind, his word that fully keep.
9 All hills and mountains, fruitful trees,
and all ye cedars high.
10 Beasts, and all cattle, creeping things,
and all ye birds that fly.
11 Kings of the earth, all nations, princes, earth's judges all :
12 Both young men, yea, and maidens too, old men, and children small.
13 Let them God's name praise : for his name alone is excellent :
His glory reacheth far above
the earth and firmament.
14 His people's horn, the praise of all his saints exalteth he ;
Ev'n Isra'l's seed, a people near to him. The Lord praise ye.

Another of the same.

1 THE Lord of heav'n confess,
On high his glory raise.
2 Him let all angels bless.
Him all his armies praise.
3 Him glorify
Sun, moon, and stars :
4 Ye higher spheres,
And cloudy sky.
5 From God your beings are,
Him therefore famous make ;
You all created were,
When he the word but spake,
6 And from that place,
Where fix'd you be,
By his decree,
You cannot pass.

7 Praise God from earth below,
Ye dragons, and ye deeps :
8 Fire, hail, clouds, wind, and snow,
Whom in command he keeps.
9 Praise ye his name,
Hills great and small,
Trees low and tall :
10 Beasts wild and tame.
All things that creep or fly.
11 Ye kings, ye vulgar throng,
All princes mean or high.
12 Both men and virgins young,
Ev'n young and old 13 Exalt his name ;
For much his fame
Should be extol'd.

O let God's name be prais'd
Above both earth and sky :
14 For he his saints hath rais'd,
And set their horn on high ;
Ev'n those that be
Of Isra'l's race
Near to his grace.
The Lord praise ye.

P S A L M CXLIX.

1 PRAISE ye the Lord : unto him sing
a new song, and his praise
In the assembly of his saints in sweet psalms do ye raise.
2 Let Isra'l in his maker joy,
and to him praises sing :
Let all that Zion's children are be joyful in their King.
3 O let them unto his great name
give praises in the dance ;
Let them with timbrel and with harp in songs his praise advance.
4 For God doth pleasure take in those that his own people be :
And he with his salvation
the meek will beautify.
5 And in his glory excellent let all his saints rejoice :
Let them to him upon their beds aloud lift up their voice.
6 Let in their mouth aloft be rais'd
the high praise of the Lord,
And let them have, in their right hand,
a sharp two edged sword :
7 To execute the vengeance due upon the heathen all.
And make deserved punishment
upon the people fall.
8 And ev'n with chains, as pris'ners, bind their kings that them command, Yea, and with iron fetters strong,
the nobles of their land.
9 On them the judgment to perform found written in his word :
This honour is to all his saints.
O do ye praise the Lord.

- 1 Praise ye the Lord. God's praise within his sanctuary raise :
 And to him in the firmament of his pow'r give ye praise.
 2 Because of all his mighty acts.
 with praise him magnify ;
 O praise him as he doth excel in glorious majesty.

- 3 Praise him with trumpet's sound ;
 praise
 with psaltery advance ;
 4 With timbrel, harp, string'd instruments,
 and organs in the dance.
 5 Praise him on cymbals loud, him praise on cymbals founding high.
 6 Let each thing breathing praise the Lord.
 Praise to the Lord give ye.
